

HTC 4421

Chapter 4421

. Before waiting for Amelia Su's response, George Han was already pulling her quickly toward the direction of the previous golden palace. go.

It was still there as if nothing had changed.

However, when you look closely, you always feel that something is not right.

"Why are you here? Are you looking for the old way?" Amelia Su frowned and said, "However, it seems that there is no one anymore.

"At that time, when we were attacked by the six golden walls, I sent you out from below. So, I was wondering..."

"You are wondering, is it possible that this dungeon is under this golden castle?"

George Han nodded but soon shook his head again.

In theory, this is true, but it should not be so simple.

"According to your previous description, the place where you are imprisoned is more like a space."

"I was thinking that the people who are connected to us in this well-rounded place suddenly entered the illusion, so is it possible that there is still an array in it? Formation?"

Formation in formation?

Although it sounds absurd, considering all the circumstances, it seems that it is really the most likely.

Thinking of this, Amelia Su looked around and seemed to be looking for something wrong.

She tried hard to recall all the details, trying to reconstruct the scene at that time to see if she could find any clues.

Suddenly, a light flashed in her mind.

"Three thousand, I think... I seem to have found something."

Hearing this, George Han turned his head and said, "You said."

"I remember that after I came out of the six golden walls, I instantly entered a dark space. The space should be huge, and all the people They are in a similar energy circle, and then constantly float in space."

"We are like a star, floating in the vast universe, aimlessly, but in the vastness."

Hearing these words, George Han did not make a sound, and quietly organized all her words in his mind.

"The vast universe?"

Although this golden palace is incomparably huge, it has always had nothing to do with its vastness.

Moreover, Amelia Su also used an extremely critical description word, floating!

What is floating?!

Falling from a distance of just a few hundred meters upstairs, it is obviously not necessary to float, at most it is a fall.

Drift should be the kind of word that can only be used after floating in the air for a long time.

Therefore, this place seems to be more able to confirm one thing, that is, George Han's guess is very likely to be correct, and there is still room for it.

"I'm afraid you can't find it if you just look for it." George Han said, "I have the easiest and most direct method."

Amelia Su was stunned for a moment: "You mean..."

"Reorganize the scene."

Amelia Su Obviously surprised: "You mean, you want to reopen the six golden walls?"

"But...isn't that very dangerous?"

George Han nodded: "It is indeed dangerous, but the formation is now in my It's in control. So... it's not too dangerous."

"But the question is, what should I do if I don't know the exit? Isn't that the same as putting myself in a pit?" Amelia Su worried.

If anything happens to George Han at that time.

Then Angelica is very likely to make a comeback.

Don't count on that group of traitors, they are nothing but grass on the wall.

Amelia Su was not worried about her own safety but worried that once Angelica gained power, the people of the whole city would be wiped out.

"Otherwise,

I'll go. Anyway, I've been there. If anything happens outside, you can stabilize the situation." Amelia Su said.

George Han was a little hesitant. Rationally, Amelia Su was of course the most suitable candidate. But emotionally speaking, if you are a husband, how can you let your wife take risks?

Just when George Han hesitated, Amelia Su had already made up her mind: "I know you are very responsible, but... at this time, you should take care of the overall situation."

"Also, if you control the formation well, it is better protection. Me?"

George Han was a little embarrassed, he was only controlling the formation, and he had never used this kind of refinement.

The little black stick has been used on the big formation and cannot help Amelia Su at all. Once any accident happens, Amelia Su may disappear completely from this world.

“I’m going!”

George Han said coldly.

“What?”

Chapter 4422

Amelia Su could hardly believe her ears, she looked at George Han in disbelief.

“You’re going?”

He went, which means that no one controls the formation, which means that he needs to experience the previous danger again.

how can that be? !

The last time George Han was able to escape from it, it was because of the help of the little black stick. But this time...

“I don’t agree.”

“If you don’t agree, you have to agree. I’m your man. Naturally, everything will be arranged by me.”

After that, George Han made a move on the spot, and he was about to do it.

“Nonsense!” Amelia Su held George Han’s hand down, and her pretty face was full of anger.

“You are a typical macho. Obviously, I have much more chances to get in, and it is much safer. You have to go in by yourself!”

George Han smiled and touched .

“You are the most important person in my life, how could I watch you take risks. I said that even if George Han loses his life, I will definitely protect you.”

“And, what about your man? Although it is indeed a big man, he is not a brainless brave man.”

“I went in, and it was not a moment of loyalty.”

“You go in, the formation is not controlled, is it a moment of loyalty?” Amelia Su said angrily.

“My consciousness and Xiao Hei’s consciousness are the same, so if I go in, I may not be able to control the formation, do you understand?”

“Really?” Amelia Su asked suspiciously.

George Han didn't talk nonsense. After a little thought in his mind, the whole earth trembled slightly. Amelia Su was startled, and just as he was about to leave, the trembling of the whole earth suddenly stopped.

Seeing Han

George Han's wicked smile, Amelia Su frowned: "George Han, are you doing the trick just now?"

George Han nodded lightly: "The little black stick is very strange, what do I think, it can always sense it very quickly. Arrived. So..." The only worry is that George Han is afraid that when he enters the six walls, he will lose contact with the little black stick due to special circumstances and other reasons.

Once this happens, if there is no little black stick to help in the crisis in the six walls, then the danger will be extremely deadly.

However, obviously, Amelia Su didn't know this.

She simply thought that since George Han could be controlled by his mind, then he could naturally enter the six walls and continue to control.

"Okay, then you can go, but I want to be with you too." Amelia Su said.

"No."

"Why not? George Han, you have to be clear. I asked you to go with me, not you. Anyway, you either agree or you don't go." After speaking, Amelia Su turned her head aside.

Completely non-negotiable.

Thinking that if something happened in the formation, it would not be safe to leave her alone outside, George Han finally chose to compromise.

"Okay, let's go in together." When the words fell, George Han moved slightly, and with a thought, let the little black stick start to urge the formation.

But after trying several times, the little black stick was activated, but how the golden bricks turned into six walls, George Han failed several times.

He had absolutely no idea what the formation was about to open the golden bricks, and the only thing he could do was to constantly find similar formulas from the formation formulas of Angelica.

After about a dozen trials, I don't know if it's luck or what, in short, the blind cat has encountered a dead mouse.

Everything in front of him suddenly turned into an illusion, and the next second, the palace disappeared, and the six walls slowly stood up, and gradually surrounded the two.

It's still a familiar formula, but what's different is that this time, George Han, without the help of the little black stick, has more inexplicable self-confidence.

"Amelia Su, how are you doing?"

Amelia Su nodded heavily: "This time, let's rush out together."

George Han didn't say anything more.

But what surprised him was that the connection between the little black stick and himself seemed to be interrupted...

Chapter 4423

Fu, isn't it? !

What are you afraid of?

George Han was so depressed. The biggest variable coming in this time was the connection with the little black stick.

However, in order not to worry Amelia Su, George Han chose to hide the news.

"What's the matter?"

But Amelia Su knew so much about George Han that he could almost know what he wanted to fart as soon as he pouted.

George Han shook his head and said stubbornly, "It's fine."

"Did you find that the connection with the little black stick was cut off after you came in?" As expected of his wife, he could guess it thoroughly.

She said it all, and George Han also knew very well that it was almost impossible to hide it.

Therefore, he could only nod his head stiffly: "You are so smart, you deserve to be my wife."

Amelia Su rolled her eyes: "Your eyebrows are on fire, you are still in the mood joke. What do you do now??"

"To be honest, With you by my side, I'm really not afraid of death, but... if we die like this, it would be too useless for the two of us, right?"

"It's a shame to say that, the two husband and wife were caught by their own formations."

Amelia Su was a little dumbfounded, but her mentality was still relatively optimistic.

This is due to George Han's immersion and the strong sense of security brought by his presence.

After Amelia Su said this, George Han felt a lot more relaxed, and then he strengthened his mind and continued to try to get in touch with the little black stick.

He was the best answer when they were trapped. Without him, the couple would almost be in a desperate situation. A Pangu axe alone is not enough.

“You use the Pangu axe to support both sides first. In this case, the contraction speed of the two sides will suddenly slow down, and during this process, it will definitely be able to open a little gap with the other four walls.”

“I’m thinking, will it be? It may be because the six walls are too tightly sealed, so the space is too airtight.”

“Think about it, when we were at home, sometimes the walls were too thick and the door was closed, the WIFI signal was equivalent to disappearing. , is it also possible now?”

Hearing Amelia Su’s words, George Han frowned.

Although her analogy is not very good, it basically conforms to the principle structure of the whole thing.

Arrays, or illusions, in fact, as a whole, they should all appear in this golden palace.

So naturally, their real location should also be very close to the Golden City.

In such a close environment, in theory, it should not be a big problem to sense the little black stick.

The only reasonable explanation for the current situation is actually what Amelia Su reminded.

The six walls are too dead.

So that nothing can get in and nothing can get out.

Thinking of this, George Han couldn’t help but praise Amelia Su: “Wife, you are not only the most beautiful woman in the world, but also the smartest woman in the world.

” It’s still far away, you should try it first, at least, if there is any accident, we will have time to make other remedies.”

Han 3000 nodded, not talking nonsense at the moment, the Pangu axe was directly drawn, and he put it in front of him, and immediately pressed the left and right walls directly.

After that, George Han stared at the other four walls.

“Opportunity!”

Amelia Su also reminded in time.

When the left and right walls were held up by the Pangu axe, its speed was obviously slowed down, while the front and rear and upper and lower walls were not hindered.

This also means that there will be delays on six walls.

Although this delay is very short, it is enough for George Han!

Thinking of this, George Han Divine Sense Cui Dong reached the extreme.

Amelia Su looked at George Han closely, and didn't dare to let out the air, for fear that she would accidentally disturb George Han.

Suddenly, at this moment, George Han's eyes suddenly lit up, and his face was full of excitement: "Amelia Su, I seem to be able to sense the little black stick."

"Really?" Amelia Su also clearly A joy.

George Han didn't have time to answer. At this time, the power of urging everything with his full concentration made his consciousness infinitely enhanced.

"Little black stick, break the formation for me!"

With a roar, George Han immediately started to act!

Immediately afterward, the six walls began to shake slowly.

Two couples, you look at me, I look at you, and wait quietly...

Chapter 4424

"Boom!"

Suddenly, after the wall below shook, it stopped again, and then completely fell.

George Han grabbed Amelia Su in one hand, and with a slight movement of his true energy under his feet, he could barely slow down the speed of the two of them falling.

After that, the two slowly fell from the bottom, almost the same as Amelia Su last time, a darkest space appeared in front of them.

"Three thousand, it's here."

Amelia Su hurriedly exclaimed.

George Han frowned, smelled it softly, and immediately shook his head: "It really isn't quite right here." In the next second, he waved his hand.

A burst of energy flashed in front of the two of them.

With the energy mask, Amelia Su instantly felt that her breathing was much easier.

"This place is not a place, but a space." George Han said.

"Space?"

George Han nodded.

Exactly the space!

Moreover, it is similar to the kind of space in the storage ring .

“Why do you think so?” Amelia Su wondered.

“I smelled it just now, and there is hardly any air in it.”

If there is no oxygen, it can be explained by the fact that there are many people detained here, so lack of oxygen is a normal thing, then there is one point that he can't make sense.

carbon dioxide!

When people breathe in oxygen, they naturally exhale carbon dioxide.

According to Amelia Su, she had seen many people locked up here before.

So, where does the carbon dioxide exhaled by so many people go?

None of them are masters of Taoism, and naturally they need to breathe normally.

So, this is weird.

“The energy shields you saw at the beginning should be a kind of protective shields that these people gave them in advance.”

“The purpose is not only to divide them into grid-like things and arrange them here, but also to give them something that can keep their breath

Thinking of this, George Han sighed: “I think the two waves of people outside are likely to be disappointed.” If George Han's guess is correct, then this body similar to the storage space should not be. It would be too big, and in this case, trying to find its existence in Nuoda's Heavenly Demon Castle is equivalent to finding a needle.

“Let's save people first.” Amelia Su said.

George Han nodded, the energy in his hand moved, and for a while, there seemed to be no movement around, but in fact, the wind was surging, and the undercurrent was moving.

With the terrifying power of George Han, it is no problem to motivate these.

It didn't take long for many spheres to be seen flying towards this side in the darkness.

However, almost the same as what Amelia Su saw last time, the people in each sphere are almost dull, even if George Han and Amelia Su are by their side, they don't seem to see it.

Amelia Su didn't believe in evil and even reached out and shook it in front of their energy shields, but they still didn't respond.

“George Han, how could this be?”

George Han did not answer immediately, but observed carefully.

On the surface, these people don't seem to be dead. Although they have no gods in their eyes, there is light!

The eyes of the dead are dim.

As he reached out, a trace of energy was gently penetrated into the barrier by George Han.

As the energy slowly wrapped the barrier, George Han seemed to understand something.

"Inside, it should be extremely ice." George Han said.

These people were instantly frozen by someone with something extremely low, as if there was also a kind of liquid nitrogen in the earth.

They can freeze objects in an instant, and the things inside these energy shields are obviously cooler and more terrifying than liquid nitrogen.

These bastards are nothing. It means that they freeze these women like frozen goods, take them out when they need it, and when they don't need it..."

Yes, there is still a bowl of prison for the prisoner. meal.

And these people...

George Han shook his head, they were simply inferior to pigs and dogs.

"Amelia Su, get out of the way, I'll break these barriers."

There are too many people, and if they break their energy shields at the same time, the temperature here will instantly plunge into extreme cold.

George Han was afraid of hurting Amelia Su.

After Amelia Su walked away with the energy shield, George Han moved his hand, and the sky fire was instantly sacrificed in his hand.

Flip sideways!

Bang bang bang! ! !

Just like someone swept a row of beer bottles, with the sound of shattering, all those energy shields were cracked under the black gas.

And in the entire dark space, the temperature suddenly dropped to a terrifying freezing point...

Chapter 4425

Even with the protection of the energy shield, Amelia Su felt the chilling pain in an instant.

The energy that originally had nothing to attract investment was also covered with bursts of ice in an instant.

Amelia Su looked at George Han worriedly, and suddenly saw that George Han was already like an ice sculpture.

Amelia Su was in a hurry.

But just as he was about to leave, he heard the sound of ice cubes breaking from the ice sculpture.

Immediately afterwards, the ice cubes on George Han's body were completely shattered, and George Han shook his body slightly, shaking off all the ice slag on his body.

Seeing that he was fine, Amelia Su breathed a sigh of relief.

But soon, she was stunned again.

Because although all the enchantments were broken and the extremely low temperature was released instantly, the people inside did not gradually wake up as they imagined, and they hardly changed much from before.

"George Han, why is this happening?"

George Han glanced at him, not in a hurry: "Those people took them away, there should be a special way to thaw them, I belong to the demolition of huge profits. So..."

"Then what to do, Will they be in danger?"

Amelia Su didn't understand that thawing the freeze rashly could cause people to die unexpectedly at any time.

"I know, so I'm not completely reckless."

If George Han was simply crushing ice, he would not use Heavenly Fire, but an enhanced version of Burning Silent and Heavenly Fire.

He just wanted to stabilize the thawing process so that they could slowly adapt to the temperature changes.

At the same time, for safety's sake, George Han has always given them all a layer of infuriating protection.

However, it was so dark here that Amelia Su couldn't see them at all.

"If there is no accident, they should wake up soon.

Amelia Su, I think the person they met for the first time is you, and it will be much better than me."

These women have been detained here for a long time, and they have experienced it before. What scary nobody knows.

If a strange man suddenly stood in front of them, it would definitely stimulate their nerves.

Their mood swings would be great too.

Amelia Su is a woman, and the situation should be much better.

Amelia Su nodded, grateful to George Han for these women, this is what a gentleman should do.

Amelia Su stood in front of these women, while George Han retreated a lot.

About ten minutes later, the last layer of frost that was almost indistinguishable to the naked eye completely melted on these women, and the infuriating energy that George Han gave them to protect them also came into play at this time.

They slowly penetrated into the skin of these women, and then let their bodies gradually adjust to the current temperature.

Soon, many women had come to their senses, without the slightest joy or excitement, they just looked around helplessly.

There was fear in his eyes, but more numbness.

“Everyone!” Amelia Su said softly.

This sound was actually very gentle, but it just frightened a group of women to the point of trembling, looking at Amelia Su with terrified faces, and many people couldn’t help but step back.

However, as soon as he stepped back, he found that his body was empty, and he panicked even more.

The team that used to be good suddenly became so chaotic.

“Sisters, don’t be afraid, you can’t fall down here. And I’m not a bad person, I’m here to save you.”

In one sentence, the first half did not stabilize the situation, but the second half directly caused the situation Steady at once.

save!

“You...are you here to save us?”

“You are the fairy sister, right? You are so beautiful, you must be.”

“Are you really not lying to us? Are you really here to save us?”

“Too Okay, great, we are finally saved.” A group of people burst into tears with joy.

Amelia Su smiled softly at everyone: “Don’t worry, sisters, we are really here to save you, my name is Amelia Su, and I’m not an immortal.” When the words were finished, she turned around: “He is George Han and my husband, We’re here to save you all together.”

In this way, the women didn’t panic when they saw George Han, and many women nodded slightly at him, thankful.

There were also some women who saw George Han’s handsome appearance and couldn’t help flashing admiration in their minds.

At this time, George Han suddenly moved...

Chapter 4426

Accompanied by his volley, his hands can really be like rain in the sky, swaying and falling.

But these things did not fall on the girls, but above their heads, gradually rising and solidifying into a halo similar to the atmosphere.

Under this aperture, the oxygen is sufficient and the temperature is suitable, and everyone waiting is like bathing in the sunshine and spring breeze.

“You soothe their emotions, these energy shields can last for about half an hour, I’ll find an exit.” George Han landed and whispered in Amelia Su’s ear.

Amelia Su nodded.

Immediately afterwards, George Han left.

At his speed, in just a few minutes, he has already flown out an unknown distance.

However, after another few minutes, George Han stopped.

He has basically flown in a big circle, but unfortunately, the surroundings are almost the same, and it doesn’t seem like there is an exit.

George Han tried to contact the little black stick, but after entering this dark space, their contact with each other was completely cut off.

This is because this is a space completely isolated from the real world.

Some are similar to storage rings, but different.

If you have to find an accurate word, I am afraid it is the combination of the storage ring and the number of days in the Eight Desolations.

It is not as advanced as the Eight Desolate World, but it is far stronger than the storage space of the storage ring.

Wanting to get out of here, George Han has no clue.

“Dragon, is there any better way? You won’t be eaten by that monster, will you?”

In embarrassment, George Han thought of the magic dragon.

After all, that guy is also a devil, and he is obviously more adaptable than himself in this darkest environment, and after all, this old thing has lived for so many years.

Hair is longer than himself , not to mention knowledge.

But there is no response from this guy in the mind.

Come on, what's the situation?

Could it be that this guy was really eaten by that lava monster?

Shouldn't be.

After all, this guy is also an overlord-level character. Although he may not really be the opponent of the lava monster, he will not burp without any resistance at all.

After eating the lava monster, George Han has actually been paying attention to the situation in his body.

The fear is that there will be a fight between the two.

But all along, the body has been at peace.

"Of course I'm fine, that monster is all thinking about messing with you, how can I look down on me as a little shrimp."

Just when George Han thought that something happened to the dragon and didn't say anything, the voice of this guy came again faintly . "What? Your surname is Yakuza

? It's not bothering me or you, and you're not happy

?!"

, the key is that he doesn't think of me as a tiger."

Hearing this, George Han was obviously stunned for a moment, and then he chuckled.

After working for a long time, this guy was depressed because the lava monster didn't look down on him at all, and didn't see him as a rival at all, so he didn't fight him from beginning to end.

Being underestimated, this guy is so sullen.

"It's not you kid, I've swallowed the blood of my demon dragon. Fu, how could I fall into such a field. Although he is very fierce, I am not a vegetarian." The demon dragon cursed.

George Han frowned: "Listening to your tone, you seem to know this monster?"

"Damn, I know more than that, even if he turns to ashes, I know who he is. But, I never thought that this guy actually changed . With this appearance, I didn't recognize him at first."

"Who is he?" George Han frowned.

The dragon suddenly paused, and seemed to realize that he had said something wrong.

The next second, he stopped talking.

Even if George Han asked several times in succession, this was still the case.

"If you don't tell me, so be it, I don't know if I'm someone who won't let it go, I'll keep insomnia, and then I don't have the heart to do things. In such a state, if you are hijacked by any enemy, don't even think about it. Live alone." George Han also played a rogue.

After a long pause, the dragon became a little impatient: "You just want to know that?"

"Yes!" George Han was firm and firm, this guy was an OSS who didn't know when, how could George Han not want to know? ! : "Tell me!"

Chapter 4427

Dragon has not spoken for a long time.

After a while, his tone suddenly changed.

"If the average person came to ask me this question, I would definitely let him go away. But you and I have been together for so long, and I regard you as a friend, so I advise you that there are some things you don't know why Good."

"Sometimes knowing too much is not necessarily a good thing." After the words were finished, the dragon muffled again.

George Han frowned and said puzzled: "Actually, I have roughly guessed a lot of things, but why do you keep saying things that I shouldn't know?"

"I want to ask, shouldn't I ? What does it mean to know, and why shouldn't I know?"

Up to now, everything I have encountered seems to be very close and yet very far.

Just when you thought you could touch it, it was far away from you.

However, when you always think you can't touch it, it seems to be right in front of you.

George Han felt this way.

"Someone has tried to tell you, but what's the result? Do you know again?" asked the dragon.

His tone was a little calm, but it was also the least in line with the personality of the dragon.

This guy has always spoken in a heavy tone, but this time, it was so calm that it didn't look like his way of speaking at all.

George Han also noticed this, but his more details were different: "You mean, the sky is so poor, right?" The dragon didn't confirm it, but it didn't deny it either.

"It was true that he wanted to tell me something, but every time he opened his mouth, he was always interrupted by something strange. I checked later, and it should be caused by the forbidden land cholera in the Book of Eight Desolations."

"Forbidden land? Resentment Ling? To tell you the truth, do you believe George Han?" Molong laughed coldly and disdainfully.

What do you mean by that?" George Han frowned.

"Isn't it a good thing for you humans to say? It may be a coincidence once, and again, will it be a coincidence? Like you said yourself, you will always be disturbed by something.

" Luo Luo, continued: "With your intelligence, you shouldn't have found the slightest clue."

"You mean, the Book of Eight Desolations lied to me? The two things are not related at all? Or, they are related, but not It must be related?" George Han asked in surprise.

The dragon smiled coldly: "You're not too stupid."

George Han was speechless.

If it is really what the dragon said, then this thing will become a bit bizarre and terrifying in an instant.

Why did the Eight Desolate Books lie to themselves? And why stop Tian Qiongqi from telling himself the truth? !

Could it be that there are some secrets hidden in the middle?

But George Han couldn't understand , what secret was hidden in this.

Could it be that the Book of Eight Desolations doesn't want him to know a lot of the truth?

However, what does the history of Bafang World have to do with it? Why is it blocking? !

Moreover, it has thousands of reasons to stop itself, why should it go to that death swamp by itself?

"There are some things that you will naturally know at that time, but it is useless to say more than that. I want to tell you, but does that mean you can hear it?"

"I can temporarily seal the Book of Eight Desolations, so it won't stop you from saying anything?" George Han said.

"Do you really think it's just it?" Mo Long laughed.

"Everything is fixed, everything is arranged, three thousand, I only tell you that as a friend, otherwise, I will not mention it at all."

Hearing what the dragon said, George Han

You know , there is no need to ask further.

"Actually, there are some things I want to tell you, but maybe I only said one word, and your accident will appear."

"You and I may never be seen."

"Anyway, he is in your body, once the time is right Mature, don't you know it naturally? Three thousand, don't force it!"

George Han nodded: "Don't talk about this, what should I do now? Do you have any way to help me get out of trouble?"

"This is a dark space." Long Dao: "Dark space has a characteristic, that is, the inner is infinitely large, and the outer is infinitely small."

"Generally speaking, the bigger the inside, the smaller the outside."

"From the current point of view, the actual shape of the outside should be It's a needle."

"Needle?" George Han was obviously taken aback.

He thought about finding a needle in a haystack, but it was just an adjective after all. What he might never have dreamed of was... it was really a needle!

Chapter 4428

This is simply dumbfounding.

"What does this mean?" George Han wanted to hear his further explanation.

"In other words, if the inside is small, the outside is big, do you understand what I mean?" Mo Long said.

George Han understood a little: "Dragon, you mean that if you want to be discovered outside, you have to make the space inside smaller? But the question is, how to make the space smaller?"

"Aren't you an expert on this? You can suck my dragon's soul and blood into your body, and you can suck that guy into your body, what can't you do?" Damn

, it sounds like this guy is complimenting himself, but think about it carefully. Feel like he's making fun of himself?

"Then the inner space has become smaller, so what? I want to go out!"

With so many people detained here, George Han's first task is naturally to save them first.

The dragon smiled bitterly: "Needle, there must be a needle eye, but the eye of a needle is usually too small, so you can't find it at all in such darkness."

"But, if you can't find it, that doesn't mean you don't have it, right?"

George Han Nodding, it makes sense.

As long as you make this place extremely small, the exit the size of the eye of a needle will be easier for you to find.

"Okay, I understand, you can step back."

After sending the dragon away, George Han flew back to Amelia Su without stopping, and told her what he had heard.

"You mean, you want to put all of us into your storage ring first?" Amelia Su asked.

George Han nodded, only in this way, the area of this group of people will become smaller.

Only George Han is left to shrink the space, which can suppress the space to the smallest extent possible.

“Although I don’t know if the method you mentioned is feasible , but I can only try it first.” After the words were finished, Amelia Su quickly went to do the ideological work of those women.

In just a moment, Amelia Su had already done everything.

George Han is not idle. According to the previous plan, after putting everyone in the storage ring first, George Han began to pull back continuously, causing the entire space to be crazily compressed.

Overall, the effect is good.

Especially after George Han couldn’t stand it any longer, he asked the gluttonous glutton for help.

This guy is just like a giant water pump in a puddle, with a big mouth, lean, and devoured wildly in the blink of an eye.

The seemingly boundless dark space also kept shrinking in the process of being swallowed, and finally, it wrapped less than half a meter around George Han.

Such a range not only allows George Han to move freely, but at the same time, it is convenient for George Han to find an exit.

About ten minutes later

, as George Han smiled lightly, an extremely small hole that was almost impossible to see with the naked eye appeared in front of George Han.

That is, George Han is really good enough, has a very strong sense of consciousness, and has the help of Heavenly Eyes. Otherwise, if it is someone else, I am afraid that after a few hours of searching, they may not be able to find it.

“This is still after the shrinkage of space, and the exit is so small. If there is no shrinkage, it is really possible to find dead people by just looking for it.”

Even if he was as strong as George Han, he couldn’t help but complain at this time.

However, this was something that George Han had expected.

For such an airtight act, it is obvious that the preparations and measures are extremely thorough.

“I’ll leave the eye of the needle now, so I can leave here.” George Han asked the dragon.

Molong didn’t speak for a long time, but finally, he nodded: “Actually

, I don’t know this very well. However, this is the case in theory.”

“What is theory, yes, no, no.” Han Three thousand is very depressed.

There is a large group of people hidden in the ring in his hand, of course he does not allow the magic dragon to play sloppy eyes at this time.

The air in the space ring is limited, so Amelia Su doesn't have to worry about it, but many people who can't cultivate will be miserable.

Chances are, you might suffocate in there.

"I mean, in theory, going out from here should really be outside. But to be honest, I always feel that this place is different from the ordinary dark space."

"What is the difference?" George Han asked in confusion. .

Molong shook his head helplessly: "I can't say it, in short, in a word, it feels very strange here, I can't say it for a while."

Damn, can't even this old guy say it? !

Chapter 4429

This old thing should be as stable as an old dog, why can't even he say it?

This guy is a top old monster!

However, there is no other choice right now. What George Han can do is to follow the eye of the needle and get out from here.

Thinking of this, George Han said depressedly: "You said that there is a bomb underneath, and I have no other choice. I still have to rush in." The magic dragon did not refuse, he also knew that this was the only way. .

Han 3000's body moved, immediately transformed, and flew towards the eye of the needle on the spot.

"Brush!"

In just an instant, George Han flew through.

A burst of white light was instantly dazzling, but only for a moment.

When George Han opened his eyes again after getting used to the light, the surroundings were already white.

"Isn't it the Demon Castle?"

George Han was a little puzzled.

Although the dragon had said before that something was not right in this place, George Han was still a little confused and at a loss when he saw such a strange white world right now.

"This may be the extremely white world." The dragon's voice sounded again leisurely.

"Extremely White World?" George Han was stunned.

This fuing thing has to be intertwined with black and white, Tai Chi can't be yin and yang? !

Not so much, right?

"It seems that someone has long expected that someone might break in here. So, the game was laid out in advance."

"Generally speaking, this extremely white world and dark space are actually one body. Because the dark space is too absolutely dark, so the extremes of things will be reversed, resulting in such an extremely white world."

"This is like a person. Under the sun, there must be a shadow."

"But, generally speaking, people who create dark spaces will deliberately remove the extremely white world in order to make the body of the dark space appear smaller."

"Here, obviously not so planned."

"So, it may have been a wrong guess before its body was a needle."

"Its volume should be at least as large as several squares."

"Even, it may be larger." The magic dragon After speaking, he sighed, because he found that this extremely white world was not an ordinary extremely white world.

"It can't be absorbed like the dark world at all. In other words, even if you can absorb only a small part."

Hearing this, George Han was a little puzzled: "What does it mean to be unable to be absorbed, but it can be absorbed. Absorb a small part."

"The dark space and the extremely white world are actually connected. You just absorbed the dark space and made the dark space extremely small, but this is also the trap of the extremely white world."

"The two are the same. It's like two conjoined individuals, one side gets smaller, and that side gets bigger."

"Do you understand what I mean?"

George Han understood, two things that complement each other, one is affected the least, the other will expand infinitely.

It's like swinging in autumn, one and the other grows.

"So even if it can be sucked, it is actually part of the space that has become larger due to the dark space, right?"

The dragon nodded: "Theoretically, this is the case, but this extremely white world is more like a trap. I suspect that once you try to absorb it again, it may be counterproductive."

Intuition tells the dragon that this extremely white world may be related to It's completely different from what I've seen before.

"It won't get bigger the more it absorbs, will it?" George Han asked suspiciously.

The dragon smiled: "To be honest, it's very possible."

Hearing this, George Han felt a little depressed :

"This method is a bit old."

, it also has an exit, the same as the dark space, but... it means that the opening is very subtle and difficult to distinguish."

George Han frowned: "But it shouldn't be white, right?"

" George Han has already done the job of finding the white one, and the time spent is not too short.

It may not be easy for the white to find the black, but after all, there is still a goal.

But if he wanted to find a white one, George Han would probably have to have one head and two big ones.

It's not as simple as looking for a needle in a haystack, it's simply catching a fish in a complete sea.

The point is, there is only one such fish, and it runs so fuing fast!

The magic dragon smiled bitterly: "Sometimes, you just rush to find you when you don't want to, it's white to find white!"

Chapter 4430

George Han was dumbfounded on the spot.

Afraid of what to come.

"It's so big, if you want to find a blank eye, how can you find it?"

George Han was never a person who gave up easily, but at this moment, he really wanted to give up.

This can't be done at all!

Depressed, he waved the space ring directly, and the women and Amelia Su were quickly released by George Han.

It's been a long time, and if they don't release it again, George Han is afraid that they will be suffocated inside.

Sure enough, as soon as these women landed, many of them were already covered in *, their faces were ugly, and they were suffocated in that closed environment.

And Amelia Su didn't have any problems. For her, these were just pediatrics.

"Did we go out?"

“Where is this place, why is it all white?”

“Sister

Fairy , where are we.”

Many women’s faces actually revealed a kind of hope.

However, this hope is doomed to be dashed.

George Han cleared his throat: “Don’t worry, everyone, it’s not a matter of a while to get out of this dungeon. I will take everyone out as soon as possible.”

Amelia Su knew that George Han might be in trouble, and he didn’t know what to do. Ask more, hurriedly help to appease everyone.

“Sisters, don’t be afraid, don’t worry. I told you when I was inside just now that my husband is George Han, and he will definitely take us out.”

George Han glanced at Amelia Su a little depressedly. When did this girl start to brag?

However, after thinking about it carefully, it seems that a man can be proud of his own woman is the greatest.

“I’ll take them around, okay?” Amelia Su asked softly when she walked over to George Han after soothing her.

The gang has been stuck for too long.

Having a place where they can move around is indeed more conducive to their stress relief.

Moreover, the current situation in the extremely white world cannot be solved in a short time.

Thinking of this, George Han nodded in agreement.

Amelia Su quickly let everyone disperse and move freely.

About ten minutes later, she came back leisurely.

“How, isn’t it tricky?” she asked softly.

George Han nodded: “This place is bigger and boundless than the previous dark space, and the exit is also pure white. Therefore, we are directly stuck here and can’t find the exit.

” Yes!” Amelia Su has a big head.

Looking at the whole white world, not to mention looking for white ones, it is enough to find another color.

“I’m thinking, is there any way to find white in white, which is more effective.”

“Although white and white are the same color, there should be some differences.” Amelia Su said.

George Han looked at Amelia Su, waiting for her next sentence.

“Do you remember that when we drive on Earth, we sometimes bump into each other?” Amelia Su asked.

George Han almost didn't need to remember this, because it was the norm. As long as he was driving, he could hardly avoid this problem.

“What do you want to say?”

“I mean, we will often touch up the paint when we bump into it, right?”

George Han

nodded.

“In order to make it less visible in the damaged area, we often spend more and use so-called original paint, right?”

That's true.

“But do you know? No matter how good the original paint is, even the paint you bought is the paint left over from the original paint on your car, but once it is repaired, will there be a color difference?”

Of course, George Han clear.

However, most of the original car paint can cover most of the flaws under the craftsmanship of the master.

It is almost impossible to tell with the naked eye.

However, that doesn't mean it can't be seen.

Thinking of this, George Han suddenly understood, he knew what Amelia Su was talking about.

“Wife, I said long ago that you are the smartest woman in the world!”
