

HTC 4391

Chapter 4391

Boom!

An unremarkable stick.

“That’s it? What? Do you take me for a fool?”

“Or, you are so poor that you used all your fire sticks?”

“As long as you whispered grandfather and begged for mercy, I’ll beg for mercy in the future. Obediently listen to me, in fact, it doesn’t have to be.” “

I have the heart to love talents, and you also have the talent of generals. You and I will work together, and you will be invincible.”

“How?”

Where did the guy get his inexplicable confidence.

“Little black stick, some people don’t look down on you, do you know what to do?”

George Han immediately started his hand, and one can really break into the little black stick in an instant.

“Om!”

The little black stick with energy replenishment, like a little rooster that sees the sun at dawn, rises instantly.

In the next second, the little black stick swayed directly in the back, and it combined with the Pangu axe to push the front and rear walls against it in an instant.

“Bang!” The front and rear walls also stopped in time, and could no longer move any further.

And those yellow liquids quickly retracted after touching the little black stick.

On one side that was too late to retract, the tentacles seemed to be being absorbed in reverse by the little black stick.

“This...”

Amelia Su’s eyes widened, but she didn’t react at all for a while.

It’s not that she hasn’t seen George Han’s little black stick, and it’s not that she hasn’t heard George Han mention it, but in her mind, the little black stick may be a little mysterious, but it is absolutely impossible to be strong enough to be on a par with the Pangu axe. level.

“How could this be?”

George Han smiled lightly, full of confidence.

Although, what happened at the moment was somewhat beyond his expectations, but overall, it was completely within his judgment.

The reason is quite simple.

The little black stick is something outside the Three Realms. Naturally, while it is different, it has nothing to do with things inside the Three Realms.

No matter how evil things are, they can always pay attention to mutual growth and mutual restraint. This is the principle of heaven and earth, and it is also the rule of heaven and earth, and no one can escape.

But it is different. It is separated from this system, so naturally, it is not restricted by the system.

George Han sent him to play at this time, of course, also out of this consideration.

“No, no, it’s impossible, it’s impossible!”

Angelica cried out in disbelief.

That’s just a little black stick. It doesn’t look like it’s ugly. Even if you call it a stick, you think it insults the word stick.

However, it is such a broken thing, but at this moment, it is corresponding to the Pangu axe, forming a trend of left and right, front and rear, and forcibly withstood the offensive of the four walls.

“Don’t be complacent, George Han, it’s not over yet.” As the words fell, the last two walls of the top and bottom were crazily pressed together.

It seems that after the failure of the four walls, it no longer has the slightest patience to carry out any nonsense with them, and just wants to quickly solve the two of them in an instant.

Amelia Su asked anxiously, “Three thousand, the last two walls are left, what should I do?”

In fact, she should be in a hurry. After all, George Han has almost used the two great artifacts. Naturally, the remaining two walls are already powerless.

However, after going through the previous two times, Amelia Su’s trust in George Han reached its peak at this time.

For some reason, she stayed by George Han’s side, believing that George Han would have a way to remedy it.

George Han smiled softly: “To be honest, I’m not thinking about it right now, but I’m not in a hurry.”

“It’s just this thing, trying to sleep us to death is still a long way off.”

Immediately afterwards, his eyes swept up and down quickly . two walls.

To hold on, it's not that George Han can't try with his own body.

After all, he has a spirit monkey to protect his body, and he also has a demon dragon and a big demon in his body. Once he is on the verge of death, it is impossible for these two goods to ignore him.

But the problem is Amelia Su, she doesn't have the ability.

Therefore, for her safety, George Han decided not to sit still.

"Amelia Su, I want to break through here."

"Are you ready? Maybe, it will be a little exciting."

Excited? ! It might be scary for someone else to say this, but for Amelia Su, Han's crazy actions over the past three thousand years have already made her mentally stronger.

Not only is there no fear at all, but there is even a little expectation.

"Rather than exciting, I'd rather see how you break the game."

Chapter 4392

George Han smiled softly.

The way to break the game is simple.

As soon as the words fell, he directly raised his hand. Suddenly, the little black stick that was being held was pulled out immediately.

boom!

The walls supported on both sides lost their support in an instant. In an instant, the crisis that seemed to be relatively stable immediately increased again.

Amelia Su was dumbfounded. Although George Han had already said hello in advance, it might be a little exciting, but even if she wanted to break her head, she probably would not have thought that the stimulation would be so exciting.

This is not called stimulation at all, this is called death!

How can you play like this?

"Little black stick, I'm looking at you."

George Han shouted loudly, and one got up and stepped on Pangu's axe. In fact, holding the little black stick in his hand, he flew straight into the sky.

boom!

Although the Pangu Axe, which lacked support, slid down immediately and collided with the wall below, it at least gave Han

George Han a place to stay.

On top of his head, George Han held a small black stick and held it firmly. The pressure from up and down almost made George Han collapse a little.

The power of these two walls was far more violent than George Han had imagined.

George Han now fully understands what kind of experience it is to stand upright.

“Three thousand, be careful.” The front and back walls, without the support of the little black stick, were also rolling in at this time.

There are always only two things, and there will always be two walls squeezing wildly.

“George Han, George Han, I thought you were very capable, but you’re just playing some scenes of tearing down the east wall and making up the west wall, low-level.”

Angelica sneered.

“After Grandpa goes out, look at me if I don’t tear your stinky mouth, you fool.”

With a loud scolding, George Han didn’t bother to pay attention to him. This situation was completely expected. However, the only thing that annoyed George Han was that George Han underestimated the pressure of the two walls.

It is precisely because of this misjudgment that George Han made his current situation somewhat embarrassing, and gave the dead green-footed monster a chance to mock him.

“Amelia Su, don’t be afraid.”

George Han glanced at Amelia Su, and with George Han’s comfort, Amelia Su nodded.

“Little black stick, show your ability and break it for me!”

George Han shouted angrily, he needed the time difference to gain space for himself.

Then use the space to reach what you want to break out of the encirclement.

The safest thing at the moment is the Pangu axe and the small black stick, but in addition to that, he has no other sure thing to support the flanking attack of the wall.

But in the end, the double object can only hold four sides, and if you want to break through six sides, then the only choice is the time difference.

Although the Pangu Axe is hard, it must be very stable and can eat both sides, but in addition, its advantage is only stable.

It is absolutely impossible to use today’s Pangu Axe to break through the limit.

The little black stick is naturally the only and reasonable thing.

It’s not in the Three Realms, so it’s not affected by matter. In other words, it can stand up, and it has the potential to directly push up against the wall.

George Han doesn't need it to open too much, but as long as it can be bigger than the wall's extrusion, then, under constant changes, the little black stick can complete the support on all sides.

If they cooperate with George Han's help today, they should be able to make the six-sided compressed wall not only unable to keep shrinking, but even complete the overtake.

At that time, it was also an opportunity for George Han!

"Boom"

As George Han's energy increased, the little black stick seemed to have heard his call.

Suddenly, the entire little black stick released an endless black aura, and the situation that was originally just supporting it began to change slowly.

The upper wall that was pressed down began to sway slightly. Obviously, it couldn't support it with such a huge force.

"fu, where did this golden wall come from? I'm really wondering why its power is so strong."

"This is just too terrifying for him."

George Han was speechless, although the little black stick had already start moving towards the situation you want, but it's not enough.

Amelia Su shook her head, although she did not control the little black stick, but from the momentum of the little black stick, its power should be great, and even George Han could not help but sigh at this time. The strength of the other party, she also knows very well how terrifying the power of the golden wall is.

"Three thousand, you say, is there a possibility?"

Chapter 4393

"All the way, most of the cities we have met are named after cities, but this castle is named after the castle."

"What I mean is, in the general interpretation, shouldn't the big one be called the city, and the small one called the fort? Why is the Demon Castle, which is far bigger than any city of the demon clan we have ever seen, but instead Xiang's used the fort?!"

This point of view was actually related to the stomach and stomach that George Han had mentioned earlier, and Amelia Su only thought of it.

After all, there are not many people who can make George Han complain.

"So, Amelia Su, you want to say..."

"Is there a possibility that although the entire Tianmo Castle is large, it is always just an individual?"

Here, it is actually an organ similar to the stomach, and his peristaltic power, originating from the entire city? !

“In other words, all the people in the Demon Castle are like a person’s cells, that is, these six golden walls actually rely on the power of the whole city to move.”

Although this possibility is too high It’s too bold, but if you think about it, it’s very possible.

Otherwise, in terms of George Han’s current cultivation, not to mention trapping him like this, even if he can withstand him, it is difficult to find one or two.

“People in the whole city don’t know this at all, but at some point they are invisibly contributing the energy it needs to run here?!”

George Han nodded: “When did you have such a big brain?!”

” Follow you to go south and north, even if I have never eaten pork, at least I have seen pigs running.”
Amelia Su said.

George Han smiled: “It’s outrageous, but I believe my wife’s analysis.”

Thinking that the green-footed monster can disappear directly in front of George Han, and the situation where the sky can’t find this guy, George Han There is no doubt about Amelia Su’s “whimsical”.

Sometimes, this is the real truth.

“Now I can face tens of thousands of people, even hundreds of thousands of people, or people from the whole city. I don’t know if I am so powerful that I can deal with me at this level, or if I have extreme luck. Encountered this.”

He muttered depressedly, and Amelia Su was amused by him.

“Three thousand, if the situation is what we have analyzed, should we ask those two people outside to help?”

George Han has been bringing two people from Tianmo Castle, but Amelia Su doesn’t know what George Han has brought with them. use.

With George Han’s character, if there is no arrangement and plan, it is impossible for him to let a group of ordinary people die with him.

George Han shook his head slightly: “If you guess right, we won’t be able to contact them.”

When the palace was shrinking, they should have been annexed to a certain place by the agency just like the group of guards.

“Organ?”

“It’s most likely the place where those women are imprisoned.”

George Han observed it carefully when he came here. The guards here are very strict, but in terms of George Han’s consciousness, in fact, he still You can feel a lot of dark whistle lurking around.

In other words, the guards here are almost perverted.

In fact, when George Han clashed with Angelica, the guards in the hall quickly rushed up, but the strange thing was that those secret whistle did not move from beginning to end.

Even at the beginning, Angelica was obviously at a disadvantage under his own hands.

What is this indicating?

Of course, it's not that these soldiers are afraid of George Han, and it's not that they are unfaithful. It's more likely that they have more important tasks.

In addition, they came here after passing through layers of levels. If they want to detain those women, shouldn't this be the best place?

Thinking of this, George Han had an idea.

"Maybe the direction is a bit wrong."

George Han looked at Amelia Su.

"You mean, we should go down? Right?"

George Han nodded: "Yes, and this is also in line with your conjecture about the human body. There is something under the stomach, and we can break through it. It becomes more meaningful."

"But the problem is back to just now, we can't contact the outside world, and now it's hard to break through here, what should I do?!"

George Han did not speak, frowned and thought carefully on.

He had thought through every step of his previous plan, but every step had been missed a little bit, so now this plan was basically equivalent to a failure.

He must think of a better way, but now, there is not much time left for them...

Chapter 4394

As the left and right walls are getting closer and closer, the two husbands and wives have no place to live even when they are crowded together.

In the end how should it be good? !

"Yes!"

George Han grabbed Amelia Su.

"I'll send you out first, remember, no matter what, don't act rashly and wait for me." When the words fell, George Han took a step back. Play risk bets with them.

What if you win the clubhouse, and if you lose, you go to work in the sea!

Thinking of this, George Han made a direct move and used the small black stick to forcibly hit the golden wall under his feet in the opposite direction. He flew up and stood in the opposite direction, holding the small black stick to directly spread his breath to the maximum.

“Amelia Su, let’s go!”

With this George Han shouting angrily, the little black stick exerted frantically in the opposite direction.

The golden ground below was instantly opened up by a gap.

“Pangu Axe, come back.”

With a grip in his hand, the Pangu Axe supporting the front and rear sides also retracted. Afterwards, George Han ran with all his strength, carrying the axe and slashed directly at the golden ground below.

With the strength advantage of the little black stick against the wall, now George Han is going all out to help with the Pangu Axe.

Even though the golden wall on the ground was extremely powerful, it was directly knocked back by nearly half a meter.

“It’s now, let’s go!” With the other hand, George Han directly used his energy, including after living in Amelia Su, he took Amelia Su out by taking advantage of the gap that was briefly opened.

At this time, George Han was almost equivalent to giving up a full five-sided defense.

Almost instantly, the five walls closed tightly and became smaller and smaller, until finally, the six golden walls turned into one.

Amelia Su, who was taken out by the energy shield, seemed to be floating in the universe, falling down continuously, watching herself getting further and further away from the golden wall.

Until the end, the golden wall was like a spot of light, completely disappearing into the darkness.

Falling all the way, Amelia Su couldn’t stop in the darkness.

I don’t know how long it took, the endless darkness began to be full of stars, Amelia Su hurriedly got up and looked outside.

Seeing light suddenly in this completely dark environment is a kind of hope for anyone.

But Amelia Su soon discovered that this kind of hope is more like a kind of despair.

Those light spots are actually almost similar to themselves, and they are also covered by some black energy circle.

Inside, just like myself, there are girls one after another.

Their eyes are dull and empty, and their faces are a little dark, as if they are more like living dead.

Amelia Su tried to call them, but no matter how hard she shouted, those people couldn't hear what she was shouting.

To a certain extent, they seemed to be unaware of Amelia Su's existence at all.

"How could this be? Here, where is it?"

Amelia Su was a little desperate, but when he looked in the direction of the light spot where George Han disappeared before, he found that he seemed to have lost his way in the darkness.

"Three thousand, are you okay? Where are you?"

"I'm a little scared here!"

Hu!

In a certain golden hall, it looks like the place where George Han and Amelia Su stayed just now.

The green-foot monster and a group of guards were still standing there.

Even the three leaders are still hiding in the corner.

Only George Hanliang disappeared, and at this time, there was a golden brick on the green foot monster's hand.

"George Han, fight with me, do you really think that you have won a few battles to mean that you are out of control?"

"In my case, there is no difference between you and those who were caught and imprisoned by me. "

At the end, the different ones lay obediently in my gold bricks."

"The only difference is that you are indeed stronger than them, and you can actually send Amelia Su out." When the words were finished, he raised his hand slightly, and an entourage followed suit. Immediately came over and respectfully found the golden brick in his hand.

"This brick, don't put it in the palace, keep it alone, and I'll refine it at night."

"Yes, city master!"

Chapter 4395

Accompanied by the gold brick being taken away by the servants, at this time, on a certain wall in the entire palace, countless gold The bricks also suddenly lit up.

It seems that they are echoing George Han, echoing his end like them.

Angelica smiled contentedly and waved again: "Inform the following, prepare some good wine and food today, and at the same time, gather all the backbones of the city at the city gate."

“These three boys will be caught by me, and at night, in front of everyone Face, cramp and peel.”

“I have to let those who have any thoughts of betrayal know what kind of punishment they will face if they betray me.”

“This subordinate understands, this subordinate will do it. By the way, that Amelia Su?! “

If the little tree doesn't fix it, it doesn't go straight, and if people don't fix it, let her stay in it for me first, and then bring it to my bedroom when we're full at night.”

“Still .” The city owner is thoughtful, our black prison is terrifying and silent, let alone a woman in her area, even a man, if he is locked for a few hours, he is afraid that he will be afraid of the darkness.”

“At that time, when Amelia Su came out, it must be an old man. Honestly.”

Angelica smiled softly and fell into his hands, of course he had a way to clean up.

“By the way, do you want to report it? It's just that George Han was caught. Come on, this is a great achievement.” The subordinate laughed.

Angelica heard this, not without pride.

Of course.

Who is George Han? !

In the land of the Demon Race, many people may not have seen him, but they have heard his name.

This newborn calf came to the land of the demons for the first time, and almost turned upside down the place he passed. The two battles that should have fallen into the city and the battle of the Pei family have pushed his reputation and prestige to the extreme.

In fact, the boss tried to clean up this guy several times, but almost all the methods were used up. Not only did he fail to take down him, but he suffered a lot of losses on his head again and again.

It must have been extremely annoyed at the top, although they didn't say it, it was completely guessable.

If he won George Han at this time, what kind of joy would the superiors be? I can think of it even with the thumb of my toes.

More importantly, in the entire Demon Race, stepping on George Han, I am afraid that time will be more beautiful and famous.

“It's just a trivial matter, do you need it?” Although Angelica seemed to be indifferent, anyone with a discerning eye could see that he was showing off in disguise.

“The city master's merit is unparalleled in the world, and winning George Han is like a god descending. How can such a great achievement be considered a trivial matter?”

“You, it’s too high-profile, but well, since you have the heart, then you can do it.”

Angelica’s hypocrisy can almost make people sick to the point of vomiting, but even so, the subordinates still show Full of professional smirks, he took orders to do it.

Soon, nighttime has come.

According to the requirements, on the other side of this golden palace, there is a huge platform, at least several hundred people in black gathered here at this time.

The judge was also invited, but his face was not good-looking.

When he learned that George Han was arrested, he was actually very surprised.

After all, George Han’s strength has never been seen before and at least stopped. To the judge, George Han should not lose to his own city master. This is also the fundamental reason why the judge quickly compromised after being tortured.

Yu Zhong will die innocently.

It’s not that he didn’t count. Even if George Han didn’t win, at least his strength could cause great harm to the city lord. At that time, he borrowed the donkey to get off the slope. If you can stand it, you can only be forced to be helpless, so as to prevaricate the past.

But where could I have imagined that George Han actually... actually lost the hell out of it!

This time, his situation was embarrassing.

This is equivalent to surrendering without a fight.

This is to be condemned. Moreover, the city owner has already issued a notice saying that the person who betrayed him will be dealt with tonight.

Although it is said that the leader and the two people brought by George Han were killed.

But who knows, will the city lord suddenly cast a net to catch big fish and give himself to that? !

With such an uneasy mood, compared with the real happiness of other executives, the judge is so embarrassed and so out of place...

And at this moment, with the silence of the venue, the city lord should be in the crowd. With the support of his subordinates, he slowly took the stage...

Chapter 4396

“See the city owner!”

Hundreds of people knelt down, extremely respectful.

The judge did not dare to neglect, and quickly knelt down.

“Everyone, calm down.” The generals stood up.

“Everyone, today’s meeting, I think you all know what it is.”

“Hehe, there are a few traitors, so that the enemy has touched my castle. To be honest, this is indeed shameful enough. However, everyone It’s my own, I won’t hide it from you.” The judge snorted coldly, what does it mean not to hide? ! If you lost, you wouldn’t say that.

In the end, it’s just to show off.

“I’m guilty.” Everyone said in unison.

The city lord waved his hand pretentiously: “You don’t have to blame yourself so much, although the castle is a surprise, but the victory is not in danger.”

“The deity successfully took George Han.

” However, in just a few days

, he was invincible in the land of the demons, and he once created countless myths that were not made to appear, but such a person was captured by the city lord, who is mighty.”

“Yes, George Han is known as the invincible god of war, just like that. Even if the True God of Central Plains fought against him, it was difficult to subdue him. Originally, his subordinates and others thought that people like George Han might be invincible in the world, but the city lord taught us a good lesson.”

“In front of the city lord, George Han is no better. That’s it.”

“Yeah, George Han, what’s the point.”

“Our city lord, if we don’t make a move, it will be amazing.”

The rainbow fart was so hyped that the judge was so embarrassed that he deducted three rooms and one hall.

The fart king must also call the experts.

However, the city owner is very happy, for him, isn’t that what he wants.

“Everyone, you are showing love. The deity is just a means of plundering. How can I expect that this George Han is so unbeatable.” Angelica smiled.

The judge sneered, you really can pretend.

“I thought it was a fierce fight. It turns out that the city lord didn’t use his full strength.”

“If it were someone else, it might be a false name, but the fall of the city is not far from us. The news is true, so George Han’s ability is worth affirming and acknowledging. It’s so simple for our city lord to deal with him. It seems that the good fortune of the old city lord has reached its peak.”

One needs to be praised, and a group of people want to praise, The judge estimated that if it wasn't for the time to wait for no one, they would be able to play for three days and three nights.

"Judge, why don't you speak tonight?" The judge was thinking when the city lord suddenly looked at him.

The judge was stunned on the spot, but he was still named. He hurriedly buried his head and said: "City lord, subordinates... subordinates are just too surprised at how easy you are to handle the famous George Han, and for a while I don't know how to express this worship." The city lord nodded slightly . : "Judge, you have worked under me for nearly a hundred years, and I know how you are."

"Although you and I are subordinates, but in private, I regard you as a younger brother."

"People, inevitably make mistakes, If you know what you're wrong and correct it, it's good, do you understand?"

Hearing this, any grievances the judge had against the city lord just now disappeared, and he even wished he could come together now and slap the city lord's ass with his own hands.

Without him, the meaning of the city lord's words is actually very obvious.

He has forgiven the sin he committed in the past.

This also shows that not only does he have no worries about his life, but he can even save his position.

Thinking of this, thousands of words turned into the judge 's deep bow: "The subordinates will do their best and die in the future. Only you, the city lord, will follow your lead."

"Very good." The city lord nodded with satisfaction. : "However, you have always worked hard for me, and there is nothing to do." The judge was even more happy. The city lord really didn't hold any grudges about betraying him before.

"Yes." The judge said excitedly.

"Okay, it's getting late, and our food is getting cold, so, in order not to delay everyone, let's not talk about it .

" "Go, put those three traitors down on me." "Yes!" "Wait a minute!" The city lord stopped him again. He turned around and bowed his head respectfully: "City lord, what else is there to order?" "By the way, bring up the spoils of this seat. They are all my brothers, and it will also open their eyes."

Chapter 4397

subordinates take orders, quickly retreat.

Soon, the three prisoners were the first to be pressed up.

There was a roar from the audience!

But as Amelia Su was escorted up, the cacophony disappeared instantly, followed by the silence of the whole room.

“Damn, this woman, she really needs a face and a body.”

“Grandma, we have actually caught quite a few daughters for so long, and there are many beautiful ones, but It’s the first time I’ve seen such a beautiful person.”

“That’s not it, to tell the truth, if I can play with a woman like this, even if I die, I’m going to fuing die. It’s worth it.”

After the silence, a group of people whispered and talked a lot.

The city owner Angelica is not angry. After all, praising Amelia Su is actually satisfying his vanity.

In his eyes, Amelia Su is the woman he wants to play with, and it is naturally very cool to be envied by everyone.

Amelia Su’s vision was still recovering, and after staying in the dark for a few hours, it was a little difficult to adapt to being suddenly pushed out.

But when she saw the three people and the many people in black, she immediately resisted.

Unfortunately, the rope on her body seemed to be extremely hard, and no matter how hard she tried, it was still difficult to get rid of.

“Brothers, my beauty looks like she can’t wait.”

Seeing Amelia Su struggling, the city lord Angelica smiled softly.

Under the stage, there was also a burst of laughter.

“Greenfoot, where is George Han? Where is he?!” Amelia Su shouted angrily.

“He? Haha, if I guessed right at this time, he should have been wiped out by the gold bricks. But, beauty, you don’t have to worry, you won’t die.”

“Like you Great beauty, not to mention in our Demon Race, even Senior Sister Bafang is rare. As long as you are comfortable with me tonight, I can always keep you by my side.” The city lord said proudly.

“Bah!” Amelia Su glared angrily: “It’s up to you, you are also worthy?”

“Angelica, if you are still a man, just kill me with one knife!”

If George Han died, or himself Humiliated, she would rather die!

“Yo yo yo, it’s so pungent, but I like your character, because when you are struggling, it will make people more exciting. Hahahaha!”

“Hahaha!” Everyone in the audience followed suit. laughing out loud.

“Amelia Su, I warn you, if you say something nice, I’m asking you to serve me well, if you say something bad, then I will simply threaten you, if you don’t serve me well, and when I get tired of you, I will Let my brothers have a good time.”

After he finished speaking, he looked at the generals and raised his arms: “How are you, brothers?!” The generals were like ducks seeing someone, and the rooster saw the dawn, and all of them were immediately excited. Incomparably raised his hands and cheered wildly.

Amelia Su’s eyes were like swords, cold to the bone.

“Don’t follow me like this, let me tell you, Angelica, as long as you dare to touch my hair, George Han will destroy your Heavenly Demon Castle a hundred times.”

Angelica smiled coldly: “These words, wait for you. After being humiliated to death by everyone, go to the underworld and tell George Han.”

When the words fell, Angelica waved a big hand, and the scene suddenly returned to peace.

“Everyone, I’m in a bad mood right now, so...”

“Come on!” With a gentle sound, the three soldiers immediately kicked the leader’s knees, causing the three of them to kneel on the stage.

After that, the three soldiers pressed their heads, waiting for Angelica’s next instructions.

“Those who betrayed my Heavenly Demon Castle are unforgivable and must die to apologize. However, there are many kinds of death, some are happy, and some are worse than death. Everyone, what do you think, how should I let them die?”

“City Lord, don’t, Don’t, I... I was also forced to help, if I didn’t bring George Han, he would kill me.” The leader was scared to pee, and there was even a stinky liquid flowing out of the crotch.

“Life is better than death!”

“Life is better than death!”

Under the stage, the generals also cheered in time.

The city owner Angelica spread his hands gently: “You have seen it, I don’t want to, but the public opinion of the brothers is like this.” When the words fell, he glanced, and the three soldiers immediately slowly raised the daggers around their waists...

Chapter 4398

“Angelica, if you want to kill or cut, you can come as you like, don’t be shy there, tell the truth, see what you look like The appearance of a dog makes me disgusted.” “That’s right, I’m unlucky in this life, I belong to your Heavenly Demon Castle, even if I die, I’ll be stronger now if I give birth in my next life.”

The two people who were called by Scar to follow George Han were extremely tough.

They really are not afraid of death, because these are their true words.

Angelica’s face was icy cold. Of course, he couldn’t tolerate the two children talking so wildly.

“As a person from Tianmobao, but you are in the company of people like George Han, you are not ashamed, and you dare to speak madly like insulting the city lord person like you is also worthy of the city lord?”

“What have you paid for in Tianmobao? You can only fish for the common people, you are a bullshit city lord!

” I’ll cut it off.” When the words fell, the soldiers behind the two were about to start immediately.

“Slow!” Amelia Su hurriedly said.

Angelica resisted her anger and asked in a cold voice, “Little beauty, what’s wrong with you?”

“One person does things for one person, what is there for me and George Han, why bother some small soldiers and pawns.”

” What’s the matter with you? He is also a dignified city lord, is he considered a hero if he vents his anger against them?”

The leader led the way in the end. George Han promised to leave a way for him. As for the other two, they came to help, and Amelia Su naturally didn’t want them to sacrifice like this.

Angelica was stunned, although he didn’t care about any famous festivals at all, but when he said these words from the mouth of his favorite beauty, it still sounded somewhat uncomfortable.

“You want to protect the three of them?”

“It’s not a guarantee.” Amelia Su naturally wouldn’t take the bait: “It’s just that I don’t like your behavior.”

“You’re also a person who leads your subordinates, bullying the weak and not afraid of being caught. Are people ridiculed?”

“Anyway, in my understanding, generally only the little scoundrels like to hold chicken feathers as arrows, and they like to bully the weak. The real boss is often very talkative because of his status and style. There.”

This point, Amelia Su did not make it up to provoke him, in fact, many bigwigs themselves are very low-key.

Sometimes when you go to that stop, you even think he is an ordinary person.

“Beauty, I didn’t expect you to be so sharp and sharp.”

“However, it doesn’t matter. In a place like the Demon Race, no one cares about face or face. Strength is face.”

“In your eyes, It doesn’t matter what kind of person I am, even, the more you hate me, the better, because no matter what, I am the man who fell for you.”

As soon as he said this, he laughed, and all his subordinates followed suit. laughing out loud.

Amelia Su’s face turned cold. After following George Han for so long, she had seen a lot of some of George Han’s ridicule. Now, in order to save people, she also painted a gourd, but she did not expect to fail directly.

No way, Angelica’s face is too thick.

“Why are you still standing there?”

“Cut off the tongues of those two thieves and drink.”

As he drank coldly, the two soldiers hurriedly started.

“By the way, don’t let that guy go.”

“Doesn’t this guy like to be a spy? A spy, fine, fine means small, small means nothing. Castrate him to me.”

“Yes!”

Three small knives Immediately, a cold light appeared.

The leader shook his head desperately and kept begging for mercy, but he was quickly posed by the soldier beside him, and the knife was shaking brightly in front of his eyes.

And those two people are still fearless, even if their tongues have been dragged out by the soldiers next to them, they are still the same.

The three soldiers didn’t talk nonsense, they just raised their swords and started.

However, at this moment, a chuckle came: “Although they are not very high-ranking people, they are my people after all. Before you want to touch my people, have you asked me?!”

Chapter 4399

as these words came out, the scene was instantly peaceful.

Many of them were looking at each other at this time, obviously not knowing where the voice came from.

Not to mention, who would dare to be so bold and dare to say such absurd words on such an occasion.

“Who, who the fu is talking, there is something for the young man to stand up!”

“Yeah, fu, the city lord is here, and you wait for Xiao Xiao to be qualified to speak?”

“Stand up, we can I promise, I won’t kill you.”

Without Angelica speaking, a bunch of younger brothers had already started cursing.

Who doesn’t want to pat the city lord’s ass at this time.

But it’s a pity that when a group of people looked around, they couldn’t find anyone who said this, and they couldn’t help feeling strange.

Only one person, at this time, has a relaxed smile on his face.

Angelica quickly noticed this smiling man, and couldn’t help but be very annoyed: “Amelia Su, it’s all this time, yet you are still smiling?”

“What? You thought that I would make you happy tonight, but couldn’t bear it. Are you smiling happily?”

If it was just before, Amelia Su would have cursed, but now, Amelia Su is not angry at all.

“It seems that this little girl is really as the city lord said, and she can’t wait to wait for the evening.”

“That’s not true, otherwise you see why this woman doesn’t refute at all.”

“Oh, this woman, hehe, you know, it looks like an iceberg on the outside, but in fact, which girl is not that?!”

“Yes, yes, yes.”

“Haha, if you want to refuse, welcome “

There’s no way, everyone can see what kind of big man our city lord is, and everyone can see what our city lord is capable of now. Just imagine

, how could any woman not be tempted by such a powerful character. “

Don’t tell me, if I were a woman, I’m afraid I would also choose our city lord.”

Hearing the compliments from a group of subordinates, Angelica was very satisfied, and the previous anger also disappeared a lot.

“Amelia Su, it turns out that you worship the deity. Well, since you have this kind of heart, this deity will take care of you tonight.”

Amelia Su smiled coldly and said with disdain: "It depends on whether you have that ability."

"As for me admiring you? It's true, but the premise is that you defeat George Han."

"Defeat?" Angelica was a little puzzled: "Amelia Su, are you out of your mind? If you mentioned this condition earlier, The deity is understandable, but, now...is time and space disordered?"

George Han's servant was obviously trapped in the gold brick by himself, and now that a few hours have passed, I am afraid that it has already disappeared, and has disappeared from this world since then. Beat him the fu?

Beat the second time?

He thought, but, does George Han have this qualification?

Amelia Su smiled lightly. Maybe, for others, no one knew who made the sound just now, but for Amelia Su, it was completely different.

That was George Han's voice.

Don't say that he said such a long sentence, if George Han is angry, she can know if it is him.

"Do you really believe that you defeated George Han?" Amelia Su said softly: "Otherwise, let's take out the gold bricks and take a look."

"Stinky mother-in-law, are you negotiating terms with me? Or, are you trying to trick me into taking out that gold brick with this stupid excuse?" He sneered: "Playing these tricks with me, when I play these, you are afraid that you will not be born!"

"But..." He suddenly changed his words: "In order to convince you, the little girl, to lose heart, and to make you wholeheartedly dress for the evening, I will fool you today."

"Someone." " Here

."

"Go and take that Take out the gold brick."

"But the city owner..." The subordinates were also a little worried.

"Go, what are you afraid of?" It's been a few hours, not to mention that there is a Han 3,000 in him, even if Daluo Immortal comes down, I'm afraid there will be nothing left.

You must know that there is a golden brick, but the entire six golden walls have not shrunk, and they will still squeeze each other infinitely.

And once anything comes out of it, it will be completely irresistible, it will only be crushed more and more, and finally, it will turn into nothingness.

Therefore, he has no worries.

“This subordinate will go and get it.” When the words fell, the subordinate immediately retreated.

Chapter 4400

cold smile, Angelica looked at Amelia Su, the more she looked, the more she felt that this woman was so beautiful that it hooked her soul.

“Little beauty, give up.”

“You’ve been in there, you should know very well that when the space was relatively large, people could still hold for a while with their hands or weapons, but once they are closed, you can’t even stretch out your hands. Come out.”

“There is an old saying that an inch of weapon is stronger than an inch, but do you know why not everyone uses long soldiers?”

“That’s because long soldiers are limited by space. When you are in that kind of environment, Not to mention weapons, your hands are too long.”

“However, if you don’t have hands, how can you resist pressure?”

Amelia Su naturally understands the truth, but unfortunately, Amelia Su still smiled and shook her head: “There was a time before. , George Han and I have also met today’s scene.”

“At that time, that person almost said so confidently in front of us, but, do you know the result?”

Angelica didn’t speak, and looked at Amelia Su.

“I think you already know the result.”

“Don’t blame me for not reminding you, George Han is not an ordinary person. If you want to judge him as an ordinary person, I can guarantee that you will lose miserably. “Amelia Su laughed coldly.

Angelica was angry, but then smiled: “Little lady, although I am very uncomfortable with what you said, but, from another angle, are you caring about me?”

Amelia Su shook her head: “I don’t care about you. Life and death, I’m just afraid that your death will be so miserable that it will stain my eyes.”

“Damn!”

Angelica scolded, and at this time, the subordinate also held a gold brick and came back.

“Little bltch, I’ll let you see, what kind of bullshit you call an ordinary person, and how miserable they are now.” After that, he stole the gold brick from my subordinates.

Immediately afterwards, I don't know what strange incantations this guy chanted, and his right hand condensed into a very strange posture to draw and draw on the bricks.

It's like a certain Jianghu warlock uses some strange Taoist technique.

But just after he finished drawing, he followed his fingers a little in the air.

Strange things happened.

The golden diamond that seemed to be entirely made of gold suddenly turned into a transparent brick at this moment.

From the outside, you can almost see the inside of the brick very clearly.

At first glance, it looks like a brick.

But if you look closely, you can find the most central place. In fact, it is still different. At least, you can barely see that there are actually six walls in the middle.

"Did you see clearly?" Angelica said proudly.

Of the six walls, there is almost certainly nothing.

In other words, just like what Angelica said, George Han had already been completely spent in it and turned into nothingness, and was completely obliterated from this world.

"Where's George Han?" He sneered: "Didn't some people say that he is not an ordinary person? I think, if that's the case, then this ordinary person shouldn't disappear." After the words were finished, Angelica hahaha. Laughing, the group of people behind him, etc., also laughed at this time, and the whole atmosphere was full of ridicule and ridicule for a while.

If he hadn't heard the previous voice, Amelia Su might have believed it and was desperate, but this time, Amelia Su didn't believe it.

She only believed what she heard.

"What does this mean? Haven't you ever thought that if my family's 3,000 people escaped from the inside, in fact, the inside of the bricks is different, and they can't see anything?" Amelia Su said disdainfully.

"Little lady, you are very hard-mouthed, but I just don't know if it's your hard-mouthedness, or whether it is an object of the deity."

"Hahahaha!" There was another burst of laughter.

Amelia Su just looked at him coldly, as if waiting for his answer.

“Little lady, just let you die. I can tell you clearly that there is no one in the world who wants to escape from the golden brick.”

“Then ask, how did I escape? “

You? You are an exception. I have to admit that this guy George Han does have some skills. At that juncture, there are actually two artifacts that can be used interchangeably, giving you space to escape.”

“But you Do you really think it’s all up to him?”

“If I didn’t see you as beautiful and selfish, do you think I would release water?”

“What do you mean?” Amelia Su frowned.
