

HTC 4471

Chapter 4471

a group of people quickly penetrated directly through the entrance.

First, there was a small and deep path, very narrow, about the width of a person. The guy Scar entered wearing armor, and it was almost like a python entering an eel cave. It turned the river and the sea all the way.

However, although this looks a bit funny, in any case, Amelia Su and the others behind him can at least move forward much more smoothly, after all... the road is wide.

Amelia Su also finally understood what it means to have a place, and it becomes a road when people walk too much.

You don't even need a lot of people like Knife Scar. Wherever he goes once or twice, it's enough to press out a path.

As the road went in for about 20 meters, everything came to a sudden stop in an instant.

A stone gate about two meters high blocked the way.

The stone door is neither wide nor tall, but if you knock it hard, and through its reverberation, you can tell that the stone door is at least a few tens of centimeters thick.

"Madam, I blocked it, what should I do? Or, I'll just smash it away?" Scar said.

Amelia Su looked around, and there seemed to be no organs around that could open the door, but there were some strange patterns in the center of the stone door.

She flew directly, flew over the scar from above the narrow passage, and came to the door.

After careful observation, Amelia Su smiled lightly.

Immediately afterwards, his fingers were lightly buckled on the movable porch somewhere in the center of the pattern, and his hands continued to swipe.

After that, with a sound of jamming, the entire Shimen immediately stopped all noises.

"boom!"

After a short pause of a few seconds, there was a dull sound.

Immediately afterwards, the surroundings of Shimen suddenly loosened, and Shimen slowly fell.

"Open."

Scar exclaimed, and then looked at Amelia Su with a look of admiration

: "Madam, are you too good?"

Amelia Su smiled lightly: "It's just a little trick, and always follow George Han's side. If you can learn something, don't envy me, you will be the same when you stay with him for a long time."

Amelia Su walked in first.

Knife Scar is looking forward to a day in the future, like Amelia Su, who can both break the text and attack with force. Seeing Amelia Su go in, for her safety, she has to hurry up at this time.

After entering from Shimen, Amelia Su only walked about three meters forward before suddenly stopping.

There is no road ahead, and there is an abyss almost as high as 100 zhang at the foot.

In the abyss, layers of houses rose from the ground, and warm lights scattered all over the city. Looking at it, thousands of houses were brightly lit, and under the spectacle, it was like an underground dragon city.

The scar that followed closely also stood up.

Looking at the scene in front of him, his eyes widened completely for a while.

It was almost difficult for him to believe his eyes, and it was even more difficult to believe that such an underground city was hidden under this Demon Castle.

You know, they themselves have been living in the basement for many years to avoid the war.

And among those basements, some are deep, even several meters deep.

But in such an environment, there is such a super world underground, which simply subverts all his imagination.

Immediately afterwards, the soldiers who followed up also began to be just like the two of them, directly standing in the same place.

After a long time, Scar finally recovered from the shock.

He murmured: "There is actually such a giant city in our Demon Castle?"

"How is this possible?"

"It's so huge, why don't we notice it at all?"

"Yeah, when was it built? When was it used, and, why didn't all of us in the castle even notice the movement in this city?" The group of people was very confused.

Amelia Su also felt a little unbelievable. After all, this kind of city within a city is so terrifying and huge now that even she finds it very hard to believe.

Especially, in such a big underground city, the peace is good, and the lights are on, so... how many people are there.

Will the people above really not notice it at all?

Where did they come from? Who is it? ?

“Ma’am, let’s go down and have a look.” Knife Scar couldn’t help but be curious and suggested at this time.

Amelia Su nodded: “Those men in black may be guarding this place.”

“So...be careful.”

Everyone nodded, and then they moved towards the underground city quickly...

Chapter 4472

the side of the cliff, and everyone slowly descends all the way.

After about ten minutes, they finally finished the last flight of stairs and reached the bottom floor.

Amelia Su didn’t go to the city immediately, but squatted down, took some soil and kneaded it lightly in her hand to observe.

George Han was not by his side, and he was in such an unfamiliar environment. Naturally, the best choice was to try and learn what George Han would do if he were here.

She believed that George Han would do what he did now.

“Ma’am, is there any problem?” Scar asked.

Amelia Su frowned slightly: “Looking at these rammed piles of earth, they are still very new, and they don’t seem to have been built for a long time. I estimate that the construction of this underground castle will take no more than a year.”

“Less than a year?” Confused and puzzled.

This is impossible.

In the past six months, Tianmo

Castle has not been peaceful. Scar and the others are paying more attention to the city itself. If they want to complete the construction during this period of time, will they not know?

“But people will lie, but physical evidence won’t.” Amelia Su said in a cold and firm voice.

The fact is that the time shown by the rammed earth is indeed within this range.

Amelia Su also had to sigh, this was really surprising, but it was an iron-clad fact.

Scar touched his head and glanced at the other brothers. Seeing that the other brothers were completely confused, he looked at Amelia Su eagerly: “I really don’t know, how about we go to the city?”

Amelia Su nodded: “After entering the city, you must be more careful, and your actions must be extremely concealed.”

If a large number of people in black really go out from here, then this means that there must be something in the city that they need to guard. thing.

But on the other hand, with such an important thing, even if the opponent is forced to need support, they will often leave some elites to guard.

Therefore, it is also not to be taken lightly here.

The group nodded, and Scar was intentionally left outside the city for support by Amelia Su this time.

There is no other reason. This guy is wearing a suit of armor, and even if he is careful, he will always make a loud noise.

On the other hand, there is a strong point outside the city as a support, and it is more flexible and changeable in tactics.

For Amelia Su's safety, Knife Scar sent his two capable subordinates, A Zuo and A, over.

Although the names of the two people are too playful, the victory is easy to remember.

A group of people touched the darkness and quickly entered the city.

In the city, all the houses are made of rammed earth, which is then shaped into an integrated structure.

Although it is simple and the structure is not too complicated, it is better than it is well-made, so just by looking at it, you can know that it is very strong.

The most important thing is that the main body of the house is very atmospheric and magnificent.

Even though many of them are just residential houses, they still look like the place where the local tyrants and gentlemen live.

"Damn it, people say that the top is better than the bottom, but why isn't it like that in Tianmo Castle?"

"Who said it wasn't, any house in this place is equivalent to the little local tyrants of our earthly people."

fu**, what does this mean?"

A Zuo and A Right complained while walking.

Amelia Su also frowned, the dungeon here is indeed a bit extravagantly luxurious.

"Madam, look there." A Zuo reminded suddenly.

Looking in the direction of Ah Zuo, I saw a stone statue standing in the center of the town.

The carving of the stone statue is very powerful, like a half-flying wild dragon, but it is not completely similar to the dragon.

Its feet are somewhat like a turtle's.

It also has a bunch of wings on it.

As for the dragon head, it is quite a tiger's brain.

It looks like a monster formed by the integration of the four divine beasts, but it doesn't seem like it, there is always a very strange feeling.

Amelia Su felt that it was very powerful and evil.

"Madam, that thing looks like a stone sculpture, but it's very evil."

"Do you think so too?" Amelia Su looked at A Zuo and A You.

Both of them nodded.

It seems that it is not just as simple as his own intuition.

Amelia Su hurriedly waved her hand, signaling everyone to spread out, and then spread out to flank them.

But just as everyone shook, the strange dragon's eyes suddenly lit up.

Immediately afterward, a loud shout came suddenly.

"Dragon City, those who enter die!"

Chapter 4473

Wow!

In an instant, Amelia Su and the others were fiercely facing the enemy, and they drew their swords in an instant, cautiously vigilant around them.

"Huh!"

With a dull gasp, suddenly, a very strong wind and waves rushed frantically from the exit.

The crowd didn't have much time to react, and some of them were blown back a few steps by the wind on the spot. In a panic, they had to quickly grab everything they could.

On the other hand, Amelia Su also hurried luck and created a barrier to forcibly resist the attack of the wind and waves.

Soon, the wind stopped.

But Amelia Su and others suffered a lot.

Two were missing and seven or eight were slightly injured.

And this is just an appetizer.

"Be careful." Amelia Su ordered.

The next second, the long sword in his hand was drawn, and he slapped it with a palm.

brush!

The long sword is like a missile, directly attacking the monster dragon.

boom!

There was a huge explosion, but after the smoke dissipated, the stone statue of the strange dragon still stood there intact.

Although Amelia Su was not a monster like George Han, at least he was someone who entered the ranks of top experts under the guidance of Tian Zhiqiongqi.

The joint explosion created by the Eight Wild Days and Ziqing that day was even more impressive.

In terms of attack power alone, Amelia Su could even compete with George Han before.

But it was such a person who attacked so fiercely that when he hit the opposite head, he was actually unscathed.

“This stone carving is not right.” A Zuo whispered.

It’s not just wrong, it’s simply wrong. ” Ignorant children, trespassing into Dragon City without permission is already a capital crime. Now, you dare to sneak attack on the deity. Do you know what the consequences will be?” Boom! Almost as soon as he finished speaking, another explosion exploded directly at his left eye.

The same is without any substantial damage, but to that strange dragon, this is simply a provocation of dignity. “I killed you ants!” Under the angry roar, between the monster’s mouth, an extremely thick flame spurted out.

**At first, it was straight, but as Amelia Su moved, he moved quickly, and in the end he was really like a living dragon, chasing after Amelia Su. “Go and help Madam.” Ah, You shouted, and the twelve people with his team immediately attacked the monster.

At the same time, A Zuo didn’t care so much, and formed a flanking attack with A Right from the other side, and also attacked violently. Suddenly, the strange dragon stone sculpture lit up with light and explosions. Although the difference between the power and Amelia Su’s power was not even a little bit, the bite of a beast was painful, but the bite of an ant was equally annoying. “Damn it!” The strange dragon scolded, and the petrified foot suddenly lifted up for some reason and then stepped down with a heavy foot. boom!

In an instant, the ground shook.

Not to mention the twenty-four people from Azuo and Ayou, the houses that came all the way also collapsed under the ground shaking, and a huge gap was directly pulled out of the ground.

Twenty-four fell like a bowling ball.

Together, there are other people who haven’t had time to do it.

Outside the city, the group of Scar, who had just settled in to hide their figure, was also staggering a little while shaking.

Scar hurriedly got up and stepped into the city, unable to help but in a hurry: "Damn, what the hell is going on?" "Could it be that something happened to the madam and they were sent down?"

If they are found, then the enemy will definitely attack immediately, which means that the lady will be in danger.

Thinking of this, Scar could not sit still.

It's going to go right on the spot.

His subordinates hurriedly grabbed him: "Commander, don't be impulsive, don't be impulsive, before Madam left, she asked us to wait patiently outside. Without her signal, don't act rashly.

"When the fu** is it, you're still waiting here, if Madam has three strengths and two weaknesses, what will I do to face the leader of the alliance?"

"At that time, instead of dying with shame, it is better for me to slash out vigorously now. "

Is there any brother who is not afraid of death!" As soon as he shouted, many brothers immediately responded.

The subordinates saw it in his eyes and worried in his heart, but he also knew Scar's personality and knew that trying to persuade him would be tantamount to fooling around.

Of course, at this moment, a burst of red light came straight from the sky, and when everyone was illuminated red, a huge explosion also hit...

Chapter 4474

Compared with the last time when the earth shook and the mountains shook, this time it was more thorough and direct.

Even the outer walls of the dungeon, which were very solid, began to drop dust and bricks continuously at this time.

Scar, who originally wanted to charge, was just disgraced by this, and his momentum suddenly lost most of it.

Seeing this, the subordinates also hurriedly inserted needles and said, "Commander, if you insist on going, then leave the other brothers to me, and you bring your pair of men and horses to help Mrs. How about it?"

Of course his own brother he is trustworthy, and after calming down a little, Scar also knows that what his brother said makes sense.

If you take away all the foreign aid yourself, once you really need their aid, what will you do?

Whether it is the leader or the wife, the IQ is obviously much higher than his own

, and he should not be too self-assured.

Thinking of this, Scar nodded and glanced at the eleven brothers who followed him.

“Brothers, come with me.” As soon as the voice fell, Scar led someone directly into the city.

At this time, Amelia Su, who was in the city, knelt down on one knee, with her right hand slightly propped on the ground, and the blood on the corner of her mouth was eye-catching.

However, there was no fear in her eyes, she just stared blankly at the stone carving monster.

The explosion just now happened, and it was Amelia Su who attacked it with his backhand in order to get rid of the pursuit.

But after a duel, Amelia Su knew that he had suffered a dark loss.

That power is too strong, and when she is not fully prepared, she wants to fight hard, which is obviously a fool’s dream.

“An ant, there are two hits.” The strange dragon sneered softly.

Amelia Su clenched her teeth: “You also have two strokes.”

“I’d love to see you, I’m afraid you won’t have that chance.” After the words were finished, he drank violently, and another ** rushed towards Amelia Su directly.

Amelia Su frowned. She had already suffered a loss on this. This time, it was obviously impossible to fall again in the same place.

Therefore, Amelia Su directly transported all the energy in her body, trying to attack the opponent without reservation.

But just when she had just finished concentrating and was about to start.

Suddenly, a figure suddenly burst out from behind her, and then she saw that figure standing directly in front of her in the blink of an eye, forcibly resisting the ferocious ** attack for herself.

“Ma’am, Scar is late, please forgive me!

Besides Scar, who else could it be?

The golden armor resisted the fire abruptly at this time, but the super temperature instantly made the entire armor turn red.

Scar, this big fool, the golden armor makes him almost invulnerable to a certain extent, and his defense is invincible.

But in the end, this thing can’t resist the flame.

Amelia Su was also anxious and angry. Of course, he was so reckless, but he was so anxious that he sacrificed himself to save himself, but his own safety was...

"Madam, leave me alone, I will kill him and beat him." Knife Scar knew that Amelia Su was worried about herself, so she gritted her teeth and insisted on the pain, and shouted at Amelia Su.

Looking at Scar's eyes, Amelia Su also suddenly woke up.

Yes, she can't be swayed by emotions, and the most important thing at the moment is obviously to attack the monster.

Otherwise

, Knife Scar's stand-up behavior will also be meaningless, and it will become nothing.

Thinking of this, Amelia Su was also unambiguous. He directly used all his strength, aimed at the stone-carved monster, and slammed it.

boom!

A huge wave of air burst out directly from Amelia Su's hands!

Scar was almost suffocating with pain, even though George Han had injected a lot of energy into the golden armor in advance, the purpose was that the golden armor was about to hit the judge and others in the face.

But those energies can only internally consume characters at the level of Judges.

The previous battle itself had almost wiped out these energies.

Now, in the face of the strange dragon's attack that is not known by many levels, how can it hold on

...

The golden armor shattered under the high temperature, and Amelia Su's attack also reached the strange dragon...

Chapter 4475

Boom!

The extremely strong attack was crisp and neat, carrying the momentum of destruction, and suddenly exploded.

This time, almost all of Amelia Su's strength was condensed, and he completely hit the stone dragon.

Amelia Su was almost exhausted, her whole body slumped to the ground, but those beautiful eyes were staring at the stone carving monster.

Of course, she was eager to know whether her move had any effect.

boom!

The fireworks over there have not yet dissipated, and here, the scar under the attack of the dick has completely burned into red hairy crabs, and with the disappearance of the dick, it retreats by itself.

With him suddenly fell to the ground.

The scar was almost smoking, and Amelia Su was so close that she could even smell the fleshy and mushy smell inside the armor.

There is not much energy protection left by George Han, but fortunately, the power is pure enough. Although it can prevent Scar from dying

, it does not mean that Scar can be better.

Under the extremely high temperature, he knew very well that the skin of his whole body had been scalded and almost no part was intact.

The severe pain made him almost pass out, but this guy still gritted his teeth and held on reluctantly.

He couldn't faint, at least without seeing Amelia Su's safety.

boom! !

And almost at the same time, another explosion occurred at the faucet that Amelia Su had hit.

In the smoke, the stones flew wildly!

Apparently, the faucet was blown to pieces.

"Madam, that...that guy was blown up."

Someone exclaimed in surprise.

Amelia Su's eyes also suddenly showed a trace of fineness.

Obviously, after working so hard to see such a result, it is satisfying after all.

"Roar!"

Almost at the same time, there was an angry roar from the monster.

"An ant!"

"An

ant!"

"An ant!"

He roared furiously, not knowing whether his body was tossing from side to side in the explosion, or whether he was moving in anger, and every time he moved, the ground was also mad. verb: move.

"You guys are damned, it's unforgivable, I'm going to kill you." As the words fell, the ground shook and the mountains shook, but the stone sculpture without a dragon head seemed to be unaffected at all, and its body suddenly moved.

In an instant, directly in front of Amelia Su, a white fierce tiger rushed out and charged fiercely.

“Boom...!”

After that, a red light flashed from the broken neck of the stone carving, reaching the sky.

When it reached the sky, the red light dyed the surrounding area and formed a huge rotating nebula in the middle.

The nebula flowed, and a golden thing slowly appeared.

“Huh!”

Gradually, it took on its true form, and a mighty giant bird slowly appeared.

Its

whole body is covered with gold and flames are all over it.

“Roar!”

After that, it held its head high, and uttered an empty sound, tearing through the sky.

Even if it is just an illusory shadow, it still produces a very powerful and unattainable aura.

The next second, after it finished its tearing air, it flapped its two huge wings and flew down towards Amelia Su.

“What the hell are you doing? Protect Madam.” Scar shouted, struggling to get up in a hurry, trying to defend Amelia Su from the attack.

And the others quickly recovered, no matter what, they rushed in the direction of Amelia Su.

Some people attacked the incoming tiger, and some tried to attack the rushing giant bird. In short, their goals were the same.

Amelia Su couldn't care about her exhaustion at this time, she knew better than anyone the danger of her situation at this time.

She stood up in one go and used her power directly in her hands, but when she looked back, the tiger and the giant bird were almost at the same distance from her, and she didn't know which one to attack for a while.

But she knows very well that no matter which one she hits, the one that slips through the net may cause huge damage to herself in the opponent's offensive.

However, she is really invincible with two fists.

While hesitating, Amelia Su only heard a loud shout: “Ma'am, this tiger is handed over to me.” After the words were finished, he saw a man in red with golden light in armor sweep past him, and then suddenly rushed directly. To the pounced tiger.

Amelia Su was obviously taken aback, she never thought that Scar would stand up at this time.

I didn't even think that this guy would be more tiger than that fierce tiger, and he would just hit the fierce tiger like this!

However, she didn't have time to think too much, and she used her strength to fight the giant bird!

"An ant can kill an elephant as well!"

Chapter 4476

Boom!

One person and one bird!

One man and one tiger!

Fight at the same time, and fight each other!

But the situation on both sides was surprisingly consistent.

tragic!

Naturally, Amelia Su didn't need to say more. He had just done his best to finish the blow after being injured, and now he has to support his body to duel with the giant bird!

The most tragic is the scar.

This guy is ugly, in fact, it is no different from a half-dead person.

However, his super willpower and his special strong body made him burst out with an aura and actions that were close to death even in such a desperate situation.

Although the armor that had been burnt red and then cooled again but had some discoloration made him look very embarrassed, his short and strong body was still invincible.

As he collided with the tiger, a thumping sound rang out.

The tiger was in pain, and obviously stopped its offensive. A pair of tiger eyes looked up angrily, and then lowered its head...

"Bang!" The

parabolic scar also hit the ground heavily, and a mouthful of blood spurted out.

Seeing the situation, the tiger turned its head and looked at Amelia Su who was fighting with the giant bird. With a slight bow, he was about to attack Amelia Su.

But almost when it was about to leave, suddenly, a small figure blocked its way.

The tiger's eyes froze, obviously, it did not expect the appearance of the other party.

"What's the matter, little tiger, I don't think he's dead yet, so you want to find another new love?"

Scar's body swayed, the blood almost soaked a large piece of armor, and the entire face was also damaged by excessive blood loss. Turned a little pale.

But this guy spoke in a firm tone, his eyes were full of bloodthirsty and determination, without the slightest timidity.

The tiger looked at him with a slightly startled look, but the next second, his eyes were full of disdain and murderous intent.

For it, of course, it has never put the scar in its eyes. Its real target is obviously the more capable Amelia Su, not this "dwarf" who is trying to stop himself by brute force."

"Hoo! "The

tiger roared, and in the next second, it rushed towards the scar.

Since this is ignorant and wants to die, of course, it will not hesitate to send him all the way.

This is its majesty of kings, and it cannot be tainted by anyone.

"Come on."

Looking at the fierce tiger that came rushing again, Scar didn't have the slightest fear. He stomped on the ground with a stubborn force and charged toward the tiger as well.

His cultivation base is not high, and the Overlord Spear is not superb, and he only has three moves, and he has no extra strength to make it.

Therefore, in the face of such a behemoth tiger, his only choice is to face it head.

Use his ordinary body to fight it in the final duel.

boom!

Almost without any accident, Scar's body flew out again.

Then it landed a few meters away and hit the ground heavily.

The blood still spurted wildly from his mouth, and his movements to get up began to become extremely slow, and he even shivered constantly as his hands propped up his body.

"Kill."

The brothers under his hand also arrived in time, and launched an attack on the tiger and the giant bird at the first time.

But it is a pity that because of the restraint of Amelia Su on the side of the giant bird, the small soldiers can temporarily survive the disaster and complete the harassment attack at the same time.

The Tiger's side was completely different, with hardly a single face-to-face, and as it swung, the dozen or so soldiers surrounding him have immediately swept away.

For a time, the death of the dead, the injury of the wound, the combat effectiveness were almost instantly lost.

Roar!

The tiger roared wildly as if to swear by its own abilities and to show off its abilities.

Immediately afterward, its bloodthirsty eyes swept toward Amelia Su, who was fighting the giant bird.

For it, obviously, the battle should be over.

It paced slightly, then, bowed, like a cat staring at its prey, and tried to attack again.

“Da Da!”

There was another slight noise.

Tiger turned his eyes slightly, looking at the figure who was limping and might even fall down at any time, full of doubts.

Scar didn't speak, and he didn't have the strength to speak, but with one movement, he swore his disdain.

He raised his right hand slightly, stretched out his thumb, and then rotated, the thumb instantly pointed down...

“Roar!”

This time, the tiger was completely angry, and a cold white light radiated from his body, and there was a monstrous anger in his eyes...

Chapter 4477

Originally, it has been very angry to block it again and again.

But seeing Scar so persevering is somewhat pitiful.

However, there is no mercy at all.

Because this little creature dared to insult and provoke himself so much.

It wants him to die!

It will cost him!

Whoa!

It suddenly accelerated and rushed directly to the scar.

Looking at that figure, this time the scar didn't move.

He didn't have any strength to move at all, he was exhausted.

He also had no way to move. After several consecutive hard blocks, even with the protection of golden armor, without the real protection from George Han's injection, it was always just iron ****. Severely injured.

Being able to stand is already his greatest limit!

“Alliance leader, although you and I haven’t known each other for a long time, you have left a deep impression on me since the first time we met. After that, you not only saved my life, but also everyone’s life. It gives you the feeling of reaching the peak.”

“Although, I really want this feeling of refreshment to last to the end, but God will not give this opportunity.”

“However, it is enough, I can experience this kind of refreshing feeling already. It’s worth it.”

“You are doing this for your brother, brother, and today, you can give everything for you.”

“No one can hurt my wife in front of me, unless, today, Scar is killed in battle!”

A sentence of scars fighting to death is full of momentum!

Heartbroken!

At the same time, the tiger suddenly rushed over.

“Scar!”

In midair, Amelia Su turned around and looked anxiously!

“Big Brother!”

Those subordinates also shouted in grief!

With the body of the tiger falling, Scar slammed down.

For a moment, there was no response.

Snapped!

But the tiger didn’t intend to end it at all, its right foot slightly lifted, and it stepped firmly on Scar’s chest.

Just like the king of all beasts, after slaying his prey, he shows off his lordly style.

“Damn!”

Amelia Su couldn’t bear it any longer.

Although Knife Scar had just joined them, Amelia Su also saw Scar’s long-term efforts.

Some relationships do not necessarily take time to define, but are between adversity!

boom!

Amelia Su’s body suddenly burst out with a strong white air.

The giant bird, who was almost on a par with her, suddenly lost its balance and center of gravity under the impact of this white air, and was knocked several meters away on the spot.

And Amelia Su almost took advantage of this opportunity to dive directly and kill the tiger.

Roar!

Feeling the killing of Amelia Su, the tiger was very angry for a while.

A roar,

like a declaration of war, like a threat.

“Whoever hurts us, I want you to die.”

Amelia Su roared angrily, the long sword in his hand was like a rainbow!

The billowing white air also wrapped the long sword in an instant!

“Ma’am, ma’am... it seems that things have changed.”

“Ma’am, suddenly a strong fighting force broke out!”

A group of subordinates suddenly found that Amelia Su was completely different from before.

She exudes extremely terrifying energy and a chilling murderous aura.

Anti-Buddha goddess is ordinary!

Moreover, she is still a goddess in anger.

Tigers are not afraid at all!

Face the rush!

One man and one tiger, meet again!

boom!

Soon, the two meet.

Suddenly, a breath exploded on the spot.

Like a sudden burst of sunlight, like a sudden attack of the day, the huge white light was completely ignited by the explosion, almost stabbing everyone present, unable to open their eyes.

“Amelia Su,

you are so cruel. I wanted to suck your energy, but I didn’t expect... I went, I really lost my grandmother’s house.” In the white light, Amelia Su, who had killing intent, suddenly felt a sudden thought in his mind. made a sound.

Some are like the voice of the poor.

However, that voice was extremely illusory, as if it was just an illusion from beginning to end.

Whoa!

In the next second, the extremely strong white light disappeared instantly.

Everything returned to peace again, as if nothing happened to the Buddha just now.

After the white light dissipated, everyone's sight began to slowly recover.

Looking around, Amelia Su stabbed the tiger's forehead with a sword, forming a confrontation with the aperture on its body.

Amelia Su and Tiger looked at each other closely.

With a strange sound, the light circle of light on the tiger's body suddenly dissipated, and the sword no longer had any resistance, and went directly into its mind...

Chapter 4478

"Ouch!" The

tiger's murderous eyes showed panic and puzzlement.

It understands that Amelia Su, who was only at the end of the last second, suddenly broke out in a short period of time, and was so strong at once? !

One move, just one move.

He directly and completely pierced his head.

As the wailing sounded, the tiger no longer had the prestige it had before, and with a slight bump in his head, he completely left this world in despair and unwillingness.

After that, his body directly turned into a little bit of light, and after the explosion, it was completely wiped out.

"Madam, it's strong."

After the crowd stayed for an unknown amount of time, someone shouted excitedly the next second.

And as he shouted, the others in the crowd quickly reacted, and they danced and fell into a complete carnival

"Madam!"

"Madam! " "Madam!

Everyone shouted loudly, as if to cheer Amelia Su, or cheer for their own camp.

For a time, the shouting was loud!

Amelia Su didn't have the slightest excitement, only ruthless coldness and anger in her eyes.

She directly retracted the long sword, then glanced at the scar lying on the ground, just as she was about to lower herself, behind her, the giant bird flying in mid-air had already rushed over after calming down.

“court death!”

Amelia Su, who was worried about Scar’s life and death, had no patience in the face of the giant bird’s repeated harassment, so he immediately attacked the giant bird with a sword.

The giant bird flapped its wings wildly, and a super huge wind directly attacked Amelia Su.

Amelia Su’s face was cold, and she was not afraid at all: “Do you still think that your previous moves will have any effect on me?”

“Whoever blocks me, die!” As soon as the words fell, the sword directly picked up! brush!

In the next second, Amelia Su was like a man and a sword.

In a flash, Amelia Su directly pierced through the giant bird’s body.

See, the giant bird is stagnant!

After that, the sword rang, with a slight buzzing and trembling slightly.

And the giant bird also exploded, just like the white tiger, it turned into bits and pieces, and finally disappeared.

“Wow!” From the crowd, even louder cheers erupted.

But Amelia Su still had no intention of staying.

She glanced at Scar again, and said coldly, “Scar will be taken care of by you.”

“Whether Scar is dead or not, those who hurt our Mysterious Man Alliance must die!” The next second, Amelia Su was completely white and exploded again, and then killed the stone carving all the way.

“Wow!”

Amelia Su was extremely fast, like a white rocket.

There was no sound or movement from the stone sculpture at all. It seemed that after losing the tiger and the giant bird one after another, his vitality was also damaged.

Not only did he lose his previous arrogance, but now, he didn’t even have the ** under pain.

It seems that it is just a simple stone sculpture.

boom!

really!

The first wave of attacks that accompanied Amelia Su's attack was successful, and the stone carvings exploded!

From his body to his neck, it instantly turned into powder.

The mighty and extraordinary stone carvings left only a bare body still standing there.

Withered and desolate.

Ruined.

Amelia Su paused for a moment in the air, and then she shouted coldly, "What? Wasn't it very foreign just now? Now pretending to be dead?"

"Woo~!"

A dull voice came from the stone carving.

After murmuring for a while, he said slightly: "Damn it, I have such a beautiful statue, you actually let you destroy me alive."

"An ant, you are so good-looking, don't you know how to cherish beautiful things? Is it?"

"Just your stone sculpture is also called good-looking?" Amelia Su drank coldly.

"Of course, don't you think it's the most beautiful thing in the world? But that doesn't matter anymore, because you have completely destroyed it."

"It will be sad and sad, and I will be angry too. ." The word anger, he said very seriously, suddenly, the stone carvings also shattered, the ground began to tremble, and it seemed that something was about to emerge from the ground...

Throat, and then, everyone slowly and continuously evacuated to the safety zone amid the violent earthquake shaking.

But even so, the strong tremor still made them a little unstable.

On the other side of Amelia Su, at this time, his true anger was also gathering wildly, and he was staring at the ground.

If there is any situation, the long sword in her hand will fall down instantly.

"Roar!"

Suddenly, a behemoth suddenly roared and rushed out from the ground.

Suddenly, the lime billows and the dust spreads.

But it was too late for everyone to care about this, because the size of the big thing had already drawn everyone's attention directly.

"It's so big!"

Someone exclaimed.

Really big.

Even now, only half of his body is exposed,
but only half of his body is enough to cover the sky.

Around everyone, it was pitch black, and all the light was completely blocked by this giant.

Staring at the monster again, a group of people realized that the monster in front of them was nothing else, but a blue-gray dragon.

Dragon is something that you must have seen before, but people in the Bafang world must know it.

Especially Amelia Su, because of Linlong, she is too familiar with dragons.

However, even she did not reflect at all for a while.

Not because of anything else, but simply because this guy's body is too big.

It was so outrageous that it was not recognized for a while.

After all, this guy is just a dragon claw. Maybe, it is as big as five elephants, and its dragon body is as thick as four or five football fields.

The body is only half into the air, just curled up in a half circle, but it almost occupies at least a quarter of the entire dungeon.

It's too big to be bizarre, and it's too big to be terrifying!

He raised his dragon head slightly, as if feeling the comfort brought by the wind blowing on his face. The next second, his dragon's eyes glared fiercely, and a murderous aura was instantly released from his eyes.

The dragon's tail on the back of his body also rose, but unlike the explosion of the dragon's body, the dragon's tail was obviously full of destructive power.

Under the mad sweep, the pothole on the ground was made bigger and bigger by it, and the number of houses that fell under the shaking caused by the impact on the ground became more and more at a time.

Everyone rushed for their lives to avoid the room, even Amelia Su had to fly higher in the air to avoid being hurt by the rocks.

The huge dragon body in the air is as gentle as a snake, moving slowly!

Just as Amelia Su flew into the air, she still hadn't established herself yet. The next second, the huge dragon head appeared less than ten meters in front of her.

"Ant!" With

just two words, the tone is not too heavy. .

But just like that, the breath from its mouth was still so strong that Amelia Su retreated a little.

Under the protection of infuriating qi, she barely stood still.

However, Amelia Su was not afraid of it at all, and said coldly: "I thought it was some kind of monster, but it turned out to be a demon dragon!"

"This deity is Hidden Dragon!"

"The destiny of heaven, the body of the earth!"

Hidden Dragon shouted coldly, as if dissatisfied with Amelia Su's words.

"Sorry, I haven't heard of it, and I'm not interested." Amelia Su said coldly.

"Presumptuous, ants, although you have worked very hard, you are still ants. In front of this deity, you can only bow down to your knees, do you understand?" When the words of the hidden dragon fell, a coercion came directly to the face.

Amelia Su could clearly feel the terrifying power of this guy, and his breathing was also a little difficult due to these pressures.

She forced a breath and looked at Canglong coldly: "You want me to bow down?"

"That's right!"

"You ask me about the sword in my hand first.

"With my body, you have the capital to fight against me? It's just that I broke my mere statue, it's a piece of sh!t."

"Now, the deity descends on me, and all I'm left for you is an endless blow, you But you still dare to speak madly in this mouth."

"Look at me today, I have broken your spine, pulled out your blood, and slapped your bones."

"You have committed my dragon's prestige, and the crime should be like this!"

Canglong shouted angrily. , Immediately afterward, the dragon's might on the entire dragon body was released, and in an instant, the air in the entire space condensed in an instant.

Amelia Su was also lazy to talk nonsense with him, and in a fit of anger, he raised his sword and went up.

brush!!!

Chapter 4480

sword allure!

Like a fairy descending to earth.

“Ignorance!”

Hidden Dragon was also full of disdain and didn't hide at all. The dragon moved and attacked Amelia Su directly.

“Pong!”

A crisp sound.

Amelia Su's extremely sharp sword stabbed directly on the dragon scale.

And the dragon scales were also as hard as steel. When the two met, they saw lightning and flint, and the sound of steel colliding into their ears.

“What?”

Amelia Su was obviously a little surprised.

She didn't expect that with such a domineering sword, not only did she not pierce the dragon's body, but it was directly blocked by the scales on his surface.

“Go to hell.”

And almost at the moment when Amelia Su was stunned, two attacks from Hidden Dragon's mouth had already spewed directly towards Amelia Su.

In the two attacks, one side is the clear white water column, and the other side is the flame that carries the power of devouring.

Internal and external attack, very ferocious.

Amelia Su's face condensed, her whole body burst out with true anger, and she blocked her backhand with a long sword!

Boom!

The water column and the flame immediately hit the long sword at the same time.

On the long sword, the halo energy is firmly resisted!

But even so, Amelia Su's body was rapidly falling from the air.

A group of subordinates really want to help, but they also know that this level of battle is not something they can participate in at all.

At this moment, they could only stare at each other, anxious in their hearts.

“Bang!”

Amelia Su had already landed, and with the help of the ground, she firmly grasped the long sword with both hands, but her slender legs began to sink toward the ground.

Even if the ground is very dry, it is still difficult to support such a trend right now.

“Pala la la!” What

’s more terrifying is not this, but the ground around Amelia Su, which is frantically cracking.

This also means that in the current situation, it is not even Amelia Su’s ability to support or not, but the ground is almost unable to hold on.

What is this concept? !

Everyone dared not think about it, because just looking at it, it felt scary enough.

“An ant, no matter how hard you try, you will always be an ant. I only need one finger to easily crush you.”

Amelia Su ignored it at all, she had no time.

She has almost tried her best to resist, and she knows very well what she will face if she fails to resist.

Therefore, she has no choice and no retreat.

“Drink!”

With the nibbling of his teeth, suddenly, an extremely powerful force burst out from Amelia Su’s body again.

Even Amelia Su felt abnormal at this time.

Amelia Su’s previous runaway can be attributed to the outbreak of his own small universe, and he came out of adversity at a time of crisis and anger.

But now...it’s kind of weird.

people... impossible

Continuous microcosmic explosions, right? !

The point is, she had already erupted once when she was empty just now, why did such a strong real energy suddenly come? !

What she didn’t know was that she would be wondering, but there was a guy who was about to cry without tears.

Boom!

With Amelia Su's sudden outburst, Amelia Su, who was already at a complete disadvantage, instantly had a different support.

The huge infuriating qi was surrounded in the opposite direction, not only directly withstanding the offensive of the water column and the flame but also directly on the top, rushing towards the hidden dragon.

"What?"

Hidden Dragon probably would never have imagined that such a huge change would happen in minutes, even though it was already a foregone conclusion.

Before it could be reflected, the white infuriating energy had already broken through his blockade and hit him directly.

"Roar!" The

incomparably huge Hidden Dragon was instantly overturned.

Under the huge infuriating energy, he flew backwards several meters in a row like a piece of paper.

Don't say where Longwei is, it's already thankful that you can't lose that old face.

Amelia Su looked at her hands in disbelief. What made her inexplicable was not only that the power suddenly burst out from her body, but more importantly, she felt that her body was still full of power that she couldn't use up.

"How could this be?"

Even if the parties involved, Amelia Su was completely dumbfounded.

But just a few seconds later, Amelia Su suddenly reflected.

Right now, he obviously doesn't care about how his power came from. The most important thing is obviously to take advantage of this dragon's disease to kill him.

"Where are everyone!" Amelia Su shouted loudly.

A group of subordinates hurriedly replied: "The subordinates are here."

"Hide away with the scar. Today, Madam will show you, what is steaming dragon!"
