

HTC 4381

Chapter 4381

What is the situation? !

The two managed to hide all the way here, but this guy knew it instantly?

Could it be that it was exposed there!? The judge was also surprised. After all, George Han and others were exposed in advance. In other words, it was also known that his mutiny was also known.

At the critical moment, George Han hurriedly pulled down Su Amelia Su, who was about to break the jar and try to resist, and lowered her head, as if nothing had happened.

“Hehe, Judge, where did this man and woman come from?”

“This...”

George Han hurriedly winked at the leader, the guy was stunned, and quickly stepped forward: “City Lord, this man is us. The member of the seventh column team, this woman was captured by us and presented to you.”

“Yes, he gave it to me at first, but when I brought it back to the house, I found that this woman was indeed too beautiful to speak of. Said, after thinking about it

, I reluctantly gave it up and gave it to the city lord, is there something wrong with this woman?!” The judge also pretended to be confused at this time, and hurried to make up for it.

Su Amelia Su obviously couldn't bear it anymore. Now that they have all been discovered, what nonsense are you talking to him? Can't you just kill him directly? !

But at this moment, I heard the man laughing: “Everyone, don't be so nervous, I'm just joking, why is this?”

“However, Judge, according to the spies, Tomobe's 200,000 army could have been Killing the Pei family, but suddenly failed, all because George Han has completed his Nirvana rebirth under the power of the Pei family, and now, a few days have passed, George Han is very likely to have left the customs, and we have to guard against it.”

“Fang Cai, I think this woman and this man are both human races, so I can't help but worry that they are George Han and Su Amelia Su, so I lied to them. Since this man belongs to your seventh team, then I can rest assured.”

Hearing the city lord's words, Han 3,001's gang almost let out a long sigh.

This bastard has been there for a long time to scare people, and he really thinks this thing has been discovered in advance.

Su Amelia Su breathed a sigh of relief and glanced at George Han: “How did you know he was cheating on us ?!”

“

George Han still didn't believe it when he was discovered like this.

Of course, there is one more point, and that is the class here.

On the surface, the guards here are strictly guarded, and it seems that there are layers of protection. It is actually very difficult for anyone to come in.

There's nothing to deny it.

But on the other hand, in any case, there is also a need for layers of reporting, which will be extremely time-consuming.

Here are the pros and cons, no doubt about it.

So closed, but he knows who he is so quickly, isn't this nonsense? !

George Han was right.

“This subordinate understands!”

When he said this, the judge was actually very depressed, because George Han was already fuing here, wasn't he? You remind me earlier, I'm not like this now.

“This woman is very beautiful.” The city owner nodded with satisfaction.

“The city owner likes it. By the way, the city owner, if there is nothing else, the subordinates will retire first.” The judge said.

George Han knew that this guy was eager to get out now, because the lie would soon be unable to hide.

However, George Han did not stop him, his goal had already been achieved, and he didn't need to push these minions too tightly, otherwise, sometimes it would only backfire.

“Okay, let's put it down below, things have to be done, but George Han has to guard against it.”

“This subordinate understands, this subordinate will arrange it.” After the words were finished, the judge turned around and left.

However, the leader and the two brought by George Han did not leave.

As long as the judge is not a pig head, then he must know that the leader betrayed him, and he has no good fruit to eat when he returns.

So, if you stay here, you might be able to gamble on Han 3000.

As for the other two, they originally followed George Han, so naturally, they didn't want to abandon him at this time.

“How many of you, why didn't you follow the judge and leave??” The city lord asked in a soft voice.

There was a burst of dissatisfaction in his tone.

The leader didn't know what to do for a while, so he could only look at George Han and wait for him to answer.

George Han smiled lightly. Seeing that the judge and others had already left, he simply pulled out his jade sword: "Of course we won't leave."

Chapter 4382

George Han's murderous intent has already appeared, and the leader subconsciously hurriedly retreated to the no-man's corner.

The two people who followed George Han were also relatively far away.

They know very well that this is not the time for them to go.

Seeing George Han pick up the weapon, the city lord obviously didn't react for a while: "What are you doing? Do you want to rebel?" As soon as he finished speaking, he heard the bang of metal hitting the ground. Those who were originally guarding around the castle The guard immediately rushed over here with a halberd in hand.

Don't look at this group of people wearing gold-like armor that seems to be cumbersome, but in fact they are very flexible, directly surrounding George Han in just a few seconds.

"Hmph, I thought you called out the names of our husband and wife just now because you were very smart. It turned out that it was just a piece of shit

. We are not yours, so why did you rebel?!"

"You husband and wife?" The city owner was taken aback, The next second, he finally came to his senses and pointed at George Han. He was very stunned for a while: "You...you are George Han?!"

"You are Su Amelia Su?"

The most outrageous thing in life is that you were just joking. When I thought it was like this, but it was actually impossible, it happened in reality, exactly as you joked.

This is simply astonishing and incredibly incredible.

Su Amelia Su smiled coldly: "You bastard, have you reacted now?!"

As soon as the couple admitted, the golden soldier who was still surrounded by them was so frightened that he took a few steps back.

After all, how could they have never heard of George Han's prestige? !

That is the absolute king who can frighten hundreds of thousands of troops.

"We're here to kill him. If you don't want to die, get out of here." George Han glanced at everyone coldly.

Everyone retreated, and some soldiers even had cold sweat on their foreheads.

“Bastard, what are you all doing? What are you afraid of him doing in Tianmo Castle?! Surround him to death for me!” The city lord snorted coldly.

With his explosive drink, the group of guards who had been somewhat withdrawn moved closer to George Han again.

Looking at this group of people, George Han didn't pay any attention to it, swept it coldly, and everyone immediately dared not move.

“As bodyguards, it's not wrong for you to obey your superiors, but now Tianmo Castle has caught all the women. Your wives and daughters may be fine now, but what about the future

?!”

“There are no women in Tianmo Castle anymore. When their demand continues, I want to ask you, are your wives and daughters safe?”

“Also, I also know that some of you are not even here at all, but what about the future?!”

“For the sake of Don't you really think it's not worth fighting against the famous George Han?!” Su Amelia Su said coldly.

“Allegiance to the lord!” The city lord shouted!

As soon as these words came out, the next second, the soldiers blurted out in unison almost without thinking: “Allegiance to the Lord.”

A group of guards who were completely brainwashed.

They were instilled in attitude and beating loyalty. George Han knew very well that it was obviously impossible for Su Amelia Su to persuade them.

“Okay, since you are begging to die, I'm not talking nonsense, come on, come as many as you want.” After the words were finished, George Han directly put away the jade sword.

The next second, with a move in his hand, he directly pulled out the Pangu axe.

As soon as the Pangu axe appeared, the murderous aura would come out, and the entire palace was suddenly cold, as if death had descended.

“Pangu Axe!”

Even if some people don't know Pangu Axe, they all know George Han, and they have even heard that George Han has a peerless weapon Pangu Axe.

Now, seeing the axe, they are naturally very clear that this is the legendary king of all tools!

“If you know it, and you're not afraid of death, just take a step forward!” “I want to see if it's your armor that's tough, or my axe.”

“Come on, let’s fight!”

, The gas is like a mountain top!

Chapter 4383

Everyone can not help but back!

Pangu Shenwei, who dares to approach? !

“Kill, kill him, I will reward you heavily, and fight for your honor!” The city lord roared furiously, and then moved his hand, which could really hit the backs of those guards.

Although it really didn’t hurt anyone, he directly pushed the guards to kill George Han.

One move and one move, all the guards had no other choice but to bite the bullet and kill George Han.

George Han directly protects Amelia Su behind him. Although Amelia Su doesn’t have to worry about this situation, George Han is almost a subconscious action protection.

Not for others, this is the responsibility and obligation a man should have.

Even if Amelia Su is even more powerful than George Han!

Pangu’s axe swept across the sky directly, and the guards who rushed at the front were immediately cut off in the middle!

Even if the Pangu axe is not powerful enough now, the thin dead camel is bigger than a horse, and its incomparably sharp axe blade almost cuts iron like mud. , like a grain of sand!

After only hearing the sound of the slap, the guards almost cut off the armor and halberd!

“Crack!” The

first row of soldiers fell on the spot, and the corpses and broken halberds were piled all over the floor!

“Come!” George Han shouted domineeringly.

The soldiers who had just made a big move were suddenly stunned, and no one dared to move!

This is fuing horrible!

With just an axe, a row of people was cut into two directly, who would dare to play with such a person.

Whose life is not too long for him.

“Come on!”

It was Yizhen who was able to attack from behind again, and another group of soldiers was forced to rush over.

George Han didn’t talk nonsense, he smiled coldly, pulled Amelia Su with one hand, and

The guy who killed his bodyguard just now was using it, but when he arrived at his place, he said he was not worthy? What does this mean? Do you mean that you are not even as good as his mother's bodyguard? !

"You're so annoying. Originally, seeing that you were George Han, I planned to give you a more decent way to die, but now, you don't have this chance." As the words fell, he waved his mace, coldly. He shouted: "I'm going to hammer you into meat patties today!" The double mace comes again!

George Han didn't need it at all. He glanced coldly at Angelica who was rushing up, suddenly smiled, and shook his jade sword...

Chapter 4384

"Bang"

is almost an inch, George Han has already picked it up on the sword, and it seems that the powerful double mace is just right. It was blocked directly, and after that, the sword swayed his hand like a broken bamboo.

The city owner Angelica was suddenly shocked. Not only did George Han directly open his attack, but he also automatically turned passive into active and launched an attack on himself.

Come on, what the hell is this guy?

So simple, so easy to do?

But he didn't have time to think about it, because there wasn't much he could do at this point.

He could only subconsciously flash.

Snapped!

Although George Hanjian didn't hit his chest, it just hit his right hand directly. Under the pain in his wrist, the mace in his right hand suddenly fell to the ground.

Before he could react, the sword trembled again, his left hand hurt, and the mace fell again.

He's not stupid, so hurry up and stay away from George Han

, because in that instant, he was completely disarmed by George Han!

Come on, what the hell is this guy!

After all, he was considered a top-level expert, but in front of him, he was just like a little baby who fell to the ground, he was just being manipulated at will. "How's it going?" George Han smiled lightly: "Are you still fighting? Don't blame me for not reminding you, this time the ace in your hand fell off.

If you are smart, surrender obediently, and I can save your life, but if you have to try, you can see if I can do it."

Hearing George Han's words, the city owner Angelica was very angry, but he didn't dare to refute it for a while. From George Han's confident eyes, he could read that George Han must have done what he said.

But in the blink of an eye, he suddenly shook his head again: "George Han, I know you are very capable, and today, I finally saw the true ability of George Han, who can frighten thousands of people with one person.

"The defense is strict, and you can also touch it. This shows that you do have the courage and strategy. When I fought with you just now, you can defeat me with one or two moves, which is a better indicator of your ability.

"He is indeed an extraordinary talent."

"I have a suggestion, I don't know if you want to hear it or not." The dog couldn't spit out a good tooth, and George Han was not interested at all: "Are you trying to win me over? To be honest with you, I still don't need to spend any more time. Although I, George Han, am not a good person, I will definitely not have a bad way to join forces with scumbags like you."

"Hmph, I haven't offered any conditions yet. , you are in a hurry to refuse, this doesn't seem like a smart person's move, right?"

George Han has no interest in listening to him about any benefits, not to mention golden beauties, even if he handed over the entire land of the demons to himself Jurisdiction, I will never agree to it.

This is a matter of basic principles. For George Han, a person may not necessarily be a good person, but he must not have a moral bottom line.

"Maybe, I'm really stupid, but, so what? Idiots have their own stupid blessings." George Han smiled indifferently.

"Hehe, I can guarantee that you will definitely regret what you said just now, George Han. With your ability, you can indeed pretend to be crazy, which is what you should enjoy.

" , especially when you are in front of me."

After hearing these words, George Han really wanted to laugh, and he didn't know where he got the courage to talk to himself like this.

Talking endlessly.

However, this guy is not like that kind of extremely conceited fool. Judging from his self-confidence, it seems that he really has a huge advantage in his hands.

He seemed convinced that he could not refuse his offer.

"What? George Han, are you hesitating?" He sneered.

George Han didn't say anything, just raised the jade sword and was about to start.

“You dare! George Han, I’m not afraid to tell you, don’t think this is the first time we met, but I know you better than anyone else about your situation.”

“Let me tell you this, if you are willing to Obediently submit to us, your Pangu Axe will definitely not look like this group on your side, if you are willing to submit to us, your brother Fumang will not be a cold corpse now.”

I wanted to do it . George Han, who was at the helm, immediately stopped when he heard this sentence...

Chapter 4385

“What did you say?”

George Han was completely stunned.

As Angelica said, it was almost the first time that George Han saw him, but this guy could actually say some very private things about George Han.

The most important thing is that these things, not to mention him, even some disciples of the Mysterious Man Alliance who are following George Han now may not know.

After all, the Fu Mang incident had already happened long ago, and the number of the older batch of Mysterious Man Alliance disciples is not large now, and very few know about it.

But even if this is not a mysterious secret, what about the Pangu Axe? !

At the beginning, he was trapped by the demon monk, and the Pangu Axe was sealed under the sneak attack. There is really too little knowledge about this.

This thing is not even known to many high-level officials in the alliance, and no one else was present when the incident happened.

How does this guy know?

And what shocked was that he brought these things out to talk about things, which means that this guy not only understands, but...

even knows the solution!

“Three thousand, will he bluff us?” Amelia Su reminded in a low voice.

“It’s unlikely!” George Han replied in a low voice.

Mingyu met her in the case of the girl being kidnapped, and the group of demon monks had a very close relationship with her. Today, this is still the place where the girl disappeared and was kidnapped...

Then...

Before, because the leader mentioned that the war that should fall into the city was related to the sudden increase in efforts to arrest people here, I doubted whether Mingyu was also involved here. Now it seems that this kind of speculation is basically more and more solid.

They could be a gang!

At the same time, it seems to be in line with one of his previous predictions about the line.

Thinking of this, George Han took a step forward: “

What is the relationship between you and Mingyu?”

“Humph, what? Are you interested now?!”

“If you want to know, let’s set up the banquet and let’s drink. While talking, I can also tell you how to save your friend, and what about the Pangu Axe, what do you think?”

Seeing that George Han took the bait, the city owner Angelica was very proud.

For him, that means his plan has been successful.

George Han smiled lightly: “To be honest, you really know how to play with snakes and seven inches. However, I’m not a snake, so...”

George Han suddenly changed the topic, and the whole person was murderous and cold: “I’m not asking for your opinion, I’m just asking you, you can choose to answer or not to answer.”

“However, I can also choose to punish you or not punish you.”

“George Han, it’s up to you. Now, what do you want from me, how dare you to be so outspoken, if I don’t tell you, you won’t even have the chance to get these things in your whole life. Don’t you want your friends to live? You don’t want Pangu Does the axe shine again?!”

Think? !

George Han is dreaming about it!

However, this does not mean that George Han will give in to this.

“Although I killed you, there may indeed be regrets in this regard, but it is not a lot.”

“After all, shouldn’t you have told me that I’m heading in the right direction?!”

Upon hearing George Han’s words, the city owner Angelica’s eyes widened. What he said should be George Han’s interest. Things, this can also be seen from the behavior of George Hancai.

However, where did he think about it, George Han was interested, but he was like that cunning fish, he wouldn’t take the bait. On the contrary

, because of his dawdling, he lost some “bait” inexplicably. This guy is really cunning. “Okay, George Han, since you don’t eat a toast and take a penalty drink, don’t blame me for being rude.”

"I'm telling you this, but I just think that if a general like you doesn't find a good force, it's really bad. You're too polite. What? Do you really think I'm afraid of you?"

George Han smiled coldly and didn't answer. "Bah, do you really think that I, the dignified city lord of the Demon Castle, is really as capable as you see?"

"I tell you, you are dreaming!" After the words were finished, a golden armor suddenly appeared on the guy's body. On the upper body, the two great maces that had already fallen to the ground also returned to their hands to hold. "Now, I'll show you what it's called the real skill above, George Han, die!" After he finished speaking, he suddenly rushed over...

Chapter 4386

is still a tiger, very domineering, but still that young man, there is no slight change!

His moves and tricks are so old that George Han subconsciously mentions the jade sword and is about to start.

Suddenly, he stopped abruptly.

"This guy... almost fooled me!"

George Han hurriedly took back the jade sword!

The moves seem to be the same, but from experience, George Han knows very well that they are actually completely different.

Thinking of this, George Han directly chose to retreat, and at the same time, the sky fire immediately appeared between his hands!

Defend with hands, attack with fire!

"Broken!" The

body dodged the attack of the mace, the hand of Tianhuo directly grabbed his hand, and then the hand with the fire directly slapped the angel on the body.

boom!

At the same time that Angelica was pushed away, a flame also hit the whole body.

Angelica retreated a few meters away on the spot, and although the flame on her body went out quickly, it almost burned it in a daze.

Originally, he was very careful and confident in this attack of Angelica. After all, he really focused on confusion, but he actually attacked fiercely.

He was also very happy after seeing George Han take the bait.

But who could have imagined that George Han quickly adjusted his attacking method, and even though his reaction was half a beat, he could still knock himself back directly? !

Is the gap in strength really so huge and terrifying? !

Looking back, sure enough, George Han was waving his hand at him slightly at this time, indicating that he could not do it at all.

“Don’t be complacent. I’ll kill you!”

He roared and attacked George Han again like crazy.

George Han knew that this guy was already angry.

However

, there is nothing terrible, just incompetent rage.

It’s still the same move as before, except that the right-hand sky fire has become the current left-hand moon wheel!

“Zi!”

At the same time, as she pushed it away, Angelica was once again electrocuted, killing chickens all over her body.

George Han looked at him mockingly: “Now, do you still think I need to negotiate terms with you?!”

“By the way, your subordinate judge, you should know better than me how to behave. Honestly. Speaking of which, he is also a tough man. At the beginning, he would rather die than bring me here.”

“Later, you saw that he brought me here. Do you know why?!”

Looking at George Han is proud of his appearance, and the seven orifices of Angelica’s qi are smoking. In fact, when George Han revealed his identity, he was already suspicious .

It’s just that the suspicion is always more suspicious. When George Han said it himself, it was obviously more annoyed and angry.

“What do you want to say?”

George Han smiled: “It doesn’t have to be something to say, I just want to tell you, I’m afraid that even you will change the color of the way I torture people. So, you want to if you are wise, say it clearly, and you will avoid suffering.”

“Fight, you can’t beat it.”

“Don’t tell me one, I can easily deal with ten more you.”

Hearing this, Angelica’s whole body was full of anger. Trembling, this is fuing insulting.

After all, he is also the lord of a city. When has he been molested and persecuted like this?

But...

what George Han said was the truth.

He really couldn’t beat him. He almost , and he almost made him roll away with one move.

In other words, George Han didn't want to kill himself, otherwise, he would have already died.

"Originally, I didn't want to do this, but George Han, you are too pushy."

Shaking his head, he seemed to have made up his mind.

"It's been more than 30 years, and I've been for it for more than 30 years. But today, I have to say goodbye to it."

"George Han, you will be responsible for your arrogance and regret it !", he suddenly burst out laughing wildly.

George Han frowned slightly, as if he noticed something was wrong, and looked at Angelica coldly.

"Something's wrong!" George Han whispered softly.

Intuition tells George Han that this guy may have to make more moves!

Roar ! ! !

Chapter 4387

Sure enough, accompanied by a roar like a beast of hell, the guy suddenly grabbed his chest with both hands and slammed it!

Whoa!

He ripped off his own skin with both hands, and after that, a green thing jumped out directly from it.

Whoa!

That thing came straight at George Han, and its speed was almost astonishing.

Even George Han is fast enough and his reaction is quick enough, but when faced with this green thing, he can't help but be completely unable to react for a while.

George Han subconsciously flashed, the guy just happened to pass by George Han, brushed George Han's arm, and came behind George Han.

George Han wanted to turn his head, but when he lowered his eyes, he saw that a slit had been cut in his arm, and blood was flowing slowly.

At the same time, there was a trace of green liquid on his hand.

It's weird and a little nasty.

George Han's brows

wrinkled, the wound began to feel severe pain, and even his arm was shaking slightly uncontrollably.

Intuition and experience told him that he should be poisoned.

Looking back at the guy, he saw that the green monster was quite ferocious at this time.

It didn't have the tall and mighty figure before, but instead, it looked like a huge spider with only four limbs. The feet and hands were exaggeratedly long, which was quite terrifying and felt like I could break it.

It has a small head, huge eyes, and a pentagonal shape that looks extremely weird.

Between the opening of the mouth, there is still liquid flowing out of its mouth!

"What kind of thing is this? It's so disgusting?" Even George Han, who was used to seeing strong winds and waves, couldn't help but complain when he looked at this thing.

This thing is so ugly, so disgusting, so disgusting that even his mother probably doesn't want to know him.

Amelia Su

also frowned. Although George Han complained very rudely, even she had to admit that it was really disgusting.

"No wonder you have to wear a personal skin mask. It turns out that you really can't go out just like you." George Han said disdainfully.

"Damn things, it's just that everyone has a love for beauty. I really don't know what you have to say." He scolded coldly.

"Your thanks to it, otherwise, I would have torn you to shreds long ago. It's really blocking my actions. It's not how powerful you are, George Han, do you know?"

George Han smiled. It's like watching an idiot: "You think you lost because of this? I'm not afraid to tell you that even if you slough off ten times, you are still a loser

. The guy suddenly ejected again.

His speed is really fast, the ejection start is almost like a bullet, and if you don't pay attention, it will already attack you like crazy.

The first time I couldn't figure it out, George Han would still suffer, but it would be too stupid to repeat the same technique a second time.

At least, this is the case here in George Han.

"I'll also let you taste my true power!" As the words fell, Tianhuo Yuelun exhaled directly, like two desperate attacks, attacking from left to right.

"The left hand is yang, the right hand is yin, give it to me!"

Boom!

In the yin and yang, you have me, and I have you, forming a big closed loop directly in front of George Han.

As soon as the yin and yang fell, Emperor You and Fen Ji rose up one after another, and suddenly the momentum was like a rainbow!

“Go!”

Boom!

What is indiscriminate attack, this is indiscriminate attack!

No matter where you are, no matter how flickering you are, under the absolute firepower of George Han, there is no way to escape.

The power of yin and yang is the frontal defense, and the Emperor You is the auxiliary defense. It is not easy to attack anywhere, and once the attack is blocked a little bit, then what George Han gives is the super-powerful killing of **!

This kind of gameplay is not for George Han to brag. It is no use if this green-footed monster has changed 10,000 times.

“fu off!”

With a roar from George Han, a bang, and a punch, a green thing was sent flying on the spot.

After that, in just a few seconds, with a , the guy hit the wall and completely misfired.

“Pfft!”

His throat suddenly became hot, and a mouthful of green blood spurted out of his mouth. Immediately afterward, he weakly shrank against the wall and smashed to the ground.

“Do you still want to play?” George Han looked at him coldly.

In his eyes, the green-footed monster was nothing more than a monkey jumping up and down, not worth seeing at all.

Chapter 4388

the great pain of the body, the green foot is crooked and barely supporting his body, he looks at Han unwillingly Three thousand.

He didn't understand, he had already morphed, and his abilities had improved a lot.

But why, he still couldn't hold George Han's hands for even one round.

Could it be that there is such a huge gap in strength between him and George Han?

impossible!

He is also a top-level expert. Not to mention abusing him like this in the land of the Demon Race, even if he can take advantage of him, it should be less and less.

This is not his estimation, but the fact that he has been in the Demon Race for many years.

This is a senior sister who eats the weak and the strong. If he doesn't have extraordinary skills, how can he occupy such an important city as king for a long time? !

"George Han, what kind of monster are you?" he asked coldly through gritted teeth.

"The monsters who specifically beat you

, now, the multiple-choice question from before is placed in front of you again, have you thought about it?"

"Ah!!!!"

He roared in pain!

Originally, George Han didn't take it seriously, after all, it was just the incompetent roar of the loser, but soon, George Han seemed to sense something was wrong.

The earth shook and the mountain shook, but the most important thing was that the whole house was trembling wildly, as if it was about to collapse at any time.

"Three thousand, what should we do? This place seems to be collapsing?!"

Hearing Amelia Su's question, George Han subconsciously wanted to take her out of here, but soon, he realized that the problem seemed wrong.

collapse?

Today, the palace made of gold seems to be impossible to collapse.

Not to mention this guy roaring here, even if there is a magnitude 10 or 8 earthquake, presumably this place should be safe and sound.

Suddenly, Han

George Han suddenly sounded the scene where the judge came in and a seat was suddenly given here.

It stands to reason that even if there is an underground organ here, it cannot be so perfectly stretched to the feet of the judge.

Is there such a coincidence?

"No, there is an ambush here."

George Han reacted and pulled Amelia Su into his arms in a second, and almost at the same time, the trembling house began to deform and twist in various ways.

"Wow!"

Dozens of poisonous arrows suddenly shot out from the dark.

Because the entire palace is entirely made of gold, and the golden bricks are almost the same color, under such violent shaking, the slow movement between the bricks is hardly noticeable. The body of my poisonous arrow is almost made of gold. In such an environment, it is almost as difficult to avoid it.

“Huh!”

Without knowing where, more than a dozen poisonous arrows struck again from other places.

George Han hugged Su

Amelia Su just now and escaped.

Brush brush!

Suddenly, poisonous arrows attacked from all directions, and for a while, the whole surrounding was like a rain of arrows.

“Three thousand, it’s impossible to go on like this. Use the energy to directly prop up the energy cover to avoid it.”

Amelia Su reminded anxiously.

Judging from George Han’s current desperate way of dodging, it may be useful for a while, but in the face of such a dense rain of arrows, it is equivalent to wasting physical strength.

“If I guess right, the energy shield won’t do anything.” George Han replied softly.

“Why?” The reason is very simple. These are poison arrows. If George Han is not wrong, the poison on these poison arrows should be the poison or similar poison that these people used to poison women before.

In other words, to a certain extent, this poison is almost exclusively aimed at people with cultivation.

Therefore, the real energy mask is almost unlikely to have any effect.

If it was really useful, he wouldn’t be doing so much here.

The conventional method may not only be unstoppable, but even fall into the trap of the enemy by chance.

Therefore, this method is not advisable.

“Then...then we can’t just hide in vain, we can’t avoid so many arrows.” The attack from the sky means that there is almost no gap to avoid. In this case, Amelia Su really doesn’t know what George Han is. What can be done to resist.

But at this time, George Han did not panic at all.

On the contrary, there was a faint smile on his face, as if he didn’t care about this rain of arrows at all.

“Amelia Su, hide in my arms.”

“Have an exciting game with them!”

Amelia Su was stunned when she heard this. She didn't know what George Han was doing, but she still obeyed.

Chapter 4389

George Han directly held Amelia Su in his arms and faced the arrow rain directly with his back.

Amelia Su panicked immediately: “George Han, what are you... doing?”

“You are very dangerous like this, let me go.”

No matter how hard Amelia Su struggled, George Han held her tightly in his arms.

“Don't worry, I'll be fine.”

George Han finished, and the arrow rain came directly.

Like a person standing in a rainstorm, countless arrows hit George Han's back.

But when it was amazing, the arrow rain at this time seemed to be menacing, but when it fell on George Han's back, a faint purple light and black light scattered on George Han's back!

Under the isolation of the purple light and the black light, those arrow rains stagnated directly, and then swayed, all of them landed beside George Han.

Amelia Su's vision was blocked because she was being held. She only saw countless arrows all around her falling, and she couldn't help worrying more about George Han's safety for a while.

The arrow rain stopped, and George Han finally let go of Amelia Su at this time.

Amelia Su hurriedly checked, and couldn't help but be dumbfounded. Not to mention any arrow wounds on George Han's body, even his clothes were not scratched.

“How could this be?!”

Amelia Su asked in confusion.

George Han smiled and let out a long breath.

Under such an attack, ordinary defense is of course ineffective. But unfortunately, George Han is not the best at offense, but defense.

No matter the indestructible mysterious armor or the Frost Jade Armor, whichever one is a real defensive artifact, plus the protective layer transformed by the little black stick and the strength of George Han's physical body.

For Arrow Rain, it was really too embarrassing for them.

“Do you have any other tricks? Feel free to use them.”

George Han looked at the green foot monster and couldn't help sneering

The green-footed monster looked at George Han in disbelief. This guy could easily resolve such an attack from the sky.

Is he really fighting someone? !

"There is a kind, George Han, you are indeed the one with the shortest time in the Demon Race, but the most famous person."

"This is the first time I have met someone like you."

"However, don't be complacent. It's not over ."

"Do you really think that this big room is just to let you down with arrows?"

"George Han, you are more naive."

Looking at this guy's sinister appearance, George Han I really want to laugh. Is there something wrong with his brain? When has he been careless?

When have you been naive?

This guy's brain is so fuing inexplicable.

Neuropathy!

However, since this guy has already said this, George Han is too lazy to be like him, waiting quietly to see what kind of bullshit tricks this guy is going to play.

Boom!

The entire hall shook even more fiercely in an instant!

The next second, above the head, under the feet, everything is collapsing, and everything is changing.

George Han directly carried Amelia Su and flew into the air, with a black energy shot on the two of them in his hands, ensuring that the two of them would not suffer any damage from the collapse of the house.

At the same time, George Han stared at his surroundings closely to prevent any emergencies.

But just when George Han was checking, the green-footed monster suddenly disappeared.

"Where's that guy?" Han looked around three thousand and four times but was helpless.

The shadow of the guy could not be seen all around, it was as if he had suddenly disappeared.

"Amelia Su, things don't seem right. This house is not as simple as a house."

"I also noticed that not only was the green-footed monster is gone, but the guards, even all the servants, and his car have disappeared. It's a little incredible as if it disappeared out of thin air." Amelia Su also noticed something was wrong.

Boom!

With a loud noise, the huge house suddenly turned into six golden walls and quickly surrounded the two of them.

After that, they began to move slowly, and the space was compressed at an extreme speed. In just a moment, the two were squeezed into a gap of fewer than ten centimeters around their bodies.

"Three thousand, this is trying to crush us alive inside."

Amelia Su said, and before George Han could reply, she tried to support it with her hands to prevent the compression of the six golden walls.

But as soon as her hand touched the golden wall, countless yellow, vine-like, and liquid-like strange things suddenly flowed out of the golden wall...

"Be careful!"

Chapter 4390

Accompanied by George Han yelling, at the same time, George Han also quickly grabbed Amelia Su's hand and quickly retracted.

The yellow vine-like liquid also completely covered the six walls at almost the same time.

"What's the matter, George Han?" Amelia Su was obviously taken aback by George Han, and looked at George Han with lingering fear.

Not right!

George Han pointed to the yellow vine-like liquid, and said coldly, "I suspect that this thing is not simple." When the words fell, George Han took out a piece of amethyst directly from his hand and placed it gently on it. on the liquid on the wall.

In the next second, something unexpected happened to Amelia Su.

The liquid stretched out countless tiny tentacles and quickly wrapped the amethyst. After that, almost in the blink of an eye, a large amethyst began to dissolve rapidly in the yellow liquid

You must know that the universal currency in any world generally has the following characteristics, either it is portable and easy to carry, or the goods themselves are extremely hard.

Like gold!

It has a very high melting point and is difficult to spoil.

In fact, Amethyst is the same.

As the general currency of the higher-order world, amethyst is actually far more pure than gold.

It is almost indestructible.

At the very least, George Han tried it once when his eggs hurt!

He almost destroyed the power of nine bulls and two tigers, and he never broke this thing.

Let's just say, this guy is the ancestor of gold.

After all, it is the common currency of the higher world.

But right now, Amethyst is directly destroyed.

Minutes, no, should be the blink of an eye.

Amelia Su was also completely stunned. If Amethyst was still like this, then if George Han didn't pull his hand back in time just now, then his hand...

Thinking of this, Amelia Su couldn't help but be afraid.

And time and walls will not wait for anyone, and the six golden walls continue to press unceremoniously.

Seeing that they are getting closer and closer to the couple.

Amelia Su was anxious: "Three thousand, what should we do?"

If no action is taken, then there are actually two endings for the couple.

One is to be directly crushed to death by this golden wall, and the other is to be corroded to death by these things before being crushed to death.

Either way, the outcome is the same.

George Han also knew this.

"Did you feel that this place looks like a stomach, or rather, a stomach?" George Han asked suddenly.

Su

Amelia Su frowned, wondering why George Han asked this.

What's more important right now, isn't it escaping from here?

"Look, the wall is similar to the stomach, and these liquids are similar to stomach acid." George Han continued.

Although what George Han said made sense, Amelia Su was really in no mood to listen anymore, because the wall was almost only the gap and distance of Faith from the two of them.

Seeing Amelia Su's unintentional appearance, George Han smiled: "What are you afraid of?"

George Han moved his hand directly, and the Pangu Axe landed directly in front of George Han, and held it to the left and right. sides.

As the king of all weapons, George Han didn't believe that this piece of shit could melt the Pangu axe.

This is a world-breaking artifact!

No matter how strange this liquid is, what can it be? !

"Three thousand, back...behind..."

Although the left and right are blocked, the front and rear obviously lack support. "George Han, you are really smart. You actually know how to use the Pangu axe to resist. You have to admit that you succeeded. But what's next?"

The strange and evil voice also sounded appropriately.

"As the owner of the Heavenly Demon Castle, do you really think that I have the ability before? Here, but the Heavenly Demon Castle, hahaha!" The true meaning of the Heavenly Demon Castle may be the so-called fort formed by these six walls.

"There is really only one Pangu axe, but, if you are dealing with six walls in your area, you don't necessarily have to use the Pangu axe, right?" When the words fell, George Han moved his hand, and he slowly took out something...
