

HTC 4431

Chapter 4431

Yes, it is the light source.

Under some specific light sources, there will be different viewing angles.

Naturally, what you see is different.

George Han has seen the difference in complementary colors in this case.

Amelia Su's reminder, in fact, just perfectly filled the blank space that George Han wanted to find half-color.

This method is great!

Unable to say more, George Han directly used a trace of true energy, and then suddenly increased the internal friction, and in an instant, a fire in his hand straightened.

Taking advantage of the firelight, George Han carefully observed the firelight's surroundings.

Sure enough, under the illumination of the light, the surrounding white has a very different luster.

It's light, but it's enough.

"Go and call everyone to gather, you should go back and hide first." George Han told Amelia Su softly.

Amelia Su quickly summoned the people back, and then re-entered the storage space to take refuge temporarily.

And George Han is not idle at all, and will burn the silence to the greatest extent, and at the same time, the sky fire in his hand is also exerted to the extreme.

After getting these things done, George Han started his own performance.

He first shot Fen Ji directly, and let it drive his real energy towards the sky like a burning sun, while the sky fire, which also had a blue flame, was like a blue scanner, rapidly moving around frantically. .

There is a ray of fire on the top of the head, and there is a blue light below, which looks like a certain earth technology scene.

Although this consumes a lot of George Han and his eyesight is relatively expensive, it is also the only safest method at the moment.

George Han is not in a hurry, and this thing cannot be completed in a short time.

He chose to work slowly and make plays.

Ten minutes passed, and Tianhuo had already scanned the entire area without any gain.

Immediately afterwards, Han

George Han quickly scanned the second area.

Then, another third.

Everything is proceeding in an orderly manner.

Soon, the fourth area starts to scan.

This is also the last area.

This time, George Han scanned very carefully.

Because this is where the exit is most likely to exist.

Of course, if it doesn't work here either, it can also serve as the start of a second round of scrutiny.

This layout can save one of the inspection surfaces and save a lot of time.

Soon, the fourth area is also scanned.

What George Han expected was that there was still no so-called export, which was normal.

The light source is there, but sometimes it often requires a special top angle to see the difference.

So, the second round started again.

Then, the third round.

Fourth round!

When it was the second round of the fifth round, George Han, who was almost falling asleep, suddenly found a flashing shadow.

Although it was small, it was exactly what George Han had been waiting for for a long time.

"You really are here."

George Han immediately stopped the operation of Skyfire, and then a flying body rushed directly over.

Picking up the sky fire, George Han repeatedly scanned the approximate location of the shadow just now, and finally, at a certain angle, George Han set its position.

"So it's not unreasonable that humans can dominate the world."

"Although your body is far from my demons, your brains are really good."

"Such an outlet can also be used by You found it, George Han, you really belong."

"However, I want to talk to you when I want to go out."

The voice of the magic dragon sounded.

George Han was immersed in joy and excitement, and didn't think too much: "Why

, you want to compliment me? Don't worry, our relationship is here, even if the monster comes to you one day, I will help you. Hearing George Han's words, Molong was speechless and rolled his eyes: "If I was afraid for even a second, I would be sorry for even a hair on my body."

"Originally, I wanted to tell you something. Important things may also be of interest to you, but you actually said that, Lao Tzu, grass, George Han, let's see you in the fu*** arena."

"Bah!" The

words ended, and the dragon chose directly. Mute.

George Han is a little confused, what's the situation? !

"Come on, wait a minute, listen to my explanation, I found something just now, I nodded my head in joy, Aaron? Longlong?"

" No more echoes.

There is no other way, go out first and then...

Chapter 4432

With another flash of light, George Han jumped out of the extremely white world through the eye of the needle.

When he opened his eyes again, there was already a muddy field in front of George Han.

He dazzled his eyes, only to realize that the place he was in was actually in stinky mud.

The smell was almost sky-high, and the stench was incomparable. Even George Han had to hurry up to transport his infuriating energy to isolate him. Otherwise, he would have to die on the spot.

However, even so, George Han endured all this and began to search around.

The magic dragon said that if the other party arranges it like this, then the result is that its body should not be small.

It's pretty easy to do.

Easy to find!

Soon, as George Han removed the mud under his feet, a blood-red iron sheet appeared in front of him.

Touching this piece of iron all the way down, soon, an object similar to an iron box showed its original shape.

George Han directly moved his hand and pulled it out.

Almost similar to Molong's guess at the time, the area of this iron box is really about a few square meters.

The length and width are between one or two meters, solid, and extremely heavy. Even if George Han is really capable, it takes a lot of effort.

Looking at this weird iron box, George Han sighed very much. After all, it was hard for him to imagine that he and Amelia Su had been trapped for so long with such a rubbish thing.

If it wasn't for their ability and intelligence, this place would have made them even worse.

You might be trapped in it for the rest of your life.

After dragging the box and taking it directly to a clean place, George Han released the people in the space ring.

After that, the iron box was put into the ring.

When

a group of women returned to the Demon Castle, they were obviously too excited, and many even shed tears of excitement.

Then, someone took the lead, and the next second, everyone knelt in front of Amelia Su and George Han.

"Thank you two benefactors for your rescue. We will never forget this kindness and reward."

"Yeah, you two are truly gods. If you two have any needs, please feel free to ask, and we will do our best to help you. It can be done."

"Two benefactors, let us worship three times first." When the words were finished, everyone was about to kowtow. The energy in George Han's hand directly prevented them from lowering their heads. At this time, he shook his head and said with a smile: "Everyone, it is said that when the road is not peaceful, draw your sword to help."

"We saved you, not wanting any return from you, so there is no need for this."

Amelia Su

also hurriedly helped them up one by one.

"Having said that, but, after all, you have saved so many of our lives. If... if we didn't express it, we wouldn't be able to pass the test ourselves."

"I really don't need to do this. You're welcome, then I'll lock you in one by one." George Han couldn't help pretending to frighten.

A group of women hurriedly shook their heads. Obviously, no one wanted to live like a pig and a dog.

Seeing them like this, George Han also knew that his little intimidation had paid off.

"If you don't want to go back, then no one is allowed to say anything of gratitude."

The girls nodded.

"By the way, benefactor, you don't want our repayment, but you must leave here as soon as possible." Someone reminded.

One person said that after that, many people immediately responded.

“Yes, benefactor, you two should leave here quickly. You don’t know, the Demon Castle is extremely dangerous today.”

“Yes, they not only arrest women casually, but also never let men go.

” Many of our men in the city died tragically like this.”

“You go out of here first, and our sisters will cover you together.”

Although most of these women are unarmed, and many of them don’t even know how to practice Taoism, but once said They started to protect George Han and Amelia Su from leaving. At this time, they were braver than each other, and no one backed away.

Amelia Su smiled lightly: “Sisters, I am very grateful for your concern, but George Han and I will not be going anywhere for the time being. As for you, don’t worry, because Tianmobao will not arrest anyone in the future.”

“What? ?”

Chapter 4433

“You... what did you say?”

A bunch of women look at me, I look at you, obviously, they don’t quite understand Amelia Su what does this mean.

This day, catching women in the Demon Castle is too ruthless, almost as long as you dare to show your face, you will definitely be arrested.

How could Tianmobao stop arresting people from now on? !

Could it be that the Demon Castle has already caught enough people?

But this is unlikely, especially now that so many of them have been rescued by George Han, Tianmo Castle will only be few and not full.

“Miss Su, you...you may not know much about our situation here. It’s impossible for the people in Tianmo Castle not to arrest people.

Seeing their anxious appearance, George Han

’s heart was actually warm.

After all, this is enough to prove that he did not save them wrong.

They are really caring about them right now.

George Han smiled slightly: "Tianmobao really won't arrest you. I can assure you of this. Because, the city owner of Tianmobao has been taken down by me."

"What? "

Isn't it impossible? Although we don't have a cultivation base, we have long heard that the city lord Angelica is very powerful. Moreover, he is the city lord, and his guards must be extremely strict. Ordinary people don't want to kill him, even his face. Can't see it."

"Yeah, it's not that we don't believe you, it's that we're worried that you killed a certain little minion but mistakenly thought it was him, and when he really appears, under the thunder, you will suffer."

George Han smiled bitterly, full of is helpless.

With the knowledge , people like Angelica may indeed be the ceiling of the cultivators in their eyes. Therefore, even if they tell them the result, it is difficult for them to believe that it will be the truth.

But no matter what, they care about themselves and Amelia Su very much, which makes them feel that their efforts are not in vain.

"If you don't believe it, let's do it, Amelia Su, you take them out."

"I think people in the city are still looking for the entrance to the dungeon, and they should be able to find someone soon."

"Then, you let them find their own way. The next family, settle down as soon as possible."

Amelia Su looked at George Han and asked, "Do you have anything else to do?"

George Han nodded.

"Okay, then I'll take them there first, and then I'll pick up Han Nian and them and wait for you at the inn before, okay?" Amelia Su asked.

George Han nodded, and then, a flying body quickly disappeared into the dark night.

The women had never heard of George Han's reputation. First, they were not as knowledgeable as men, and second, some of them had been arrested by Angelica early in the cell, and they didn't know much about the situation outside.

It is naturally difficult to understand what George Han said.

However, Amelia Su was always here to accompany them, and they could only follow Amelia Su obediently towards the city.

George Hanfei landed in an unoccupied place. After making sure that it was safe enough, he leaned towards the side, relaxed his body, half awake and half asleep.

The city is now basically peaceful, although many traitors are potentially dangerous.

However, now that Amelia Su is here, and now the group of women have been rescued, these dangers have been reduced to the lowest point.

Because this is already George Han and their fancy muscle show to some extent.

He has solved the deepest crisis in Tianmo Castle, and there is no possibility that these people dare to rebel against George Han, and the people will support George Han even more because their family members are saved.

Therefore, with this five-and-two, George Han now has such a rare safe and pure time.

After closing his eyes lightly, George Han did not know that at this time outside the Tianmo Castle, a group of golden armored soldiers were heading towards the inner city of the Tianmo Castle under the shroud of night.

They seem to plan to attack, and they seem to plan to surround.

On the other hand, George Han, the consciousness has already entered his mind.

“Xiaolonglong?”

“My lovely Xiaolonglong, don’t you have something to tell me? Why now, do you want to play with me and disappear?”

Yes, George Han knew very well that the magic dragon should have something very important Talk to yourself.

Chapter 4434

There is no response, George Han’s cry is like a rock sinking into the sea.

George Han was not angry, and waited there quietly.

After about ten minutes, the voice of the magic dragon slowly remembered: “Are you so shameless? If I don’t answer you, you are not leaving yet?”

George Han smiled: “I don’t know about my little dragon. I’m so angry, I specially asked Amelia Su to take care of the city’s affairs and spend time alone with you.”

“You must know that most people may prefer s3x over friends, but I’m not.”

George Han knew very well . , Although the dragon is almost used to being sealed in his body by himself, his relationship with himself has always been very harmonious.

But after all, he is also a big coffee in the ancient times. He still has temper and dignity, and he still needs face.

Especially now that he has swallowed a monster that may be stronger than him, his sensitive mind has become stronger.

Well, it also needs to get its own echo and respect. Just when he was about to say something to George Han, George Han ignored him because he was too excited for a while.

Therefore, this demon dragon with a small temper is like this little daughter-in-law full of resentment, can George Han not come to coax him? !

“George Han, I really didn’t notice your face before. Why...how do you act like a slut?” That’s why Molong dared to say George Han, I’m afraid he didn’t have the guts to let others go. .

However, George Han was not angry, but continued to pull his face down: “Then my little dragon is really worth it. I was wrong, okay? Forgive me?”

The dragon didn’t speak, and after a long time, he was reluctant to answer: “I think you clearly want to know the old things.”

“Otherwise, except your wife, there is no one in this world who can make you George Han this . I’m a scumbag .”

George Han smiled and said, “No matter what purpose I have, but like you said, no one in this world can make me do this except my wife.”

“You are the first, it’s not enough. Is it?”

Hearing this, the dragon did not speak for a long time, George Han knew that this guy was caught.

“Okay, okay, I’m too lazy to talk nonsense with you. After all, this is indeed what I’ve been thinking about for a long time and decided to tell you.”

“Actually, I also know that it’s not because you paid so much attention to some things in the past. Your curiosity is too heavy, but it is actually due to your character, George Han, or it can be said to be caused by responsibility, am I right?”

“Although you George Han survived all kinds of dangers, you are called a miracle by outsiders. However, there are so many miracles in this world.”

“Many miracles are actually just the result of one person’s hard work.”

“In the middle, one person’s hard work and struggle are indispensable, and one person’s strength is also indispensable. Will, of course, requires a person’s adequate preparation.”

George Han is by no means the kind of rash person who does anything, even if something is completely unexpected, he can always quickly restore his calm state, and then analyze each situation. judge the situation.

This is preparation.

George Han must also sigh, what the dragon said was right.

Sometimes, it’s not that George Han has to be so mature in doing things, but that he is alone in this eight-way world, and he has no qualifications and capital to try and make mistakes.

Once wrong, the abyss.

Circumstances can grind anyone's edge and teach anyone to grow.

The same goes for George Han.

"Don't be like a mother-in-law, we are both men, why bother." George Han pretended to be disdainful and laughed softly.

"So, what you want to know about those histories is to lay the foundation for the future. You know very well that you will eventually have to face these in the future. Am I right?"

George Han nodded: "Since you all know, Shouldn't you tell me more?"

"I really can't tell you these things, not to mention we are brothers, even if you are my father, then there is no way. However, I heard you say the so-called siege Wei to save Zhao, but I do There is a way to tell you something in disguise."

Chapter 4435

"What?" George Han frowned slightly.

"Actually, have you ever thought about what you should do if your guess is true?"

"I know, as far as you George Han is concerned, you should know that your situation is very critical."

"But, you For the time being, it's just you."

"Right?"

George Han nodded noncommittally, which was true.

In fact, this is also the key that George Han has been trying to find out about these roots.

It's because he doesn't know anything, so he doesn't know how to deal with it. He is afraid that if he really encounters that kind of thing, he will panic and don't know how to deal with it.

"I can only tell you, while you are free now, train a unit well."

"I have a unit, you mean..." George Han knew very well that he knew the existence of the Mysterious Man Alliance.

But since he still said that, then it is inevitable that there is a deeper meaning behind it.

"Your Mysterious Man Alliance is indeed a force, but you should know better than me that this so-called force is fashionable and difficult to deal with in the face of many of your forces today. Can I help you when you are in the middle of the pack?"

George Han was puzzled and said, "But the problem is, no matter how strong it is, if it faces a higher-level opponent, it may not be an opponent."

“Three thousand, when your own strength When you are strong to a certain extent, you can indeed have the ability to wrestle with them, but what if you cannot win at all in this wrench? Or, is it just a breath away?”

“Besides, if this army is strong enough, do you think that you will feel a little nervous when facing an army of 200,000 people?”

George Han knew what he meant. If an elite army was in front of him, even his own Also heartbroken. Don't look at yourself as if you are invincible, and the people you kill throw away their armor and armor.

But in fact, this is just the advantage of the battle in the field. George Han is tougher than them, but this does not mean that George Han is not nervous.

Those things may be more terrifying than themselves in the future, then, the Mysterious Man Alliance wants to create this shocking effect, which means that it will continue to improve.

“Your sharp knife squad is actually quite interesting. However, it's just a prototype.”

“Also, the point of sharp knives is to assault, but for someone more fierce than you, it's completely killing me, do you know what I mean? Hearing this, George Han nodded: “

You mean, I should focus on defense, right?”

Anyway, it is impossible to expect these people to kill each other, which is like Ming Yu's troops thinking It is a truth to rely on the elite of individual soldiers to kill yourself.

There is no way they could have killed themselves in this situation.

The only way to win is to consolidate their own defenses, and only in this way can they stand in front of them longer.

And standing for longer, in fact, means that they will harass themselves more.

The situation in which a soldier kills a king is the same as an ant killing an elephant. An ant can never kill an elephant, but it is possible for an elephant to be destroyed by teamwork.

Therefore, the longer the ant stands, the more beneficial it is to itself, and it even gradually evolves into a situation between a hyena and a lion.

“It should be heavy armor.”

“No matter how they practice, it is unlikely that they will be able to practice like you, so, in your words, most of them are always instant goods.”

“Second goods are instant goods, this point must be recognized . Status and situation, otherwise, it will only die faster.”

“Heavy armored army?” George Han asked slightly.

“The iron cavalry has passed through the mountains and rivers, George Han, do you understand?”

George Han nodded heavily.

“Actually, I’ve observed the people in Tianmobao right now, and they are the most suitable candidates.” Molong said.

“People from the Demon Castle?” George Han never thought about this.

“Sometimes, I doubt whether it was arranged by someone, or whether it was destined. The people of the Demon Castle seem to be from It was prepared for you at the beginning, but just as you said you wanted to doze off, this pillow was handed to you.”

“Why do you say that?” George Han asked, “It seems that the people from Tianmo Castle are with you. In his mouth, he has become a must-have for the Heavy Armored Corps?”

Chapter 4436

“Heavy armor and physical strength is a prerequisites, am I right?” Mo Long said.

This is of course true. After all, a person with average physical fitness, let alone a fight, is probably enough to overwhelm him with just the outfit on his body.

The people of Tianmobao are indeed strong in their bodies, and they are full of tendons, which is in line with this.

“But the problem is that the people of Tianmobao have been suppressed by the formation for a long time. Even if I don’t consider whether their bodies are almost empty, their height is a bit unsatisfactory.”

“Why do you think the height is not enough?” Dragon Road.

Most of the people in Tianmobao are even less than 1.5 meters tall. With such a height, even a normal army is obviously short. What’s more, they are very likely to face more powerful opponents.

“Three thousand, I thought that this kind of discrimination should not happen to you.”

Molong shook his head helplessly.

George Han was a little dumbfounded, he definitely didn’t have this kind of height discrimination.

He just simply didn’t want them to die, that’s it.

This is not as simple as dragging them to a certain battlefield, it is really not as simple as being able to stand in front of them.

To a certain extent, they needed to face strong enemies by themselves, because at that time George Han would definitely have no time to take care of them.

“I don’t mean to look down on them, I just...”

“Three thousand, you are wrong, in fact, they are the real people who are most suitable for heavy armor.”

“It’s true that their height is very short, but short height means the bottom of the center of gravity. If there are heavy armors to protect them, do you think they look like bastards lying on the ground?”

Hearing this, Han Three thousand was stunned for a moment.

This...

He really

never thought that these dwarf warriors would be so effective.

But if you think about it carefully, it is true.

“Besides, they have another advantage, because they have a low center of gravity, they can often play a miraculous effect in some games. The ox is not too tall, but when a whole row is rampaging, I want to ask you, what can Can you stop it?”

George Han suddenly became enlightened.

“This is the first one.”

“As for the second one, it is the people’s will.”

“If it is someone else, you may have concerns. After all, once you are betrayed, it is not only your own efforts that will be destroyed but more important. The only thing is that you often cultivate a very strong enemy.”

“I can understand this feeling, and I can understand the reason why you have been very cautious in accepting people. But this time, the Demon Castle has given you enough opportunities.”

“You Helping them solve the evil spirit of angelica

, they almost worship you like a god now, from this point of view, you have completely captured the hearts of the people.”

After the dragon reminded George Han, he really felt that it was like this. matter.

If you raise your arms now, I am afraid that many people will follow you willingly, right?

“This is also the third advantage. Angelica gives you.”

“Although you have tried your best to save a lot of women, there are always more women or men who don’t have the luck to wait for you to bring it. So, this is also It means that there are more families in the castle that are facing brokenness.”

“They are helpless or have nothing to worry about. Instead, they only have endless hatred for those who destroy their families. At this time, your benefactor needs them to join in, call them by name, and ten thousand people respond, and they all agree. , unimaginable.”

Demon Dragon said.

“The time is right and the place is right. Now you can occupy almost all of it. Think about it, is it worth it? When you want to doze off, who happened to put the pillow here for you?"

George Han did not speak, he did not think so.

However, if you think about it carefully, it is logical.

"My suggestion is to accept the civilians of Tianmo Castle and form the prototype of the heavy army. After that, use this army to continuously expand and improve."

"I believe that this army can clear a lot of problems for you in the early stage. Trouble."

George Han nodded his head: "You demon dragon has opened this mouth, can I not give face?"

From the side, if the demon dragon has to develop its own follow-up forces, then it means that the follow-up The enemy may be stronger than you think.

The formation of the army must be carried out immediately.

"I'm going to form it now!"

George Han flew towards the city...

Chapter 4437

At this time, a touching moment is being staged in the city.

Those women who returned soon found their families on the city playground, and after that, the news spread all over the city.

Almost all the residents of the city came after hearing the news, trying to recognize their relatives among the returning women.

Someone recognized it, and they hugged and cried on the spot. The emotion of separation between life and death was almost pulled to the extreme.

But there are also people who haven't found their relatives. In addition to envy those who are reunited, they can only feel sad and sad.

But in any case, the atmosphere of the whole scene has always been pushed to **.

Those traitors barely said a word. These scenes seemed to have nothing to do with them, and they seemed to be caused by them. They didn't know what to do, so they could only stand in place awkwardly.

On the other side of the inn, Scar also brought a group of brothers, protecting Han Nian, Pei Jin, and Pei Yuan three children in the middle.

Compared with the previous number, the brothers behind Scar now have nearly a thousand troops.

After George Han and Amelia Su's actions, Scar never stopped and has been secretly gathering forces around him, trying to directly lead people to raise troops to counterattack when George Han needs help.

Unfortunately, this time did not come.

“Damn it, Lord Han is Lord Han. It’s not unreasonable that the rumors from outside are not unreasonable. This motherfucker is just a couple of two people, and he just handed over the Heavenly Demon Castle directly.”

“That’s right, when it was said that this guy brought Devil Cloud Ghost City by himself, to be honest, I thought it was more or less bragging. I knew that it was always at odds with Devil Cloud Ghost City. I’m not sure that the soldiers were secretly dispatched at the time of the fall .”

“Yeah, I thought so too at the beginning, but who the hell knows that maybe the knowledge has blocked my vision, and all this is actually his mother’s? Really.”

“Hahaha, I remembered that when Lord Han first came to the basement of our inn, we wanted to clean him up. Now that I think about it, our group is really trying to find death.”

“Haha, speaking of this, I just feel extremely shy. It’s because Master Han has a good temper, otherwise, you and I would be fucking cold corpses.”

Everyone laughed, and no one denied it.

Suddenly, above the sky, a figure crossed, and before everyone had reflected, that figure had already landed on the ground.

“Master Han!” The scar was overjoyed and hurriedly ran towards George Han with his brother.

People in other directions also hurriedly gathered there at this time

, and those who were reunited even squeezed in a hurry.

In an instant, George Han was already crowded with people.

George Han smiled lightly and took Amelia Su’s hand: “Thank you for your hard work.”

Amelia Su shook her head. Although she did not reply, everything was silent.

“Master Han, Master Han, Master Han!”

Almost at the same time, everyone around them shouted and cheered first, and the scene suddenly seemed to be blown up.

“Master Han, Master Han, Master Han!”

“Master Han, Master Han, Master Han!”

“Master Han, Master Han, Master Han!”

They shouted in unison, like thunder drums.

Amelia Su smiled knowingly, she knew that this was what George Han deserved.

George Han waved his hand, indicating that everyone didn't have to do this. At the same time, he nodded slightly at the person next to him, who quickly led the way.

Not long after, the embarrassed Angelica was brought up.

When many people saw this guy, they suddenly became furious and shouted and killed!

I want this Angelica ****!

Angelica is very depressed, and he wants to maintain his last dignity, but in the current situation, he has nothing to do. Although he resisted during the period, he just showed a hideous look on his face, and he didn't know who was drowned by a few mouthfuls of saliva. .

"Brothers."

Shaking his head helplessly, George Han sighed: "I know that many people did not wait for your wives or daughters, but Han has done his best.

"Release, if there is no one found, then it is very likely that Angelica has been..."

"Hey, I have brought others here, you can deal with it yourself." When the words fell, George Han's hand moved, and a dark force instantly let Angelica. My knees softened, and I fell to my knees directly...

Chapter 4438

"Give you ten minutes. Whether he is dead or alive or whatever, it is up to you to handle, I will not care about it. ." When the words fell, George Han hugged Han Nian and pulled Amelia Su to leave.

"George Han, how dare you!" "Bring it back to me!"

"fu** , do you really think these things are as simple as me being a demon castle? Let me tell you, the forces behind me are boundless. "

Today, you will either let me go, or you will wait for Thunder's revenge!"

"And you gangsters, are you trying to rebel? How dare you help outsiders and attack me?" I see, you don't know how to write dead words at all."

"Everyone, listen to me, you immediately kill the damned George Han for me, the city lord can forget about any of your previous mistakes, and at the same time , all of you will be rewarded."

"How?"

After speaking, everyone couldn't help but be slightly taken aback.

Immediately afterwards, they all looked at George Han.

George Han paused for a moment, and then smiled disdainfully: "You have a lot of power behind you?"

"Nonsense, if you say it and scare you to death, you will beat hundreds of thousands of soldiers and horses in your area, but it's just the tip of their iceberg, if it's true. If you get angry, it will be a more violent army pressing down."

"At that time, you will die without a place to be buried, and these civilians will also be buried with you!"

"Haha!" George Han laughed: "You With your power, do you think I have no power?"

"What power do you have? What? Should you just fall into the city

? Hahaha!" Angelica laughed out loud, obviously not considering the mere hundreds of thousands of troops that fell into the city.

It's true, after all, between this guy's mouth, 200,000 soldiers and horses are just the tip of the iceberg, and these 100,000 are naturally looked down upon.

"No, of course my power is not those." George Han said coldly: "My power is them." After the words were finished, George Han slightly opened his hand.

Although he was silent, he had clearly told everyone that everyone here was the power and backing of George Han.

"Justice in the world!" George Han said coldly.

As soon as these words came out, Angelica was obviously taken aback, and the people behind George Han never thought of it.

But the next second, when the crowd reflected, they cheered collectively.

"Roar!" The

sound was

as loud as thunder.

Angelica's face turned pale when she was frightened by the sound of the giant waves.

He didn't expect that George Han would actually talk about these common people at this time.

This is a very clever usage, and it can instantly blow up the emotions of everyone present!

Angelica was extremely depressed. He originally wanted to threaten George Han and intimidate the gang of people, but he never thought about it.

"Everyone, don't be afraid of him. Whatever you want, do whatever you want. If you will bear all the consequences in the future, I, George Han, will stand in front of you first and carry it for you.

" Very light, but the momentum is unusually calm and domineering.

Everyone did not reply, but the anger and determination in their eyes had already said everything.

They took revenge, and George Han carried the thunder for them. What's there to say?

Of course it's over.

"I'll give you ten minutes. In ten minutes, I have something important to discuss with you!"

George Han turned around and took Amelia Su and the others away.

Seeing that George Han was about to leave, Angelica was still reluctant and shouted for him to come back.

George Han didn't bother at all, and they didn't go far before the couple heard Angelica's miserable cry.

George Han smiled lightly. He knew that there was only one last step left from the initial goal set by the magic dragon for him.

Ten minutes later, George Han returned with Amelia Su.

The crowd surrounding Angelica gave way in an instant, and a road also gave way in an instant.

From a distance, George Han watched Angelica lying there...

Chapter 4439

Angelica is almost like a dead dog, lying there motionless.

George Han doesn't know if this guy is angry now, but through basic observation, George Han can basically be sure that even if this guy is still alive, he shouldn't live long.

It's not clear whether these civilians are ruthless, but even if it is as simple as one person and one punch, it is not something that little Angelica can bear.

"Master Han, this guy was basically killed by us. However, you don't have to worry, it was us who killed people, and we naturally take responsibility." Scar finished.

Immediately afterwards, he slapped his chest, looked at everyone, and shouted loudly: "I know, some of you are just watching Master Han here, pretending to surrender, and betray us if there is a chance."

"But, it doesn't matter, if you want to sue, just go as long as you go, the man was killed by Lao Tzu Knife Scar, if there is a seed, just come at me.

As soon as these words came out, the momentum was captivating.

"Knife Scar, you usually just lead the team. Damn, you want to get all the credit for killing this bastard thief, you are fu**ing dreaming, killing him, I also have a share! "

"And Lao Tzu!"

"And me!" A group of people pushed me and responded, one after another.

In fact, everyone knows very well what this is about robbing merit. Everyone is not afraid of death together, and they come together to face the crime and take revenge.

George Han smiled softly, and said at this time: "Brothers, you are so united and so loyal, Han is very pleased."

"However, the person was indeed kidnapped by Han and handed over to you. Han will never deny it."

"When Han did this, he naturally thought about the consequences, but if you want me to leave your thousands and thousands of people alone, I ca n't do it."

"Yes, I can just let it go, and I can even take the opportunity to blackmail Angelica for a sum of money, and then feel comfortable and unrestrained. Get out of here. But what's next? The next step must be Angelica to continue to oppress you."

"You are already in trouble, and I don't want you to be worse off."

"So, I don't do that. What I want to do is to completely replace you. It's just to clear this obstacle, and give you a peaceful life."

"I have never liked to strive for merit, but when it comes to killing Angelica, I want to sit in the first chair." When the words were finished, George Han's eyes were firm, and no one was allowed to refute.

"Actually, I ignored the fact that Angelica dares to be so careless, and there must be a strong force behind it."

"Today, I am gone, tomorrow, they may make a comeback, and the thunderous revenge will come down in an instant. "

I don't want to see you all die tragically, so I have a proposal."

"Master Han, please speak." Scar shouted loudly.

The following people responded.

"Someone Han has never liked recruiting troops, let alone recruiting people at will. But this time, I may have to make an exception."

"I want to form a heavily armored unit and raise troops to counterattack."

"Rather than let others attack us, it is better for us to take the initiative."

"If you have the will, you can sign up to join us at the gate of the inn in the city after half an hour. shoes."

"Of course, if you are willing to join this army, I, Han George Han, will coach myself and will be in charge of all heavy armor equipment, but I would like to mention that those who can't endure hardship and are afraid of death, don't come." Pulled Amelia Su and left .

He didn't want to put any pressure on anyone.

It's best to leave and let them decide for themselves.

The family took the two apprentices back to the gate of the original inn quickly. George Han handed over the recruitment to the two young apprentices.

This is not heavy work, it just needs to be registered, so it is also suitable for these two boys.

"Why haven't I heard you mention it before to recruit someone from the Heavenly Demon Castle?" Amelia Su asked.

George Han nodded: "The incident happened suddenly, and it was the magic dragon who asked me to do this."

"Magic dragon? Why did he worry about this?"

George Han smiled bitterly: "I guess it's time to panic, but, What he said is also right, the people in the Demon Castle really seem like someone put it here on purpose." As soon as the words fell, George Han was about to say something when suddenly, while the ground trembled slightly, there were bursts of rumbling sounds. Ringing...

Chapter 4440

The couple was shocked. When they looked back, far away, they saw dust and smoke billowing in the distance.

Immediately afterwards, a figure came out first from a distance.

George Han knew at a glance that the other party was nothing but Scar.

Afterwards, behind Scar, one after another from the Demon Castle followed, killing the generals.

Amelia Su was a little stunned: "They are..."

George Han smiled very happily. He knew that both the magic dragon and his guess were right. , has been used almost to its full potential.

"Master Han, we figured it out, we've done it with you."

"Yeah, you're right, damn, no matter what, we will all be screwed up in the end, either revenge or annexation. At that time, we don't know what the person who annexed us is. Instead, it's better to follow you, Master Han."

"Master Han, take us, no matter how difficult it is, how hard we are, we will We can all bear it, anyway, we have already gotten used to the fu**ing hard life." The group of people were excited, and George Han was very happy.

"Anyway, our home is broken, and we have nowhere to go, so let's follow you, Master Han, and work on a career together."

“Master Han, we all know that you are famous. Following you, we are the pinnacle of our fu**ing life. Now, you accept us.”

“That’s right, although we are a bunch of civilians with low culture, we still know how to write the word loyalty. As long as you don’t dislike us, our brothers will never betray you. “

Listening to what everyone said, George Han nodded with satisfaction: “Everyone, George Han has always been very picky about people. Since you can join me, then you are naturally the people I recognize.”

“Pei Yuan , Pei Jin.”

“Master, the disciple is here.”

“Register for everyone immediately.”

“Yes.”

“Scar, you come in with me.”

“Yes.” Taking the scar into the inn, George Han and He sat down and boiled some water with his own hands and poured some tea for Scar.

“There are not many people I know and know well, but you, I go is one of the most familiar people.”

“Although the way we meet is not so friendly, I believe that it is always a good way to make friends. “

So, I believe in your character, and I also want to hand this heavy armored unit into your hands, what do you think?”

Hearing this, Scar’s face was startled: “Master Han, you Do you want to hand over the heavy armored troops to me?”

“You are from the Demon Castle, no one knows the people here better than you, I believe that you are the most suitable candidate.” George Han said.

Scar was a little embarrassed: “But Master Han, I’m usually just a rough country man. I haven’t brought troops, and I haven’t fought in battles. You hand over the troops to my command, I... I This... this miscellaneous commander.”

He admits that he has no brains, no fighting skills, so it’s okay to let him take the lead in charging or something, but asking him to line up troops is equivalent to bringing his brothers. Go to die.

“I can teach you if you have never brought soldiers. If you don’t know how to command, I will also teach you. I only have one rule, that is, you don’t need to be suspicious. Since I leave it to you to manage, it must be that I trust you enough.

” This approach is a bit risky, but George Han has to gamble.

Once the bet is right, for George Han, it will not only be as simple as gaining a general, but the most important thing is that the people in Tianmo Castle will also be more conducive to management.

Without him, using barbarians to control barbarians is always the safest method and the most effective method for quick management.

“Since Mr. Han, you have mentioned the word trust, then Scar doesn’t dare to say more, just one sentence, I will do my best.” He patted his chest.

George Han smiled lightly and patted him on the shoulder: “In addition, you have to find some helpers.”

“These helpers, they can effectively help you manage this future army together.”

“There are tiger generals, There should also be civil servants, do you understand?” George Han said.

“Scar understands.”

George Han nodded, stood up, and then glanced at Scar, suddenly turned his palm and hit Scar directly.

However, just when Scar looked strange and shocked, he suddenly felt that an invisible force was slowly entering his body, and at the same time, a strange thing began to slowly spread out on his body...
