

HTC 4261

Chapter 4261

“Kill!” The

soldiers were also excited again, maximizing the energy in their already tired bodies.

All of them know that they do not have so much time and physical strength to consume, and the only choice is one, and that is to succeed in one blow.

With their pulling, the huge army of beasts, led by the black wolf, also rushed towards the enemy.

The fierceness of the beast lies in its ferocity.

If the murderer also has fearless death, then it is crazy.

As the beasts came in, a group of soldiers fell to the ground on the spot, rolling on the ground frantically and shouting in agony.

“Enough is enough, it’s my time to come.”

George Han laughed coldly, and his hand moved suddenly.

“Boom!”

The Skyfire and Moon Wheels met directly and exploded in front of him on the spot!

As the ground shook and the mountains swayed, all of them were covered in dust for several meters, and those who got close were completely blown away.

Han

George Han suddenly flew away, heading south.

“What are you doing, breaking the siege and withdrawing the army!” The reinforcements were turning around in surprise when the explosion was behind them, but George Han’s figure had already flown over his head, and a loud shout brought him back to reality.

“Get out of here!” There was another angry shout, and I saw George Han directly holding the sword in both hands, leading the sky to slash!

boom!

The sword qi was like a rainbow, and it was like a huge Optimus Prime crashing down. Wherever it passed, there was no grass, and it just split a half-meter-wide unmanned path in the enemy’s encirclement.

The reinforcement general couldn’t help swallowing his saliva and wiped the sweat from his forehead.

What the fu is this power?

A sword actually split like this! ?

Fortunately, it is not his own enemy, otherwise, who the hell can stand it?

One person, one unit.

I thought this must be a joke before, but now... I really don't have the slightest bit of bragging!

"Brothers, the breach has been opened, kill me!"

"Kill!"

With the commander's drink, the entire army became completely motivated, and followed George Han all the way towards the periphery.

On the enemy's side, several generals also hurried back to their commander-in-chief, looking at the reinforcements who were about to break through successfully from the south and couldn't help but hurriedly said.

"Commander! We... what should we do?"

"That group of monsters suddenly killed us and caught us by surprise, and even with a huge number of them, it was extremely fatal. Our western defense line was already weak, and now it has been directly torn apart. With the collapse of the defenses on the western front, the already precarious southeastern side was completely in trouble under the confluence of George Han and the opposing army."

"Commander, they are about to break out. We What should I do?"

Ordering people to quickly go to the south to replenish, and the east army to support is the best solution.

But unfortunately, the gap on the western front has been opened, and a large number of beasts have already rushed to the center. Even if the army from the east goes to support, it will never have any effect in the end. They will be sniped by those beasts.

The commander did not speak, he already knew the result roughly.

It can't be said that they lost, but their annihilation plan can basically declare bankruptcy.

George Han first pulled the line of defense, but at the most critical moment, he suddenly dispatched a group of beasts to break the balance.

Within a millimeter, he found a gap, and relying on this gap, he succeeded in breaking through.

There are subtle tactical coordination!

But what shocked the commander even more was the basis for George Han to implement this plan.

“One person is really used as an army of tens of thousands of people. At the beginning, we laughed at this guy for being a fool, but we didn’t expect that we are the real fools.” The commander shook his head helplessly.

“Yeah, this George Han is really ferocious, and our Eastern Front troops are also tens of thousands of elites, but not only can’t deal with him, but he was forced to punch a hole. Such a fierce person has never been seen before. “

I’m afraid, it’s just that the hidden masters of our demons have come out.”

With a wry smile, the commander shook his head: “Order the troops, give up the siege.”

“We should hurry to gather our troops and quickly go to the main city. Set up the second line of defense.” The general nodded: “The first line of defense has been defeated so thoroughly that we have gained so much power, this second line of defense...” The commander smiled bitterly: “Listen to fate, meet such an opponent. , what can you do?”

At this time, on the southern defense line, the reinforcements had already broken through the siege...

Chapter 4262

Although George Han was originally a leader, he chose to stand in the air when it came to the exit, and continued to support it with firepower, so that more people Breakout can be completed more safely.

Ten minutes later, the reinforcements had basically completed a large-scale breakout, and quickly escaped into the jungle, hiding their whereabouts.

The enemy did not choose to pursue, but instead quickly gathered the encirclement.

Where do they have time to pursue the enemy, these tens of thousands of beasts are enough for them to have a headache.

“Damn George Han.” The enemy commander had no choice but to yell angrily in the direction the reinforcements were leaving.

But he was really annoyed, even if he broke their siege, these beasts George Han had no intention of withdrawing at all, which left them a huge mess.

You kill these things, waste your troops.

But don’t kill them, these things are agile, and their attack power is amazing, and they will also lose troops.

It’s not going in, it’s not going back, it’s fuing hard.

“Leave one troop and try to block this group of beasts, and the others will rush back to the main city with me. We must not let this group of beasts delay our time. Once they arrive at the main city before us, we will be completely finished. "Leave a sentence, reason still overcomes anger, the commander ordered.

The generals took orders one after another, and sent the order down. Soon after, the army started.

In the jungle at this time, the reinforcements finally ran for miles, tired and panting.

"Stop!" The general waved, and the troops stopped.

"It's safe, you can rest for a while." George Han

Qian slowly fell from the sky and said softly.

"Han Shaoxia."

Seeing George Han, whether it was a general or a group of generals, their faces were filled with respect and a faint smile appeared on the corners of their mouths.

For them, they had already fallen into a state of death, and George Han was the savior who completely pulled them out of it.

"It was me who was stupid before and commented on you with the knowledge of the frog at the bottom of the well. I also asked a lot of young heroes. The adults don't care about the villains, and don't have the same knowledge as us." The general first apologized on behalf of the entire army.

George Han waved his hand: "It's all my own. It's polite to say these words. There's no need.

"Han Shaoxia, I've licked blood on the tip of my knife all my life

. I've seen all kinds of fierce people, but like you... this is the first time I've opened my eyes."

"Yeah, Han Shaoxia, do you dislike it? If so, we'll be your apprentice, let alone learn like you, if you can learn one trick and a half, that's fine."

"Haha, Han Shaoxia directly raised the upper limit of our understanding of the world's masters, you guys I'm afraid it's not that easy to be an apprentice." The general said with a smile.

"As long as Han Shaoxia is willing to accept us, we can be both cows and horses."

Seeing the excited appearances of several generals, George Han waved his hands indifferently and said with a smile: "I'm still young, even if I want to. Accepting apprentices is not now."

"Besides, you are all from the Pei family. If you follow me, the Pei family owner will not have to fight for me?" With joke, Yun Danfengqing rejected them, and would not let them too much. too embarrassing.

"Everyone, although we are temporarily safe, there is no way to stop." George Han said sternly: "The enemy will soon retreat near the main city, or directly enter the main city."

“So, there is not much time left for us.”

After hearing this, the generals returned to their seriousness. “Han Shaoxia, we can set off immediately after a short repair. What are your arrangements?”

“Yes, we will do what you say

.”

He didn’t speak for a while, and his brows were furrowed as if he was thinking about some countermeasures. After a while, he looked up at the general: “General, I have some ideas, you see, is this feasible?”

Chapter 4263

general frowned slightly, but the whole person’s attitude was very humble: “I also ask the young hero to advise.”

George Han stretched out his hand, partial It will be understood immediately, and a map will be presented soon.

George Han pointed slightly and pointed to one of the places: “We will attack from here.” The reinforcement general looked at the map and couldn’t help but feel a little confused: “Young Xia, I have some doubts here, I don’t know why the young Xia chose this place as the Attack point?”

“Yes, the last commander is also a bit difficult to understand. This is the west of the city, and the terrain is the most flat. If the enemy occupies our main city and uses the city defense to construct fortifications, in terms of the flatness of the west of the city, we are no different. So we are a target.”

“The main city’s fortifications are top-notch. As the Pei family, we all know this very well. Under such conditions, it is already extremely difficult for us to attack hard. If we have to choose In the flattest land, what I am worried about is not only the serious loss of troops, but whether we can still complete the liberation of the main city under the serious loss.”

“Han Shaoxia, we don’t mean to disrespect you, but Obviously, it is better to choose the south, north or east for the siege battle. For these three sides, you can either rely on the woods to hide, or you can rely on the mountain to attack, why...”

George Han nodded and smiled: “ Han understands the concerns of the commanders. But Han believes that there are only two advantages to the west of the city.”

“One is that we can think of the best place to attack, and it must be the place where the enemy’s defense is most closely guarded, which seems to be easier to attack. , is also theoretically relative. Once the other party deploys defenses in these places, this relative theory will cease to exist.”

“Second, the terrain in the west of the city is open, and once we invade the city, for the enemy troops, There is also a better escape route, and they are both alive and easier to choose to give up resistance. “

As for the third point, you will find out later. " After that, George Han looked at the reinforcement generals and the generals, waiting for their approval.

Everyone, look at me, I look at you, George Han made some sense, but obviously... it seems too much. After taking the risk, it was difficult for them to decide for a while.

"I agree with Han Shaoxia's strategy. For nothing else, just because he helped us to counterattack successfully in the dead state just now, otherwise, how can I have the life to speak here now? "

That's right, this life itself is no longer mine, so what if his mother dies again?" I also listen to Han Shaoxia's arrangement. "

One person spoke out, and everyone gradually agreed, and most of them reached an agreement for a while.

The reinforcement general has more burdens on his shoulders. After all, he has the responsibility and obligation to lead the troops, and he can't lead the troops at will by simply relying on loyalty. However, thinking of George Han

's performance in leading the army to break through the siege in the face of adversity, he turned his heart and nodded: "Han Shaoxia, then it will be as you said. "

George Han smiled: "Commander, I said, you are the commander in this battle. "

"You rest for a while, you need to arrive at the west of the city in a quarter of an hour." However, remember, you must be careful to hide until you get my signal. When the time is right, white smoke will rise from the city. "George Han said.

Hearing this, someone doubted: "Young Xia, are you not with us?" "

"Yeah, you're going back to the city?" "

"That group of people can't snipe us, and now they must bring a large number of troops into the city quickly. If you want to enter the city at this time, I am afraid it is more difficult than going to the sky, right?" "

"Young Hero, this move is very dangerous and difficult, I think, you should stay with our large army, right?" "

Seeing everyone's worried appearance, George Han shook his head: "Don't worry, don't say they have only that many people, even if there are twice as many people, they can't stop me from entering the city."

George Han wanted to go in and out as a person. In the main city, George Han really didn't think that their rabble group could resist him.

Even in George Han's eyes, they may not be able to perceive their entry and exit from the city.

"Before I came to help you, I came out of the main city." George Han smiled lightly.

“Okay, follow the plan, time is running out.” When everyone heard this, they could only bow their heads in yes.

After all, rescuing the main city is their greatest responsibility and obligation.

However, at the moment when everyone bowed their heads and nodded yes, when they looked up again, there was still a figure of George Han in front of them...

Chapter 4264

“Report!” In the main city, Mingyu’s temporary residence.

She had just rested for a while, and was about to get up and come out to check the situation, but she heard an urgent report from the spies.

When she came out of the room, a few cronies rushed to her door as soon as possible, and the spies had also arrived and were kneeling on the ground.

Ming Yu raised his eyes slightly and looked at the spies: “What’s the matter? Has the battle on the front line already had a result?”

According to the time, the front line should almost have a general result.

Otherwise, Ming Yu would not wake up after taking a short rest early.

“Reporting to the elders, the battle ahead has indeed come to an end, but...” The spy did not dare to continue, and buried his head very deeply.

Ming Yu frowned: “Speak.”

“The ambush failed. Commander Ma is withdrawing his troops to the city. He hopes that the elders can order people to open the city gate so that they can come in and defend the city.”

At end, the voice of the spy had already extremely small.

“Failed?” Ming Yu was startled.

Almost at the same time, a few cronies next to him were also full of horror.

One of them was even more excited and directly grabbed the spy: “What did you just say? The front... the front lost?” “

If you have something, say it again.”

What are you doing to piss him off when he loses?

However, he didn’t dare to contradict, so he hurriedly said: “The front is indeed defeated. When I heard that the reinforcements had already been surrounded and were about to be wiped out, a master suddenly came out. This master can block tens of thousands of people by one person, which is very powerful. After that, the wild beast on the north side of the city suddenly attacked again for some reason.”

“Our army was caught off guard, and the defense line was completely disintegrated and torn, so...”

The man heard the words and slammed the spy out in anger. Throwing it directly on the ground, he was extremely angry.

“You bastard, if we can’t wipe out the reinforcements, then for us, it’s simply losing the most important trump card.” The reinforcements are still there, and they will launch an offensive against the city.

“We have no other choice but to kill them as quickly as possible. Then complete our goal in the main city.”

“Otherwise, once we have a tug-of-war with them, we will inevitably die.”

“At that time, more reinforcements rushed to help, and it would be difficult for us to defend the empty city alone.”

“Elder, we are going to start the second set of plans.”

Ming Yu did not speak, and thought for a while, it was fortunate that she fought with George Han. Much more cautious, not betting on ambush from the start.

She had already made a second set of preparations.

“Order the city defense to open the gate and let outside troops enter the city to garrison.”

“In addition, immediately gather all the troops in the city and prepare to attack the Pei mansion .

” Ming Yu’s face was icy cold, and he also walked out of the house. A short while later, the troops outside the city had already pulled out and returned to the city, and quickly deployed their defenses at various city gates, waiting solemnly for the reinforcements from the Pei family.

And the soldiers in the city, except for those who surrounded Pei’s house, have all gathered in front of the door of Pei’s house, waiting for Ming Yu to personally command.

“Send the order, immediately invade the mansion and kill Pei Gu.”

As long as Pei Gu is killed, they can make Pei Hu the king.

With Pei Hu’s current situation, once he is in power, he may be able to be made a puppet by Ming Yu and others.

At that time, the crisis can be resolved, and the Pei family’s forces will basically be infiltrated by themselves, and the purpose of this battle will be achieved.

Originally, Ming Yu wanted to do this for a long time, but what happened was that George Han suddenly appeared to disrupt the situation, which made her have to act cautiously, and wanted to wait for the army to come back and clean up.

But what I didn’t expect was that the ambush outside failed.

This made Ming Yu have to implement another set of plans in advance.

Although this is not what Ming Yu wants most, but now there is no other way but to bite the bullet.

“Are you all ready?” Ming Yu reviewed the troops and said coldly.

“It’s all ready.” The cronies said softly.

“The soldiers on the defense line outside the house saw George Han and tried every means to delay it. The people here rushed in with me, and they were bound to kill Pei Gu. You go and tell the people below and give me twelve points of spirit. Once we can’t kill Pei Gu, we will only live and die for a moment, do you hear it clearly?”

“Yes!”

“Kill!”

Ming Yu waved his hand, and the action officially began!

Chapter 4265

“Kill!” “Those who raise their hands and surrender, don’t kill!” The army entered the mansion, and it was like a flood in an instant. “We are Pei Hu’s subordinates.” Pei ‘s mansion, which was originally closely guarded, not only did not resist at all, but instead followed the enemy’s army into the mansion and killed it. Zhu Yanshuo smiled gloomily, he knew that the plan had succeeded. Pei Hu is a huge hot potato, and Zhu Yanshuo believes that it is difficult for Pei Gu to solve this matter. Li, he will only make Pei Hu never satisfied, because Pei Hu has even tasted the taste of the owner. Not to mention the fall, he has already reached the pinnacle of power, how can he still taste the taste of the lower order. Therefore, for Zhu Yanshuo, no matter what the final result is, it cannot be handled. Unless he kills his own prince. But Zhu Yanshuo does not think this possibility exists. After all, it takes a long time for the Pei family to cultivate a next generation, and most importantly, if a prince is killed, what will the people who follow the prince think? They are all in danger, and once they ignite them, they will rebel. So, it’s going to be a dead end. No matter what, Pei Gu couldn’t understand it. As soon as they entered the door, the troops turned out to betray, which was expected by Zhu Yanshuo.

“Elder, everything is going well.” Zhu Yanshuo walked gently beside Ming Yu and smiled.

Ming Yu nodded: “We need to kill Pei Gu as soon as possible. As for George Han, we can hold him back. Although I really want to kill him, he is not very important for our strategic significance this time.”

“This subordinate understands that the subordinate has already ordered it to go on.”

Ming Yu

nodded and did not speak any more.

But at this moment, the Pei family troops who followed their troops suddenly picked up the long swords in their hands, and slashed at the Mingyu troops.

After that, before Ming Yu and Zhu Yanshuo had reacted, the door of Pei’s house closed instantly!

“Kill!”

I heard a violent shout from the mansion, and in the next second, I heard only the sound of the collision between the knife and the flesh, the sound of blood spraying, and the tragic shouts of the soldiers...

“What’s the situation?” Ming Yu frowned. A wrinkle.

Zhu Yanshuo was also completely shocked, and obviously did not understand what happened at the scene.

“Those people...why beat our people?”

“That bastard Pei Hu, isn’t he crazy? At this time, he is still helping his father beat us?”

“Is he sick?”

“Damn, if you help us, he will be able to atone for his sins with his father? Doesn’t he know that in the Game of Thrones, a stain is always a stain?

” Ah.”

After a group of people reported it, they immediately cursed again and again.

Zhu Yanshuo turned around, faced Ming Yu, and hurriedly made amends: “Elder, why don’t I immediately bring some experts in to find Pei Hu and explain the ins and outs to him?”

“That kid should be a fool.”

Ming Yu hesitated for a while, if Pei Hu really didn’t know the fun and helped his father to counterattack him, this would be a very difficult problem indeed.

“Go, go and come back quickly.” Ming Yu finally nodded.

Zhu Yanshuo didn’t dare to delay in the slightest, and hurriedly led the people to climb over the wall and enter the mansion from another place.

Ming Yu’s thoughts were a little chaotic, she really didn’t understand why the situation became like this.

Obviously

she has already arranged everything, and even thought about all the countermeasures, but why does everything turn around in an instant as long as she meets George Han? !

It was clear that he was already in a rush before, and he even successfully entered the opponent’s main city.

However, it is only one step away, just one breath away!

“George Han, are you doing a ghost again?” “What the hell are you doing?”

Looking at the sky of the mansion, Ming Yu fell into the process of doubting life.

At this time, in the mansion, there was already a shadow of swords and blood, and most of the people were completely caught in the melee. Under this night, they looked tragic and desolate.

Zhu Yanshuo led several masters into it while taking advantage of the chaos, and went all the way to the inside...

He had to ask that idiot Pei Hu to make it clear, of course, if he could meet Pei Gu, it would be fine to kill him... ..

Chapter 4266

According to the secret report that Pei Hu gave to himself before, it is not difficult to find the location of Pei Hu.

A group of more than a dozen people quickly touched the innermost side of the main mansion.

A few minutes later, they finally arrived at the humble house that Pei Hu had disclosed when he sold the information earlier.

“Stop!”

Zhu Yanshuo stretched out his hand and ordered the entire army to stop temporarily. He frowned, very strange.

Grandma’s, it’s not quite right.

Although Pei Hu is already guilty, he is at least the prince. No matter how downhearted he is, there should be guards around him.

Damn, why is it so quiet in front of this door? ! Not even a shadow.

“Disperse.” Zhu Yanshuo ordered.

Suddenly, more than a dozen people behind them quickly divided into four teams, and they ran behind Zhu Yanshuo in different directions.

In this way, under any circumstances, they can provide timely support and retreat at any time.

“Go!”

Zhu Yanshuo shouted at the person beside him.

The man nodded, bent over and rushed to the door, then kicked the door directly.

The next second, the two teams rushed through the door first.

However, as soon as the crowd arrived at the door, they were completely dumbfounded.

There were seven or eight people in the room, but these people were not drowsy or dead. All of them had their hands and feet tied behind their backs, with huge white cloths stuffed into their mouths.

Seeing the person coming, they struggled desperately, trying to get this group of people to save them.

“City Lord Zhu.” The subordinates hurriedly looked at Zhu Yanshuo.

Zhu Yanshuo got up and went inside, looking at the scene, he couldn't help but be surprised. These seven or eight people were none other than Pei Hu

's already close friends.

He hurriedly ordered his subordinates to untie a few people, and asked anxiously, "What's going on?"

Pei Hu was tied for several hours, his hands and feet were almost numb, but at this time he couldn't care about so much, and hurriedly replied: "I don't know what's going on. In the middle of the night, a group of people suddenly rushed in and couldn't help but say that they tied us directly.

Hearing this, Zhu Yanshuo frowned: "What about your people? You didn't tell them to attack us?" "

What are you kidding? Brother Zhu, since I have told you all the secrets in the house, how could I possibly Send someone to kill you?" Pei Hu said wrongly.

"But the problem is... after our people attacked, they were indeed attacked by your people."

Impossible!" Pei Hu shook his head flatly: "Although they are also Pei's family, they have always followed me. Don't look at me. They were bound, but without my order, they would never dare to act rashly."

"Neither can your father? He is the head of the Pei family." Zhu Yanshuo said.

"It's true that my father is the head of the family, but I can also tell you clearly that these people are all my confidants, he can't!" Pei Hu said.

Looking at Pei Hu's expression, Zhu Yanshuo has been observing carefully.

But judging from his experience, what Pei Hu said was extremely sincere, and it definitely didn't seem like he was deceiving himself.

The question is, if what Pei Hu said is true, why would those people attack their own troops? !

"Could it be..." Zhu Yanshuo frowned.

Although Pei Hu is impulsive

, but obviously not a fool: "Isn't it my person?"

It seems that this possibility is very high at the moment, otherwise, this can't explain the fact that his soldiers will act rashly without their own orders. hand.

"Your father has changed your crew, and now the people guarding the city are still his crew, not yours." Zhu Yanshuo instantly understood the trick.

Pei Hu was also taken aback, as if that was the case.

"City Lord Zhu, what should we do now?" Pei Hu said.

“What should I do?” After Zhu Yanshuo understood, he suddenly smiled bitterly: “We have been tricked.”

“Then hurry up?”

“If you can’t leave, this is a game.” After the words fell, there was a sudden cold wind outside the door. Attacked, after that, a figure stood there!

Chapter 4267

This figure is light and secret, so that the masters of the two teams outside the door did not even find him. When did it come, and when did it stand not far from them.

Pei Hu and the others were shocked when they saw the shadow at the door just after listening to Zhu Yanshuo’s words.

But when they saw who was coming, they were filled with more anger.

Han three thousand!

“It’s you!” Pei Hu was furious!

Zhu Yanshuo’s face was also dark, he should have thought of it long ago.

Since the outbreak of the war until now, he has never seen George Han appear!

George Han should have made other preparations, and has been waiting for him to jump into the pit.

Now, he seemed to fully understand.

“George Han, you are so sinister.” Zhu Yanshuo scolded coldly.

From the beginning, it was a huge trap and conspiracy.

“If I guess right, the first news from Pei Hufang is true, and it was arranged by you intentionally, right?”

George Han didn’t speak, and looked at Zhu Yanshuo quietly.

“At the same time that Pei Hu gained our trust, you secretly gathered a group of pro-Pei Gu forces. On the surface, it was to consolidate the defense of the mansion, and we and Pei Hu both believed in this. In fact, you used this group of forces to secretly do tricks, am I right?”

This time, George Han smiled lightly.

After the replacement shift, the soldiers seemed to go down to rest, but in fact, they were led by Pei Gu and the seven princesses to the backyard to find George Han.

The arrangement that surprised Pei Gu and the seven princesses was actually very simple, but it sounded a little crazy.

The thousands of soldiers took advantage of the fact that the guards were not paying attention, and secretly went to the guard post.

The sentry did not expect that the soldiers who were handed over to the shift would turn back soon, and the people at the sentry were Pei Hu

's people themselves, and their vigilance was actually extremely low.

The reason is very simple, the Pei family will not do anything to them, and the people outside are also their group. Therefore, in their cognition, in fact, everything is just pretending.

Don't worry.

But it was precisely because of this mentality that George Han grabbed him and beat him.

"In fact, the guards have been replaced silently."

"In order to prevent Pei Hu and others from finding out, you even sent someone to tie them up secretly. In this way, it is even more unknowing. I"

"" No!" George Han opened his mouth: "You are wrong, Pei Hu, an idiot, can be stolen by you, which is enough to show his arrogance and arrogance."

"I replaced a mere mansion . Do I still need to kidnap him? Zhu Yanshuo, don't you think this idea is ridiculous and naive?"

After saying this,

Zhu little ugly, and he held back his anger: "Then you tie him up. The purpose is..."

"Tie him, once you attack, you will suddenly find that the situation is not right, and the troops are in chaos, what will you do?" George Han laughed.

The situation is chaotic, and they need Pei Hu for support, so they will inevitably come in to find Pei Hu in a hurry.

Once he finds Pei Hu, he will inevitably be released by George Han first and then shut down, forming the current situation.

"George Han, you are really full of scheming." Zhu Yanshuo was anxious.

He was already careful enough, but he never imagined that at the last moment, he was still fooled by this guy.

This guy is simply too sinister. He sets traps almost everywhere, making you hard to guard against. It can be said that you can avoid the first day of the first year but not the fifteenth.

"On the battlefield, the emphasis is either on Boob's camp, or the soldiers never tire of deceit. Zhu Yanshuo, if you ca n't well, are you looking for such a bunch of broken excuses?" George Han sneered.

Zhu Yanshuo's words got stuck in his throat, his skills were not as good as others, and he was speechless.

“George Han, if you are fuing cruel, I have nothing to say. However, you don’t have to be too proud. Our reinforcements have already won. If you are smart, let us go immediately. For the sake of letting us live, I can also let you live.” Zhu Yanshuo said coldly.

Soldiers don’t tire of cheating.

Although his troops outside suffered a defeat, George Han didn’t know.

He can completely fool George Han.

Anyway, the purpose of their trip is more important than killing George Han, so it is a good choice to exchange life for life.

George Han smiled slightly: “This proposal is very good, but Zhu Yanshuo, you have missed one thing...”

Chapter 4268

Zhu Yanshuo lied, but George Han responded so indifferently, and now he was obviously a little guilty, but at this time he had no choice. He could only hold on until the end, and looked at George Han coldly.

“What if... I know what’s going on outside? I mean... Have you ever thought about the battle you fought to help, I participated in?”

“You... How could you have participated? Are you bluffing me?” Zhu Yanshuo frowned.

George Han smiled softly: “Didn’t you bluff me again?”

Zhu Yanshuo felt guilty, but his mouth was still hard: “What did I bluff you for? The city is very strictly guarded, how could you go out? I see, yes You’re bluffing me.”

He had to find out from George Han’s mouth whether George Han had really gone out.

If not, then he will be more confident when he fools George Han.

“I’ve

already said that Pei Hu is just a piece of shit.” George Han said: “Just like him, who still wants to be the head of the family, I don’t think it’s any different from that Ye Shijun.”

“Arrogant and stupid.”

Pei Hu was angry . In conclusion, he is obviously smart and has the courage to act and fight.

However, when Zhu Yanshuo stopped Pei Hu, what he wanted to know more was his own guess.

“Even if Pei Hu can’t do it, there are still our guards outside the mansion. Where is there no eyeliner in the sky and the ground? Even if they can’t stop you George Han, they won’t be able to find your whereabouts, right?”

“I know you There is someone around you who can act unknowingly in the soil, but this time you came to Pei’s house, you shouldn’t have brought him here.”

“So, how could you go out quietly?”

George Han sneered: "Can't I rely on myself?"

If it was the previous George Han, without the help of pangolins, he would like to be like this It is obviously impossible to leave safely under the heavy siege.

But the current George Han is simply a breeze.

"Don't say you didn't expect me to go out at all. Even if you did, you might not be able to detect it." George Han sneered.

They came in to help Pei Gu by themselves. Naturally, Zhu Yanshuo and others didn't think that they might sneak out of the city. Their fortification was more to prevent people from killing them, rather than to detect whether there was any change.

In this case, George Han, who is already completely different, can naturally go in and out more like a ghost...

"Impossible, absolutely impossible!" Zhu Yanshuo shook his head repeatedly: "Even if you can really do it So, what about the city defense outside?"

"From the beginning to the end, we never opened the city gate , and the city wall is very high, even if you fly, we will always be aware of it."

George Han smiled lightly: " Some things are of course incomprehensible with your Zhu Yanshuo's cultivation. It's like in our hometown, the ancients could never understand airplanes."

"I can understand your sense of powerlessness, but you should also put your sights on it. It should be bigger." When the words were finished, George Han's black anger stood out: "Originally, I didn't want to make some stupid proofs on this issue, but when you and I have been fighting for a long time, you are not a fool like Pei Hu. , out of basic respect, I'll show you."

"You watch it, I'm leaving now."

"By the way, I advise you not to try to escape while I'm leaving, because you can't escape. Yes ."

"It's better to keep your eyes open and see how I did it."

When the words fell, George Han pointed to a spherical decoration on the roof in the distance: "Have you seen it? It should be about seven or eight hundred meters away from us."

Zhu Yanshuo nodded. Although the distance is not long, But definitely not short.

If George Han wants to take it, the time needs to be at least a few seconds.

At this time, he can take the opportunity to escape!

The ghost will listen to him obediently and look at it silly here!

He has no interest in that.

"I'll go get it, how about it?" George Han had already seen through Zhu Yanshuo's thoughts, but he didn't mind.

He also knows that this is a stupid act in itself, but in the face of absolute strength, it is not stupid, but a show!

There is a fine line between Tianxiu and stupidity!

"Okay." Zhu Yanshuo nodded while pretending to be still.

George Han smiled and moved directly...

Chapter 4269

next second, his figure has disappeared in place.

Zhu Yanshuo and others were already prepared, and in a hurry they would lift their legs and act.

But not to mention raising his legs, just when the idea of a few people came up, and they didn't even think about where to run straight out, George Han had reappeared in front of them.

So fast, in a way, you could even think he hadn't moved a single bit from start to finish.

So fast, so fast that it's not even the blink of an eye.

But George Han was clearly holding a circular decoration in his hand!

It's nothing else, it's exactly what was just pointed to on the house a few hundred meters away.

"How is this possible?"

"The distance of seven or eight hundred meters is impossible to obtain in such a short time."

"Could it be that it is impossible to take things from the air?"

"But to take things from the air, things have to come, it also isn't it so fast

?"

Everyone was very surprised.

Zhu Yanshuo's face was ashen as he stared at George Han, unable to speak for a while.

In any case, one thing he can be sure of is that George Han didn't lie to himself, and he really didn't have the time or opportunity to escape.

If this is the case, there is actually a bigger problem involved, that is, George Han is not fooling him.

It is very likely that he really went to the battlefield!

Thinking about it, the ambush of the Pei family's reinforcements should be extremely effective for the army that had already been ambushed. Even if it can't completely wipe out the opponent, it can at least make the opponent have no fighting power at all.

But the frontline troops failed!

In this operation, they deliberately did not take Ye Shijun because it was too dangerous to go deep into the enemy's abdomen. The reason was actually that Ye Shijun, the son, was a little too grassroots and suddenly broke out, so that he was arrogant and complacent.

They don't want to fail again and again, so they change coaches temporarily!

Now that the commander of the Fu Army Department is extremely senior, he should not make such a low-level mistake!

However, they lost.

Now calm down and think carefully, there may be other reasons.

Among the other reasons, the most troublesome, and the most likely, is that George Han joined the war.

He should have thought of this long ago.

It's a pity that so many things happened all of a sudden in one night, and he didn't have time to think carefully!

"So, you know." Zhu Yanshuo said coldly.

George Han knew that even though Zhu Yanshuo seemed calm now, he was obviously unable to collapse, and his eyes kept dodging.

"Hmph, you're very good at making inferences. You just told you that soldiers are not tired of cheating, and immediately wanted to make up some fake news to deceive me. But it's a pity, the next time you want to make up something, you'd better find something a little more legitimate. Things, otherwise it will be like today, so embarrassed that you will be so embarrassed."

"However, you have no chance next time."

George Han smiled coldly, and in the next second, he moved his hand directly, aimed at Zhu Yanshuo and killed him directly. .

This bastard breaks ground on his own head again and again. Uncle can bear it, but aunt can't bear it.

The previous opportunity was not very good. George Han often had to take into account the overall situation, but today, the weather, the right place, and the people are all on his side. If he didn't kill him, he would be sorry for the opportunity given by God!

In the face of George Han's attack, Zhu Yanshuo didn't hesitate at all, grabbed the two masters beside him, and threw them towards George Han before they could react.

He and George Han didn't have to fight, so he never thought that he could fight with him from the beginning. Escape is more important than anything.

The two masters had 10,000 dicks jumping past their hearts. How could they think that they would be overshadowed by their own people so quickly.

With people facing forward, the two had no choice but to quickly mobilize the energy of their entire bodies to rush towards George Han.

They had no intention of attacking George Han, but simply wanted to reluctantly resist George Han's onslaught, then left half their lives and quickly escaped from here.

However, sometimes, the ideal is very full, but the reality is extremely cruel.

The two thought very well, but after contacting George Hanyi, there were countless regrets in their eyes instantly.

Their whole bodies really didn't even stop George Han even once, and George Han had already penetrated directly through their bodies, killing Zhu Yanshuo inexorably.

What the hell is this concept? !

Chapter 4270

It is like someone is rushing towards you, but if you just grab two stones on the ground and throw them at it, it should have an effect. Yes.

Not to mention, he still lost two masters.

But Han 3000... directly penetrates!

Yes, it is through.

It 's like George Han is a giant sword, directly splitting the bodies of the two people...

This fuing makes people's scalp numb, and people who watch it are heartbroken.

Because it is obvious that the two sides are not in the same order of magnitude at all. To George Han, their so-called two masters are just his mother's second-hand goods!

But you must know, who can accompany Zhu Yanshuo on such a dangerous mission, what kind of cultivation will be poor? !

"What the hell are you doing? Block me, block it."

Zhu

Yanshuo and while running directly into the house, he rushed several other masters in the same group towards George Han. throw in the direction.

The poor few masters faced the challenge in haste and panic.

However, the number of people was too large, and George Han was somewhat held back because there were still Pei's family in the house, which made the resistance of Zhu Yanshuo and others a little bit temporarily.

At this time, Pei Hu also hid in the corner with his cronies and did not dare to move.

In the past, he regarded himself as the proud son of the heavens, and thought that he had outstanding talent, and under the careful cultivation of the Pei family, he should be invincible to most people.

Until George Han beat him like a goddess, his self-confidence was completely lost.

At least when he saw George Han, he had no heart to fight, and just wanted to hide away to avoid blood splashing on himself.

Outside the house, in the other two pairs were the four masters headed by the Black Mountain Demon Girl. As usual, if someone sneaks up on Zhu Yanshuo, their first reaction must be to rush in to save people.

But today, the four of you look at me and I look at you. They just don't advance but retreat, and they keep moving slowly towards the back wall.

At this time, who the hell is going to die, they all want to run away quickly.

They have also fought against George Han. In front of George Han, they are like children, and they have no ability to fight back. Now that George Han's cultivation is obviously only rising and not falling, how dare they make a mistake?

As long as he is not a fool, he will definitely not die for the so-called loyalty at this time.

In just a moment, the four masters had retreated to the wall, looked at each other, and sneaked away when George Han was not paying attention.

Ming Yu was waiting in front of the mansion, and his emotions were obviously anxious.

It has been some time since Zhu Yanshuo led a group of experts to touch it.

According to the inference, he should not only see Pei Hu at this time, but he should even have finished talking with Pei Hu.

But now, not only have I not seen this guy, but even the killing shouts in the mansion have not changed in the slightest.

This made her very anxious, and she didn't know what Zhu Yanshuo was doing.

Between doubts, the four masters have fled over the wall in embarrassment, and ran all the way to Mingyu.

Seeing the four masters, Ming Yu let out a long breath.

She was not surprised where Zhu Yanshuo went. After all, Zhu Yanshuo was probably in command of the battle with Pei Hu, and the situation was chaotic. Zhu Yanshuo was smart and experienced, so it was normal.

“How is the situation inside?” Ming Yu asked.

The four masters looked at each other, and the Black Mountain Demon Girl gritted her teeth and said, “Elder, we have been caught in George Han’s trick.”

“In the trick?” Ming Yu frowned.

The four masters nodded at the same time, and the Black Mountain Demon Girl told Mingyu everything she heard inside.

When Ming Yu heard this, the whole person couldn’t help being completely dumbfounded.

She would never have imagined that the situation would actually take such a turn!

“What about Zhu Yanshuo now?”

“George Han is about to kill him.” The four masters bowed their heads in unison.

In the house at this time, George Han had already solved a group of masters in a moment, and suddenly rushed towards Zhu Yanshuo.

Zhu Yanshuo looked terrified and looked around, but there was no one of his own who could protect him...
