

HTC 4481

Chapter 4481

Steamed Dragon? !

Everyone was dumbfounded when they heard this word.

They thought that when Amelia Su called them at this time, it must be a pursuit of victory.

Therefore, many people are even ready to attack when they respond.

But who would have thought...

that it could be this? !

But before these people could react, Amelia Su had already raised his sword and went up!

Taking advantage of the fact that Hidden Dragon did not stand up, Amelia Su's ultimate move came one after another.

Suddenly, swords rained down!

Brush brush!

Pong pong!

For a time, the steel was sonorous, the electric light flint.

But there are also bursts of tearing sounds.

"I knew that dragons, phoenixes, and tigers all came out. Why are there fewer turtles, because turtles protect your body in your body, just dragon scales, how can they be so hard and exaggerated?!"

Amelia Su raised her head in the battle. During the battle, he gradually discovered the secrets of Hidden Dragon.

Whoa!

Another burst of sound.

But it was no longer the clanging sound it used to be.

In exchange, there are bursts of rustling sounds.

At the same time, various fragments are also falling under the huge dragon body.

Someone opened their eyes at this time and couldn't help but suddenly widened their mouths.

"What is that?"

"Dragon scales! I rely on it, those are dragon scales!"

Yes, it was the thick scales on Hidden Dragon's body.

Although the dragon scales fall down on such a subtle thing, it is difficult to see from a distance, but it can't beat this hidden dragon, which is too big.

That's why!

This dragon scale is many times larger than ordinary dragon scales.

"Madam, she... she's too strong, isn't she?!"

Everyone has long known that Madam's ability will not be too bad, but I am afraid that she will never expect that Madam's ability will be so outrageous.

Such a big dragon, and even spraying some attacks can knock the ground close to cracking.

What power is this?

However, in front of Madam, after just a few rounds, she was already defeated.

With such power, how could it not surprise everyone? !

"Haha, the leader of the alliance, think about it, even the leader of the alliance is so powerful, how can his wife be so bad?"

"Yes, have you ever thought about it, Brother Scar only followed the leader for a day, but what he got in the end? "

Damn, yes, the leader of the alliance directly arranged for us the stunt of the true gods, and golden armor. Even Brother Scar can instantly turn waste into treasure in his hands, so what else is the leader of the alliance? Where did you arrive?" "Damn

, following the leader of the alliance is indeed the right person."

"fu**, I swear, I will be loyal to the leader in the future, and one day, I will be like a lady, even in the face of such a huge The hidden dragon can also be easily repulsed." The group of people suddenly felt as if they had been beaten by chicken blood, their confidence increased, and at the same time, they secretly swore in their hearts.

These are definitely no jokes.

Because they are very clear!

Some things are not pie!

Rather, as long as you are willing to reach out and touch it.

In this world, there is nothing that can make a person in an office more energetic than this.

"Ouch!"

And almost at this moment, an extremely painful dragon roar sounded, and when everyone looked back, they couldn't help but be even more excited.

Because in the sky at this time, the huge hidden dragon body is slowly smashing from the air to the ground.

Obviously, this battle, no matter whether everyone sees it clearly, the result is already very obvious.

Amelia Su, won.

A mighty, majestic looking dragon!

Completely defeated, clean!

“** , brothers, what are you doing? Take the knife to me and kill the monster!”

“Kill it !

” Immediately afterward, a group of people raised their knives directly, and they rushed towards the place where the dragon fell. For a time, the whole situation has undergone a heaven-defying change.

The group of people who had been messed up by Hidden Dragon and hid in the east had now transformed into a powerful person who shouted and killed. Amelia Su slowly appeared in the smoke of the explosion. She flew gently in the air, looking down at the landed Canglong, with a cold smile on the corner of her mouth. “Hidden Dragon?” “Hehe!”

“Forgot to tell you, when I came from Xuanyuan World, there was also a dragon, and I slapped it on the ground...”

Chapter 4482

Now, a familiar scene is being staged.

It’s just that Linlong has already become George Han’s side, and this strange dragon is stronger and more ferocious than Linlong.

However, the results are consistent.

“Kill!”

Boom!

Accompanied by the shouting and killing of the crowd, and a heavy landing sound.

The monster dragon’s body fell heavily.

However, the houses in the city were not smashed to pieces as expected.

Even though Amelia Su knew very well that if it hit the ground heavily, it would be tantamount to making it more injured and losing more resistance.

But in that case, there will be a huge problem.

That

is, in terms of the volume of Hidden Dragon, at least a quarter of the entire underground dragon city will be completely destroyed by him.

Before fully understanding the city, Amelia Su was afraid of hurting innocent people.

Therefore, before Hidden Dragon landed, Amelia Su gave a thick layer of energy protection.

Although it fell, it still fell.

But...

the end result is always the best.

Many houses are still preserved.

“kill!”

The crowd quickly surrounded it.

Most people aimed their weapons at its head, and a few aimed at its tail.

As long as there is any movement, they will immediately start to kill the hidden dragon.

“Haha, hahahaha!”

Hidden Dragon suddenly burst into laughter.

“Presumptuous, when death is imminent, you can still laugh.”

Yes , I don't know what you have the embarrassment to laugh at us.”

“The defeated general is so shameless, you still laugh, if I were you, Find a piece of tofu and kill him.”

Everyone was extremely contemptuous.

Amelia Su also flew down slowly at this time, and the volley was less than five meters above Hidden Dragon.

Looking at him coldly: “Why, you don't accept it?”

“I naturally don't accept it. It is impossible for this deity to lose to you ants.”

“An ants are always ants, and they will never change because of any situation.”

“It can't shake anything, because this is its identity.”

Canglong said with disdain, obviously, his tone was full of disdain.

Someone heard the words and immediately made a vomit: “Damn it, if you win and you want to brag about it, then we have nothing to say

“But, you have lost like this, you fu**ing How can you be so shameless to say such things, hey hey hey, you really have thick skin, so you don’t want your face?”

“Yeah, damn, we had a pretty good impression of dragons. Yes, but since I met you, I rely on... I have had a different impression of dragons since then.”

Of course, everyone pretended to be exaggerating, but what they said was extremely sincere.

Really nauseating.

“You bastards, what do you know? As you are, you don’t know the true power of this deity at all .”

Look down on the younger generation so teasing

“Haha, in a hurry, in a hurry, it is in a hurry.”

“Unfortunately, the more anxious you are, the more funny it is for us.”

“Yes, only incompetent trash can bark like this.”

” Don’t, don’t don’t, it’s a dragon, and if you want to bark, it’s also a dragon and a dog bark.” It’s no wonder that everyone insulted Hidden Dragon so disgustingly, it’s just that this guy was too mad before, and after the madness was defeated, he was still arrogant. Ang’s appearance.

Therefore, how could it be possible that everyone didn’t step on him ruthlessly? !

Hidden Dragon was even more impatient, his huge body trembling with anger.

It was impossible for everyone to pity him at all, and they laughed even more madly at this time.

Only Amelia Su suddenly said, “You are very dissatisfied, right? I also know why you are dissatisfied.”

“Let’s make a bet, what do you think?”

Chapter 4483

“Bet?”

Hearing Amelia Su’s words, Canglong was obviously a little confused for a while.

What bet? !

Now, when is it? !

However, there was one sentence from Canglong that was extremely comfortable to hear.

He was really dissatisfied.

“Exactly.” Amelia Su nodded, and continued, “You are dissatisfied because, from start to finish, you didn’t show your true strength at all, am I right?”

Canglong was slightly surprised: “How do you know? “

Ma’am, don’t listen to his bragging.”

“That’s right, this kind of person has nothing to believe.”

“It’s full of lies and bragging. Hmph, if you haven’t done your best, anyone who loses and is unwilling will say that he doesn’t have any .” Do your best.”

“Yeah, I just don’t admit defeat anyway.”

Before Amelia Su could reply, everyone started talking.

Amelia Su shook her head gently, signaling everyone to stop talking.

After that, she sighed and looked at the hidden dragon.

“I have played against you, of course I know it.”

“Although you are indeed very strong, I also know very well that behind your strong strength, there is actually an abnormal nothingness.”

“In other words, you can’t play all your current strength, right?”

As an opponent, Amelia Su naturally knew the situation of this hidden dragon better than anyone else.

She also knew very well that in the process of fighting against her, Hidden Dragon really had no way to exert all his strength.

Therefore, it is not incomprehensible that Amelia Su is not satisfied.

“Hmph, you still have some self-knowledge.”

“Yes, this deity is indeed unable to exert his full strength. In today’s battle, what I use is only less than 40% of my main body’s skill.”

“If I can Restoring 80% of the level, little girl, let alone your two outbreaks, even if you let you break out ten times, you will never be my opponent.”

Some of the subordinates wanted to express their dissatisfaction again, this time, Amelia Su stopped them in advance.

Amelia Su nodded unexpectedly: “I admit this.”

“Since you admit it, what do you want to bet with me?” Canglong asked in confusion. “You’re not doing your best, and I’m not good at learning. Let’s do this

, I won’t kill you, I’ll let you go.”

“After that, we’ll arrange a time and place for another peak match, what do you think?”

When he came out, not only Hidden Dragon was shocked on the spot, but all his subordinates almost dropped their jaws.

What does this mean?

Now that they have won the victory, Amelia Su suddenly wants to let the tiger go back to the mountain?

It's not a joke, it's just a no-brainer.

"Madam, what are you doing? This fellow is so talkative and brutal. We finally captured him, and naturally killed him as soon as possible

. You... why do you want to let him go?"

"Yeah, ma'am, this release is tantamount to letting the tiger return to the mountain, and there will be endless troubles."

"Please think twice, ma'am." The crowd was so excited that many simply knelt down and pleaded for mercy one after another.

From a common sense, Amelia Su's approach is indeed difficult to understand.

It took so much effort, and even now that the life and death of Scar is unknown, the murderer who has been captured is to be released directly.

Which line is this? !

"Are you serious?"

Actually, Cang Long was very puzzled and puzzled about this.

Amelia Su nodded earnestly: "Although I'm a woman, I'm also right." Canglong

's eyes shrank slightly, and soon he made up his mind: "You dare to let go, why don't I dare to leave?"

"I accept your bet."

"But what is the bet?"

Amelia Su

said softly: "What do you want, you can say if you win, what do you expect, and then I say I won What do you expect, how?"

Cang Long heard this and smiled coldly.

"My life has already been taken away by you. You gave me the opportunity to let me bet again, which is already considered a gift."

"So, in order to avoid saying that I bullied others, let's do it. If I win, you can't do it in the future. Talking about today's affairs, you can't mention my failure, how about that?"

Some of the subordinates were naturally dissatisfied with these words. But for Amelia Su, in fact, this bet on Hidden Dragon didn't take much advantage.

“Reasonable and reasonable.” Amelia Su said.

Canglong said: “Okay, then tell me, what is your bet?”

“It’s very simple, if you lose, from now on, you will be a servant by our side, and I will not treat you badly, but, you And forever and ever to betray, how?”

Chapter 4484

hearing this, those people who didn’t do it in the first place, suddenly stopped doing it.

“Madam, what are you...what are you doing?”

“This Hidden Dragon is an extremely vicious person. Even if you win, keeping such a thing by your side is equivalent to bringing a tiger with you. If you’re not careful, you may be attacked from behind.”

“Yes, ma’am, please think again.”

Amelia Su was firm and looked at everyone.

“Everyone, Amelia Su has a word, I don’t know if I should say it or not.”

Madam, how dare everyone not listen, no matter how much dissatisfaction and grievance there is, they have to grit their teeth and nod their heads at this time.

“Madam, please tell me.”

Amelia Su took a deep breath and continued: “Although I have not been with you for a long time, I can also feel your concern. For this, Amelia Su is very grateful.”

“However, there are some things, I I always have my considerations and arrangements, so I also hope that you, who care so much about me, will give me more understanding and support.” After the words were finished, Amelia Su looked at everyone.

Everyone, look at me, I look at you, all lowered their heads, not knowing how to refute for a while.

Although Amelia Su’s words were very light, the meaning in it was also obvious, that is, to tell everyone that I hope they will respect the decision made by this lady.

Canglong sneered: “Amelia Su, right?”

“Okay, I remember your name, but you really don’t worry, I will have the situation they said?”

“I believe that with your skills, you are disdainful of doing these stealing things. I also believe that, in terms of your person, if you are willing to gamble, you will definitely lose.”

Amelia Su said very cleverly.

Even if Hidden Dragon is not the kind of person she said, at least he won’t be able to come down if he is so high up.

“Okay, although I can’t be called a gentleman, at least I can do it if I keep my word.”

“Besides, I can’t lose to you at all.” After the words were finished, Canglong glared at the surrounding people. crowd.

Everyone immediately understood that even if they were reluctant, they all put down their knives and guns.

Zanglong suddenly moved slightly and was about to leave.

“Wait.”

Amelia Su suddenly said.

Canglong frowned suddenly: “What? Do you want to go back on it?”

“Amelia Su will never go back on what he said. It’s just that I have something to ask.” Amelia Su said.

“What’s the matter?” Cang Long said.

Amelia Su dazzled her eyes, and then asked the doubts in her heart: “Where is this place? Why is there such a city under the Tianmo Castle?”

Canglong smiled softly: “Hmph, I guessed that you would ask this.

” However, I may disappoint you, because I don’t know.”

“You don’t know?” Amelia Su obviously didn’t believe it.

One of the subordinates couldn’t help but scolded: “You demon dragon, our wife spared your life, you should know everything if you are grateful to Dade, you are still playing dumb riddles here, you are shameless?”

“That’s right . , Dead Demon Dragon, I don’t ask you to repay your kindness, but you must at least have a basic heart of merit, right?”

Amelia Su gently stopped their abuse, and Zanglong said slowly at this time: “What I said is the truth, I don’t know.”

“I am for Zanglong, I am offered by incense, and I have a special French agreement.

” Offering me this way, and repairing stone carvings for me, the most important thing is that they understand the French agreement. Naturally, I will also protect this place according to the agreement.”

“All strangers will be killed without mercy.”

“But anything other than that, I don’t know.”

Cang Long said.

Amelia Su believed that with the ability of this guy, he should be arrogant, so the probability of such a person lying is actually not high.

"I believe what you said." Amelia Su nodded.

A group of subordinates are very nervous, how can they believe him so easily?

"However, I still have a question."

"If I know, I can tell you." Hidden Dragon said.

Amelia Su nodded: "As you said, you guard this dungeon for a long time, so naturally, you should observe the city for a long time, right?"

Hidden Dragon nodded: "This is natural, otherwise, what will happen when you come in? I will find out immediately."

"Okay, if that's the case, then it's best, you hear it clearly, I want to know something"

Chapter 4485

"How many soldiers do they have in this city." Amelia Su said.

Hearing this question, Cang Long was stunned for a moment.

Afterwards, he laughed, and the huge dragon head swayed slightly. Amelia Su was puzzled, and frowned: "What are you laughing at?"

"What are you laughing at? Just laughing at the questions you asked. Almost all of them are unanswered questions."

And not too much.

Now, this group of people is really, completely angry.

Without him, if you were talking about the previous question, it would be understandable for Hidden Dragon to say that they didn't know, but this is the answer, which makes it difficult for people to understand.

What did you say with your front feet? You can see clearly in this place. Why did the back feet become so-called one question and three ignorance?

Even if you don't know how many people the other party has in total, if you go out with so many people, even if you are perfunctory, at least say that there are not many troops in the city.

As a result, do not know?

Doesn't this show a joke?

"fu, I can't take it anymore. Even if it's Madam who punishes me afterwards, I will admit it. This demon dragon is so fucking deceiving."

“We could have killed you, Madam kindly kept you one. Life, it’s okay if you’re not grateful, but you’re still playing tricks here.”

“I’m so fuing angry, fu, I’m going to kill him.”

Several people shouted angrily, and a group of people immediately echoed.

Immediately, almost all of the more than 40 people Amelia Su brought into the city were about to join the Dragon Slayer team.

Amelia Su’s face was cold, and her expression was not very good-looking. No wonder her subordinates were too impulsive, but it was indeed the hideous dragon that was really hateful

“Hang Long, don’t you think you’re really going too far?”

“You’re in such a situation, do you still need to protect this group of people?”

“Do you know how many depraved things these people have done? Is it?”

Amelia Su wanted to continue, but was interrupted directly by Canglong: “My mission is just to protect this place, as for what they did and what they did, it has nothing to do with me.”

“I don’t want to know, and I’m not interested either . I know.”

“The blessing of Canglong will not distinguish between good people and bad people.” After the words were finished, Canglong looked at Amelia Su, his tone was slightly calm, but also with a trace of sincerity: “The truth is, I answer you, all It’s the truth.”

“The truth?” Amelia Su murmured.

Seeing the appearance of Hidden Dragon, his intuition was telling Amelia Su that it seemed that what he really said was the truth.

However, one of the biggest doubts is that he is guarding here, watching

, but can’t send out a large number of people in black?

Just when Amelia Su was puzzled, Canglong said quietly: “Why don’t I tell you what I know.”

Amelia Su nodded, not knowing what he wanted to say.

“There are a total of 12,007 rooms in this city, and the total number of ordinary civilians living in the houses is 7,121.” After hearing this, everyone was dumbfounded.

The rioting crowd immediately stopped.

The whole scene was so quiet that you could almost hear needles falling!

But the next second, the crowd erupted directly.

“He, don’t let anyone stop me, I won’t kill this demon dragon today, I swear I will not be human, ah ah ah ah!”

“That’s right, he is obviously playing tricks on us, I and I He fought!” The crowd was completely fried.

Amelia Su’s body trembled with anger, and it was hard to accept it for a while.

what is this?

At first, she really believed what Cang Long said, thinking that he might not deceive her.

Maybe he really doesn’t know.

The whereabouts of these black-clothed people are strange, and this place is their own territory. If they secretly want to find out where to hide from hidden dragon, it is actually not too difficult.

In addition, Hidden Dragon’s attitude just now was extremely sincere, so she didn’t quite agree with her subordinates saying that he deliberately teased them.

But as soon as Hidden Dragon’s words came out, Amelia Su also completely broke the defense.

You can even pinpoint the number of rooms here and how many people live in single digits, but you tell me you don’t know how many soldiers there are?

Scholars can be killed, but not humiliated!

Amelia Su was completely angry, and the anger was burning in her heart...

with a long sword in his hand...

Chapter 4486

I will kill you!

I kill you!

In Amelia Su’s heart, countless little demons were running wildly, and her hand holding the sword became even harder.

Canglong gave a wry smile: “What? Do you even think I’m playing tricks on you?” A simple sentence, but it caused Amelia Su’s anger to drop.

Amelia Su is not the kind of impulsive person.

On the contrary, she is very calm.

Amelia Su immediately understood when she heard Canglong say this.

Yeah, could he really be kidding himself?

If you are playing with yourself, isn't it better to ask three questions?

Hidden Dragon's current situation is obviously to escape, so even if he intends to protect this group of people, then he should cover it while ensuring that he can escape.

For example, it is the one question and three I don't know just now

Why did he take the initiative to tell himself how many people were in this city?

Just to provoke yourself?

It seems that this reason is fundamentally untenable.

So, thinking about it carefully, it doesn't seem like Hidden Dragon is deliberately playing tricks on himself.

"I can ask, why do you know nothing about the number of soldiers, but how many people are there in the city?"

Amelia Su stopped all the irritable brothers who wanted to kill the dragon, looked at the hidden dragon, strangely road.

"I said, nothing in this city can escape my eyes. From what I see, it's basically condescending."

"Knowing how many rooms there are, how many people live here, and what's the point? What's weird?"

Amelia Su has two big heads in one head: "Then you know everything here, but why don't you know how many soldiers they have?!"

"This matter is really important to us, We are here to save people, so you should help those innocent people, okay?"

Looking at Amelia Su, Zanglong shook his head helplessly: "Amelia Su, if I don't want to tell you, I naturally won't agree. You. But since I have already promised you, naturally, there is no need to hide it."

"I really don't know how many troops there are here. I really haven't seen any soldiers in this city.

", the onlookers were completely ignited by their anger again, shouting that they were going to kill this guy.

At this point, it was actually Hidden Dragon himself who knew that if Amelia Su hadn't been here today, he would have been beaten to death long ago.

Amelia Su raised her hand again and stopped all the irritable crowd.

"Okay, I want to know, you may have told me, now, you can go."

"What?"

After hearing this, the people who were stopped stopped even more.

“Madam, how can you let him go.”

“He was originally a dragon. Madam, you gave him a chance just now, but he still doesn’t know how to cherish it, and is still fooling us. This is still the case today. In the future, he will Isn’t it even worse?”

“Madam, take advantage of his illness and kill him, this is the unchanging truth.”

Faced with the indignation of everyone, Cang Long did not leave in a hurry, he just looked at Amelia Su quietly, waiting for her answer.

If she didn’t let herself go, there was no way he could get here.

On the other hand, if she insisted on leaving by herself, she would never dare anyone to stab her.

Therefore, Amelia Su’s attitude decides everything.

“Isn’t what I said not clear enough?”

“Let him leave, no one can stop him!” When the words fell, even if many subordinates were unwilling, they had to put down their weapons and put their heads aside, not willing at all. Take a second look.

Seeing such a situation, Canglong nodded slightly towards Amelia Su: “Okay, I will remember our bet.”

“You can pick up any piece of the stone sculpture and put it on your body.”

“I will find you through it. .” As the words fell, his body suddenly came together, and then it turned into a ray of light and flew into the sky, disappearing...

And almost at the same time, the subordinates finally couldn’t bear it...

Chapter 4487

“Go ?

It’s just...”

It’s hard for the subordinates to understand, this guy is so arrogant and domineering, it’s just that he didn’t take revenge on him, and he can bear it if he doesn’t kill him later.

However, it is simply too much to answer a mere trivial question with no answer.

“Madam, you...how can you be so soft-hearted.”

“Yes, then Hidden Dragon is not a good thing at first glance. Let’s put it away now. Once he regains his strength, what should he do if he troubles us again? “

“Yeah, madam, don’t forget, this is their territory.” The group really wanted to say that their madam is too womanly.

Sometimes being kind is not a bad thing, but sometimes being kind will push you into the abyss.

There is a saying that is well said, to be kind to the enemy is to be cruel to oneself.

This is typical of Amelia Su.

Amelia Su smiled softly: “Everyone, don’t worry, I will arrange everything by myself.”

“Besides, I believe that Canglong has already told us something he knows, although it may be the exact opposite of what we need, but In fact, it’s still enough.”

Hearing this, the gang was a little hard to understand.

“Madam, what do you mean by that? What is it that Hidden Dragon told us the answer?”

“We asked him two questions, but he answered both times he didn’t know. What kind of answer is this?”

“Yes, the answer he told us was also a non-existent answer. Say, how many people are there in what city? How many houses are there. It’s a fu**ing useless thing, we are here to kill the enemy.”

Amelia Su glanced at the indignant crowd and smiled softly: “For me, this is already the answer. “

It’s just that this answer may not be understood by us yet.”

“However, you don’t have to worry. Soon, whether this answer is like this will be verified.” After the words were finished, Amelia Su walked a few steps to the place where she was placed . Scar in a safe place on the side, then, squatting down slightly, a burst of energy hit Scar’s body lightly.

Although everyone was outraged by the Hidden Dragon incident, seeing that Amelia Su would save Scar, he couldn’t help but give priority to observing his situation.

After all, Scar’s injury is more worthy of everyone’s attention.

With Amelia Su’s spiritual energy entering the body, Scar’s injury soon had a preliminary overview from Amelia Su.

“Although the injury is very serious, fortunately, it is not fatal.”

After saying that, Amelia Su put a few nodes on Scar’s body to protect his heart, and withdrew his hand.

As long as you go back and do more conditioning and the scars recover , there will be no problem.

Amelia Su did not expect that under such a heavy blow, the guy Scar could still save his life.

Perhaps this is the advantage brought about by his strong body.

Seeing that the scar was fine, many people could not help but let out a breath or two, and their arrogance about letting go of Hidden Dragon like this disappeared a lot.

Scar was also under the protection of Amelia Su's infuriating energy. At this time, he slowly regained consciousness and opened his eyes.

"Madam? I...I...I'm not dead yet?"

"Don't worry, you can't die, the polar bear army is still waiting for you to bring it. If you die, who will be responsible?" Amelia Su laughed softly.

Hearing this, Scar couldn't help showing a smile, it would be good if he didn't die.

"By the way, where's the demon dragon?"

"I...help me up, I...I can fight again." After the words were finished, Scar was really struggling and had to fight again. Amelia Su rolled her eyes at him: "The demon dragon was driven away by us. You don't need to worry about this matter anymore."

"Really?"

He lowered his head, avoiding his eyes.

"What do you mean?" Scar couldn't understand why his brothers were so twisted.

Obviously, these subordinates really didn't know how to answer him.

Do you want to tell him that the demon dragon that you worked so hard and didn't even kill to resist could have been killed in advance, but was released by the madam?

How will Scar feel by then?

So, rather than that, it's better not to talk about it.

At least, Scar wasn't so sad in his heart.

Amelia Su coughed softly to ease the embarrassment at the scene, and then she looked into the city.

"Everyone, pack up, there are more important things waiting for us in the city." When the words were finished, she took the lead in walking toward the city...

Chapter 4488

Scar was carried on the shoulders by two or three brothers, and followed the team.

All around, there are still many houses, brightly lit.

But what makes a group of people feel strange, all the rooms are almost the same as the original, all the doors are closed, but there is no sound in the room with the lights on.

Scar asked several brothers to quickly put themselves beside Amelia Su and said, "Ma'am, it's a bit strange."

"Everywhere we came, almost every household closed their doors and made no sound. It seemed that they were avoiding us, and it seemed that they were avoiding us. There's no one here at all."

In this case, Amelia Su and George Han's group were the same when they first came to Tianmo Castle.

But the problem is that at that time

, at least every house in Tianmo Castle was closed with lights off.

How is it like this? !

"Yes, ma'am, the lights are on and the door is closed. The movement was so loud when we fought the demon dragon just now, doesn't it mean that there is no silver 300 taels here."

"Will there be any traps?"

Several subordinates also hurriedly said.

Amelia Su didn't speak, her eyes were fixed on the surrounding houses, and at the same time, her consciousness began to probe around.

Everything around is calm, not to mention movement, there is no other aura fluctuation at all.

From this aspect alone, there doesn't seem to be any black people in this place.

"It's a blessing, not a disaster, it's a disaster that can't be avoided."

"You guys are waiting for me here, I'll go and see what's going on."

It's not impossible to go further, but the situation here is too strange right now.

Amelia Su

was worried that if it went too deep into it, once there was any trouble, it would be difficult for a group of people.

So, instead of being weird, it's better to take the initiative to uncover these unknowns now.

"Slow, ma'am can't." Scar said in time.

"Azu, Ayou!"

As Scar made a sound, the two who had been following Amelia Su immediately took the lead: "Brother Scar!"

"How can you let Madam do the adventure?"

"Any changes ? , what should I do?"

"You two are just as*s!"

After scolding the two of them, Scar looked at Amelia Su: "Madam, if you want to inquire deeply, it is definitely not you who came out in person." Azuo Ayou also responded at this time . Come over, without waiting for Amelia Su's reaction, he took the lead in rushing towards a nearby house wearing his own team.

Amelia Su wanted to refuse at this time , but it was obviously too late.

Besides, Scar is right.

Amelia Su is not afraid of death, but she is the only real expert in the current team. She rushes forward. If there is any change or damage, the entire team will lose its backbone.

And there is a lack of people who can temporarily respond.

Therefore, from the overall situation, she should really hide on the side and be prepared.

If there is any situation, she will take action immediately, and she is also the person who has the time to stabilize the situation.

Thinking of this, Amelia Su stopped arguing with them, she used True Qi in her hands, and then she followed the Azuo Ayou team, keeping vigilance beside them at all times.

"Pa!"

A Zuo kicked the door open first, and immediately, the brothers behind him also immediately raised their weapons, ready to respond at any time.

All of a sudden, all kinds of weapons slammed at the door.

However, what makes everyone feel extremely strange is that although the lights are warm and the tables and chairs are neat, let alone an enemy rushing out, you can't even see a living creature.

Amelia Su also frowned, obviously unable to understand why this was the case in the house.

Scar bit his teeth and waved his hand.

Suddenly, a group of people rushed in immediately.

"Wow!" A dozen people leaned on each other, helped each other, and then approached the house to conduct a carpet-like search.

Amelia Su followed closely behind.

Unfortunately, a minute or two later.

Azuo Ayou took the people back to the living room.

no one.

“No one?” Amelia Su glanced back at the oil lamp hanging on the wall, staring at the wick.

The more she looked, the more she felt that something was amiss...

at this time.

The team here followed suit.

The team over there also consciously began to search for other houses.

With the sound of the door opening one after another, in just ten minutes, the group has almost checked the surrounding houses.

“Report to Madam, no one was found in several houses.” The result was unexpected, but unexpected.

“No one?” Scar frowned.

Obviously, it was a bit difficult to understand for a while.

“It’s strange, if there are no people in the surrounding house, then...why are the lights in the house on?” Scar frowned and looked at Amelia Su: “Could it be that Wei Wei deliberately confuses us?”

“Impossible.” Amelia Su answered decisively.

If this is the case, why did Canglong say that there are people here?

Since it is said to exist, it must exist.

Moreover, even if the other party wants to cast doubts, the lighted lamp does not seem to have any effect.

“Do you believe what that demon dragon said?” Scar was a little unbelievable.

That thing is rubbish at all. If you believe his words, it is better to believe that pigs will fly in the sky.

“It doesn’t need to lie to us.”

Amelia Su nodded firmly.

From Hidden Dragon’s eyes, Amelia Su could read his sincerity.

“You look at the wick.”

Amelia Su finished her words and pointed to the wick.

The scar is unknown, and after a few glances, nothing can be seen.

“The flame of the wick is very smooth. What does this mean?” Amelia Su said.

Scar continued to shake his head.

The wick tends to show signs of shortening or thickening with the burning time.

Therefore, since ancient times, as long as someone lights a lamp in this way, it will inevitably be indispensable.

“Look at the firelight now. It’s slender and long, so the room is bright.”

“This is because the wick is now in the slender stage.”

“To achieve this effect, there are only two points.”

“Or, the room is just lit. The lamp is not long, or someone has picked the lamp.”

Only in these two cases, the wick will remain slender.

Thinking of this, everyone suddenly realized, especially the knife scar, which slapped heavily on their own brain.

“Damn, why the fu** am I so stupid?”

“I forgot such an important point of information.”

Yes, since someone has lit the lamp or has picked it up for a while, how can there be no one here? ?

Thinking of this, Scar snorted coldly: “Someone.”

“Here!”

“Don’t search other places. Enclose the house for me, not to mention a fly, even an ant will not let it go out.”

” Yes!” As soon as the words fell, several subordinates immediately surrounded the house . Although the house is a bit big, but after all, the overall scale is the same, the problem of keeping it here is obviously not big.

“As for the others, I don’t care what method you use, even if you dig three feet in the ground, I also have to see the clues you find .

People waited, and began to search carefully.

Scar glanced at Amelia Su and asked the person who was supporting him to move a stool for Amelia Su.

“Madam, take a rest.”

“Let them do these things.”

Amelia Su hesitated slightly, nodded and sat down.

Having learned from Amelia Su’s previous experience with the agency, this time, a group of people no longer dared to be sloppy, and studied it carefully, almost inch by inch.

Amelia Su also took advantage of this free time to take a good rest for a while.

Scar didn't dare to disturb

. Although the body was injured and it was difficult to move, but the eye disease was not blind, while supervising the work of his subordinates, this guy looked around in his spare time, hoping to see some clues.

Time passes quickly.

Another ten minutes passed.

The people who were looking for it were almost exhausted and sweaty.

It's not a lot of effort to find something, but when you can't find it all the time, this thing is really tiring enough.

Scar was an overseer, and at this time, his spirit began to be a little dazed.

The atmosphere of the whole scene was almost so dull that it made people drowsy.

But at this moment, an extremely subtle sound suddenly appeared.

The next second, the screams of the subordinates soon came from the back room.

"There are discoveries, there are discoveries, come on, come on."

Hearing this, Scar woke up from drowsiness, Amelia Su also got up immediately and rushed in...

Chapter 4490

In the back room, a subordinate did not know how to unintentionally pull the bed board away.

And under the bed board, I don't know what, the subordinate is squatting there, pointing to the inside while excited and wearing the slightest guard.

As Amelia Su and the others rushed into the house, the original group of people in this house had already reacted, and they all directly drew their knives.

For a time, the whole room was filled with the sound of weapons being drawn.

Amelia Su took a few steps to the side of the bed, her brows furrowed.

In that bed, there was an extremely small compartment, even less than 30 centimeters in length and width. According to common sense, it is impossible for the next person to squat in such a small space.

But unfortunately, there was a person squatting there.

And, still a woman.

Because the compartment is too central, if the subordinate didn't find it by accident, he really wouldn't think that there was actually a compartment hidden under it, and there was still a person hidden in the compartment.

The woman was dressed in white, with jade-like skin and a superb appearance.

It's just that there is obvious panic in his eyes, and his face is full of fear.

Seeing Amelia Su and others, she subconsciously hugged her already small body even tighter.

"Madam." The

subordinate stepped aside and chose to hand her over to Amelia Su.

Amelia Su glanced at the woman.

Obviously, she was very frightened.

However, judging from her dress and physical appearance, it is almost certain that this woman should be from the Demon Castle.

Thinking of this, Amelia Su ordered everyone to put away their weapons immediately.

Afterwards, she asked cautiously: "Girl, don't worry, don't be afraid
, we are not bad people."

"We were invited by the people of Tianmo Castle to rescue you on purpose."

"Look, most of these people behind us are here. They're all from the Demon Castle."

After speaking, Amelia Su pulled Scar and the others down in front of him.

She was so afraid that the presence of people from the Demon Castle should be the most comforting to her.

But what Amelia Su couldn't have imagined was that Scar and the others didn't show up. The woman seemed to have seen a ghost when she appeared. Not only did she try her best to hide her body in the dark, but she couldn't bear it. Live shivering.

Scar was stunned and touched his head: "What's the situation?"

"Girl, we are good people. You..."

Scar wanted to get closer to explain, but Amelia Su hurriedly grabbed him, and then took him away Move behind you, as far away from the girl as possible.

Then, Amelia Su got up and moved closer to the woman.

A Zuo hurriedly stopped Amelia Su.

"Madam!"

Obviously, they were worried about Amelia Su's safety.

Amelia Su shook her head, indicating that there was no need to stop her.

A Zuo glanced at Scar, saw him nodding, then glanced at Amelia Su, and finally obediently retracted his blocking hand.

Amelia Su leaned slightly closer.

She is a woman, and the other party is also a woman. She feels that this method should be the least likely to stimulate this woman at the moment.

What's more, the brief contact just now gave her enough reason to believe that such a decision was correct.

Sure enough, the woman's reaction was not very violent, although she did dodge obviously.

But just when Amelia Su thought she was about to succeed, suddenly, a gloomy gloom flashed in the woman's fearful eyes, and the next second she moved her hand, and a dagger with cold light appeared in her hand instantly.

"Be careful, ma'am."

A Zuo was the first to notice the danger and shouted anxiously.

But it was obvious that it was too late when he wanted to help at this time.

Needless to say, the other subordinates could only widen their glasses one by one, looking at the scene in front of them in disbelief.

"Swipe!"

Because the distance was too close, when the woman's dagger came over, she almost didn't give Amelia Su any room to dodge.

Moreover, although she is a woman, and although she has no cultivation, don't forget, she is not an ordinary weak human woman.

As a demon, she is almost the same as Scar and others, her strength should not be underestimated...
