

HTC 4301

Chapter 4301

Amelia Su's gaze, George Han also looked at the ground simultaneously.

Among the weeds on the ground, there is a row of shallow footprints.

George Han bent over and gestured with his hand, and immediately frowned.

"Fuck!"

The length of this footprint is not even a card, what kind of foot is this?

Women's feet are not so small, so short, right? !

The old man's! ?

There is this possibility, but it must also be a dwarf-like old man.

Secondly, there is a possibility, child!

"Child? How is that possible!" Amelia Su shook her head and said, "How could a child dare to go deep into the Pei family's main city alone? Also, don't forget how dangerous the battlefield was before, children..."

"Nothing is impossible. , especially in the Demon Race."

Thinking of the old monk with a young monk back then, George Han was almost killed by them.

If it wasn't for the magic dragon who helped him back then, he would have been wiped out long ago.

"In the Demon Race, there is actually no distinction between adults and children. Once a person is demonized, the younger he is, the more dangerous he is, because his appearance will paralyze you."

"There seems to be a word." Amelia Su said.

George Han also found this clue, it was in front of the shoe print.

It's scribbled, but its outline is barely discernible.

"Burning!"

A simple yet somewhat complicated word.

"Burning Bone City?" George Han looked at Amelia Su.

Amelia Su also instantly thought of Burning Bone City from one word: "What does the other party mean?"

"On the way, someone kept reminding or urging us to go to Burning Bone City. It seems that he is one of them." George Han said. .

“But what does it have to do with him saving me when we go to Burning Bone City? Could it be that he has been watching us secretly ?” Amelia Su thought of this, and she couldn’t help frowning.

The whole person also suddenly felt as if his heart was half cold. For a long time, someone has been following them secretly, but just thinking about this makes people feel extremely hairy.

“Perhaps, there is another possibility.” George Han frowned.

Amelia Su was the key, so that some people didn’t want her to die before she reached the City of Burning Bones.

Why?

George Han couldn’t understand!

“I want to go around again. You go back to Pei’s mansion first, and let Patriarch Pei help us check the flow of people around here. Maybe, we can find some clues.”

Although Amelia Su wanted to accompany George Han, George Han’s The meaning is actually what she is thinking at the moment. This is the boundary of the Pei family. If the Pei family goes to investigate, maybe some clues can be found.

Thinking of this, Amelia Su hurriedly got up and went back.

George Han was not idle, and kept walking outside along the route that the person might have left.

As he walked, he tried to supplement the pictures at that time in his mind.

I don’t know how long it took, the images in my mind became more and more, and George Han of Anti-Buddha also experienced all kinds of ordinary things yesterday.

Immediately afterwards, a fork in the road appeared in front of George Han.

The direction of the fork in the road is almost the same as the direction of the Pei family’s forces, and it is almost the same as the direction of the Mingyu Department’s escape.

Did it really come with them, go with them, and then disappear without a trace?

“Huh!”

George Han was a little discouraged, but it seemed that was the case.

As a result, even if he asked for help from the Pei family, it is estimated that there is a high probability that there will be no clues to investigate.

Obviously, this guy has carefully prepared and planned, and he does things almost without leakage. It is almost impossible to find any clues in this kind of person.

Thinking of this, George Han returned to the city.

On the way, he had seen that many of the Pei family had already set off and rushed towards the north of the city. He thought that Amelia Su should have informed Pei Gu, and Pei Gu had also assigned personnel.

George Han wanted to stop them and tell them that they don't have to, but in the end, he didn't do it.

Anyway, it won't be much less if you try it, and after all, I just asked someone to send someone, and now I don't want it, it's not suitable.

Back at Pei's house, Pei Gu hurriedly greeted him: "How is the situation, I just..."

"I see, yes, choose an apprentice." George Han said: "Anyway, I have some time now."

Hearing this Then, Pei Gu suddenly double-pressed and flashed: "Now?"

Chapter 4302

"Do you have to wait until the New Year?" George Han smiled bitterly.

After dealing with the important affairs of the Pei family, George Han should also go back to the city to have a look, and then rush all the way to Burning Bone City.

Naturally, many things are handled as quickly as possible.

George Han accepts apprentices, which is a major event in Pei's house.

That is to say, now that Pei Hu is dead, the Pei family has a mourning, and it should not be too festive. Otherwise, Pei Gu would like to stand in the center of the main city on the spot, shouting at the sky and shouting that the Pei family is happy.

Of course, even if it couldn't be promoted like this, Pei Gu greeted all his sons earlier.

Let them tidy up their appearance and conduct, hoping to be admired by George Han.

Although these sons are not as talented and intelligent as Pei Hu, it does not mean that are all fools.

Although Pei Huzai's brother died, it was actually good news for them.

After all, heir status can be re-done on everyone, which means everyone has a chance.

In an aristocratic family, the family relationship itself is weak, not to mention the brotherhood between the heirs.

They all know that if George Han chooses to be his apprentice, then whoever can soar to the sky, from then on, the carp leaps through the dragon gate, and the fool becomes a genius.

There is even an even bigger surprise coming at the same time, that is, to become the sweet pastry of the Pei family completely, that is, the next candidate for the head of the family.

What is a crow flying on a branch to become a phoenix?

This is it!

Therefore, Pei Gu's sons all made careful preparations.

Some are naturally dressed in flowing clothes, and those who walk are clean and unrestrained.

Some people

pondered their thoughts and recalled what George Han wore at the beginning, so they came to a simple and simple style, which looked similar to George Han's style.

There are also some who simply don't do any dressing up, and just do what they should be. Maybe, they think it is simple, that is, pure and pure, to win with the original heart.

As Pei Gu announced the start of the selection of sons, Pei Gu's sons quickly rushed to the front of the main hall.

"It's under Pei Jin!"

"It's under Pei Hai!"

five sons lined up in a row, standing in front of George Han and bowing first.

George Han glanced at the five people, but they all looked gentle.

"Is that all?" George Han asked.

Pei Gu nodded: "Yes."

"That's all." Pei Gu said.

George Han nodded, and then moved his hand, five pieces of white paper appeared directly in his hand, and with another move, the five pieces of white paper flew to the hands of the five people in unison.

"Everyone write down how they feel when they see me, and then give me the answer sheet."

"Remember, you'd better write this answer sheet well, because it will play a big role in whether you are eligible to be my apprentice. The decisive role of Guan." The five looked at the white paper in their hands and glanced at each other.

This thing sounds quite novel, but if you think about it carefully, it seems normal.

Written test.

"Understood, Mr. Han."

The five answered in unison.

“Okay, at this time tomorrow, I’ll check your answer sheets. Let’s go ahead now.” The five nodded and went back obediently with the blank papers.

Pei Gu apologized and walked to George Han

’s side , saying, “It’s normal to choose an apprentice with a written test, but I really didn’t expect that George Han’s test paper is really...” I wrote about George Han’s feelings , which is indeed fresh enough.

After all, most of the exams are knowledge, the so-called calligraphy and painting...

But...

George Han smiled lightly, choosing apprentices and choosing talents are two different things, and it is normal for Pei to have such doubts.

However, George Han also has his own considerations: “This piece of white paper will tell us many important indicators, and you will know it when the time comes.” When the words were finished, George Han pulled Amelia Su up: “It’s not too early, Amelia Su and I will go back to Qifeng Pavilion first, I want to see Ziqing.”

“Okay!”

“By the way, Patriarch Pei, where is the back door of Pei’s residence?”

Hearing this, Pei Gu was stunned. Very confused, why do you ask this? !

Chapter 4303

This is a good front door, do not go through the back door? !

“Brother Xian, you are...” Pei Gu asked.

“It’s too high-profile, you know, a lot of people in the city are talking about us recently, we just want to...” George Han didn’t finish his sentence, but just smiled a little embarrassedly.

Hearing this, Pei Gu was a little confused, but he still understood.

Nodding: “The Pei Mansion has some backdoors, but, as you are, are you sure?”

Seeing that George Han was still nodding, he could only agree: “Okay, I’ll take you there.”

“No need, follow us . In which direction, we can go by ourselves.” George Han said.

Pei Gu pointed to the back of the hall and said, “Follow this road, go all the way, and then turn left to reach the back door.”

George Han nodded, and after saying goodbye to Pei Gu, he took Amelia Su all the way towards the back door. .

Most of the backyard is the place where the sons, princesses and Mrs. Pei Gu

's family live together. The impact of the war is not great. This is also the place where the Pei family can restore order the fastest.

Along the way, you can often see many family members dressing up, playing the piano in front of the window, or in a daze, each with its own color and shape.

The two couples walked all the way and watched, with a faint smile on their faces.

In fact, the so-called happiness, isn't it just living and working in peace and contentment? !

"Is that why you took me through the back door? Want to see the breath of life?" Amelia Su smiled.

George Han didn't deny it, nodded and said, "Don't you think this kind of scene is more warm and beautiful than the broken walls at the front door?"

"Yes, as long as you think, okay." Amelia Su said.

"Amelia Su, in fact, I really want to live this kind of life. I'll farm you and weave. There's no such thing as a more comfortable life in this world."

"I also want to." In the future, we will find a paradise and live like this." Amelia Su nodded and was about to speak, but at this moment, there were loud noises in front of her, which broke the calm. "fu, you idiot, can you do it, can't you fu your mother farther?"

"Damn, you're really unlucky, with you by our side, our motherfuers are all unlucky together. " That's right." A curse came into his ears, his tone is extremely vicious. Dazzlingly, there is a kitchen in the distance, and several people are chopping wood on the side of the door.

The person who was scolded was a thin boy, about sixteen years old. Compared with the huge body of the Demon Race and even the Pei Family, it was not only out of place, but even compared with the ordinary human race like George Han, it was too thin. It's not that kind of malnutrition, it's just like a morbid shape.

The little boy was scolded, but he still didn't say a word. He just endured it silently, and continued to use his small body to lift the big axe, and chop the wood on the pile one by one. "fu, it's a fuing piece of shit."

"Hurry up and chop it up for me, I'll tell you, if you can't finish chopping the wood today, you won't want to eat tonight." "I won't let you sleep." Several people scolded sharply . , seems to completely treat the little boy in front of him as an animal.

Even if the little boy has really worked hard, but seeing the pile of firewood behind him that is almost like a hill, anyone still knows that if he wants to cut it all by himself in a day, it is almost a nonsense.

Amelia Su couldn't see it anymore, and she was about to walk over to make an appearance. It was obvious that she was bullying people.

But just as she was about to leave, suddenly, with a crisp sound, a slap slapped the little boy's face heavily .

Immediately, the little boy was directly knocked out. After rolling several meters on the ground, when he got up in a hurry, a large piece of blood was already swollen on the left side of his face.

The one who hit was a huge fat man who rushed out of the kitchen. This man was two meters tall and weighed six or seven hundred pounds. He wore a white hat and looked like a chef in charge.

“fu you, Pei Mu, I asked you to wash your goddamn spirit dishes, what the hell did you wash?”

“fu, you son of a b!tch, I won’t kill you a wild bastard today, I’m fuin’ The name is written.” When the words fell, the giant stood up directly, rushed towards the thin little boy, twisted it up, then grabbed him and swung it to the head, with a gesture of going straight to the ground and slamming away!

With such a fall, the little boy will be disabled even if he doesn’t die!

Amelia Su couldn’t bear it any longer, and rushed straight up...

Chapter 4304

“Drink!”

The giant fat man roared angrily, and when he was about to smash the little boy to the ground, he suddenly found himself No matter how hard he tried, he couldn’t move his hand at all.

When a fat face flushed red, he suddenly saw a hand stuck to his elbow.

A finger to be exact.

He glared angrily and looked at the figure: “Who the hell are you? Dare to meddle in the little master’s business? In this harem, I haven’t seen you before.”

Who else could it be besides Amelia Su? ? !

“Such a big man, bullying a child, are you interested?” Amelia Su snorted coldly.

“I’m the head chef of the Pei family’s back kitchen, where the hell are you, wild girls, stop meddling in your own business, otherwise, I’ll be rude to you and fight you together.” The headmaster said angrily.

“Do you dare to hit her ?” George Han walked up slowly and looked at the dead fat man coldly.

Amelia Su made a move, and George Han didn’t, but it didn’t mean that George Han didn’t want to take care of these things.

Seeing George Han coming again, the fat man couldn’t help frowning: “Another fuing person I don’t know at all, hello, who the hell are you?”

“It doesn’t matter who I am, the important thing is, you It’s best to remember what I just said, otherwise...”

George Han didn’t continue, but the icy meaning when he sneered was enough to make people chill.

The big fat man was obviously taken aback for a moment, but then he thought about it, with so many younger brothers by his side here, whether it was because of his lack of face, or because his strength was not afraid at all, he was not allowed to back down.

“fu, how many years has I been the head chef in the back kitchen, even those concubines have to be polite when they meet me, how dare you bastard dare to yell at me?! Well, you two You want to stand up for him, right?”

“Okay!”

“I will kill this bastard first, and then I will kill you, the bastard.” After he finished speaking, he turned his body abruptly, trying to break free from Amelia Su’s control.

Of course, no matter how he turned, Amelia Su’s hand was firmly against his shaft, making it impossible for him to push down the arm and throw it out of the little boy in his hand.

“Wow!”

The guy yelled and jumped in anger, and slammed into Amelia Su with his huge body.

This giant fat man is tall enough and has a lot of flesh, and his strength is naturally full of inertia.

Even Amelia Su, trying to resist his sudden collision at this time, I am afraid it is extremely difficult.

George Han suddenly shot.

In the blink of an eye,

he had already rushed to the middle of Fatty and Amelia Su, and with just a slight movement of his hand, he patted Fatty’s waist directly.

boom!

A muffled sound.

The fat man did not advance or retreat in front of everyone, and directly changed direction and slammed towards the rear.

boom!

There was another loud noise. Under the impact of Fatty, the thick wall of the kitchen was knocked into a huge pothole on the spot.

The group of younger brothers were stunned for a moment. While looking at George Han in fear, they were surprised to discover that the skinny boy who was supposed to be in the hands of the fat man at this time was being killed by George Han. Qiansuo held it up gently.

They really couldn’t see what was going on between the lightning and flint.

How did the boy get to him.

All of this is so fast that it is almost impossible to reflect.

“Trash.” With a cold voice, George Han gently put the little boy down.

Amelia Su also hurriedly squatted down and comforted the little boy: “Don’t be afraid, no one dares to hit you when we are here.”

“Damn it!”

The fat man who was directly beaten into the ruins of the wall screamed and struggled from the inside. Climbing up, his anger has been ignited to the extreme.

No one can do this to him, and no one dares to do this to him.

He wanted to kill the dog man and woman to vent his hatred and get his face back.

A few younger brothers also quickly turned around to help him up, and patted the dust on his body extremely diligently.

“You two really annoyed me, and I announced that no matter who you are, you must die for me!” the fat man shouted angrily.

George Han put his hands on his chest and smiled disdainfully: “Really?”

Chapter 4305

“For the sake of your family, I will give you a chance, where is it now, go back to where you are, Otherwise, I’m really annoyed and annoyed.” George Han shouted.

“fu you, don’t do this shit with your father, brothers, kill me this pair of bastards, I will bear any consequences.

” He rushed towards George Han.

When the manager spoke, the others did not dare not to listen, and they followed in a hurry, rushing directly towards George Han.

“The crowd.” Shaking his head, facing the strength of this group of people, he was really lazy to move a finger.

Just frowning, a huge energy radiated directly from his body, and the group of seemingly ferocious chief stewards suddenly encountered a tenth-level gale, and they flew out with a bang.

bang bang bang!

Like a fairy scattered flowers, several people slammed around each other fiercely, and the one who fell for a while was grinning and screaming in pain.

“When the enemy came, you were afraid of death and didn’t dare to do anything. When you get here, you will fight your own people, but you are quite fierce.”

“I always thought that the Pei family’s man might be a little grumpy and impulsive by nature. It’s been a while, but they’re all warm-blooded people, but I didn’t expect that you guys would greatly reduce my impression of the Pei family.”

“fu, stop talking nonsense with me, fuing bastards. “Why the hell didn’t I fight to kill the enemy? It’s your little white face, I’m afraid you haven’t fought on the battlefield, right?” the manager shouted angrily.

The big battle is about to start, and these people have never been on the battlefield. After all, although they think they are fierce, they are right.

Compared with the army outside, they knew very well that the result must be an egg hitting a stone.

Therefore, they did not dare to go forward to fight.

As for the excuse for not daring to fight, they also thought very thoughtfully, they were the cooks.

How can this guy go into battle to kill the enemy?

Therefore, when George Han talks about them now, it is actually like stepping on their painful feet. The manager believes that in the state of George Han, he is young and thin, and he is completely a scholar of Bai Jing. Appearance, of course, can not be on the battlefield.

Therefore, scolding him back can not only refocus the firepower on him, but also remove himself from the embarrassment.

“Of course I have been on the battlefield.” George Han smiled.

“Bah, you’re the only one who has been on the battlefield, aren’t you fuing bragging about making drafts?” the manager scolded angrily.

Of course I have, otherwise, how would I know you haven’t?” George Han sneered.

Since the war, in fact, the back kitchen has found a place to hide.

No way, they are not female relatives, they cannot be taken to a hidden place to hide by Pei Gu, and they are not guards, they will be dispatched to the front line, they can only stay in their own broken place, and then find a firewood house to hide in. hide.

Therefore, they have never seen George Han from beginning to end, and they are not even as good as those people who can spy on them on certain occasions.

“You fart, I’m the one who has been on the battlefield, I’ve never seen your little white face.”

Perhaps out of a guilty conscience, this guy hurriedly said to the younger brothers beside him, “Do you think so? “

Yeah, yeah, pretending to be here, we haven’t seen him at all.”

In my opinion, he clearly beat the general manager and knew that he had made a big mistake, so he deliberately made a reason for not going to the battlefield to exonerate himself. "The general manager thinks this is very reasonable. They have never been on the battlefield, so if this kid talks about this, he will feel guilty. If he has a guilty conscience, he will naturally not take revenge on him.

Thinking of this, the general manager will be angry. He got up and planned to have a good chat with George Han.

However, George Han suddenly laughed at this moment: "If I hadn't been on the battlefield, you bastards would still have their lives here with me. Bullshit? I'm afraid you have already been killed by the enemy's sword. " fu, you bastard, you can really pretend, it's like the whole battle was won because of your appearance, what? Do you fuing think you are George Han, the VIP of our Pei Mansion? "

Chapter 4306

George Han smiled: "Do you still know George Han?"

"You are such goddamn nonsense, who are the people in the main city of the Pei family? I don't know George Han. That's the god who led our Pei family through this crisis. You fuing want to take his credit. It seems that you have never been on the battlefield. You can't even figure out who is the first credit. Clear."

"That's right, this guy is really a second fool, he shoots randomly, let's fu him, and when we're done, tell the owner that this guy is pretending to be George Han."

"Go!" The

the group seemed to have found a new one. The breakthrough, one by one struggling to get up.

George Han smiled softly: "Then have you thought about a question if I am George Han?"

George Han? !

In fact,

a group.

After all, they are not from Pei's house, and you can tell by looking at them.

Instead of people from Pei's house, who can appear in Pei's house, it is very likely that it is George Han.

But after thinking about it carefully, they all tacitly ruled out this possibility.

There is no other reason, this is the harem.

How could George Han come to such a place?

Even if you want to stay overnight, it is definitely in the other garden of the harem, and it is impossible to reach this place, and even more to come to their back kitchen.

Secondly, a VIP like him must always be in front of him when he travels. How could these two people be alone?

Therefore, they almost unanimously believed that this man and woman should be people of some human race left behind by the war.

“Damn, if you George Han, I would still be Han Siqian.”

“Yes, my name is Han Erqian.”

“My name is Han Daqian!” A group of people scorned and ridiculed their faces with contempt and disdain written all over their faces. Han three thousand.

“Then you can take me to the Pei family head to ask clearly, but don’t blame me for not reminding you, holding the Pei family’s distinguished guests, ten of your heads are not enough.” George Han sneered. .

The group of people was still very imposing, but when they heard this, they couldn’t help frowning.

Could it be that he is really George Han? !

Otherwise, why did he take the initiative to ask them to take him to see the head of the family?

Only real gold is not afraid of fire. If it is a person who pretends to be a person, he will not dare to see the owner of the family even if he is beaten to death, not to mention that this idea was brought up by himself.

Rely on

, won’t it? !

The younger brothers obviously looked at me and I looked at you. They were afraid in their hearts for a while, but they dared not take a half step forward, and the anger on their faces turned into bursts of worry.

“If you have nothing else to do, hurry up and do your own work. As for this little boy, you don’t have to work today, is there a problem?” George Han said coldly.

No one dared to speak out. After all, what George Han said was true at. If he was really George Han, if he offended him, not to mention the punishment of the Patriarch. I am afraid that other people will not let themselves go.

Therefore, they could only watch helplessly as George Han left with the troops.

However, after thinking about it, the general manager felt more and more that his face was really lost.

He was also unwilling to let George Han leave like this.

In case, in case his mother-in-law wasn’t George Han, he would be laughed to death in the future, saying that he was fooled by a young man.

Thinking of this, he didn't know where the confidence came from, and suddenly shouted: "Where are you going, did I fuing let you go?"

George Han didn't want to cause trouble, so it's okay to teach them a lesson. After all, he had accidentally killed Pei Hu and the Seventh Princess, and he didn't want to touch the blood of the Pei family on his hands.

But the fat man's angry shout made him very upset, and there was faint killing intent in his eyes.

It was really a shameless thing, and he had already let him go, and as a result...

George Han stopped abruptly, did not look back, just waited quietly...

Chapter 4307

the manager was so frightened that he did not dare to say a word.

How can he be? !

It's impossible to beat him, but to let him go so eagerly is really unwilling.

Just when he didn't know what to do, suddenly, he saw a person from a distance, and it was like seeing a savior in his eyes.

The originally flustered eyes were completely replaced by pride and confidence.

"Manager Zhang!"

he shouted.

If the head chef of his is only a fake supervisor, then the head chef Zhang is one of the real supervisors in this harem.

After all, the head of the back kitchen is only in charge of this small corner of the kitchen, but Director Zhang is completely different. He is the head of the harem, and his rights are directly increased several times.

In Pei's family, Director Zhang is also regarded as the pinnacle of the servants.

Coincidentally, the best thing about Mr. Zhang is to drink two sips and eat a few chopsticks. For so many years, he has always had an excellent relationship with Mr. Zhang by relying on the kitchen.

Now that he has a backer, he is still afraid that he will fail.

Director Zhang is taking a group of servants in the harem and intends to help everywhere to see if the concubines have any needs.

Hearing someone calling him, he looked back and saw that it was the head chef. He hesitated for a while, and finally came over with a group of people.

“Chef Pei, it’s just after lunch, what’s the matter with Zhang? If you want to drink, then I have to wait until I’m done.” Although Director Zhang looked a little displeased on his face, his tone was not too much reproach.

Everyone has a good relationship, and it’s just superficial work.

“Hehe, Director Zhang, you can eat and drink when you like. By the way, I still have some old wine in my possession. Tonight, we won’t go home if we don’t get drunk.” The head chef said with a smile. When Director Zhang What are you talking about, Director Zhang, what good things do you have, but it’s not yours in the end?” The chef manager smiled.

Director Zhang nodded with satisfaction, he was considered to have passed this level. “However, Director Zhang, let’s have a good time drinking, but my little brother will... ah, I’m afraid I can only accompany you with a boring drink at night.”

After speaking, he looked at Director Zhang, obviously Intentionally waiting for Director Zhang’s answer. If Director Zhang can become the Director, his ability to check people’s appearance is first and foremost. After listening to him say such a strange thing, do you still know what this guy means?

“Chef Pei, you have nothing to say, what are you doing?” With the words of Director Zhang, the director of the chef was relieved:

“Actually, it’s not a big deal, but it’s just your brother and me, who were caught by others. I was bullied.” “What else?” Director Zhang was taken aback for a moment: “Who doesn’t know that in the harem, your Chef Pei and I have a close relationship, who would dare to provoke you?”

” When it fell, Chef Pei pointed to George Han. In fact, from the beginning, Director Zhang didn’t notice George Hanliang and his wife. After all, he never thought that George Han would run into the depths of this harem. But as Chef Pei pointed like this, he looked over, and his pupils suddenly shrank.

Like other Pei family servants, he has never participated in the battle of Pei’s house, but, after all, he is the general manager of the entire harem, and he can always see George Han a few times in his busy schedule.

So when he saw that this person was George Han, how could he not be surprised?

“Chef Pei, you... What did you say? What did you just say?” Director Zhang felt a little nervous.

“Director Zhang, I said it was this bas* who hit me just now, so you have to be angry for your brother.” Chef Pei naturally didn’t listen to the voice of Director Chef Zhang at this time, and simply thought that Director Zhang was helping himself Final confirmation before venting.

Therefore, he even winked at George Han and taunted him more, as if telling George Han that you are finished, completely finished.

George Han smiled lightly and looked at Chef Pei like a fool.

“What did you call him just now?” Director Zhang turned his head and looked at Chef Pei coldly.

“Call him a bas*.” Chef Pei replied he was very strange, what’s wrong with Director Zhang?

How is it so strange? !

“Clap”

suddenly, a big slap slapped his already somewhat confused face...

Chapter 4308

In this slap, almost certainly, Director Zhang has used his **.

Even though Chef Pei is tall and big, his face plate is much bigger than others, and his face is more fleshy, this slap still left five red fingerprints on his face.

Chef Pei was dizzy and confused for a while, and he couldn’t figure out the direction for a while.

After Manager Zhang slapped the whole person, his still angry body trembled again and again.

“Director Zhang, what are you beating me for?” Touching his face, Chef Pei looked at Manager Zhang in confusion and injustice.

Isn’t that asking him to help clean up that kid? Why didn’t that kid get beaten, he was slapped first.

“You are the one who beat you. What did you call him just now? You called him a bas*? Pei Chu, how many heads did you lose? Do you know who he is?” Manager Zhang snarled angrily.

The head of the family is not here, Han

George Han is a VIP again, and the incident happened in the harem. If he can’t handle this matter well, then he will be the one who is unlucky.

Therefore, his anger towards Chef Pei has no acting component at all, it is just a burst of fire.

“Director Zhang, take care of me...”

“What the fu are you doing? Tell you a bas, he is George Han, the VIP of the Pei family, and now he is the virtuous brother of the family master. You dare to call me here. He’s a bas, come here.”

“Yes,” the servants behind him replied immediately.

“The grandson of Chef Pei, from today onwards, he will be sacked as head of the kitchen and sent to the Heavenly Prison, waiting for his release.” Director Zhang shouted coldly.

Hearing this, Chef Pei was immediately scared to pee on the spot, and he knelt on the ground with a thud.

Heaven Prison, for prisoners, it may be a place where prisoners are held for severe punishment. It is nothing more than a place where they cannot see the sun and are tortured by punishment. But for the Pei family, that place is a nightmare. hell.

The Pei family already has an unwritten rule.

For many things, the Pei family may be exempted from punishment, and the crime can be alleviated at the last time.

But for some Pei family members who can't forgive or do extremely wrong things, they will be thrown into the sky prison.

There are rewards, and of course there are punishments. This day prison is the biggest punishment. As long as the Pei family enters, it is absolutely impossible to come back alive.

Either he died inside and no one knew about it, or he was sent to the frontier and died on his own.

What is the living environment in the land of demons? If it is assigned to the frontier, it is actually no different from death.

However, although this kind of punishment is harsh, in fact, few people in the Pei family suffer from this set of punishments.

After all, it is still the Pei family.

Chef Pei has worked for decades, and he never thought that this kind of punishment would appear beside him, let alone that it would still hit him on the head impartially.

"Manager Zhang, don't, don't, we're brothers, how can you put my brother and me into such a place where birds don't shit?"

"Who the hell is your brother?"

Manager Zhang impatiently asked. He kicked away Chef Pei who was trying to pull him away. At this moment, he didn't want to have anything to do with this idiot.

But even if he was kicked away, Chef Pei still hurriedly got up again, knelt on the ground, and kept kowtow: "Manager Zhang, please, please give me a chance, I will never dare again in the future. "

Knocked to an emotional place, the dead fat man actually shed tears.

"Go away, offending VIP Han, what the hell are you begging me for? I'm not qualified to make any decisions for VIP Han. Whether it's life or death, I beg him to go to the old man's house. Go away.

Chang cried and crawled over to George Han. His subordinates were not stupid and hurriedly knelt down together.

"VIP Han, we were wrong, we were wrong, please, please forgive us, we... we are just ass."

"Yes, we don't know Taishan, we don't even know it's you. If we knew earlier that it was you, even if we borrowed a hundred courage from us, we would never dare."

They kowtowed like pounding garlic, especially Chef Pei, who slammed the blood on his forehead directly, but he didn't even think about it. He didn't dare to stop, for fear that if he stopped, George Han would not give him a chance.

Amelia Su raised her head and glanced at George Han slightly as if she wanted to beg for mercy.

“Or, forget it?”

Before George Han could speak, Chef Pei, who had been kowtowing, suddenly stopped kowtowing, knelt on the ground and straightened his back, and then...

Chapter 4309

” Crack”

“Damn”

“Crack!”

“I’m a bas*!”

“Crack”

“I’m not human.”

Chef Pei He slapped his face continuously, slap after slap, and he was merciless with every slap, and the slap could be heard from afar.

In just a few seconds, his face was swollen and his ears were ringing, completely inhuman, and a few teeth even kept coming out of his mouth mixed with blood.

“Okay, don’t fight.” George Han glared at him impatiently.

Hearing George Han’s call to stop, Chef Pei didn’t stop completely, but slammed his head on the ground obediently, not daring to raise his head at all.

“Are you alive or dead, in fact, I can’t sit on the master. The kid you bullied just now will decide your life or death.”

George Han turned his eyes to the little boy.

“Ye... No, little brother Pei Mu, no no no, grandpa Pei Mu, spare us, spare us.”

“Yes, grandpa, we will never bully you again, and we will never scold you again. I beg you.” When George Han spoke, a group of people kowtowed to the little boy again, without the arrogant attitude they had before.

The little boy looked up at George Han and Amelia Su, and shook his head: “Thank you brother and sister, but Pei Mu doesn’t want them to die.”

George Han smiled and said, “It shouldn’t be a day or two that they bullied you, why? “

“Bullying is bullying, but they didn’t kill me.” The little boy didn’t seem to be good at words. He wanted to say something, but he still didn’t say it. He just shook his head at George Hanliang and his wife.

“I knew, Pei Mu, you’re the best.”

“Yeah, Pei Mu, you are really kind .”

With Pei Mu’s refusal to kill, everyone felt a little more at ease when they waited for them. Bragging loudly.

Amelia Su nodded at George Han. After all, it was the Pei family. Since the parties concerned have not pursued it, there is no need to be aggressive.

George Han nodded: “Let’s all get up, it’s your fate, but please be careful with me in the future. Pei Mu can’t kill you today, it doesn’t mean you’ll be fine in the future.”

“Director Zhang.”

“VIP Han, what are your orders?” Director Zhang hurriedly asked.

“In order to avoid my absence in the future, someone will retaliate against Pei Mu. You heard it clearly. Whenever Pei Mu tells you to kill them, you must do it honestly. In this matter, I will say hello to the head of the Pei family. You should know if it was not done.”

“Don’t worry, VIP Han, Mr.

Zhang will carry out this order to the end.” Manager Zhang is not attentive at this time, and he will wait.

“Okay.”

Nodding, George Han stopped talking and took Amelia Su to get up and leave.

However, just after a few steps, the two couples stopped at the same time, because they could clearly hear the sound of someone following their footsteps.

Looking back, it was still the little boy named Pei Mu.

“What’s wrong?” George Han smiled at him.

He didn’t speak, but looked at George Han eagerly, and then at Amelia Su.

Amelia Su suddenly smiled: “Are you hungry?”

Pei Mu nodded obediently.

“Take him to eat, we have to eat anyway.” Amelia Su said.

George Han nodded and glanced at Director Zhang: “Director Zhang, can I take him out?” Director Zhang quickly smiled: “What’s wrong with this? As long as VIP Han is willing, this is an honor for Pei Mu.

Mu, Brother Han and Sister Su are VIPs, so they go out together, but they have to be respectful, understand?”

Pei Mu nodded obediently again.

Touching the child’s head, George Han pulled him and went out towards the backyard door.

The Pei Mansion was always the Pei Mansion, and even the back door was actually much more prosperous than George Han thought.

Although there are no Yuyuqionglou-like shops at the main entrance, it is still dazzling.

Many places were damaged after the war, but some businesses opened their doors and tried their best to resume their operations.

George Han took Amelia Su and the little boy Pei Mu, and after leaving the back door, he chose a small shop that still looked like something, and walked in.

However, as soon as he arrived at the door when the boss saw Pei Mu, his face suddenly changed with joy...

Chapter 4310

“Go go go, it’s fuing bad luck, I thought there was some good business, it turned out to be you bas, rolling , get away, fu, I’ve just been through the war, I’m annoying.” The shopkeeper drank dissatisfied.

At the same time, he obviously pushed Pei Mu with his hands, trying to push him out directly.

George Han hurriedly held Pei Mu from behind, so that he would not be pushed away, and at the same time smiled: “Boss, open the door to do business, why do you keep customers away? Why, are you afraid Can’t we afford you to eat?” The boss glanced at George Han, a little surprised that he was staying with Pei Mu, and raised his hand impatiently: “It’s not about money. Stay with him. One piece, I think the two of you think you are too young.”

Hearing this, George Han became interested and threw a thousand amethysts on the table: “This business is up to you. Don’t do it.”

For a meal, a restaurant like him would only have dozens of amethysts in the sky, and this thousand amethysts are at least equivalent to his usual sales in the past month. But when he reached out to get it, the shopkeeper hesitated again, and finally waved his hand: “Go to another house, our family doesn’t do this business.

” The store owner was a little dumbfounded. One thousand amethysts had almost reached his limit, and he had already done a lot of psychological struggle before reluctantly refused. But who would have thought that another thousand was directly smashed down. This is a full 2,000. It can be used to live for a few months in other people’s homes. “Objective, why is this necessary?” The store owner was a little speechless.

“Crack”

is another thousand!

This time, the shopkeeper couldn’t hold back completely. He swept his hands over the table directly, hugged all the amethysts in his arms, and forced a smile: “Objective, you...what would you like to eat?”

“Good wine, good wine. Food.”

“Yes.” The

shopkeeper finished and went down to prepare.

In less than a moment, the shopkeeper brought the dishes one by one.

Amelia Su knew that Pei Mu was starving and asked him to eat first.

Pei Mu glanced at the two of them, and when he saw both of them nodded, regardless of so much, he immediately started to gobble up.

George Han glanced at Amelia Su, and after asking her permission, while Pei Mu was eating, George Han walked to the store who was sitting at the door of the store.

is another thousand amethysts.

The store owner took it and hurriedly got up: “Guest officer, what do you want?”

“Nothing, I want you to chat with me.”

“Chat?” The store owner was obviously taken aback.

Did he have shit luck today? Even if you earn 3,000 from a meal, you can still earn 1,000 just by chatting a day?

It’s such a normal dream that you don’t dare to have such a dream?

However, Amethyst was true, and the store owner had to hurriedly say: “What does the guest officer want to talk about?”

“He is just a child, and in the end he is also the Pei family. I want to know why you treat him like this? It seems that you are not so good. Is it appropriate?”

Hearing that George Han was originally asking this, the store immediately understood why George Han came out to eat with Pei Mu. It turned out that he didn’t know anything about Pei Mu at all.

“As soon as the guest officer sees it, he is not a member of our Pei family, so it is not surprising that he does not know about Pei Mu.

To tell the truth, I have made you so much money, I really advise you, you and the girl should try to stay away from the death star, otherwise... ah...”

George Han smiled: “What? Let’s be honest, I, George Han, are really not as timid as you are. “ “George Han? Are you George Han? “When he heard the name, the store hurriedly stood up.

George Han smiled and said, “If it’s fake, it will be replaced.” “

No wonder your appearance of a foreigner is in the main city of our Pei family. “After the words fell, the store owner seemed to think of something, got up in a hurry, and shouted to Pei Mu who was eating:

“Pei Mu, all four thousand amethysts are given to you, hurry back, this is George Han, the hero of our Pei family, don't Make a mess here! “

After that, the store owner really walked over and placed the four thousand amethysts in front of Pei Mu, what is this?!
