

HTC 4351

Chapter 4351

This smell is very strange.

It was like some carrion-eating animal suddenly opened its mouth, and it was like some kind of rotten thing that had been fermented for a long time suddenly opened its pot.

Almost as soon as people smell it, they only feel a dizziness in the head.

Amelia Su frowned, and in a hurry, she was able to put an energy mask on the four of them directly, and whispered: "Be careful, it's poisonous!" As soon as the words fell, the city wall behind him began to corrode, and a layer of ash quickly aged on the brick wall. Dust keeps falling in the wind.

"Master, what kind of poison is this? Why even the city walls..." Pei Yuan said in shock.

Amelia Su didn't speak, and stared straight ahead: "Xiaoyuan, if there is a situation, you don't have to help me, take the two of them to leave first, you know?"

"Protect your wife for the master."

"Xiaoyuan!" Amelia Su snorted coldly

: "Apart from me, your cultivation is the highest. If there is any danger, you are the only one who can protect the two of them from leaving here.

"Mistress will be fine."

"But..."

"What? Master's words are true, so you can ignore Mistress's words?"

"Xiaoyuan dare not!" Pei Yuan hurriedly lowered his head, gritted his teeth, and after a little thought, he Nodding heavily: "Yes, Xiaoyuan understands." As soon as the words fell, Amelia Su's hanging heart hadn't let go. At this time, a few pairs of green eyes suddenly lit up in the night ahead.

In that darkness, for a while, it looked very strange.

"Hum hum."

"Hey hey."

Immediately afterwards, bursts of creepy laughter erupted.

"It's nice to say, but unfortunately, in our eyes, your words are nothing but a joke."

"That's not true. Being stared at by a few of our brothers and thinking of running away is simply beyond our own power."

"I said that if you are smart enough, you might as well just be captured, at least, you can suffer less." As the words fell, several figures slowly walked out of the darkness.

This group of people are short and short, but their muscles are exploding, and each of them is wearing an incomparably weird armor. Under the night, the armor is more like not wearing it.

Their eyes were green and their faces were hideous.

Amelia Su glanced at it, a little relieved.

Because this group of people looks extremely disgusting, but luckily the number is not large, but only seven people.

With her current cultivation level, it is not difficult to deal with seven people.

"Who are you?" Amelia Su shouted coldly.

"Who are we?"

Hehe , little girls, you'll find out after a while."

"Big brother, this little girl is really pretty, otherwise, don't give her to adults, it's a pity."

"Yeah, eldest brother, why don't we play first? We'll talk when we've had enough." The leader snorted coldly when he heard this, "Damn! How dare you think about this? If you let the adults know. If so, ten of our heads are not enough to chop off."

"Don't, big brother, the so-called dead peony flower is nothing but a ghost, our brothers have been in drought for so long, it is rare to meet a girl with such a symbol, this..."

"Yeah, eldest brother, this requires cattle to plough the fields, and the cattle must always eat grass. This bltch is the best of the best. It's not fun..."

"Also, eldest brother, she belongs to the human race. I heard that the human race The girl's resistance was particularly fierce, but it was a bit more pitiful than our demons, tsk tsk , that taste..." The leader listened to them, and the icy face gradually softened, a pair of green Light's eyes also began to produce different desires and flames.

"But this... only our brothers know about it, otherwise once they are found out, you..."

"Don't worry, big brother, we are all on the same boat."

"Yes, we will keep our mouths shut, big brother, don't worry. ."

Watching a group of brothers swear, the leader nodded and made up his mind.

"Little girls, I'm afraid you have heard what you said just now."

“You have two choices now, one is to pretend to be forced and play with us obediently, and the other is that you don’t have to pretend, we directly and force you Play.”

“Have you made a choice?” As soon as the voice fell, a few people laughed...

Chapter 4352

Amelia Su Qiang endured his anger, staring at those few people coldly.

“I’m afraid you guys don’t have that ability at all.”

Amelia Su couldn’t help but say that when the words were finished, and immediately killed him with his sword.

The seven green-eyed dwarves did not expect Amelia Su to suddenly attack like this, and they did not expect that Amelia Su’s cultivation base was extremely strong. When they fully reflected, Amelia Su had already arrived.

brush!

Even though the leader had flashed fast enough, Amelia Su’s attack still made it difficult for him to deal with it, accompanied by a muffled sound, and after he had completely shaken off Amelia Su, he took a closer look, and a huge hole had already been cut in his arm. Blood was gushing out constantly. ”

Bastard , you damn stinky b!tch! I fu***ing want you to scream even harder under Lao Tzu!”

“Brothers, get on me!” Under the loud roar, the seven people reorganized their offensive and attacked Amelia Su directly. Although the seven people did look like they often hang out together, and the tactical coordination is excellent, it is a pity that they never met anyone today. At least, in the case of Shang Amelia Su, this is the case. After just a few rendezvous, the seven people have been injured collectively, and they can only temporarily retreat! “Big brother, this b!tch looks like his mother is gentle, but I didn’t expect her mother to have several brushes.” “Yeah, this b!tch is really fu***ing energetic, brother, it’s hard to deal with. “

A few younger brothers were obviously a little scared, and they couldn’t help but surround the leader one by one.

The leader looked at Amelia Su stubbornly, and he was naturally aware of this.

This woman’s cultivation base is extremely high.

If they face it, they don’t want to arrest her. If they can avoid being killed by her, they have already begged their father to tell their grandmother.

Right now, there is no other choice.

He raised his hand directly, put two fingers on his mouth, and then blew it hard.

The strange whistle sounded suddenly, and then, the strange and foul smell that Amelia Su had smelled before hit his nostrils again.

This time, even though Amelia Su had hurriedly lifted the protective cover again, she was still dizzy due to the pungent stench.

Under such circumstances, Amelia Su was obviously a little unstable.

“Hmph, stinky girls, do you think our poisonous qi can be offset by relying on your true qi? If it’s as simple as that, wouldn’t our brothers be a waste? So many people aren’t arrested for nothing?”

“I’m not afraid . Let me tell you, although a small dose can be directly offset with infuriating energy, once we increase the amount, hum, let alone you, even if the true god comes, he will still be hit.”

Amelia Su thought to herself. Urgent, the secret channel is not good. In fact, she does feel extremely uncomfortable now, which is obviously a sign of poisoning.

But she had already made a defense in the first place, how could it be? !

In this world, is there really such a poison that even the real can’t stop it? !

how is this possible? !

“Little girls, don’t you really believe what we said?” The leader saw that Amelia Su’s face was obviously bad, and couldn’t help but feel a little proud.

Amelia Su stared at him stubbornly, she was indeed incomprehensible.

No matter how strong the poison is, it still needs people to touch it, but it can be released early, and it can completely resist those poisons.

So,

in this case, how could he be poisoned without any relevant contact at all? !

It’s not a question of belief or not, it’s a question of common sense.

“May I know, how exactly did you do it?” Amelia Su said coldly.

The seven people looked at each other and were very proud.

However, it is obvious that this is not the first time. They are basically familiar with driving, because they have seen too many masters along the way, and they have also seen too many masters confused and puzzled after being poisoned. .

got used to.

“Do you want to know?” the leader chuckled softly.

Amelia Su didn’t say a word, but staring at him closely already explained her attitude.

“Okay, I’ll be enough to make you uncle later, I will let you understand the mystery of this.” When the words were finished, he smiled sinisterly: "Brothers, do it!"

Chapter 4353

seven brothers immediately walked towards Amelia Su with a grin.

Amelia Su felt anxious and wanted to resist, but found that her body suddenly stiffened and she couldn't move at all.

Even if she forcibly wanted to run the infuriating energy, she could only find that the meridians seemed to be stiff and could not be mobilized at all.

Watching the seven people getting closer and closer to him, Amelia Su was anxious.

"Xiaoyuan, take them both away!"

Pei Yuan over there was very anxious for a while.

Leaving means abandoning his wife, but not leaving is equivalent to disobeying her. After all, he only promised her.

"Pei Mu!"

"I'm here!" "I used to be at Pei's house.

I always looked down on you because of their influence."

"But that's all in the past. Now, can you make me look down on you once
?"

"I don't care . Those rumors in the past are true or false, I only care about what I see now."

Pei Mu clenched his teeth: "What do you want me to do, just say it."

"I'm going to help my sister, and the little sister will leave it to you. Take care of him, can you guarantee his safety?"

"Pei Yuan, don't worry, anyone who wants to hurt the little junior sister will step over my Pei Mu's body. From childhood to adulthood, no one cared about me. , they will only despise me, beat me, and scold me. It is Master who gave me love and a new living environment for me."

"For me, Master is my reborn parents, and for them, I have nothing to fear. of."

"Good senior brother, as expected of my son from the Pei family, although the two of us haven't learned anything from apprenticeship, but, as you said, being George Han's apprentice is an honor in itself .

Retreat, I'm fighting with this group of dog days." As soon as the words fell, the two brothers immediately took action.

One directly forcibly dragged Han Nian and ran away, while the other directly took the sword and killed the bad guys who were approaching the teacher's wife.

“Pei Yuan, didn’t I tell you to withdraw? You don’t listen to me!”

Amelia Su couldn’t help being shocked when she saw this scene, and was so anxious.

For someone she couldn’t deal with, what else could Pei Yuan rush over except to die!

Although it is not his own child, he is still his own apprentice, and Amelia Su has long regarded the two of them as his half sons.

Now...

“Miss, I’m sorry, Pei Yuan may end up disobeying you in this life. But Pei Yuan promises you that if there is a next life and I can still be your apprentice, I will definitely listen to you . .” The words fell, and the big sword slashed directly at the seven people.

“fu***, little boy, you’re just rushing to court death.”

“Well, it’s really unpleasant to have such an annoying little fly before playing with this little girl. Let’s deal with him.”

Seven people’s ideas After making up his mind, he turned his body slightly and killed Pei Yuan directly.

These seven people may not have an advantage in fighting Amelia Su, but it is more than enough to deal with Pei Yuan, a child with little academic experience.

After only a few rounds, Pei Yuan was completely knocked out, and a large mouthful of blood continued to spurt from his mouth.

“Stinky boy, come to dance in front of the King of Hell, you are really rushing to die.”

“You bastards, what are you doing at me, bullying a doll, what kind of men are you?”

Amelia Su scolded.

“What kind of man? Little girls, I’ll let you know after a while what a real man is.” The leader snorted coldly.

Immediately afterwards, he looked at Pei Yuan like a dead man.

“It’s so fu***ing annoying to finish him.”

“Yes!” The

two younger brothers immediately took orders, then drew their knives and walked quickly towards Pei Yuan.

When the two came to Pei Yuan, there was no fear on Pei Yuan’s face, he just stared at several people angrily, full of unwillingness and disdain.

“My grandfather is not good at learning, so I planted it in your hands, it is bad luck for my grandfather, don’t let me meet you in the next life, I want you to die without a place to be buried.” The two younger brothers looked at each other and sneered: "Then send you to reincarnation first." When the words fell, the knife rose, aimed at Pei Yuan and chopped down directly.

But at this moment...

Chapter 4354

The knife was about to slash between Pei Yuan's neck, but the knife suddenly stopped at the neck as if it had stopped.

The younger brother was stunned for a moment. When he wanted to use the knife again, he found that he couldn't exert himself no matter what.

He tried several times, but the knife seemed to weigh 10,000 catties, and he couldn't move it at all.

"A group of thieves, don't ask who it is before you want to move people? Just a few of you, are you worthy?"

A cold drink hit.

Several people looked around, but there was no trace of them.

"Master?"

Pei Yuan was excited, and when he heard the voice, he knew instantly that it was his master's voice.

At the same time, Amelia Su was also reflected, and she hurriedly looked around: "Three thousand?" A figure suddenly floated out from a corner, like a ghost, but to Amelia Su and Pei Yuan, the voice was like a god.

It was George Han!

"fu, where's the rubbish, you dare to stop the uncles from doing things, I think, you fuing don't want to live."

"Go away, you are not qualified to stay in this place, otherwise..."

"Otherwise what?"

The man wanted to threaten, but halfway through his words, George Han had appeared in front of him and asked coldly.

When he was talking just now, George Han was still several steps away from him, but now, George Han has appeared in front of him in the blink of an eye. At such a speed and such a change, his whole person did not reflect at all, and he stumbled in fright. One leg, I just don't dare to answer

"Damn, this kid is a little evil, big brother."

“He’s gone, he was there just now, and now he’s there again.”

Even if the person besieging Amelia Su didn’t get in close contact with George Han, he could see George Han from a distance. The transformation of the shadow, can not help but feel fear.

The big brother’s heart is also a little empty, but how can the duck that reaches the mouth fly?

He squinted his heart: “Afraid of what he will do?”

“You and my brother have worked together for so long, what kind of big man have you not seen? Are you afraid of a small bamboo pole?” The elder brother forced his breath.

A few younger brothers heard the words and thought about it carefully, and it seemed to be the same.

“That’s right, damn, this kid did some weird tricks, and he was really fooled by him just now .

The individual walked slowly towards George Han to support their brother.

“Boy, no matter who you are, now, we’ll give you a chance, or leave immediately, and we’ll pretend nothing happened.”

“Or, kill you now.”

George Han smiled lightly: “If If you really have the ability to kill me, feel free to come.” “Or else ...”

“Or what?” the younger brother asked.

“Or I will kill you.” George Han said.

“Damn you, stinky boy, it’s just you?”

“You dare to talk to us like this without seeing how many hairs you have grown?”

“What kind of rubbish are you? You dare to talk to my master like that?” Seeing George Han coming, Pei Yuan’s previous emotions were completely replaced by joy.

He knew very well that as long as his master was there, no one could hurt them.

Not to mention, but only a few minions.

“fu*** you, stinky boy, you’re really crazy. Wait, we’ll kill you when we kill this bastard.”

Pei Yuan wanted to say something, but he was blocked by George Han, who was light-hearted. With a light smile, he said coldly, “There’s no need to talk nonsense with them, trying to betray my wife and hurt my apprentice. For such people, I will only send them a knife to hell, not anything else.”

“Okay, Master . , it’s time to teach these bastards a good lesson.” Pei Yuan also gritted his teeth.

George Han smiled lightly: “You guys are getting started, I haven’t come and taught you anything, but it’s just right, you are here, and I just happen to have a set of things that I think are more suitable for you, so you can see clearly.”

“Master, apprentice. I understand.”

“Okay, remember to teach Pei Mu after you have learned it. In the future, if Pei Mu learns, he will also teach you.”

It was George Han’s decision to teach Shi Cai.

Pei Yuan is impatient, and the technique of strong attack is the most suitable. Pei Mu can bear it, and his spiritual cultivation is more like a fish in water. George Han has already divided himself into two parts and taught them separately.

In this way, the two disciples have their own strengths, and once they join forces, it will be even more terrifying.

“Okay.” When the words fell, George Han moved...

Chapter 4355

“Seventy-two Road Divine Sword!”

“fu***, this bastard uses us as a test, here to teach brothers, brothers Come on!”

“fu***, you must teach him a good lesson!” The four younger brothers on the opposite side were also completely angry, and they attacked George Han as well.

“But those who want to be masters, see clearly, the first style!”

They learn what suits them, and then use them to teach others. In this way, the two brothers can teach each other. The benefits of doing so One is that when I teach others, I consolidate my own learning, and at the same time, I can indeed teach another person.

It’s great not to ask for advice, but at least the two brothers can know what the other has learned in general, and they will be more handy when they cooperate.

The first style, although amazing, is not so mysterious.

At the same time, George Han’s voice came from Pei Yuan’s mind.

That is the teaching of the mind!

In the second style, the level became more complicated, and the moves and mental techniques became more difficult to understand, but the mystery of swordsmanship also followed.

The third form, the fourth form...

more and more, more and more difficult.

Pei Yuan didn't dare to take it lightly. He carefully memorized every step and every detail. For him, he was nervous and extremely looking forward to it. After all, this was the first time he followed the master to learn what the master taught.

"The opponent is too bad, I'll be here today, the tenth form, break it for me!" As soon as the voice fell, along with George Han's tenth form, the four younger brothers were directly sent flying. Helplessly shook his head: "The 72-way Divine Sword has a total of 72 moves."

"It's obviously impossible for me to teach you much with this bunch of junk today, but it's not a bad thing. Although the ten moves are few, they can at least make it's easier for you to write down and practice."

Pei Yuan nodded.

Those four little brothers were furious, and they really made people think of themselves as experimental teaching materials. However, the reality is very backbone, and they were defeated within ten moves!

"fu***." The leading eldest brother was also completely angry.

Although I didn't experience it myself, it was my little brother after all.

Moreover, the situation also made him angry.

"Come back." He shouted.

When the four younger brothers heard this, they didn't care about the pain in their bodies, and hurriedly turned over and ran away.

Soon, the seven people approached again.

"Brother, this kid has some skills, we can't touch him head-on." The big brother nodded, he was not blind, of course he could see it.

Thinking of this, he took a slight step back.

Suddenly, the black wind fluttered behind him, and an unpleasant smell came again.

As soon as she smelled this smell, Amelia Su immediately noticed something was wrong. After all, her experience with this was not rare.

George Han, be careful, this wind is poisonous."

"Yes, Master, it's useless even if you use True Qi to resist, run!"

George Han also sniffed lightly, he could really sense something was wrong in the wind .

When You Qi heard Pei Yuan shouting that it was useless to block his infuriating energy, the corners of his eyes shrank.

Soon, I understood what was going on.

No wonder Amelia Su's cultivation base also has to be recruited. With her ability, it is impossible for these seven people to live with her.

I see!

The wind blew suddenly, and George Han was still standing there, but unlike Amelia Su and the others, he was not even willing to let go of the infuriating hood.

Seeing this, the seven people suddenly laughed.

“, I fu*ing thought this guy was so capable, but now that I look at it, isn't it a pure idiot.”

“Hahahaha, yes, he doesn't even know how to dodge poison gas, he is completely cerebral palsy.”

“This Okay,

this guy's poison is almost full, I'm thinking, this guy doesn't even have to do it ourselves, we just fell down on the spot.”

“I laughed so hard, what is this called, an operation. Fierce as a tiger, it's actually only two hundred and fifty.”

Several people were very happy, after all, the poison this time was more than what they had poured on anyone before.

Everyone would resist subconsciously, but George Han did nothing, like a pig.

No, saying yes is an insult to the pig, and the pig will move a few times.

“Stinky boy, do you feel that your whole body is starting to stiffen now, and you can't sense your infuriating energy at all? Hahaha, don't be afraid, don't panic, it's just poisoning, the big deal is that you will die from the poison.”

“Hahahaha!”

Looking at the seven people who were laughing like a fool, George Han let out a wry smile, and sat down with a butt, a gesture of please, signaling them to continue performing...

Chapter 4356

This action seems to be nothing, but in the eyes of seven people, it is enough to petrify them directly on the spot.

Not for anything else, but for George Han, who is still active at this moment.

“He... how did he move?”

“Yeah, it's impossible, how could he move?” “It

's impossible for his body to move after being poisoned by us, this guy... how did he sit down? "

Isn't this stupidity lighter than poisoning?"

"Brother, do you want to add more doses?"

Several people couldn't help talking.

The leader thought for a while, then nodded, "Okay."

As soon as he finished speaking, he almost repeated his old tricks, and another gust of wind blew through. George Han got up, but soon sat down again.

This time, a group of people were a little bit mentally blown up.

If it was said that the amount of poisoning was not enough to explain it

, then now, such words are absolutely stupid.

Not because of other things, but because the amount is so large that it is too big to say that one person is poisoned, and there is absolutely no problem in poisoning ten people.

Moreover, these ten people are definitely top masters.

"How could this be?" The seven people looked at their small eyes with big eyes, and they were a little autistic collectively.

George Han let out a wry smile, then shook his head helplessly: "Are you all capable of this?"

"I'm still waiting to have a good time with you."

Seven people, you look at me, I look at you, I just don't know how to answer.

"Impossible! It's impossible! You are obviously poisoned, but why..."

"Yeah, don't tell me, you're not poisoned at all? But it's impossible."

George Han smiled: "Actually, it depends on you. How to understand it, you can understand that I was poisoned, but you can also understand that I was not poisoned at all.

Because, this is not important."

"What do you mean by this?" The leader asked puzzled.

"To a certain extent, I didn't dodge or block. Of course, I sucked all the poisons in one breath."

"If that's the case, then I can't understand what it means to be poisoned. How can you move when you are poisoned?"

George Han smiled and said, "Why can't you move when you are poisoned?"

Maybe to others, this poisoning is almost deadly, but who is George Han? He is already a poisonous body, how could he be harmed by poison? !

Seeing that George Han was so confident, Amelia Su, who had been very confused before, seemed to remember something under his rhetorical question.

That 's right, he has a poisonous body, he doesn't poison others, others have already begged his father to tell his grandmother, who would dare to poison him.

"You...Aren't you afraid of our poison? Are you one of our own?" The leader couldn't understand and cried out in panic.

George Han sneered: "Who the fu*** is with your own people?"

"It's not our people, how... how could you possibly be immune to our poison?"

" Yes." George Han was disdainful.

In fact, the other party's poisoning, he can completely crack it in an instant. He didn't choose to do so, in fact, he was observing the place he was curious about.

That is how Amelia Su got the trick.

With Amelia Su's cultivation base, it was actually very difficult for this group of people to get close. Given her vigilance and intelligence, there was absolutely no chance that the other party wanted to use a shady trick.

Now, he sees clearly .

"Your poison is actually quite general. The reason why you have been able to succeed many times is just because your poisoning methods are a bit secretive. Am I right?"

They've done it quite a few times, but if anyone has discovered the way they spread poison, it's really not there!

Most of the people actually just don't understand where their tricks are, and they can't tell the details at all.

"Do you know where we poisoned?"

George Han smiled disdainfully: "What's so difficult about this?"

"Then talk about it." The leader stared at George Han closely, to be honest, he was really serious I don't believe that George Han can know.

"You think I'm bluffing you?" George Han sneered, then looked at the leader: "Stretch your ears for me to hear clearly."

Chapter 4357

“Actually, it is very simple, most of all poisons are blown by the wind, which makes many people subconsciously go to block them. But in fact, they tend to ignore a place that is most easily overlooked.”

George Han didn't speak, just looked at his feet.

mud!

This poisonous gas actually spreads through the soil. Even if the distance of transmission is extremely limited, it is precisely because it is often ignored that it can always achieve its purpose.

“Am I right?”

Amelia Su suddenly realized after hearing George Han's explanation.

No wonder she had already defended herself, but she was still poisoned.

It was because of that.

The eyes of the seven of them were widened. George Han did not lie at all. The way the seven of them were poisoning was actually like this.

The wind is just a superficial attack.

Their superiors had long expected that such a poisoning method would not be a problem to deal with unsuspecting little people, but once they met a master, even if others were unprepared, they could dodge to the limit because of their excellent skills.

So, they have a real under-the-radar attack.

How many people in this world can think that someone will release poison through the ground? !

The ground is large and thick, and most of the soil will dilute the toxicity.

So, very few people guard against this, it is common sense.

“How did you find out?” The leader looked at George Han in disbelief.

George Han smiled: “In front of my cultivation level, you are just babies who have just learned to walk. I want to ask you, what are you doing without being under my nose?”

“Childish!

” Taking a look, this time, they were completely unable to collapse.

Run!” The

leader shouted, and directly led the six brothers to retreat into the dark night.

It's a pity, maybe this is feasible in front of others, or there is a chance, but in front of George Han, this kind of behavior is just a waste of physical strength.

With a slight movement of his hand, a black wind suddenly surged in the dark night. Before a few people could run a few steps, they were directly swept back by the black wind, and then obediently landed in front of George Han.

The seven did not intend to give up, and continued to run forward frantically.

But no matter how hard they tried, they were always just a ferocious operation, and they actually saw the pestle in place!

They couldn't move an inch at all.

"People who bullied me, still dare to run? Do you really think of me as a teahouse?"

After saying this, George Han directly shouted at Pei Yuan: "The eleventh style!"

Swipe!

The sword

shot out in an instant, and in an instant, the two people closest to George Han were directly turned into pieces of meat in the meat grinder on the spot. Except for the clothes like rags, only the bones were left. Their flesh and blood were already under the sword, completely turned into a mass of mud.

It's like being chopped into meatballs.

The other five people were frightened on the spot, and even Pei Yuan was a little hard to look straight at, because it was too brutal.

"It's okay to bully my apprentice. If you want to bully my wife, that's the end."

"Pei Yuan, someone told Master since he was a child that being kind to the enemy is being cruel to himself. Eleven styles have been taught, and these five people will teach you to practice your hands. Do you dare?" George Han asked.

"I didn't dare." Pei Yuan shook his head, after all, he was still just a child after all.

Although murder is very common,

he has never tried such a bloody murder.

"However, as Master said, these bastards not only want to kill me, but also want to bully my wife, I can't bear him anymore."

"Master, I'll come." After the words were finished, Pei Yuan mentioned it directly. His own long sword killed him aggressively.

The five people who tried to escape could not move at all, and at this time they could only rush to Pei Yuan and begged for mercy: "Little Master, don't kill us, don't kill us. We were wrong, we were wrong."

"As long as you guys If you are willing to let us die, you can do whatever you want us to do."

"Yes, yes. Let us go, let us go, we are blind and don't know Mount Tai, we are wrong."

Pei Yuan looked at Glancing at George Han, seeing George Han nodding, he slammed the sword and headed towards him...

George Han smiled: “In front of my cultivation level, you are all babies who have just learned to walk. I want to ask you, what are you doing without being under my nose?”

“Childish!

” Taking a look, this time, they were completely unable to collapse.

Run!” The

leader shouted, and directly led the six brothers to retreat into the dark night.

It's a pity, maybe this is feasible in front of others, or there is a chance, but in front of George Han, this kind of behavior is just a waste of physical strength.

With a slight movement of his hand, a black wind suddenly surged in the dark night. Before a few people could run a few steps, they were directly swept back by the black wind, and then obediently landed in front of George Han.

The seven did not intend to give up, and continued to run forward frantically.

But no matter how hard they tried, they were always just a ferocious operation, and they actually saw the pestle in place!

They couldn't move an inch at all.

"People who bullied me, still dare to run? Do you really think of me as a teahouse?"

After saying this, George Han directly shouted at Pei Yuan: "The eleventh style!"

Swipe!

The sword

shot out in an instant, and in an instant, the two people closest to George Han were directly turned into pieces of meat in the meat grinder on the spot. Except for the clothes like rags, only the bones were left. Their flesh and blood were already under the sword, completely turned into a mass of mud.

It's like being chopped into meatballs.

The other five people were frightened on the spot, and even Pei Yuan was a little hard to look straight at, because it was too brutal.

"It's okay to bully my apprentice. If you want to bully my wife, that's the end."

"Pei Yuan, someone told Master since he was a child that being kind to the enemy is being cruel to himself. Eleven styles have been taught, and these five people will teach you to practice your hands. Do you dare?" George Han asked.

"I didn't dare." Pei Yuan shook his head, after all, he was still just a child after all.

Although murder is very common,

he has never tried such a bloody murder.

"However, as Master said, these bastards not only want to kill me, but also want to bully my wife, I can't bear him anymore."

"Master, I'll come." After the words were finished, Pei Yuan mentioned it directly. His own long sword killed him aggressively.

The five people who tried to escape couldn't move at all, and at this moment they could only rush to Pei Yuan and begged for mercy: "Master, don't kill us, don't kill us. We were wrong, we were wrong."

“As long as you guys If you are willing to let us die, you can do whatever you want us to do.”

“Yeah, yeah. Let us go, let us go, we don’t know Mount Tai, we are wrong.”

Pei Yuan looked at Glancing at George Han, seeing George Han nodding, he slammed the sword and headed towards him...

Chapter 4359

“Puchi!”

accompanied by a crisp sound.

Knife in head.

Three more people died on the spot.

“Master, there are still two people. Just let me try the eleventh form.” The eleventh form, kicking the bone and cutting the flesh, is all cruel. When the two heard this, they were already pale with fright. Liver and gallbladder split. “No, no, no, no, sir

, we were wrong, we were deeply wrong, you don’t care about the villain, please forgive us, forgive us.”

Wet pants.

Just five brothers fell in front of them in the blink of an eye, and everyone died tragically, how could they not be shocked, how could they not be afraid? !

“Hmph, forgive you. I didn’t see you showing any mercy to us before. Let’s die.” Pei Yuan drank coldly, and was about to start.

The leader finally couldn’t take it anymore, and shouted loudly: “Don’t, don’t, don’t stop, keep people under the sword, keep people under the sword.”

“As long as you don’t kill us, you can do whatever you want us to do, and we are also instructed by others. In fact, we don’t want to kill innocent people indiscriminately.”

Hearing this, George Han nodded to Pei Yuan, indicating that he should not do anything.

“What? Do you want to sell information to save your life?” George Han sneered: “Although it’s very old-fashioned, I’d like to give you a chance. But I can tell you the ugly things first. If I don’t have any interest in listening to it, I promise, you won’t have a chance to say it a second time.”

“Master, just ask, I... I must know everything, Master.”

“Okay, keep it simple, and I won’t procrastinate. All the women in the city have been taken away by you. I want to know, what are you doing with so many women?”

“This...” The leader broke into a cold sweat .

After all, although he was ready to tell the truth, he never thought that George Han would throw a blockbuster as soon as he came.

“What? Are you hesitant? Hehe, I’ll say it again, there’s no second chance to say it.”

Pei Yuan also wisely raised the big knife again.

Seeing this situation, the leader could no longer collapse: “Say, I said. However, I haven’t seen it with my own eyes, so what I said is not necessarily 100%.

” If there is an accident, they should all be dead now.”

Speaking of this, his voice obviously became extremely small.

For fear that a little louder, these words would attract a severe beating for him.

“Dead?” George Han frowned: “They are all young girls, and, I have inquired, there are hundreds of thousands of girls in the city.”

In fact, George Han’s

preliminary judgment should be that these women are all was sold.

After all, in this society where the strong eat the weak, making money is more important than anything else. If you have money, you are naturally powerful, so it is not uncommon to do something uncompromising for money.

The place where girls are sold fireworks, there are many people who do this kind of business.

However, what George Han could never have imagined was that the answer given by the leader was that they were already dead. How could it not be surprising? !

“Hundreds of thousands of girls, are you fu***ing human?” Amelia Su got angry.

Although she didn’t know exactly what happened, when she heard that hundreds of thousands of young girls died at their hands, she couldn’t help being furious.

“An antidote.” Amelia Su said coldly.

The leader did not dare to neglect, and hurriedly took out the antidote in his bag, and then obediently handed it to George Han.

George Han took the antidote, moved his hand, and threw it directly to Amelia Su.

With the antidote, Amelia Su recovered quickly, but of course the first thing she could do was not to move her hands and feet, but to kill her directly.

“You are just beasts. I killed you and avenged them.”

“Sister, no, auntie, don’t kill me, don’t kill me, this matter... This matter has nothing to do with us, even if you kill us, I can’t take revenge.”

George Han patted Amelia Su lightly, it really doesn't make much sense to kill a small minion, the real purpose is always the big guy behind, only to kill them, these hundreds of thousands of innocent girls Wronged souls will be truly liberated.

Amelia Su hesitated for a moment, then held back her breath.

"Leave your dog's life first, say, what are you killing so many women for?"

Chapter 4360

"If you dare to tell a half lie, I can guarantee that you will die without a burial." The leader nodded desperately, waiting for Amelia Su After letting go, he said tremblingly: "Actually, these girls are not used to sell fireworks."

"Once, a person above was drinking with us, and when he was drunk, he accidentally revealed that "

He said, in fact, we have a kind of unparalleled magic here. I specially collect the yin qi of women so that people can cultivate into **. Women are inherently yin, naturally, their blood is also biased towards this. However, there is an aura that is more important than yin qi in the blood."

"So, if you can catch a living woman and let her bleed, then once the blood volume is enough, it will definitely be able to make a great achievement."

"I also I heard that divine power can not only bring people back to life, but also greatly increase their power, which is very miraculous.

"Therefore, there are only two endings for women who are arrested. One is that the plain-looking person is killed directly, and the other is the long-term death. You look good, but you will be killed after being played."

"It's just beasts, no, to say you are beasts is an insult to beasts." Amelia Su scolded coldly.

It's enough to kill people, and some women have to suffer the humiliation of a lifetime of nightmares, and then be killed.

"Auntie, you... don't be angry, these... these are just what we heard, in fact, we... we didn't play at all."

"And, even if we want to play, it's not like we are. People of this level can play."

Amelia Su's face was cold: "Have you ever played, don't you know better yourself? Are you still pretending to be in front of me?"

"Hmph, didn't you just keep saying that you want me to play with you? Now, I'm not qualified again?"

Hearing this, the cold sweat on the leader's forehead frantically poured out.

They did have this idea just now, it's not false.

However, that was also because they had walked too many nights without encountering a ghost.

All along, they have caught an unknown number of women, but in the end, they haven't even touched a fingertip. This perennial flower is in the middle, but they just don't stick to it, and it's uncomfortable for anyone to put it on.

They are all normal men, how can there be no such demand? !

It's just that almost all the women in the city have been captured by them, and they have never had the chance to release themselves.

Normally, I can bear it, but after seeing Amelia Su today, the group of people was completely out of control.

After all, Amelia Su's appearance is real enough to make anyone willing to take risks for it.

Therefore, a few people turned their hearts out and decided to secretly carry their heads behind their backs and do some shameful things.

Amelia Su was not at all happy about these resignations, and there was only infinite fire in her eyes.

George Han pulled her shoulder in time, indicating that she didn't have to.

From one aspect of the matter, this guy is really unlikely to lie.

The reason is very simple. If all the soldiers under his command can mess around at will, then this matter is probably too messy to know what it is like.

Whether the women can be sent up smoothly has to be marked with a big question mark.

After all, by doing this, the downstream will take away many women.

Therefore, they must have extremely strict measures and censorship, so the credibility of what this little leader said should naturally be quite high.

"What about the women?" George Han asked.

Women are different from young girls, they do not have the body of extreme yin, so since ancient times, whether it is collecting yin or collecting yang, in fact, in the end, they are often virgins and virgins.

At this point, George Han didn't understand what they wanted to do with these women.

"Originally...hey, in fact, the order above was really only for women, but unfortunately..."

"What a pity, make it clear, don't try to be sloppy." Amelia Su was on the verge of breaking out at any time.

In fact, this feeling is also understandable.

After all, George Han really wanted to kill these sluts, but he was more rational in comparison. He knew very well that the people behind him were more important.

“Unfortunately, an accident happened later, and it was this kind of accident that prevented our plan from being disrupted.”

With a sigh, the leader continued to speak: “This is actually a coincidence, and it seems that It has something to do with the fall of the city.”

What? !
