

HTC 4401

Chapter 4401

"It means that when George Han resisted, I also noticed you, so that a beautiful woman like you is so fragrant I can't bear to lose the jade."

"So, when I saw him trying to open a gap, I deliberately loosened the bottom wall, which made the gap big enough for you to escape."

"Understand?"

"Don't fool me, what kind of * do you think I am?" Amelia Su said coldly.

"Hey, although the gold brick is a brick, the power used is actually the power of the entire Demon Castle. You are my person anyway, and I'm not afraid to tell you, you know why the people in the Demon Castle are so short? ?!"

Compared to the Demon Race's height of more than two meters, to be honest, the people from the Demon Castle are indeed very different from them, like dwarfs.

Moreover, not to mention them, just compared with the Central Plains people like them, their body size is also relatively short, only the body is strong.

"I don't know that, I thought it was your characteristic."

"Feature?" The city owner sneered: "If it is characteristic, why am I so tall?"

"The entire fortress of Tianmo Castle has been beaten by my father since its establishment. , in fact, it has been made according to a mysterious great formation in ancient times. Anyone who lives here, including you and George Han, will become part of the entire formation."

"What you need to maintain the operation of this formation. All nutrients and energy are absorbed by him continuously."

"You are a part of this place, if you want to break the formation, wouldn't you be foolish?!"

"Even if the emperor is here, then he can't do the same."

Hearing

these words, Amelia Su recalled everything that George Han had guessed in the bricks, and gradually began to understand.

Although George Han's guess is a little bit different, in general, the big frame is somewhat similar.

Thinking of this, Amelia Su said, "We are a part of this place, so our ability is also weakened in disguise, right?"

"That's right." Angelica nodded.

“The people who have entered the big formation are all the sons of the big formation. How can the son want to disobey Lao Tzu? Even George Han, he is amazing, but from the very beginning, he was under restraint. “

It’s completely impossible for him to use his own strength.”

“Now, you are convinced.”

Amelia Su smiled bitterly: “Then what if I want to break the formation? What should I do?”

“Amelia Su, what do you think ? , is this something you can know?” Angelica said coldly.

Amelia Su was a little disdainful: “Didn’t you keep saying that I’m about to be your woman, don’t tell me, I don’t even have this right?!”

“City Lord, are you insincere? Or I’m afraid that I will learn to use this great formation. To deal with you?”

“Afraid?!” Angelica was stunned for a moment, and then he laughed: “What should I be afraid of?”

“Little girls, I told you that this great formation was made by my father. The formation is also passed down from male to female, and the emphasis is on the bloodline.”

“Don’t say you don’t know how to use the formation, even if I tell you, you can only watch it.”

If there is no speciality, just rely on this big formation The uniqueness of it, I am afraid that the Tianmo Castle has already been beaten to the ground, not that deep demon belly has grown stronger.

And make it your own!

In fact, Amelia Su doesn’t need her to say this, she is very clear.

However, Amelia Su’s question naturally has her purpose.

“Since it’s what you said, why don’t you talk about it and let me know?” Amelia Su said.

“Hmph, it’s okay to tell you. But I’m afraid you don’t understand the terminology.”

“But it doesn’t matter. If I don’t understand, it will be whatever you say in the future.”

Hearing this, Angelica was obviously moved . .

Although he can really handle Amelia Su easily, the twisted melon is never sweet. It would be a good choice to have such a beautiful woman to accompany him for a long time.

“Okay, I’ll just say it once.”

“You listen carefully.”

Amelia Su showed a mysterious smile: “All ears.”

Chapter 4402

“The wind is like an array, its momentum is like the five elements, so the design of the array...”

Angelica is ugly, but when it comes to this array The mystery is straight-forward, as if for a time, like a Confucian scholar, reciting the already well-understood Book of Songs is extremely smooth.

However, he really did not brag. As he continued to talk, not to mention his group of younger brothers dozing off one by one, even Amelia Su, who had read a lot of books, had a splitting headache for a while. That’s called a confusion.

Seeing this group of people like this, Angelica sneered.

Back then, when his father taught him, he did the same.

After more than ten years, when he began to understand some of the mysteries, he gradually became interested.

In addition, when you are an adult, you also have ambitions, so you will be diligent in learning.

This group of people want to understand . Isn’t this nonsense? !

However, Angelica didn’t give up either. The more they were like this, the more they had to finish speaking. In this way, the gap would be widened and his arrogance would be more obvious.

After about a few minutes, many people at the scene were really snoring. Even the three leaders who were close to him who were about to be abused completely forgot their current dangerous situation, and they were half awake and half awake. In the dream, the head is like a chicken pecking at the rice, constantly lifting it.

Amelia Su also fought directly with her eyelids sleepy.

It’s so hypnotizing, it’s like a hypnotized Divine Comedy.

“Phew!”

After reading it with satisfaction, Angelica closed it with satisfaction. Immediately afterwards, the guy coughed pretentiously.

Everyone in the entire venue suddenly woke up.

With a cold voice, Angelica looked at Amelia Su: “Little lady, how is it? I

’ve finished speaking, do you understand?!”

Amelia Su shook her head. She really worked hard, but there are some things that really aren’t. Effort can be done.

“I don’t understand.”

“I’ve said it a long time ago, even if I tell you something, it’s useless, you don’t understand it at all.”

Amelia Su shook her head: "If you want to say it, it's not necessarily so. I want to understand."

"You don't understand what you're asking?"

"Someone can understand, right?"

"Hmph, they are all my subordinates, don't I understand their abilities? If they can understand, I..." If they can understand, this gang has already been fuing thieves, why is this so? !

It's just that he was embarrassed to say it in front of a group of executives.

"I didn't mention them either. I don't know them, and if they understand, what does it have to do with me?!" Amelia Su laughed.

Looking at Amelia Su's appearance, Angelica obviously felt something was wrong.

Immediately, he frowned coldly: "Little girls, what are you selling with Lao Tzu?!"

"It's not selling anything, but the city lord said just now that it's all your subordinates, you know it very well, right?"

"That's natural." Angelica replied unhappily.

Amelia Su nodded: "That's right, since you are so familiar with your subordinates, don't you realize that there is one more person in your subordinates?!"

"One more person?"

Hearing this, Angelica was naturally shocked, and instantly looked at the crowd in the audience.

However, even the top executives of Tianmo Castle are actually hundreds of people. It is difficult to find a different one in this situation.

Everyone in the audience also began to look at each other. You looked at me, and I looked at you. For a while, I was very confused.

But just a short while later, as people somewhere found that the people around them were wrong and kept retreating, the people there became more and more scattered.

Until the end, the group of people all dispersed, leaving only one person standing in the center circle.

Although he lowered his head at this time, his figure was obviously different from that of other demons.

Angelica was suddenly shocked, and he didn't know when such a person came in.

"Who is there!" he roared.

Immediately afterwards, along with his roar, the man slowly stood up, and his colleague raised his head slightly.

There are many people who still don't know who he is, but when the judge and the angel on the stage see clearly, they can't help but go backwards on the spot!

Han three thousand!

Chapter 4403

"No, no, it's impossible, it's impossible!"

"George Han, why is George Han here?"

Two People were shocked and screamed at the same time.

This is just like seeing a ghost, making it difficult for people to stabilize their mood.

Afterwards, a group of executives in the audience panicked and tried their best to keep their distance from each other.

Amelia Su smiled lightly.

In fact, she just saw George Han in the crowd just now.

After she heard the voice before, she was sure that George Han was here, but when he never showed up, Amelia Su quickly realized that George Han might want to know something.

The two husband and wife had a tacit understanding, and Amelia Su was also very smart. George Han could know what he wanted to know almost instantly.

Therefore, Amelia Su and Angelica came together in such a way.

Angelica was really deceived, and he told the whole situation of Tianmo Castle one by one.

Angelica glared at Amelia Su, and he finally understood what Amelia Su meant by someone who understood!

"You bltch, you already knew he was here, and deliberately coaxed me, just to let George Han know the secret of my Heavenly Demon Castle?!" Angelica was furious.

Amelia Su nodded noncommittally: "That's right. However, it's impossible to say a lie. After all, I said from the beginning that George Han must not be restricted by you in the gold bricks, but unfortunately, you are not I don't believe it."

"You..." Angelica was furious, looking back at George Han, and asked coldly, "George Han, why are you here?!"

"You have clearly disappeared in my gold brick, so what are you doing? I might have retreated without my knowledge?"

George Han smiled coldly: "Didn't my wife tell you? Your broken gold bricks may be useful to others. , but with me, that's all it is!"

“Impossible! I have already said that the Demon Castle is a top-secret formation. Once anyone enters the Demon Castle, he will automatically become a part of the Demon Castle. No matter how powerful you are, However, after all, it is the thing in the formation, your strength, that’s all, how could you possibly break through him?!”

Angelica couldn’t believe it, and the emotion of speaking became obviously extremely ferocious.

George Han smiled lightly: “This grand formation is indeed very strong and extreme.”

“Although it has been established since its establishment, it means that it cannot move at all, but... it has its disadvantages and its advantages. , at least, it can maximize the strength of its ability within its range.”

“I am also a human being, and I am always a thing in this world, so it is inevitable to enter the formation and be affected by it.”

“But, Angelica Xiaoer, have you forgotten the divine weapon in my hand?!”

“Artifact?” Angelica was stunned for a second, and the next second instantly responded to the Pangu axe in George Han’s hand: “You mean the Pangu axe?!”

“No, it’s impossible. , the Pangu axe is obviously closed in your hand, and it can’t help you much at all.”

“Also, the distance between the six walls at that time was already extremely small, and your axe had no room to exert force at all. Therefore, Even if you simply want to use the axe to open the wall, it is absolutely impossible.”

“Even I can say something ugly now, with the current state of your Pangu Axe, it will always be affected by my great formation, so what about him? possible.....”

George Han grinned: “That’s why my wife told you not to look at me like a normal person. But you kid, you don’t believe me.”

“From the beginning to the end, I didn’t expect the Pangu Axe to help me break the ice. Regardless of its strength , or its size, it can’t play any role at that level.”

“Then if you don’t use the Pangu Axe, what chance do you have?” Angelica was puzzled.

Although the Pangu axe is really not in the hands of George Han now, and it will be restricted by the formation, but in fact, Angelica is also very clear, that is just that the Pangu axe has not reached its strength circle.

Once its power is slightly displayed, how many things in the world can compete with it? !

George Han smiled lightly: “Can’t you get out without the Pangu Axe? What’s your logic?!”

“Don’t tell me, you forgot that when I resisted you in the six golden walls, there was more than one divine weapon. ?!”

Hearing this, Angelica’s eyes narrowed suddenly: “You...you mean, that...that black stick?!”

Chapter 4404

George Han smiled coldly: "You are not completely stupid."

Yes, George Han can escape, rely on It's actually a little black stick.

To a certain extent, when Amelia Su was sent out, the space that George Han faced became extremely small, and it was impossible for anyone to perform any effective operations in such a space.

George Han is no exception.

But, who is George Han?

Always a budget-conscious guy who makes all the arrangements.

It was absolutely impossible for him to panic and drive himself to a dead end.

Therefore, it is necessary to send Amelia Su away, but it does not mean that this is George Han's last resort.

He has his own plans and arrangements.

And supporting all this is the little black stick.

At that time, among the six walls, the little black stick had perfectly proved its ability. It could fully withstand the pressure brought by the walls and the huge corrosion on the walls.

Therefore, in that environment, George Han thought of a possibility.

That is to compress yourself infinitely.

In that kind of environment, it is impossible for people to complete any physical movements. On the contrary, they will be greatly restricted because of their body size.

But what if it's smaller than itself?

Then, the space becomes larger.

What if you were even the size of a point? !

Then, the explosive power of the point will be stronger.

All in all, George Han quickly thought of a way. He put himself into his storage ring, and then directly transformed the little black stick with his mind.

Eventually, a layer of matter wrapping around the ring is formed.

Afterwards, diffuse with the little black stick mentioned at this point.

The point is always the most concentrated thing.

The little black stick attacked with a point, wrapping the ring and turning it into a sharp point in front of it, making its overall shape like an awl, breaking the brick body.

During that time period, the golden bricks had been placed in a special location by Angelica's subordinates.

Therefore, when George Han came out, he almost disappeared.

In order not to frighten the snake, and George Han couldn't find where Amelia Su was, he simply came to hide himself, and didn't show up until a critical moment.

"George Han, you really know how to play. You can escape in this situation. I really admire it!"

"However, do you think you won when you escaped?"

"It can trap you once, and it can trap you ten thousand times."

"You can try it, whether you escape faster or I collect faster."

Angelica

drank coldly, full of confidence.

As the master of the great formation, even if George Han completed the heaven-defying move and escaped from it, this did not mean the end of the world.

He has a way to continue killing George Han, as long as this great formation is still there.

George Han smiled and nodded: "Normally, you can really mess with me infinitely."

If it wasn't for fear of this, George Han wouldn't have been hiding in the dark to observe, but he would have killed the Quartet long ago, making the gang of Tianmobao cry.

"But it's a pity..."

"What a pity?!"

"It's a pity that you told me everything about the formation just now." George Han smiled lightly.

Angelica's face was cold, obviously unhappy, but he was not worried, and said coldly: "So what if I told you? George Han, so profound, do you understand?" Just now everyone was there. Dozing off, with Angelica's temperament, other people sleep while he is talking, this is a great disrespect to him, and he will definitely be furious.

, almost

But he didn't.

The reason is simple, it's a normal reaction.

George Han smiled lightly: "Why do you think I don't understand?!"

"Joke, when I was studying with my father, it took me a full fifteen years to slowly become enlightened, and that was still in my hands. When my father opened a small stove. You want to learn by listening to it once, do you think I am a fool?!"

George Han shook his head: "It's not that you are a fool, it's just that you haven't considered a situation, you could he really be an idiot?!"

Hearing this, Angelica was stunned, and carefully savoured the meaning of George Han, and soon, he finally came around.

"I...  your uncle!!"

Chapter 4405

George Han smiled disdainfully: "Look at you, only a fool can bark incompetently.

"I pretended in front of me that although I am not a genius, but he is also extremely smart, you are attacking Lao Tzu!"

"What the hell is a man?"

"You said you understood, but said one or two, let me listen, Lao Tzu!"

George Han smiled softly: "The big formation has no eyes, so it can't be formed. According to what you said, the whole big formation is made of inverted yin and yang, am I right?"

Hearing this, Angelica was stunned on the spot, it was true!

"So, the formation eye is a dead eye. If you crack it according to the conventional method, you will inevitably be injured by the dead eye. At that time, the force in the formation can make the dead eye explode and kill anyone who breaks the formation. Am I right?!"

Angelica didn't speak, but it was clear that cold sweat was already on his forehead!

What George Han said is still correct.

"According to logic, that is to say, the eyes of life in this array are actually the eyes of the array."

"Generally speaking, according to the gossip, there are countless doors of life and one door of death, life and death are reversed, and the only door of death, in fact it's the life door."

"But in your great formation, because it is against yin and yang, the entire formation is upside down, the only dead eye is still the dead eye, but the life eye is really life. Eyes."

"That's why, if you didn't try to prevent others from leaving, Heavenly Demon Castle can enter and leave at will."

"Only those who really want to break through the formation will look for the formation eye, and if they look for it, they will definitely find you in the formation. dead eyes, and then die."

Hearing George Han's words, Angelica's face was extremely gloomy, and her teeth were almost snapped.

George Han was right.

The design of the entire array is so back to basics .

However, because of the close design with the castle, this great formation looks simple, but is actually extremely complicated.

Many people will find a way to break the big formation when they hear it, but they often fall into the vortex of self-habit and the trap of melting the big formation and the city.

As long as you want to break the formation, you will definitely find the eyes.

No one would deliberately hit the door of death when they knew that they were broken, just like no one who survived would find a way to send it to death by himself.

This is the fundamental reason why the Heavenly Demon Castle never decays. However, I didn't expect that George Han would actually see through it.

He really understood his own words completely.

But...

how is this possible? !

"Forgot to tell you, George Han actually studied Qimen Dunjia, gossip about Yin and Yang for a long time, and even put in a lot of practice. In this regard , he should be called an expert." Amelia Su said.

George Han smiled lightly, this was not wrong.

He himself has a deep understanding of this. Last time, he met Qinglong, a group of masters who gathered Qimen's shield and armor in Dacheng. He was instructed by Qinglong and learned from each other. George Han's depth in this aspect has long been Reached a master level.

"Impossible, and you don't have to be complacent, even if... even if you can understand what I said, so what?!"

"Does this mean that you can break through?!"

George Han shook his head: "That's not necessarily true. After all, understanding and figuring out the operation of the entire formation and the gate of life are completely two concepts."

"Isn't that right? You only know the general picture, but It's really a joke to make you seem to have won." Angelica said coldly .

George Han said, "But what Amelia Su said was modest, what if I wasn't just an expert?"

"Have you ever thought that in certain fields, some super-successors or top-level masters often You don't need to say too much, you can directly understand everything?!"

Hearing this, Angelica's face condensed, and there was an ominous premonition in his mind: "Are you talking about you?"

"You can be considered a master." George Han sneered.

Angelica stared at George Han fiercely: "You mean, can you break me?"

"Are you fuing scaring me? When I am a three-year-old child?!"

George Han smiled: "I George Han I never like to scare anyone, I will only scare, not scare!"

Angelica's body was obviously soft: "Impossible! It's absolutely impossible."

"How about my brother show you a show?"

Chapter 4406

"Performance?" Before

Angelica responded, George Han moved slightly, and his body instantly rose into the sky.

After that, in a short period of time, like an eagle passing by, and like a mad dragon flying in the sky, after that, it went straight to a certain direction in the east.

George Han is not worried about Amelia Su's safety now, because he is very clear that now whether it is the judge or the group of executives, or simply Angelica.

Their focus is on whether George Han can really break the formation as he said.

Moreover, George Han is not completely without any response, he secretly helped Amelia Su loose early.

Once there is any change, Amelia Su can break free immediately.

With her ability, there is no problem in holding back for a moment, and George Han can support him at any time.

"Where did that guy go? He didn't run away, right?"

"City lord, do you think he was bragging?"

"Grandma, he did a fantastic job.

"On Angelica's body.

After all, only he knew better what the whole thing was going to be like.

Angelica doesn't know how to answer, there are indeed some clues in the east, but it does not mean that George Han can really find a needle in the sea.

After all, the entire formation has clues on all sides, but over the years, how many trapped people have not gone in these directions?

But going, does not mean that they succeeded, and most of them even died here.

Soon, somewhere in the east, a puff of white smoke rose.

In the next second, white smoke began to rise from the west.

Then the South, and finally the North.

Until

white smoke rose from all sides, George Han's figure reappeared.

Soon after, he landed again, but there was nothing else on him.

"What? This is your breaking formation?"

Seeing George Han's return, Angelica was relieved a lot.

As the leader of the formation, of course he knew very well that the formation eye of the entire formation was still there, and George Han didn't destroy it.

Naturally, this also shows that what George Han just said was bragging.

George Han smiled lightly: "That's right."

"Joke, if you light four white smokes on all sides, even if you break the formation?" Angelica sneered disdainfully.

A group of executives also burst into laughter, George Han didn't break the line, which was equivalent to a big stone that made them fall in their hearts.

After all, the Demon Castle can be so invincible. Although they do not understand the formation, they also understand that the importance of this formation is determined.

Once they are broken by George Han, then naturally, they are equivalent to losing their protection and blessing.

"George Han, I have heard of your brilliant deeds in the past. You rely on yourself to be able to fight, so you often use some tricks to scare the enemy."

"This trick is really useful, after all, you have the ability. , it is easy to scare people."

"Unfortunately, it is useless with me."

"I am not afraid of you, because my gold bricks can completely conquer you, you are in front of me, these tricks are destined to be of no use. "

"Ah." George Han shook his head helplessly: "Why do you think I'm bragging?"

"What? Can't you hold back?" Seeing George Han shaking his head, Angelica was even more proud.

George Han smiled bitterly: "

Danggui , didn't your father teach you that you have to learn to keep a low profile in everything and learn to be flexible?"

“Success is just an end point, and there are many paths leading to it. Why do you think that you must follow the method you know?!”

Just like solving a geometry problem, as long as the final answer is the same, the solution itself varies from person to person, and the solution varies from person to person.

At least, for George Han, a top master like him, the natural solution also contains his strong personal color.

“Blow, keep blowing, you haven’t touched the main eye of my big formation from beginning to end, how did you break the formation?!”

“Just because of your mere four white smoke?!”

“Yes, this is what I told you just now. Yes, just with these four white smokes, you can completely smash your body to pieces!”

Chapter 4407

“Are you kidding me?” Angelica said coldly.

“fu, if only four smokes can destroy us, I’m afraid we don’t know how many times we have destroyed the Demon Castle. After all, wars happen frequently in the Demon Castle.

” The smoker, he really thinks we are fools, and are we still used to fooling people?” A group of people scolded, obviously disdainful.

George Han didn’t want to talk nonsense with them either. When he looked up, it was almost time to see, and he moved his hand slightly.

boom!

A loud bang came directly, but I found that the sound came from the east, and if I listened carefully, it should be where the white smoke rose before.

Everyone was stunned and startled, but after that, Angelica smiled.

“Hahaha, George Han, did you and he set a gun battle there? Suddenly I startled.”

Angelica was of course shocked, but he could feel that his body was not affected in any way.

His body is related to the entire formation, so he can naturally sense whether there is a problem with the formation at any time.

“fu, this idiot is really playing tricks, this bastard, I really thought something was wrong when he heard the sound just now.”

“Damn, I really thought this guy was doing something. That’s it?” A group of people were both angry and funny.

But at this moment, the second sound came again.

However, compared with the last time, there was still no other movement when the sound came, but the reaction of everyone was completely different.

Without the slightest shock and fright, it seems that everyone has become accustomed to it.

What turned more, in fact, was the laughter of the crowd.

To them, it's like some giant farting.

Fart sounded.

Then, there was a third sound.

Everyone

laughed even more crazy. The leader buried his head deeply at this time. He was very speechless. Originally, he was desperate.

But George Han came out of the golden brick and completely raised his sense of anticipation.

He thought that George Han could return as a king, but, where did he think of it? It didn't take long for him to work hard. He didn't know whether George Han was king or not. When he only knew, George Han was now a laughing stock. It's an indisputable fact.

Still fine.

"George Han, the three sounds have already rang, don't blame me for not reminding you, you have to hurry up and think of a way, otherwise, you will be embarrassed later, right?" Angelica squinted and laughed at George Han.

"Hahahaha"

Under the stage, everyone laughed wildly.

George Han shook his head, his hand moved, and the fourth sound rang out.

Looking at George Han's cold expression, in fact, Angelica immediately put away her smile after the fourth sound, and he was still somewhat guilty

However, after waiting for about seven or eight seconds without any discomfort, the guy was completely relieved.

He laughed loudly: "George Han, the four voices have already passed, do you have any other tricks now? Are you... not embarrassed?"

"It's useless to bluff, idiot!"

"George Han

is just that.” “fu the master, I’ll go, I think you don’t talk about the master of Qimen Dunjia. You don’t blush for bragging, but you can count it.” A group of people ridiculed to the extreme.

George Han only glanced at Amelia Su, Amelia Su nodded slightly, she believed that George Han would never do useless work, let alone play tricks like jumping beams.

A good show must be at the back.

Seeing Amelia Su’s trusting eyes, George Han smiled confidently. ” Danggui

, good and evil will be rewarded in the end. It’s not that you don’t report it, the time has not yet come.”

“However, today, the time has come.”

“I should also send you on your way.”

As soon as they moved, the white smoke that was about to dissipate on all sides suddenly became active in an instant.

When I looked up, it was as if the sun was covering the clouds.

“When you used the Taiji Dragon Soul Formation, it belongs to the Formation of , so it can absorb the evil spirits of the demons, and it can also turn everything in the formation into one’s own ability.”

“Actually, it is really difficult to break your formation, because The biggest limitation is that everything in the formation is for your use, so even if you know how to break the formation, you are still unable to do what you want.”

“Not to mention, many people have already lost when they start breaking through the formation.”

“However, Chang Zaihe While walking, how can there be a reason not to wet your shoes? Today, you met me, and I just happen to have something that can restrain you.”

“This is God’s will to accept you, see clearly, Angelica, don’t blink. “

Chapter 4408

“The white clouds cover the sun, and you will be blocked for a short time!”

“But I am not trying to break your formation!”

“Little black stick , give it to me!” As soon as the words fell, suddenly, the little black stick suddenly flew out of George Han’s body, all the way to the sky above his head.

Here, it also happens to be in the center of the gathering of white smoke from all sides.

“You take the earth as your spirit, and I will sacrifice the sky to move.”

“The little black stick thinks it’s the eye, and restarts a big formation like you!” After the words fell, after the little black stick flew into it, the black light flourished, driving the The surrounding white smoke, black and white for a while, like a huge Tai Chi gossip, slowly turning it.

Everyone looked up and saw that there was a large formation in the sky.

“George Han!” Angelica is not stupid. Looking at the operation of this formation, he clearly knows that George Han’s formation is based on the method he said before.

In other words, the top of the sky seems to have made a second Demon Castle at this time!

“Yin-yang gossip, the universe is reversed, move me!”

Boom!

With George Han shouting again, the little black stick turned more powerfully, and the white air around it and the black air it emitted also turned more frequently.

The sky is turning, and the earth seems to be moving slowly.

Everyone really experienced what it means to turn the world around for a while.

“I’m so dizzy, I want to vomit, can you stop?”

“What the hell is going on here, is the world about to collapse?”

A group of executives scratched their heads, feeling extremely uncomfortable, and some even lost their footing.

The little black stick is not a thing of the Three Realms, and is naturally not affected by the formation in the formation. It is used to make a brand-new big formation, which partially overlaps and partially opposes the Heavenly Demon Castle.

Then the natural second formation will have a huge impact on each other.

“George Han, what kind of tricks are you playing? Do you think you can break my formation like this? You are foolish, you can’t break the formation, you can’t break it at all. This is common sense, and you should know better than anyone.” Angelica Angrily said.

George Han smiled coldly: “Angelica, of course I know this, but breaking the formation doesn’t have to be called breaking the formation.”

Boom!

The middle line between the two buttresses, at this time, the majestic energy rose from the ground and collided directly with the black energy emitted by the small black sticks in the air.

Everyone suddenly felt as if they had been thrown into some kind of shaking ball, and fell directly to the ground in discomfort. Apart from moaning loudly in pain, they could hardly do anything else.

Not only them, but all the other people in this city are in this situation at this time.

Even George Han and Amelia Su felt extremely uncomfortable at this time, as if they had a splitting headache and as if they were about to explode.

George Han hurriedly flew to Amelia Su's side, his fingers slightly on his acupuncture points, and Amelia Su was much better in a moment.

"How could this be?" Amelia Su asked strangely.

"I used the method of confrontation to completely disrupt the order here. The people in the city were obediently absorbed by the big formation of the Demon Castle itself, and formed a habit."

"Now, my big formation is also rushing out to absorb, Then, all of them must be internally disordered."

"Because of the pulling, I feel even dizzier."

"Heaven and the earth are fighting, and the egg is over."

Hearing George Han's explanation, Amelia Su understood a little: "In this way, can it be as , directly destroying the power that the whole city brought him to the great formation!"

George Han nodded, exactly like that.

It's not that he didn't think about breaking the array eye directly, but for such a huge array, even if the array eye is found, its ability to protect itself should be extremely strong.

Even if Han 3,000 people are super powerful, they can really destroy it directly.

What about the innocent people in the city? !

They are connected to the blood of the great formation, and if the formation is broken, they will inevitably be backlashed. At that time, I am afraid that they can only die.

"It's like someone smoking, suddenly taking his cigarette may kill him, but if the cycle is gradual, it can reduce the harm and impact of smoke-free on him, right?"

George Han nodded: " There is another most important reason."

"Oh?"

George Han chicken thief smiled like a robber: "You will know right away."

Chapter 4409

As the sky turns faster and faster, everyone feels more and more uncomfortable, and the two formations seem to be starting. An earth-shattering change has taken place.

In other words, from initially competing with each other, to now mixing with each other.

It's messed up, it's messed up, it's all messed up.

The ground began to tremble, the wind was raging, the buildings in the city were collapsing, and everything was being destroyed.

Angelica looked around like crazy, he didn't understand at all, how could such a situation happen!

"You're damned!"

Angelica's hands were moved, and he thought, trying to regain control of his big formation, so that the big formation could stabilize the situation again.

Soon, under his urging, the energy of the ground formation increased, and countless light strips even began to appear on the ground. Each light strip extended from the ground and was connected to everyone's feet.

From a distance, it was like countless cobwebs converging and connecting everyone.

"Boom!"

Sure enough, along with the big formation, it was obvious that the situation on the ground was much more stable, and an invisible huge force suddenly struck.

The white smoke in the sky suddenly became chaotic, and George Han's whole body was as if his chest was hit by a boulder.

"Three thousand!" Amelia Su was immediately worried.

"Haha, George Han, you want to break my great formation with just such a * ability? Now, you have suffered." Seeing George Han injured, Angelica was extremely ferocious for a while.

Sneer again and again!

George Han clenched his teeth slightly, a faint sneer flashed in his eyes, but his face was full of surprise.

"Angelica, I really underestimated you, I didn't expect you to be so capable. I thought that you would be unable to resist under my full force. But unexpectedly, I still underestimated you. I have suffered a big loss now."

Hearing George Han's exclamation, Angelica was not without complacency, this guy is George Han after all, and there are very few people in this world who can get his praise.

"Hmph, George Han, I've already said that if I can be the city lord of this Heavenly Demon Castle, how can I get a false reputation? Now you know what you're afraid of? It's a pity, it's too late."

George Han He smiled wryly and shook his head: "Since this is the case, it seems that there is nothing to say. I admit that I did underestimate you, but that doesn't mean that your kid really won."

"I haven't told you yet . Completely desperate!"

If George Han came out of the golden brick before, he was still a little afraid, and even just now he was worried because of what George Han suddenly made, then now, he is completely Confidence, no fear at all.

You must know that the current George Han was injured by himself in the confrontation with himself, and he was at a disadvantage. What was he afraid of? !

“George Han, come on, let me go, I’ll show you my true strength.”

“I want to completely defeat you in front of everyone.”

Angelica has even begun to look forward to it, George Han Once Qian is defeated, the people of this world will completely remember their names.

“George Han, you have helped me to become famous.” After the words were finished, the power of Angelica came together, and it almost reached the pinnacle and peak!

Your great formation on the whole ground is even crazier, those cobweb-like white lines are completely like lit incandescent lamps, sending the entire demon

The fort is completely lit.

“Three thousand, be careful!” Amelia Su hurriedly reminded George Han.

Obviously, Amelia Su knew that Angelica had almost unreservedly stimulated all the energy in his body, and he almost wanted to win directly against George Han.

Of course George Han knew Angelica’s intentions, and even all of this was within his expectations.

After all, the current Angelica is in full swing, of course, I can’t wait to kill myself with one move.

George Han suddenly smiled, and the black energy all over his body suddenly gathered inside his body, looking from a distance, he looked like a terrifying black devil.

In the next second, the black energy all over his body was violent, and suddenly burst out, shooting straight into the sky like an Optimus Prime.

The little black stick was instantly enveloped by the beam of light, and after a short pause, it also exploded with a sudden momentum in the next second, and an unimaginable and terrifying scene appeared in the sky in early summer...

Chapter 4410

“Boom!”

Like a super rainstorm, and like the end of the day, the sky is almost completely collapsed.

They are exploding frantically, but they seem to be making the last effort to support them, and they seem to be reborn from the ashes before death!

Lightning, thunder, black gas and white gas whirled wildly.

“Are you still fighting to the death? George Han!”

“You have already lost, I think, you should keep your breath and explain your funeral.”

Boom!

Thousands of miles of invisible air suddenly lifted up and flew towards the sky with a bang.

Whoa!

Above the sky, the air of white and black also suddenly sensed, like the overwhelming momentum of Mount Tai, madly pouring down!

Everyone reluctantly supported their bodies and murmured at this shocking scene, this world is a fight!

“Boom!” When the two meet, it is like two continents colliding in half in the sea.

Everyone couldn't help but stand unsteadily, and was directly shaken and staggered.

However, no one cares about this kind of pain, they only care about the result between the two, or in other words, they only care about how George Han will fail!

Between the two, a gray aura exploded directly from the center of the explosion, and the person who covered it could hardly open his eyes.

The entire scene was completely silent.

Soon, everything stopped, and the gray breath began to slowly disappear.

In turn, all the strangeness of the sky disappeared.

“Haha, we won, our city lord won.”

“That's right, the formation in the sky has obviously disappeared, which means that the big formation of Han 3,000 has completely disappeared.

” George Han, I am too embarrassed to come to show off with our city lord, but it is shameful.”

“Previously, the city lord said that he subdued George Han .

Although I also participated in the compliment at that time, it was not the truth. Now, I have seen it with my own eyes. Our city lord won with one blow, and we can't help but sigh, my city lord is really fierce.”

“Men are afraid of going into the wrong profession, and women are afraid of marrying the wrong man. It seems that we follow a real big man like the city lord, a ruthless character, it is indeed a great fortune in life. Ah.” A group of people were extremely excited, and they didn't hide their excitement at all.

The leader's face was like a pig's liver. George Han's reappearance made him see the slightest hope, but now it was full of despair.

He regretted why he had to be afraid of dying and betrayed the city lord. Now...

only Amelia Su looked at George Han quietly. She believed that George Han would never be defeated!

“George Han, you lost.” Angelica looked at George Han coldly, her eyes full of pride.

The picture he was looking forward to finally appeared.

George Han smiled lightly, and with the movement of the corner of his mouth, blood flowed continuously from the gap in an instant, wet his chin, and stained his clothes.

“Really?” George Han shook his head: “But how do I think it was you who lost?”

“Also, you still lost so thoroughly!”

Hearing this, Angelica sneered disdainfully: “I lost. Now? George Han, are you blind? You are gone now.”

“Indeed, the array I made myself is no longer there, but it doesn’t have to disappear, right? If you say that my eyes are blind and can’t see, then I want to ask you, are you paralyzed?!”

” Can’t you sense something?!”

Angelica frowned: “What do you mean by that?”

He

really couldn’t sense much, but he wasn’t overly worried, and didn’t even think about it. .

The two blasts just now were so intense, and the impact was extremely huge. Although he was not as seriously injured as George Han, he still felt numb from the impact.

He knew very well that these were temporary.

It’s as if you’ve been blown up by an explosive air wave. After a while, it will naturally slow down.

But now, he doesn’t know why George Han mentioned this.

This should be nothing to mention.

“As the person who sets up the formation, you can’t even sense your formation. How dare you say that I am defeated?!”

” You really don’t feel ashamed, do you?!”

What? My array... can’t feel it? !
