

HTC 4281

Chapter 4281

“Wow!”

” Wow

The sound is extremely terrifying, extremely infiltrating.

boom!

The ground trembled even more crazily.

Many people are starting to get a little unsteady.

The hurricane hit, cutting the face like a knife.

After that, at the top of the sky, among the clouds, those roars became more intense.

“What’s going on?”

“What’s going on?”

Everyone looked around in panic.

Of course, at this moment, the dust started to shake from George Han’s body, which was completely covered by ashes...

It was like the ashes shaken by the shaking of the earthquake, but it was also like he started to move slightly...

The people who were very close to him were immediately stunned by this scene. They forgot about the hurricane and the earthquake. They just looked at him stupidly, not even daring to blink, for fear of missing something.

“Clap clap!”

A subtle voice began to appear on the corpse, but it was buried in the sound of hurricanes and earthquakes.

“He moved, he moved, he’s not dead!”

The people who were close couldn’t collapse anymore, they shouted loudly and ran around in panic.

They have no direction, only belief, and that is to stay as far away from this ghost as possible...

They were in a mess, and the people next to them started to be in a mess.

They may not have observed the situation of George Han’s corpse, but when they heard the screams of the people inside, they began to run away subconsciously.

As a result, in just ten seconds, a group of people had completely turned into ants on the hot pot, and they couldn't bear to look directly at them.

The two cronies were still some distance away, but seeing such a scene, they couldn't help but feel weak.

Ming Yu and the others are watching behind this damn thing, it seems that it will not work if don't go. But the situation on the other side has already become like that, and it seems that there is no way to come back alive.

And just when the two were in trouble.

suddenly!

Roar!

A roar broke through the sky!

And almost at the same time, a ray of light suddenly burst out from George Han's body, grabbing the sky!

Boom! !

The black clouds in the sky rush away, and then they form a vortex!

At the same time, a dark red light formed in the vortex!

Noisy!

The soaring rays of light go straight into the vortex, intersecting with the dark red light!

The sky and the earth are connected in an instant!

It is both magical and magical, and it is sweeping wildly with huge power!

Bang bang bang!

Centered on the rays of sunshine emitted by George Han, within a few meters in a radius, a hurricane was produced by itself.

"Run, run."

The people around,

even though they were fortunate enough not to be engulfed into powder by the hurricane produced by George Han, but seeing that the teammates in front had already done so, they could only shout hastily and flee frantically.

"Crazy, crazy, what the hell is going on?" The Black Mountain Demon Girl stood where she was and muttered.

Although she seemed calm on the face, she actually knew better than anyone that she was not so-called calm and composed at all, she was simply completely stunned by the sight of George Han in front of her.

She wanted to run very much, but face and fear made her unable to lift her legs at all.

“fu**, this... what’s the situation?”

“Yeah, isn’t George Han already dead? Why is this world... why is it still like this?”

“And he has done too many bad things, even if he died. Want to be accepted by the sky?”

Hearing these words, the Black Mountain Demon Girl hurriedly shook her head frantically: “No, no, it’s impossible, if the sky wants to accept people,

I ask you, why is it not Punishment Thunder but Xianguang?

” Everyone was speechless.

Yes, it should be Ray.

“Could it be that that guy... is God helping him?”

“No... No way? Is it possible that the guy can survive after death?”

“Is there a possibility, I’m just guessing. That guy He didn’t die from the beginning to the end, he...he is just absorbing the energy between heaven and earth through his method?”

When the man said this, it was obvious that the cold sweat on his forehead was already maddening.

This guess is indeed bold and crazy, but it has to be said that he is reasonable.

Everyone is a cultivator, and some situations are actually easy to understand, because George Han’s current appearance is indeed more like this possibility.

But the question is...

if that’s the case, how else can they play with this guy?

Chapter 4282

don’t know, no one will know the answer, and no one wants to know the answer.

But if you think about it a little bit, you will be surprised to know.

Can’t play.

Totally kind!

Because obviously, George Han was almost invincible in front of everyone before he absorbed the energy of the world.

If you want to let him complete the current operation, then?

how do you play?!

“Don’t talk nonsense, you are a typical example of raising the ambition of others and destroying your own prestige.”

“Yes, he was hit by so many of us, and it is impossible for him to die. How could he still absorb the energy of heaven and earth?”

“If I have to find a reasonable explanation, then I think? he may not be completely dead, at this moment he is just trying his best to absorb the energy of heaven and earth to make supplies.”

This

the statement is also tenable, with George Han’s previous brave attitude, it is not so easy to die.

This can also explain why he is in such a situation now.

“Then why don’t we directly ruin his good things before he is absorbed?” Someone suggested.

This is of course a good idea. After all, once it succeeds, George Han will not only be unable to repair himself but will also devour himself because of his madness.

It’s just that the idea is a good idea, and whether or not someone implements it is another matter.

A group of masters sold each other’s hearts just nodded in agreement with the idea, but no one moved even a single bit.

Everyone knows in their hearts that if they guess wrong, then what George Han will give them back is definitely not as simple as hitting you or touching you.

It can only be explained by life there.

A group of masters was indifferent, and Ming Yu and Zhu Yanshuo also roughly guessed this.

Zhu Yanshuo ordered a group of death squads, which are assembling.

At this time, outside the main city?

When the reinforcements had reached the west of the city, they were about to advance but were suddenly blown back by an invisible wind.

Even if the 100,000-strong army behind them was walking in a phalanx, it was the same, and there was a little chaos in the army for a while.

“What’s the matter?” The reinforcement general frowned.

This invisible wind is blowing from the direction of the city, but how did it come?!

The general re-adjusted the direction of the mount, looked into the city, and pointed to the sky-high rays of light and the dark red vortex in the cloud: “Commander, look?”

“Hey, this? what is this?”

“I don’t know, the devil The anger is so heavy, the people who are so far away can’t breathe.”

“fu**, even if we die, we have to go in, inform the brothers, and be careful.”

“Yes.” The

words ended, The army of reinforcements wiped the cold sweat from their foreheads and continued to move forward with the troops.

At almost the same time, in several towns in the Demon Land, people stopped what they were doing, and all looked in the direction of the Pei family's forces.

Some are separated by hundreds of kilometers, some are separated by thousands of kilometers, and some are even farther apart?

But at this moment, almost all of them looked over there obediently.

"What happened to the Pei family? Why is there such a big movement?"

Somewhere farther from Pei's house, a figure slowly appeared on the top of the cliff

There was another figure standing behind him, hearing the former speaker, he smiled slightly: "Even if the Pei family plus the hundreds of thousands of soldiers and horses of the Pei family are all set on fire, it is absolutely impossible for them to burn the fire until we can all see it. "

What do you mean, it's not what happened to the Pei family?" The latter continued to laugh: "Even if the Pei family is what you call an accident, then this shouldn't be what you imagined.

" What do you mean?" The former asked with a slight frown.

The latter smiled lightly, walked in front of him a few steps, looked at the sky-high light of Pei's house in the distance, sighed, and said, "I mean, it's not a thing at all, it's a person." The former saw this, couldn't help but frowned, and looked over there, and suddenly said, "You mean, there are people who defy the sky in the Pei family?"

Chapter 4283

"Yes." The latter voice affirmed.

The former was obviously hesitant, and he couldn't see his expression clearly in the dark, but it was not difficult to imagine that his face must be slightly shocked at this time.

After a while, he suddenly opened his mouth: "As you are, when you opened your mouth, I was speechless, but it's just a person, but there is such a movement, but I always feel something is wrong."

"Wind Demon Lord, you It means that this person's movements are too loud, right?" the latter said.

The person who was called Wind Demon Lord nodded: "To tell you the truth, it is."

"You and I have a lot of experience in this past and present, how many years old, and all kinds of strange phenomena. But? its size, you and I. Everyone knows. Don't you think such a vision is too far-fetched?"

"It is so big that it can be seen in the entire land of the Demon Race. Just ask, what kind of strange person can create such a miracle? " When the words fell, the Wind Demon

Lord looked at the man.

The man smiled helplessly in the dark: "Then have you ever thought about it, this strange person is very likely to be a real person who defies the sky. Note that the person I'm talking about is not an adjective from beginning to end, nor is he exaggerating anyone else. , is a very simple literal meaning."

"The real person who defies the sky?" The wind demon master frowned: "If what you said is true, then, how terrifying this person will be?"

"How terrifying I have never fought, Naturally, I can't give you the answer. But I can be sure."

"Oh, you said." Feng Mo said.

"The future of the entire Demon Race will be rewritten, and even the entire Bafang World." The Wind Demon Lord did not speak, and seemed to be quietly reminiscing.

Of course, at this moment, the latter continued to smile again and said, "For so long, the various parties of the demon race have been sprouting, and they have accumulated a lot of energy. Once the time is ripe, it will inevitably erupt."

"It is precisely because In this way, Bafang World, which has been silent for countless years, has awakened itself, and this person is the person chosen by this world."

"He will completely change the world and open a new chapter in history."

"Of course, this is only my personal Guessing, maybe, I'm exaggerating too much." The Wind Demon Lord did not affirm or deny on this issue, for him, of course, he wouldn't rush to affirm what he didn't want to believe, but he respected and denied the latter. Understanding also made him reluctant to deny it.

He frowned slightly, and said softly, "Why did it happen to the Pei family?"

"Although the Pei family is from the bloodline of the scorpion, as far as I know, their bloodline is not that strong, at least compared to the demons. For other more powerful families."

"It sounds ugly, even if they call themselves scorpions, but they really defy the sky, there is absolutely no possibility of any movement." The latter nodded slightly and said, "This is One point is actually what I am most puzzled about."

"Actually, no matter from which point of view, the Pei family should not be the family that can come out so defiant, but now?" The Wind Demon Lord sighed: "Or , I'll send someone to check it out immediately?"

“It doesn’t have to be the case with a gun.” The latter shook his head: “In any case, there is one thing that cannot be denied is that the people who defy the sky are now in the forces of the Pei family. If you send someone to check it out, let me ask you, what would you do if someone found out?”

As soon as these words came out, Feng Mo was really unable to deal with it for a while.

“That’s when you’ll be a first-timer.”

“What you’ve taught is that curiosity will eventually kill the cat. In your opinion, what should it be?” The latter did not speak, and looked at the airspace.

“The demons all know about this move, and there are people who can’t hold back. Let’s wait and see how things change and get up in peace. This is the best policy, Feng Mo, what do you think?”

Feng Mo nodded: “This plan Very good, then let’s take a step and take a look. In addition, I started to check the surrounding of the demon clan. Since we can’t check it out in person, then we can find out a thing or two from the back of others.”

“Brother Feng . Sure enough, he is a smart person, and he can see through it.”

When the two finished their words, they both looked at each other and smiled.

And at the very center of the Demon Land, the City of Burning Bones.

Somewhere in ruins, everywhere is desolate, just like strangers should not approach.

But in the depths of nearly 100 meters beneath the ruins, there is a huge hole.

There is a stream in the hole, which runs across the vertical pull, like the blood vessels on a heart almost covering the entire hole.

There is red lava in the stream, hot and burning?

Chapter 4284

magma is like blood, boiling red.

Along with these streams, all the way up, is a dark and more terrifying cave.

There are often bloody lights in the cave, and the next second is instantly plunged into darkness.

This cycle is both eerie and bloody and mysterious.

“Huh!” In the cave, a voice suddenly came, as if sighing.

Immediately afterward, two shadows outside the cave quickly flashed into the cave.

“Emperor! You are awake.” The two said in unison.

"I don't want to, of course, someone is disturbing my dreams." The voice was angry.

The two shadows looked at each other, full of strangeness.

"Emperor, there is no dead area in the crypt, let alone a living person, even that living creature is absolutely impossible to approach, you?how can you say?"

"Waste!" The voice became even angrier. Drink: "Don't you two don't know what happened just now?"

Hearing this, another shadow suddenly bowed: "My emperor is saying that the power of the Pei family thousands of miles away suddenly appeared in the sky?"

" Why not?" The

two of them were slightly startled, of course they knew that there was a sky-shattering light over the Pei family, but for one thing, it was thousands of miles away, and secondly, the Emperor of Earth lived 100 meters underground, and it happened on the ground. He should not be particularly clear about what it is.

Unexpectedly, even if it is on the ground and thousands of miles away, the old man knows it clearly.

"Emperor, it's not that the two of us deliberately deceived, it's really?" Hei Ying hurriedly bowed and apologized.

"As long as I want to know about things in the world, there is nothing that can't escape my eyes. Where is the light, but the Pei family's sphere of influence?"

"Exactly, and it should be in the main city. We suspect that the Pei family Something strange might happen on the side.

" Sombra hurriedly said.

"The image of the Pei family is not an extraordinary thing, but an extraordinary person." The voice said.

"An alien?"

"The devilish energy is soaring to the sky, this person is extraordinary."

"Your Majesty, isn't this a good thing? This means that my demon clan has added a tiger general." The shadow complimented.

"Tiger general?" The voice sneered: "Are you unable to understand this word, or do you not know yourself well enough?"

Hearing his words, the shadow hurriedly knelt down: "This subordinate is bold, and I ask the emperor to forgive me. ."

"Forget it, you have no credit or hard work, and you have worked so hard for so many days, this time will be spared, get up."

"Yes." The shadow hurriedly got up.

Another black figure seized the opportunity and said, "By the way, Huang, what did you mean? Your subordinates are stupid, please make it clear.

Right?" he said softly.

"As far as your subordinates know, that's exactly the case. Huang, do you want your subordinates to ask the fifth one?"

"I only have four generals under my command, so why is the fifth one?" The voice sneered: "The fifth one is just a chess piece, why do you need to ask him? Is he worthy?"

"The emperor means?"

"I just want to tell you that the troop sent by the fifth will be back soon, and you can find from it that they What level is the enemy facing, that is, the person who defies the sky."

Hearing this, the two shadows were obviously surprised.

The meaning of the emperor is that the so-called tiger generals in their mouths are actually not clear at all.

"The emperor's intentions, I'll understand."

"It's good to understand." He replied softly, and then added: "There is one more thing you need to pay attention to. Although this son looks extremely demonic on the surface, he is actually demonic. God, evil brings righteousness."

"Your Majesty, you mean that this person is an enemy or a friend, and there is no conclusion yet?"

"Yes, other people may only see his demonic energy in the sky, but I can see it. There are so few other breaths hidden in his demonic energy." The voice fell, and he sighed: "This person must be a person no matter what, remember the plan I told you earlier."

"Subordinates I understand that my subordinates will also follow the emperor's instructions and make steady progress."

"Subordinates too."

"Okay, I am very happy to have you four generals helping me. I am also looking forward to it. When I return, you will have five masters and servants, who rule the world."

"Congratulations to my emperor!" The two shadows responded in unison, and although they knelt down and lowered their heads, it was obvious that they were full of excitement from their words.

At this time, the other end?

Chapter 4285

In a cave less than one kilometer from the border of Pei's house, it is still luxuriously decorated and still unique.

Lu Ruoxin lay down slightly, her graceful and slender body was so perfectly presented, and her slender and white legs made it hard to look away.

"Princess, from the Pei family?"

"It's George Han." Lu Ruoxin smiled softly.

"Why are you so sure?"

"Although the Pei family has some power, so what? In the eyes of this princess, they are nothing but rubbish. Do you think they can make such a big noise?" Lu Ruoxin disdain And the road.

"Princess's words are also reasonable, but do you really think that George Han has been abandoned like that, so he can still make a noise?"

"Hmph, do you think the person this princess likes will be mediocre?" Lu Ruoxin was cold He shouted, and then the beautiful eyes disappeared gloomily, full of pride : "This man is destined to not disappoint anyone."

"In a few days, let's move forward. Get to the City of Burning Bones as soon as possible, I think? he's about to leave too."

"My subordinates understand."

Pei's family, the main city.

The sky filled with light, almost illuminating the entire main city of the Pei family, so that it was almost indistinguishable from the daytime.

"Go!" The

death squad shouted in a hurry, and a group of people rushed towards George Han immediately.

In the master team, several masters could not hold back after all, and followed closely behind.

If George Han is absorbing the energy of heaven and earth, then interrupting him at this time is the only and best chance.

Naturally, none of the people present wanted to give up.

"Humph!"

Suddenly, just as they launched the attack, a cold hum suddenly came.

The next second, those who rushed up immediately regretted it.

As they get closer, they can discover a scary thing . In the light, George Han was no longer as motionless as before.

He's moving now, and he's totally moving.

A pair of bloody eyes also became more terrifying and infiltrating in the glow.

“Want to kill me?” The corner of his mouth twitched!

In the next second, a figure shot out directly!

Brush brush!

The death squad rushing to the front has not yet reflected, but they have fully responded to their team’s name, dare to die?

Like leaves withered, the bodies of team members kept falling from the sky of the raid.

And the shadow didn’t stop at all, and in a flash, he came to the team of some masters behind.

“Swipe!”

Another burst of voices sounded. I thought that the masters could last longer than the members of the death squad, but the fantasy was just a fantasy after all.

They are almost the same as the people in the death squad, in a split second!

“Run, run, run

!” The

Black Mountain Enchantress panicked completely, turned around and ran directly to the far away place.

She just glanced at George Hanshun’s death squad and a group of masters who rushed up, and she already knew that this battle was impossible.

If it was possible to reluctantly take a few moves before, then now, she herself doubts whether she can take that guy’s move.

What a fu*** fart!

Even if Ming Yu was in front of the formation at this time, she was completely lazy to take care of her.

Fuck the commander-in-chief, it’s a big deal that his mother won’t eat this bowl of rice with them in the future, and even if he is caught and punished, isn’t his mother’s thing a matter of the future?

She has to fu*** live now.

As soon as the Black Mountain Demon Girl started running, of course, none of the other two masters were strong. They turned around and chased the Black Mountain Demon Girl and fled together.

Behind, the so-called high cultivation of many masters is no longer used to kill the enemy, but directly used to see who can run faster.

As a result, the soldiers in the entire Mingyu Department also began to be in chaos, like chickens that were plucked, their legs were faster than each other, not for the other, just to avoid being cut in the throat.

“Kill!”

George Han went straight into the crowd, he didn't care whether the enemy was begging or blocking, in his blood-red eyes at this time, there was only one belief.

Kill!

Complete and insane killing!

“Pfft!” The

blood flew all over, the limbs were messed up, and the army of ten thousand people suddenly turned into thousands of ants in an instant.

Zhu Yanshuo stared blankly at this scene, his body trembling uncontrollably?

Even though he fought on the battlefield all year round and was used to seeing life and death, he had never heard of such slaughter and slaughter.

Cruel, so cruel.

Ming Yu also opened his eyes wide, looking at the scene in front of him in disbelief: “How? how could this be?”

Chapter 4286

She really doesn't understand, she really can't understand, why?

Why was George Han attacked by his own army, and he did not die, but instead he became more ferocious and brutal? !

There are people in this world.

But ?

“Report!”

Suddenly, an urgent shout pulled her back to reality from the shock.

Only then did Ming Yu suddenly remember her own situation and her gaffe.

She shook her body and looked at the person who came: “What's the matter?”

“For some reason, the west gate was suddenly opened, and a large number of reinforcements from the Pei family had entered from the west of the city. At this time, they were launching a general attack on our army.”

“What?” Listen At this point, Ming Yu's eyes widened again.

But when she tasted the place at this time, she suddenly understood something: “Tiaohu Lishan.”

Zhu Yanshuo also instantly understood: “George Han knows that our goal is to kill Pei Gu, in order to disintegrate the power of the Pei family, and even support Pei Hu. Puppet. Therefore, he deliberately used Pei Gu to attract us to the east of the city.”

“Fuck, our troops in the east of the city are already good, which will make us mistakenly think that if we can surround Pei Gu in groups, he will die without a doubt, so that the whole Let go of your vigilance. Come on, this damned guy is too cunning, and he sets up pits every step of the way, making it hard to guard against.”

“No wonder I can’t see the remaining forces of the Pei family, I thought? I thought they were panicking and fleeing, We are even more interested in killing Pei Gu, and we were negligent for a while, but?”

Zhu Yanshuo was very depressed and escaped from the pit where Pei’s family was being calculated, but accidentally fell into the trap of being attacked by voices.

Even though he is relatively gentle, his mother’s mentality has long been broken, and he can’t help but curse.

Ming Yu is also trying his best to adjust his breathing so that the anger in his heart can be best released and suppressed.

Zhu Yanshuo has the anger of being teased, doesn’t she have it?

As the commander-in-chief, she is only a lot more than Zhu Yanshuo.

However, she has really tried her best. She has set up a net of heaven and earth, but for some reason, every time George Han always finds a flaw in this net, not only does she break through, but she also completely tore her net every time.

Not only did he return without success, but he also lost money every time he stole chickens.

But at the moment, the enemy reinforcements have broken into the city, and her advantage in military strength is not much. There is still such a perverted Han George Han inside. If she carries it hard, she has no chance of winning.

“Elder, while there is still a chance, let’s withdraw.” Zhu Yanshuo also made up his mind, looking at the soldiers who kept dying in the hands of George Han, he murmured: “While there are so many people around now, it is still difficult to We can barely resist George Han, and the city defense has a lot of troops to cover our breakout, and it’s still too late.?”

But Zhu Yanshuo and Ming Yu knew very well that once they chose to retreat, the loss would be estimable with the naked eye.

Almost all of George Han’s four sides will be killed, and the reinforcements from the Pei family will frantically pursue the poor bandits. Even if they can really break out of the Pei family’s forces, there will be enough troops left at that time.

I am afraid that the number of 200,000 must be reduced by at least three-quarters. I have already lost a lot of troops in the attack on the city , and now I throw a ruthless one, not to mention that I can’t fight with the above, I am afraid, even my heart is really painful? “Elder, don’t hesitate, it’s later. If so, I’m afraid? I’m afraid no one of us can escape. I also know that you love soldiers, but sometimes you have to abandon the car to protect the commander.”

“In addition, George Han will be crazy and violent. We are gone, and the Pei family doesn’t want to have a better life.”

With Zhu Yanshuo’s words, Ming Yu’s inner torment was relieved a lot. Also, his last sentence was quite right.

Without them, the Pei family would have to suffer completely from the anger of George Han’s loss of his wife.

That being the case?

it’s acceptable.

Thinking of this, Ming Yu finally nodded: “Order the troops, withdraw!”

Chapter 4287

Along with Ming Yu’s determination, the entire army finally waited for the heavenly talisman to save their lives.

A group of people couldn’t hold back any longer, and they all fled towards the east of the city.

The defeated soldiers fell like a mountain, coupled with the slaughter of George Han, the hundreds of thousands of troops should be mighty and extraordinary, but now they are more embarrassed.

“Kill!” The

reinforcement general also led his troops into the city at this time. Seeing that the other party had already begun to flee, his morale was immediately high, and with a roar, he led the troops to pursue frantically.

The South Gate Guards collapsed?

The North Gate Guards collapsed? The East Gate Guards simply gave up?

The Ming Yu army completely chose to flee, and every time they came in pursuit, the soldiers of the Pei family would never soften their hands and kill them with a knife.

Therefore, the reinforcements from the Pei family had only chased for a dozen miles, and they had already left thousands of corpses of the enemy on the way.

However, at this time, Ming Yu couldn’t manage so much anymore. Since he was fleeing, there was no turning back.

In the city, George Han is also not soft-hearted, even if he is alone, but killing people is no worse than the hundreds of thousands of reinforcements from the Pei family. In just half an hour, the east gate of the main city of the Pei family is already lying down. a large piece.

Rivers of blood, bones like mountains!

Many even turned into powder directly, leaving no trace.

In another half an hour, the remaining soldiers of the Mingyu Department were almost slaughtered by George Han.

The Pei family's reinforcements had just returned to the city after the pursuit, and the reinforcement general was about to greet George Han.

Not only did they relieve the crisis that they were ambushed at the beginning, but also directly entered the main city in one fell swoop, saving the entire Pei family from danger.

However, he just looked at George Han with one look, which not only made him feel cold on the spot, but also brought disaster to the team.

George Han rushed directly into the team like a hungry tiger rushing for food, and then there was a living humanoid meat grinder. Those who approached in the team would die, and blood and meat pulp began to fly.

"This?" The reinforcement general was dumbfounded.

Han Shaoxia, what happened?

Wasn't it all fine before? Why now?

"Kill!" With

a muffled voice, the frequency in George Han's hands was faster, and the killing was even more numb.

The seven princesses had basically finished clearing the enemy at this time, and they were about to come to the east of the city to join the large army, but when they arrived, they saw this extremely cruel and cruel side.

For a time, the seven princesses didn't know what happened.

"Han? Why is Mr. Han killing our people?"

"Yeah, doesn't he know it's our Pei family reinforcements?"

"Let's go and talk to him." The princesses discussed When she was about to leave, the Seventh Princess suddenly pulled her sisters back: "It seems that the situation is not quite right. You can see that George Han's eyes are blood red, and his whole body is?"

"He is crazy, right? Or? "

Order everyone to control Mr. Han, but never hurt his life." The Seventh Princess made a decisive decision.

"Yes!" The subordinate took the order.

Afterwards, he rushed to the reinforcements in front of the formation to announce the order.

After the reinforcements took their orders, they rallied in the vastness and tried to surround George Han.

“Withdraw, withdraw, withdraw, don’t let the soldiers die in vain.” In the pile of dead people, an old man got up from it.

“Father?” The seven daughters exclaimed when they saw the old man.

At this time, their father, the head of the Pei family, had no dignity, he looked more like a bad old man begging for food.

“George Han is taking revenge, and Amelia Su and Ziqing were hurt to save us. He? It’s all my father’s fault. My father promised to take good care of them, but I?” Pei Gu murmured and shook his head.

Previously, because there were too many soldiers in the Mingyu Department, George Han hadn’t had time to kill him, so he was able to survive in the crowd.

The seven princesses were stunned for a moment, looking at George Han but couldn’t help but feel a very strange feeling.

He always killed the Pei family. Of course they were anxious, but after thinking about it, they seemed to have a completely different feeling.

They are also women, and of course hope that a man can love himself to this point.

Of course, just when they were distracted by this, George Han over there had already been killed from the crowd and looked at them coldly.

The next second, George Han came directly, and everyone was shocked.

But one person is standing in front of everyone at this time?

Chapter 4288

Pei Gu!

George Han stopped slightly, still looking at a dead man, looking at Pei Gu who was standing in front of him.

“Three thousand, for the death of Amelia Su and Ziqing, as the head of the Pei family, I should take full responsibility. I also know that I am sorry for you, but I still say what I said before. If you want revenge, then please Kill me, don’t kill other innocent people in Pei’s family.” After he finished speaking, Pei

Gu closed his eyes: “I’m ready.”

Killed the past.

The Seventh Princess originally thought that George Han would hesitate more. After all, although he did have a grudge, she and he should both know that once George Han's revenge was completed, he would kill Pei Gu.

Then the alliance of the Mysterious Man Alliance and the Pei Family will eventually exist in name only.

This is an alliance of interests. Even if it can't control someone like George Han, it will at least make him worry. But she never thought that George Han didn't even delay for a second.

"Three thousand!"

In a panic, the Seventh Princess rushed up, and immediately pushed Pei Gu away.

And George Han's right palm also directly hit the seventh princess' chest in an instant.

"Pfft!"

Blood spilled wildly on the spot, the seventh princess didn't cry out in pain, but looked at George Han with pain and nostalgia: "George Han, I know that my fate is not worthy of being compared with Amelia Su and Ziqing, but "?"

"But? but please remember that my love for you is no less than theirs. Today, on behalf of the Pei family, I will give my life to my life."

When the words fell, the Seventh Princess closed her eyes slightly and fell down.

"Little Seven!"

Pei Gu was distraught, and rushed to the Seventh Princess in a few steps, holding her gently in his arms, looking at the almost lifeless Seventh Princess, Pei Gu burst into tears.

Among the children of the Pei family

, most of them, Pei Gu, treats them well, but there are only seven daughters, who have always been wronged because of their daughters.

Among the seven daughters, the Seventh Princess is undoubtedly the most neglected one.

Even when Devil Cloud Ghost City was about to marry, he did not choose other people of more suitable age, but chose the youngest seventh princess, and his indifference to her was also visible to the naked eye.

But unfortunately, it is only at this juncture that people can see people's hearts.

But no matter how loud or sad Pei Gu shouted, the Seventh Princess, who always listened to him, never responded to him again.

"No, no, no!" Pei Gu roared bitterly, crying up to the sky, remorse crossed in his heart, and heartache merged in his throat.

The other six princesses burst into tears. Seventh sister, who has always been knowledgeable and intelligent, is the most unloved among the seven sisters, the main reason is that the relationship between the seven sisters is not so good.

Wrong, Qimei has often carried some blame for them since she was a child, and gradually more and more, she also made her father not like it so much.

Now, their lively and lovely seventh sister died in front of them, how could they not be sad?

George Han looked at the Seventh Princess coldly, and then raised his eyes to look at the others, his hands were black again, and he wanted to do it again.

Pei Gu, who noticed something was wrong, got up in a panic and stood in front of everyone: "Three thousand, I have already lost a daughter, I beg you, please don't hurt other innocent people, If you have anything, just come to me."

Pei Gu raised his chest, not afraid of life and death, this is the last responsibility he has as a father and a family owner.

"Listen to you six sisters, no one is allowed to rush forward like Xiaoqi, otherwise, don't blame the old man for not recognizing you daughters."

"In addition, there is one more thing, after George Han killed me, the Pei family will No revenge is allowed, otherwise it will be dealt with in accordance with the family law. As for the future successor of the Pei family, the six sisters will discuss and decide."

"Did you hear it clearly?"

"Okay, since that's the case, come on, three thousand, if the old man can die in your hands, it will always be better than dying in the hands of those thieves, the old man has no regrets." After the words were finished, Pei Gu was ready for death.

"Death!"

George Han shouted coldly, and in the screams of several women, he directly hit Pei Gu with a big hand.

"Stop!"

However, at this moment, a soft drink suddenly came, and when everyone looked back, they saw a figure slowly walking all the way from outside the East City Gate.

And when they saw the figure clearly, they couldn't help but open their mouths collectively?

Chapter 4289

"Su?Amelia Su!"

Many people exclaimed on the spot.

When Pei Gu heard the name, he couldn't help but quickly opened his eyes.

Sure enough, when he opened his eyes, he was completely dumbfounded.

It was none other than Amelia Su.

Although her white clothes had already been dyed red with blood, and her beautiful face was full of scars and messes, at this time, she was at least walking towards this side normally, proving that she was not in serious trouble.

The blood-red eyes of George Han also had a huge reaction for the first time. He turned his head gently, his eyes fixed on Amelia Su's body.

"Be careful!" Pei Gu yelled at Amelia Su.

George Han's situation is obviously wrong. Although he does have a point of revenge, the death energy and blood-red eyes exuding from his body all explain his problem.

"Amelia Su, although I don't know why you came back alive, this is not the time to talk about this. George Han may be in a hurry because of the news of your death, and he will go crazy for a while? So, don't approach." Pei Gu hurriedly said.

Amelia Su obviously stopped, and she also noticed that George Han was wrong.

She is the person who knows George Han best, so she can see George Han's clues at a glance, without anyone needing to remind her.

But the next second, she stepped up and slowly walked towards George Han.

"Amelia Su, you?"

"He is my husband, when he is human, when he is a ghost, and always. If he attacks me, I will accompany him to be a ghost couple." Amelia Su said calmly but firmly.

In just a few steps, she had already walked in front of George Han.

She could indeed feel George Han's strong murderous aura at this time, but as she said

, even if George Han killed her, she would still be his ghost wife!

"Three thousand!" Amelia Su's red lips parted lightly, and she said slowly.

Whoa!

George Han's blood-red eyes moved obviously!

If you look closely, you will find that the blood red is spinning like a vortex, but it is also fading.

"Three thousand, it's me, Amelia Su."

While speaking, Amelia Su gently took George Han's hand.

That hand was dripping with blood. It didn't know how many people it had killed, and everyone couldn't help but sweat heavily for Amelia Su.

Because of this behavior, it is tantamount to Amelia Su playing with fire!

Once George Han takes advantage of the situation, Amelia Su will say goodbye to this world without even having a chance to resist.

But Amelia Su not only picked up that hand, but also put it on her cheek at this time: "Can't you remember me?"

"Brush!" The blood in his eyes suddenly disappeared, and George Han visibly shook.

The magic is gone!

"Amelia Su?" George Han came back to his senses, his clear eyes became tense, and his bloody hands became gentle: "Is it really you?"

"I'm still dreaming?"

Amelia Su's eyes were full of Excited and moved, he grabbed George Han's hand and nodded heavily: "It's me."

"I'm not dead."

George Han smiled, very brightly and very happy.

"But they?"

"Some accidents did happen, but I came back alive." With that said, Amelia Su held George Han's hand even tighter.

Feeling Amelia Su's body temperature, George Han knew that he was not dreaming.

"Can you not take revenge?" Amelia Su squeezed out a smile.

revenge? !

George Han raised his eyes, full of shock for a while.

Looking around, there are corpses almost everywhere , and blood everywhere.

You?killed so many people? !

Looking back, he saw Pei Gu and the pale seventh princess.

"I? I killed the seventh princess?" George Han looked at his palm in disbelief.

In fact, when Amelia Su died, he was really angry and wanted to kill Pei Gu.

But George Han is definitely not the kind of person who kills innocent people indiscriminately. Whoever has a grudge against him will naturally settle accounts with whomever he wants. How could he kill so many innocent people? !

Although, most of the dead are the subordinates of Ming Yu, it shouldn't be like this!

Especially the Seventh Princess!

They may have been a little unhappy before, but she has helped her several times. In her heart, she is her friend. Even if George Han has a big hatred, he will definitely not kill the seventh princess.

But now, what have you done?

Chapter 4290

George Han was in a state of hesitation, and his head was aching. in the brain.

The forbidden place of death.

He swallowed the lava monster.

After that, the lava monster completely exploded in his body!

He lost consciousness.

When he woke up, the forbidden area of ??death had completely disappeared, and there was a blood-red totem on his arm.

It's the image of that lava monster!

It sometimes flickers, and every time it flickers, it will make the blood flow all over his body, and then his eyes will be blurred.

But? once flashed, everything went back to normal.

Then, the old man's voice sounded in his mind, but he couldn't hear a word of what the old man said.

With a splitting headache, George Han wanted to tear his brain apart completely.

Seeing this, Amelia Su hurriedly pulled George Han, and said to Pei Gu: "After we entered, we met a super troll in the forbidden area of ??death."

"It is extremely terrifying, and its strength is extremely strong, we can't resist it at all. "

But the forbidden area of ??death has disappeared now. I think that something strange happened to the troll with George Han, and George Han may even be affected by his demonic nature."

Hearing Amelia Su's words, Pei Gu suppressed the sadness of the seventh princess' death: "You mean? Three thousand may have been broken by that troll?"

Amelia Su nodded heavily. Judging from George Han's physical condition, the demonic energy was extremely heavy, so this kind of speculation was extremely reasonable.

"No wonder." Pei Gu nodded: "After he came back, everything was normal before.

Not only did he protect our Pei family, but he also made plans to lead us to fight back against the enemy.”

“But after hearing the news of your death, suddenly, The demonic energy exploded, and the whole person became extremely crazy, killing almost anyone he saw!”

“At the beginning, I thought the news of your death hit him too hard, but now it seems?”

“He will be because of me. Completely crazy after death, but it will never be so crazy. So?” Amelia Su said, gently hugged George Han in his arms, and patted his shoulder lightly to comfort him.

“It’s the same after thinking about it. I always thought that he was very similar to those black beasts. Now, it seems that this is not my imagination.”

“Patriarch Pei, I want to take three thousand to a quiet place to stay for a while, and wait for his mood. After he stabilizes, I will bring him to the Pei Mansion to apologize.” Amelia Su said.

Pei Gu shook his head: “Three thousand is innocent. Three thousand entrusted you and Miss Ziqing to me on that day. Not only did I fail to protect you, but I also put you in danger for our sake. I also blame the old man for being incompetent. At that time, I just lost power, so I didn’t go to save you, but?”

“Three thousand wants to kill me, this is normal.”

“But the seventh princess?”

“She was there to save me, don’t say that three thousand was very angry at that time. Heavy, even if it is normal, it may not be able to take it back. I just feel sorry for my daughter’s departure, and I don’t blame George Han. All the fruits are the cause of my planting.” After the words were finished, Pei Gu looked at the eldest princess: “Go clean up Qifeng Pavilion and let George Han and Amelia Su rest.”

“Yes!”

“By the way, what about Miss Ziqing?” Pei Gu asked suddenly with a frown.

“She was injured, and she didn’t know the situation in the city at the time, so Amelia Su didn’t dare to take her with her.” Amelia Su said.

“Where is she, the old man has ordered someone to pick her up now. Don’t worry, I will arrange a large number of famous doctors to treat her injuries.”

Seeing Pei Gu’s sincerity, Amelia Su nodded and told Pei where Ziqing lived. solid.

Afterwards, under the leadership of the eldest princess, Amelia Su supported George Han and walked slowly towards Qifeng Pavilion all the way.

Pei Gu let out a long sigh of relief, but fortunately, Amelia Su arrived in time, otherwise, the main city of the Pei family would be ruined.

“Send someone to clean the battlefield. In addition, please invite some famous doctors. I want to stay with Qi'er for a while." Holding the seventh princess, Pei Gu staggered towards Pei's residence.

Not long after, the two couples also arrived at Qifeng Pavilion?
