

HTC 4501

Chapter 4501

“Order all the brothers on the level, only some of them are left.”

“As for the other brothers, give them back to me.”

“Yes !”

Following Amelia Su’s order, A Zuo returned with forty-four people not long after.

At the entrance of the pass, he left twenty people temporarily as sentry.

Ah You also hurried back with a few brothers.

“Madam, what are we going to do next?”

“Madam, please instruct, damn, if they dare not come down, we will kill him.”

“Hey, the leader of the alliance is helping us, and now we will consume them, They are a dragon this time, and we can pull their necks out even if we pull on both sides.” The brothers were full of momentum, anyway, this is the case, they didn’t have too many ideas, just a word.

That’s do it!

Amelia Su nodded and smiled lightly .

“You don’t have to worry, you have to plan things.”

“If you want to destroy, you have to do it step by step.”

“Everyone listens!”

“Wow!”

Everyone stood up immediately.

“Divided into two teams, one team will immediately carry out the previous mission and rescue more hostages.”

“Azuo, you lead the team and set off immediately!”

“Yes!”

A Zuo waved his hand, and more than 30 brothers immediately followed.

“The rest of the people, form a team. Your task is to follow Ah Zuo’s troops. After they rescue the people, you need to immediately pile up all the combustibles in the house.”

“After that, use the most Burning cloth or similar movements will lead to the center of the street, understand?”

Ah You rubbed his head in confusion, but he understood what the task was about.

However,

what is the purpose of doing this, he is completely full of mud.

Scar touched his head: "Madam, do you want to... burn this place?"

Amelia Su nodded: "You can't let me blow up with infuriating energy again and again?" If the Underground Dragon City were to be bombed with infuriating energy all the time, not to mention that Amelia Su couldn't stand it, even if George Han came, it would have two big heads.

After all, this area is really too big.

Can't be fried.

Ah You understood and nodded: "Mrs. is also right."

"Connecting all the houses to it, and then burning it down, it saves a lot of effort."

"Also, the effect of burning the whole city is not as good as it is. It 's really bad to blow up infuriating."

Amelia Su smiled: "I think the effect may be even better than blowing up." Amelia Su was excited when she thought about how the fire was soaring into the sky and it was still continuous.

I believe that when that time comes, those guys will be very pleasantly surprised.

If you don't care about me, then I'll play a bigger game with you.

See if you can bear it or not.

"What are you doing, there is not much time, act quickly."

"Yes!" The

group of people understood what Amelia Su wanted to do, and they were all excited. Under the leadership of Ah You, the average person quickly followed Ah Zuo's troops to do things.

Amelia Su didn't sit still either, she set up her seat again and began to heal directly.

Soon, wave after wave of people were brought out by A Zuo, and then A Right was in charge of setting up fire materials.

In this way, about half an hour later, another thousand people were rescued successfully, and thousands of houses were vacated.

Amelia Su was very tired, but she was in a very good mood at this time, and she had no plans to rest at all.

After a few steps to Ah You's side, Ah You had already picked up a large piece of cloth and made a kindling cord.

The ignition cords are distributed all the way and can light up almost every house directly.

"Ma'am."

Seeing Amelia Su approaching, Ah You handed the torch to Amelia Su.

Amelia Su took the torch: "Did everyone leave?"

Ayou nodded: "Everyone has been withdrawn, even around the house where the fire started, I also cleaned it up completely, so as not to cause the fire to be too big and uncontrollable by then and spread to the innocent."

"You did a good job."

Amelia Su smiled with satisfaction, lightly swung the torch, and laughed coldly.

"Next, let them take a good look at it, what is a wildfire catching a prairie!"

Amelia Su put down the cloth on the ground with the torch!

Boom!

In an instant, flames erupted, all the way to...

Chapter 4502

like lit fireworks!

It's like a  shuttle.

The fuse spreads all the way, and finally leads to various houses.

It's not gunpowder, so it doesn't feel like a sudden explosion.

But the effect it brings is not necessarily worse than gunpowder.

As the house was lit, gradually, the fire began to slowly rise.

Until the end, when the whole fire was completely ignited, the effect reached its peak in an instant.

Crackling!

The fire went straight to the ground!

After that, they were connected to each other again, and in an instant, the fire went straight to the sky and suddenly started.

Boom!

This time, the sea of fire is continuous, and it directly shoots into the sky!

Even though Amelia Su had already thought that the fire might be very big, she took people away relatively in advance.

However, their group can still feel the high temperature brought by the fire.

However, rather than the unbearable heat, the group of people were more concerned about how the group above felt at this time.

Sure enough, the people above would be happy to kill them.

Although George Han tried his best to block him, the guy was surrounded by four columns.

There are at least 20,000 people in the four columns, and these 20,000 people are all elites. Even if they are as strong as Han 3,000, they continue to fall behind.

Not to mention rushing out to support the Polar Bear Corps, George Han now just wants to be able to barely survive, which is not bad.

It's just a mud bodhisattva crossing the river.

On the other side, on the second front, the Polar Bear Legion, which was fighting bloody battle with the enemy's fifth column, was really fighting bloody at this time.

The huge gap in strength will not slow down over time, it will only be pulled even wider.

Many soldiers fell one after another, and never had any chance to get up again.

Large numbers of troops also began to be dispersed.

Seeing, the fifth column is about to break through successfully.

Boom!

The incomparably huge flame spurted out of the hole that had exploded earlier.

The huge fire directly burned the entire sky red.

A group of people also stopped in time and stared blankly there.

The black shadow appeared in the firelight, looked at the firelight, and couldn't hold back for a while, a mouthful of green old blood spurted out.

"Report...report..."

"There is an accident in the underground dragon city, something big, the fire is soaring, elder." The black shadow was angry, and he was speechless for a while with his hands on his chest.

He has seen it, and there is no need for others to continue to worry!

"Elder

, we need immediate support. Otherwise, with such a fire, it won't be long before the entire Underground Dragon City will be completely swallowed up by the fire. Don't forget... This Underground Dragon City is very important to us."

"Clap!"

As soon as the subordinate finished speaking, a slap slapped his face directly.

"Are you done? Don't I fuing know this?"

After being slapped, the subordinate became much more honest in an instant. Although he was just as anxious, he just didn't dare to say a word.

Looking at the terrifying fire, in fact, the shadow is more anxious than anyone else, more worried than anyone else, he never thought about it, just letting go of that group of people for a short time, but that group of people would make so many things in such a short period of time. Broken thing.

Entering the underground dragon city and bombing it for a while is enough, but now, it is even more daring to set fire to it.

Simply intolerable.

"What the hell are you still doing? Order the fifth column to kill me immediately." The subordinate took the order, but he didn't leave in a hurry, just looked at him worriedly.

Dark Shadow glared fiercely.

He hurriedly said: "Elder, according to the current situation, if the fifth unit is to go down, I'm afraid... it will take half an hour." The other side said that there were tens of thousands of people, that is, tens of thousands of pigs, and they went down with a knife. It also takes a long time.

It was strange for those people to say that after fighting for so long and so many people died, they were not afraid at all.

If this were replaced by other troops, I am afraid that it would have collapsed long ago.

"Then let the first column give me support. Within ten minutes, I will see the troops enter Longcheng!"

"But... but where is George Han?!"

Chapter 4503

"Where is George Han?" Hei Ying

repeated his subordinate's question.

But his tone was not questioning, but angry.

Han 3000 is hairy there.

His nest has been taken over by others now, and all he has in his fuing mind is infinite anger and the murderous intention to destroy people.

How much does he manage there?

“Even if the first detachment is missing, there are still three columns, and more than 10,000 people will surround and attack him. Are you telling me a hammer?” “Come on, come on immediately, this is a death order!”

Now, he was completely angry, and he no longer had the composure and smugness he had before.

The subordinates immediately took orders and did not dare to be slighted at all.

After a while, the formation changed again in the formation.

The first column began to slowly withdraw from the encirclement of George Han and proceeded to kill the fifth column in an orderly manner.

It seems that he suffered a big loss last time, and this time the other party has obviously learned to be smart.

When the first column went to support, the third and fourth columns served as the main force, entangled George Han, while the second column deliberately expanded the line of defense to form a second encirclement point.

It exists for an obvious purpose.

Prevent George Han from attacking to stop the first column’s support to the fifth column.

Once George Han has this idea and can directly cross the first encirclement, then the second encirclement of the second column will attack quickly.

Judging from their intentional expansion of the defense line, the purpose is very clear. While helping the first column to retreat, they can continue to unite the third and fourth columns inside to form a thorough attack.

Obviously, these people have made up their minds to eat the polar bear legion raw and not give George Han any chance to make trouble.

If their enemy is not George Han, then this iron barrel formation is almost a nightmare-like god-level existence.

But unfortunately, their enemy is George Han.

A person who has been fighting bloody battles almost in the Bafang world.

Whether it is the ability of a single soldier or the command of the team, almost all of them are the ones who have reached their peak.

He didn't even need to look at the opponent's tactical intentions, he knew what was going on at a glance.

With a cold smile, George Han slammed the Pangu axe directly, and Tianhuo Yuelun carried the jade sword to open the way, and slammed directly in the opposite direction to the Polar Bear Legion.

This time, the group of people who were originally quite orderly waited immediately panicked.

After all, these people blocked all the ways that George Han went to support, but they never thought that George Han didn't even try to support all of a sudden, and went directly to the other side. kill.

Because I didn't think about it, the defense over there was obviously a lot looser.

With a shock from a character like George Han, the side of the weak line of defense immediately loosened.

"fu, what is this bastard doing?"

Soi Ying was stunned.

This damned George Han doesn't play cards according to the routine at all.

"Elder, that guy seems to be running." Another subordinate said hurriedly.

"Want to run?"

Judging from the battlefield, it seems to be the case.

A large number of troops were pinned to the left of George Han, and the encirclement of the fifth, first and second columns were all here.

Although the third and fourth columns were stalking George Han according to their orders, after all, their focus was mainly on preventing George Han from going to the left for support.

This George Han suddenly went to the right to kill.

Although there are thousands of people on the right, this is still too George Han.

"Elder, what should we do?"

Hei Ying's blood pressure soared when he heard it. You fuing ask me, who the hell am I going to ask? !

"George Han, you b!tch, what kind of hero are you, what? Are you planning to abandon your brother and run away by yourself?" The shadow growled loudly.

He did so for two purposes.

One is naturally scolding George Han, and at the same time, what if this guy is embarrassed and turns around again? !

The second one is to tell the members of the Polar Bear Corps who are fighting with their lives and blood in the Han 3000s, their efforts are not worth it.

“Hmph, George Han, I almost made you feel dizzy for the number of ways you don’t play cards according to the routine.”

“I want to see now, you bastard, what else can you do.”

“Military heart spreads. , I see how you still play?!”

Chapter 4504

Once the polar bear legion gives up resistance, then his two columns can immediately unite, and at that time, his column will have no more any hindrance.

In this way, he will get more.

“George Han, you coward, it’s because your brothers are still fighting to the death.” “I really don’t feel worth it for them

Seize the opportunity, taunt wildly, and destroy the enemy’s morale.

Although George Han was not affected at all, the polar bear army was obviously greatly affected.

Originally, they were desperate, but when they heard the news, although they would not throw away their armor and flee immediately, at least their hearts were greatly affected.

And in such a situation that is already at a complete disadvantage, it is almost fatal to have such an impact on the heart

Sure enough, under the ferocious attack inspired by the enemy, the polar bear army was pushed down even more in an instant.

George Han frowned, as if he had no intention of caring about the other side at all, just frowned and continued to frantically slaughter the siege in front of him.

Soon, George Han’s side was almost ready to break through.

“Elder, George Han, this b!tch seems to be really determined to escape by himself. What should we do?!”

“Escape?” Hei Ying smiled softly.

Just now, he was in a hurry and was a little out of balance, but now he has calmed down, his mind has calmed down, and his equanimity has returned again.

“Let him escape.”

“Let him escape?” The subordinates were puzzled.

Dark Shadow nodded heavily.

That's right, let George Han escape.

The more he escaped, the faster the morale of his gang would drop.

A group of troops that fight, if they don't even have the heart, they are just lambs to be slaughtered.

As long as they are broken, the columns will unite and they can quickly support the underground dragon city.

As for George Han, it doesn't matter, where can he escape?

Anyway, running around, he is also in this city, and after he has eased the crisis in other places, he will work together to encircle and suppress George Han.

By that time, he and George Han would be dead.

Therefore, letting George Han run now is actually just letting him live a little longer.

The subordinates understood that they did not say anything more, and stayed beside the shadow, quietly observing the situation on the field.

"Wow!"

George Han had already come even more fiercely.

He is really like a person who is greedy for life and fears death. Seeing that the enemy has given him a chance, he desperately kills him.

And those who blocked him were hard to resist, and seeing that there was no latest order from above, and no one was sent to support him, the army was disillusioned for a while.

After fighting and retreating, George Han's success in breaking through is almost at hand.

"Kill!"

George Han directly seized the opportunity, one turned forward, broke through the siege, and killed him.

At almost the same time, there were bursts of screams from the Polar Bear Legion.

After experiencing distracted and more frantic killings, the Polar Bear Legion not only did not collapse as completely as imagined, but suddenly exploded with infinite explosive power.

In an instant, the group of people gathered directly.

Courage to kill.

"Elder! Strange things, strange things, those rotten civilians, damn, not only did they not surrender, but instead fought back against us at this time." The subordinates hurriedly said.

Hei Ying frowned, looking at the battlefield in front of him, and frowned for a while: "Tell those pariahs, don't make senseless resistance, as long as you don't resist, you don't have to kill."

"Yes!"

After a while, the captain of the fifth column ordered the troops to temporarily stop the attack and shouted at the polar bear corps.

"Your superiors are pitiful, they have a special order to give up their weapons and not kill them!"

After he finished speaking, he looked at everyone coldly, waiting for the surrender of the Polar Bear Legion.

"Surrender?"

The few people standing at the front of the crowd looked at each other, and then sneered at each other.

"I vote for your mother!"

With a dirty word, the angry captain wanted to kill him on the spot to vent his anger. But after thinking about the superior's order, he suppressed his anger and asked in a cold voice: "Damn, your leaders have all run away, are you sure you want to continue fighting?!"

"The leader?" The man smiled coldly: "He It's our leader, yes, but, you know, who are we really taking the lead?"

Chapter 4505

"Do you have other leaders?" The captain frowned, a little puzzled.

George Han is already their biggest head, and in terms of ability, it should be the same.

But this guy, why would he say that? !

If it's just hilarious, it's unlikely that they will fight to the death for this.

But... but besides George Han, who else is more suitable than him? !

"Who?"

"Tianmobao!" The man sneered and stared at the captain.

"Tianmobao?"

"Yes, not to mention that George Han ran away, even if he betrayed us and joined you, so what?"

"We fought with you to the end."

"Because this is Tianmobao, here is us. The city!"

“Isn’t it? Brothers?!”

He shouted with enthusiasm, and the generals behind him were almost like him, firm-willed, and responded in unison : “Kill!”

Seeing this posture, even that The captain couldn’t help but be startled.

No one would have thought that things have come to this stage, and these headless flies are still in this tough and unwilling to surrender, and they will fight to the end.

“Stubborn!” The captain’s face was cold, and at the same time he waved his hand to ask his subordinates to immediately ask the elders.

On Sombra’s side, looking at the fifth column, which had not started, was also puzzled.

If they were to surrender, those untouchables should also act.

At this moment, his subordinates hurried over, his head lowered, and he said with some fear: “Report to the elder, the captain of the fifth column has already recruited the untouchable army according to your order.” The shadow lightly lowered . Yin: “Then why don’t they see any action yet?” ” Elder , those pariahs are so daring, they don’t pay any attention to our persuasion to surrender.

” Anger: “What else did they say? Say it!” “Yes, the untouchables also said... that even if they didn’t have George Han, they would still fight with us to the end, because they belonged to the Demon Castle. ” , the shadow was instantly furious. “You bastards, a group of pariahs, they don’t know how high the sky is!!” “It’s just rebellious! Well, enough opportunities have been given to them. Since they don’t know how to cherish it, then let them go.” “Order the third and fourth columns to continue chasing. George Han.” “The second column recruited me to attack the base camp.” “The first and fifth columns give me an immediate turn and beat those untouchables!” ” Yes!” go down. Suddenly, the entire team suddenly sounded a strange whistle. Under the whistle, the team quickly assembled, then changed their formation and began to adjust as Sombra ordered. Not long after, the army has officially returned to its place! “Kill!” As the order was passed down, the army instantly pointed to it!

In the next second, the action is officially launched!

George Han also accelerated at the same time, and suddenly threw off the two chasing columns.

With George Han’s movement technique, once he was able to break out of the tight encirclement, if he simply wanted to rely on some speed to catch up with him, it was basically equivalent to a fool’s dream.

Just opening his eyes, he played the technique of disappearing in front of everyone!

A large group of people were suddenly stunned, what about people? !

“Damn, what the hell is this speed?” The black-clothed men are almost outstanding, with ghostly figures, but in front of George Han, they still feel powerless, even a shadow. can not see.

“Captain, what should we do? We were told to chase George Han, but this

... George Han is gone.” The captain was also very confused, and then looked at the captain next to him: “Fourth, what are you doing? Look.” The fourth was in charge of the fourth column, and he was on the same level as him, so his opinion was obviously crucial at this time.

“Third brother, I don’t know either.”

“Or, I mean, let’s look for it separately?”

Anyway, I can’t catch up now, and I keep looking for it, at least I haven’t slackened my responsibilities.”
Okay

, you go over there, I’ll go over here. Once we find anything, we will send a signal to attack it together.”
Carpet hunt. But only George Han knew what his real purpose was at this time. At this time, the underground dragon city saw a fire. Amelia Su knew that it was time for her next plan...

Chapter 4506

“Brothers, what are you waiting for?” “ Start the second wave of action.”

round of action.

However, during the fire, Arizona’s team was not idle. They had been carrying out rescue operations steadily early on.

At this time, when Amelia Su was about to carry out the second wave, there were actually many women waiting in line for Amelia Su’s treatment.

Ah You’s actions are also more rapid.

The group’s movements became more and more swift.

But in a short while, at the entrance on the other side of the pass, there were bursts of gunshots.

Amelia Su knew very well that this was the enemy’s troops.

“Azuo, immediately lead someone to rescue, how much time can be bought, how much time.” Amelia Su instructed.

A Zuo

immediately put down what he was doing, and took the order to go straight away.

“Ayou, take over from Azuo.”

“Yes.”

“However, the plan has to change a little, and plan B.” “

Yes!” It’s just that he didn’t follow A Zuo’s line to save people. Instead, he went to save people at the outermost periphery, which was very strange and some distance away. “Madam, according to your plan B, it will take at least half an hour to do this.” Scar couldn’t help but said.

Amelia Su nodded: “That’s why I kept telling Azuo to resist for at least half an hour.”

Scar nodded: “From the perspective of the terrain, it is easy to defend and difficult to attack, and the gang of dog thieves tried to use such a fortification. It is convenient for them to defend themselves. Unexpectedly, today, it has become a stumbling block for them to attack.”

“I’m afraid, this is called the good cycle of heaven.”

“Half an hour, I believe that Zuo should be able to do it. “

Yes.” Amelia Su agreed with this point of view.

Although she knew very well that Zuo was not the opponent’s opponent at all, but sometimes the advantages brought by the terrain can indeed make up for many of her own shortcomings.

“We should also leave as soon as possible. Although we have plenty of time, we can save a little for Azuo and the others, which means that Azuo’s casualties will be much smaller.”

“This subordinate understands.”

Amelia Su led the way. Following the footsteps of Ah You and the others, they took action.

” Report

“The second column has already rushed to the base camp, and is currently engaged in a battle with the enemy!”

“How long will it take to win?” The shadow asked coldly.

“It will be taken within half an hour.”

“Half an hour?”

“Elder, have you forgotten the fortifications we laid at the entrance?”

Hei Ying took a long breath and nodded: “That’s true.”

” However, half an hour is still too long, don’t forget, that is our Dragon City, once...”

“My subordinates immediately go to order the second column to attack the pass at all costs.”

“Very good. What about the other teams?”

“The untouchable army can also be wiped out within half an hour. It’s not worth mentioning at all. Killing them is no different from killing pigs. It’s just...”

“Just what?” Hei

Shadow frowned.

“It’s just that the third and fourth columns in pursuit of George Han failed to pursue George Han. At present, no figure of George Han can be seen. However, the two columns have already acted separately and pursued George Han in a carpet-like manner.”

Hei Ying was a little angry, but there was something to think about. After all, George Han’s abilities were placed there.

“George Han suddenly disappeared. Do you think he escaped, or did he have other plans?”

Hei Ying finished his words and looked at some of his close subordinates.

Several subordinates immediately looked at each other.

They are very aware of the importance of answering this kind of question at this time, because once the answer is wrong, even if the elders are guided to make a wrong decision, the consequences will be extremely serious.

After thinking about it, none of the subordinates dared to talk nonsense.

“I would like to hear from the elders!”

Chapter 4507

rely on!

Dark Shadow cursed in a low voice.

He wanted to ask the opinions of his subordinates, but a group of bas*s were afraid of taking the blame and asked themselves directly, which was just damn and hateful.

However, these bas*s do have the potential to be dogs.

At least, I didn’t want to take the blame and gave myself a rainbow fart.

I would like to hear my high opinion, doesn’t this directly give myself a chance to pretend!

The subordinates are willing to give it, of course she has no possibility of rejecting it.

Thinking of this, he snorted softly: “I think Han Sanqian escaped.”

“Escaped?” The subordinates looked at each other.

“Why did the elder say this? Then why did Han Sanqian run away?!”

“Yes, this grandson may also go straight to the Underground Dragon City, what should we do?”

“Elder, please give it to me. Wait for the confusion.” The subordinates lowered their heads and said softly.

The elders were not angry either. Although they were asking themselves, they were actually giving themselves the opportunity to continue performing.

He knows this very well.

“In the case of the Underground Dragon City, what if he goes? Do you think this guy will go down?”

Hearing the elder’s words, several people nodded.

“What the elders said is reasonable. The underground dragon city is completely a gourd, with a big inside and a small entrance. If Han Sanqian rushes into it, it will be equivalent to asking you to enter the urn.”

“As long as he’s not a fool, even if he gets there, I’m afraid he will find the clues immediately.”

“So, his options are almost only escape.”

Hei Ying was very happy to hear the approval of his subordinates. Also very satisfied.

“But elder, take the liberty to ask, what if he wants to go? I mean, if he doesn’t go, it’s always just our subjective guess. I’m afraid that if the time comes...”

“This kind of accident , the possibility is extremely low.” Black Shadow smiled confidently.

“Elder, what is the explanation for this?”

“This still needs to be explained by the elder, you don’t even think about it, if he Han Sanqian is really such a loyal person, he will give up so many people to die there, and take care of himself first. I ran away.”

“That’s right, people with high cultivation like him are often the most afraid of death. Because of what, it’s not easy for them to cultivate.”

“That’s right, especially Han Sanqian, who is so strong that he is almost perverted. Those who are barefoot are not afraid of wearing shoes. Sometimes these shoes are too good, which will inevitably make people feel more distressed and cherish them more.” A group of people talked freely, seeming to be very sure about Han Sanqian’s escape. .

It was the subordinate who didn’t quite believe it before, and continued to say with a very low EQ at this time: “But in any case, I always think that this is just our unilateral guess.”

“I think we should see things like this with our eyes . It’s true.” As soon as he finished speaking, some people were immediately dissatisfied and wanted to refute.

But Hei Ying waved his hands indifferently: “Hey, you don’t have to get excited. What he said is not necessarily unreasonable.”

“In the face of the enemy, it is better to be cautious in everything.”

Then, Hei Ying rushed to the man beside him. nodded.

The man immediately understood, and then he moved his hand, not knowing what he had put in the sky.

After that, in less than a minute, five men in black rushed over immediately.

“See the elders!” All five were dressed in black, but their skills were extremely sensitive. They were all intelligence officers in five columns, responsible for the transmission of intelligence.

After receiving the special message from that person, they rushed over immediately.

“Get up.” The elder said softly.

The five nodded and got up.

“Have you found the trace of Han Sanqian in front of you. Especially the second column.”

“Elder Qi, we haven’t found any trace of Han Sanqian.” The three responded in unison.

The intelligence officer of the second column also immediately said: “The second column has been attacking in an orderly manner, and has not found any inappropriateness.”

Hearing the answer of the second column, everyone present couldn’t help but grow a sigh of relief tone.

They were responsible for attacking the Underground Dragon City, so naturally, they didn’t find any danger, which meant that Han Sanqian was really as they had guessed.

Just ran for his life in a hurry. ” Hahaha

, you see, let me just say, this Han Sanqian has no seeds at all, he can only run away.” Yes group of people laughed, but it was still the one who first questioned, not only did not laugh at this time but kept staring at the intelligence officer of the fifth column who had never spoken...

Chapter 4508

From beginning to end, he did not say a word, and the expression on his face was almost completely different from others.

He did not smile at all, on the contrary, his brows were furrowed, as if he had something on his mind.

The man hurriedly said: “The fifth column, why didn’t you speak?”

When the intelligence officer of the fifth column was asked, he knelt down in a panic.

He glanced at the man, and then at Hei Ying and the others, his head lowered, and he said timidly, “Elder Qi, and all the commanders, although the fifth column is doing its best to surround and suppress those pariahs, their subordinates inadvertently said. I found a figure and flew all the way out of the city.”

Upon hearing this, everyone immediately stopped smiling and stared at the intelligence officer of the fifth column.

“What did you say just now? You said someone was heading out of the city? Can you see clearly?”

“A lot of people in the fifth column saw it, otherwise, just relying on the eyes of the villain, And... how dare you use it as an intelligence report?!” The intelligence officer continued in a low voice.

“Why didn’t you say such important information earlier?” Someone said dissatisfied.

The intelligence officer’s head suddenly became lower: “Just because of the figure we saw, because the speed was so fast that although many of us saw him flying in the direction of the city gate, we couldn’t see clearly whether he was or not at all. Han Sanqian, so... this news is half-truth according to the regulations, and the young dare not report it immediately.”

Hearing his words, many people nodded, they did have this rule.

However, compared to this kind of rule, more people are more concerned about the excitement brought by the news.

“Elder, according to the fifth column, the person who escaped should be none other than Han Sanqian.”

“Yeah, only Han Sanqian can’t be seen clearly by the fifth column in terms of speed.”

Hearing these words, Sombra nodded in satisfaction.

There is no need for his subordinates to say more, he can basically judge comprehensively that the number of people who fled to this city gate is three thousand.

On the one hand, none of the other four columns found him, nor did the second column, which was most likely to fight with him.

It happened to be the fifth column, but at this time, they found a person running towards the city gate.

It couldn’t have been more obvious.

Thinking of this, Hei Ying sneered: “I thought he had more than 3,000 varieties, and one person bears the burden of so many of us. Now it seems that it is just forcibly pretending.”

“That’s right, It is estimated that it will also be a temporary prestige. As a result, after this fight, this guy is completely cowardly.”

“Actually, it is not normal for him to be cowardly. I don’t believe it, this guy is so heroic in the face of us. Lion, he can still stand it.”

“That’s right, with so many of us, the King of Hell would have to pee his pants when he saw it, hahahaha!” The group of people laughed, and all of them were very proud for a while.

Obviously, in their arrogance and basic cognition, Han Sanqian should be so afraid to run away.

The person who has been reporting hesitancy will be completely speechless at this meeting.

For him, although it was always difficult to believe that a person who fought hard for their entire army would suddenly say that he would withdraw, but the iron truth was always in front of him, and people had to believe it.

Today, he can't seem to find any other reasoning except for a bitter sigh that he may think too much.

It's just that he doesn't know why, but he always feels that something is not right in his heart.

I can't say it, I can't say it at all, I can't tell my colleagues or even my boss that I don't feel right.

The result of doing so, do not have to think too much, only one.

That's being called an idiot.

The boss looked down on him, and his colleagues also felt that he was deliberately pretending to be coercive.

Therefore, after thinking about it, he still hid his psychological words in his stomach.

Anyway, everyone thinks that even if there is really something wrong and something goes wrong, it will be the responsibility of the blame, and it is none of his business.

If he forced his way forward, the only one who would suffer at that time would be himself.

At this time, in a certain corner of the city, a figure gently stopped.

Under the faint starlight, he smiled lightly, revealing his white teeth...

Chapter 4509

"The weather is good."

Feeling the breeze blowing his face, he couldn't help sighing.

And obviously, this figure, who can appear here at this time, besides Han Sanqian, who else can it be? !

After a few quick accelerations, he not only easily got rid of the two columns of chasing soldiers, but also circled in a large circle, killing directly towards the north gate of the city from the other side.

Because the movement was too fast and the movement was too fierce, there was no one left behind who was thrown behind him.

It is indeed rare to see Han Sanqian who wants to beat Han Sanqian in speed.

"Brothers of the Polar Bear Legion, thank you for your hard work."

"I don't want to, but the only way is to surround Wei and save Zhao."

Thirty thousand brothers, just sacrifice one at random. The moment the Yiren came, Han Sanqian had already let them charge, instead of letting them retreat.

But the ability and number of the men in black are far beyond Han Sanqian's desire to save his brother's life, and it is impossible to do so.

He is not someone who leaves his brother alone, but Han Sanqian also knows that even if he barely breaks through and joins the Polar Bear Legion, it doesn't really mean much.

Not only can the two sides not be able to save anyone, but also because they are mixed together, it is easy to be served in one pot.

Therefore, it is absolutely impossible for Han Sanqian to do such a momentary overheating and ruin everything.

After thinking about it, Han Sanqian decided to learn from Su Yingxia.

Playing a trick is almost the same, surround Wei to save Zhao.

The specific gameplay is also very simple. Once you make a gesture to escape, the group of people will inevitably relax. Because they have a more important task and need to support the underground dragon city, they will not chase after them.

In this way, coupled with his own skills, Han Sanqian believes that if he does this, he will definitely be able to break through the encirclement.

However, after breaking out of the siege, Han Sanqian did not immediately go to support Su Yingxia.

The reason is very simple, what he can think of, the enemy will also think of.

Once they appeared to support them as they thought, in fact, it would be the same as supporting the Polar Bear Corps by themselves. At that time, stealing chickens would not be a loss.

Han Sanqian wants to create an illusion, and after he has completely deceived this group of people, he will take another salary from the bottom of the pot.

Thinking of this, Han Sanqian smiled coldly.

Immediately afterwards, he directly released the gluttony of evil.

Just now to help himself, this guy is scarred again.

However, Han Sanqian, after stealing his hometown in the Golden City of Angelica, was once again considered rich and powerful.

Therefore, it doesn't matter if the gluttonous eater of evil is hurt.

I will make up for you.

Make up for it!

As soon as the words fell, Han Sanqian directly took out a pile of gold, and then threw it directly in front of the evil glutton.

Patting the guy on the shoulder, Han Sanqian said: "Now in wartime, there are more troubles, and I know that I have wronged you, brother."

"However, I really have no other way."

"These gold, you can do whatever you want . Eat."

Although Evil Knowing Taotie can't speak, but after being with Han Sanqian for so long, Han Sanqian also knows very well that it is very human, and even extremely intelligent.

It looked at Han Sanqian for a long time with one eye, and seemed very surprised what Han Sanqian was doing.

Although Han Sanqian is usually not harsh to himself, he must be in the minority when he is suddenly so generous.

The eyes of the gluttonous glutton seem to be scolding Han Sanqian, is the pile of gold at the moment a loose meal?

“Let’s eat, it’s not a casual meal. Actually, I want you to do me a favor.”

Hearing this, the evil gluttonous glutton was instantly relieved. What can we do?

Seeing that the gluttonous gluttons started eating underground, Han Sanqian’s face also showed the “kind” smile of an old father.

“Little taotie, whether this mission can be successful or not, I’m all counting on you.”

“You want to play with cowhide, then we will definitely be able to make a splash this time, and if you wilt, rely on me. I’ll be unlucky with you too, maybe, this meal will really become a casual meal...”

Evil Taotie suddenly stopped eating because it suddenly found that the meal in front of him was not fragrant...

Chapter 4510

Seeing that the gluttons stopped eating because of their own words, Han Sanqian was embarrassed.

After all, this is the number one foodie in the world, and for it, nothing is more important than cooking.

But... but even him...

“Hehe!” Han Sanqian quickly lost an embarrassed smile.

“Eat, eat, eat, you eat.”

Under the renewed urging of Han Sanqian’s incomparable “enthusiasm”, the glutton of evil finally had to reluctantly choose to continue eating.

Seeing that the gluttonous gluttony had started anew, Han Sanqian touched his hand this time and continued: “That’s it, I might need you to perform it later.”

“You also know that you are evil. Taotie, so judging from your worth, once you perform a performance, the enemy troops will definitely come to watch, so...”

Evil Taotie didn’t eat again.

Don’t you just let me be a cannon fodder to attract firepower here, what you say is so refreshing and refined, and what is your talent?

“Hey, it’s important to save people, it’s urgent, my gluttonous brother!”,

“Of course, you are my brother, in fact, I respect your opinion quite a bit, if, I mean if you don’t want to, in fact, It doesn’t matter.”

That’s why he bullied the evil glutton and couldn’t speak.

If it really can speak, I am afraid that the first sentence it opens is, the if in your mouth, I am afraid it is impossible to exist at all.

What else can I do other than promise?

Thinking of this, Evil Taotie nodded gloomily.

If you want to use Lao Tzu as cannon fodder, just say no.

Depend on!

“Haha, okay, okay, I just said, my little taotie must be the most handsome person in the world, there is no one. Eat, eat, eat more, only when you are full will you have the strength to work.”

In Han San Under Qian’s diligence, the glutton of evil ate frantically.

In a short time, a pile of gold has almost been wiped out by the gluttonous gluttons.

And Evil Taotie’s serious injuries began to recover quickly.

It is worthy of being an ancient beast, his mother’s fighting strength recovers even more fiercely than his own.

Han Sanqian is even thinking, if there is an extremely fierce battle to fight one day, then he will directly prepare several carts of food for the gluttonous glutton, and this product must not consume everyone there?

After all, even myself, under the blessing of Taixu, is only a second comeback, but this guy has been eating and fighting online, so theoretically as long as there is enough food, he dare not say he is invincible, but at least any People have to weigh themselves against him, right?

Not bad, Han Sanqian can do the same.

“fu, it’s fortunate that you are with me.” Han Sanqian thought about it, and he couldn’t help but have some lingering fears.

However, there is more hope than fear.

After all, after the gluttonous gluttony followed him, he was almost in turmoil.

Under such circumstances, let alone growth, it can’t even regain the strength it had when it first saw itself.

And once that day the gluttonous gluttonous can rest and recuperate, coupled with his crazy feeding, after the strength has skyrocketed, he will be equipped with enough food, relying on... What kind of power is that.

Anyway, I feel a little scared when I think about it.

I don’t know which unfortunate person will be the victim at that time.

“Have you eaten yet?” Han Sanqian asked.

Evil Taotie nodded, and then still did not forget to lick the little bit of gold on the ground.

“Don’t be so hungry, we are ancient beasts anyway, and we must have momentum. I promise, when you finish this thing for me, I will prepare you a house of food, how about it?”

” Han Sanqian’s appetite for food was obviously pinned down, and he nodded like a chicken pecking at rice.

Immediately afterwards, Han Sanqian put his mouth to the ear of Evil Taotie, and told it all his plans one by one.

“Do you understand?”

“It’s good to understand, let’s act now!” After the words were finished, one person and one beast split up and started to act...
