

HTC 4411

Chapter 4411

This is impossible!

Angelica was in a hurry to get lucky and tried to make a bigger response to the game, but as soon as he got angry, a huge pain hit him instantly, he couldn't hold back, and a mouthful of blood spurted out!

"Pfft!" The amount of blood is more than that of George Han.

But at this time, Angelica was not in the mood to pay attention to these, and all his attention was focused on his current body.

He panicked and tried to reconnect with the formation, but with every luck, more pain kept coming from his body.

"How...how could this be?" He looked up at George Han unwillingly.

"If you continue to transport, I can guarantee that within a dozen or so rounds, you will be completely exhausted and die, just like what you said to me just now, it is better to save some strength and wait for death. Right."

Angelica was angry and looked at George Han angrily:

"What kind of tricks did you do to me? Why can't I sense the existence of the formation?"

Amelia Su smiled coldly: "Then are you? I never thought that the formation does not exist at all, so you can't sense it naturally?"

"Impossible, it is absolutely impossible, it is impossible for my formation to not exist at all. It is the absolute master, it is the absolute king, it will never be destroyed."

Looking at the hysterical Angelica, George Han just moved slightly, and suddenly, the white chain on the ground appeared again, but compared to before, it was just a simple It's just one, and it's not directly reaching everyone present, but only the city owner Angelica.

After that, it disappeared quickly, as if it had never appeared.

However, only Angelica is clear, it has not disappeared, it is just like a chain that absorbs nutrients, connecting itself.

The next second, Angelica suddenly felt that the energy in her body was losing frantically.

This feeling was familiar to him, but unfamiliar.

What is familiar is that he has always used this method to deal with other people and absorb their energy for his own use, but what is strange is that these things have always been used by others, and never used by him.

“No, no, no!” He shook his head desperately, his whole being like a lunatic.

There is no so-called calmness in his eyes, panic and confusion almost occupy all his emotions.

After that, his body began to lose weight, and it shriveled like a deflated ball.

The originally tall body also began to shrink continuously. In the end, almost in a moment, it was only a mere one meter tall, and it seemed that there was no difference between those ordinary people.

Han

George Han moved slightly, and the rope that Amelia Su had untied but not fully opened completely disappeared, and the leader and the other two were also lifted up by a force in an instant, and finally fell on George Han's behind.

“Angelica, how do you feel?!” George Han sneered.

“Master Han, you did a great job, and let this grandson taste our pain!”

“Yes, we didn't understand why in a place like the Demon Race, not only were we not tall, but we were so pitifully short. Why, now, Finally, it's clear to the mother that it was this guy who was hurting us.”

“That's right, in this society where the strong eat the weak, an inch of height itself is an inch of strength. Over the years, we have no way to go out, because everyone It's clear that we can't get along at all with our bodies.” The two Bai Bai who came with George Han

Surname, scolded in a daze.

Yes, this is another brilliant point of this great formation.

When you were tempered so miserably in the formation, you lost the capital to go out to fight for hegemony, so you can stay here obediently and be a mermaid.

It's like there are some helpless lost girls on Earth, they are already in that kind of vortex, it's not that they haven't thought about going out, but...

what if they just go out? !

It's all unclean, so it's better to make money here, at least, here they can eat and eat, and they won't starve to death.

From their helplessness, including the people in the Demon Castle, you can see how hateful these initiators are.

They may not be demon faces, but they do demon things.

Thinking of this, George Han stopped the twitching of the formation and glanced coldly at the angelica on the ground. Yujian lifted his chin and lifted it up...

Chapter 4412

“How did you do it?” Angelica was full of despair, eyes blank, but more still shocked and unwilling.

He couldn't imagine that his formation did not disappear, but he couldn't feel it, and in turn, George Han controlled his formation to attack him.

"I said, in fact, I have heard everything you said at the beginning, clearly. Therefore, it seems that there is no need for you to ask me how I did it. Isn't this what you taught me? "

However, no matter how smart a person is, it is absolutely impossible for me to learn what I have learned for more than ten years, right?!"

The body of the people of the demon race is generally much stronger than the people of the Central Plains, which is almost indisputable. However, since the world is in perfect balance, it must be said that what is good must have its disadvantages.

The IQ of the Demons is quite different from that of the Central Plains, which may be the disadvantage brought about by the advantage of physical talent.

Under such circumstances, Angelica is not considered to be the most intelligent person among the demons, while George Han is considered extremely intelligent among the people of the Central Plains. The gap between the two cannot be said to be huge, only it is said to be a complete dimensionality reduction attack.

"I said, maybe you have never really looked at yourself."

From birth, Angelica is the next city lord, and the position of successor has naturally always been pampered. Most of the words around him are slanderous words, how can he tell where he is good and where is bad?

It's just normal. Under the guidance of his old father, he reluctantly took over this almost invincible design of the Demon Castle, and also dealt with all kinds of difficult crises.

However, this is always in the case of the generally low IQ of the Demon Race.

Once you meet the most intelligent people

, what is presented here will be different, especially such a smart person, with a different way of thinking and a different level of understanding of Qimen Dunjia.

Dangerous situations will intensify.

And the last straw that broke the camel's back was what he said, and this defeat was a matter of time.

"Just using the knowledge you mentioned, I organized and studied accordingly, and conducted a review according to its guidelines."

"Afterwards, I created the same array."

"In order to let them influence each other, I deliberately arranged the formation above the Tianmo Castle according to the Tai Chi posture."

"In this way, the two formations can be closely linked together like the Tai Chi gossip."

"I have calculated that the formation here absorbs living here. Therefore, although the qi that attracts people seems to be yang qi, but because the people here are cultivating the law and comprehending the way are all yin, so in fact, the formation is still dominated by yin."

"Therefore, if I want to succeed in my plan, I should make a large formation with the same attributes."

"The so-called same-s3x attracts, the opposite s3x repel.

", the two overlapping formations will continuously absorb each other's energy, thus creating competition and fighting between each other.

"The energy of the entire Tianmobao people is really huge, but unfortunately you met me, George Han. The devil is just as crazy recently."

"Although I don't dare to release it all to fight against you, or even press it. I've beaten you, but what I can use right now can barely compete with you for a while."

"You can beat me by just fighting for a while? It's impossible, shouldn't it be me who won?" Angelica refused to accept it.

In theory, there is no problem with the understanding of Angelica.

George Han was afraid that the demonic energy would affect his sanity, so he always came here leisurely. There was no way, he couldn't let the monster control him in order to suppress the demonic energy of the other party.

While taking care of one and the other, it is often easier to gain more than one loses.

The ghost knows what will happen when he can't control himself. If his brain is pumped and he hits his own people in turn, that's enough bullshit.

Therefore, George Han is very clear about one thing, and that is to change his own way to compete.

"However, you are the only one who has been fighting with me for a long time. I have never seen you with other helpers. It can't be Amelia Su."

"Of course not my wife, but I do have a helper."

"Who?"

Chapter 4413

"You!"

"Me?"

Angelica was stunned, he didn't help George Han from beginning to end, he just wanted to set He was just dead, how did he become his helper.

"Remember when my grand formation started?" George Han said with a smile.

It didn't take long for the big formation to start, how could he forget?

Thinking about it carefully, it seems that Angelica quickly discovered the problem: "Actually, the whole world shook at the first time. It seemed like a collision between two formations. In fact, you did it on purpose, right?"

"The purpose is to use this to cover up your true purpose."

"When you think more, relying on this shock, completely disrupt the situation in my formation."

George Han did not deny it, and nodded: "You still it's not too stupid."

"When the two formations met each other for the first time, I actually used more to run the formation, not the Yin force

, but the Yang force."

"For fear of being discovered by you, I deliberately Outside the yang force, wrap it with the yin force."

"The two formations meet, although they seem to be completely similar to each other at first, but in fact, when your formation is not right, they will repel each other."

"This is the chaos at the time. The root cause, under this shock, I believe that no one is ready, including your great formation."

"Everyone has lost their stability, and in a hurry, the support they will provide to your formation will inevitably decrease. In addition, the formation was also affected, and the operation was still in chaos, and your entire Demon Castle was extremely weak at that time."

"It's like a high-speed machine that suddenly encountered some problems."

"Originally, you can rely on its incomparably strong mechanism to repair itself after only a moment, but... not only did, On the contrary, it added fuel to the fire!"

Hearing this, Angelica was suddenly shocked: "You mean... I launched a fierce attack on you at the last moment?"

"Yes, otherwise why would I say that you are my helper? ?!"

This is similar to a car, the array is the engine, and the array owner, Angelica, is the clutch control, the engine is in a state of some kind of glitch at this time, and it is adjusting itself.

The clutch is not in gear, it is enough without affecting it, but the clutch is not only in gear, but also directly in high gear.

There is only one such result. When the two meet, they are no longer in cooperation with each other. Instead, the sky and thunder hit the ground and fire, and there is a direct bombing and bombing. In the end, the entire gear slips and they are completely scrapped.

The operation of Angelica just now is like this.

“I deliberately showed weakness, angered you, and made you inflated, but also caused you a little trouble. I believe that in this case, you must be full of confidence and want to kill me desperately, because you know, the opportunity is right in front of you.”

“Don’t say that I, George Han, have a bit of a reputation. If you kill me, you can make a name for yourself. Just because I’m just your enemy, you won’t miss this opportunity. You always, you will bite the hook.”

“However, just like fishing, whether I can catch a big fish or not depends not only on my skills, but also on how hard you bite the hook.”

“If you just bite the hook very cautiously, once I pull the hook, it is very likely that there will be a decoupling, or even simply slipping the hook, but if you bite hard enough, it is not a technical problem. Even a fool can directly catch you. “

“This time, you bite

It’s very hard, I like it very much. “

This guy forcibly gathered all the energy to attack himself, which is equivalent to him making the damage of the entire formation almost irreversible for a while.

George Han seized such an opportunity and directly smothered himself. The maximum energy was given to the little black stick. After that, the energy of George Han’s formation was pushed to the extreme.

Moreover, it directly competed with the formation of the sickly Demon Castle.

“Now, are you clear? “After saying this, George Han sneered softly and looked at Angelica.

Angelica couldn’t believe his ears.

He really helped George Han break his formation to pieces.

Lift the stone. Smashing his own foot was the first time he had a profound experience.

Bang!

A dull sound rang out, and Angelica suddenly knelt on the ground...

Chapter 4414

Powerless!

shameful!

anger!

regret!

In an instant, all the emotions were intertwined.

Angelica really wanted to slap himself to death here.

Looking back on the whole process, he now fully understands it.

He lost.

But his defeat is far from the norm!

Others may be inferior to others, or they may have made mistakes in some details.

But what about him? !

He doesn't seem to have done any of that.

But when I think about it, it seems like I've done it all fu**ing over and over again!

Because, while he directly told his secrets to others, he also taught others about his ancestral fun, how could this not make people depressed and crazy? !

He felt that even if he wanted to cry now, I'm afraid he wouldn't be able to cry at all.

"Do you still want to resist?" George Han looked at him contemptuously: "After all, you were quite crazy just now."

Resist? !

The power of the whole city is actually not impossible, after all, the loss of troops is not large in the whole process.

But Angelica is not in the mood right now, he is almost in a state of disintegration, and his emotions are close to collapse.

"However, whether you resist or not, you all have to die."

"What qualifications do people who do evil things have to live in the world?"

As soon as these words came out, Angelica's reaction was not much, but the hundreds of executives in the audience exploded.

Seeing that Angelica seemed to have been defeated, and there was no resistance at all, this group of executives also completely collapsed.

Some people simply knelt on the ground on the spot, weeping and begging for mercy: "Han Daxia, no, no, no

, Grandpa Han, Ancestor Han, you can ignore the villains, we... we are all angels. It has nothing to do with us."

"Yeah, Ancestor Han, in the final analysis, we are just pawns, so be merciful, treat us like a fart and let it go."

The begging for mercy continued, and many people simply knelt on the ground along with them, making George Han look like a god.

At this time, the judge took the lead, stood up directly from the crowd, took three steps and took two steps, and rushed to the stage.

“Master Han, I...I...I, you won’t forget me.” The judge shouted vigorously, for fear that George Han didn’t see himself.

Danggui was originally in a low mood, but when he saw the judge running out, he couldn’t help but get angry.

“Judge, what are you doing? I have always trusted you the most. Even if you made a mistake before, I have never pursued you.”

“But, you were the first to beg for mercy in a blink of an eye. Ask you, are you worthy of me, you bastard?!” The judge’s expression flashed a bit of embarrassment, but he quickly returned to normal: “City lord, the tree is falling and the tree is scattered, you shouldn’t understand this truth, right?”

“I don’t want to betray either. You, but everyone is just for survival.”

“Don’t tell me, do you want me to accompany you to die?”

Angelica’s face turned cold: “You!”

George Han looked at the judge leisurely at this time, and the judge immediately greeted him with a smile.

“The judge is right.”

“Yes, yes, it’s the little one.”

“Of course I remember you.

” After George Han finished speaking, he raised his eyes and drank softly at the crowd: “The judge sincerely regrets it, and he has indeed proved it with his actions. “

So, even though you are guilty, you can correct your mistakes, and I can refuse to accept them.” “But for the others, although your pleas are sincere, I can forgive you, but those who are caught by you. I ‘m afraid the woman who left won’t be able to forgive.”

After he finished speaking, he glanced coldly at everyone, and abruptly frightened the crowd to the point of sweating and pale.

This guy’s gaze is like the hope of death.

However, at this moment, a few people glanced at each other in private, and the next second, they got up collectively and ran towards George Han.

When Angelica raised his eyes to look at these people, he was completely out of breath...

Chapter 4415

These guys are nothing else, it is a group of executives in this day’s magic castle.

I can't say how many secrets these guys know, but these guys basically have everything from the highest level to the lowest level.

It's a system of its own.

"You...you!"

Seeing this, Angelica barely held his breath, shouted in a hurry, and his anger suddenly attacked his heart, almost making him breathless.

"City lord, the so-called birds die for food and people die for wealth, we don't want to."

"Yes, we have followed you for many years, and we have been filial to many dogs and horses, but now you can't keep us safe, so we only I can find a way to keep myself safe."

Although several people said sorry and showed , they were actually greeting the ancestors of the Angelica family in their hearts.

There is no other reason, he will stop them from courting George Han.

If they didn't want to leave a bad impression on him, they would have kicked the angelica away directly.

"Grandpa, no no no, ancestors, we have always admired your reputation, but you also know that many times this person can't help himself in the arena."

"From the time we knew that you came to us, we wanted to give up the dark and go to the light. Yes, it's just that there hasn't been any good opportunity."

"Yeah, now Angelica, this dog thief, has finally subverted the law. I waited, and finally, a good opportunity came."

Hearing the "heartfelt words" of this group of people, George Han couldn't help but want to laugh.

He doesn't know how strong this group of people is, but if they just talk about their skills, they will definitely be second, and no one will dare to say first.

"I don't want to talk nonsense. If you like it, just take it out."

"The small patrol team, understands the direction and deployment of the patrol force. Lord, you are not in a hurry, I mean, although I don't quite know where those women are locked up, as long as you check the deployment of the patrol unit, you will definitely be able to find out some clues, please give me a chance to serve you." One person bowed his head and said sincerely. .

George Han nodded in satisfaction.

What he said did make sense.

"Okay, you can save yourself from death."

"Master, this subordinate is the Ministry of Industry. Although I don't know where the woman is locked up, or how the patrolling guards are deployed, in this big Heavenly Demon Castle, no matter whether it is a All kinds of locks, or mechanisms, are made by the Ministry of Industry, if you are interested, I can send all kinds of elites to help you, and when the time comes, the lock will be opened, and the mechanism will be broken.”

Someone saw that the first one was successful. , which is naturally equivalent to really seeing hope right in front of his eyes, and hurriedly promoting himself.

George Han still nodded: “Okay, avoid death.”

Two people in succession were saved from death, and the people behind were even more crazy.

You push and squeeze each other, for fear that if you are so late for half a second, you may not get this opportunity.

“Master, I’m from the food department. This person wants to eat. I can check the relevant records to see where the daily food supply is different, and I can also set the specific location. If I cooperate with the work department and the patrol department, wouldn’t it? It’s as easy as the palm of your hand?”

“Master, I... I’m from the Department of Construction, and I can figure out how to go about many secret passages. Bring me, I’ll be your living map.”

A group of people shouted desperately, for fear of missing something.

George Han waved his hand: “Okay, okay, I heard it.”

“You can save yourself from death, by the way, what are you doing?”

His eyes were directly on the last person.

He has been paying attention to this person for a long time. From the beginning to the end, he seems to be very positive, but every time he speaks, he hesitates. Until now everyone has finished speaking, but he still blushed and didn’t say why.

Angelica is extremely angry. Seeing these high-level executives betray themselves in such a high-sounding manner, they can’t be angry for a long time.

Seizing this opportunity, Angelica sneered: “He, he is from the Ministry of Rites.”

“It’s useless, but it’s not useless. After all, if you’re tired from walking, he can arrange a few servants to give it to you. You squeeze your feet, rub your legs or something.”

At this point, Angelica herself couldn’t help laughing.

You son of a b!tch, I fu**ing made you run fast.

George Han frowned slightly, and in the next second, he said, “You can avoid death!”

Chapter 4416

Angelica, who was still laughing sarcastically, turned cold on the spot.

He could hardly believe his ears, pointed at George Han and asked loudly, "Are you fu**ing crazy? A person from the Ministry of Rites, how can he help you?"

"Again, are you fu**ing targeting me on purpose?"

"If that's the case, then George Han, I really despise you too much." Han George Han was not angry, and looked at Angelica gently: "What?"

Young girl, but in fact, it seems that they are just looking for some reasons and excuses, just to pity those women."

"I thought I met some saint, but it turned out to be nothing more than that."

"The truth is, you, Just pretending to deceive the common people, your real purpose is not to kick me out of the position, bah!" Angelica cursed angrily. George Han smiled lightly . Angelica understands this, in fact, there is his reason, but George Han has to laugh at this guy's stupidity. Are people from the Ministry of Rites useful? Honestly, it really doesn't work. But strategically, he is useful. Everything he did, in fact, had a deeper purpose, not just to save people. This aspect needs to be taken care of, but also the overall situation. He has to let everyone here know that as long as they are willing to change, they have a chance to live.

Rabbits will bite people when they are in a hurry, not to mention that these gangs are originally vicious people?!

His goal is always to save people, so other things are not so important before saving people.

"Even if you're right, so what?" George Han laughed.

Angelica was in a hurry, but had nothing to say.

After thinking about it for a long time, when he was about to speak, someone from the group of rebels blocked his mouth first.

"Shut up, what's the use of talking about useless things?"

"Even if he is really what you said, so what? For us, it's almost the same who is the city owner. After all, for us , is just to work for another person again."

"Yes, Angelica, you have passed, shut up."

Angelica was stunned, these guys, now that they have defected, they really don't even have a chance to speak. Give it to him.

"fu**!"

George Han sneered softly, then looked at the crowd.

The right hand is slightly raised.

"Everyone, the number of places is relatively limited, and you need to surrender quickly." As soon as the words fell, everyone in the hall looked at me, I looked at you, and was a little dumbfounded for a while.

Angelica let out a sigh of relief. After all, he was still his subordinate. Although there were indeed some traitors in it, they were also individual, and most of them were still on his side.

Thinking of this, Angelica felt a lot better.

But sometimes, the idea is beautiful, but the reality is cruel.

In less than a moment, the group of people suddenly moved, and then they rushed towards George Han like a tide.

Everyone pushes me, like a hyena that hasn't eaten for a long time, and suddenly sees food, or like an aunt who catches up with a discount day, and they go crazy with each other.

Angelica's smile completely solidified.

What the fu** is going on here? !

Why is this happening? !

How did he know that the group of people did not move just now, but the reason for not moving was because he did not think that they would have the same chance to survive.

Moreover, there are so many reasons for the Ministry of Rites to contribute, so what else do they have to worry about? !

Some of them just said they were in office, even if some were just military attachés and didn't have much real power.

What can give you a fan, and even I can carry your shoes.

Anyway, everyone has an idea, no matter what reason or excuse, as long as they think of it, they can say it.

Everyone has an idea, as long as they are not embarrassed, it is others who are embarrassed.

Life is important, other than that, nothing else matters.

The whole scene was noisy, George Han saw that the situation was almost the same, raised his right hand again, and the audience was quiet again.

"If you are willing to help me, you can be forgiven, and you don't have to say it."

"However, I don't know if you are sincere. Well, if one spit at Angelica, I will believe your surrender."

" Ah?"

Angelica was stunned for a moment, and when he looked up, he saw countless mouths, pouting, and then *****...

Chapter 4417

As the city owner, he naturally said that no one dared to refute it, but at this moment, this move was obviously useless.

“Bah!”

“Bah!”

“Bah!” The

saliva keeps hitting the angelica like bullets. If it's human, it's okay, but the metabolism of these demons is far stronger than that of humans, and their genes are also different from humans. The saliva from the mouth is the same as someone who drank too much spit it out.

Not only is the portion full, but it is also disgusting.

Coupled with the large number of people, in just a moment, Angelica's face was covered with all kinds of saliva.

It's not so much saliva, but it actually looks far more disgusting than some excrement.

But it's not over yet, more and more people are getting involved.

You sip, I sip, and after just a moment, Angelica is not limited to drooling.

This guy is more like sitting in a garbage heap, completely buried by the garbage, with only one head exposed.

It's just that these saliva are obviously more disgusting than garbage.

“Bastard, bastard!”

Angelica was furious. Since childhood, when has he been insulted like this?

However, no one was afraid of him.

Only endless contempt.

“You bad guy, you have the nerve to bark here? How many people died because of you in the Demon Castle? How many people lost their lives because of you.

” It's already a gift from God.”

“We motherfu**ers have long disliked you, but we've been bullied by you for a long time. There's nothing we can do about it.” “

Yeah, we don't accept you at all.”

Just now, I had the cheek to ask us praise him, oh, you don't know, I can be as disgusting as I was just now.”

Angelica's face turned red and blue, and the most terrible thing in life is that she was still complimenting just now. Your people will trample on you in the next second.

What you think is always what you think.

"Tie him up." George Han drank coldly.

In the next second, George Han didn't need to ask anyone to go by name, and a large group of people obediently tied up Angelica.

Angelica refused to accept, but there is no other possibility of resistance.

"You traitors, you can betray as much as you like now, but wait for your revenge in the future."

No one paid any attention to what he said. Although they all knew that they were very likely to be retaliated against, they also knew that they actually had no other choose.

Under the order of George Han, a group of people immediately began to act.

Start looking for possible locations of dungeons.

On this point, I have to say that Angelica is very clever. From the beginning to the end, this guy has told the story of his ancestors, but he should not mention the dungeon where the prisoners are held.

Amelia Su took a few steps to George Han's side, and shook her head in disappointment.

Although she had stayed there before, it was completely dark all around, and she could hardly tell the direction herself, nor could she describe any suspected situation.

"Have you seen the soldiers who brought you out?" George Han asked.

Amelia Su shook her head: "I didn't cover my eyes when I came out of the dungeon, but because I stayed in the dark for a long time, I couldn't open my eyes because of the strong light when I came out."

"When I get used to it completely . Afterwards, they are almost here. So, I don't have time to see what the soldier with me looks like."

Looking at Amelia Su with a guilty , George Han patted her on the shoulder in comfort.

In that case, don't say she is a woman, even George Han, a big man, may not be so quick to not panic at all, and plan ahead.

"Otherwise, let someone look for them. Although there are many soldiers, just grab them and question them." Amelia Su suggested.

George Han shook his head: "In such a secret place, the soldiers should be extremely secret. After they send you out, they should go back soon."

"Or, even if they didn't leave, as Angelica's cronies, The dead man is unlikely to betray Angelica."

“The three thousand, what should we do?! Is there no way?”

“Though it is possible to find them with these people, God knows if they will deliberately delay us or even mislead us. .”

George Han smiled: “You don’t have to be so desperate, I have a solution.”

Chapter 4418

“What method?”

George Han looked at Amelia Su and said, “This method needs to rely on you.”

“Rely on me?!”

“Although you couldn’t see the scene after you came out due to the light and other reasons, we can use your feeling to find out.”

“How long have you walked?!”

“Can you remember how many steps you took?!”

” Has there been a situation like turning in the middle!” A series of questions seemed to make it difficult to answer.

But if you think about it carefully, it’s actually not that difficult.

It is true that people cannot see clearly in that situation, but people do not only have eyes.

No matter how blind the blind man can see, he can still barely survive with his outstanding memory, sensitive ears, and sensing ability.

As the old saying goes, when God closes a door for you, it must open a window for you.

“We only need to use your data and cooperate with the Ministry of Industry and Humanity Maps and other assistance, then basically it depends on you to reduce the scope a lot in an instant.”

“Even if those people are fishing in troubled waters, I believe that we will not be able to find the dungeon. How long.”

Hearing this, Amelia Su couldn’t help being very excited, this is indeed an excellent method.

Push back!

Without saying a word, Amelia Su closed her eyes on the spot and tried her best to recall the past.

But it happened suddenly, and now it is obviously extremely difficult for her to recall the situation at that time.

Amelia Su tried so hard to think about it that her head hurt, but the details she recalled were really few and far between.

"If you can't remember, it's okay, don't put pressure on yourself." George Han comforted Amelia Su in distress.

"However, these things are very important to us now, I think... I want to try my best to think of everything."

George Han patted her shoulder: "It doesn't matter, the dungeon is in the Demon Castle anyway, it's a big deal for us. Invite people from the whole city to come to find them."

After speaking, George Han hurriedly came to the two people who were following him.

"When I called you here, I asked Scar, you should be the most familiar with the road in Tianmo Castle, right?!" The two nodded: "Master Han, the two of us, one used to be a businessman, and the other used to be a businessman. I don't dare to say how familiar I am, but at least I know it well."

George Han further said, "Based on your experience, where is this dungeon most likely to be?"

"This..."

The two of you look at me and I look at you, obviously, they dare not speak ill.

"Don't worry about making a mistake, just say it boldly."

He originally wanted them to give him some ideas, so right or wrong doesn't matter.

"Okay, since that's the case, let's talk about it." With a move in George Han's hand, black air instantly appeared in front of George Han.

"You guys start, first help me draw a general map of the whole process."

Hearing George Han say this, Angelica, who had not spoken for a long time, immediately threatened loudly: "You dare!"

George Han laughed coldly and threw his other hand in the air.

"Crack!" The

invisible air slapped Angelica's face fiercely in an instant, making this guy almost faint on the spot.

The two looked at each other and nodded heavily.

In fact, if they were willing to follow George Han to come here, they had already saved their life and death, and they did not pose any threat at all.

At that moment, the two waved their hands, and they quickly reached out the 3D map of the entire Tianmo Castle in the black air.

“Our location should be here.” The trader said softly.

The watcher also said in time: “Our area is actually a forbidden area.”

“So, the location of the Tianjing should be in this area? At least, it is a great possibility!” George Han said.

The next second, he looked up at the executives: “I don’t care what method you use, I want to get the dungeon location you gave me within half of the disappearance.”

“Understand?”

Everyone responded in unison, and the team also started quickly...

Chapter 4419

The entire Tianmo Castle is completely lively, the lights are bright, and many people have begun to cooperate closely.

Even if there are people here who want to grind foreign workers, after George Han has specified certain directions, the probability is still not high.

George Han ordered people to tie up Angelica, and then listened to their reports and revised the map.

The trader was arranged by George Han to go back, and George Han asked him to inform the people in the city.

The common people seem to be the most useless in function, but in fact they can always play a different role at critical moments.

The people in the city were taken away from their families, and Angelica can suppress them, which really made Tianmo Castle miserable.

However, when he turned his head and did so, he was destined to plant a ticking time bomb for Tianmo Castle.

Right now, George Han wants to completely ignite and detonate the bomb.

Sure enough, it didn’t take long for more and more people to start sending news, helping George Han to eliminate more suspects.

In half an hour, basically, only the two biggest doubts were left.

One is right here and in the center of the city lord’s mansion, where the tone of both soldiers and commoners can basically reach a consensus.

It has been a no-man’s land for a long time, and no one has been allowed to approach it.

Even if some people enter by mistake, they often disappear.

Another suspicious point is that, under the current focus of the investigation, this unmanned area has appeared strangely unattended.

George Han believes that this situation is likely to be caused by a lot of people guarding the place. However, with Angelica lying at the desk, those personal guards noticed that something was wrong, and immediately retreated and even closed the area from the inside.

It's like a no-man's land.

Another point was put forward by the Ministry of Industry and some people who had participated in the construction.

Few people participated in the construction, and some people said that most of them had already died inside. As for the cause of death, no one knows, but some people said that they died of exhaustion, and some people said that they did not come out at all.

They can come out alive, in fact, it is already due to luck, at least many of them are lucky to escape.

The drawings given by the Ministry of Industry can also illustrate some problems.

Because that's where so many workers died, the Ministry of Work didn't show anything.

Even, the drawing directly indicates that there is a blank area.

There are only two possibilities for blank areas in the Ministry of Industry.

Either, it has not been developed, or it is solid after development, that is to say, there is a building there and it is definitely solid.

George Han is not incomprehensible about this point.

After all there are solid buildings in a place, some need to bear weight, and some need to be used for other purposes.

But the problem is precisely here, the solid building needs to be watered, and watering is just a normal process without any sacrifice.

With many doubts, George Han had to designate this area as a central survey area.

But to be honest, George Han felt that something was not quite right.

"Three thousand, do you think it's too easy?" Amelia Su asked.

George Han nodded and glanced at Angelica beside him.

"Too easy is indeed one aspect, but have you noticed Angelica's expression?!"

Amelia Su hurriedly looked back after hearing what George Han said.

Angelica had obvious anxiety on her face, and she seemed anxious about it.

But if you look closely, you will find that this guy's eyes are not so anxious.

So, it's very likely that this guy is really just pretending.

“Three thousand, do you mean that these two are very likely to be blindfolded?” Amelia Su said.

George Han nodded: “This possibility is not only possible but also extremely large.”

“Usually, is it really that simple to set up a place to detain so many important crimes? I mean, don’t they, they Haven’t thought that the Demon Castle will be destroyed one day?”

“Don’t they have a big formation? You said that the big formation is difficult to be cracked, so...” Amelia Su said.

George Han shook his head: “No, no, no, that’s not the case.”

“I know what Amelia Su means, but this matter should not be understood this way.”

Amelia Su frowned: “George Han, this is What’s not to understand? I don’t quite understand what you’re talking about.”

Chapter 4420

“Amelia Su, have you ever thought about it, if you are their superior, do you only have the base of Tianmobao?!”

Amelia Su After thinking about it, it’s not very likely. Moreover, she and George Han had seen similar cases of girls being kidnapped when they were in the Central Plains.

“That’s right. Isn’t that Zhang surnamed person from before, who is very powerful in the city? In the end, we even took over the old nest.”

Amelia Su nodded, which is indeed true.

“The problem lies here. If the design of such a big thing is not ingenious, then how can it be brought to us only once?!”

“We have the ability to lie, but are other people really complete waste? ?”

Faced with this question, Amelia Su somewhat understood.

“You mean, since we found out about these things, let them start throwing the rat.”

George Han nodded:

“Actually, it’s to guard against us, or they can gradually consolidate the defense later, this matter is the last. As a result, it will be airtight from now on.”

“So...”

Amelia Su understood, which also meant that the defenses everywhere should be stretched to the extreme.

This means that George Han’s speculation just now is most likely correct.

“It’s just that this matter is more important. I’m afraid that everyone has been searching for so long, but in the end we just dismissed it, which will ruin everyone’s mood.”

These will be just to save lives, just work, once let them know that they do is useless, so what would they think?

I'm afraid, they will think that George Han is deliberately playing tricks on them, but in fact, he doesn't want to let them die at all.

Once they have other ideas, the situation of George Han and Amelia Su is no longer as simple as whether they can control them.

More importantly, this group of people may mutiny at any time.

That was not what George Han wanted to see.

And what about the people?

They want more revenge, want to save people, if they also know that they are useless, I am afraid that their hearts will be broken.

"So what do you think?"

George Han didn't speak and looked at Angelica, who was standing aside.

"Only find a substitute. When there are emotions to vent, the emotions of the masses will be released."

Looking at George Han's expression, Amelia Su instantly understood.

Immediately after this, when Angelica was stunned, George Han suddenly pretended to act.

"What? Angelica? You have something to tell me, right?"

"Ah? Do you want to tell me the location of the dungeon?"

Want to grab a job? Give you a way to live, not to them?"

Angelica people are all numb, I have been tied up by you, and the whole person has not come out of the depression at all, when did they talk?

What else did I tell you about the location of the dungeon?

Isn't this so nonsense?!

"Ah? You want me to keep it a secret, shit, tell me earlier, I... I'll keep it a secret now."

After speaking, under their extremely depressed situation of Angelica, George Han really put his ear close, and then clicked Looking at his head, it seems like something special.

Many people heard these conversations, and they looked over and saw this scene even more from their hearts.

In the past, Angelica was the lord of the city, and it was enough to squeeze and exploit them, but the question is what the fu** are you doing now? Dare to come out to grab business at this time?

At the moment, a group of people quits. If George Han hadn't been there, I'm afraid they would have rushed up and smashed this guy into tens of thousands of pieces.

However, there are also rational people who know that it is useless to be angry. At the moment, the best way is to be honest and work obediently.

If you find the dungeon first, you will get the opportunity first.

Thinking of this, many people didn't need George Han's instructions, so they got up and ran to the front of the stage, and then carefully analyzed Shatu, which was transformed by black energy.

After that, Pidianpidian rushed toward the two key areas.

Seeing that there were not many left in the crowd, Amelia Su smiled lightly: "Okay, stop acting, most of them went to those two places by themselves."

George Han then retracted his body.

"What are your plans? I believe that you don't just want to find a scapegoat, do you?"

Looking at Amelia Su, George Han knew that these things could not be hidden from her.

"Yes, go somewhere with me!"
