

HTC 4251

Chapter 4251

Although the Seventh Princess has always wanted to find a chance to talk to George Han, it is definitely not in such a way that she herself did not expect... .. At that moment, her face turned crimson, her head was lowered, and she was completely at a loss for a while.

George Han smiled lightly: "What's the matter, Seventh Princess? Is there something wrong?"

"No..." For some reason, she used to be calm when facing George Han.

But now, he is more and more afraid to say anything in front of him, but he wants to talk to him very much in his heart.

It is very contradictory, but the seventh princess is also very clear that she is deeply in love with George Han.

He conformed to all the assumptions of the lover of his dreams, and in some ways was even better than he imagined.

So...

George Han is not a pure lover. Although he is not a woman, how can he not understand these expressions?

But George Han was already familiar with this song, and smiled softly: "Actually, I want your help with some things. The most important thing is that the success of this crucial battle depends entirely on the six of you. No, plus the eldest princess, it should be seven." As soon as the topic changed, the seventh princess was not so embarrassed, raised her head, looked at George Han, and said, "How can we help you?"

"Yes . Ah, Young Master Han, although we have some cultivation bases, after all..."

"We are all females, and the other party..." The other princesses also echoed in time.

George Han shook his head with a smile: "I don't seem to know how capable the princesses are to yourselves."

"Who says women are inferior to men? Isn't the leader of the enemy troops outside also a woman? She can, why can't you?" George Han laughed.

"Master Han, what do you want us to do?" the fourth princess asked.

The sixth princess also made up her mind: "If you want us to do anything, we will do our best to complete the task."

George Han smiled: "I need you to help me form an army."

"Army?"

"We?"

The six women were almost collectively dumbfounded.

"Yes, it's you." George Han nodded.

Men are always the best killing machines in the world, while women are the most powerful lubricants that drive these machines.

"Many female relatives of the Pei family have been insulted. I believe that there are also many people with lofty ideals in the Pei family who see it in their eyes and feel pain in their hearts."

"I need you to form an army in this name.

", hatred is enough, and it is not easy to have two hearts, and the fighting power is naturally stronger.

George Han doesn't need them to do too much, as long as they can insist on guarding the main mansion for an hour.

There right?" George Han looked at the sixth daughter.

The six women looked at each other and nodded heavily.

"Okay, if that's the case, then there will be six princesses. You should go to form them quickly." The six women took the lead, turned and left the palace.

George Han was not idle, he walked to the city master's seat, picked up the map, and studied it carefully.

Outside the palace, the six women were already whispering.

"Second sister, that group of people basically followed Pei Hu. Even if we call people, I'm afraid we won't be able to call many people, right?"

"This person..." A pot of boiling water, a match, this is not a solution.

"Qimei, what do you think about this matter?" The second princess did not answer immediately, but looked at the seventh princess.

Of George Han, only Seventh

Sister knew the best. Naturally, on this kind of issue, the Second Princess was more willing to listen to the Seventh Princess' opinion.

“Let’s not let us form an army, just let our seven sisters charge themselves. I also believe that we can win.” The seventh princess said indifferently: “I know, you may not believe it, and I think my statement is too exaggerated. “

But you should be aware of your father’s personality. Even his old man is willing to turn his back, how can he be mediocre. Think of the Devil’s Cloud Ghost City at the beginning. The army that should have fallen into the city failed to take down the attack, and he overthrew one by himself. City.”

“I saw this matter with my own eyes.” The seventh princess smiled and walked away quickly.

The other five girls glanced at each other, and while they were slightly surprised, they quickly followed.

And George Han, who was in the hall, finally put his finger on this place: “Mingyu, I want you to look good!”

Chapter 4252

a servant’s room in Pei’s house.

As soon as Pei Gu left, a few cronies rushed into Pei Hu’s room and surrounded him.

“How is it, son? The old man didn’t say anything, right?”

“Yes, son, is the old man planning to abolish you? Don’t worry, we will always support you.”

“Damn, it’s true this time. His mother’s bad luck, we all made up our minds to sell our teammates, but his mother’s bastard George Han suddenly came back.”

“Yeah, his actions directly alleviated the crisis in the main mansion, and even more We’re not dealing with people.”

“Damn, the luck of the day is really good, and he can pick up this kind of cheap. However, don’t worry, son, they will never succeed until they fail. , we still have to come out and end.”

“That’s right, that old man Pei

Gu now has the help of George Han, the bastard. How many people are going to die?”

“Once that time comes, these people will know how correct our choice is, at least we still have a hundred people alive.” A group of people kept cheering Pei Hu, At the same time, cheer yourself up.

After all, it is true for them.

They didn’t lose all.

“Father didn’t punish me. Instead, he sealed me an official.” Pei Hu frowned and shook his head.

This was actually something he didn’t expect.

He knew that Pei Gu wouldn’t kill him, but he didn’t expect to even give him a reward instead of punishment.

“Isn’t it? That old man has given you a promotion?”

“Damn, it’s unlikely, how be so kind?”

A group of cronies couldn’t believe it.

“This is a fact, this is a letter of appointment.” Pei Hu took out the letter of appointment he got.

“Cabinet General!”

The highest-ranking officer in the Pei family’s mansion can also be understood as the President of the Imperial Guards.

“Most of the guards are soldiers in the main city. The head of the family gave you all the military power. Is he really aware of his own problems and is ready to abdicate to become a sage?”

“Yeah, the old man may still know about the future head of the family. Sooner or later, it will be the son’s, and in order to save the outsider, he chose An Nei.”

“You are all wrong.” At this time, the third elder in several elders stood up.

“Third elder, what do you mean by that?”

“Pei Gu is an old man. Do you really think that this guy is bowing his head to the young master? Not necessarily.” The third elder shook his head, seeing everyone puzzled, and continued

. : “No matter how big the official is, let me ask you, who is the head of the family? It may be you, it may be me, but it can’t be the son, right?”

When a group of people heard this, they instantly understood what it meant. It is also obvious that the owner of the family is still his Pei Gu.

“fu**, it’s a good move!”

“This old thing is so fu**ing sinister.”

“The elder, son, what should we do next? Anyway, we’ve come this far, why don’t you just turn your back on his mother? of.”

“Yes, there is a list of 100 people for us outside anyway. We will take the brothers to take the Pei family directly, but we can carry Pei Gu’s head and go to the enemy’s side to receive the reward. How many more people do we have?”

“No!” The third elder shook his head: “This is the worst move, which is tantamount to pushing us to a dead end. I want to ask, in case the Pei family survives this catastrophe. What? Where do we go then?”

“According to the opinion of the third elder?” Pei Hu frowned.

“In my opinion, we don’t do anything, or even work hard, so Pei Gu won’t say anything about us, and in private, we can tell the other side everything about every move in the mansion, and ask for a reward, everyone thinks that ?”

Hearing the elder’s words, everyone nodded again and again, this plan is indeed the lowest risk and the highest reward.

Whichever side wins, it can be used as a wall grass.

“The third elder is worthy of being the third elder. This move is truly outstanding.”

Listening to everyone’s compliments, the third elder smiled proudly, waved his hand, and showed extremely calm and modesty. But his inner comfort is only clear to him.

In the main hall, when George Han put away the map and prepared to leave, Pei Gu also came back.

Chapter 4253

“Arranged properly?” George Han smiled.

“It’s basically arranged.” Pei Gu smiled and nodded: “That kid Pei Hu may not see it for a while, but he will know sooner or later. Three thousand, you are not afraid...”

“His best solution is to wait in place. , or to please both ends.” George Han smiled, at this point, George Han didn’t think there was anything to hide from this thing.

Pei Hu is stupid, but there are always people around who can see through the rise and fall.

“Then let’s...”

“Patriarch Pei, the most powerful conspiracy in the world is definitely not a conspiracy, but a conspiracy.” George Han smiled.

Just like the decree of grace in the Han Dynasty on Earth, you obviously know that the emperor is cutting your power, but unfortunately, you have no way to refuse.

“Actually, this is mainly to stabilize them, you must first be safe inside.” George Han said.

Pei Gu nodded: “Then what shall we do ?”

“I have asked the seven princesses to assemble the troops to reinforce the city defense of the mansion.” George Han said.

“Then what?”

“Then this news will inevitably be betrayed to Mingyu.” George Han said: “However, we still have to do the same. We have to help Pei Hu do some credit there.”

“Once They have gained the trust of the other party, so that the situation in the mansion can be hidden from the true and false. This is the best way to deal with the traitor.”

Nodding, Pei Hu is clear, and the most important thing is the betrayal. The spy of the death forbidden area, such a plan, was guarded on both sides.

“After midnight, let Pei Hu’s people go to watch the night for the shift. You and the seven princesses came to me with a party.”

“Pei Hu to watch the night, this... Doesn’t this mean that we give up our defense?” Pei Gu said a little worried.

Once Pei Hu is pregnant with any ghost

, it is tantamount to bringing the entire Pei Mansion to life and death.

“Don’t worry, I have my own arrangements and I will come on time.”

“This... well, I will listen to you.” Pei Gu nodded heavily.

After George Han left, he went to the backyard to rest temporarily.

The mansion is also very quiet and peaceful.

At about eight o’clock in the evening, the army formed by Pei Gu began to defend the city.

Half an hour later, the seven princesses also formed a troop to join the patrol.

The number of people on both sides is not too many, but not too small.

A total of more than 4,000 people have basically taken out nearly half of the defending army.

The first half of the night ended quickly, and at the end of the hour, Pei Hu’s men took over the next shift.

Pei Gu and the troops of the seven princesses went down to rest.

However, these two troops seemed to go down to rest, but in fact they quietly and quietly came all the way from the dark alley to the backyard to gather.

George Han

had been waiting at the door for a long time.

“Three thousand, everyone has arrived, what should we do next?”

George Han smiled lightly and made a gesture to Pei Gu, who obediently leaned into his ear.

Soon, when Pei Gu listened to George Han’s instructions, he couldn’t help frowning: “If you do this, wouldn’t it be... wouldn’t it be... self-destructing 8000?”

“The key is that we haven’t killed a single enemy yet. .”

George Han hurriedly winked at him, indicating that his voice was too loud.

Pei Gu kept his mouth shut, but was also full of helplessness. It wasn’t that he didn’t know that this was a critical moment and needed to be concealed, but that George Han’s method was too bold and risky.

“How can we not offend if we want to turn the tide against the wind? Playing steadily has always been the privilege of the superior side, unless, Patriarch Pei, you have a better way.” George Han said.

Of course, Pei Gu had no other way

, otherwise, he would not have handed over all the command to George Han.

It’s just that George Han’s idea is too crazy, and it’s not a method that normal people can come up with.

“I’m just worried that with our little manpower, it’s really too difficult to resist Ming Yu and other ministries.” Pei Gu said.

“When the time comes, you can relieve the pressure by opening the north gate.”

“The north gate? It’s not there...” Pei Gu wanted to speak.

George Han had already interrupted: “You can open the North Gate.”

“Okay!”

“If possible, it is best for Pei Hu to open this door.” George Han smiled.

Pei Gu hesitated for a while, but finally nodded: “Don’t worry, I will act according to your plan.”

George Han nodded: “Then I’ll go.”

Pei Gu nodded: “Okay!”

George Hanyi smiled, but in the next second, the person had completely disappeared in place...

Chapter 4254

Involuntarily issued a shocking national curse from the heart. They have seen a master and a macho, but such a super technique that can completely disappear in front of people’s eyes in the blink of an eye is something they have never heard of or seen.

This is simply too exaggerated. In an instant, it disappeared without a trace, leaving no trace.

It’s as if someone is playing flash directly in front of you. “What kind of cultivation is this, in order to have such a performance?” Sixth Princess frowned. This is simply an operation that inhumans can perform.

“Father, with our knowledge, it may be difficult to understand, can you explain it?” the eldest princess asked. Pei Gu shook his head helplessly: “Actually, the old man has been in the arena for many years, and he should have seen countless worlds, and there are countless masters among them. But to be honest, this old man is still the first to become Han 3,000.

See you once.” “Father, how big is the gap between him and the strongest expert you have ever seen?” the second princess asked. “This is a good question.” Pei Gu smiled: “When I was in the city before, if I wanted to make a comparison, then the top masters I’ve seen may be ten, and George Han is nine.

” Maybe there will be a gap between the two, but the gap is not big, and George Han, relying on the advantage of his youth, may be able to be even.” “So, now?” The Seventh Princess asked. “

Now? Pei Gu gave a bitter smile: "I don't know, but I can be sure that he is definitely higher than ten." If you insist on me being a judge, then I will choose, George Han may be eleven, or even twelve. "

"Let me put it this way, rummaging through all the masters in our Pei family, it is impossible to gain any advantage in one-on-one with him. "

I'm really curious, what exactly happened to George Han in the forbidden area of death, and what the hell happened to the so-called explosion." The Seventh Princess smiled bitterly: "It's also ironic, our Pei family's own death zone, and we don't know what happened. However, fortunately, George Han is one of our people.

Pei Gu nodded heavily. Yes

, it's fortunate that he was on his side. Otherwise, with such a strong enemy lying by his side, he really didn't know what to do at that time.

"Little Seven. Pei Gu sighed softly.

"Father, my daughter is here." "

That renegade son of Pei Hu has provoked the huge danger of George Han for my family. Fortunately, having you and befriending him not only made us one less powerful enemy, but also made us one more ally." In the past, my father ignored you because of my father's fault. Here, I apologize to you for my father. When the words were over, Pei Gu turned around and bowed to apologize to the seventh princess.

The seventh princess quickly supported Pei Gu: "Father, the family doesn't talk about the two families, the past is all over. "

Good, good, good, as expected of my Pei Gu's good daughter . Pei Gu smiled gratified, then turned his eyes to the other six girls: "At the most dangerous moment, it was your daughters who supported me the most. "

"If we can pass this test, we promise Father that we will treat you well in the future." "The six princesses smiled and nodded, they were very happy.

Throughout the ages, although women in wealthy families seem to have no worries about food and clothing, most of them are just political victims, and only they know their heartache.

"Okay, it's not too early. According to the three thousand plan, let's start." After the words were finished, the seven girls looked at Pei Gu.

Pei Gu smiled, summoned the seven daughters, and whispered.

However, when the seven princesses heard about Pei Gu's plan, they couldn't help being stunned and shocked.

"Action!"

Chapter 4255

“Yes!” The

seven princesses took the command, and they will not say more in the next second, anyway, this matter is already a knife on the neck. So, no matter what critical situation happens next, it obviously doesn't matter much.

Even their father had already decided to do this, so they naturally had no reason to refuse.

Soon, the two teams of soldiers disappeared into the darkness of the backyard.

At this time, less than ten kilometers away from the main city, the reinforcements galloping all the way from Mengxue City had already encountered a despicable ambush and a tragic counterattack by the enemy.

Even though the reinforcements from Mengxue City were as large as 200,000 horses, they were originally an army in a hurry. When they arrived near the main city, there were not enough people and horses, and they were eager to save people without any precautions.

When countless enemy troops were ambushed all around, the general of the Pei family, who led the army, felt that the situation was not good.

Of course, the other party had already made preparations, and before the reinforcements from the Pei family had calmed down, they sent troops to surround them from all directions.

The Pei family's reinforcements were in chaos. In addition, there were more than 100,000 troops in the ambush. The two sides fought, and only contacted for half an hour, and the reinforcements had been scattered into several camps.

“Report to the commander, our soldiers are already in chaos. If this continues, I am afraid that in less than an hour, we will be completely dispersed and annihilated. I also ask the general to make a decision as soon as possible.” The lieutenant resisted and rushed to the nearby Mengxue Town. The commander hurriedly said.

The leading general's brows were furrowed, his eyes were closed, and the troops of each division were indeed in extreme embarrassment.

“But the problem is that the main city is imminent. The so-called raising soldiers for a thousand days can only be used for a while. The head of the family and all his family members are still in the main city. If I don't go to rescue, I'm sorry that I'm a soldier, and I'm not loyal to the king. I'm sorry for my wife, concubines and children.” The general was also very uncomfortable, they were running around, not afraid of hardships and dangers, what were they trying to do?

Now, the main city is right in front of you, how can you withdraw when you say it? !

“Commander, I also know that once the main city falls into the enemy’s hand, for my Pei family, it is almost the same as breaking our heads. At that time, the Pei family had no owner, and there would be chaos in the sphere of influence. But the problem is, commander, now we are apart from There is no other way to retreat.”

Yes, he is also very clear about this point. If he retreats, at least half of this army can still be retained, and he dare not say anything about making a comeback, but at least he will be able to regain his strength after going back. , maybe it can become a useful force in the future.

This is said to be older, and said to be younger, these people are all good brothers who follow their own birth and death.

How could he just watch his good brother die tragically under the enemy’s sword, and they didn’t even gain anything? !

You will die on the battlefield, but you also need a place to die.

“Order the troops to withdraw slowly while resisting.” The leading general sighed helplessly. Right now, he had no other better choice.

“My subordinates understand.” The generals commanded orders and quickly deployed troops.

After a while, the entire troop began to gather as much as they could, and then slowly retreated to the rear.

“The enemy is going to withdraw, give me chase.” The enemy commander shouted at the same time.

“Kill!”

For a time, the opponent’s momentum became stronger, and countless enemy troops pursued with knives.

Beat up the Reservoir Dogs, but that’s it.

As for the reinforcements from the Pei family, even under the command of the commander, the army retreated slowly.

But it is always the defeated army, who is constantly being pursued, and soldiers are constantly falling.

“Start the second ambush army, they have enough rest, it is time to play.” The enemy leader snorted softly.

The next second, accompanied by a strange horn sound, on the back road of the Pei family’s reinforcements retreating, countless enemy troops suddenly shot out from both sides of the road.

“Oops, there’s still an ambush in their ambush, and we’re surrounded.” The general said anxiously.

From the very beginning, the fight for aid in this war was no longer just to simply destroy the support point. What they really wanted to do was to completely destroy the support army.

“City Lord Zhu and Elder Shenlong have both instructed that the more reinforcements run away, the more threatening they become, because you never know when they might stab you.

"A good choice."

"Kill me!"

"Yes!"

With a light shout from the enemy leader, the Pei family reinforcements suddenly fell into despair...

Chapter 4256

There are enemy troops in pursuit, and in front of them, there are enemy troops in ambush all the time.

A large area of blackness is so powerful that it makes people feel suffocated and hopeless.

The reinforcement general's face was ashen, and his years of combat experience were telling him that at this time, he had no means of recovery, and all that awaited them could only be death.

"Commander, there is no way to escape. Otherwise, fight with them. They didn't plan to let us leave alive." The general said softly.

Yes, generally speaking, when the two armies are at war, if it is not an absolute advantage or an extremely important battle to decide the fate, both sides of the war will not push the other too hard.

Driving a dog into a poor alley will often only lead to greater backlash.

This is also very huge for their own soldiers.

So, in most cases it's all about winning.

But now, the situation has become more obvious.

The other party will kill them at all costs!

"I think so, they finally found the best opportunity to ambush us. If we let us go at this time, it is equivalent to letting the tiger return to the mountain."

"Okay, since they are ready to fight, order the brothers to fight them to the death!

"Nodding, turned around and informed.

"Huh, Patriarch, it's Wei Chen who is incompetent and couldn't bring his brothers into the main city to save you. Hey, it's a trick of God, if the other side gives us a little breather, Wei Chen must believe that we can beat this group of people. Trash, it's a pity... Today, Wei Chen can only make his ambitions clear with death."

When the words fell, the commander directly pulled out his own sword, shouted loudly, and flew directly to the enemy on the spot.

For a time, the beacon was everywhere, shouting and killing constantly.

Relying on this momentum, the Pei family's army, with the determination to die, quickly reversed the scattered situation and fought fiercely against the enemy.

Although the enemy army is not so fearless, it is better to have the advantage of the situation, and they already knew that the enemy army will counterattack strongly, and they are very well prepared.

For a time, the two armies came and went, and the killings were indistinguishable.

However, the reinforcement general is very clear about one thing, this situation does not mean anything.

They came from a long way, and the other party waited for work.

But now, he can't take care of that much anymore.

He had no choice but to fight hard to kill the enemy!

"Brothers, hold on, I'm here to help you."

Suddenly, a loud shout came.

Immediately afterwards, when the crowd had not yet reacted, they only felt that there were explosions around them for a while.

The originally fierce enemy was killing them, but in the blink of an eye, the style of the painting has changed, and the sound of the explosion seems to be fixed.

These guys were directly blown up on the spot, and they, who were close at hand, were unscathed.

This is simply magical!

Bang bang bang!

However, before they could return to their senses, there was another series of explosions.

On the battlefield that was originally crowded with people, the explosion was immediately smashed into an avenue.

Immediately afterwards, a figure appeared out of nowhere and landed beside the commander-in-chief of the reinforcements.

In the palm of his hand, the huge infuriating energy directly shook the dozen or so enemies around the commander into the air.

"Who is Your Excellency?" Looking at the figure that suddenly appeared in front of him, Tong Xian was stunned for a moment, and then quickly asked respectfully.

Sometimes, the soldier is the most unreasonable, and the soldier in the Demon Race is even more unreasonable. For them, the fist is the only truth.

And of course, this person can deal with dozens or hundreds. How can he not be convinced by such a fist? !

"George Han!" The

figure said softly, and then, with a movement of his hand, he took out a token: "The token of the Patriarch of the Pei family is here. Seeing this order, see him." After the words were finished, the general opened his eyes and saw, If it was the order of the Patriarch, he hurriedly bent over.

"This subordinate has seen the Patriarch. Han Shaoxia, are you sent by the Patriarch?"

Although Mengxue Town is the closest to the main city, it is hundreds of kilometers away and is a military fortress, so it's not surprising that you don't know George Han.

It is indeed unlikely that Pei Gu will bring a VIP from the main city to tell other military cities.

It's a two-dimensional thing.

"You can understand that too." George Han smiled softly, and then he took back the token and looked at the crowd of enemy troops: "However, these are not important, the important thing is that I will help you win, then That's right"

Chapter 4257

General to listen, think about what George Han said, it is quite right.

"My subordinates will be dispatched by the young man."

"You are a general on the side and are close to the main city. I believe that Pei Gu must believe in your ability. I am just like him, and I also fully trust you."

"Change coaches before the battle . It's a taboo, so the whole battle is still under your command, including me!" George Han said softly.

He can help, but not too much.

Especially when the Pei family experienced such a tragic battle!

Even if it wins, if it is spread out, the outside world will definitely say that the Pei family is incompetent, and let the enemy sneak into the main city, and the result is almost destroyed.

This will cause a great blow to the reputation of the Pei family, and what is even more annoyed is that the Pei family may be coveted by more forces.

At that time, I'm afraid everyone would think that the Pei family was a ferocious paper tiger

The Pei family is his partner, even strategic, how could George Han want to see this happen? !

Therefore, the Pei family will solve the family affairs by themselves. In this way, the reputation of the Pei family is still there, and their prestige has never been reduced.

"But... OK, I'll take command. My subordinates dare to ask, how many men and horses the young hero has brought? It's easy for me to do comprehensive statistics." The general is always a general. To Han 3000 for re-planning.

"I'm alone." George Han replied lightly.

"What? Young hero, you... what did you say?" The general was obviously taken aback when he heard George Han's words.

He thought about thousands of possibilities, and even thought that it might not be easy for the main city. George Han should have only brought a few people to break through to rescue.

But he thought about 10,000 possibilities and never thought that Han

George Han would be a single-handed man.

"Didn't you hear clearly? I came alone." George Han continued.

"Young Xia, you're not kidding me?" he asked suspiciously, his face extremely embarrassed.

"What am I kidding you at this time?" George Han said bitterly.

"But...but this..."

"Hahaha, hahahaha!"

The soldiers who were relatively close and the enemy commander who hurried over had to see the situation that George Hantian fell into the world was a little bit messed up. Mubi, even for a moment, they thought about whether to send people to resist the reinforcements this guy might bring.

But in the end, who would have thought that this guy's mouth would make people almost half-dead with laughter.

"George Han, I've heard of you. Previously, our army was defeated by you twice." After laughing, the commander pointed at George Han and said coldly,

"However, that's all because the commander is incompetent."

"Your luck has run out. This time, this commander will personally lead people to fight. If you are acquainted with you, kid, you should be obedient.

Ye Shijun is a son, and in his eyes he was originally a hairy boy, but he was just relying on the background to brush some honors.

As for Zhu Yanshuo, for him, he is even a little white-faced, a weak scholar, and he can't make a big deal at all.

Now, he took Ye Shijun's place in the raid this time, and he was still on the defensive in this rescue battle. Of course, he thought that based on his years of experience in the battlefield, the opponent was nothing but a straw bag.

George Han, the name is too big and too real.

"Who are you?" George Han looked at the commander with contempt.

He had fought with Ming Yu several times, and it was the first time he saw the person in front of him.

“Hehe, why do you need to know? Saying the name of Lao Tzu will scare your kid, so don’t humiliate yourself.” He snorted disdainfully.

“Looks like I know your name.” George Han laughed softly.

“Oh? Then you talk about it!” He was in a good mood, and he didn’t even hear George Han’s sarcasm.

He has the right to fight for many years and has a good reputation, so naturally some people can know his name.

“Zuipao commander.” George Han whispered disdainfully: “It depends on your ability. Zuipao is very powerful. Isn’t this name just right for you?”

” : “Stinky boy, see if I don’t tear your mouth.”

George Han smiled softly, and smiled at the general behind him: “Although I am alone, you can count me as a unit.”

“What?”

Chapter 4258

General will be dumbfounded.

In order to win on the battlefield, any means have to be used, which is normal.

However, he had never heard of using a person as a unit.

How is this used? !

Not to mention other things, just the crowd tactics, etc., this is not something that one person can play.

Secondly, it is the number of people. It is not bad for a person to support seven or eight people, or even a few hundred to a thousand people for a master. This guy is not bad, and it will directly reach 50,000 people.

50,000 people, such a force is enough to defend a not-so-big city.

That’s when 50,000 people are 50,000 ants.

The general is very depressed, and it is because this guy is his own side, otherwise...

“Hahaha, listen to what this stupid bastard is talking about. It’s my motherfu**er who said I was talking shit

, according to Laozi, When I saw you in the mouth, I really saw the patriarch.”

Opposite, the commander also laughed wildly.

Beside him, a group of soldiers could not help laughing.

Indeed, it’s not that they want to laugh at people, but that George Han’s bragging is so big that anyone with a little common sense can’t help but want to laugh.

"Is it so funny?" George Han really thought that they were even more funny when he saw that everyone was laughing.

After all, for George Han, these people's horizons are too short, and there are some things they can't understand.

"Of course it's funny, hahaha!"

"Grass, this guy came to tell us jokes on the battlefield. I guess it was because we were fighting too fiercely, so he came to calm down the atmosphere for us .

I don't know how Ye Gongzi and the others lost."

"You also know that people come out for gilding for excuses, so how can there be any real material. When you meet this kid, it's like a dog meets a dog."

" One dares to cook, the other dares to be better, and as a result, one dares to win, and the other dares to lose."

"That's true."

The crowd whispered softly, but they were full of endless ridicule.

Behind George Han, the reinforcements of the Pei family also lowered their heads, really not knowing what to say.

In the end, it is the friendly army. Logically speaking, they should help him fight back, but it is true that George Han's bragging is too big, and they don't know how to help if they want to help.

"Once upon a time, there was a frog. He lived in a well, so every time he looked up at the sky, he thought that the sky might be as big as the mouth of a well." George Han laughed instead: "What's the difference between you and this frog?"

"I'm not afraid to tell you, 50,000 is just a low-key figure for me. After all, the two armies are fighting, and I can only give our commander more data than less.

" ?" George Han laughed coldly.

"fu**, stinky boy, good luck is only temporary, but not forever.

Damn , let's see how good we are today." If you talk too much, it's more than enough for us, the hundreds of people, to take care of you." As the words fell, under the leadership of their leader, a group of people got angry and started to fight.

George Han

He didn't step back in the slightest, just looked back at his own general.

"According to my previous strength of 50,000 troops, understand?" The general wanted to say something, but when he saw George Han's extremely serious eyes, his words still choked in his throat after all.

The other party was sent by the Patriarch, and even the Patriarch gave him his Patriarch Order in person, which was actually rare in the Pei family.

This also means that the head of the family should absolutely trust him.

Since this is the case, he should not be the kind of mischievous person who is completely full of cowhide.

"Okay, let's arrange it according to what he said of 50,000 people. Anyway, we are already like this now, and there is no more choice." After the words were finished, the general raised his hand to make an order!

And almost at the same time, George Han also rushed into the opponent's attack formation!

Chapter 4259

"Kill!"

George Han took the lead to fight with the enemy.

Suddenly, like a tiger out of its cage.

The group of people who were still thinking about repairing this guy, they immediately realized that they had made the most outrageous mistake in the world as soon as they fought.

That George Han defended like water, attacked like a tiger.

A group of people waited either directly to see the attack on George Han, but they shot in the air, or they had not reported what was going on, and George Han had already attacked, not even letting others come and shout. , it has already directly knocked people to the ground.

In just a few moments, the seemingly ferocious enemy commander and others were completely dismissed and completely collapsed.

That is to say, there are still a few generals around the commander who have been protecting him, otherwise, he would have already fallen to the ground with those generals who protected him.

He hurriedly and embarrassedly fled into the ranks of his own soldiers, his hair was disheveled, and there was no such thing as the previous chatter and laughter, contempt for others.

"Arrange into formations, rush!"

At almost the same time, the reinforcements had already lined up and formed a formation. With a wave of their hands, several groups of soldiers broke out directly from all directions.

For a time, George Han was chasing the leader of the other party, and he was bound to kill it, and the other army from all sides also began to break through in an orderly manner.

The fire is burning, and the killing is everywhere!

"I broke through the siege of the army in the east alone, and you quickly gathered your troops to break through the south."

George Han shouted angrily at the general, and then, between his hands, he directly blew the dozens of people in front of him.

"Yes!" The general nodded and waved his hand: "The troops in the east stop attacking, turn to support the south, and kill me !

"Block, block them for me." The enemy commander fled, and commanded the army to resist. Of course, as the commander-in-chief, there is no need for the soldiers to say more, especially the troops in the east, facing George Han, who is like a god who descended from the sky, it is difficult to resist for a while. They are retreating, and the neat army is beginning to be torn apart by George Han. This guy is so fierce! In the instant, countless people fell. "Commander, that young hero really doesn't look simple." Next to the reinforcement general, the general couldn't help but glanced at the back and exclaimed in amazement. The general is struggling to kill the enemy: "How do you say it?" "General, facing the siege of at least tens of thousands of people in the east, not only did he not retreat half a step, but he forcibly ripped open a small hole in the opposing army. According to the current situation Looking at the situation, it won't be long before he can break through. Grandma's, I've been fighting for a lifetime, I've never seen this kind of gameplay." The general said in confusion. "Do you think I've seen it? It's really . Damn, one person can support a large army of tens of thousands. What the hell, how come I haven't heard of it before. Ah." The general also said with a wry smile. "Grass, there are tens of thousands of people in our group. We can't be better than one person." The general scolded depressed, and his fighting spirit was rekindled, and he rushed in more violently. The general smiled lightly, gritted his teeth, and killed him directly. Soon, under the leadership of the generals, the troops in the south began to tear up the defensive net in the south.

Although the enemy troops quickly replenished their aid when they discovered such a situation, they wanted to suppress the momentum when the reinforcements were already on the rise.

Obviously, this is a little too difficult.

The more the reinforcements fought, the more courageous the gap was.

"Hold on, they are so tired that they can't attack for long. If you hold on, you will win. Brothers, fight with them to the end ."

Sure enough, with the words of the coach, the enemy quickly recovered.

The two sides fought again. Although it was difficult for the enemy to stop the rising reinforcements, the difficulty for the reinforcements to break through the siege was also crazy.

"Commander, the enemy's counterattack is too fierce. We... our soldiers' physical strength has reached the limit. If we can't kill them within a quarter of an hour, I'm afraid... I'm afraid that morale will plummet, and we will fall into misery again." Will be in a hurry.

The reinforcement general knew this, of course, but now the two sides are like that layer of window paper, and they are always difficult to pierce.

“You lead the team quickly and go to the east to ask the young heroes. Now it has reached its limit, and it is still a dead end. I don’t know what to do, unless there are reinforcements.”

However, just when he finished speaking, He suddenly heard a strange breath coming from afar...

Chapter 4260

“What is that ?!” The general who was about to act, suddenly looked behind him, and saw the black cloud behind him Rolling, pressing down all the way.

The foul-smelling wind was also blowing from the other side, which was indescribably strange.

Not only him, the generals and soldiers beside him, and the enemy on the opposite side also slowly stopped their movements, all of which were attracted by the rolling black clouds.

“Buzz!” The

ground trembled slightly, and the trees swayed gently with it.

It seems that under the black cloud, in the jungle, some behemoths are coming in groups.

“What’s the situation?” “Damn

, there seems to be something rushing towards us over there!” “Damn, there’s nothing around here, how could something rush towards us?”

“Damn, this is Are you looking for death?” A group of people were in a halo, obviously it was difficult to guess what happened.

There was only George Han alone, smiling softly.

Now is the stalemate between the two armies, and it is simply the best move to have a breaker appear.

“The surprise for you is here.” George Han smiled coldly.

“Roar!”

A long roar broke through the silence, and then, a black wolf roared out of the jungle first!

“Black... black wolves!”

“This... isn’t this the black wolves from the north of the main city?”

“Damn, why did it come here?”

“Damn, it must be lost, right?”

However, a group of people just thought so, and more and more dogs rushed directly behind the black wolf. come over.

From a distance, many people withdrew on the spot.

What kind of lonely wolves are they? It's a huge area. They murmured and muffled, with a bloodthirsty attitude.

Many people have seen these beasts from a distance when they were besieging the north of the main city.

They all know that this is not an ordinary beast at all, but a monster that has lost its mind. They only have endless killing, no pain, and they don't know how to retreat.

It is difficult for anyone to face such an enemy.

Otherwise, the Pei family would not have chosen to focus on defense against these black wolves.

After all, how willing are you to fight him when you know that someone else is taking your life for you? And if there is more than one such life-threatening thing, there are tens of thousands!

As long as it's fleshy, who doesn't feel a little hairy when he goes to fight?

Even George Han himself would definitely be like this.

Fortunately, George Han can control !

All monsters are mutated by the gas generated by the explosion of the forbidden area of death. This is because after the explosion of the forbidden area of death, all the yin inside the forbidden area leaked out collectively. These monsters were swallowed by the yin qi. It's changed.

But no matter what, these black qi are always the most important thing to control them.

Coincidentally, George Han is now the father of these Yin Qi.

In George Han's body, that swallowed the lava monster, and the lava monster was the master of the secret realm. Wouldn't it be easier for him to control the things that these little black gas turned into? !

"The reinforcements have arrived, what are you waiting for?"

George Han shouted in a hurry, and in the next second, he directly activated his body's energy to the maximum and killed the enemy beside him.

"What?"

"So...that's our reinforcements?"

"Aren't you joking with us? Are you bluffing the other side?"

"These black wolves and monsters, at first glance, are not good, and I even doubt that they are at all. It can't be the kind of violent thing that can distinguish between the enemy and us, how can it be possible... Maybe it's our friendly army?"

A group of reinforcements couldn't help but asked curiously.

The general looked at the reinforcement general: "Commander, what should we do now?"

"Is there any other choice?" Shaking his head, the general turned his heart: "Whether they are our reinforcements or not, we have no other choice, for the time being, Use a dead horse as a living horse doctor."

"Order the troops, break through the siege!"

Pulling from both sides of the southeast side at the same time will definitely make room for the beasts to attack, and in turn, the attack of the beasts can also pull the line of defense to the limit!

Success or life and death are on the line! !

"Kill!"
