

HTC 4211

Chapter 4211

the words fell, Pei Hu coughed and really brought his posture to the extreme.

After that, he smiled and said, "Do you still remember what the woman just said about attracting the enemy?"

"How can we not remember such a fool's strategy?"

"Yes, that woman was a little proud before, but I was slapped in the face, don't talk about it for a while, even for a lifetime, I will never forget it."

Everyone replied.

Hearing this, Pei Hu smiled: "Actually, from my standpoint, that woman's strategy is a good strategy."

After speaking, everyone was stunned. What does this mean?

The skill that everyone laughed at, why did it change abruptly in the mouth of the young master? !

Moreover, when he was just laughing, even Young Master himself was laughing happily, why did he turn his eyes...

"What? You are all very strange, aren't you?" Pei

Hu had a faint smile on his face: "So, I laughed just now, yes I take a normal stand, but now I praise this tactic, but it is from my personal stand."

"Because it's very simple, their seemingly stupid trick was actually used by myself."

"Actually, from the beginning, I knew that these two women's tricks were extremely stupid. But I was thinking, can we think of something really beneficial to us in this stupid trick?"

"What can you think of such a stupid trick?" Someone Doubt.

"Yeah, the son's meaning is to turn corruption into magic, but, what can this thing have that can be turned into magic?"

"Looking at what the young master means now, it is obvious that he has thought of a magical method."

"Haha, if this is the case, then our son is quite good. This kind of fool's tricks can also make flowers."

"I said earlier. Well, the Pei family should have been handed over to the young master for a long time, otherwise I believe it would not be what it is now."

"Yes, I also believe that the Pei family may have grown up long ago.

"Nodding in agreement, they are already thinking of a bright future.

"However, how did the young master turn corruption into magic?"

Some people couldn't help but ask, and they also pulled everyone's curiosity to a higher level.

Pei Hu smiled and said, "This is the fundamental reason why I asked you Pei Ma."

"Actually, when that stupid woman said she wanted to attract monsters, I thought it was silly, but when I think about it carefully, her so-called attraction, in fact, not only attracted the attention of monsters, but also attracted the attention of all of us, of course everyone here includes the men in black who besieged us." Pei Hu said.

"So, at that time, our son privately ordered Pei Ma to leave the city immediately, so as to take advantage of the fact that the attraction was diverted, he would not be aware of it. Well..." Pei Hu's entourage also laughed.

Pei Hu smiled proudly: "If my expectations are not bad, Pei Ma should have left the western mountains by now and rushed towards our western military town.

"The army is also the tiger lion among the tiger lions, if they came to support, wouldn't the crisis in our main city be solved?" After hearing this, someone suddenly realized and said excitedly.

"Yeah, yeah, because there are tigers and lions in Mengxue City, we didn't alert them when the monsters attacked the city. This is good. They just happen to be the best reinforcements to rescue us."

"Young Master Pei Miao, this step, haha, what does it mean to come back to life, this is it!"

"That's right, to be honest, under such a crisis, I forgot about Mengxuecheng. I didn't expect the young master to be so calm and calm, as expected of the demeanor of my future family owner."

"What is the future family owner, in my opinion, my son, that is the current family owner."

According to the rules, such a statement is a big deal. Can't help, but this group of people blurted out such words at this time, it is obvious that their determination to support Pei Hu has already reached the top.

In order to hug his thigh tightly, he can even ignore the rest.

Pei Hu was very happy, but he still waved his hand on the face: "Everyone has raised your love." After he finished speaking, Pei Hu turned around and looked under the city, where the monsters were still rushing towards the center, but I can't see what's going on with the two girls in the center. Maybe, they've become a pile of bones and are still being eaten.

Chapter 4212

"Report!" In the surrounding circle, Ming Yu also stared blankly at the center of the monster group.

In fact, when Ziqing entered, she did not have any mood swings. After all, she and Ziqing had no intersection.

But when she saw Amelia Su entering, under her cold expression, there was a slight throbbing in her hidden heart.

For about a second, she really wanted to help Amelia Su.

People are not plants, how can they be ruthless? Especially in that period of getting along, bit by bit will always be remembered in my heart.

It's just that reason is telling her that she can't do this.

"If there is a next life, Amelia Su, I will definitely be friends with you again." After she finished speaking, she looked up at the city in the distance: "You sacrifice yourself for them, but they are still laughing at you, but you can rest assured, I They will be slaughtered soon, and it can be considered to comfort your spirit in the sky

."

"Perhaps, I mean to use flowers to offer Buddha, or maybe fundamentally, it is not the result you want, but this is the only thing I can do. I did it for you." As the words fell, Ming Yu turned her eyes slightly.

At this moment, a black shadow quickly came to her side: "Report to Elder Shenlong, it seems that someone has escaped from the west side of the chaos."

Ming Yu frowned: "What?"

"It should be just now . When those two women were attracting the monster group, they sneaked out while we were not careful. Elder, what should we do?"

Ming Yu didn't speak, she had already sent everyone to kill the surrounding of the main city.

I was afraid that someone would break out to report the letter.

But she never imagined that she must be on guard, and she would lose her hoof at the most important juncture, leaving a small hole.

"Can you still catch up?" Ming Yu asked. "The other party's speed is extremely fast, and they should have been professionally trained. Our people actually discovered it very early and chased them all the way, but the more they chased

...the gap between the other party and us is getting farther."

Drink next to the subordinate: "Bring a map." The follower took the order and quickly presented the map.

"West..." Ming Yu looked at the map and quickly set his sights on the marking point of Mengxue City, a military town more than 300 kilometers away.

"More than 300 kilometers." Ming Yu frowned and thought seriously. If he took a tip and the army came here, it would take at least ten hours.

Although there are holes, they don't seem to be huge at the moment.

Don't panic!

However, it cannot be stable, because at least, once the reinforcements from the other side arrive, the situation of this battle will be completely reversed.

The time left for them is actually not much.

"Elder, what should we do?" the subordinate asked.

If you launch an assault now, it will naturally meet the requirements in terms of time. After all, the sooner you can attack and occupy the main city, the better, but the problem is that there are still a large number of monsters besieging the city.

Once an attack is launched, these monsters will not be something they can use to attack each other. On the contrary, these monsters will become the key to causing chaos for their own side.

So, whether or not to attack, and when the timing is, matters.

Ming Yu frowned for a while, not knowing what to do.

Zhu Yanshuo thought about it for a while, and after a while, he seemed to think of something. Then, he walked in front of Mingyu a few steps. After getting Mingyu's answer, he quietly attached himself to Mingyu's ear and said a few words.

After listening to his words, Ming

Yu was still a little hesitant: "Is this possible?"

"My subordinates think it must be possible." Zhu Yanshuo smiled.

Ming Yu thought for a while and nodded, this method should be the best method.

When the words fell, Ming Yu snorted his entourage, and the entourage immediately led the order to step forward: "The order goes on, the troops retreat."

"Ah?"

They came from a long way, and they attacked here with thunder, so they have such an advantage. At this moment, the elder actually asked to retreat. Isn't this handing over his advantage?

"I said, retreat, is it clear enough?" Ming Yu said coldly.

The entourage heard the words, although shocked, but seeing Mingyu's face was already displeased, he could only nod obediently, and hurry to deploy. Soon, the Pei family on the main city wall discovered an unimaginable situation.

Chapter 4213

"Sir, what is this... What is this?"

“Yes, it is clear that the other party has an absolute advantage now, and we It will take at least ten hours for the rescued soldiers to arrive, and if they want to withdraw, they should not withdraw now.”

“The army of two hundred thousand people has not even caught a hair, so come and go like this? This is too incredible.” The Pei family’s monks who are all two feet tall are confused, and they have absolutely no idea what the other party is playing.

“Would the enemy intentionally withdraw their troops? The purpose is to let us relax our vigilance? Then kill a carbine?” A vigilant person reminded at this time.

However, as soon as this proposal was proposed, it was quickly rejected directly.

“There are so many monsters under the city, even if they play this trick, what’s the point? These monsters are a huge damage to us

, but they are also a big obstacle to them .” “That’s reasonable.”

That’s right, I think, in fact, we don’t need to interpret it too much. To put it simply, the other party knows that we have sent people to ask for help, and they are worried that we will help them, so they leave in advance. Yes, although the army of 200,000 people is coming It’s a pity to withdraw without finding anything, but it’s better than being annihilated directly, right?”

“It makes sense, they went into our Pei family alone, do you think these people will not panic? Now we are More reinforcements may arrive at any time and run away. Isn’t that what it should be?”

“It makes sense! Under such a situation, if you don’t run away, then you are a fool.”

As soon as these words came out, it was obviously more in line with the public’s opinion. Basic thinking, everyone nodded.

But at this moment, Pei Gu walked out slowly.

he went in for a small rest, it was actually just that he, as the head of the family, had been in the arena for many years, and the principle of observing words and expressions was far beyond ordinary people. He knew that the atmosphere had changed slightly, so he avoided embarrassment and left.

Seeing the old master, if some people still had some fears before, then with Pei Hu’s technique of bringing back the dead, then that little bit of fear has completely disappeared, and even they still have so little of disdain.

Pei Gu had already heard clearly what the group of people were waiting for, but it was the old guy’s own forbearance that he didn’t come out before.

But now, after all, he couldn’t sit still.

He looked at Pei Hu and said, “What do you think?”

Pei Hu frowned and quickly understood what he was referring to. However, Pei Gu was his father, and he couldn't have the same attitude towards Pei Gu as others. No respect at all.

Not from the psychology, at least from the face, he didn't want to be the head of the family and be pointed at his spine and said he was unfilial.

"Father, I thought..." Pei Hu did not continue.

Obviously, his answer agrees with the majority.

After all, they are all people who support themselves, and of course Pei Hu is not willing to make them unhappy in front of "father".

Maybe he didn't care about the feelings of these people in the past, but now, their support is too important, and now it is an important juncture.

Of course, Pei Gu knows his own son better than anyone else.

Looking at Pei Hu's appearance, he already had the answer: "It seems that you are the same as them. However, when you were twelve years old and led an army for the first time, your father taught you. Have you forgotten?"

"Father's teaching, how can children dare to forget each other?"

"Then what did I warn you?"

"On the battlefield, there are wars and plans, so keep a cool head, and don't underestimate any battle situation, you need to know, tactics, and tricks."

Pei Gu nodded with satisfaction, said with a smile: "Since this is the case, why are you sure that the other party is really retreating?"

"Is it possible for them to attack us from other gates?" Pei Hu said.

He is experienced and wily, and his mind and vigilance are naturally far superior to ordinary people.

However, Pei Gu didn't think that this matter was worth showing off. As long as people with a little smarter mind and calm heart should make the same judgment as himself.

But this child of his own is obviously now in the longing and joy of becoming the head of the family, and he has forgotten everything.

At this moment, a sneer sounded especially harshly...

Chapter 4214

"Haha, a joke, it's really a joke, it seems that some people are unwilling to be taken away as the head of the family. Come out and come up with some broken theory to find a sense of existence."

“Every word of warning, you blow yourself up like the unparalleled God of War. Who is still less on the battlefield? I think I have already fought thousands of games this year. , I don’t really agree with what the old master said.”

Hearing this ridicule, Pei Gu suddenly looked back.

Suddenly shocked: “Third Elder, you...”

Obviously, he couldn’t understand such common sense. Pei Gu smiled coldly, and he understood.

It is indeed the new king!

You can even call a deer a horse.

With the ridicule of the third elder, more and more people began to join in.

“I can’t help it. People have stayed in the position of power for a long time, and naturally, they will gradually become greedy. You suddenly want people to step down, why don’t people struggle for a while?

” Give people a chance to find a sense of presence.”

“It’s just, it’s really a bit funny, our reinforcements are almost here, and the other party dares to change the city gate to attack us, why, do they think they are not dying fast enough?”

They insisted . Laughing, mocking, presumptuous.

Pei Gu was very angry and wanted to slap everyone in the face, and then tell these bastards how hot their brains and how thick their faces are now.

Such relaxation, once the enemy attacked from other city gates, and cooperated with the monsters with big masks under the city, the main city will completely fall into the posture of being attacked by the enemy.

Book

They are in a weak position. At that time, they will not have any resistance, but they are just fish and meat placed on a sticky board, and they will be slaughtered by others.

Thinking of this, Pei Gu lowered his anger and hurriedly said: “What I said is true, you... don’t you see me as the owner of the house at all?”

“Hmph, Pei Gu, if you are polite, call me If you are the head of the family, what’s the harm in calling you an old man? We are not afraid to tell you what kind of family head you are still posing. If it is not for the sake of the whole family, we will protect you for the time being. The position of the head of the family, save face for you, we have already made the son as the head of the family.”

“That’s right, we are blind, let you fool around, and come back with George Han, but my Pei family is not . In the face of such a disaster, if I let you continue to command, my Pei family will not be completely annihilated?”

“Young Master Pei Hu has just saved us from the fire and water, and you are joining together now, why not annihilate the Pei family. , are you not reconciled?”

“We admit that you were indeed extremely talented when you were young, and you also led our Pei family to glory, but, old master, you are really old, and it is time to abdicate and become worthy.”

“Don’t be there . It’s all nonsense, you should go home, just like the women in the family, just wait quietly for our triumph. Otherwise, if it continues like this, I’m afraid you won’t be safe at night.”

“You...you !” Pointing at the group of people waiting, Pei Gu only felt that his blood pressure was crazy.

No one has ever dared to say this to him, but these people are... but...

annoyed, angry, this is the following crime!

He really wanted to kill these dog thieves!

But thinking about it carefully, as soon as the person calmed down, Pei Gu’s anger quickly dissipated by more than half, and it was more of a mockery and bitterness.

Obviously, he has lost his power in Pei’s house, and there is no point in tossing again.

“Okay, okay, okay, you really don’t need this old thing like me anymore for your wings. I’ll go home now, you...you can do it yourself.” After the words were finished, Pei Gu slowly moved towards the bottom of the city wall alone and lonely. go.

Looking at his back, he was like a lonely old man, or maybe he was himself!

Ten minutes later, Pei Gu returned to the main hall, and almost at the same time, outside the east gate city...

Chapter 4215

Outside the city, everything seems to be peaceful, but occasionally there are only a few black monsters, wandering outside the city like being alone or getting lost , although they are still attacking the city wall with the same viciousness.

However, with the weak power of its few, it is obviously a fool’s dream to want to attack the city.

On the east gate city wall, the soldiers guarding were bored and stood guard on the city wall, but their eyelids kept fighting.

After being nervous for a long time, I found that there were very few “enemies” under my feet, and when I couldn’t pose any threat, no one would be “disappointed” to the extreme. Naturally, sleeping was the best way to pass the time.

There are about a hundred or ten such soldiers on the city wall, and most of the original defenders have been transferred to the north gate.

Just as the soldier was taking a nap, he suddenly felt something approaching behind him.

Looking back, he woke up from the drowsiness, and in a hurry, he quickly grabbed his spear and beat his spirits.

“Why, why don’t we find you a bed?” Beside him, the voice said coldly.

The soldier suddenly squeezed a drop of cold sweat from his forehead, and said hurriedly: “Report to the captain, I was wrong.”

“If everyone makes a mistake and says that I am wrong, then it will be fine, then what is the use of rules in this world, there must be laws and regulations. What’s the use? What do you say?!” The soldier was ashamed, thought about it, and was about to speak.

The voice said, “You will have a late night snack.” The soldier nodded his head. Although it was painful to lose some money, it was better than other punishments.

“How is it? Is there anything wrong?” The voice asked, and then he looked outside the city wall. It was still calm, nothing happened.

The soldier shook his head and said, “It’s just that there’s nothing going on outside. I’m so bored that I dozed off.”

“Why, listening to your tone, you still wish there was something outside?” The voice smiled softly and continued. : “If you don’t have anything, you can just have fun, at least you are still in the mood to be lazy. On the Beicheng side, the situation is extremely critical.” The soldier nodded, he knew this, and quickly Shaking his head: “It’s not that mean when I’m small. I can eat spicy food with the captain, and wake up with a smile when I sleep.” Keep it a secret!” The captain chuckled.

The soldier hurried to his spirit and asked, “Captain, what’s the secret?”

“I heard some rumors just now that Mr. Pei’s son has gone to notify the elite soldiers of Mengxue Town. It won’t be long before the crisis in our main city is lifted. “

Damn, no wonder the captain just wanted to fine me for a late night snack. It took me a long time ...” The soldier happily understood, then he smiled and said, “I should have known earlier that it is because of this, you will not be punished, I will directly It’s okay to treat guests.”

“If you want to invite, you don’t want to talk about it.” The captain raised his eyes and glanced at the sky. It was almost noon, and it was indeed time to eat: “It’s almost noon.”

Although the soldiers are of low rank, But it’s not a day or two with my captain. I understand what it means in a second, and the top of the fart will go down the city wall to buy things.

Soon after, a group of people put down their weapons and ate and drank happily.

While they were quietly making fun, what they didn't know was that in the dense forest outside the city, the sound of footsteps was quietly approaching.

When approaching the edge of the dense forest, the person at the front raised his hand, and the group of them not only stopped directly, but also quickly bent over to hide their figure in the grass.

Immediately afterwards, at the very front, a head came out, and after quietly probing the city wall for a while, it quickly retracted.

"City Lord Zhu, you are as expected. The defense of this eastern city gate is indeed extremely weak." After the man retracted his head, he couldn't help but say with joy.

This group of people, none other than others, retreated on the surface, but in fact secretly detoured to the Ming Yu and other departments at the East Gate.

"However, I really don't understand. In fact, our trick is not very clever. It is a common strategy on any battlefield. Why does City Lord Zhu think that we will succeed?"

"Or, the enemy army. It must be so stupid to give us a loophole? This is a disaster for them, why are they so careless?"

The man was very strange, but Zhu Yanshuo smiled, as if he had already made up his mind, and then pointed Pointing to your chest...

Chapter 4216

"Heart?"

Yes!

"If a person has a heart, there must be a variety of emotions and considerations in the heart. The combination is called human nature." Zhu Yanshuo said with a smile: "The people of the Pei family have fought for many years, not to mention how good they are in military use, at least they are more familiar with the experience than ordinary people. "

So, although the pressure on the north side is the heaviest, the other three doors do not mean that they are unprepared. If I expect them well, they even have better vigilance. Because there are few people, if the enemy situation is not detected in time, That would be equivalent to letting someone take their back door directly."

"Any general would never make such a strategic mistake, let alone the people of the Pei family." When the words were finished, Zhu Yanshuo raised his hand and pointed. A few directions in front of him, followed the direction he pointed, and then took a closer look, only to find that there were secret whistles in several places.

Moreover, these are still relatively concealed dark whistles that can be seen if you look closely. It is almost believed that there must be many invisible dark whistles here.

“Come on, come here like this, we quietly touched the east gate, didn’t we let the Pei family know it long ago?”

“Then we are attacking the city now, doesn’t it mean that we fell into someone else’s trap on purpose? This east gate, it was obvious that it was a flaw that was leaked on purpose.”

Someone panicked.

Han 3000 was in an ambush and attacked when they should fall into the city. They were all afraid of it, for fear that someone would use such a trick at any time.

Zhu Yanshuo didn’t feel that nervous, but smiled: “Don’t worry, these dark posts are empty now.”

“Why?” Someone asked.

“It’s very simple, because some of them escaped, they can tip off the news, and they will have reinforcements. Moreover, the reinforcements will arrive in about ten hours. In other words, for them, after ten hours, it is victory and peace.” Zhu Yanshuo finished his words, looked at the man and said: “The north of the city is in danger. While surrounded by our 200,000 army, there are countless monsters. What if you are a general?

” The staff will be transferred to the side that needs it most.”

“Isn’t that right?” Zhu Yanshuo laughed.

“Understood.” The man nodded: “City Lord Zhu means that it is precisely because the other party has rescue now, so they are relieved.”

“That’s understandable.” Zhu Yanshuo smiled: “Let’s just when they are relieved, I will kill them.”

“But...” The man said suspiciously: “But it still doesn’t make sense. Although what City Lord Zhu said is indeed reasonable, don’t forget that the Pei family is also on the battlefield. Experienced people, even if you breathe a sigh of relief, you will definitely not ...”

“Pei Gu, the head of the Pei family, has been famous in the world for many years, and that old man has survived his entire life, he should have something, so negligent. , I don’t think it will be on him.”

Zhu Yanshuo nodded: “As the head of the Pei family, it is indeed impossible for him to make such a low-level mistake, so if he commands the defense of the city, even if he is relieved now, he is still angry. The sound will never be heard by us, so it is impossible for us to sneak attack in another direction.”

“If that’s the case, why do we need to...”

Zhu Yanshuo laughed, not angry, and said patiently, “I didn’t hear it. Did I say that? It’s the Patriarch of the Pei family who guards the city.” After he finished speaking, he looked up at the main city: “It’s a pity that the person who guards the city now is not the Patriarch of the Pei family.” The city is not the head of the Pei family, and now the Pei family is facing It’s so dangerous, how could the head of the Pei family not come out in person to defend the city? The man asked suspiciously.

Zhu Yanshuo shook his head and said softly, “Did you not find out that the person standing on the city wall was the son of the Pei family at the time of Beicheng?” The man said: “But the head of the Pei family has also appeared several times. “

“Appearance doesn’t mean anything, the one who stands there in the end is the real ending.” Zhu Yanshuo finished his words and continued softly: “Think about the danger the Pei family is facing this time, and then think about Pei Gu’s choice...”

With such a reminder, the man suddenly understood: “City Lord Zhu means, Has the Pei family been in civil unrest? “

It shouldn’t be called civil unrest. “Zhu City Lord shook his head: “It should be the new emperor who has ascended the throne. When the words fell, he was content: “And because of his ascension to the throne, he also cast a wall ladder for us...”

Chapter 4217

“Pei Hu, the new king, think about it, what will happen?”

Zhu Yanshuo said, several people glanced at each other, and then gave a slight Trying to figure it out, you generally know what he is talking about.

“What do you mean...”

“Exactly, the new king’s enthronement is naturally against the previous series of measures, so what Pei Gu wants to do will become something they will not do.”

“Since everyone just now They are sure that if Pei Gu defends the city, he will not leave other places empty, then Pei Hu will govern, it will be the exact opposite.”

“Through the ages, the old and new kings are just like this.”

The man nodded, and there was one last trace of concern . “Although what City Lord Zhu said is true, they are father and son after all, so they should...”

Before the man had finished speaking, Zhu Yanshuo had already interrupted him directly: “Brother, there has been no family affection in the emperor’s family since ancient times. Father and son? Hehe, on the top of power, no one will care.”

Ming Yu, who had not spoken for a while, nodded slightly at this time, which was really good.

The most ruthless imperial family!

This is also the first reason she was surprised when she heard Zhu Yanshuo's strategy. She thought how could such a pediatric strategy come from his mouth, but after thinking about it, she felt that the strategy was incredible.

Victory or defeat is never the reason for judging the size of a strategy, but only depends on the person who uses it and whether it is suitable or not.

At least for now, this kind of "pediatric" strategy is precisely the most appropriate.

"Then what are we waiting for, let's rush with our brother now, and in a short time, we will destroy his city and his family." After the man finished speaking, he was ready to go into battle.

However, before he got up, he directly pulled Zhu Yanshuo down, and shouted slightly dissatisfied:

"What are you in a hurry

"City Lord Zhu, we have all touched the east gate, and you see that there are very few guards on this gate. , it should be lunch at noon, it is a good time to launch an attack."

"Yes, City Lord Zhu, if you don't do it now, when will you wait?"

Another subordinate also hurriedly said.

Zhu Yanshuo shook his head: "No no no, everyone, now is not a good time."

Seeing everyone's doubts, Zhu Yanshuo smiled and continued: "What? The old master is gone, and the new master has also leaked holes for us for political reasons, so do you think that the Pei family is really a pig-like opponent?"

"City Lord Zhu, what do you mean by this?"

"Yes, not at all. I understand what you're talking about."

Zhu Yanshuo smiled: "I'm talking about Pei Gu, the son of the Pei family.

Look at this east gate, although it looks calm, don't you think it's too calm?"

Everyone looked up. , In fact, what Zhu Yanshuo said is indeed true, the East Gate is indeed surprisingly quiet.

"After all, Pei Gu is the prince. The future successor of the Pei family may have some flaws in his personality, but how can he lose his mind? Pei Gu's old man's way of looking at people is not ordinary.

"On

this point, Ming Yu agrees. Regarding George Han, it can be seen that Pei Gu's eyes are ruthless.

I have been in contact with George Han for a long time, and naturally I know that George Han is the dragon and the phoenix, but Pei Gu has only dealt with George Han once or twice, so he can openly refuse to turn against his own organization because of him.

On the surface, Pei Gu's actions may indeed be absurd, but Mingyu, who really understands the truth and understands George Han, is very clear that Pei Gu's choice is not wrong, he is betting on the future.

And what made him willing to gamble so much was the guy George Han.

So, can this old thing look bad?

"But you just said that Young Master Pei doesn't know..." The servants were a little confused, and their minds became a mess for a while.

Zhu Yanshuo smiled lightly: "Seizing a position is a political means. Of course, the son of the Pei family will not listen to any advice from the previous patriarch, but what about in private?"

"After all, he is not an incompetent father, but a relative he knows and knows his skills. Father, the old father's advice, do you really think that there will not be some waves in Pei's heart?" After the words were finished, he looked around: "As I said, the east gate is also protected by the city, and it is in the dark, so now, Definitely not a good time."

"So... when are we going to wait?"

Chapter 4218

Zhu Yanshuo smiled and pointed to the sky: "After sunset."

After sunset? !

When the servants heard this time, they couldn't help but be dumbfounded.

Because the choice at this time point is really too much...

It can't be said to be an adventure, but a life-threatening one!

"City Lord Zhu, this is the power area of the Pei family. We don't know much about many situations. We just took advantage of the situation. You have to wait until the evening hours, but don't forget, at that time their reinforcements Almost all of them have arrived."

"That's right, the people in Mengxuecheng are also elites, and the number is not small. Once the support comes and we haven't evacuated, it will be a disaster for us."

"Yes, let's not say we want to win any victory, it will be a miracle to walk out of the Pei family's forces without annihilating the entire army."

After listening to Zhu Yanshuo's previous analysis, everyone really thought he was He is so awesome that he can be so shocking, but when he heard his final plan, one by one was very disappointed.

Even someone else has already secretly scolded him for being a big fool.

Because the time he chose was really enough to die.

Thinking of Luocheng being defeated by George Han in such a playful manner, everyone felt that now they at least knew something in their hearts.

It would be stupid enough indeed.

Looking at the appearance of several people, Zhu Yanshuo smiled: "I know, you must be calling me stupid now, right?"

Everyone, look at me, I will look

You, shook your head.

However, it was obvious that he didn't say anything, but his mind kept sighing, Zhu Yanshuo, that you still have a little face, and you know what's in our hearts.

"Since everyone thinks this way, then think about it, is this the most suitable time to launch an attack?"

After that, everyone fell silent.

But after thinking about it carefully, everyone quickly realized it again.

"The magic of using an army is that when others don't think it is possible, it suddenly takes a slant."

"Just now, I was thinking about criticizing, but I never thought that at night when even we ourselves thought it would be impossible to launch a surprise attack, the enemy is even more It's impossible to take extra precautions. Plus their reinforcements are coming, and you can breathe a sigh of relief. At that time...it must be the time when they are at their most empty and their defenses are the weakest."

"Wonderful, wonderful, wonderful!

" From a theoretical point of view, we may indeed be in a very dangerous situation, but it is definitely not a desperate situation. In the face of the main city with an empty city defense, after we directly capture it, we can switch from attacking to defending on the spot."

"Huh, at that time, even if It's their reinforcements coming, and we rely on the city defense to resist, what can they do with us?"

After a group of people figured it out, their faces were filled with joy, as if they had already won victory.

Zhu Yanshuo also had a smug smile on his face. When his subordinates praised him, he felt that his life had reached its peak.

At this time, he can finally display his talents to the fullest.

It's time for a battle, George Han is so sharp that he is suppressed to death. As a smart person, why doesn't he want to find a chance to fight back? !

Now is the time for this counterattack.

He also believes that when his own set is fully displayed and he wins all the way, this battle will inevitably become a good story, and his reputation of Zhu Yanshuo can also be revived. .

Without that damned George Han, Zhu Yanshuo could finally stiffen his waist again.

Ming Yu nodded slightly. Of course she wanted these hours, she didn't say anything, because this victory can also allow her to wash away the shame of past failures with the Lord!

A group of people invariably looked up at the sky, waiting for the night to come...

Chapter 4219

A group of people smile grimly, with cruel smiles, but also with expectations.

But unlike them, in the city at this time, many people are also expecting darkness to come soon. There is no other reason. The faster time passes, naturally, it means that the reinforcements are closer to them. A great deed is something that everyone is looking forward to. "Young master, look, I said we don't have to worry about it at all. It's quiet outside the city and you can hear needles falling."

I used it, I don't have the ability I used before, and I gave a blind command."

"Fortunately, we woke up in time and supported our son, otherwise, our group would not have such a comfortable life now, and it is estimated that we will all die. It's in the city battle."

"That's not it, the afternoon is over, haha."

To be honest, I'm still a little worried in the afternoon, but it's getting dark, our brothers in Mengxuecheng. It's almost time to arrive, the rain is over and the sky is fine."

In the attic of Beicheng, several close relatives and subordinates were sitting around, with delicious wine and food in front of them.

On the main seat, Pei Hu sat upright, with two or three beauties sitting beside him.

Most of these beauties are the daughters of nobles in the city. Obviously, they should not appear here.

However, because Pei Hu almost brought the main city back to life, and was praised by the people of the whole city, the big families also handed over their daughters at this time, and the intention is naturally self-evident.

Pei Hu had a faint smile on his face, and there was a hint of pride in his eyes.

As Zhu Yanshuo expected, in fact, although Pei Hu completely vetoed his father's plan due to political factors, but his father's ability, as a son, he sees very clearly, so in private, he actually sent a cronies, secretly Observed.

Fortunately, the surveillance of the afternoon can almost make Pei Hu completely relieved now.

There was no raid that my father was worried about, everything was fine.

Therefore, hearing these compliments at this time, Pei Hu almost took it all to himself. In addition, he was accompanied by a few strange beauties, and he was even more complacent: "Okay, everyone, don't brag about me too much."

“That’s it . Arrangement, but a little trick, human nature, nothing to talk about.”

Although he said so, people with discerning eyes could see that Pei Hu was actually very concerned about it. ” Hehe

, you don’t need to be polite, son. There are many worries in this world. Often they seem easy, but doing it is more difficult than ascending to the sky.” You are too modest.” Pei Hu was overjoyed and raised his glass directly: “Okay, then Pei Hu would like to thank you all for your love.” After finishing his words, he picked up the cup and drank, and then continued: ” In fact, the position of the head of the family is high and powerful, and at the same time has great responsibilities. Pei Hu is just a newcomer, and I hope you can help me a lot in the future.” Everyone knew that this was the new king’s value, and they all said with allegiance, “Young master, rest assured. , we will live and die with the son.” “The mountain of swords and the sea of fire, I will not hesitate.” “It is the blessing of the society to be able to be so virtuous, and it is also a blessing for us. Even if you don’t say it, we will definitely smear our livers and brains on the ground. ” Listening to these words and looking at these people, Pei Hu was very happy. He completely felt the refreshment brought by the peak of power: “Okay, everyone, the words are all in this wine, let’s not get drunk.”

“Drink!” A group of people drank happily again, and the city tower was very lively.

On the other side of Dongcheng, which is almost the same as this, although it is not as exaggerated as the north of the city, the captain of the defending city continued to take the gang of soldiers to drink wine and eat snacks leisurely.

Although it is not so chic, but it is also a happy party, and it is not beautiful.

“That’s right, at noon, I was still worried about whether we were going too far. Now it seems that we can’t be too honest, like us. The captain is the same, relying on his brain.”

Several soldiers flattered, and the captain was also very happy. At this moment, his prestige had been greatly exerted. However, he was about to speak when suddenly, a strange voice suddenly came from the city. from outside.

Several people suddenly felt wrong, got up in a hurry, and ran towards the city wall...

Chapter 4220

When a group of people arrived at the city wall, they were all terrified and looked at the bottom of their city wall in disbelief.

I don’t know when, under this very calm city gate, at this time, it was full of people.

A large number of torches almost illuminated the underground of the city.

“How...how could this be?”

“Where did so many people come from ?”

"I rely on..." The group of people panicked, and for a while they even forgot to escape and forgot to report.

"If you don't want to die, open the door and don't kill. Otherwise, my lieutenant general will join you, and you will be turned into powder."

All the soldiers were dumbfounded, and the timid ones simply urinated their pants.

It's not that they are too cowardly, but that they didn't expect that under the city wall, such a dense army that could not see the end suddenly appeared.

Almost

without thinking about it, I already knew that these soldiers must be the 200,000 army who surrounded the main city during the day.

A full 200,000 people, not to mention a small team on the east gate, with only a few dozen people, even the large troops on the north side of the city had their scalps numb before.

If you don't open the door, it will disappear in an instant. This is really not the other party's frightening yourself.

But the door opened...

"Captain, what... what should I do?" The team members were still at a loss as to how happy they were before, and they were all dumbfounded and at a loss.

"Open... open the door!"

If you don't open the door, it will be right away. If you open the door, maybe this group of people can keep their trust and let them go.

In other words, their group has been so frightened that they have no other ideas, and almost everything is just a subconscious action.

quack quack!

With a roar for a moment, with the loud noise of the city gate, the east gate slowly opened.

"Where are the generals

!"

"Yes" The

200,000 army responded in unison.

"Charge with me!"

The general shouted, and then took the lead, rushing towards the city.

"Kill" the generals responded, and the shouting of killing for a while was almost earth-shattering!

The fire was like a dragon, and they entered the city crazily. With the high shouting and killing, the army of 200,000 people was like a ferocious tiger entering a flock of sheep.

The soldiers in the city could not resist this kind of army at all, and many of them died tragically by the sword before they even had time to return them.

The “Report”

City Lord’s Mansion is located in the most central part of the main city. Naturally, it is also the first place to get information.

Pei Gu sat alone in the hall with complicated eyes.

The messenger shouted that he was pulling back to reality.

Pei Gu stood up slowly. For this scene, he thought about it countless times in the afternoon and prayed countless times not to let it happen, but what should come will always come.

“Alas” Pei Gu sighed, full of helplessness.

How could Pei Gu not know the strength of the Ministry of Mingyu after dealing with it. Her subordinates are even more intelligent people like Zhu Yanshuo. Although his son is quite talented, he is always too immature. Compared with his subordinates, he is a bunch of trash with a heart that is above power. Therefore, the two sides are compared, and the judgment is made.

However, his son is now immersed in joy and the like, there is such a situation, but it is unexpected.

“No need to say more.” Pei Gu waved his hand and looked uncomfortable: “Have the family members arrived at the refuge as per my instructions?”

“Going home, the arrangements have been made in the afternoon, but...”

“But what?”

“Some female relatives still believe in the young master, so...”

Pei Gu smiled coldly. When was the order of one of his family leaders, so that even the female relatives would not listen to him.

“Order the remaining subordinates to tie them to the shelter immediately. They are not afraid of being insulted. I am also afraid that the Pei family will be laughed at.”

“Yes!” The subordinates took the order and hurriedly retreated.

Pei Gu walked slowly to the front of the hall, looked at the sky for a long time, and murmured: “George Han, did I really believe you wrong? Hopefully, this is just a change before the storm.”

When the words fell, he shook his head, turned and followed the last group of soldiers towards the hidden entrance of the shelter in the mansion.

“Kill!” The

Pei family had a place to hide, but the people and soldiers in the city suffered a lot. Facing the enemy, they were completely ruthlessly murdered. At this time, in the attic of the city gate, Pei Hu and the others were still singing and dancing.
