

I Am Loaded 1081

Chapter 1081: The Source of All Evil! (1)

That was right!

It was the Time Delay!

When Xu Xiaoshou who had transformed into Huang Quan pointed his finger in the air and used the Time Delay, even he was shocked.

But after the shock, he was more of feeling relieved.

Since he killed Yi and obtained the Imitator, Xu Xiaoshou had read the Imitator's real usage from Yi's soul memory.

First, the ability to change endlessly was basic.

Second, he could imitate 10-20% of the abilities of anyone that he had seen, had a record of, or had the same attributes. However, the effect was negligible.

Third, to further imitate the person's attributes and abilities, blood from that person had to be obtained to inherit the person's attributes. It would display 70% the lowest and 100% the highest of the person's abilities.

These prerequisites...

To be honest, Xu Xiaoshou did not take a fancy to them!

In terms of changing endlessly, he had the Transformation. The two were completely the same.

In terms of obtaining attributes of others through blood, Xu Xiaoshou did not need it either. He now knew that he actually had all the attributes.

The Imitator that Xu Xiaoshou took a fancy to the most was the learning ability that was suitable for special people like him — he could use the attributes of anyone he had seen, had a record of, or had the attributes!

After obtaining the Imitator, Xu Xiaoshou verified this point.

When he transformed into Mu Zixi and used the wood-type ability, he did not obtain the junior sister's blood.

It was because the wood-type attribute was the basic attribute, and it was very easy to get started.

Xu Xiaoshou who had all attributes had easily imitated the image of "Mu Zixi." And through the Imitator's attribute buffs, he used a wood-type ability that he had never used before to successfully conjured a small wooden pot, a small wooden shovel, and other toys.

When he transformed into Yi and fooled the law enforcer, he also did not obtain Yi's blood.

But he did use Soul Reading on Yi. Xu Xiaoshou's understanding of Yi's various moves was much more than what he could obtain by offering a drop of blood to the Imitator.

Xu Xiaoshou used close to 100% power to make the moves such as the Spiritual Impact. But in just an instant, his fatigue was restored by the combination of the Transformation, Eternal Vitality, and High Spirits.

And now, he was imitating Huang Quan...

To be honest, Xu Xiaoshou had only seen Huang Quan a few times.

The only time he had truly seen Huang Quan use his ability was when Huang Quan was beating up the Dean.

After all, the threshold of time and space attributes was too high. Xu Xiaoshou was mentally prepared. He had thought that imitating Huang Quan's space ability would be fine, but imitating the time ability would have certain obstacles.

But now, he was using the Time Delay without any obstacles. Moreover, the power was not weak...

No!

It was not just not weak!

Based on the situation where everyone at the scene was controlled, it could be considered "a bit strong"!

Soon Xu Xiaoshou felt relieved because he remembered that he did not only have the prerequisite of having all attributes, but also the countless knowledge accumulated in his memory.

He wasn't completely ignorant of "time".

The understanding of the Sword Technique Expertise that was similar to the Nine Major Sword Techniques included the ability to analyze the first stage of Space-Time Transition.

These things weren't formed the Space-Time Transition, so Xu Xiaoshou couldn't use them directly. However, it contained the basic knowledge to form Space-Time Transition.

Among this basic knowledge, the understanding of time and space attributes took up most of it.

Weaving Expertise wasn't just about weaving the Divine Secrets. It was also about the human body, bones, veins, the grain growth of all beings, and the Order of the Great Path.

These basic knowledge also had never evolved into morph forms that could be used directly.

However, there was basic knowledge of time and space in two of the Weaving the Heavens and Earth and the Order of the Great Path.

Apart from the expertise passive skills that brought along vast experience by growing to the Sovereign (stage)...

When Xu Xiaoshou was dreaming of obtaining the Innate Elemental Power in the past, he had studied the Path Pattern Initial Stone when he was bored. It also contained the foundation of all the attributes of the heavens and earth.

Among them, there were also time and space...

Many a little made a mickle. It was because of the accumulation of this basic knowledge that Xu Xiaoshou did not know how to make use of it when it was just a little. But when the time came, he could fully make use of it.

Just like the moment he obtained the spatial origin stone, he immediately understood the basic ability to use the Way of Space. With this, he obtained the ability to break through the Sovereign Domain which was formed by a space node, and then steal the opportunity to cross over.

The Imitator, in Yi's hands, was a sharp weapon for assassins and spies.

In Xu Xiaoshou's hands, it became a learning machine that enhanced the attributes. Whatever he did not know how to imitate, he would make use of his ability to become familiar with it.

So now!

In front of Rao Yaoyao and the other law enforcers, he used the Time Delay and successfully controlled everyone.

After the pleasant surprise, the only feeling Xu Xiaoshou had was the amnesiac suddenly remembered some memories and successfully showed them to the world. That was it.

Of course, the pleasant surprise was in his heart. Xu Xiaoshou did not show it in the slightest.

On his face, he still looked extremely calm. Even with the mask covering his face, he was still very good at maintaining the demeanor of the big boss, Yama.

He was unperturbed, calm, and at ease.

One breath...

Two breaths...

Three breaths...

Just as Rao Yaoyao and the others were feeling a full century had passed, which indeed was just a few breaths of time, Xu Xiaoshou keenly sensed the transformation of his spiritual source of energy reserve.

Chapter 1082: The Source of All Evil! (2)

After maintaining the Time Delay for such a short duration, his energy reserve had almost reached the bottom!

Even the Eternal Vitality that was activated by the High spirits and the Transformation was starting to run out of energy!

"D*mn it..." Xu Xiaoshou was about to curse.

However, he remained calm. His body slowly floated up and formed a semi-transparent Sovereign (stage) in mid-air. Then, he bent his knees and slowly sat down.

"Thud."

Like the sound of water dripping, Xu Xiaoshou lightly tapped the air with his fingertip. Ripples spread out in the surrounding area and the flow of time returned to normal.

At this moment, the information bar started to pop up crazily.

“Stunned, Passive Points +132.”

“In Awe, Passive Points +121.”

“Suspected, Passive Points +18.”

Eighteen...

When Xu Xiaoshou saw this number, he thought to himself, “When I transformed into Yi, you guys were crazily suspecting me. Now that I’ve turned into an even more unscientific boss Yama, Huang Quan, and I’ve only displayed a little bit of the initial usage of the time attribute but you guys are so scared?”

His expression remained calm on the surface. Through the mask, his eyes carried a hint of mockery that belonged solely to the big boss — which he learned from Huang Quan’s facial expression when he beat up Ye Xiaotian.

Then, he leaned his elbows against the armrest of the throne in the space and crossed his fingers under his chin. Looking down at the people below, he tilted his head and chuckled, “Is it still interesting?”

This was Xu Xiaoshou’s mockery of Rao Yaoyao’s first reaction when she saw him transform into Huang Quan.

...

It was impossible!

It was absolutely impossible!

Even though such thoughts kept appearing in Rao Yaoyao’s mind, the power of time displayed by Huang Quan who suddenly appeared was not something she could ignore.

He was so calm, so skillful...

His posture of looking down at the people below was so confident, so determined.

Many thoughts flashed through Rao Yaoyao’s mind in an instant.

She thought of Night Guardian, Night Guardian’s warning, and then guessed that this was the transformation of Saint Servant Xu Xiaoshou.

But...

How did she explain the power of time?

Rao Yaoyao had never doubted that Xu Xiaoshou could imitate Wang Chao or Yi.

It was because Wang Chao had encountered something while he was unconscious, and Yi had died in the hands of the other party as expected. It was reasonable to have his blood activate the Imitator.

But concerning Huang Quan, it was very ridiculous!

Even if Xu Xiaoshou got the Imitator, he had to have the blood of Yama, Huang Quan, to imitate the time attribute right?

He had contact with Huang Quan?!

Impossible!

How could the Saint Servant Xu Xiaoshou have contact with Yama, Huang Quan? Not to mention getting his blood within the short time of obtaining the Imitator!

Huang Quan getting Xu Xiaoshou's blood was more like it!

Therefore, when all the impossible deductions were eliminated, the only answer that remained was the truth.

Then, the truth was...

Rao Yaoyao's lips quivered as she looked at the gold robe masked man in disbelief.

"Is he really Huang Quan?"

This was even more ridiculous!

It was extremely ridiculous!

"He can't be Huang Quan. Otherwise, how can I explain my previous deductions?"

"But if he isn't Huang Quan, who else on this continent has the power of time?"

"It can't be Kong Yuhen has come, right?"

Rao Yaoyao forced herself to calm down, but she failed to do so. She crazily contributed the Passive Points to her opponent.

"Conjecture, Passive Points +1."

"Suspected, Passive Points +1."

"Agreed, Passive Points +1."

Seeing the contradictory information, Xu Xiaoshou snickered in his heart.

"You are short of Night Guardian to be away from the truth. Unfortunately, he is at the bottom of the cliff, and no one knows if he is dead or alive..." Xu Xiaoshou could easily understand Rao Yaoyao's facial expression.

After all, he was afraid of death and more afraid of Rao Yaoyao turning into a boorish person, so he tried to guide her.

It was like a senior giving an ignorant and confused little girl the real answer to a question. Although Xu Xiaoshou did not know Huang Quan's age and the relationship between Huang Quan and Rao Yaoyao, this did not affect him to continue to be "unfathomable".

“Yi.”

Xu Xiaoshou tilted his head and changed to leaning on the armrest with one elbow, pressing his fist against the mask on the side of his face to give a one-word hint.

At this moment, he saw that Wang Dachui and the other boorish men, as well as the owner of the hundred or so bounded domain, seemed to be showing signs of movement again.

And the spiritual source of the energy reserve had recovered seventy to eighty percent because it didn't need to maintain the power of time.

Xu Xiaoshou immediately turned his eyes under the mask and gave the boorish men another round of the Time delay— not to touch me!

As one of the few people who wasn't enveloped by the power of time, Rao Yaoyao could clearly feel the “deceleration” of the people around her at this moment.

She had practiced the Fantasy Sword Technique before and had also comprehended the time attribute ability.

However, about the command of the Fantasy Sword Technique, even if Rao Yaoyao wasn't as strong as Gou Wuyue, she could clearly conclude that no matter how strong the ability of a cultivator of the Great Path of time was, it couldn't be stronger than the ability of a person who had grasped the time attribute. That was Huang Quan, who was opposite her.

At this moment, Xu Xiaoshou once again felt that his energy reserve's spiritual source was rapidly depleting. He had no choice but to temporarily put aside his attitude of “a miser with words” and said with a slight degraded himself.

“I just want to get a private space to talk. After all, I revealed my identity in advance, and the opportunity to communicate with Sword Deity Rao is also very rare.

“As for you, you're obviously able to restrain your subordinates, aren't you?”

As he spoke, he turned his eyes and glanced at the group of slow-moving people. Then, he quickly dispelled the Time Delay.

Rao Yaoyao's heart trembled. She raised her hand and suppressed the impulsive Wang Dachui and the others. She was somewhat stunned by this calm and composed Huang Quan.

She had no choice but to reconsider what he had said just now.

“Yi.”

What did he mean?

Was he trying to say that Xu Xiaoshou did not kill Yi, but he did?

From feeling ridiculous to gradually accepting it, to trying to fit in the story now... Rao Yaoyao derived an extremely horrifying outcome when she tried to assume Huang Quan as the murderer of Yi and replace those things that she did not know the truth.

It was indeed very difficult for Xu Xiaoshou to kill Yi. He had to have a teammate with strong damage output and strong control. This teammate was previously Storyteller, a nameless Divine Sorcerer.

But if Xu Xiaoshou was a fake and Huang Quan was the actual culprit...

Then all the problems would no longer be a problem!

As long as Yi fell into Huang Quan's ambush, not to mention escape, it would be difficult for him to escape even if he had wings under the time and space attributes!

But why did Huang Quan want to kill Yi?

Did he not know the consequences of killing Yi?

Rao Yaoyao was still at a loss. She looked up at Huang Quan who was sitting high up in the air. She felt that under the mask, there was endless ridicule, mocking her ignorance.

After being forcefully controlled twice, the surrounding law enforcer had calmed down quite a bit. Even if Rao Yaoyao did not give the order, they no longer dared to make a move.

At that moment, seeing that the scene was quiet, many smart people were also immersed in the guidance given by "Huang Quan" and thought along the way.

Wang Dachui was quite annoyed, but he was helpless.

Xu Xiaoshou naturally would not be so rude as to interrupt other people's mysterious imagination of himself.

When he gave the word "Yi", he had already given all the answers, and these answers obviously did not need to be given by others.

"Imitator!"

Very soon, Rao Yaoyao's thoughts paused for a moment. And from the situation where Huang Quan had transformed into Yi, she got the answer — Huang Quan must have wanted to get the Imitator!

However, what was the purpose of forcefully taking the Imitator?

As she pushed forward step by step, Rao Yaoyao felt that she was about to decipher the truth. She thought of Yi's other identity before he transformed — Saint Servant Xu Xiaoshou.

If this identity was also fake...

It was Huang Quan's transformation?

If that was the case, why was Huang Quan hiding in the Saint Servant?

Just as Rao Yaoyao thought of this, a spiritual light flashed through her mind and her pupils constricted.

She thought of Yama's purpose, which was to search for the Lei family's eyes!

At the scene, there was a silver-haired woman with the Ultimate Life Demon Physique who possessed the Lei family's strongest eye technique.

Moreover, in the beginning, Huang Quan had stood side by side with this woman!

Thinking of this, Rao Yaoyao suddenly turned her head to look at the silver-haired woman.

This time, she clearly saw the pair of mysterious eyes that were shrouded in black and white fog. She clearly saw Yama's plan to push all the blame onto the Saint Servant, and also clearly saw the only answer that led to Yi's death...

"The God Devil Eyes?!"

Chapter 1083: Ghosts from the Netherworld at the Lone Cliff (1)

"Yes, God Devil Eyes!"

At the same time, Xu Xiaoshou sitting up in the air gave his answer that confirmed Rao Yaoyao's thoughts.

"It seems that you are not too stupid."

Seeing the other party gradually lose her composure and her distorted expression of believing what she did not believe, Xu Xiaoshou added with a smile.

From the moment he acted as Huang Quan, he had already set up another persona for him.

Yama's purpose, target...

Huang Quan's behavior, goals...

All of these were taken into consideration.

Now that the Imitator was in his hands, and Lei Xi'er was also exposed to the Holy Divine Palace.

As a member of the Saint Servant and Senior Brother of his junior sister, he happened to be caught in the situation where he could neither fight back nor escape.

Xu Xiaoshou felt he had the responsibility and obligation to use another method to fight his way out.

Moreover, in his plan, since he had many times acted rudely toward the Holy Divine Palace with the identity of "Xu Xiaoshou" before, the method to be used... Well, to put it simply, it would be to put blame everything on the dark and evil Yama organization.

Of course, pushing the blame wasn't something that could be done blindly.

Xu Xiaoshou always had a card in his hand that would cause trouble, but he needed to be reasonable in causing trouble.

He strictly followed the rules of the big boss. He only used the word "Yi" to get Rao Yaoyao to say the answer herself — the answer that others obtained through thinking would always be more reliable than the answer he told himself.

This would not work on ignorant people.

However, Rao Yaoyao was a smart person. Smart people would think further, and Xu Xiaoshou was certain that the moment Rao Yaoyao said “God Devil Eyes”...

The information he wanted to give was already on the same track as the other party. It was exactly the same.

To him, now that he had confirmed Huang Quan’s identity, there was only one gap left that he had not filled, which was... the “motive”!

Since Huang Quan had been hiding for so long, he had actually wanted to trick the Saint Servant and even obtain the God Devil Eyes. Huang Quan did not even want to reveal himself when he transformed into Yi, so why did he suddenly choose to appear? Was it just because of a covert attack from Night Guardian?

That was absolutely impossible!

Then, he would need a better answer than the covert attack from Night Guardian and obtaining the God Devil Eyes, or even obtaining the owner of the God Devil Eyes, Lei Xi’er. This would make Huang Quan’s motive for appearing reasonable.

This answer, if the other party was a fool, Xu Xiaoshou would not mention it. The other party would also never think of it.

And since the other party was a smart person...

Xu Xiaoshou wouldn’t mention it either.

It was because he knew that Rao Yaoyao, this “smart person”, could think of it and would also ask!

“You... What do you want?”

As expected, Rao Yaoyao asked.

Her expression was full of vigilance.

Obviously, the boss of Yama who was always mysterious suddenly exposed in front of her, the ruler of the Red Coat, was something that exceeded Rao Yaoyao’s expectations.

The situation had suddenly gone out of control...

But this was an even bigger fish!

This was the first time the Yama Organization, which the white-clothed people had only managed to obtain basic information about some of its members over the years, had voluntarily exposed their whereabouts. They couldn’t even obtain the slightest bit information about the base area..

Rao Yaoyao was alert while feeling excited.

She maintained basic calmness while maintaining her rationality. At the same time, she seemed to be stalling for time. She then sneered and asked.

“A grand Yama, Huang Quan, disguised himself as the Saint Servant, Xu Xiaoshou, and then transformed into Yi as if acting out absurd dramas in front of me like a clown. What is your motive...”

“Are you trying to tell me that these farces are very interesting?”

Rao Yaoyao glanced at the silver-haired woman. She had guessed that Huang Quan had pretended to be the Saint Servant Xu Xiaoshou for the sake of the God Devil Eyes.

However, if he wanted the God Devil Eyes or even to take the silver-haired woman away, Huang Quan could use another method to take her away quietly.

It had nothing to do with him exposing himself under her nose.

Therefore, Rao Yaoyao could guess that Huang Quan had an even bigger plan!

“Huang Quan...”

“He is really Huang Quan...”

Among the Law Enforcement Team, some smart people had thought of what Rao Yaoyao was thinking. Hearing what the golden-masked man had said that verified the thought, they were also surprised.

If the other party was really Huang Quan, then he had played his cards so well!

He disguised himself as Xu Xiaoshou and killed the Chief of the Transformation Division. After successfully obtaining the Imitator, he diverted all the blame on the Saint Servant...

At least before he took the initiative to show himself up, 99% of the people in the Law Enforcement Team had never thought that Huang Quan was the one who killed Yi.

But the moment the other party exposed himself, the matter had become reasonable.

It was completely in line with a Go player’s control of the game. It was full of drama and also scheming.

However...

It was such a good hand that Huang Quan should have continued to play. Why did he suddenly choose an open card?

Without a better reason than “what everyone can see is close to perfect, and as long as you continue to hide, you will be able to reap all the benefits garnered before”, everyone present felt that Huang Quan’s sudden open card wasn’t a wise move.

What was his true intention?

“Impressed, Passive Points +124.”

“Feared, Passive Points +133.”

“Conjecture, Passive Points, +141.”

There were still many smart people around...

Facing Rao Yaoyao and the Law Enforcer Team, and seeing some of them having eye expressions of doubt and curiosity, Xu Xiaoshou couldn’t help but sigh.

Chapter 1084: Ghosts from the Netherworld at the Lone Cliff (2)

The motive was the key to success or failure.

Huang Quan's appearance instantly denied the suspicions of everyone due to the power of time. It was unexpected and yet reasonable.

Xu Xiaoshou could see it.

At this time, after losing the reminder from the key figure Night Guardian, Rao Yaoyao and the others were completely unaware of their thoughts being led astray by him.

In short, the rhythm of the other party had been messed up!

It was true that the powerful aura brought about by the Swallow the Mountains and Rivers was the foundation. Subsequently, the firm belief of "I am Huang Quan" had affected the emotions of everyone.

But more importantly...

Logic!

If there was a mistake in the underlying logic, any random person could unveil his disguise, let alone a peerless wise general like Rao Yaoyao!

Facing hundreds of gazes, Xu Xiaoshou remained calm. He narrowed his eyes as if hundreds of watermelons were in front of him. He looked at each of them fearlessly and took a few breaths of time to create the heavy psychological pressure that made the entire crowd silent before the big boss spoke.

Only then did he begin to speak.

"I would like to make a deal with Sword Deity Rao."

He slightly turned his head back and twirled his fingertips lightly. It seemed like he was quite serious about this matter, but there was a hint of cynicism in his words. He then raised his "motive" in a relaxed manner.

A deal...

Among the Law Enforcer Team, everyone turned their heads in unison to look at their leader and thought that making a deal with boss Yama wasn't a good thing.

Rao Yaoyao similarly narrowed her eyes, concealing her shock and doubt.

She did not think that she could continue chatting with the other party. However, by saying so, Huang Quan must have had some confidence.

In that case, she would listen to what he had to say.

"What deal?"

Rao Yaoyao spoke indifferently, neither agreed nor declined. She was very experienced.

"I like your dignified and steady look..." the corners of Xu Xiaoshou's mouth that were hidden under the mask curled up slightly. He thought to himself, "Let's see if you can still maintain this kind of mature and steady look later!"

“Let’s put the deal aside for now...

“Before that, I have a grand gift that I would like to invite everyone to take a look.”

Huang Quan, the golden-masked Sovereign (stage) sitting in the air, stretched his hand to the side as he spoke. He pointed at... the void in the mountain forest on the opposite side of the ocean of clouds among the Lone Cliff, that was far away from the law enforcers and outside the bounded domain!

His posture was extremely similar to that of an extremely high-ranking big shot who had deigned to step down from the stage and personally lifted the veil of the final secret treasure during the auction.

Rao Yaoyao narrowed her eyes and hesitated for a moment before waving her hand and saying, “Close the bounded domain.”

The law enforcers all held their breaths. After executing their orders, they turned their heads in the direction that Huang Quan was pointing at with slight curiosity. Even Lei Xi’er and Ye Xiaotian were no exception.

Everyone could see three figures had appeared outside the bounded domain in the empty void!

On the left, a masked person was in a red robe. She had a slim figure and seemed to be a woman. Under her mask, there was a pair of beautiful eyes with cherry-pink tints. There seemed to be layers of blooming stamens in them.

On the right, a masked person was in a light green robe. He was a man. His body was covered by a long robe. No one could tell his features, but at the same time, his eyes were very eye-catching. It was a pair of strange eyes. The green and orange eyes overlapped each other and formed a cross. It seemed to contain a terrifying power.

Between the two of them, there was a man in tattered black clothes. His body was stained with blood and his hair was disheveled. His head was low and his face could not be seen clearly. His aura was extremely dispirited. At this moment... anyone with a discerning eye could tell that he was not in a good condition.

In the entire scene, the first person to react to those two pairs of extremely strange eyes was not Rao Yaoyao, nor was it someone from the Law Enforcer Team.

It was Lei Xi’er!

She recognized the origins of those two pairs of eyes at a glance, and she was instantly shocked.

She then tilted her head and looked at Huang Quan, who was sitting steadily in the air with a posture of having everything under control. In Lei Xi’er’s eyes, they were filled with shock, doubt, disbelief... a myriad of emotions!

Without thinking too much, Lei Xi’er quickly lowered her head to prevent her reaction from being seen by the law enforcer, thus exposing Xu Xiaoshou’s disguise.

“Respected, Passive points +1, +1 , +1, +1...”

On the other end...

What did he want to show me?

Rao Yaoyao didn't recognize what Huang Quan had wanted her to see first.

But at this moment, a law enforcer who was originally under the white-clothed people had been deployed because of the urgent need arrived behind Rao Yaoyao with a shocked expression.

"Sword Deity Rao!"

Rao Yaoyao looked back at the person who spoke out.

The law enforcer whispered into her ear, "According to the white-clothed people's internal intelligence... the red-robed masked man on the left is suspected to be a member of Yama's organization, 'the Visitor from the Netherworld'. He has a cultivation level of the Cutting Path (stage), but he possesses the Lei family's eyes — Flower Fairy Eyes."

Instantly, Rao Yaoyao raised her eyes and stared at the red-robed masked man's cherry-pink eyes. The image of the silver-haired woman beside her, "God Devil Eyes", flashed through her mind.

The Lei family's eyes, Flower Fairy Eyes?

That pair of eyes that possessed supreme Illusion Technique?

Yama was indeed collecting the Lei family's eyes! And he had already obtained a great harvest!

At this moment, Rao Yaoyao's deduction of Huang Quan's appearance just now had been confirmed with even more certainty.

The law enforcer of the white-clothed did not stop talking. After a pause, he said solemnly, "The green-robed masked man on the right should be 'Hundred Ghost Night Walk'. There's even less information about him, but if nothing goes wrong, that pair of eyes should be the 'Cross-shaped Eyes'."

Chapter 1085: Ghosts from the Netherworld at the Lone Cliff (3)

The Lei Family's Eyes, the Cross-shaped Eyes?

Rao Yaoyao turned her gaze away sluggishly, and her eyes fixed on the plain-looking green-robed masked man.

She was the ruler of the Red Coat and was in charge of the ghost beast's affairs. She was usually too busy and knew very little about Yama's internal intelligence. It was very normal.

Now that she knew that any of Yama's members could be matched with a pair of the Lei family's eyes, how could she not be surprised?

"You..."

Rao Yaoyao subconsciously wanted to blurt out "Did you see clearly?" but she stopped in time.

If this law enforcer had not seen it clearly, he probably would not have dared to speak so bluntly.

"You may leave."

She sighed silently and dismissed her subordinate. She looked up at Huang Quan who was sitting high in the sky and asked in a serious voice, "What do you mean?"

You couldn't tell?!

Was my drawing too illegible?

Xu Xiaoshou was shocked at first. However, when he recalled Lei Xi'er's reaction that he had observed just now, he knew that Rao Yaoyao had understood it after he drew them seriously to clearly express the two pairs of the Lei family's eyes which proved his identity as the big boss Yama.

As such, Rao Yaoyao did not see the main person clearly and was scared by the two small lackeys at the side instead...

That was right!

The two members of Yama were the portrait clones, the Visitor from the Netherworld, and the Hundred Ghost Night Walk.

After the battle with these two people in the Heaven Prayer Forest, with the thought that he could just draw them in advance as there would be a time when he could use them, he conjured them in the Yuan Mansion.

And just now...

After kicking Night Guardian away, he knew that if he attacked the law enforcer, his identity would be exposed. Therefore, he executed the third plan, which was to transform into Huang Quan.

Xu Xiaoshou also threw these two guys out.

When the portrait clone wasn't activated, it was a mess of spiritual energy.

Moreover, the extremely vigilant Xu Xiaoshou even used the Weaving Technique to weave an aura-shielding... mmm, an array. It was a second preparation that covered the portrait clone to prevent Rao Yaoyao and the others from noticing it.

When all this was done, everyone's six senses were still sealed by the dark bounded domain of Night Guardian, and no one noticed it. At that time, the hundredfold bounded domain had not been opened yet.

Xu Xiaoshou threw the portrait clones very far away, which was far away from the bounded domain. In fact, he had thought that after Night Guardian disappeared, Rao Yaoyao would choose to make a move.

When she moved, the law enforcer would either form an array or open the bounded domain.

The former could be broken through with Weaving Expertise, while the latter... even Ye Xiaotian's perfect-grade bounded domain could be broken by Xu Xiaoshou, let alone the latter?

But all of this required time!

A lot of time!

Thus, although the hundredfold bounded domain had frightened Xu Xiaoshou, while he was communicating and stalling for time, he had already used his Perception to permeate the bounded domain, established a connection with the portrait clone outside, and successfully activated it.

If Rao Yaoyao wanted to see the gift in the array formation or the bounded domain, she would have to ask someone to shut down the array formation or the bounded domain.

This way, there was no need for “Huang Quan” to suddenly humble himself and beg the law enforcer on the other side to lift the array formation or the bounded domain’s blockade. There was also no need to summon Ye Xiaotian and use his abilities such as the Lord of Ten Thousand Realms to break the bounded domain — after all, that would devalue him!

A simple plan could break the seal of the hundredfold bounded domain that was weak in the eyes of the real Huang Quan, but would restrain the fake Huang Quan. So why not?

One stone... Mmm, so many birds.

“He!” Xu Xiaoshou let out in his heart. He failed to count how many birds there were, and he was quite pleased with himself.

When he was planning all this, he had already thought of how Rao Yaoyao, who had lost Night Guardian’s reminder, would step into his trap step by step.

Of course, casually destroying the hundredfold bounded domain was just a side effect.

The highlight of his plan wasn’t the two portrait clones, the Visitor from the Netherworld and the Hundred Ghost Night Walk, but the third person among them!

“Raise your head.”

Facing Rao Yaoyao’s question, Xu Xiaoshou casually waved his sleeve.

With that, he immediately contacted his two portrait clones. As he didn’t want to rush, he slowed down his actions which appeared to be very calm in the eyes of outsiders. He held the chin and raised the head of the person between the two Yama organization members.

There was a man with unkempt hair and a dirty face. His tattered black clothes were stained with blood.

No matter how blurry his image was, when this person’s head was raised and his face was shown to everyone...

His identity was self-evident.

The entire place suddenly became deathly silent. Everyone was dumbstruck when his head was raised.

After a long while, someone finally spoke.

“Elder... Elder Night Guardian?”

“Surprised, Passive Points +123.”

“Feared, Passive Points +144.”

Chapter 1086: This Damned Situ Yongren! 1

Night Guardian was captured?

In just a few breaths of darkness, he was severely injured by Huang Quan and was then taken down?

Rao Yaoyao was a little stunned, but when she thought about how strange Huang Quan's time and space attributes were, she came to a realization.

To everyone, Night Guardian's attack just now was only a few breaths of time, but in Huang Quan's eyes, that could be a long century.

Under the circumstances where the time was not equal, Huang Quan could have retaliated thousands of times within the duration of just one attack from Night Guardian. It could be said that there was nothing wrong with Night Guardian being seriously injured.

What shocked Rao Yaoyao the most was that at this moment, what did Huang Quan mean by taking out Night Guardian?

Rao Yaoyao already had a bad premonition in her heart.

The law enforcers were just as hesitant and shocked as Sword Deity Rao. At the same time, Ye Xiaotian and Lei Xi'er, who were on the same side, were also shocked.

The former was shocked because, in his speculation, Night Guardian should have fallen into the bottom of Lone Cliff. How could another Night Guardian appear?

Ye Xiaotian simply could not understand.

Lei Xi'er was even more confused. She had seen with her own eyes that Night Guardian had been kicked off the Lone Cliff by Xu Xiaoshou, but now, there was another Night Guardian...

"Is that his... that kind of clone?"

Lei Xi'er realized something, but at the same time, she could not believe it.

This new Night Guardian and the two members of Huang Quan with Lei family's eyes were too lifelike!

...

"What do you want?"

Rao Yaoyao could not remain calm and spoke in a dignified tone.

She realized that ever since Huang Quan had transformed into Xu Xiaoshou, then into Yi, before returning to his real body, the situation was all under the control of the other party.

Moreover, at this time, even if she wanted to make a move forcefully, she felt that it was not realistic at all when she thought of the other party's time attribute.

She could only wait!

Wait for that brat to complete his plan!

“As I said, let’s make a deal.”

Xu Xiaoshou, who was sitting upright in the space, was still as calm as ever. It was as if taking down a Night Guardian was not a problem at all. It was not even something worthy for him to be proud of.

“What’s the deal?” Rao Yaoyao asked, in an attempt to drag out the situation.

Upon seeing that the other party was falling into his trap step by step, Xu Xiaoshou smiled lightly and said, “One person, in exchange for a sword.”

Sword?

Hearing this, everyone present was shocked.

The value of Night Guardian... what sword could he be exchanged for?

It was not to the extent of...

All the law enforcers turned around with a whoosh and focused on the Cang Godhood Sword in Rao Yaoyao’s hand.

No way, no way?!

“What sword?”

Rao Yaoyao also saw the look in Huang Quan’s eyes under the mask. She suddenly found the situation humorous. What was he thinking of? Did he really think he could control the situation just because he took down Night Guardian?

“Cang Godhood Sword.”

Xu Xiaoshou said what everyone was thinking indifferently.

As soon as he said this, the entire place was in an uproar.

“Cang Godhood Sword? Huang Quan must be crazy. Even if Elder Night Guardian is powerful, how can he match up to the value of the Cang Godhood sword alone?”

“Exactly, this is the fate suppression treasure of the headquarters. Is he joking?”

“...”

Just as the commotion started, Wang Dachui snorted and the entire place fell silent.

Rao Yaoyao shook her head. She didn’t expect Huang Quan to be so brazen.

How could Night Guardian and the Cang Godhood Sword be equivalent?

If it was something else, Rao Yaoyao could admit that she was unlucky and make the exchange. She would first redeem Night Guardian before anything else.

But the Cang Godhood Sword...

It could not be used as a trade!

“Are you joking?” Rao Yaoyao snorted coldly. She lifted the Cang Godhood Sword and slowly floated in the air, facing off against Huang Quan who was sitting upright in space.

“Of course, I was joking...” Xu Xiaoshou thought to himself. How could he possibly offer an equivalent trade and make her, Rao Yaoyao, agree to it? If he really swapped Night Guardian’s portrait clone with her, wouldn’t he be exposed on the spot?

However, did he make the identity of “Huang Quan” seem rather brainless by using Night Guardian to propose this completely unequal deal?

Xu Xiaoshou was naturally confident in his actions.

“I’m not only swapping this person with you but also many of his secrets...”

As Xu Xiaoshou spoke, he pointed in the direction of Night Guardian. At the right time, he used his spiritual senses to control Night Guardian to struggle and wriggle. The portrait clone then ended up failing and his face was filled with despair.

No more words were needed.

Xu Xiaoshou knew that Rao Yaoyao could imagine what he was going to say next.

Night Guardian had big secrets!

Xu Xiaoshou could see this point from the power of a higher void that Night Guardian had displayed earlier.

If there was no special reason, how could a cutting path possess the power of a higher void?

This was simply unrealistic!

Xu Xiaoshou did not know how Night Guardian obtained the power of a higher void, but he immediately thought of a young man in the red-clothed, Lu Ke!

Lu Ke was a member of the red-clothed that he once met in the White Cave. The young man had once lost control of his body and revealed ghostly energy, a power that belonged solely to the Ghost Beast!

Xu Xiaoshou did not know if the power of the higher void in Night Guardian was inextricably linked to the young Lu Ke’s ghostly energy.

However, he knew that even if there was no connection, Night Guardian was not an ordinary red-clothed member.

He also believed that he did not need to say what he did not know personally, because Rao Yaoyao, as an internal member of the Holy Divine Palace, must know everything!

Just click it.

As expected, after he said “Secret,” Rao Yaoyao fell silent.

Under the shocked expressions of all the law enforcers, she seemed to be weighing the pros and cons of the secret between the Cang Godhood Sword and Night Guardian.

“Is this secret so important?”

Even though Rao Yaoyao quickly recovered her usual expression, the momentary weighing still gave Xu Xiaoshou some hope.

Chapter 1087: This Damned Situ Yongren! 2

The portrait clone of Night Guardian in his hands was extremely important!

At this moment, Rao Yaoyao’s ears twitched slightly as if she had received a telepathic communication from someone. Her expression instantly became much more relaxed.

“Huang Quan, do you really think that after taking down Night Guardian, you can influence my decision?”

Rao Yaoyao held her Cang Godhood Sword inversely, gradually revealing the sharpness of a Sword Deity. Her aura burst forth, and in an instant, she walked out from Xu Xiaoshou’s guidance, as if she had regained control of the scene.

What happened?

Xu Xiaoshou did not understand, but he suddenly had a bad premonition in his heart.

He knew that Rao Yaoyao would wait since she was also stalling for time. She was waiting for an opportunity to take down everyone.

However, after such a long time, the targets in front of her changed again and again, from Xu Xiaoshou to Yi, and then to Huang Quan.

Theoretically speaking, without making any prior preparations, the opportunity that Rao Yaoyao was waiting for might not be able to withstand Huang Quan’s combat strength.

However, just a moment ago, Xu Xiaoshou could sense that Rao Yaoyao’s mentality had changed.

She had returned to her identity as the red-clothed’s law enforcer as if she had obtained a power that could counterbalance “Huang Quan’s” space-time power.

Xu Xiaoshou did not know what other arrangements the law enforcer had. He could only adapt to the changing situation by remaining unchanged. He smiled nonchalantly and said,

“You don’t want to trade, right?”

“My interest in your subordinate is actually not much less than the Cang Godhood Sword in your hand. Since you don’t want to trade...”

He spread out his hands.

“The deal is over.”

Thump thump!

Thump thump!

His heart began to beat faster.

Xu Xiaoshou knew that he was being impulsive and that this was just his prediction based on spiritual quality.

Next, Rao Yaoyao would surely be prepared to take action. The reason why she suddenly chose to jump out from the topic of “Huang Quan” was definitely because she had a terrifying power.

Run!

After calmly finishing the last sentence and perfecting Huang Quan’s image, Xu Xiaoshou only had the thought of “Run” in his mind.

From his appearance to the end, Huang Quan’s goal was very clear.

He had originally come here for the God Devil Eyes. After being discovered by the law enforcer, he took the opportunity to capture the Night Guardian of the red-clothed and expressed his interest in the Cang Godhood Sword as well as his desire to discover the secrets of the Night Guardian.

All of this was enough!

It was enough for Huang Quan to kill Yi, take the imitator, and pour all the blames on the saint servant. In the end, he wanted to make another profit, but if he couldn’t, he would leave. This was very reasonable!

Xu Xiaoshou felt that until now, Huang Quan’s performance wasn’t too abnormal.

He had successfully shifted the murder of Yi to Yama and removed the hatred the law enforcer team had toward the saint servant, Xu Xiaoshou, so...

If he didn’t run now, when else should he do it?

“Everyone, we shall meet again someday.”

Without giving Rao Yaoyao more time to react, Xu Xiaoshou pointed at the void and continued to “slow down time”.

Under the situation where everyone’s body suddenly stiffened, he did not hesitate at all. He took the lead to look in Lei Xi’er’s direction and directly opened the Yuan Mansion world’s spatial passageway above the latter’s head.

Even at this critical moment, Xu Xiaoshou did not forget to cover up the Yuan mansion world’s spatial passageway.

He used ‘drawing expertise’ to draw the real ‘spatial vortex’ that Huang Quan would use when he left the arena on the spatial passageway.

“Enter!”

Xu Xiaoshou did not use telepathic communication as he was afraid that he would be intercepted by a higher being, and this would expose his identity.

However, with just a glance, Lei Xi'er managed to read his thoughts. She initially wanted to jump into the spatial passageway without hesitation...

At this moment, a sudden change occurred!

In the sky above the cliff, wind and clouds suddenly gathered and took the form of dozens of clouds and morph forms.

These huge beasts covered the sky and the sun. They had a ten-foot-long horn on their head and stood on seven-colored auspicious clouds. Their bodies were like big fish with scales of clouds. They carried wings that could cover half of the sky on their backs. They looked like the ancient beast, Kun Peng.

Cloud Beast!

A total of thirty-six cloud beasts appeared and filled up the entire sky.

What was worse was that these mild-mannered cloud beasts seemed to have been provoked when they appeared. They went crazy and cried out one after another.

“Wu!”

“Wu Wu Wu!”

“Wu Wu Wu Wu Wu...”

The terrifying mental attack caused Xu Xiaoshou's head to go dizzy.

In a daze, the 'time delay' power was forced to stop, and the Yuan mansion space above Lei Xi'er's head also shattered.

Lei Xi'er had the self-protection mechanism of the God Devil Eyes, so she was completely unaffected by the Cloud Beast's mental attack.

But when she jumped forward, the Yuan Mansion world's spatial passageway was gone!

This sudden change made Lei Xi'er slightly dazed, but she quickly calmed down.

Xu Xiaoshou wasn't the 'real' Huang Quan. Facing Rao Yaoyao's backup plan, he wouldn't be able to handle the situation alone! Moreover, this time, it was a strange cloud beast with mental attack power... dozens of them!

Compared to entering the Yuan mansion, staying behind would be more helpful to Xu Xiaoshou.

Lei Xi'er did not hesitate at all. She turned her head and faced Xu Xiaoshou's direction. Her God Devil Eyes Spun.

“Release!”

A white mist appeared from her left eye.

The moment the divine power was released, Xu Xiaoshou's dazed state was instantly relieved. He immediately came back to his senses.

There was no time to thank her. Xu Xiaoshou seemed to have sensed something and looked to the other side.

At the same time, Ye Xiaotian's dizzy state was also relieved with the help of Lei Xi'er's God Devil Eyes.

The three of them looked at the culprit of this change in fear...

A person!

A rather handsome and suave young man.

He was surrounded by a total of 365 golden array tokens. His luxurious clothes were inlaid with gold and jade, and on his belt hung small pagodas, bell cauldrons, small shields, and other morph forms of spiritual weapons.

Chapter 1088: This Damned Situ Yongren! 3

He wore a necklace with more than ten layers on his neck, seven or eight bracelets on his wrist, and more than ten rings on his fingers. It made people wonder if this weight would affect his agility.

Not only that, there was a drop of golden holy blood floating in the center of the young man's left palm, as if he intended to swallow it immediately if anything went wrong.

He held a small copper mirror in his right hand. It was surrounded by clouds and mist. Anyone with a discerning eye could see that the sudden appearance of dozens of ghost beasts was caused by the power of the small copper mirror.

"This damned... is too extravagant! How afraid of death are you!"

Xu Xiaoshou was stunned on the spot.

He took an entire two seconds to move his gaze away from the young man's gold and jade-encrusted, extremely luxurious appearance to his face.

It was a very familiar face!

Situ Yongren!

Xu Xiaoshou's heart sank.

Situ Yongren had once visited the First Pavilion in the Sky at night but was chased away by him with just a few words.

At that time, the other party had already announced that they would compete again in the Yunlun mountain range.

Although he did take caution because of Situ Yongren's identity, Xu Xiaoshou did not seem to care.

However, after entering the Yunlun mountain range for so long, he had never seen Situ Yongren. No matter how great of a change happened in the law enforcer team, Situ Yongren seemed to have disappeared and never showed up.

Now...

Xu Xiaoshou didn't believe that Situ Yongren wasn't fully prepared for the confrontation between Rao Yaoyao and Huang Quan when he entered the scene with the mirror.

"I'm sorry, Sword Deity Rao..."

Situ Yongren looked at Rao Yaoyao and explained, "There are too many stowaways from Lone Cliff. I have to divert their attention and waste a lot of time."

Rao Yaoyao was also shocked by Situ Yongren's "equipment".

However, it wasn't easy for a young man to enter the arena with great pressure.

Under the pressure of Huang Quan, he had to take more life-saving measures. It could only be said that... he had dealt with it appropriately.

"Save the Night Guardian first!" She did not waste any more words. At the same time that she rushed towards Huang Quan with her sword, she instructed Situ Yongren.

"Yes, madam." Situ Yongren's heart relaxed. He was afraid of the boss of Yama, who had mastered the power of time and space. If it meant that he could avoid facing Huang Quan, of course, he would try his best.

On the other side.

"I don't want to fight, damn it..." Xu Xiaoshou thought when he saw that Rao Yaoyao was very serious. It was obvious that she was planning to go all out with her sword and he instantly panicked.

He could vaguely sense with his "Perception" that the moment Situ Yongren appeared, the surrounding space environment and the ripple of path principles changed.

It was as if everyone at the edge of the Lone Cliff had entered a world similar to the storyteller's "Ancient book space".

This should be the reason why Rao Yaoyao suddenly dared to make a move. After all, she no longer had to worry about being affected by the power of time and space.

Xu Xiaoshou understood everything, but he was somewhat helpless.

After all, he wasn't Huang Quan, so he couldn't comprehend the true meaning of time and space. He couldn't directly bring Lei Xi'er and Ye Xiaotian across the divine blockade to escape.

At this moment, Situ Yongren and Rao Yaoyao were separated into two groups. If the former touched Night Guardian, all his efforts would be for naught.

Once his identity was exposed, Rao Yaoyao would be furious. Without any scruples, she would slash him with her sword!

The latter...

Rao Yaoyao had already rushed over with her sword. He couldn't ignore it!

If he couldn't withstand this strike, his fake identity as Huang Quan would be exposed without a doubt.

Then what everyone would have to face next would be the crazy revenge of all the law enforcers who had been fooled for half a day!

"This damned Situ Yongren!"

Chapter 1089: Hello... 1

Outside Lone Cliff.

At a certain point in time, five figures of young men and women flew over from the forest far away from the edge of the cliff. Their appearances were plain and there was nothing special that could be observed from them.

When the five figures landed on the edge of Lone Cliff, the five of them stopped moving at the same time and looked at each other blankly. It was as if they had an extremely specific purpose for coming here.

"This is the Lone Cliff?"

"That can't be right. If this is the Lone Cliff, how could there be no one here?"

"Logically speaking, saint servant Xu Xiaoshou's arrest warrant has already been issued. This place should be the center of a storm involving the stowaway. In addition, Sword Deity Rao should have sensed that something was wrong and led her team here... how could this place be so peaceful?"

"God of Dumbness, what do you think?"

The few of them looked at each other in bewilderment before turning to look at the young man in the lead.

The young man in the lead, who was called God of Dumbness, was in the Grandmaster realm. Although he did not have any outstanding characteristics, he was the team leader of the five gold hunting tokens, Double Dumba*s.

Hearing this, Double Dumba*s looked around with his four team members. His nose twitched and he said solemnly, "There was a big battle here. At least, there are traces of cutting paths fighting...and dark attribute power?"

"What about the people?" A plain-looking woman, who was barefooted and dressed as a trial-taker, asked.

"They're all gone. Most of the traces have been erased. It's as if they have disappeared into thin air. This meant that they either entered an extradimensional space or were sucked away by a space spiritual weapon... Of course, there's another greater possibility!" Double Dumba*s paused.

The people around him seemed to have thought of something at the same time. They exclaimed in surprise, "Sky City?"

"That's the only explanation." Double Dumba*s nodded.

He could not think of any other reason for everyone to vanish into thin air. Following the situation, he could only conclude that there was a passage leading to Sky City.

"Actually, I have a feeling that they're still here..."

The barefooted woman, Golden Foot, frowned as she pondered. She walked around the area and touched the space. She felt as if she was separated from the truth by an invisible membrane.

"How do you know?" The little boy behind asked.

"Intuition." The corner of Golden Foot's lips curled, and she said no more.

At this moment, their leader, Double Dumba*s, seemed to have sensed something. He raised his head to the sky, and his expression became solemn. "Someone is coming. Hide well."

Swish!

No further explanation was needed.

The few of them disappeared into the way of the heavens, leaving no traces behind.

Not long after, two figures descended from the sky.

One was guiding a crane and the other was standing on the back of the crane.

The moment they landed, the person guiding the crane formed a seal with his two fingers and kept the crane in a telepathy space.

Within the way of the heavens, the five figures that merged into it were all extraordinary. They began to use the higher void world to communicate with each other.

"Who are these two?"

"They're so ostentatious and grand!"

"One is at the cutting path stage, and the other is at the higher void level. Are they also stowaways? Why don't they hide their cultivation level?"

"Shut up! Can't you see that they don't need to hide their cultivation level? This shows that they're either conceited and extraordinary, or they have a high status and need not care about the rules of Yunlun mountain range... let's not talk about that for now. The one without eyebrows is a higher void. We need to prevent our higher void world from being discovered."

With that last sentence, silence returned to the way of the heavens.

On the Lone Cliff, Bai Lian searched back and forth in bewilderment. His spiritual senses seeped into the ground and the sky, but he couldn't find the people who should be there.

"Supreme Master, are we at the wrong place? Isn't this the Lone Cliff?"

As soon as he said this, Bai Lian sensed that something was wrong.

The scene of the Lone Cliff that he and his supreme master had seen on the spirit mirror was exactly the same as this place.

However, at that time, the spirit mirror had shown that there were at least a hundred people here.

Now that the two of them had arrived, the people had all vanished into thin air?

“Divine World.” Mu Ling, who had no eyebrows, uttered a few words and did not speak again.

Divine World?

The five gold hunting token killers, who were hiding in the way of the heavens, were stunned but immediately agreed with him.

Indeed, compared to the conclusion that there was a passage to Sky City, a Divine World appearing in the internal world and taking away everyone was a more realistic answer.

The “Cloud Realm World” that covered the Yunlun mountain range was divided into the external world and the internal world.

The external world was used for the trial. One was only required to control the Path Principles of the Way of the Heavens to obtain rough feedback on another’s abilities.

The internal world was very deep and involved the divine secret of the path division.

Hence, this was also the reason why Double Dumba*s did not think of it immediately.

However, what made the five of them curious was...

Who were these two people?

How were they able to come to such a conclusion immediately?

Why was the eyebrowless higher void so familiar with the Divine World of the Holy Divine Palace? He even knew the internal world of the Divine World like the back of his hand?

“Everyone, be careful. This higher void doesn’t seem simple...” Double Dumba*s carefully mentioned in the higher void world that connected the five of them.

No one responded.

On the Lone Cliff, Bai Lian immediately reacted after he regained his calm. However, he seemed to be rather puzzled and asked in return,

“The internal world of the Cloud Realm World?”

“That can’t be right. Only people from the Path Division can open the internal world of a Divine World. There are also many other restrictions.”

“With Yu Zhiwen’s strength, if she doesn’t prepare for a few days, she might not even be able to open the internal world. How could she... support us in such a timely manner?”

The moment these words were said, the five people hiding in the way of the heavens became even more alarmed.

Who was this fellow?

He was only a cultivator at the cutting path stage, yet he was able to understand the internal information of the Holy Divine Palace like the Divine World's legacy, including the restrictions and prerequisites?

Chapter 1090: Hello... 2

The five gold hunting token killers boasted that they knew the secrets of this continent in great detail.

However, they did not know where to get information about the Holy Divine palace.

Therefore, the cutting path and higher void in front of them, made the five killers feel that the pair was more terrifying than they had expected.

"Everyone, be careful. This cutting path isn't simple either..." Double Dumba*s hesitated for a moment and chose to remind them again.

This time, the higher void world did not remain silent. A dull reply appeared, "Stop talking. We all know. Hurry up and shut up!"

Double Dumba*s stayed quiet.

In the real world, Mu Ling did not reply to Bai Lian's words. He only glanced at his disciple indifferently.

Bai Lian immediately lowered his head and thought seriously. After a while, he suddenly realized something.

"Indeed, Yu Zhiwen has no time at all. Supreme Master, do you mean that Situ Yongren has made a move?"

"Yes, I also think highly of this young man, but he is a little arrogant..."

He still did not receive a reply.

However, Bai Lian was used to the way his Supreme Master communicate, so he did not feel anything.

He turned his eyes and swept his gaze across the surrounding space. He was slightly excited as he said,

"Supreme Master, I can make a move and refine the Divine Path Principles in this space. When the time comes, I can save all the trial-takers who are trapped in the internal world of the Divine World!"

"I believe that the Holy Power Treasures had attracted many trial-takers here and they are definitely in urgent need of rescue. As good seedlings of the Holy Palace in the future, they can not be sacrificed in the battle for the Great Path!"

He flipped his hand.

Bai Lian, who was used to not receiving any response, no longer waited. With a sizzle, a white flame bloomed in his palm.

Hiding in the way of the heavens, everyone had already tacitly decided not to communicate with each other in the higher void world. However, at this moment, a few exclamations suddenly burst out in unison.

“Infernal White Flame?!”

“He’s the saint servant, Sleeveless?”

“No, no, the saint servant, Sleeveless, is long gone. He mentioned the Holy Palace... they’re from the Holy Palace? Are they the emissaries of the Holy Palace?”

“F*ck! Could he be one of the five great authorities of the Holy Palace, Bai Lian from the infernal lineage?”

“Then the other one... isn’t the saint servant, Sleeveless. He’s the Holy Palace, Browless Mu Ling! Mu Ling is here too?! This is insane! What’s going on?”

At this point, the few of them seemed to recall the tacit understanding they had just had. They shut their mouths at the same time and didn’t say anything else.

“All of you, shut up...” After a long time, Double Dumba*s finally spoke out again in fear.

“Stop talking!” The moment he spoke, another muffled voice of fear sounded out.

Then.

The higher void world fell into silence once again.

“Ignorant!”

On the Lone Cliff, Mu Ling’s cold gaze swept past, instantly scaring away the flames in Bai Lian’s palm.

“Your current identity is an emissary of the Holy Palace. The appearance of the Internal World of the Divine World means that the Holy Divine Palace has encountered a powerful enemy.”

“Are you planning to oppose the Holy Divine Palace?”

Mu Ling was just about to knock his disciple’s head, but when he thought of the fact that there were still people eavesdropping, he decided to leave him some respect. After all, his disciple was one of the five great authorities of the Holy Palace.

“Then what should we do?” Losing interest, Bai Lian withdrew his hand in boredom.

“Wait for an opportunity,” Mu Ling said. He then turned his head to look at the forest behind him, seemingly unintentionally and did not say anything else.

Although Bai Lian was slightly startled, he understood what his supreme master was implying. Their identities were certainly not suitable for them to make a move now. They could only wait for other people to break the Internal World of the Divine World.

“Supreme Master is still the wisest...” Bai Lian sighed in his heart.

At this moment, he followed his supreme master’s gaze and looked over. His entire body suddenly stiffened.

“Clang, Clang, Clang!”

The sound of metal colliding could be heard from the forest not far away.

Then, a scruffy-looking man with a sack on his shoulder rushed out of the dense forest where he could hide his presence. Subsequently, the man, who looked like a trash collector, landed on the path by the cliff.

He suddenly stopped and looked at the two figures in front of him.

There were people?

There were people who arrived faster than him?

On the other side, Bai Lian was already stunned.

He saw the appearance of the person clearly. Eight fingers, a scar on his neck, a sloppy appearance, almost no spiritual source fluctuation, and an obvious high-level aura...

“Bazhun’an?!”

Bai Lian screamed in his heart. He was so scared that all the pores on his body burst open, and white flames started burning on his body.

In the way of the heavens, the five gold hunting token killers were also shocked.

“The Eighth Sword Deity?!”

“My God! Why is he here? Didn’t the intelligence say that he disappeared after he finished his business in the sky above the Yunlun mountain range?”

“What is he doing here? It’s not like he cared about Xu Xiaoshou’s head... er, is he here to protect someone?”

“Stop talking!”

“Oh oh.”

No one noticed that behind this scruffy-looking man, there was an obscure black figure hiding in the shadows of the trees.

After seeing the two people on the Lone Cliff who did not hide their cultivation level, the black figure froze for a moment. Then, he silently tore through space and hid in the spatial fragment.

“He might not be Bazhun’an...”

“I heard that there’s a fake who is capable of passing themselves off as the real person...”

“But he must be an enemy!”

Bai Lian's thoughts ran wildly and it was difficult for him to calm down.

He was one of the five great authorities of the Holy Palace and his combat strength was not ordinary.

However, the saint servant was on the opposite side of the Holy Palace and the Holy Divine Palace. His first impression of the sloppy Bazhun'an was that he wanted to take the other party down, but he might not be able to do so.

At this moment, Mu Ling swept his gaze over the newcomer as if he did not notice him at all. He looked back at his own disciple.

"There might be more people coming to this place. Since we can't make a move, let's hide for now."

Bai Lian frowned. Spiritual light flashed in his mind as he thought of something.

This should be the opportunity that his supreme master mentioned!

That's right. Regardless of whether this fellow was Bazhun'an or not, he was definitely an enemy. He was definitely a stowaway.

And the saint servant, Xu Xiaoshou, was now one of the enemies and stowaways.

Therefore, the appearance of Bazhun'an might not be a bad thing.

He might be here to protect someone.

"He has the same thoughts as me..."

"But why does it feel a little strange..."

Bai Lian had mixed feelings. It felt as if he was in cahoots with the mobs.

However, when he saw that the middle-aged man carrying the sack in the distance did not do anything strange, he extinguished the white flame on his body and pretended that he did not see this person's arrival.

"Supreme Master, where should we hide?" Bai Lian raised his eyes and looked around.

"Since you are already at the cutting path stage, we can hide in the way of the heavens," Mu Ling said indifferently.

"Oh."

Bai Lian did not hesitate at all. He knew that this was a better choice than hiding behind a real object. Immediately, with a swish, he and his Supreme Master merged into the way of the heavens at the same time.

After reaching the cutting path stage, the human body became more compatible with the way of the heavens. One could temporarily stay in the way of the heavens and use it to comprehend the order of the great path.

However, this very practical ability was used by many experts at the cutting path stage and above to hide.

With the way of the heavens hiding them, those below the cutting path stage would find it almost impossible to notice anything unusual.

Bai Lian had just barely integrated into the fire-type great path before his thoughts turned extremely cold.

If he still had a real body, he would definitely be like a frightened rabbit that was about to jump up.

Because in this great path, he sensed his own kind hiding in the same place!

“Who?!”

Bai Lian was so scared that he wanted to escape from the great path and return to reality.

At this time, his supreme master’s friendly fire-type ability was sent over, as if telling him to be patient.

It was also at this time that Bai Lian calmed down, and only then did he notice that the five auras in this great path of space were more nervous, more anxious, and more restless than him!

“That’s right, I entered this space with a clear conscience while they had been eavesdropping covertly...”
Bai Lian thought about how he still had his supreme master by his side and immediately stopped panicking.

He had been in the Holy Palace for a long time, so it was normal for him to be afraid of battles.

This was because his life and safety might be threatened if he was to head out alone. Moreover, usually, it was near impossible for him to leave the Holy Palace with his supreme master.

However, now that he had his supreme master, Mu Ling, around, everything seemed to be easy.

In the awkward atmosphere, the five auras took the lead to send out probing greetings.

“Hello...”
