

HTC 4461

Chapter 4461

“No.” Amelia Su grabbed the scar in time.

“Ma’am, let me help. With my armor, even a judge can’t beat me. Moreover, the leader of the alliance taught me the Overlord Spear. Hehe, when I rush in, one can kill one, and one pair is also a pair. Ah.”

“Damn, not to mention that you can easily destroy the enemy, but at least it can share the pressure on my family leader.”

Amelia Su shook her head: “These people are not as simple as you think. They look very strange. “

It’s weird?” Scar touched his head.

To say it’s weird, it’s really weird. Scar has been in the city for at least a few decades, but he has never seen these men in black.

However, some of the weapons of these men in black are indeed like those made in the Demon Castle.

“Madam, when you say it, I really feel a little weird.”

“I have never seen these people.”

Amelia Su frowned: “You people from Tianmo Castle, have you never met?”

” Nodding: “Yes, I’ve never seen them before.”

Although they are ordinary people, they rarely meet the soldiers in these cities, but after all, everyone lives in the same place. the bureau.

Moreover, Scar itself is a jerk, how can people on the official road not have a touch?

Even a person like the judge knows a thing or two about him, and it is enough to see that this guy has a very strong ability to play platoons in the city.

However, such a person has never heard or seen such an army of thousands of scales.

Amelia Su instantly understood that something was wrong.

“But if they are people in this city, why didn’t they rescue Angelica when it was in danger?” The more he thought about this, the more outrageous Amelia Su felt.

“Knife Scar, can you do me a favor?”

“Madam, what are you doing, despite your orders, Knife Scar will do her best.” The alliance leader’s wife ordered things, that is, orders and tasks, how can there be any help? !

At least, Scar thought so.

“Can you find some more flexible brothers who are familiar with the city?” Amelia Su asked.

“Of course, but, what does Madam want them to do?”

“I’m thinking, these people didn’t take any action when the Angelica accident happened, and they are the people of this day’s magic castle, so the root cause that can be explained is nothing more than two points. .”

First, they are not under the name of Angelica at all, they should be an independent army, and at the same time, they also lead this army to be independent and have their own tasks, otherwise, Angelica is so dangerous, why not call them? !

That’s because Angelica is very clear that he can’t command this army at all.

So, what secret mission do they have? !

The second is what Amelia Su is most worried about.

That’s when this force came along.

It’s too late.

Even if they don’t belong to Angelica, they should know that there is something called lip-dead-tooth cold in this Demon Castle.

Once Angelica loses power, it will only do harm to them without the slightest benefit.

Therefore, even if it is not directly affiliated to the army, at least it will fight side by side in times of embarrassment.

The only possibility is that the group is armed.

Once the defense is set up, they can basically ensure that the enemy can’t fly, and only in this case can they directly give up the life of this Angelica.

Therefore, Amelia Su had to figure out these things.

“Madam’s meaning is that there may be a lot of other ambush around? These thousands of people are mostly killing knives. The real killing knives are still hidden in the dark?”

Amelia Su nodded. possible.

“My subordinates immediately send a few teams to investigate.” After Scar finished speaking, he got up and started to act.

Amelia Su hurriedly stopped him: “Wait a minute.”

“What else is there to do, Madam?” Scar asked respectfully.

Amelia Su frowned and thought about it for a long time. Suddenly, she shook her head again: “No...”

“Scar, it’s not quite right.”

Scar has two big heads, looking at Amelia Su doubtfully, what’s wrong? !

Chapter 4462

“No, it’s really not right.”

Amelia Su shook her head, and the more she thought about it, the more chills she felt behind her back.

“It shouldn’t be investigated.”

Amelia Su suddenly raised her head and looked at Scar.

What’s the meaning? !

For the first time, Scar felt that his IQ was so low that he was anxious. At such a fuing critical moment, he was completely dumbfounded? Why can’t he understand anything? !

“Why don’t people check it again?”

Amelia Su frowned: “I said just now that there should be countless daggers around. If people check it at this time, isn’t that the same as letting them hit the muzzle? “

I’m worried, no matter how many spies are sent to investigate, the result will always be the same.”

“That is, there is no return.”

Since the enemy has laid a net, this net is even aimed at George Han.

Even George Han might eat turtle stuff when he arrives. How can ordinary people get close? !

“That’s miscellaneous, don’t you want to check it?” Scar was a little depressed.

He understands this very clearly. If the enemy is in the dark and he is in the light, it will be even more dangerous.

“The investigation is definitely going to be investigated.”

“How about I send a few more troops? Some are the main charge, and some secretly find out their positions?” Scar said.

Once you figure out the secret posts of these guys, then their ambush will be clearer and clearer, and the threat degree will naturally be greatly reduced.

This point, Amelia Su originally agreed, but after thinking about it, she quickly rejected it.

If these people have really completed the heavy armor equipment, naturally, there is no problem.

But at the moment, they are civilians, not even ordinary soldiers. If they go, they will always die by themselves.

It is almost a nonsense to rely on them to complete the tactics of Chen Cang in the dark.

“Wait, Darkness Chencang?!”

This idea suddenly spread wildly in Amelia Su’s mind, and then, Amelia Su suddenly smiled.

“It is possible to play this trick.”

After hearing Amelia Su’s words, the scar immediately laughed.

Finally, I was a reckless man who helped me at a critical moment and came up with a good idea.

“Then I’ll make arrangements now.”

“Wait a minute.” Amelia Su stopped him again.

“What else is there to tell Madam?”

“I think you must have misunderstood what I meant.” Amelia Su smiled softly: “What I said about Darkness Chencang is not the Darkness Chencang you imagined.

” After turning around, the clown was still himself.

“Oh, ma’am, I...I...I...I’m stunned. What is Darkness Chencang is not the Darkness Chencang I imagined. Isn’t it all one word and one meaning?”

“Otherwise, I don’t think so If the darkness is too dark, let’s go straight to it. We have so many brothers, what are we afraid of, we will send them directly as cannon fodder. Will those dark whistle-blowers dare to use dark guns?”

“As soon as they are released, the positions of these people will be exposed. , they’re a shit.”

Scar panicked.

He had just joined, so he was naturally eager to express himself, and George Han gave him such a great gift that changed his life in the future, and he spared no effort to prove and give back.

Amelia Su’s repeated denials made this product a little gross.

Anyway, it’s a big deal to fight with those dog days, and it’s okay to order me not to.

“Scar, it’s pointless to do that, it will only add casualties. Are you going to kill all three thousand old ones? Besides, what if you try a dark whistle?”

“Aren’t they going to adjust their positions soon? When the time comes, shall we rush again?”

“Is there anyone else?”

Scar lowered his head, what Amelia Su said did have her reasoning.

“But this doesn’t work, that doesn’t work either, let’s... let’s just watch the leader of the alliance be beaten alone?”

Amelia Su smiled coldly: “Of course it’s impossible. If you beat my husband, does he think I’m Amelia Su dead? “

Scar!”

“Yes!”

“Listen to me!”

“Yes!”

Chapter 4463

“Immediately organize two elite teams, the requirements are as follows, run fast, be able to hide, familiar with the city.”

“Subordinates understand. “

“I ask them to constantly intersperse, horizontally and vertically, and aim at me, to attract the attention of those secret whistleblowers on the ground. However, be sure to remember one thing, don’t hit hard, just lead and hide, can you do it?”

In other words, these The task of man is to be a mosquito and a fly.

They don’t need to do anything, just be careful to keep yourself safe while constantly harassing them.

For this, it seems a little difficult, but when you think about it, it is not impossible.

Thinking of the scar, he nodded: “Madam, don’t worry, our brothers in the Demon Castle may not have any other skills, but they have been hiding under high pressure for many years to save their lives. The task is simply to do your own work .”

Amelia Su nodded, but still warned carefully: “These men in black are far stronger than the previous soldiers, so don’t be careless.”

“The number of our troops should be as large as possible. At the same time, we must be as careful as possible. Scar, this is the support for all our actions next, so...”

Hearing this, Scar instantly understood.

“Madam, don’t worry, I know what to do. I will select as many candidates as possible to form more reserve teams. Even if there is a problem with the troops in front, I will quickly let the reserve troops take over.”

“In short , I promise that in this link, not only will we not have any problems, but we will harass them infinitely and make them very annoying.”

With the guarantee of Scar, Amelia Su nodded with satisfaction: “Next, I need another batch of excellent players.

“There are a few requirements.”

“They must be as flexible as the advance harassment troops. Incomparable, familiar with the map, the most important thing is that they can fight, they are powerful, and the number of people is about fifty people.”

“Can it be done?”

“Fifty people?” Scar frowned.

To be flexible and able to hide, Scar believes that almost everyone of the 30,000 people can do it. After all, in the previous environment of the Demon Castle, if they couldn't hide, they would have died long ago.

It's just that there are not too many to be able to fight.

After all, most of their people are civilians.

"Is it a little difficult?"

"It's not difficult, but my subordinates just don't know how much my wife can fight. I'm afraid that this group of people won't be able to help my wife."

Amelia Su shook her head: "It doesn't matter, try your best. "

My subordinates will do it now."

After he finished speaking, Scar turned around and left.

Ten minutes later, Scar returned with six people.

"Subordinate, I have seen Mrs." The seven people bowed their heads respectfully and said in a salute.

Amelia Su glanced at the six people he brought with him. All of them were extremely strong. At first glance, even if they didn't have cultivation, they were the kind of people who could fight.

It can be seen that the person who picks the goods is still reliable. It's just that this guy may have set Amelia Su's expectations too high, so that he is worried that the person he chooses will not be able to help at that time, which is a bit embarrassing.

"Madam, these six people and I happen to be the leaders of the seven teams."

"The number of each team is about 12, and there are a total of 84 people."

Amelia Su nodded: "What about the harassment team here?"

"Team leader, each team consists of twenty-four people, divided into leading and reserve teams."

"At the same time, I also asked these brothers to select more people as soon as possible, and I will directly give him a viral spread."

"However, there are too many people, so I didn't bring them here to see you, Madam."

Amelia Su smiled slightly, but he couldn't tell that Scar was still a very delicate person.

"Well done, Scar." Amelia Su praised.

Hearing this, Scar touched his head a little embarrassedly for a while and smiled.

As long as the lady is satisfied, he is happy as long as he can help.

After all, it was the first thing Scar did when he took the post.

“Madam, what should we do next?” Knife Scar asked, “Just tell us.”

Amelia Su looked at Knife Scar’s eagerness, smiled lightly, and then summoned Knife Scar over to her own. The plan told him...

Chapter 4464

After listening to Amelia Su’s plan, Scar was obviously stunned for a moment.

But the next second, the whole person immediately laughed.

“Madam, it really is Madam, amazing.” After the words were finished, Scar quickly evacuated from the scene under the leadership of Amelia Su.

And George Han, who was in the field, also entered the heat of the war at this time.

With a group of men in black encircling again, George Han’s Pangu axe was also completely rounded.

The man in black passed by, like a bat, and when he touched George Han’s Pangu axe, it fell like a broken wing.

But it’s strange to say that although George Han’s side is killing endlessly, and countless men in black are constantly being cut to the ground, their attack momentum has not diminished in the slightest.

It is still a steady stream of attacks and kills towards George Han.

Although George Han was not injured, such an intensive offensive still made him a little overwhelmed, and his physical strength began to be consumed frantically.

The most important thing is that George Han found out that this group of people seems to have never been downsized?

This is? !

As George Han continued to fight, he frowned and began to think deeply.

If the memory is not wrong, George Han should have encountered such a situation.

The army of the dead that I met when I was surrounded by the mountains.

The same is true for them. No matter how hard they fought, they recovered quickly even though they were dead.

Could it be the same with these men in black? !

Thinking of this, George Han directly threw the Pangu axe, and after forcibly knocking the enemy back, his body quickly retreated and stood in the air.

“Haha, George Han, are you afraid?”

Seeing George Han retreat, the voice in the black clothes rang for the first time.

On the surface, George Han’s move does seem to be retreating.

George Han didn’t speak. Taking advantage of the volley, he looked up and found that the other party’s personnel were still densely packed . Compared with the beginning of the battle, there was indeed not much difference.

This means that George Han’s guess is correct.

The other party has never lost his mother at all.

“No wonder.”

George Han snorted coldly.

“Tianhuo, Moon Wheel, come back to me!”

Wow!

The Skyfire Moon Wheel flew back with the Jade Sword.

With a mention in his hand, George Han took back the Pangu axe, and at the same time, a huge yang energy filled the jade sword.

“Why, just relying on your immortality is the capital you are proud of?” George Han said coldly.

The man in black laughed, full of disdain: “After fighting for so long, did you find the crux of the problem?”

“Yes, these people are not human and can change at any time.”

“The most important thing is that they are immortal and immortal. Destroyed.” The man in black sneered fiercely, and was extremely proud for a while.

George Han frowned.

Immortal?”

“I, George Han, don’t exist here!”

Between the flowers, George Han directly held the jade sword and slaughtered away.

The speed of its movements is like a fast dragon!

“Pfft!”

Under the super blessing of Yang Qi, the jade sword is like a red-hot fire sword.

The fire sword swept past, and many people in black fell to the ground on the spot.

After that, in the fire, it was directly burned and turned into nothing.

And their bodies were completely wiped out under another flame.

With George Han attacking like fire and water, one, two, or even more people fell one after another.

At this time, George Han stood up again and looked back.

What is reassuring is that the place where George Han slaughtered was completely bustling for a while, leaving only a black ash.

No one comes back from the dead!

“Aren’t they still alive?” Han

George Han asked coldly.

The man in black seemed to be completely shocked, and he didn’t answer for a while.

After a while, the man in black murmured: “George Han is really George Han. The devilish energy on his body is so heavy, but people can’t imagine that there is such a fierce and fierce yang energy.

” I really admire you.” What these immortal soldiers fear most is yang qi, and the powerful yang qi and their attributes are almost completely incompatible.

If you kill them with this ability, you can really make them lose the chance of recovery.

“However, even so, what can I do? I have thousands of soldiers like this, can you kill them?”

“If you kill them, does that mean you won?”

“Kill me!”

Wow!

All the men in black quickly integrated again, and then attacked and killed George Han.

“Looking for death!”

George Han was also furious and rushed over...

Chapter 4465

With George Han entered again, jade sword with fire, crazy attack.

Along the way, they were almost invincible. At the same time as black smoke rose, countless corpses fell down.

Even though the men in black were as dense as ants, George Han was forced to kill a bloody path.

The leading man in black looked at the situation on the battlefield coldly.

Even if George Han is unstoppable now, even if George Han already knows the mystery of how to kill the man in black.

But he still wasn't worried.

Because if relying on these people alone is like taking George Han, it would be too confident and arrogant.

Of course he has countless killer moves!

In fact, he had long expected the situation that these men in black were broken.

"Let's play, George Han, have a good time." When the words fell, his hands swayed, and the men in black who had been madly killed instantly changed into black waves.

Just like before, these huge waves are one after another, spreading wildly, killing them!

George Han's jade sword swung wildly, resisting it again and again in his hand.

puff!

Another wave died under the sword of fire, leaving only the residue.

"Puchi"

"Puchi!"

George Han is simply the unparalleled god of war, even if those men in black are very powerful, but after all, they can't stop such a ferocious man.

A seemingly crazy group of people, with the passage of time, the number has plummeted like crazy.

Ten minutes later, along with George Han's Pangu axe, the golden yang energy of George Han burst out, and those seemingly extremely strong black waves were instantly sent flying several meters away.

After that, it dissipated directly in the air.

"Okay, George Han, you are really fierce!"

With a few thousand people almost killed, the leading man in black slowly appeared.

Looking at George Han, he couldn't help clapping and laughing.

George Han stared at this guy indifferently. Wei Yujian retracted his back, and said coldly: "Do you have any other skills? That's all?"

George Han knew very well that although the other party was very strong in pretending, and it is absolutely unlikely that it is installed without a brain.

He must have a very strong backhand.

Therefore, George Han's vigilance never relaxed.

"Of course I'm more than that. If I want to rely on these to shock the entire Demon Castle, then I might as well rely on the trash of Angelica."

George Han sneered: "If you have anything, just use it."

"Okay, but don't blame me. I didn't remind you, after I use it, don't be afraid to tremble."

Hua Luo, Hei Ying waved his hand gently.

In the next second, a scene that stunned George Han appeared.

With George Han as the center, in a circle around him, with a swish, countless men in black suddenly stood up.

These men in black, almost all of them holding bows and crossbows, are ready to move their bows here.

Compared with them, what is even more troublesome is that on the ground, thousands of people in black directly assembled. ,

They are powerful and powerful.

"What?" George Han was speechless.

Compared with the previous batch, this group of people has almost no change in strength.

But the addition is their number, which is directly at least double the previous number, and it is already close to 10,000.

The fu!!

No wonder this guy is so confident, it turns out that this guy has such a backhand.

However, George Han does not think that this are the end of the world.

"Boy, do you really think it's all about this? You're sure to win?"

"I think that's the case." When the words fell, George Han directly raised his sword, and force was the most powerful explanation.

The next second, George Han rushed to kill again alone.

However, what was different from the last time was that this time, George Han, Lei Longtian caused the sky to burn wildly.

While accumulating strength for him, it also assists his attack.

"Taojie of Evil, what are you waiting for?"

With a light drink, the next second, Taojie of Evil also rushed out and followed George Han all the way.

George Han is the main, while the gluttonous gluttons of evil are on the right, and the fire of heaven is on the left.

He just relied on this, in a triangular posture, and went all the way.

Even if the enemy is outnumbered, even if the crisis is full of danger, and even if the situation is difficult, George Han will still go forward.

For a time, in the darkness, George Han also forcibly killed a bloody path.

And the next operation made George Han almost defy the sky...

The black-clothed leader narrowed his eyes slightly: "This... how is this possible?"

Chapter 4466

The Pangu axe hangs directly against the sky.

George Han's body was full of light, and the body was almost unable to contain a strong yang energy.

"Come on."

Extremely strong rays of light frantically poured into Pangu's axe.

Even the bronze-colored Pangu axe, under such pressure, still swells with crazy light, looking from a distance, it looks like a golden giant axe.

"What is he doing?" The man in black was a little surprised.

He really didn't know what this guy George Han meant.

Relying on the strength of one person, this guy actually did this.

What a fuing show, isn't it?

"There are so many people, isn't it amazing?"

George Han grinned coldly, and the next second, the light in his hand became even bigger!

"Xuanyuan Axe Formation!"

Lu Ruoxin learned the ultimate ultimate move.

Perhaps George Han couldn't use the Pangu Axe to exert its maximum power, but at least in this case, the axe array would cause maximum damage to the enemy.

"Come on!"

Whoosh!

Thousands of axes fell like rain.

Just the scene, it has been brilliant to the extreme.

“Boom!” In the next second, the axe rained to the ground, and the smashed ground exploded for a while.

And those people in black who seem to be extremely strong are also madly scattered into smoke under the axe rain.

“What?!”

The black-clothed leader was completely dumbfounded when he saw his neat army being smashed under the axe.

This is a fuing pervert.

“Kill!”

He couldn't help it, he waved his hand, and suddenly, thousands of arrows were fired from the bows and crossbows.

The other soldiers in black also drew their guns and projected, and for a while, a rain of guns and arrows also attacked the three thousand Koreans.

The two sides are like banging against each other. After you blow up our side, you will have a lot of fun!

However, in the face of such an attack, George Han was not at all as flustered or shocked as the black-clothed leader just now.

On the contrary, he even had a sly smile on the corner of his mouth.

“I've been waiting for you for a fuing long time.”

Yes, George Han didn't lie at all.

George Han has been worried that these guys will not attack his own group. After all, there is no place for bravery and magic, which is simply a waste of time.

Right now, they are late, but always there.

When it arrives, I will make you look good.

George Han directly raised You Huang with his left hand, and at the same time his right hand was slightly stimulated.

With the ability of Wuxiang Divine Art, George Han of course knew that it would be difficult to resist so many attacks.

But with the blessing of Emperor You, it is completely different

The Emperor You can directly resist various attacks and stop them for a short time. After that, after the offensive has weakened, the Wuxiang Divine Art will be slowly digested.

“Come on!”

You Huang moved.

Phaseless magic is also urged to the extreme.

Stop the rain of arrows and guns!

Wuxiang Divine Art absorbs all the above power, and then sums it up.

After that, brew!

Finally, break out!

A tooth for a tooth!

Break it for me!

The Wuxiang Divine Art directly repays all the power, and at the same time as the force pushes out, the power will stop the arrow rain and the gun rain collectively flying out in the opposite direction.

Whoa!

The rain of arrows and rain of guns changed the course instantly, and went towards the men in black in unison.

“What?” The black-clothed leader was completely stunned.

Even though it was convenient for him to think of thousands of ways that George Han could counterattack, he never imagined that George Han would use such a way to counterattack.

How the fu is this?

You can't play.

Report, someone opened a plug-in.

“Damn it.” The guy almost gritted his teeth, and the whole person was about to go crazy.

boom!

The rain of arrows and guns that suddenly changed course has already landed.

Many people in black did not expect it to be like this. Under the current state of untimely response, they were smashed into pieces, which was horrible to watch.

And George Han over there, didn't plan to stop at all, and brought his evil gluttony and Tianhuo to kill again to harvest the battlefield...

For a while, a more terrifying scene seemed to appear.

But the leader in black didn't panic, he was just angry.

Such a layout, but still can't last long? !

Then no layout.

“Come out for me!” He roared..

Chapter 4467

“Boom!”

The men in black, who had been lost nearly half of the army by George Han’s two consecutive big moves, suddenly With a roar from the leader.

In the next second, out of nowhere, at least a few thousand men in black suddenly rushed out. Almost in the blink of an eye, they completely made up for the army of men in black that had previously lost more than half.

“fU!”

This time, it was George Han’s turn to be completely dumbfounded.

“So many people?”

There have been two waves, and every time these people are destroyed, they can always be replenished quickly.

This really makes people have to shout strange.

“Roar!”

The nearly 10,000 men in black shouted in unison, and the momentum was like a rainbow.

George Han frowned, retreated slightly, and remained vigilant.

“Kill me!”

The leader in black waved his hand, and Wan Jun charged again.

Depend on!

Even though George Han is really strong, he can’t stand being tossed like this

In the face of a mountain-like tsunami-like attack, at the moment, they can only attack with a hard-top triangle while slowly retreating.

“George Han, it’s not over yet, come again!”

“Roar!”

Nearly 10,000 men in black came out from the original place, and then joined the battle.

“Roar!”

Another wave!

“Roar!”

After

more than ten minutes, George Han couldn't remember how many times the other party kept roaring like this.

He only knew that the siege in all directions had become denser and more impassable.

“Roar!”

It was another roar, but it wasn't the imposing manner of the man in black, but the roar of pain from the gluttonous glutton.

Even this thick-skinned guy, now facing such an attack, is obviously starting to get overwhelmed.

It is true that the other party's gang is too powerful and has a large number of people. They are as strong as George Han, but they are literally scarred and suffering from constant pain.

“If you keep doing this, George Han, you will surely die, get out of here!” The dragon's voice resounded in his mind.

George Han was very depressed, and he didn't need to mention it.

The opponent's army is too strong, and the number of people is too large. It only takes ten minutes. Although JiangGeorge Han is not completely empty, it at least makes George Han almost exhausted.

With such a large number of people, if they continue to fight, even if George Han activates Taixu to restart his power, in the end, the result will be the same, that is, he will die from exhaustion.

But the word retreat, George Han never thought of it.

Once he wants to retreat, it doesn't matter if the Demon Castle is lost, but what about the people behind him? What about the brothers who joined their own polar bear corps?

I'm afraid, what awaits them is nothing but death and massacre.

So, how could George Han have any reason and possibility to retreat ? !

At the moment, there is no other choice but to fight the enemy bravely.

This group of people did not intend to give George Han any chance to retreat. “Do you think I can withdraw now? Damn, it's strange to say, where can you find so many elites in the Demon Castle? In terms of individual soldier ability, these elites are not even more than the elites of the Pei family. What

's more terrifying is that there are so many of them that they can't be killed.

Even an old family like the Pei family can't have such a huge elite group. George Han always feels that the other party is very strange. But for a while, I don't know what's so strange about it.

Under the sword of fire, there is no possibility for this group of people to recover, so the previous situation of regeneration will not happen.

It is very contradictory, but it is reality.

" I feel weird too, but can't figure out any reason either.

Since George Han started fighting with the other side, in fact, the dragon has been observing, but as George Han said, many things seem strange, but there is no reason to analyze it at all.

"fu Yes, is it really overturned?" George Han said depressedly.

This day, the city lord of the Demon Castle was killed by himself, but he did not expect that after the death of this guy, the real trouble would come one after another.

Even if George Han had expected it, he did not expect it. The situation will be so outrageous.

"What are you going to do?" Magic Dragon asked.

George Han shook his head: "I don't know either. If you want to ask me about my plan, I don't have one, but my determination is very clear, that is to fight them to the end." "

With my wife and brother behind me, I have no chance of going backward." " When the words fell, he cut off the connection with the magic dragon directly, and George Han started to kill.

Almost at the same time, Amelia Su's side...

Chapter 4468

With Scar and other seven teams, Amelia Su has left the war under the cover of the harassing troops arranged by Scar. At the very center, and ran all the way in a strange direction.

City Lord's Mansion.

The real city lord's mansion in Tianmo Castle.

Since a group of people entered the Demon Castle, they have never entered that place from beginning to end.

And the reason for choosing this place, in addition to the above reasons, there is another most important point.

That is, why does Angelica as the city lord not live in his own city lord's mansion, but instead build an extra one outside?

In fact, Amelia Su and George Han thought that the newly built golden palace might just be because people were imprisoned below, so Angelica has always lived there.

But when they saw that there was a golden palace, the two couples felt something was wrong.

It stands to reason that although the previous hypothesis was established
, then for Angelica, this is a temporary residence.

It is understandable that the city is mainly of high standard.

But not so luxurious as to be dehumanizing.

Such local tyrants can only explain one reason, that is, Angelica treats this place as home.

Otherwise, why be so extravagant? !

If that's the case, what about the City Lord's Mansion? ! Even if it is broken again, its specifications are still there, and the reason for this alone is obviously untenable.

Therefore, there is only one possibility, and that is the City Lord's Mansion, which may be used for other purposes.

It's just that the suspicions of the two couples were only hidden in their hearts. In addition, after the angelica was broken, there were always other things to deal with, so they were delayed there and did not go to verify.

Now, the man in black suddenly appeared, which made Amelia Su's doubts about that place infinitely aggravated.

"Madam,

what are we going to do in the City Lord's Mansion? That place is in the center of the Demon Castle. We... we don't even count the breakthrough here. This is completely in-depth to the core of the place." On the way, it was obviously difficult for Scar to understand .

Amelia Su replied softly, "Looking for a big fish."

"Big fish?" Scar scratched his head, obviously incomprehensible: "The City Lord's Mansion has been empty for a long time.

" Is it?"

Amelia Su knew better than anyone else that there was no silver 300 taels here.

"Why do you want to leave such a big city lord's mansion empty? Angelica needs a new place to guard those women, so it can be a big prison, right? How good is it to spend the rest of the money to renovate your old nest?" Amelia Su said.

Scar nodded, and he understood the truth as soon as he heard it.

"Actually, it seems to make sense."

Knife Scar nodded: "Madam means, there are other people living in the city lord's mansion?"

A troop that does not belong to Angelica at all, there are so many people, Angelica is impossible Not sure.

At the same time as he was clear, the people who could hide in the Demon Castle didn't even know of their existence. Amelia Su thought about it and thought that the City Lord's Mansion could hide them.

"We're almost there, but I'm afraid this place is not as simple as the original City Lord's Mansion."

Looking at the City Lord's Mansion not far away, Amelia Su stopped.

"What do you mean?" Scar asked in confusion.

Amelia Su said: "I mean, the City Lord's Mansion in front of you may seem calm, but it is actually a Longtan Tiger's Den, with a lot of murderous intentions, are you afraid?"

"Seriously, before we were terrified and not like our Heavenly Demon Castle, everyone came to danger. I'm afraid."

"That's right, ma'am, we don't know when we might die, so right now, even if the city lord's mansion is full of ambushes, it's not the same as before."

"Ma'am, let's go in, There's nothing to be afraid of." A group of people with strong will.

"Okay." Amelia Su nodded with satisfaction: "When we get through the difficulties, I will let 3000 reward you well."

"Madam, there is no need for that, we are helping the leader, but we are also helping ourselves. If he falls, we are the devil. The people in the castle probably won't be able to play anymore, there's no need for a reward, we'll work as hard as we can!"

"I'll take the lead, brothers."

After Scar finished speaking, he didn't give anyone a chance at all, and walked directly to the mansion with his golden gun.

Amelia Su thought that this guy had armor after all, and did not let him come back. He followed closely with the other brothers and walked towards the City Lord's Mansion...

Chapter 4469

city master's mansion, the silence is almost audible.

The group plus Amelia Su made a total of eighty-five people.

So sneakily, he entered the city lord's mansion.

Dazzling around, are no one.

However, Amelia Su still did not dare to relax in the slightest.

Scar rushed at the forefront, first passing through the courtyard, and then entering the main hall of the City Lord's Mansion.

no one!

As Amelia Su waved his hand, the others quickly dispersed and searched in the hall.

Amelia Su was not idle either, taking this opportunity to start observing in the center of the hall.

Apparently, the hall had not been inhabited for a long time, the walls were covered with cobwebs, and the tables and chairs were also full of dust.

Immediately afterwards, Scar also came over and said softly: "Madam, after checking around, it doesn't seem like this place looks like a place where someone lives."

"Are we... are we thinking too much?" ?

Amelia Su

didn't answer immediately, just frowned and thought seriously.

Is it really? !

"Report to Madam, we didn't find anything."

"Neither did we!"

"We even searched the backyard, and it seems to have been deserted for a long time."

"That's right." The six captains also returned at this time.

Hearing these words, Amelia Su's firmness that she had originally had disappeared a little at this time.

Do you really think too much?

However, this is not right.

If you simply think too much about yourself, then there are some things that don't match up at all.

"Have you all searched carefully?" Amelia Su asked unwillingly.

Seven people including Scar, you look at me, I look at you, and then nodded fiercely.

On this point, they were quite sure

"strange!" Amelia Su did not give up.

She just couldn't understand why it was like this.

Suddenly, just as she was pacing, her eyes quickly settled at her feet.

Underfoot, although there is also a lot of dust, but in some places it seems that the situation is not right.

Thinking of this, Amelia Su squatted down.

Seeing the scar, she couldn't help but persuade with some bitterness: "Madam, these footprints should be fine, right?"

"These were all stepped on by our brothers when they came in just now."

Amelia Su didn't answer, and looked up at everyone's feet. .

Except for the scars, which are golden armor, the shoes that everyone else is wearing are mostly the same straw shoes.

This kind of shoes, the footprint is relatively round, and there are many stripes in the center.

On the scene, there are many such footprints, which seems to confirm this.

Scar's footprints and Amelia Su's own footprints can also be found sporadically on the ground.

It does n't seem suspicious.

"Ma'am, this place...maybe..." Knife Scar wanted to continue to say it was meaningless, but he couldn't say it. At this time, he had to say half of the words, and there was nothing else to say.

Amelia Su still ignored it.

She really didn't believe that the previous things would be completely overturned at this time.

This just doesn't make sense.

Thinking of this, she continued to search on the ground.

Seeing Madam like this, Knife Scar didn't dare to disturb him too much. He waved his hand to let the brothers continue to investigate. He silently led his team and waited quietly in the hall.

During this process, he helped Amelia Su to see if there were any clues on the ground.

But the results were clearly disappointing.

He was almost 100% sure that there were no footprints of anyone else but theirs.

This big house has indeed not been lived in for a long time.

Half an hour later,

everyone has returned for the second time.

However, none of them bothered Amelia Su, they just stood there silently, waiting quietly.

They can understand Amelia Su's mood. After preparing for so long, and even sending so many people, they ended up throwing an empty game, and no one would be reconciled.

So...

But Amelia Su didn't think so, she simply thought that it would be illogical if no one lived here.

So, in theory, there should be people living here.

Moreover, the number of people should not be in the minority.

Suddenly, Amelia Su stopped, staring blankly at the dust on the ground.

Raising her eyes again, she looked at the dust where Scar and the others were standing.

She smiled fiercely: "I think, I know." After the words were finished, Amelia Su suddenly stood up in the state of Scar and others completely confused...

Chapter 4470

. Before waiting for any feedback from the group, she directly pushed Scar and the others away, and then moved all the way towards a certain person in the hall. Go to the corner.

In the corner, a large bookshelf stood there.

As Amelia Su walked over, Scar and others quickly studied the bookshelf.

However, the bookshelf is normal, it doesn't seem to have any problems at all.

"Knife Scar, let a few more brothers come to help, there must be something wrong with this bookshelf."

Amelia Su's words were almost the exact opposite of Scar's guess.

"Madam, take the liberty to say, this bookshelf, it...it...it doesn't seem to have a problem."

Both sides are hollowed out, and even if there is any mechanism, it is often difficult to frame it.

One is too complicated, and the other is not concealed enough at all.

But Amelia Su's attitude was quite firm: "Check

, give me a good check, there must be something wrong here."

Seeing her like this, Knife Scar didn't say much. He could only wave his hand and ask his brothers to do as Madam ordered.

A group of people quickly fumbled and checked the shelves.

Scar was a little embarrassed, and stood there a little bit at a loss.

After all, he thought it was useless work.

If it's normal, Madam, as long as she wants, he can always accompany her to make trouble. But today is different. The leader of the alliance is being surrounded and suppressed by thousands of soldiers outside. He can't wait to fly over to help now.

"Crack!"

But at this moment, there was a sudden sound on the bookshelf.

Immediately afterwards, before everyone had reacted, a rumbling sound slowly sounded from another corner.

Scar's impatient face immediately wiped all expressions, leaving only a face full of shock and wonder.

In fact, not only him, but also the brothers in charge of the search were also surprised, unable to believe that they had actually opened a certain organ by accident.

Amelia Su's eyes also lit up, but compared to theirs, her eyes were more indifferent and natural.

She knew that it must not be as simple as they seem on the surface.

"Madam, this..." Knife Scar looked at Amelia Su, not understanding why she could be sure that there were other secret passages or institutions here.

Amelia Su glanced at the dust on the ground: "They told me."

"They? But there aren't any footprints on the ground." Scar said puzzled.

Amelia Su nodded: "Actually, I was very surprised at first, why there are no footprints here."

"But if you think about those men in black, it seems to make sense."

Those men in black were attacking George Han. At times, it is obviously completely different from ordinary people, sometimes it is a human being, and sometimes it turns into a black wave.

Amelia Su also suddenly thought of under such circumstances, since their actions are so strange, are they abnormal in other aspects?

Coincidentally, when Amelia Su raised her head, she suddenly found that the thickness of the dust on the ground seemed to be different.

It was obvious that the dust on both sides of the aisle was much thicker, while the one in the center was much thinner. As it spread all the way, Amelia Su quickly found the bookshelf in the corner.

There it was almost the same as the center, and the dust was thin.

Therefore, Amelia Su is different.

Such ideas and persistence.

Fortunately, this persistence paid off, and after their exploration, the mechanism was discovered.

Everyone quickly looked in the direction of the booming sound.

Sure enough, in a very hidden place, a hidden compartment is slowly opening.

To tell the truth, if it didn't appear by itself at this time, if it was only searched by manpower, I am afraid that even if it was found, it would not be found.

It's so hidden it's hard to spot.

Amelia Su didn't even have the slightest doubt that even George Han might not be able to find it if he had opened the sky.

"Ma'am, I apologize for my recklessness." Scar lowered his head with a pious attitude.

"Now is not the time to apologize, let's hurry up and get angry."

Amelia Su said, and rushed towards the entrance with a group of people..
