

“Boss, give me a pack of Dunhill.”

“You are so punctual every day.”

One of the hawker stalls right opposite the street of Su Group.

The owner of the store looked at Han Jingru with a heartfelt expression.

Ever since three years ago, this young lad would appear in front of him at the same time, every single day without fail. The shop owner was curious at first but he eventually realized that whenever Su Yimo left the company, he would leave as well.

The man had a speculation towards Han Jingru’s identity but he said nothing. The man understood that every family has their own difficulties. This matrilocal man in the Su family was derided by the entire city, probably he just didn’t want anyone else to know about his identity.

“I am just free~” Han Jingru said with a smile.

The shop owner was a middle-aged man and he was just impressed by Han Jingru’s persistence. For the past three years, the young man had appeared daily and sharply at four thirty in the afternoon. He would just stay by Su Yimo’s side quietly.

“When do you plan to pick her off work? Or do you plan to simply look at her every day?” Since there were no other customers, the boss chitchatted with Han Jingru.

Han Jingru looked towards the company entrance of the Su Group and smiled faintly, “The time isn’t right yet.”

“Young lad, there is something that I wish to say but I do not know if it is appropriate.” the boss said.

“Sure thing, don’t worry about it!”

“You do not look like an ordinary person to me. But... Why did you marry into the Su family?” Although the shop owner wasn’t the most experienced man in discerning people, he had a feeling that Han Jingru was just different from others. It was a hunch and he couldn’t give a more detailed description. All in all, the boss was confident that he wasn’t a trash like what everyone said.

“I eat, poop and sleep. I am just the most ordinary of man.” Han Jingru said slowly.

“You know I wasn’t referring to that.” the boss hesitated for a while and continued, “You are even able to swallow in so many insults. If it were me, I would have lost it already.”

Lost it?

Han Jingru chuckled. The man known as the lowest of trash married into the Su family, and yet, Su Yimo did not lose it. How could he have any right to complain?

In others’ eyes, Han Jingru was gallantly bearing injustice.

However, in Han Jingru's eyes, Su Yimo was having it much worse than him.

"What I went through is nothing compared to her." Han Jingru muttered.

The boss simply sighed and said no more.

When Su Yimo got off work, Han Jingru bid the boss goodbye and simply rode his little scooter away.

Su Yimo stood by the company door and watched Han Jingru disappeared into the distance.

For the past three years, Han Jingru had been waiting for her to get off work every single day.

As for Su Yimo, she would also wait for Han Jingru to leave before getting into her car.

When she got home, Su Wenlun told Jiang Yan what happened in the meeting earlier and the mother finally lost it.

"Su Yimo, are you crazy!? Have you ever thought that after we are kicked out from the Su family, who takes care of our livelihood!?"

"Su Ruijin was taunting you on purpose. Can't you even tell his objectives?"

Su Yimo simply answered indifferently, "He doesn't want us to have a share in the family fortune."

When Jiang Yan heard that, her face turned grim and she roared, "Since you knew, why did you agree to him!? All of them failed, what makes you think you can do it!?”

Su Yimo had a complicated feeling. She trusted Han Jingru but she didn't know if she was right or wrong.

Although they had a lowly position in the company, the moment the grandmother dies, they could definitely get their fair share. But if they were to be kicked out from the Su family, they wouldn't be able to get anything.

The woman had bet everything on Han Jingru and trusted him. But the price was just too high...

But now that she had given her words, there was no chance for her to turn back.

“Mum, don't you have any faith in me?” Su Yimo said.

Jiang Yan was so angry that she was striking her own chest, “How do you expect me to trust you? Every single one from the Su family failed! What makes you think you are so special!?”

So what was it?

Su Yimo didn't know as well. Because the only reason she agreed to do that was because of one text from Han Jingru.

At that time, Han Jingru got home as well. He walked towards Su Yimo and spoke to Jiang Yan, “Mum, you should trust her. Yimo can definitely do that.”

Jiang Yan looked at Han Jingru in disgust and sneered, “What does that have to do with you? If it wasn’t for you marrying into our family, my pretty daughter can definitely score a good man with prominent family. You have ruined us! How dare you speak right now?!”

Han Jingru kept his silence and went to cook in the kitchen.

“Han Jingru, can I trust you?” Su Yimo called out to Han Jingru all of the sudden.

The man turned over with a smile, “Yes.”

“What is happening?” Jiang Yan could tell that there was more that met the eye and she hurriedly asked her daughter. Could it be that trash made Su Yimo agreed to the deal?

“Come over here and speak clearly! Are you involved in this matter? Are you the one that made Yimo agreed?” Jiang Yan interrogated Han Jingru furiously.

Su Yimo knew that if the mother were to know about that text, she would definitely cause trouble for Han Jingru. She might even chase the man out from the house.

“Mum, that was my decision and it has nothing to do with him.” Su Yimo said.

“Nothing to do with him? I think you have lost your mind because of him! How can you even trust him? Su Yimo, have you lost your mind!?” Jiang Yan grabbed Su Yimo’s shoulder. The mother was just overcome with rage and she was hurting Su Yimo.

When Han Jingru saw her pained expression, his face turned into a cold chill and he grabbed Jiang Yan's wrist and said coldly, "Whether Yimo can do it or not, you will learn of it tomorrow. Why aren't you willing to trust her?"

Jiang Yan was even more infuriated. How could that piece of trash talk back to her!?

"Don't touch me. You don't have the right to speak in our house!" Jiang Yan fumed.

Han Jingru simply leered at Jiang Yan emotionlessly. The man did not back off and it was the first time he showed an uncompromising side to him.

When Jiang Yan looked into Han Jingru's eyes, all of a sudden fear struck her. It felt as if she was on his mercy.

When Su Wenlun saw that things were getting serious, he hurriedly came forward to break the fight, "All of you should calm down. Now that what happened has happened, it is pointless to argue. Let's try to think of a solution or any idea that could help Yimo to finish her assignment."

After Jiang Yan released Su Yimo, Han Jingru loosened his grip as well. He spoke to Su Yimo gently, "I'll go make dinner."

Jiang Yan was simmering in hatred as she looked at her reddened wrist. The mother sneered resentfully, "I will make sure to kick you out from my family... You trash!"

When they were having dinner, Jiang Yan did not join them. Su Wenlun was giving a brief about everything he knew about Rumo Real Estate. The father was afraid as well. If the daughter were to fail tomorrow, Su Ruijin and the other relatives would definitely chew on her. If they were to be kicked out from the Su family, that marked the end of them.

After the dinner, Han Jingru went to take a shower. When he went back to the room, he saw that Su Yimo was sitting on her bed and looking intently at himself.

Han Jingru lied down on the floor mat and spoke to Su Yimo, "The owner of Rumo real estate is my classmate."

"I see." Su Yimo gave a simple reply and asked no more.

The room was pin drop silence. But that was just the daily norm for the past three years.

However, Su Yimo was feeling something different within. The moment Han Jingru grabbed her mother's arm, she had never seen that kind of gaze from him.

"Don't wait for me in the company next time."

The woman said suddenly.

Han Jingru was a little surprised as he didn't know that Su Yimo knew.

"Okay."

Su Yimo back faced Han Jingru and bit her lips.

Her heart was rippling in a gentle wave.

She had always thought that she could easily divorce Han Jingru. But ever since yesterday, she noticed that she couldn't do it.

No matter how useless and incompetent the man was, he had stood by her side without fail for the past three years.

No matter what kind of attacks were directed to him, no matter how cold and disinterested she treated him, he would always maintain a sunshine on his face just in front of her.

Su Yimo wasn't a hardened person. And the woman found out that she had gotten used to his companionship.

"Pick me up at the company entrance."

Han Jingru was shocked, as if he was electrified. He looked at Su Yimo's lying side and his wide opened eyes slowly brimmed in happiness.

Su Yimo couldn't see Han Jingru's expression. When she didn't hear any reply from him, she thought that he wasn't willing and she said in frustration, "If you aren't willing, forget it."

Han Jingru was so excited that he sat right up, "I... I do, I am willing."

When Su Yimo felt a strong emotion from his words, a drop of tear flowed down uncontrollably.

The man wanted so little...

“Forgive me for the past three years.”

The following day.

Su Ruijin was sitting in his office and he was laughing hard while holding his phone. The man was almost tearing up.

There were other family members around. When they saw Su Ruijin breaking into a laughter so suddenly, they were just puzzled.

“Ruijin, what happened? What is so funny?”

“How can you keep it to yourself, hurry and share it!”

“Don’t tell me Su Yimo didn’t even show up?”

Su Ruijin held his stomach as he breathed heavily, “Damn it, Su Yimo that idiot, is she trying to get me to have a heart attack!?”

“What happened? Hurry and tell us!” The rest of the youngsters in the Su family was just curious.

“That crazy woman asked her trash of a husband to pick her to Rumo estate in his tiny scooter. Is her brain flooded or what?” Su Ruijin said while catching his breath.

The moment everyone else heard that, the office broke into a hysterical laughter. None of them could stand it and they were just laughing uncontrollably.

“GAAAHaha... Will anyone even entertain her if she were to show up like that!?”

“I think she must have given up already. But it makes sense, none of us could even get into the company, how could she?"

"Ruijin, you did a good job! I think Su Yimo is getting doomed this time. Now that she will be chased out from the Su family, she will not be getting a cent in the future!"

The few youngsters were agreeable and none of them believed that Su Yimo could do anything they couldn't. They were just excited to see how she made herself a joke.

"But what if she shamelessly dishonors her bet?" Someone asked worriedly.

Su Ruijin simply sneered coldly. The man had finally gotten a chance to kick Su Yimo's family out. He would definitely see to that happening!

"Don't worry. I have my own way to get her out. At that time, the rest of you simply need to stand by my side." Su Ruijin said conceitedly.

"Rest assured, we are in the same boat."

"Su Yimo had shamed our family over and over again. After chasing her out from the family, we don't have to be made fun of anymore!"

"Exactly, that trash of her husband had made me feel so humiliated in the past. Now I can finally distance myself from him!"

Rumo real estate.

After Han Jingru parked his car, he looked at the nervous Su Yimo and smiled, "Don't worry. I have already spoken to my classmate. You simply need to sign the contract."

Su Yimo didn't ask any question about Han Jingru's classmate. Moreover, there were just too many competitors of the Su family and they did not have any competitive edge at all. Just for their all times' relationship sake? Was it possible to win them a business contract so huge?

"Could your classmate be joking with you?" Su Yimo asked.

"Of course not. He is a brother of mine." Han Jingru said.

When Su Yimo saw how confident Han Jingru was, she gained a little courage.

Although their conversation last night did not get them closer instantly, the distance between them had definitely shortened. Su Yimo knew that they were husband and wife and she would need to face him eventually.

The moment they entered the company, before Su Yimo even said anything. The worker from the front desk hurried towards her.

"May I know if you are Miss Su?" The tall and slender woman in business suit smiled politely to her.

Su Yimo was surprised by her enthusiasm and she hurriedly replied, "It's, it's me."

“Please follow me.”

They entered a special lift that connected right to the top floor of Rumo real estate. Su Yimo felt that her heart was jumping out from her throat already. Although she hasn't seen anything about the contract yet, a treatment like that had given her quite the confidence.

The moment the lift door was opened, a middle-aged man had been expecting her.

“Greetings, Miss Su. My name is Zhong Ji and I am the person in charge of the West side project. I will also be in charge of the cooperation with your good company.” Zhong Ji introduced himself manneredly.

Su Yimo was just stupefied and didn't know how to react.

Zhong Ji continued to smile, “Sorry that our boss is kind of busy and he doesn't normally show his face. Miss Su, if you have any concerns or questions, you may contact me.”

Su Yimo shook her head hurriedly and replied anxiously, “Nono, I don't have any problem at all. But... We still haven't discussed anything about the collaboration.”

“According to my boss's instruction, I have already prepared the contract. We have signed as well. If Miss Su doesn't find any problem, you simply need to sign on it.” Zhong Ji said.

“Huh?” Su Yimo looked at Zhong Ji in disbelief. Although she had known that the owner of Rumo real estate was Han Jingru's classmate, it was beyond her wildest dream that things would go so smoothly. The company even prepared the contract!

"Mr. Zhong, are you... Is this some kind of a joke?" Su Yimo asked in disbelief.

"Of course not. The boss was the person who personally gave his instructions. Please follow me." Zhong Ji said.

When Su Yimo followed Zhong Ji inside the office and took a look at the contract, she found that there was no problem at all. Not only that, the profits for the Su family was too much. No other company in the market would give such a favorable deal.

"Mr. Zhong, are you sure this is not some kind of a joke?" Su Yimo felt that she was just dreaming. If she were to bring this contract back to the Su family, who dared to belittle her again? Who dared to say that she was useless?

Zhong Ji passed Su Yimo his own pen and said, "Rest assured, this is not a joke. Miss Su, if you feel that there isn't any problem, you simply need to sign here."

Su Yimo was rendered speechless. Everything just went too smoothly and it seemed that Han Jingru had quite a solid relationship with his friend.

But, how could someone like him know someone so great?

When Su Yimo got the contract, she walked out

Rumo Real Estate empty mindedly as if she had seen a ghost.

The moment the few people stationed outside the company saw her, they hurriedly took out their phone and called Su Ruijin.

The moment Su Ruijin heard the news, he was elated and the man began to plan for an internal meeting. He wanted to get rid of Su Yimo's family once and for all.

"How was it?" Han Jingru walked towards Su Yimo. When he saw that the woman had a troubled expression, he began to think that Zhong Ji didn't treat her well enough.

"I've signed the contract." Su Yimo looked at Han Jingru and said rigidly.

Han Jingru simply smiled and replied, "Now that you have already signed the contract, why are you making a face like that?"

Su Yimo wasn't making a troubled face but she simply felt that everything was unreal. She just couldn't believe it.

At that time, Su Yimo's phone rang. When she saw the caller ID, she said with a helpless smile, "This Su Ruijin is just impatient."

"But I'm afraid he would be disappointed this time." Han Jingru chuckled.

"This is all thanks to you. If you didn't secure this contract, our family is finished." Su Yimo looked at Han Jingru gratefully.

“Don’t let anyone know about it except for you.”

“Why?” Su Yimo looked at Han Jingru in puzzlement. That was enough to change the man’s position in the Su family. Why was he hiding?

“You will know it in the future.” Han Jingru replied.

Su Yimo simply nodded.

Han Jingru brought Su Yimo back to the company with his scooter. After that, he walked towards the hawker stall.

The man looked at the shop owner and smiled. Although they didn’t say anything, the boss knew that the timing Han Jingru had been talking about had come.

In the meeting room in the Su group. Each and every one of the relatives were present.

“She was just talking cock yesterday and now she is coming back with her tail behind her legs! And I was even hopeful that she could amount to something!”

“All of us had failed to even talk to the company’s representative. What makes you think Su Yimo could pull that off?”

“Ruijin, while grandma isn’t here yet, I must remind you to make sure Su Yimo pays. Make sure she doesn’t go back to her words!”

“That right, you must make sure to take this chance to kick Su Yimo and her family out!”

The relatives were gossiping amongst each other. The moment the old Madam reached the office, all of them turned quiet.

Once the office door opened, Su Yimo walked inside.

“Su Yimo, have you forgotten what you said yesterday?” Before Su Yimo even sat down, Su Ruijin said hurriedly.

Su Yimo simply made an indifferent reaction. She looked at Su Ruijin and said, “What about you? Have you forgotten what you said?”

“HAhaha, of course not! But what does it matter? Now that you failed to get any business with Rumo, what does it matter what I said?” Su Ruijin said smugly. The moment he got the news from his men, he knew that Su Yimo had failed. If she succeeded, why did she make such a troubled face?

“Grandma, I have already secured a cooperation and signed the contract. Please have a look.” Su Yimo handed the contract to the grandmother.

At that moment, all of the relatives were shocked and their eyes widened.

Even the old Madam raised her eyes, “Did you just say you signed the contract?”

The old Madam finally looked at Su Yimo seriously. She even asked her assistant to bring her her reading glasses.

All of the relatives straightened their back and wanted to see the content of the contract. None of them believed Su Yimo could secure the project. Almost every one of them had showed up to the company but they didn't even get to see the owner of Rumo. So how could Su Yimo do that?

She was just a lowly woman in the Su family. No one treated her like one of the Su family. What if she really did manage to secure the project and get the old Madam's favor?

Su Ruijin was unwilling to believe any of it. If Su Yimo were to secure the project, that meant he would need to serve Su Yimo from thereby onwards. He needed to even greet and treat her like his elder. That was just too much of a humiliation.

"Su Yimo, do you think you can just draft a contract yourself like that? Who would believe it!? I think you weren't even able to meet the owner of Rumo!" Su Ruijin sneered.

"That's right. I did not get to meet the owner of Rumo." Zhong Ji was the one in charge of all the project in the West. Moreover, the man said that the boss was always busy. And Su Yimo was able to understand that.

Right after Su Yimo said that, all of the relatives were riled and they were glaring furiously at her.

"Su Yimo, how dare you fake a contract to deceive us!?”

“Unbelievable! You even dare to do something like that in order not to get ousted from the Su family!?”

“Do you treat us like idiots? Cheating us with a fake contract!”

All of the relatives looked as if they wanted to rise up and punish Su Yimo, treating her like the family enemy. All of them were gnashing their teeth and baring their fangs.

Su Ruijin was high strung but he relaxed after that. The man looked at Su Yimo like an idiot, “How can you even think of doing something like that? Are you that worry that you and your family might be ousted from the Su house? But I can somehow understand. All three of you plus that piece of trash might not be able to survive without the Su family. Rest assured, I will not be so merciless. If you are hungry, I will make sure your family is well fed.”

When the rest of them heard that, they broke into a giggle and agreed, “That’s right, we can at least make sure you and your family are able to fill your stomach.”

Su Yimo wasn’t offended nor angered when she heard that. Not only that, the woman smiled, “Who gave you the right to say if the contract is real or fake? Although I didn’t get to meet the owner of Rumo, I did meet with the person in charge of the West project, Zhong Ji. He was the one who signed the contract.”

“I’m no idiot and I will not treat grandma like an idiot. Do you think I would do something like making a fake contract?”

Su Ruijin’s heart sunken and his face turned pale like paper.

She was right. There was just no point for a fake contract and she would even rouse the old Madam’s wrath. There was no reason for Su Yimo to do that...

Could it be... She really did secure the business deal?

“Su Yimo, not even we can do that. How could you...”

Before Su Ruijin finished his sentence, the grandmother raised her hand.

She raised her head and looked at Su Yimo, “Did you really signed his contract with Zhong Ji? And we will be the sole supplier for the materials in the West side project?”

“Grandma, I’ve already invited Zhong Ji to come over to our company tomorrow. You will know it by that time.” Su Yimo replied.

The grandmother smiled happily and repeated the word ‘Good’ for three times.

When the rest of the relatives heard that, they felt them like a hammer to the chest and they just felt uncomfortable.

Now that Su Yimo had gotten the old Madam’s compliment, they might never have the chance to kick her out from the family anymore. Not only that, she might even get a promotion in the family and company. Just a thought about Su Yimo having a higher position than them troubled the crowd.

“Su Yimo, you are such a lucky girl! How fortunate that you managed to pull that off!” Su Ruijin had no choice but to accept the truth. After today, the representative from Rumo will be going to the company. Even if he was in denial, he wasn’t stupid enough to think that Su Yimo would make up such a pointless lie.

“Have you forgotten what you said yesterday?” Su Yimo said.

Su Ruijin gritted his teeth, “Su Yimo, you are just lucky. If I were to go, I could have done it as well. Do you really dare to use me like a servant?”

Su Ruijin would never do something so lowly and humiliating like that because he was the most prideful person in the Su family. Not only that, he was the one with the highest chance to be the president of the company. How could he follow by Su Yimo and serve her?

“Su Yimo, you better don’t push it. Just a little bit of luck and you wanted to step on Su Ruijin?”

“Exactly, just a little bit of result and you are acting all conceited. I could have done it if I were to go!”

“Su Yimo, take an advice from your elder and simply let it go. This is really just your luck.”

Almost all of the elderly relatives stood up and spoke in favor for Su Ruijin. When Su Yimo saw their shamelessness, she simply sneered in anger. What a group of shameless people. It was Su Ruijin who started that and now they wanted to make her the witch.

If she had failed her assignment, would the rest of them step up for her when Su Ruijin wanted to chase her out of the Su family?

“Be of good sport.” The grandmother said with a low voice.

The moment she said that, all of the relatives who wanted to defend Su Ruijin shut up immediately. They didn’t dare to have another word against the old Madam.

And Su Ruijin’s expression was so twisted as if shit was smeared on his face. Although he was unwilling, now that the old Madam gave her words, he didn’t dare to disobey.

The man went to pour Su Yimo a cup of tea and called her unwillingly, “Sister Mo.”

Su Ruijin lowered his head and his eyes were filled with resentment. The man thought to himself: You are just lucky this time, and now you will suffer my wrath! I am the most influential person in the company, it is just easy for me to play this game with you. Sooner or later, I will return your favor a hundredfold!

Su Yimo accepted the cup of tea. She didn’t drink it and simply put it on the meeting table and spoke to the old Madam, “Grandma, I shall go back and prepare myself for the meeting with Zhong Ji tomorrow.”

After the meeting ended, both Su Yimo and the grandmother left the meeting room but the other relatives stayed back.

“Su Ruijin, you must think of something to handle that Su Yimo. You mustn’t let her win any favor!”

“That right, if she were to be in charge with the cooperation with Rumo, it might even risk your position in the company.”

Su Ruijin had a grim expression. It was exactly like what the relatives said. Had Su Yimo really become the person in charge that deal with Rumo, his position in the company would definitely get affected.

“Don’t you guys worry, I will definitely let this bitch learn her place.”

Su Yimo and Han Jingru went back home.

Su Wenlun and Jiang Yan were sitting nervously in the living room. The family was facing a life or death situation and the father didn’t even have the courage to participate in the family meeting. He was so fearful to personally get ousted from the family.

“Yimo, how is it?” Jiang Yan asked diffidently.

When Su Yimo saw her parents’ frightful face, she smiled, “Don’t worry. We will not be ousted by the Su family.”

Su Wenlun looked at Su Yimo in disbelief. The father stood up and his hands were even shaking, "You... Have you really gotten the project?"

"Yimo, you did that?!" Jiang Yan's eyes and mouth were wide opened as well.

Su Yimo nodded and looked over to Han Jingru. Everyone thought that she did it but the woman knew that Han Jingru was the person who made it happen.

"Yeah, I managed to secure the deal. I even signed the contract." Su Yimo said.

Jiang Yan hurried towards Su Yimo in elation and the mother shoved Han Jingru away violently, "Yimo, my good daughter! I am so sorry for doubting you!"

"Yimo, what have your grandmother said? Did Su Ruijin really served you tea?" All of a sudden, the father regretted that he didn't went to the meeting and he missed the sight of Su Ruijin bowing his head to Su Yimo. What a waste.

"Grandma complimented me and Su Ruijin did serve the tea." When Su Yimo saw how happy her parents were, she was happy as well.

And when Su Yimo was happy, Han Jingru was put in a good mood as well.

The moment Jiang Yan saw Han Jingru smiling, she was annoyed and resentful. The mother sneered coldly, "Why are you laughing stupidly over there? This is all because of our Yimo, what does it have to do with you?"

Su Yimo just wanted to speak in favor of Han Jingru but she saw that the man shook his head at her. She could only let out a silent sigh.

“Now the two of you can be restful. No one will be chasing us out from the Su family.”

“Now I am just restful. With a daughter as great as you, mum is just happy!”

The family was spending time celebrating but Han Jingru was left aside. The man went into the kitchen quietly.

That night, Su Ruijin and his father went to the Su’s mansion. He wouldn’t allow Su Yimo to climb up the ladder like that and he wanted to nib it in the bud.

In the living room.

“Grandma, are you really letting Su Yimo to handle this matter?” Su Ruijin spoke to the old Madam.

The grandmother showed a nonchalant attitude and replied, “Since Yimo was the person who secured the contract, it is most natural for her to take charge. Is there a problem?”

“Mum, you should reconsider this. Su Yimo is just a woman, if she were to get influential and gain prestige in the office, it will severely harm the interest of Ruijin.” Su Wenyi said.

The grandmother looked at the two of them in irritation and said, “Say what you want to say and don’t beat around the bush.”

“Grandma, although Han Jingru was a matrilocal, he is still an outsider. He had been married three years and that piece of trash didn’t managed to do anything at all. If Su Yimo were to take charge of the company, aren’t you afraid that our family legacy would fall into the hands of an outsider?” Su Ruijin said.

“Yimo doesn’t have the slightest feeling towards that trash. If it wasn’t the sake of the Su family’s reputation, I would have long made them to divorce. What you worry will never happen.” the old Madam said.

Su Ruijin gritted his teeth and continued, “Grandma, we just don’t know what will happen in the future! It is always right to be more careful. And since the contract has been signed, it doesn’t matter if we change the person in charge. Are you betting our Su family's future on Su Yimo and Han Jingru's relationship?"

When the old Madam heard that, she changed into a solemn expression.

Although Su Yimo had no marital relationship with Han Jingru, no one could guarantee what would happen in the future. What if they just got close all of the sudden?

The West city project was of outmost importance to the Su family and it could lift up the Su family in Yun city like no other. In another word, the person in charge of the project would have a prestigious position in the company in the future.

If Su Yimo was able to win the favor of others, the Su family might even fall into the hands of an outsider like Han Jingru.

"Grandma, Han Jingru had held back himself for so many years. I suspect that he had a hidden agenda. Maybe he was just waiting for this day!" Su Ruijin continued.

The grandmother simply harrumphed, "How dare that piece of trash covet our family legacy! Alright, you will be the person in charge of the project. I will call Su Yimo right now."

The moment Su Ruijin heard that, he was just elated but he pretended to be indifferent and said, "Grandma, I wasn't trying to steal from Su Yimo. I am just doing everything I can for the greater benefit of the Su family!"

The grandmother knew him all too well and she was aware of his thought.

“You don’t have to rub it in now. Do you think I don’t know what you were thinking? One more thing, do not try your luck in front of me like previously anymore. That piece of Pu’er tea cake was a waste to even feed it to the pigs.” The grandmother said sternly.

Su Ruijin nodded hurriedly, “I will never do that again. Grandma, Ruijin will definitely be down to earth from now on.”

Su Yimo was busy preparing for the business meeting tomorrow. The moment she heard the call from the grandmother, she was stupefied.

Although she got the contract easily, it was still her credit. Why would it end up with Su Ruijin being in charged?

“Grandma, I...”

“Okay, I have made my decision. Just take a leave tomorrow.”

When Su Yimo heard the silent beep over the phone, she gritted her teeth in resentment. She knew that it was Su Ruijin messing from the back and persuaded the grandmother to change the person in charge.

Sometime later, her phone rang again and it was from Su Ruijin.

The moment she answered the phone, she heard Su Ruijin’s smug voice, “Su Yimo, do you think you will be able to win against me? Let me tell you this, you will always be underneath me for the rest of your life!”

“Su Ruijin, you shameless piece of shit! I was the one that got the deal!” Su Yimo fumed grudgingly.

“So what? Grandma had made me the person in charge. Do you dare to disobey her? Actually, I should be thanking you. If it wasn’t for you, I wouldn’t be able to get this project. But then we happened to be enemy. So you are just destined to end up with nothing alongside that trash. But this is just good for you as well. You don’t even need to do anything, and you even...”

Before Su Ruijin finished, Su Yimo hung up the phone. The woman was so angry that her veins were popping out.

Since the grandmother was the one that made the decision, Su Yimo knew that she wouldn’t be able to change anything. Even when Su Ruijin was taunting her and rubbing it to her face, there was just nothing she could do.

“AAAHHHHHHH!!!!!!”

Su Yimo roared to let out her frustration.

That loud voice startled the parents and they ran to the living room.

“Yimo, what happened? Did Han Jingru bully you?” Jiang Yan said nervously. Although the daughter had been married with Han Jingru for three years, the mother knew that Su Yimo hadn’t let Han Jingru so far as to touch her. And the mother just didn’t want her dear daughter to end up with a trash like Han Jingru.

“What happened?” Su Wenlun asked nervously as well.

Su Yimo was simply venting her vex. Now that she wouldn't be able to change the fact, she simply said weakly, “It's nothing. I was frustrated and I wanted to vent.”

“Why are you frustrated? You have even secured the project with Rumo. And from today onwards, you will be in charge of the project and our family will have a better and better position in the company. You should be happy!” Su Wenlun said smilingly.

“That, grandma changed the person in charge. She let Su Ruijin replace me.” Su Yimo said with her head held low.

“What!?” Su Wenlun said in shock. Su Yimo was the person who got the deal but now Su Ruijin took over?

Jiang Yan was so angry that she stormed her feet and screamed loudly, “Su Ruijin, that cursed filth, he must have went to slander you in front of the grandmother. No way! I must confront him!”

Was Su Wenlun saw that Jiang Yan wanted to run out the door, he grabbed her back hurriedly, “Mum is the one that made the decision. What's the point to even quarrel with Su Ruijin?”

“What's the point? And should we just surrender every single time? Should he just step on us rightfully like that? Su Wenlun, you are so useless and you didn't even have your principles anymore!" Jiang Yan screamed in hysteria.

Su Wenlun was frightened and didn't dare to speak anymore. Su Yimo added, "Mum, dad was right. It is useless for you to cause a scene."

"Should we just give up like that? You are the one who did all the hard work but Su Ruijin takes all the credit. Can you accept that?" Jiang Yan said.

How could Su Yimo accept that? But the grandmother was a dictator in both the company and at home. Even if she was frustrated, there was nothing she could do.

At that time, Han Jingru appeared in the living room and he spoke to Su Yimo, "Rest assured. Aside from you, no one can be in charge of this assignment."

Jiang Yan was just enraged. The moment she saw Han Jingru, her anger erupted and she sneered coldly, "This is our family matter. What does it have to do with you!? Just keep your mouth shut."

Su Yimo was anxious. Han Jingru was the one that made the contract successful yet her mother was treating him in contempt.

"Mum, hurry and get some sleep. I will think of something." Su Yimo said.

Jiang Yan was just simmering in anger and she wasn't willing to sleep. However, Su Wenlun dragged her back into the room.

Su Yimo went back to her room. And after closing the door, she said to Han Jingru, "I apologize for my mother's sake. She knows nothing, and so..."

"If I minded that, I would have left home long ago." Han Jingru said nonchalantly.

Leave home?

It was the simplest reply yet it struck Su Yimo's heart ever so heavily. How could he treat this place like his home?

"People are scorning you, insulting, humiliating and treating you with great enmity. Don't you mind at all?" Su Yimo asked.

"You have suffered more than me. What right do I have to complain?"

The moment Su Yimo heard that, she was stupefied. She covered her face and wept silently.

You... Did you take this all in because of me?

The next day, Su Ruijin wore his best suit and he stood by the company's entrance to receive Zhong Ji.

Although they had already signed the contract, the meeting today was equally as important. Most importantly, he must make sure that Zhong Ji accepted the change of person in charge.

Su Ruijin was confident that he would be able to replace Su Yimo. The man had a higher position in the company than Su Yimo and he had more influence. He could definitely make Zhong Ji feel that the Su family was sincere in this cooperation.

When Zhong Ji appeared in the distance, Su Ruijin hurried forward impatiently.

“Hi Mr. Zhong, I am Su Ruijin, the representative from the Su family.” Su Ruijin stretched out his hand and introduced himself manneredly.

Zhong Ji accepted his handshake and that made Su Ruijin elated. It seemed that Zhong Ji had accepted the change of person in charge. So Su Yimo had gotten the contract by pure luck. It didn't matter if she was involved or not.
