

I Am Loaded 491

Chapter 491: Your Entire Family Is a Pervert!

“Miss Mo, we’re here.”

When Rong Dahao led the group to the Spirit Fusion Swamp, the sounds of battle inside were deafening.

The pink mist array blocked their path.

Obviously, they weren’t heading in the direction where Yu Zhiwen had already opened the array’s door.

The monkey-faced man, Zhao Tai, who was following closely behind, was immediately frightened by the sounds of battle.

“Brother Hao, someone has already entered here?”

“Could it be that the Guard has already returned? That earthquake just now...”

“Shh!”

Rong Dahao raised a finger to signal for silence.

“Are you stupid?”

“There’s a battle, which means that there are already two existences who can contend against each other.”

“If you don’t take the opportunity to sneak in at this time, when do you want to wait until?”

“Wait for what? When the battle is over, or when the Guardian looks at you, do you then take a step forward and run over to feed him?”

Zhao Tai’s face immediately turned green.

“But...”

“There’s no ‘but’!”

Rong Dahao cut him off, turned around, and looked at the people who were also slightly terrified, shaking his head secretly.

These idiots did not have the determination to die. Why did they want to enter the White Cave?

If that was the case, were they really not wasting the precious white cave slot?

“Miss Mo...”

His gaze fell on the woman in the white dress who was still calm and composed. Rong Dahao praised her in his heart.

This was what it meant to be magnanimous!

This was what it meant to be unperturbed!

Even he was a little worried about the unknown situation inside.

But this woman who was holding a small copper furnace and burning Yao Yao Incense...

From the outside, he can't see the slightest bit of fluctuation of emotion in her.

"Miss Mo, there's a battle inside, which means that the fog array in front of us has been broken."

"The array is very big. Even my spiritual sense is unable to sense everything."

"Since that's the case, let's change our direction. As long as we find the place where the previous person broke the formation, without any effort, we'll be able to enter."

Rong Dahao paused for a moment and felt the might of the array before him. Shaking his head, he sighed, "The Spirit Array Casters in our team aren't even at Master realm. If we were to use brute force to break the formation, it would make us look like a group of fools..."

"Boom!"

Not far away, a violent explosion occurred.

Everyone felt their scalps go numb from the explosion, and they couldn't help but look over.

"Boom!"

There was another loud explosion

The formation shook violently.

"Ah—"

A voice came through clenched teeth.

It sounded very young.

But amidst the immature voice, the stubbornness could be heard.

"Boom!"

Everyone came back to their senses and saw an extremely short and small monk at the entrance of the formation. He was carrying a shining Buddhist ring saber on his back, and he was holding a small fist as he fiercely attacked forward.

Rong Dahao:"..."

"Who is this?"

He had just said that it would be foolish, and now someone had started doing this?

Monk Bu Le was full of energy.

He had seen the mighty group not far away.

But to him, the only and major thing he needed to do was to take back the 'Empty Hell Magic Staff' that he had lost.

This stupid array...

Was quite tough?

“Boom!”

Bu Le threw another punch and was bounced off into the air.

He bared his teeth and blew at his fist in pain.

“This is so hard to break?”

Thinking of this, the “Power of Will” that belonged to the Kong Zen disciples of the Buddhist sect directly covered his fist.

The horrifying power shook the void until it began to distort.

“This is?”

Rong Dahao’s pupils suddenly constricted.

What did he see?

“Penetrating Divine Senses?”

“This little monk has actually grasped Penetrating Divine Senses?”

“No, it’s not the form of the God Punishment Tribulation. It should be a different form...”

“But, how is this possible?”

Rong Dahao’s eyes were filled with disbelief.

He subconsciously looked back and glanced at everyone’s reaction.

However, he realized that almost no one was like him and recognized this form of power.

That made sense though.

How could these bunch of people who grew up in the corner of a remote area recognize such a high-end “Penetrating Divine Senses”

Rong Dahao vaguely remembered that when this form of “Penetrating Divine Senses” first appeared, it was during the last competition for the “The Ten High Nobles of The Central Region”.

At that time, the “God Punishment Tribulation” that Kui Leihan used was the first generation of “Penetrating Divine Senses”.

With this method, he even overpowered the Eighth Sword Deity who was famous in the five continents at that time, and took the first seat of the “The Ten High Nobles of The Central Region”.

However...

At that time, it was known as an unsolvable move. After that, the Eighth Sword Deity was able to comprehend the sword’s intent through such, which was understandable.

After all, he wasn't an ordinary person.

But how could this little monk in front of him also have such great power?

How many years has it been?

Someone actually developed a similar power again?

"Who is he?"

Rong Dahao's investment fire burned in his heart.

This eastern region really did come to the right place.

In this small White Cave, two talented prodigies had actually appeared!

"What kind of power is this?"

Mo Mo was at the side, and for the first time, she was so curious that she took the initiative to ask.

She had originally turned a blind eye to it.

However, the grey mist figure had actually given her a warning, making her realize that this kind of power could have a substantial destructive effect on her sealing power.

Mo Mo was shocked.

This was the first time she had learned from the grey mist figure that there is a type of power that could possibly destruct her sealing power.

Rong Dahao turned his head to look at this woman.

The others could be country bumpkins, and he could not be bothered to answer.

But this woman in front of him asked a question, and he did not want to avoid answering.

"Penetrating Divine Senses."

"Penetrating Divine Senses.. what is it?"

With Mo Mo's question, everyone turned around.

Rong Dahao hesitated for a while, but he still explained, "It's a very special power that combines the three states of energy, will, and spirit. It can take the form of the power of will and turn it into substance."

"How should I put it..."

He tilted his head and gave a definite answer, "There's no solution for those under the same level!"

Everyone was stunned when they heard this.

No solution?

How could this word appear on the Shengshen Continent?

What kind of power was more unsolvable than a spiritual technique of the Sovereign Level or a spiritual technique of one that surpassed the Sovereign Level?

“You really dare to say...”

Zhao Tai muttered.

In the distance, little monk Bu Le had finished gathering his spiritual energy. He leaped up and once again punched the fog array.

“Rumble!”

This time, the fog exploded, and the terrifying shockwave spread out in a circular shape, creating an ellipse on the ground.

In the next second.

Everyone saw that the fog array, which had been created and maintained by heaven and earth, had been forcefully blasted open.

The opening was very small.

However, it was just enough to allow the small monk’s small body to enter.

“Whoosh!”

After a sound.

The small monk with the Buddhist Light Saber on his back disappeared in a flash.

“He, he entered?”

Even Rong Dahao was dumbfounded by what he saw.

He was able to learn about the power of the ‘Penetrating Divine Senses’ from the elders.

However, wasn’t it a little too exaggerated to be able to destroy the Heaven and Earth array with just one punch?

This was the Heaven and Earth Array!

It wasn’t set up by humans.

Even if Divine Sorcerers were to come, they would have to expend a great deal of effort in order to have the slightest chance of breaking it!

This fellow, with just one punch, he was able to break a hole?

“So powerful...”

Mo Mo exclaimed in a low voice.

This was the first time she had seen such power.

Although they had never fought before, with just one glance, she seemed to be able to confirm that this had completely surpassed the strongest physical body she had ever seen — Xu Xiaoshou!

“Miss Mo, let’s hurry and start going. Let’s find the entrance to the array.”

Rong Dahao was anxious. “There are many capable people in the White Cave. If we don’t hurry, the treasure might be taken by someone else first.”

To be able to grasp divine thoughts, he must be a disciple from some large sects or factions outside.

It was impossible for such a person to come to the white cave for no reason. He must have an aim.

And the person who had come to the spirit fusion swamp with an aim.

Wasn’t his intention obvious?

This little monk’s goal was the same as his.

“Three Days Frozen Calamity!”

The people behind him were also anxious.

Humans were like this.

Originally, they might still have something to fear, but once they saw that their peers had already set off, even if they were one second behind, they would become anxious. They were afraid that what they wanted would be lost in a split second.

“Go, go!”

“Hurry up and run.”

“Should we split up and set off in two directions? Whoever sees the entrance of the formation first will send a voice transmission to rush over?” Someone suggested.

“That’s a good idea. Since we have more people, the search speed will definitely be very fast.”

“...”

Amidst the flurry of footsteps, everyone began to stir.

“Miss Mo?”

The leader, Rong Dahao, did not move.

He also thought that this idea was not bad, but he had to seek the consent of the girl next to him.

He would not leave Mo Mo so easily on this trip to the White Cave.

Even if he met someone worthy of investment, he believed that the disciples of the big sects would not be more valuable than Miss Mo, who was from a humble background and needed the support of a noble.

“There’s no need to search.”

Mo Mo held the copper stove and took a step forward. She touched the fog array with one hand.

“What do you mean? Could it be that you can also break the heaven and earth array with one punch like that little monk?”

Zhao Tai could not help but laugh.

He had followed Rong Dahao into the White Cave.

He also had a vague idea of brother Hao’s terrifying background.

However, he really couldn’t understand it.

How could this woman, who had always been so aloof that she wouldn’t even respond to others when they spoke to her, enter brother Hao’s eyes?

In terms of strength...

She wasn’t much stronger than the people present!

There were many other Masters present, but brother Hao didn’t have to fawn over them like this...

This was really strange.

“Shut up!”

Rong Dahao immediately berated her.

He turned around and looked at Mo Mo, “Miss Mo, you mean...”

Mo Mo shook her head and didn’t reply.

The spiritual essence in her body gathered, and a grayish-white mist rose from her palm.

In the next moment, everyone saw that this pink fog was like a mouse seeing a cat. Under this gray fog, it immediately wilted.

It curled up crazily!

It retreated crazily!

The strange pink color, which originally had a mysterious power, lost its luster in less than a few breaths after coming into contact with Mo Mo’s gray mist’s power.

In the next moment, a hole that was a few people wide was melted out.

“This...”

Zhao Tai’s expression was shocked.

His tongue hung between his lips and teeth. He was completely speechless.

What kind of power was this?

She didn’t even need to punch.

She just touched it.

And released the gray mist.

Then the Heaven and Earth Great Array had lost its effect?

“Sealing power!”

Rong Dahao screamed in his heart.

He had long seen that Mo Mo wasn't simple.

But this was what his intuition told him so.

Rong Dahao would never have thought that the person he wanted to invest in had actually grasped the “Sealing power” that was rarely seen in hundreds of years!

This was practically comparable to the strongest attributes of the time and space elements!

In fact, to a certain extent, it was even slightly better.

Miss Mo...

Was she actually such a genius?

“I'm rich, I'm rich.”

“This investment is stable. Miss Mo, I must take it!”

Rong Dahao clenched his fists tightly. Even the pain of his fingernails digging into his palm was completely unnoticeable due to his momentary excitement.

“Go in.”

Mo Mo said calmly. She did not even turn around to look at Zhao Tai and took the lead to enter.

Zhao Tai's face was flushed red.

He felt that this extreme ignorance was even more humiliating than the other party turning around to mock him.

But...

“What kind of power is that!”

With just a glance, he felt that his energy reserve had fallen silent.

Before it even reached his body, he had an illusion that he could not use all the strength in his body.

If they were to really fight, how could he defeat the other party?

Zhao Tai did not dare to be a demon anymore.

He did not say anything. Under Rong Dahao's fierce warning, he retreated to the end of the team and entered the Spirit Fusion Swamp together.

“Aiya, how annoying!”

“This space fragment...”

A narrow crack in the void appeared above the white cave.

Then, a tall man in a red dress walked out.

He had a bitter expression on his face as he looked down at his beloved red dress, which had been cut several times by the space fragment.

“My body is exposed...”

“Humph!”

The man in the red dress pouted his lips and bit his leopard-print fingernails with his pearly white teeth as he looked around.

“I originally wanted to walk slowly with my brother and leave right after we picked up the person, but I didn’t expect the road to be so short and so impassable that I had to come in now.”

“It’s fine if I need to come in, but why did I have to separate from my brother?”

“Ummm. ”

“Damn it...”

He lowered his gaze.

“Eh?”

The empty white cave he expected did not appear.

On the contrary, a small fire was burning below, and a faint fragrance of meat was coming from the rack.

Sitting on the side were three men who were chatting.

Looking at their clothes...

Three Red Clothes!

“Space fluctuation?”

The three people below didn’t realize that something was wrong until the Storyteller appeared.

When they looked up, they saw him in the sky covering his skirt in panic.

“Damn it!”

“What are you looking at? I’m not wearing anything underneath!”

The three of them:”...”

This sudden coquettishness left the three red-robed men dumbfounded.

After about three breaths of buffer time, they came back to their senses and saw the space crack that had been completely repaired.

They suddenly realized something.

“Damn, it’s a perverted stowaway!”

“For the Sovereignty!”

“Take him down!”

With a bang, the spiritual flesh on the bonfire was directly shaken off by the force of the s[piritual energy.

The three red robes flew up together and pointed at the top.

The Storyteller’s expression immediately turned cold.

“What... Did you say? !”

“Pervert?”

His pupils trembled as if he had heard the most intolerable humiliation in the world. His delicate body trembled in anger.

“Bounded domain, open!”

Before the three could react, a dark bounded domain directly covered them.

In the next second, the three red robes surrounded him. As their spiritual essence surged, fist force was already unleashed.

“Great Moon Fist!”

“Only a storm!”

“Annihilate the cold!”

“Boom boom boom...”

In the ancient scroll, the three red robes continuously wreaked havoc on their spiritual essence towards the void at the center point.

All kinds of spiritual techniques and Power of the Sovereign were unleashed, tearing the void around them into pieces.

The Storyteller was furious. In the end, he slapped the ancient book and closed the paper.

“Perverts, you are the perverts. Your whole family is perverts!”

“Hmph!”

He floated down.

He landed in front of the bonfire.

Sizzling sounds could be heard.

The golden crispy roasted meat had already taken shape.

The Storyteller ignored the heat and picked it up, biting it hard.

“Pervert!”

“I’ll eat your meat, pervert!”

“F * CK you pervert, fight in there for 300 years before you come out...”

“Pervert...”

He muttered in a daze, and suddenly became irritable again.

“F * CK! F * CK! F * CK! F * CK!”

Boom! Boom! Boom!

With the last few angry shouts, the world directly collapsed.

The earth cracked, and gravel flew everywhere.

The more the Storyteller thought about it, the angrier he got.

In the end, he couldn’t hold it anymore. He flipped open the piece of paper, took out one of the red-robed men from the space on the piece of paper, and threw it on the ground.

“Pervert!”

The heels of his high-heeled shoes stomped crazily on the red-robed man’s face.

Bang! Bang! Bang!

Blood splattered everywhere.

“I’ll let you become a pervert!”

Bang! Bang! Bang!

Pieces of flesh flew everywhere.

“I’ll let you call me a pervert!”

Bang Bang Bang...

The Storyteller suddenly stopped venting, because the corpse under his feet was already badly mutilated.

He looked at it and suddenly raised his orchid-like fingers. He was so scared that his hands shrank to his chest and he retreated repeatedly.

“Aiya.”

“I’m sorry, I didn’t mean to...”

He pondered for a long time.

Only then did he manage to recover his frightened little heart.

The Storyteller sat next to the fire weakly.

His good mood of meeting his brother for the first time had been completely ruined. At this moment, he was in a terrible mood.

He simply threw the corpse into the fire. It was better to be out of sight and out of mind.

“Where should I go?”

He took out the ancient book and turned to a brand new page.

He poured his spiritual essence into it.

The patterns on the top began to emerge and finally turned into a map with flickering light spots.

“Path Pattern Initial Stone?”

The Storyteller was shocked. His gaze focused on a certain light spot as he exclaimed in surprise.

“Good heavens, this White Cave really has something good.”

“But brother and the old woodcutter both went in the direction of the Fourth Sword’, and my true body also went to set up a trap. I’m an incarnation with an unstable foundational root...”

“There’s no problem for me to fight, but when faced with something like the Path Pattern Initial Stone, which has a perfect Dao rhythm, if I forcefully take it, I might actually be crushed...”

The storyteller did not hesitate and directly shifted his gaze to the next jumping light spot.

“Three Days Frozen Calamity...”

“Cold Flame?”

To be honest, he was not interested.

However, all of a sudden, besides the icy cold air, he vaguely sensed an extremely overbearing burning power.

His eyelids twitched, and the storyteller’s red lips opened in surprise.

“This is...”

“Second brother’s fire?”

Chapter 492: Xu Xiaoshou: I Want to Refine Pills

“Whoosh Whoosh.”

The two figures charged straight down.

Xu Xiaoshou didn't know how long he had been flying for.

He felt as if he was about to lose his sense of time and direction.

It was until he had suddenly passed through an invisible barrier that the darkness suddenly disappeared and scorching flames emerged.

At the same time, a suffocating surging heat hit them.

"Cough Cough."

Mu Zixi was caught off guard and choked on the hot steam.

"We're here?"

She asked in surprise.

Before she could continue speaking, she felt that her clothes were on the verge of spontaneously combusting. She immediately increased the intensity of her spiritual source protection.

"Pu Pu."

At this moment, a faint sound was heard.

Xu Xiaoshou glanced at her warily.

"Be careful."

He opened his mouth and inhaled the Infernal Heavenly Flames on Mu Zixi's spiritual source protection.

The two of them looked at each other wordlessly. Mu Zixi patted her slightly scorched chest and only then did she react with lingering fear.

"Thank you, thank you."

"Received Gratitude, Passive Points + 1."

..

"Sizzle! Sizzle!"

The sky-high flames were burning and flaring in front of their eyes.

After coming down from the pit above, there was actually an extremely huge magma pool deep beneath the ground.

This magma was milky white in color, and it was gurgling loudly.

If he hadn't felt the extremely familiar infernal power in this space, Xu Xiaoshou wouldn't have dared to believe it.

The Infernal Heavenly Flames was something in the form of flames, but it could actually condense into such a liquid form!

"We're here."

“But, this place...”

Xu Xiaoshou’s scalp went numb as he watched.

This was completely beyond the might of the Advanced Infernal Fire Seed!

His judgment of the treasures in this place was indeed not wrong.

However, he had never expected that the power in this place had already reached such a terrifying level.

“Hu ~”

Xu Xiaoshou barely felt better after using all his strength to exhale the high-intensity infernal power from his body and then absorb it back as energy.

Even though the power came from the same source and he had Master Physique.

However, just standing here, he already felt that he couldn’t withstand the heat and was on the verge of melting.

“What terrifying heat...”

Xu Xiaoshou murmured and turned to look at Mu Zixi.

“The invisible barrier we broke through just now should also be the Heaven and Earth Great Array. That formation doesn’t have any defensive purpose. It’s just to prevent the temperature here from exploding out. So...”

He paused and once again dealt with the white flames that were reignited on their bodies. He frowned and said, “You go out first. Your wood element here is simply going to be suppressed to death.”

“Okay.”

It was the first time that Mu Zixi was so obedient.

She didn’t dare to be careless.

Although she also wanted to explore this place with Xu Xiaoshou, upon seeing such a situation, she instantly lost this idea.

She didn’t pester on. After hearing his command, the little girl immediately turned around and flew towards the cave above.

“I’ll go outside and make some arrangements. If anyone comes, I’ll immediately inform you. Take it.”

A tree seed shot out from the sky, and Mu Zixi’s figure instantly disappeared.

Xu Xiaoshou caught the tree seed.

In such a short time flying across the air, this thing had been burned down by two-thirds of its size.

However, the moment it came into contact with Xu Xiaoshou’s body, it immediately seeped into it.

Relying on the endless life force of the “Eternal Vitality”, it recovered in the blink of an eye.

In the end, it turned into a mark of a tree seed on Xu Xiaoshou's palm.

"Parasitism, huh..."

Sensing the power in his palm, a strange look appeared in Xu Xiaoshou's eyes.

Her junior sister's strength seemed to have changed a little.

There was the defense of a Master Physique and multiple layers of passive skills.

But this tree seed, even without his permission, could directly permeate into his body?

He didn't think too much about it.

It was clearly not the time to consider these small details.

Xu Xiaoshou turned his head back and looked at the magma pool below.

"Gulp Gulp Gulp..."

The magma bubbled and burst, gathering then splitting again.

The boiling sound seemed to warn outsiders of the unimaginable high temperature.

"Should I go down?"

Xu Xiaoshou hesitated.

His intuition told him..

Well, actually, even if he didn't use his intuition, he could tell with his naked eye there was only one lava pool that could contain the treasures in this place.

He thought that there would only be a treasure in the depths of the underground, all by itself.

But reality proved him wrong.

He had been careless.

This treasure did exist, but the heat released by the excess heat alone had formed such a terrifying white lava.

If he were to explore it and his Master Physique was burned to ashes, what should he do?

But if he didn't give it a try..

He turned his head around silently.

Due to the Heaven and Earth Great Array, Xu Xiaoshou couldn't hear the outside world at all.

But he also knew that Ah Jie couldn't stop that big guy who was determined to come down for too long.

He didn't have much time left!

"Go down!"

Gritting his teeth, Xu Xiaoshou looked as if he was ready for his death as he jumped.

He suddenly stopped on the surface of the magma pool.

Then, he carefully bent over and used his fingers to check the temperature of the lava.

“Sizzle ~”

“Attacked, Passive Points + 1.”

In just an instant, the intense heat made Xu Xiaoshou withdraw his hand.

Then, he looked at his half-severed finger and fell into a daze.

“What the F * ck... Sh*t!”

“Eternal Vitality” began to do its work. It felt like ants gnawing at something, and an unbearable itch came from the place where the finger was cut off.

Xu Xiaoshou endured it until the finger was completely healed.

He sighed deeply.

He raised his head.

It was obvious that the white skeleton had been here before and had also modified this place.

The karst cave was very big and very tall.

It was more than 300 feet tall.

Such a height and width would be more than enough for the Raging Giant to descend in here!

“Then...”

“Charge!”

Xu Xiaoshou instantly gripped the bronze carving piece tightly.

The terrifying Wrath of the Devil directly invaded his mind and completely destroyed his consciousness.

Deep within his soul, the primitive, Desire to Rage was also instantly triggered and drawn out.

“Roar!”

The furious roar swept in all directions, raising white lava that was dozens of meters tall.

In the middle of the burning underground cave, a golden light bloomed.

In the next second, like a deity descending, the Raging Giant appeared with a loud bang.

“Bang!”

He stomped and white lava splashed out.

“Attacked, Passive Points + 1.”

“Attacked, Passive Points + 1.”

“...”

Intense pain assaulted him.

Xu Xiaoshou finally managed to find the neutral point between the Wrath of the Devil and the Desire to Rage. A glimmer of light returned to his scarlet eyes.

“F * ck! F * ck! F * ck! F * ck! F * ck! F * ck!”

After recovering his consciousness, the Raging Giant, which was dozens of feet tall and inviolable, suddenly bounced up in pain. He hugged his feet and kept shivering.

“Damn it! Damn it!”

“As expected, there is still a risk in activating the Raging Giant. I can’t regain my consciousness immediately.”

Xu Xiaoshou held his golden foot and blew on it.

After Xin Gugu’s special training in the Abrogated Origin Residence, he was indeed able to barely master the Raging Giant.

But this ‘barely’ was in the literal sense.

Sometimes, he was lucky and the Wrath of the Devil and the Desire to Rage in his body were aligned. He didn’t even need to neutralize it. Xu Xiaoshou wouldn’t lose consciousness at all.

And when he was unlucky..

Yes.

This was it.

The moment either side had more energy, he would have to use some time to balance them.

Therefore, the activation of this skill really depended on 12% practice.

As well as 88% luck.

“Ha...”

Huffing.

Xu Xiaoshou was barely able to withstand the remaining pain in the soles of his feet.

He looked at the magma pool below and fell into deep thoughts again.

“After using the Raging Giant, this thing’s damage is actually not very high anymore.”

“Even if a portion of the body was burnt to ashes coming into contact with it, relying on ‘Eternal Vitality’, it would be able to recover slightly.”

“But...”

Looking down at the large golden foot that only recovered after a few breaths, Xu Xiaoshou frowned.

“The ‘Eternal Vitality’ recovery speed isn’t as fast as the destructive power of this lava.”

“In other words, if I dive down, the time I can stay in there will definitely be limited.”

“In addition...”

“It hurts!”

Xu Xiaoshou’s mind was frozen.

In fact, everything was fine. It was just that the pain of having your body being burnt by lava was not something an ordinary person could endure.

After all, he was someone who had been tortured by the Infernal Fire Seed for a long time.

However, under such circumstances, the pain brought by the Infernal Fire Seed could not even be compared to one-thousandth of the pain here.

“Why don’t I just... forget about it?”

He was thinking of backing out.

However, if he really wanted to back out, wouldn’t he have wasted his time and energy by rushing all the way here?

“Damn it!”

“This goddamn lava...”

A thought suddenly flashed through his mind, and Xu Xiaoshou froze in the air.

“Oh right, the Abrogated Origin Residence!”

“Everything within the range of my spiritual senses can be moved into the Abrogated Origin Residence. If the spatial ring cannot withstand the power of this magma, the Abrogated Origin Residence will definitely be able to do it.”

“Moving it directly into the primal chaos fog, wouldn’t that be the best of both worlds?”

Xu Xiaoshou immediately slapped his thigh, praising his cleverness.

However, when he used his spiritual sense to touch the magma pool, the intense and unbearable pain in his mind almost caused his eyes to roll back on the spot. He almost fainted and fell into the magma pool.

“Pu!”

A mouthful of golden blood spurted out.

Xu Xiaoshou felt that there was liquid flowing down from his face.

He stretched out his hand to wipe it away, and it was only then did he realize that after the spiritual injury just now, he was bleeding from his seven orifices.

“Good fellow...”

With lingering fear, he vaporized the blood stains.

Xu Xiaoshou didn't dare to act recklessly.

That's right!

His spiritual power didn't have the dual protection of a Master Physique and Raging Giant.

If he were to use his spiritual senses to touch the lava..

What else could it be if he wasn't courting death?

“Perception!”

After two failures, Xu Xiaoshou's stubbornness was aroused.

The energy that spiritual senses couldn't detect might not have the same effect as 'Perception'.

As expected.

When he narrowed the area of perception and headed straight for the depths of the lava pool, Xu Xiaoshou didn't feel any discomfort at all.

“Very good, the passive skill is quite awesome.”

“Let's see how deep it goes first...”

The “Perception” beam swept horizontally, and the surroundings were filled with a vast expanse of white magma.

Xu Xiaoshou did not waste any more effort and directly went deeper into the detection range.

Ten Zhang.

One thousand Zhang.

Three thousand Zhang!

..

After reaching a depth of more than five thousand Zhang, Xu Xiaohu “perceived” the bottom of the magma pool.

He followed the arc at the bottom to find the center.

As expected.

There, a milky-white flame was lying quietly.

“What the F * ck...”

Xu Xiaoshou was in despair.

Five thousand Zhang!

What a joke!

At a height of Five thousand Zhang, it would take him a lot of time just to fly.

Not to mention that he was surrounded by lava attacks.

It was already not bad for him to be able to dive hundreds of Zhang without dying and maintaining his consciousness under the endless painful attacks.

Five thousand Zhang..

“Heck!”

Having failed three times, Xu Xiaoshou was starting to get anxious.

He felt that his wishful thinking wasn’t going on smoothly.

How was he supposed to do this?

Going straight to Purgatory mode, how was he to play!

“Calm down, calm down, there must be a way.”

Xu Xiaoshou forced himself to calm down.

The treasure was right in front of him.

Whether or not he could get it depended not only on his strength, but also on his brain.

“Right, didn’t that big guy come here before?”

“The place where he settled down is here. He must have also found such a treasure.”

“In that case, how did he get it?”

Xu Xiaoshou put himself into the role of the White Skeleton, imagining himself to be a super existence that was over a hundred meters tall, with Sovereign Physique and terrifying white flames.

However, after thinking for a short while, he fell into despair again.

“Nonsense.”

“If that big guy could get his hands on this thing, it wouldn’t be so weak!”

“And that thing...”

Xu Xiaoshou retracted his “Perception”.

If the white skeleton could get the milky-white flame seed, how could it still be lying there quietly?

It’d have already entered the white skeleton’s mouth!

“Damn it...”

“No.”

“I can’t just damn it! There must be another way!”

Xu Xiaoshou, who was encouraging himself, hammered his head and started to think of other ways.

As he recalled all his skills, his eyes suddenly flashed.

“Ascending to the Heavens in A Single Step?”

“Yes, this is also a passive skill. It doesn’t have anything to do with spiritual sense.”

“As long as it’s within the range of my ‘perception’, I’ll be able to reach it in an instant.”

“Right now, the lava pool is unable to burn my ‘perception’ passive skill. In other words, I only need to endure the heat in the instant I retrieve that thing before being transported back...”

“Perfect!”

Xu Xiaoshou almost wanted to applaud his own intelligence.

He put his thoughts into action instantly.

He subconsciously probed his energy reserve.

His energy reserve was almost full.

But suddenly, a sense of crisis struck him.

“No.”

“No...”

“Will the temperature at the bottom of the lava pool, which is five thousand feet deep, be the same as the temperature at the surface?”

Thinking of this, Xu Xiaoshou felt a chill down his spine.

With that flame, it would definitely be different!

The surface temperature of the lava pool was enough to burn a large chunk of the Raging Giant’s flesh.

If he teleported to the bottom of the lava pool to retrieve the item, he would probably be burned to death before he could even reach out his hand.

“Oh my God, that was close.”

Xu Xiaoshou was drenched in cold sweat.

He immediately dismissed such a dangerous plan.

However, after thinking about it, other than this slightly risky plan, he seemed to have no other way to obtain the item below.

“Damn it...”

For the first time, Xu Xiaoshou felt that his brain was a little lacking.

The treasure was clearly right in front of him.

There were clearly pursuers behind him.

He was actually stuck...

“Bang!”

He suddenly hit his head.

Since the logical methods did not work, Xu Xiaoshou simply let his thoughts fly in the wrong direction.

Soon, he thought of a ridiculous idea.

“If I can’t get down, then wouldn’t it be fine if it could come up by itself?”

Like a mental patient, Xu Xiaoshou, who was in mid-air, subconsciously confronted himself in the brainstorm.

“Ha, it’s not conscious. How could it come up for you to get?”

“Ha Ha, it won’t come up by itself, but won’t you think of a way to get it up?”

“A way? That’s easy for you to say. What way do you have?”

“Yeah, what way do I have...”

Xu Xiaoshou muttered with his eyes closed.

He forced himself to continue to let his thoughts wander, trying his best not to halt them.

Soon, he looked at the lava pool below, then looked around at the sealed surroundings. There was only a pit in the lava pool above.

In the end, Xu Xiaoshou’s gaze fixed on the milky-white flame seed at the bottom of the lava pool.

“What a familiar scene...”

“It looks very similar to something...”

“What does it look like?”

Even Xu Xiaoshou did not have any consciousness. At this moment, the Divine Path and Heaven and Earth Path Energy had merged as one completely.

It was as if a thousand years had passed yet it also felt as if it was just an instant.

Suddenly, Xu Xiaoshou’s pupils constricted abruptly, and he was so excited that he cried out loudly.

“That’s right!”

“Refine pills!”

“Isn’t this cave the pill cauldron?”

“Isn’t the hole above the cave the mouth of the Pill Cauldron?”

“And this lava... isn’t it the medicinal liquid?”

“Following this logic, isn’t the thing at bottom of the lava pool the pill that is about to take shape?”

Xu Xiaoshou was enlightened.

He didn’t know why he had such an absurd and somewhat vivid imagination.

But when his thoughts reached this point...

A sentence suddenly floated in his mind.

“And Heaven and Earth are furnaces, and Nature is work; Yin and Yang are charcoals, and all things are copper...”

When the voice of the Great Path appeared in the depths of his mind, Xu Xiaoshou instantly understood why he had such a thought.

At that time, when the skill of “Cooking Expert” appeared, he was brought into an illusion.

In the illusion, the heaven and earth were used as a furnace, creating a scene where everything could be eaten.

However, all along, Xu Xiaoshou’s use of the ‘Cooking Expert’ skill was limited to ‘flame control’. Therefore, he had completely forgotten about it.

The existence of this mastery-type passive skill was used for refining the heaven and earth!

“Goodness! I got it.”

“I got it!”

Xu Xiaoshou mumbled as if he was in a daze.

He looked at the milky-white flame seed below and completely understood.

“Pill refinement.”

This was the only way to summon the underground flame seed.

If he didn’t know how to use the explosion- no, condensing method of infernal heavens, he might not have thought of using the pill refinement method to blast it out.

But with “Cooking Expert” plus unlimited imagination, and that technique originating from Elder Sang’s pill refinement techniques.

Xu Xiaoshou firmly believed that even if he had never tried to use heaven and earth to refine pills, perhaps he would still be able to succeed.

And if he failed...

“That’s simply too good!”

“To refine pills, you have to fail in order to have the risk of the furnace exploding!”

With a swoosh.

Xu Xiaoshou deactivated the Raging Giant and returned to his human form.

With another swoosh, he broke through the Heaven and Earth Great Array and rushed out of the underground cave.

..

“Xu Xiaoshou?”

Mu Zixi turned around in surprise.

She was planting trees all over the place.

Although the quality of the trees was not enough to hurt the white skeleton. But the quantity...

Once the thousands of trees in this place exploded, they would definitely be able to instantly send the big guy flying, giving her the time to call Xu Xiaoshou.

Once Xu Xiaoshou came out, she would not have to be afraid of anything.

But now...

Xu Xiaoshou came out?

“Did you get the treasure?”

Mu Zixi was so excited as if she had gotten the treasure. She jumped to her senior brother’s side.

“I didn’t get it.”

“Why did you come out if I didn’t get it?”

The little girl’s eyes widened.

Then, she looked at the anxious Xu Xiaoshou and suddenly understood something.

Her heart felt warm. She lowered her head and said gently, “You don’t have to worry about me. I can hold on outside. Hurry up and get the treasure.”

“I already have a way to get the treasure.”

“Huh?”

Mu Zixi faintly felt that her senior brother’s condition was not right.

She looked at Xu Xiaojie.

The youth in front of her clearly had extremely calm eyes.

However, she, who was familiar with Xu Xiaoshou's personality, could still see the intense madness in the depths of his eyes!

"Surprised, Passive Points, + 1."

Mu Zixi took two steps back in fear and trepidation, the corners of her lips twitching. "You... what way do you have?"

"Refine pills."

Xu Xiaoshou was calm as he replied.

"Refine pills?"

Mu Zixi's voice rose by several decibels. She was so frightened that her face turned green. "Are you crazy? You want to refine pills here?"

"Yes."

"Do you know how big this place is?" Mu Zixi's small hands pointed at the small cave behind her.

"I know."

"You, you, you..."

The little girl's voice trembled as she was speechless.

Refining pills?

Xu Xiaoshou wanted to refine pills here?

Ptui!

Xu Xiaoshou wanted to create an explosion here?

Before the white skeleton came down, before the hole exploded, you are going to make impulsive action of burying yourself underground?

You didn't have to be so crazy to get me buried together with you...

Why were you planning to seek death?

"I, I, I, I... Do I need to leave first?" Mu Zixi asked timidly.

"Why are you leaving?"

Xu Xiaoshou was no longer able to hide the fervent look in his eyes. He looked back at the entrance of the Karst Cave and clenched his right fist. He said resolutely, "I have confidence!"

"Dong."

Mu Zixi's back knocked against the wall of the pit.

Her legs went soft, and tears welled up in her eyes.

“I’m still young. I’m still so young. I haven’t grown up yet. I don’t want to die yet...”

“Doubted, Passive Points, + 1.”

“Resisted, Passive Points, + 1.”

“Cursed. Passive Points, + 1, + 1, + 1, + 1...”

Just as Xu Xiaojshou pressed his hands into the air and decided to start refining pills, Mu Zixi finally couldn’t bear the anxiety and fear in her mind. She cried out in alarm: “Xu Xiaoshou, I want to leave. Hang on.”

“Where are you going?” Xu Xiaoshou turned around.

“I...”

Mu Zixi glanced at the top.

This explosion was definitely going upwards...

Was her current speed faster than Xu Xiaoshou’s furnace explosion?

Definitely not!

“Oh right, the Abrogated Origin Residence!”

The little girl had a flash of inspiration and thought of something. “Xu Xiaoshou, I want to enter your Abrogated Origin Residence!”

“You don’t trust me?”

Xu Xiaoshou’s eyes darkened.

He could tell that his junior sister didn’t believe in his alchemy skills.

“I’m a Ninth Grade Alchemist!”

He said resolutely.

Mu Zixi’s face turned purple.

Goodness, you Xu Xiaoyou! A Ninth Grade Alchemist, you dare to say that?

Didn’t you also snatch Your Ninth Grade Alchemist badge from my hands!

“Xu Xiaoshou, if you don’t let me enter your Abrogated Origin Residence today, you can forget about refining pills.”

Mu Zixi leaped onto Xu Xiaoshou’s back with a swoosh. Her hands transformed into vines and wrapped around Xu Xiaoyou’s hands. Her feet transformed into wooden thorns and pierced into Xu Xiaoshou’s kidneys.

Xu Xiaoshou:” ...”

“Let go.”

“I won’t!”

“Let go.”

“Impossible!”

“Swoosh!”

Xu Xiaoshou directly placed this clingy being into his Abrogated Origin Residence.

“Don’t trust me...”

“Ha!”

“I’m a Master level ‘Cooking Expert’! I just wanted to blow the flame out of the lava pool. It’s not like I’m going to blow up this place, idiot.”

“You’re making a fuss.”

He finished her words silently.

Xu Xiaoshou finally regained his senses and once again immersed himself in his previous comprehension.

“Heaven and earth are the furnace, nature is the work.”

“The fire seed is the pill, and a furnace explosion can be done!”

Chapter 493: Why Did It Explode?

In the Icy Realm.

“Rumble...”

The ground was shaking.

Everyone knew that this was caused by the giant white skeleton fighting beneath the ground surface.

Although they did not know what kind of existence could actually contend against that towering giant.

But now, facing that dense icy aura, no one thought of retreating.

“Has the Heaven and Earth Great Array been broken? It feels like there’s not much time left. The earthquake is getting stronger. I reckon that the battle over there should be almost over.”

“If we don’t break this Great Array, when that giant white skeleton turns around, everyone will die here!”

In front of the Heaven and Earth Great Array, everyone was anxious like cats on a hot tin roof.

However, under the combined attacks of more than thirty people, the ice barrier in front of them was showing no signs of explosion. Only a few lines cracked on its surface.

“Damn it, why are there so many Heaven and Earth Great Arrays in this broken place?”

“They can’t be broken at all!”

“Where’s Elder Zhao?”

“Did Elder Zhao and the others find a way to break the formation?”

Someone asked.

He turned his head to look at the small circle formed by the few old men.

However, seeing their troubled faces, everyone was disappointed.

From the looks of it, they definitely wouldn’t be able to break the formation.

“There’s no other way...”

Elder Zhao sighed and said with shame, “The time is too short. This old man has no idea what’s going on.”

“Sigh.”

Everyone sighed when they heard that.

They may be disappointed, but they did not show it clearly.

There were no cursing and swearing. Everyone was also very rational.

After all, the Great Path involved in the Heaven and Earth Great Array was on a completely different level from spirit-gathering arrays.

Cracking it in a few short minutes can only occur in dreams...

“If you ask me...”

Someone was tired from bombarding the array. He stopped and rubbed his fists. He looked in another direction enviously.

“I say... the white skeleton didn’t come over even though we made such a big commotion here.”

“On the contrary, it was focused on rushing in that direction.”

“Does that mean that the treasures there are more precious than the ones here?”

“Of course, that’s obvious!” Someone scoffed, “But do you dare to go over?”

“That’s right!”

Immediately, the jeering of the crowd followed.

“The white skeleton is over there. Are you rushing over to die?”

“Even though the treasure is good, you still have to be alive to get it.”

“Yes, yes. I followed those two guys over there just now. There was plenty of fourth or fifth grade Sovereign spiritual herbs all over the ground. Do you dare to believe it?”

“Fourth or fifth grade?” Immediately, someone’s eyes became fiery. “Are you sure you didn’t see wrongly?”

“Of course.”

The person who spoke was amused. “Fourth or fifth grade Aphrodisiac spiritual herbs all over the floor..., can you believe it?”

“If it wasn’t for my good willpower, perhaps at this moment...”

As he spoke, his eyes glanced at the man on the other side.

The other person’s face flushed red and lowered his head silently.

The person who had gone over there just now had a strong Yang and a declining Yin, and there just weren’t enough people to go around.

In the end, there were more than one pair of men hugging each other.

“Aphrodisiac spiritual herbs...”

Those who had never been there before were astonished. “Were they really all over the ground?”

“Yes, just the fragrance of the spiritual herbs alone is enough to make people unable to stop.”

“That’s a fourth grade herb! Won’t you pluck a few before leaving?” Someone did not believe it.

“Pluck?” Those who had been there before immediately laughed. “The white skeleton is right in front of you. Do you dare to move?”

“You haven’t been there. If you were to really face it, with your height...” As he spoke, he gestured to the height of the people nearby and mocked, “If you were to jump, you wouldn’t even be able to hit its toe cap!”

“You!”

“Who are you looking down on?”

“I’m talking about you, Ha...”

“Shut up!”

Seeing that more and more people were about to join the group chat, the leader of the Array Shattering team could not help but scold them angrily.

“At a time like this, if you don’t want to work together to break the Heaven and Earth Great Arrays, what do you want to do? Use up your saliva before you die?”

“...”

Everyone was speechless.

However, once the enthusiasm for shattering the Array was lost, many people calmed down.

“That person also said that the white skeleton is so terrifying. Do we really have to continue?”

“If it comes over...”

“No!”

“There’s no need for that to happen. Just look at the array in front of us, can we really break it?”

Hearing that, everyone turned their heads.

The ice barrier in front of them was also hundreds of feet tall.

And the result of everyone working together was only created a hole that was dozens of feet long and wide.

Not to mention the thickness of the barrier.

But under such a comparison, a hole in the barrier was nothing more than a small brick missing from an entire castle.

This sigh made everyone feel powerless.

“Why don’t we go?”

Someone suggested turning back.

To be honest, the more they cracked at the array, the more panicky they felt.

It was still the same sentence.

Although the treasure was good, they had to be alive to take it!

“Whoosh Whoosh Whoosh...”

At this moment, some air-piercing sounds came from the horizon.

Everyone raised their eyes and looked over. This was also a team of treasure hunters.

The leader was a white-clothed fatty.

And beside him was a white-clothed woman holding a small bronze cauldron.

“Miss Mo, can this array be shattered?”

Rong Dahao wasn’t bothered about the people in front of him at all.

When he heard the commotion from the Great Mist Array, he figured that there were people inside.

He could tell at a glance where the people were gathered.

And now, this group of people who had arrived earlier was trapped by the second Heaven and Earth Great Array.

There were only two explanations.

First, either the person who had broken the array earlier wasn't skilled enough, or he was proficient in one-way spiritual array techniques and had coincidentally broken the pink mist array.

Two, or the Spirit Array Caster was no longer in the team.

"It can."

Mo Mo nodded her head lightly. She didn't even hesitate.

In her eyes, the World Sealing Chains could seal anything.

Let alone this common ice power.

"Da Da Da."

Everyone landed on the ground.

The two teams immediately confronted each other.

Obviously, those who arrived first definitely minded when they saw that there were so many people who also wanted to take a piece of the pie.

They subconsciously blocked in front of the latecomers.

Even if they couldn't break this formation, they didn't want others to get the treasure.

"What do you mean?"

Rong Dahao snickered, "Who's the leader here? Why are your people so unruly? You guys can't break the formation, but we can. Yet you want to stop us? If we really can't enter, everyone will return empty-handed. Who knows, if the battle over there stopped, those who run slower will have to leave behind a few more corpses. Where's your brain!"

These frivolous words directly ignited the anger of those who arrived first.

"Heh, you make it sound so easy. This is the Heaven and Earth Great Array. Earlier, we only managed to break one because Elder Zhao was here. You guys..."

The person who spoke looked around and saw that there were all young people.

"Among you guys, are there any Spirit Array Casters?"

"Are they even at the Innate Stage yet?"

"How dare they talk about shattering the array?"

With this confrontation, the situation was on the verge of exploding.

"Who are you scolding in this roundabout manner!"

"We are..."

Rong Dahao raised a hand, and the people behind him immediately stopped their clamoring.

In comparison, their team, which had a true leader, had much stricter discipline than those random troops.

“Is there anyone whose words hold some weight? Come out.” Rong Dahao said indifferently.

That confidence and calmness directly suppressed the anger of the other side.

“Stop pretending...”

Someone muttered.

No one replied loudly.

After all, this group of people was formed by several teams.

At this moment, the leaders of the previous teams had gone in search of the White Cave.

“Sigh.”

Elder Zhao had no choice but to step forward. “Young man, do you really have a way to break the formation?”

“Just ask your people to move aside.”

Rong Dahao laughed coldly. “There’s not much time. If we continue to argue, everyone will return empty-handed. Just let our Miss Mo, show you a trick.”

Mo Mo frowned.

However, she did not say anything.

“Please.”

Elder Zhao suppressed the team’s urge to start another riot. With a soft word, he looked at the woman holding the small bronze cauldron.

“Move aside.”

The people behind him were rational and cleared the area.

Soon after, a small ice cave that was dozens of feet long and wide appeared in front of Rong Dahao.

“After shattering the Array for so long... this was it?”

Rong Dahao cackled away inwardly.

However, he did not show it.

Otherwise, forget about Mo Mo making a move, a chaotic battle would be inevitable for everyone present.

“Miss Mo, Please.”

“Okay.”

Mo Mo took light steps and arrived at the entrance of the cave. She slowly extended her hand.

“Wait.”

The voice of the Grey Mist Figure suddenly sounded in her mind, “There is an extremely overbearing burning energy. Can you sense it?”

“Hmm?”

Mo Mo held her breath.

She did not sense it at all.

“There’s a Heaven and Earth Great Array at that battle place!”

“Hmm?”

The Grey Mist Figure suddenly exclaimed in surprise, “This power, why does it feel a little familiar...”

“Is there any special situation?”

Mo Mo could not sense the burning energy, which was isolated by the Heaven and Earth Great Array, by Grey Mist Figure at all. She asked, “Why don’t I shatter the array first so that it won’t be troublesome later?”

“Wait a little longer...”

The Grey Mist Figure calmed himself down.

He remembered now.

At that time, at Tianxuan Gate where he had been beaten the most miserably in his entire life. He sensed a similar power from that kid.

But it was not so violent!

So...

Was it a coincidence?

That guy should not be able to grasp such power.

No matter how fast he grew, it was not to such an extent.

Moreover, it wasn’t certain whether he would come or not!

“Don’t shatter the array yet.”

The Grey Mist Figure hesitated. “It seems like it’s about to come out. That power should be caused by the battle...”

“I see.”

He paused for a moment as if he was thinking. After a long while, he said, "Wait a moment. I can sense the aura inside this ice barrier. It's very majestic, but can also be extreme."

"Wait until the battle over there detonates the scorching energy. Then, shatter the array and draw out the extreme ice aura inside."

"When the two are combined, it will definitely blow up the entire place."

"None of these noisy ants will survive. At that time, it will save us a lot of trouble taking the 'Three Days Frozen Calamity'."

Mo Mo was stunned.

Blow up?

All of them will die?

From the corner of her eyes, including her own people, there were around forty to fifty people here.

Just because she wanted to take the treasure, all of them had to die?

"There's no need for that."

She shook her head indifferently. "If they really want to snatch it from me, just seal them all. I can help you get the cold flame without hurting the innocent."

"Are you stupid? If you really want to fight, it's not just a matter of effort. If there's any delay, those involved in the other side might rush over. You might not be able to win."

"Don't I still have you?"

"I..."

Grey Mist Figure was so angry that he was amused. "This is something that can be solved without me doing anything!"

"But I don't like it." Mo Mo chuckled.

Grey Mist Figure fell silent.

This girl was just like that. Always refusing to go with his plans!

Sometimes, he really could not stand it at all.

However, he could not do anything about it. She's the host.

..

"Why aren't you starting? Can you do it or not!"

While the two of them were talking, the people around them were getting impatient.

This woman walked over like she could melt an iceberg, but her hand had been there for a long time.

She didn't shatter the Array.

There was no fluctuation of spiritual source either...

“Are you touching the ice?”

“What are you waiting for!”

“If you really can’t do it, no one will laugh at you. Just come down quickly, and everyone can work together to break the ice, right?”

“What are you acting posh about?...”

Mo Mo’s smile froze. She turned around and glanced at the person who spoke.

That person’s hair stood on end immediately.

Instantly, his voice stopped.

“Can it really work? Seriously...”

“Can you hurry up?”

The people on the other side did not see what occurred. When he heard that there were no more complaints, he immediately followed up.

“If I must say, everyone, let’s continue to work together to attack.”

“You bunch of newcomers, as long as you know the rules, it’ll be fine.”

“Once a treasure appears, Elder Zhao, who broke through the Array previously, will have the first choice. The rest will be divided equally.”

“If we encounter a true treasure...”

“Hehe, whoever obtains it will also have to take out a treasure of the same weight and divide it equally.”

“Yes, yes, did you hear that? The Rules!”

“...”

The crowd shouted, causing Rong Dahao to frown.

He ignored them and took a few steps forward to Mo Mo’s side.

“Miss Mo, did you discover anything new?”

“Nothing.”

Mo Mo silently retracted her gaze.

The use of her spiritual source, a grayish-white mist appeared.

In an instant, the ice barrier collapsed at a visible speed.

“Chi Chi...”

The slight sound of melting ice immediately suppressed the clamor of the crowd.

“This!”

Everyone looked in shock at the ice cave that had been pushed more than ten feet in. They were all dumbstruck.

“What kind of power is this?”

“Melting?”

“Is this a spiritual array technique? Or what...”

The Sealing Power once again displayed its might and left everyone dumbfounded.

Mo Mo pressed her hand on the ice barrier as if nothing had happened as she advanced step by step.

Wherever she passed by, the hard ice that was formed by the Heaven and Earth Great Array, including the spiritual patterns, were turning into ashes and dissipating into the surrounding.

Ten feet.

Thirty feet.

Fifty feet..

“What a good fellow!”

As she advanced, everyone’s eyes were filled with shock.

To think that this ice barrier was so thick!

In that case, the small hole that they had created earlier was just the tip of an iceberg!

If they were to break through the ice at that speed...

It was likely that the white skeleton on the other side would have finished the battle and come over to kill them multiple times. Their progress in breaking through the ice was probably less than half.

The entire place fell silent.

“Chi Chi” sounds could be heard it advanced.

Everyone silently looked at as Mo Mo walked straight in.

Very quickly, her figure disappeared from their sight.

“Keep up, keep up.”

Whoosh.

Everyone reacted and entered one after another.

However, the cave entrance was so small. How could it accommodate forty to fifty people?

“Don’t Squeeze, F * ck, My Foot?”

“Get in line, understand?”

“Do you understand the rule of first come, first served? I’ll go, Don’t Push.”

“Those at the back, get out first. We don’t know what dangers lie ahead...”

“AH—”

“...”

The noise was an eyeopener for Mo Mo.

She suddenly felt that Grey Mist Figure’s suggestion was not bad.

However, no matter how displeased she was, the Sealing Power in her hand did not stop.

She even deliberately widened the surroundings to prevent the anxious fellows behind from starting a fight.

“Wait.”

The voice of the Grey Mist Figure appeared again.

“What?”

Mo Mo’s hand paused as she asked in her heart.

“Above...”

“Wait, don’t look up!”

The Grey Mist Figure suddenly said in panic.

It was too late.

Mo Mo heard it and subconsciously raised her head.

As far as she could see, there was also a layer of ice above her.

However, she immediately saw it through her spiritual perception.

A crack suddenly appeared in the sky.

Then, a man in a red dress walked out from it.

“What’s wrong?”

“Is there a special situation?”

In the ice cave, even though Mo Mo subconsciously lowered her head again, everyone also sensed that something was wrong and looked up at the same time.

“Nothing!”

“Is there anything...”

Everyone was puzzled.

Suddenly.

“No!”

Someone cried out in horror, “Above, in the sky, in the sky! Is this... a stowaway?”

Storyteller held onto his dress.

He had deliberately changed into a new set of clothes, wanting to break through the spatial fragment again.

But he still miscalculated.

If he didn't succeed, despite making it through the 'Nine Death Thunder Calamity', without special treasures to protect him, he still suffered a few cuts on his body.

Before he could change into a new set of clothes...

He saw that in the ice layer below, dozens of people were staring at the bottom of his dress with their eyes wide open.

At this moment, he was also stunned.

The next second, he immediately came back to his senses.

“AH –”

“Perverts!”

“A bunch of perverts!”

Storyteller bent down and closed his legs, immediately covering his private parts with his red dress.

It was only after he did this that he regained his senses.

“How... Can they see me?”

How could this bunch of fellows who were only at Master realm be more alert than the three Red Coats?

The moment he appeared, they turned their gazes over?

“This...”

..

“Run!”

The Grey Mist Figure's slightly flustered voice sounded in Mo Mo's mind.

The next second, he realized that the plan of “running” was completely unrealistic!

There were many people behind him.

If he were to turn around...

Forget about running, it would be difficult for him to take a single step!

“Advance ahead, let’s go into the ice first!”

This time, he really wanted to strangle this lady to death.

He had already said that all that needed to be done was to blow them all up.

Great!

Bodhisattva Heart, huh? Perfect!

You’ve completely blocked our escape route!

Mo Mo immediately realized that something was wrong.

A stowaway was a stowaway. It was not like she had never seen a Sovereign before.

But what kind of person was so strong that even Grey Mist Figure would be in such a panic?

She immediately increased the output of her spiritual source.

The Sealing Power surged.

However, the thickness of the ice barrier was not something that could be broken through in an instant with the sealing powershe had.

“Interesting.”

Storyteller’s eyes lit up.

What did he see?

“Sealing power?”

There was actually a genius who had awakened the sealing power in this small white cave!

Seeing that everyone was still panicking and hesitant about their next step, but only the girl kept forward with her head lowered.

He instantly understood.

Not everyone had noticed him.

It was this girl who was the first to notice the fluctuations in the void.

“What are you all playing at? Wait for me!”

As he spoke, he pinched the corner of his skirt and floated down from the sky.

“F * ck, this guy is coming down.”

This time, everyone panicked.

Stowaway.

Sovereign or stronger!

This was common knowledge, and everyone present knew about it.

But if that was all there was to it, then forget it.

There were many people here, and even a stowaway at the Sovereign level might not choose to silence all of them for the sake of concealing their whereabouts.

After all, it was easy to attract the Red Coats.

The main thing was...

This stowaway was really too scary.

He was clearly a man, but he was wearing a red dress.

Coupled with that sickly soft voice...

The moment he landed, the few men who could not squeeze into the ice cave instantly felt their legs go weak.

"I, I, I..."

"I'm not looking for you guys, get lost."

Storyteller's mind was not on this bunch of ants.

"Sigh, sigh, sigh."

The dozen or so people at the entrance of the cave immediately fled as if they had been granted amnesty.

"Full speed!"

Grey Mist Figure became nervous. He looked at Mo Mo's Sealing Power and suddenly said without care, "Come on, let me do it!"

Mo Mo's entire body tensed up.

"No, you promised me, without my permission..."

"Ugh!"

She suddenly grunted and her entire body began to twitch violently.

In the next second, a terrifying gray mist erupted from her body and completely dissolved the ice layer within the several hundred feet radius.

"Don't hurt anyone..."

Mo Mo's eyes regained a trace of consciousness as she pleaded with all her might.

“Ignorant!”

Grey Mist Figure instantly took over her body and frowned. He ultimately decided not to completely seal everyone to their death here.

“Whoosh!”

The gray mist gathered.

In the next second, his entire body shot forward like a cannonball.

Storyteller’s eyes flashed with excitement.

“Ghost Beast?”

His eyes were wide open, as if he had seen an interesting toy.

“You want to run? Hehe, little guy, come over and let me have a look.”

He made a hand seal.

“Ice Escape!”

His entire body merged into the ice layer, and with a speed that completely surpassed Grey Mist Figure, he whistled through the air above everyone’s heads.

“What the hell...”

Rong Dahao’s mind went blank, and he fell helplessly to the ground.

He looked at the two who were running away and giving chase.

Then, he thought of the gentle-looking Mo Mo from before, and for a moment, his mind was unable to process it.

“Ghost... Ghost Beast Host?”

Rong Dahao was in a daze.

Mo Mo, whom he was so proud of... whom he was determined to conquer, was actually a Ghost Beast Host?

Was this his outstanding investment vision?

He directly tapped on a Ghost Beast’s body?

“I, I and a Ghost Beast host just... walked the entire way?”

Thinking of this, his entire body was drenched in cold sweat.

“Run!”

The crowd cried out in alarm.

Most of the people saw the two fellows who were sprinting at full speed and immediately chose to give up on the treasure.

Even though they didn't know what the situation was like.

But under such circumstances...

Treasure?

What was that!

Was it more important than their lives?

However, a very small portion of people noticed that so much of the ice layer had been dissolved in an instant, and that the two people in front of them completely ignored them...

In addition to Grey Mist Figure's path of advancement, a straight path leading to the treasure was paved...

"Charge!"

Some finally gritted their teeth and chose to live and die for the treasure!

"Buzz —"

They were making the decisions of their life, the ground shook, and a wave of scorching energy suddenly spread out.

In the blink of an eye.

The surrounding ice layer began to turn into water, falling down one drop at a time.

"What's going on?"

Everyone was dumbfounded.

In the ice, they actually felt a terrifying heat rising?

"It's... it's so hot."

"Is there something wrong with this place? Why is it so hot?"

Pu Pu..

"Fire!"

"You're on fire. F * ck, I'm on fire Too!"

"Save me, put out the fire!"

"Water, water element users, quickly come over!"

"AH —"

"..."

Screams and panicky voices filled the air.

“This is...”

Storyteller stopped in surprise.

He suddenly lowered his head.

Where his spiritual senses reached, an indescribable white lava was erupting and breaking out of the ground.

This time, even Storyteller’s scalp went numb.

“Damn, why did it explode?”

Chapter 494: Three Days Frozen Calamity

“Array formation completed!”

At the entrance of the remains of the white bone gates.

Yu Zhiwen looked at the completion of her Divine Array with satisfaction.

Now, when the sub-array sensed the movements of Xu Xiaoshou and Mu Zixi, she could immediately use the main array to teleport them out.

As expected, the battle between Ah Jie and the white skeleton had already reached the underground. There was some successful delay.

She believed that the white skeleton would not be able to reach the underground so quickly.

And this period of time had provided Xu Xiaoshou enough time. She believed that he would definitely be able to create a big commotion.

“Hmm?”

The Divine Energy suddenly relaxed.

Yu Zhiwen keenly sensed that the sub-array had been destroyed.

Her heart immediately jumped.

“This is... the two of them have already reached the location of the sub-array?”

That’s pretty close to the deepest part of the ground.

If the two have already fought to that region, then Xu Xiaoshou was not left with much time.

Yet the next moment, Yu Zhiwen’s spiritual senses detected a burning hot energy, which made her realize that her judgment was wrong!

Buzz

The ground hummed.

It's like a prelude to an eruption.

The destruction of the sub-array was not caused by a fight at all.

On the contrary, this was the result of the eruption of the white magma detected by her spiritual senses.

"What is this thing?"

Yu Zhiwen watched as the energy shot straight up with a violent and uncontrollable explosive force in all directions.

In just a moment, it covered almost half of the central region of the Spirit Fusion Swamp.

"Run!"

Perhaps subconsciously, she was still worried about the safety of Xu Xiaoshou and Mu Zixi, but her rational side told her that if she didn't run now, there would be no chance at all.

She immediately took out the exquisite stone.

Such an explosion of energy was simply not something she could withstand.

If she didn't use the exquisite stone to teleport away, she believed that she would most likely have to leave her life behind.

However, once she teleported away...

What should Xu Xiaoshou do?

She gritted her teeth.

Yu Zhiwen put away the exquisite stone decisively.

At this moment, the power of the Pearl Gem Star Eyes was unleashed to its limit. As her hands flew around, countless afterimages were left behind.

"I can't make it in time..."

Yu Zhiwen was about to tear her lips from biting on them.

However, she couldn't keep up with the explosive speed of the lava.

"As expected, it still doesn't work?"

"I'm still too weak after all..."

She sighed softly.

She flew up into the sky.

Then, she slowly took out a purple spiritual jade pendant.

"Open!"

..

“Boom!”

It was as if the world had turned upside down.

Following that, there was a deafening explosion.

The entire ground broke apart.

Soon after, a stream of white lava gushed out.

In an instant, it shot up to a height of several thousand feet.

The fiery liquid was like flowing graupel.

When it reached the highest point in the sky, it completely turned into an avalanche. It whistled down with endless destructive power.

“Rumble...”

At this moment, forget about the icy realm and the white bone gate.

The entire central area of the spirit fusion swamp completely disintegrated.

The scorching high temperature instantly vaporized the gravel on the ground.

The air distorted due to the endless heat.

And when the magma landed, the ground no longer existed.

The earth disintegrated and melted away.

It was as if the lid of the large steamer on the ground had been lifted. The billowing thick smoke and the air of dust first formed a white airwave that pushed upwards.

Then, when the airwave reached the highest point in the sky, the grayish-black airwave exploded horizontally.

A mushrooming cloud exploded layer by layer, continuously rising upwards.

Crack crack —

Space could no longer withstand this wave of damage.

The moment the crack formed, the high temperature directly evaporated the void.

In an instant, a black hole that was thousands of feet in size appeared completely in the sky.

A terrifying suction force attacked downwards.

Under such a spatial crack, endless space fragments slashed about.

It was as if everything in the world had met its end.

It was clearly supposed to be a scarlet white cave but at this moment, the region of the spirit fusion swamp was completely covered in darkness.

Screams..

Wails..

Amidst countless terrified cries, beams of light from the exquisite stone teleportation arrays flashed past.

No one understood what was happening here.

However, such a heaven and earth phenomenon was simply too astonishing.

Perhaps, if they stayed here, they would really be able to witness the appearance of a peerless treasure.

However, who would dare to do so?

Even Rong Dahao, who came from a Higher Void family, crushed the exquisite stone without hesitation the moment he realized that the situation had completely gone out of control.

Ghost Beast...

Perverted man...

And this doomsday lava that appeared out of nowhere...

Who would dare to stay here! Unless their brains were fried!

..

“Oh my God...”

Storyteller flew high into the sky in shock.

As he looked at the spirit fusion swamp that had completely turned into a black dot on the ground, his eyes were filled with shock.

“Infernal power?”

Such a terrifying white flame was clearly second brother’s ability to completely suppress all the Spiritual Cultivators in the world!

At this moment, even he had no choice but to temporarily avoid the impacts when faced with such a heaven and earth phenomenon.

After all, strictly speaking, he was neither a swordsman nor a Spirit Array Caster.

He was definitely a stable spiritual cultivator.

Any ability required the use of the spiritual source.

Under such high temperatures, even Storyteller who was familiar with the terrifying white flame wouldn’t dare to use his spiritual source to protect himself.

“Chi”

The red dress was burned into ashes in the sky.

Even so, Storyteller didn't dare to act rashly.

He only used the Way of the Heavens to cover his body and didn't dare to do anything else.

Even taking out a brand new dress from his spatial ring felt a little risky.

Using his spiritual sense would be the same as death!

"How could such a terrifying white flame erupt without a sound?"

Storyteller fell into deep thoughts.

He remembered recalled when he met the three Red Coats, before he crossed over to this space.

The Yin Yang Life and Death Trap had given him guidance. The treasures here were clearly just quietly lurking, waiting to be developed.

How could everything change when he arrived?

Not to mention the Ghost Beast.

Perhaps others would think that this lava was a Heaven and Earth phenomenon and that a strange treasure had appeared.

Storyteller would not be so easily deceived.

The Heaven and Earth phenomenon occurs was when the treasure matured and had its own spirituality. Only when it wanted to be born alone would it be punished by the Way of the Heavens.

However, this lava clearly did not fulfill such a prerequisite.

In that case, there was only one possibility left.

"Someone is causing trouble?"

Storyteller raised his eyebrows, his face filled with disbelief.

Who would be so bold as to provoke the white flame beneath the Spirit Fusion Swamp?

Wasn't this courting death?

However...

The lava had erupted, and there was no room for him to doubt it.

However, to say that he completely believed it...

What a joke!

Even if Storyteller went over by himself, it was still uncertain whether he would dare to use his spirit source in front of that white flame.

How did that unknown existence detonate this white flame in such an extreme manner?

"Use your spiritual perception to sense it?"

Although he really wanted to use his spiritual perception to probe at it.

Storyteller still chose to stop after hesitating for a moment.

“I can’t act rashly.”

“Let’s deal with that Ghost Beast First...”

He turned his gaze.

He saw that the Grey Mist Figure’s entire body had already completely penetrated through the ice barrier. He used the ice power within to isolate the high temperature and temporarily avoided a calamity.

“Very smart.”

Storyteller secretly praised him on seeing that how when that guy broke through the ice layer, he used the sealing power to seal the hole behind him as he moved forward.

If the extreme cold power of the icy realm was allowed to collide with this extremely overbearing Infernal aura...

It was estimated that a radius of tens of kilometers would be blasted into dust by the big explosion! Not to mention a mere spirit fusion swamp.

“Whoosh! Whoosh!”

Storyteller’s body rose rapidly. At a height that could almost overlook half of the White Cave World, he could feel the dark lightning tribulation in the sky. He stopped his ascension.

“At this height, the white flames shouldn’t be able to affect me.”

He said as he took out a thick and heavy ancient book.

He flipped through it.

A brand new blank page appeared.

” Heaven Prison, seal.”

The power of the Way of the Heavens surged out.

Storyteller tapped his finger and blood splattered, forming lines.

In the blink of an eye, the blank page was burning with scorching heat.

In the next second, endless lava formed in it.

And underground, in the center of the Spirit Fusion Swamp the white flames that were wreaking havoc in all directions disappeared after Storyteller closed the ancient book.

“It should be enough.”

Storyteller stretched out a little bit of his spiritual source and realized that there was nothing wrong. He immediately used his spiritual sense to cover himself.

The white flame of this intensity could no longer burn him.

He waved his hand and a spatial crack appeared.

He put on his red dress and stepped in. When he reappeared, he was already in front of the ice barrier on the ground.

“White Flame...”

He glanced to the side with lingering fear.

Storyteller couldn't help but use his spiritual sense to look in that direction. However, what followed was intense pain.

“Hiss!”

He covered his chest in pain and bit his finger to let out cold air.

“There's more?”

“There's still White Flames?”

Just now, he used his spiritual sense to look.

In his perception, the remaining white flame energy over there was even more violent and scorching.

He couldn't even see clearly what was going on inside before his perception was forcefully cut off.

“Go over?”

Storyteller wanted to go over and find out.

After all, this power was useless to him, but if he could get it and give it to second brother, it might help him recover from his injuries.

But..

“Ghost Beast!”

“The Ghost Beast with the sealing power is on the other side.”

Storyteller hesitated.

This kind of rare beast level existence was hard to come by in a hundred years.

If he could capture it and work for the 'Saint Servant', then even the Seven Sword Deity or the hall master of Holy Divine Palace might not be able to defeat the Chief.

They were both rare treasures that would be of considerable help to his organization.

One would not move.

The other would move.

And might even flee...

In just a breath's time.

Storyteller made his decision.

"The White Flame can wait. Let's take down the Ghost Beast First!"

With a swoosh.

He turned into a shadow and charged straight inside.

Although the high temperature had dissolved the ice barrier, the Divine Path Energy in this place had not been completely broken.

Storyteller had to expend some energy.

He formed a hand seal.

"Heaven escape, Open!"

..

Underground.

"Hurry up, hurry up..."

Xu Xiaoshou stood on top of the famous sword Flame Python.

The white flame whizzed past his body and split off from the tip of the famous fire-type sword, shooting towards the back.

It was true that this white flame attack was not man-made and could not burn Xu Xiaoshou in the slightest.

However, even if the white flame did not land on his body.

The burning power in his body that he did not have time to exhale had already burned his tendons, bones, and meridians into pieces.

"Sizzle Sizzle Sizzle"

On the surface of his body.

His clothes were torn apart and disintegrated.

Under such a high temperature, his streamlined muscle lines directly withered and eventually turned into ashes that splattered away.

"Attacked, Passive Points + 1."

"Attacked, Passive Points + 1."

"..."

The damage warnings kept coming from the information window.

Even so, Xu Xiaoshou's action of pressing his hands into the air wasn't affected in the slightest.

He was like a sea calming stone that had experienced many vicissitudes of life.

No matter how big the waves were, they were unable to cause him to move.

"Hurry up..."

He urged in his heart.

Looking at the milky white flame seed below being continuously dissolving into white flames, Xu Xiaoshou was anxious.

He had indeed only tried a few times before he successfully used the heaven and earth as a furnace to train this flame seed.

But who could have imagined that just the single step of refining the medicinal liquid would cause the heaven and earth to crack and magma to erupt?

That's right!

The fluctuation in the outside world just now was merely caused by Xu Xiaoshou trying to refine the medicinal liquid.

Speaking of "condensing the pill" ..

Xu Xiaoshou was not even sure if he should continue at this moment.

He felt that.

There was indeed a very high probability that this wave of furnace explosion would blow him to death.

But..

"Riches are sought in danger!"

He clenched his teeth.

He threw all the thoughts of danger to the back of his mind.

Even though he didn't know what was happening in the outside world at the moment.

He also knew that after the eruption of the magma, no one would dare to stay there.

If anyone dared to stay...

They would just be burned to ashes by the white flames.

And once he completed the condensing method of infernal heavens, it would blow up the milky white flame seed underground.

Once he obtained the treasure, he would immediately escape.

Aside from himself, only Heaven and earth would know.

No one else would know the truth about what had happened here and the destruction that had been caused.

“Little Yu...”

“If it’s Little Yu, she should have already left!”

“Ah Jie...”

“Mm, rather than worrying about Ah Jie, I might as well think about myself more!”

Xu Xiaoshou interrupted his wild thoughts.

He held his breath and focused his mind, trying his best to control the endless pool of white flame.

Suddenly, his expression became joyful. He actually saw the white flame start to gather into the flame seed.

“Medicinal liquid is flowing back?”

“That’s great!”

“I’ve finally waited until this step. I believe that after a short while, this thing will completely simmer away its juice and directly condense a pill out of the furnace!”

Xu Xiaoshou was so excited that he clenched his fist.

“Come on, charge!”

..

In the icy land.

“Seal!”

The grayish-white sealing fog turned into a sphere.

Once the realm appeared, the rest of the world was isolated.

Even the Divine Path was blocked outside this realm.

Only then did the Grey Mist Figure regain his composure.

“That was close.”

“Who is that guy?”

“This little white cave, a stowaway, actually has the strength of a peak Cutting Path Level expert?”

“And he’s completely survived the Nine Death Thunder Calamity...”

“I’m completely unable to defeat someone like him at this moment.”

The Grey Mist Figure frowned and lowered his head.

Mo Mo’s strength was too low.

Even if he had an even more powerful trump card due to the limitations by this body, the strength he could display at the moment was only at the ordinary Cutting Path Levels.

This kind of cultivation wasn't even one ten-thousandth of his peak.

Otherwise...

He believed that this hunter and prey's identities would be directly reversed.

He shook his head.

He didn't think much about it.

The sealed realm should be able to withstand the Cutting Path spirit cultivator outside for a short period of time.

Taking advantage of this opportunity, he predicted he would be able to obtain the treasure soon.

"Three Days Frozen Calamity..."

The Grey Mist Figure muttered.

He looked around.

This was a mystic ice realm with a different world.

The lofty snow mountains connected to the distant sky, and the frost fog was dense in the air.

Dozens of ice sculptures of different shapes were running, flying, and standing..

Standing in front of the Grey Mist Figure.

Obviously, someone had broken the array in this place before.

However, after entering this place, they were all frozen to death.

"Hu ~"

He shivered slightly.

The Grey Mist Figure immediately used the power of the seal to isolate the world.

It was the same sentence. With Mo Mo's body, he was restricted in every way.

"Snow Mountain."

His gaze was fixed on the peak of the snow mountain.

If nothing unexpected happened, that should be an extremely cold place.

If the "Three Days Frozen Calamity" had to be born in a certain place.

Presumably, it would only be at the peak of the Snow Mountain.

Boom

At this moment, the realm suddenly rumbled.

The Grey Mist Figure couldn't help but look back.

He knew that the person outside had already started to attack.

"There's not much time..."

With a clap, the Grey Mist Figure pressed his palms together.

He didn't choose to set off directly. Instead, after a soft sound, his entire body exploded with black fog.

"Black Death Mark!"

With a thump.

After the black fog gushed out from his body, it quickly retracted and turned into a black ball of light on the Grey Mist Figure's palms.

"Hang!"

The word fell.

The black ball of light disappeared with a swoosh.

When it reappeared, it was already in the highest sky of this world.

It was like an unremarkable black sun. If one did not intentionally look, one would not be able to detect such an existence.

"Hu Hu hu..."

Snowflakes fell from the sky.

It was as if it had never stopped since ancient times.

But at this moment, with the appearance of this 'Black Death Mark', it seemed to have some new changes.

A few inconspicuous black spots appeared on the big Snowflakes.

When the snowflakes with black spots landed on the ice sculpture, in just a breath, the ten-thousand-year-old firm ice was blown away by the wind, turning into black fragments and drifting away.

"Sizzle sizzle..."

The black-spotted snowflakes landed on the ground.

The thick layer of ice and snow melted and formed small pits.

In an instant, the area within a radius of tens of miles had sunk more than ten feet.

But the snowflakes were endless!

When the sinking speed could not keep up with the falling speed of the black-spotted snowflakes.

The height of the ground was once again piled up by the layers of snow until it was completely restored to its original height.

The Grey Mist Figure laughed.

There did not seem to be any changes in this place, but if outsiders entered, even if it was a Cutting Path expert, they would be directly sealed by the 'Black Silk Mark' until they died!

"It's enough to make you suffer."

He laughed softly.

The Grey Mist Figure flew towards the peak of the snowy mountain.

..

"Hu hu ~"

He had barely used his Sealing Power to block the high temperature attack of the white magma, and in the blink of an eye, he had entered such an extremely cold state.

To be honest, even Grey Mist Figure could not completely adapt to it for a while.

But the Sealing Power could seal anything.

Even the white flame that was enough to burn his spiritual source could be directly sealed and dissipated.

Such a severe cold, but it was something that could be overcome with just a few shivers.

"Cluck Cluck Cluck..."

The Grey Mist Figure's teeth were chattering, but he jumped from the foot of the mountain to the waist of the mountain without any form, and finally reached the top.

"Pop -"

It was as if he had broken through some bottleneck.

With just a leap, a thick layer of ice suddenly formed all over his body.

"Crack crack -"

In the next second, the gray mist aura became even more majestic.

"Bang!"

The ice layer that had trapped him cracked open and then exploded.

The Grey Mist Figure looked at the ice shards in silence.

When he reached the summit, the temperature here was so low that he had to use all his strength to isolate it in order to barely maintain his mobility.

And this layer of ice, which should have been broken down into ice by the power of the seal.

It's not gone.

It just cracked and exploded.

This means that the energy density of this layer of ice is so high that even Sealing Power cannot directly eliminate it within a certain time.

"Is this the power of the Three Days Frozen Calamity?"

A fervent look appeared in the eyes of Grey Mist Figure.

He swept his gaze across the room, looked up quickly, and his eyes were immediately drawn to it.

He saw the shadow of a towering tree hanging upside down in the sky above his head.

An ice-blue flame that was like a snow lotus dancing in the wind was extremely beautiful!

"With the low temperature of the ice element, you are the first to plant a seed in the sky tree and descend into the form of Heaven Fire."

The Grey Mist Figure couldn't help but exclaim in admiration.

Even in the past, when he was at his peak, he had never possessed such a treasure.

Now, with his help... As long as Mo Mo swallowed this 'Three Days Frozen Calamity', her strength would definitely rise by several levels. Perhaps, she might even be able to reach peak of the Master realm or even break through to the Sovereign level.

This way, he would be able to unleash his own strength to a greater extent.

By then...

The Grey Mist Figure pondered for a moment before turning his head around.

The sealed realm was still shrinking and resisting the attack.

The intensity of the attacks from the person outside was increasing.

However, spiritual cultivators were meant to be killed by him..

"When I swallow the Three Days Frozen Calamity, you will die!"

The Grey Mist Figure sneered and flew up.

He stretched out his hand and touched the ice-blue cold flame.

"Roar —"

At this moment.

A furious roar came from the belly of the snow mountain, shaking the mountains and earth. An avalanche descended.

"Eh?"

The Grey Mist Figure narrowed his eyes and continued advancing without being moved. He was about to remove the 'Three Days Frozen Calamity' in one swoop.

However, he suddenly felt a chill on his back, causing him to give up on this idea and dodge to the side.

"Boom!"

As expected.

An icy-blue light beam shot out from the belly of the snow mountain.

The void directly exploded.

The Grey Mist Figure's entire body was sent flying.

In the next second, he focused his eyes on the hole pierced by the beam of light and saw an incomparably tall figure whizzing out.

"White skeleton?"

In front of him was a huge fellow that was over 300 feet tall and was emitting icy blue fog.

If it wasn't the white bone giant, who else could it be?

"You are the guardian of this place?"

The Grey Mist Figure laughed softly and slowly shook his head. "You are too weak. You can't withstand a single blow."

He slowly raised his hand.

The several hundred meters tall ice-blue white skeleton, which was supposed to move very slowly, quickly formed seals at a speed that was completely beyond the comprehension of the world.

"Buzz!"

A Upanishad spirit array was formed in the seal.

"Buzz, Buzz, Buzz..."

Three!

Five!

Ten Power Upanishad spirit arrays were formed!

The Grey Mist Figure was shocked.

With the speed of forming seals in ten formations in a blink of an eye, perhaps no one in this world could match up to it!

"Ho!"

The white skeleton's expression was very serious.

It didn't give the Grey Mist Figure any time to react. At the moment when the ten Upanishad spirit Arrays were formed.

It clasped its palms together.

The ten Arrays became one!

"Hum —"

Right at this moment, the Three Days Frozen Calamity that was quietly by the side trembled.

A chill that seemed to be able to freeze one's soul suddenly bloomed.

"This is..."

The Grey Mist Figure couldn't believe it and said in shock, "You little white skeleton can actually control the power of the Three Days Frozen Calamity?"

Crack

There was no reply.

The instant the icy blue aura swept through this world, the Grey Mist Figure's hand froze in midair and instantly became an ice sculpture.

Even his consciousness was stunned for half a second.

The Sealing Power surged on its own.

When he came back to his senses.

The cracking sound became louder.

The Grey Mist Figure suddenly broke through the ice layer and wanted to counterattack, but his entire body froze.

He raised his eyes in a daze and looked at the cobweb-covered sealed realm. His pupils constricted.

"The realm.... cracked?"

Chapter 495: Wine Does Not Boost One's Courage, But to Kill

The Eastern Region was also known as the Holy Sword Land.

Within the Holy Sword Land, there were 108 realms.

One realm encompassed three different types of counties and cities.

The Eastern Sky Realm was one of the more famous of the 108 realms in the Eastern Region.

With Dongtianwang City at its center.

Although it was named after a city, its size was almost the size of a county.

Dongtianwang City had all the teleportation spiritual array leading to the 36 upper counties of the Eastern Sky Realm.

But currently, no teleportation portals were leading to the middle and lower counties like the Tiansang Prefecture.

Therefore, if the people in the central region wanted to go to the White Cave, they had to use teleportation portals in the other realms until they reached Dongtianwang City.

Then, they had to use a teleportation portal in Dongtianwang City until they reached the Azure Dragon Prefecture, the upper-grade county closest to the White Cave.

After that, they had to fly to reach their destination.

...

Azure Dragon Prefecture.

Azure Dragon City.

In a wine shop located deep in the alley.

A withered old man wearing a straw hat sat alone in front of a square table.

One cup after another.

Before the waiter could warm up the wine, he had already downed it.

“Sir, this is already the thirteenth pot. Do you need to rest for a while...”

Seeing that the last pot of wine was finished warming up, the waiter could not help but remind him.

He put down the wine pot, stood up, and stretched. He then tilted his neck, and immediately, the bones in his neck cracked.

Only God knew that he had maintained such a warm wine position for a long time.

Even sitting down was starting to make him very uncomfortable.

That old man with the straw hat had been drinking until now!

“That’s the most famous strong liquor in Azure Dragon Prefecture, the Azure Dragon Drink!”

The waiter was speechless.

When other people came over to drink, they would usually order half a jug.

When two or three cups entered the stomach, even a person with a good alcohol tolerance would be unable to endure it.

This old man...

13 jugs!

“Sir?”

Seeing that the old man in front of him was still silent, the waiter could not help but call out again.

“Serve the wine.”

The old man wearing the straw hat knocked on the table with his finger. He raised his eyes slightly and glanced at him.

The waiter immediately lowered his gaze.

These big dark circles...

Such a terrifying appearance...

If it were not for the fact that he did not look easy to provoke...

He might have already kicked him out.

“I don’t even know if he had enough to pay for the wine.”

“The Azure Dragon Drink is extremely expensive!”

The waiter bent down again and sat down on a stool to heat up some wine. He couldn’t describe the bitterness in his heart.

Today was a large-scale festival in Azure Dragon Prefecture...

Actually, it wasn’t really a festival.

However, there had long been news that the group of White-clothed people from the central region who wanted to rush to the White Cave would arrive in the afternoon.

It was rumored that there was a team led by one of the Seven Sword Deities, Moonless Sword Deity.

A Sword Deity!

In the Holy Sword Land of the Eastern Region, that was a god-like existence with a supreme status.

Since the news was spread the day before yesterday, the teleportation portal had been completely surrounded.

Even if the guards of Azure Dragon City tried their best to evacuate the crowd.

It was still useless.

Sword Deity!

One of the living Seven Sword Deities!

Which swordsman or spiritual cultivator in the Eastern Region didn’t want to take a look?

Even the boss set off two days ago to feast his eyes on it.

He was left alone and had no one to rely on. He still had to guard this wine shop that no one patronized.

But today was very strange.

In this run-down street and alley, this small wine shop that was only patronized by regular customers had received such a strange customer at noon.

“Thirteen jugs of Azure Dragon Drink...”

The waiter sighed.

If this customer couldn't pay for the wine.

Then his job would be gone.

Perhaps losing his job wouldn't be that serious.

If his boss discovered that he had wasted thirteen jugs of good wine, even his life would be at stake.

“Knock Knock.”

The knocking on the table was urging him again.

The waiter's mind went cold, and he did not dare to let his imagination run wild.

“Hey hey, Sir, don't be anxious. It's almost done.”

“This 'Azure Dragon Drink' must be boiled properly for it to be fragrant. It wouldn't be as good if it's warm!”

The waiter replied, but he was secretly cursing him in his heart.

“Drink to death!”

“When the Azure Dragon Drink is completely boiled, the aftershocks of the strong liquor will immediately come up.”

“Usually, if a guy who drinks three cups of the Azure Dragon Drink that is completely boiled, won't he immediately kneel down after drinking half a cup?”

“Tuk tuk tuk.”

There was another wave of urging voices.

This time, the waiter heard it clearly.

This sound didn't seem to come from the old man's square table?

He looked back and saw that there was only one guest in the shabby wine shop.

Unexpectedly, another person had appeared.

That person was right next to the old man's square table.

Pulling a stool, he sat across from him through a small passageway.

“Another person came?”

The waiter was depressed.

On this day, there would be someone who chose to patronize this shabby wine shop that didn't even have a name, and not to see the true appearance of the Seven Sword Deities?

"Sir, how can I help you?"

The waiter didn't dare to be negligent. He looked at the man with unkempt hair and asked loudly.

"Once the wine is served, serve a few plates of cooked beef."

A hoarse voice that sounded like it had been sawed by a saw rang out.

The waiter had goosebumps all over his body.

This voice...

This person...

Holy crap!

All kinds of weirdos came today!

He wanted to bet on the uncle's face.

However, the messy hair on his head, which looked like it had not been washed for years, completely blocked the waiter's line of sight.

He looked down and saw a sack beside the scruffy-looking man's feet.

"What's in it?"

"Such a big sack, but it didn't even make a sound when he entered..."

The waiter's thoughts ran wild.

After a long while, he finally regained his senses and asked, "Sir, you haven't ordered any wine yet."

"Not me, but him"

The scruffy-looking man turned around and extended his hand, pointing at the old man in the straw hat.

This time, the waiter was completely stunned.

Four fingers?

He keenly noticed that the scruffy-looking man's thumb was completely shaved flat.

When one of his index fingers pointed out and looked over, it would be difficult for him not to be attracted.

He quickly retracted his gaze.

The waiter knew that Azure Dragon Prefecture had many capable people.

These people with physical defects might have been truly arrogant when they were young.

If they stared at other people's physical defects without manners, their own people might be killed, and the boss would send the bodies out as if nothing had happened.

"His... his wine?"

The waiter stuttered and said in a daze, "I don't think this is a good idea..."

"There's nothing bad about it. He drank too much."

The scruffy-looking man smiled and flipped his hair, revealing his firm jawline.

The waiter was in a daze again.

"What a big scar..."

An ugly scar that almost covered half of the man's neck was hanging there.

Just by looking at it, it was not hard to imagine how tenacious this person's vitality was.

After experiencing such an injury that could completely cut off his entire neck, he was actually able to recover and left a scar behind...

"This is the money for the wine."

The scruffy-looking man threw a bag of spirit coins, interrupting the waiter's thoughts. "Pay attention to your eyes."

"Ahhh..."

"Yes, yes, yes."

The waiter hurriedly took the money bag and immediately lowered his head. "Okay, okay."

Darn it.

As expected, he had been discovered.

Such keen senses...

These two people should be spiritual cultivators. He didn't know if they were the legendary Innate experts...

The waiter was absent-minded and didn't even know that the wine was boiling.

"The wine is boiling. Put it out."

"Serve the beef."

A reminder came from behind his head.

The waiter quivered and immediately put out the fire. He ran to the kitchen without looking back, ready to slaughter the fat cow.

Darn it.

What's going on today? Why are you always absent-minded!

If the boss finds out about this, won't he be fired?

The Seven Sword Deity...

Yes, the Seven Sword Deity must be coming. I'm always distracted at work!

...

"Who are you?"

Elder Sang raised his head. His slightly tipsy cheekbones were raised high, and his deep eyes were narrowed as he stared at the uninvited guest in front of him.

Broken fingers...

Scars...

And that extremely hoarse voice...

If it wasn't for the fact that he recognized his face, he might have mistaken him for someone else.

It was very obvious that this scruffy-looking man had deliberately come looking for him.

His target was himself.

"It doesn't matter who I am."

The scruffy-looking man smiled and said, "What matters is that you might do something stupid when you're drunk."

Elder Sang couldn't help but laugh. "Stupid?"

"Yes."

"Such as?"

"Such as..." the scruffy-looking man dragged out his voice. "Such as the possibility that you might choose to assassinate Gou Wuyue."

Clang —

The sound of a porcelain bowl falling to the ground could be heard from the kitchen.

Following that, the waiter's panicked voice could be heard.

"Sigh, the soundproof effect of this shabby wine shop is really good. Once the curtain is closed, nothing can be heard!"

"Creak, Creak, Creak —"

The shabby curtain was stuck twice in the middle, revealing the waiter's buttocks.

He was hiding inside and was pulling at it with all his strength.

Suddenly, with a crash, the curtain broke.

“Ta-ta-ta...”

The button of the curtain fell to the ground, and the waiter’s silly and cute head appeared.

Elder Sang and the scruffy-looking man looked over in response, and their eyes met.

The scene was deathly silent.

“Hehe.”

“Heh, Sir...”

“Sir, please wait a moment, I’ll fix the curtain...”

The waiter felt that his little heart was about to jump out.

His right eyelid was twitching wildly.

It echoed with the thumping sound of his heartbeat.

He wiped his face and conveniently pressed his eyelid down.

Then, he bent down and picked up the curtain, wanting to paste it back on.

After realizing that he was not tall enough, he tiptoed and finally hung the door curtain back up.

But!

The button fell off.

Without a button, if he wanted to prevent the door curtain from falling off again, he had to hold it up like this.

But if he held it up like this, wouldn’t he be able to hear the conversation?

The waiter cried out in his heart.

Who the heck were these people!

Why couldn’t these spiritual cultivators speak through telepathic communication, but you have to let an ordinary person like me hear it?

Gou Wuyue...

Gou Wuyue, isn’t he the legendary Moonless Sword Deity?

Do you think I’m deaf?

This kind of “assassination of the Moonless Sword Deity” comment.

If you want to talk, don’t you know how to block outsiders?

Darn it!

With 100,000 divine beasts running through his mind, the waiter was on the verge of breaking down.

But if he had to lower the curtain and face the two people outside that looked like they could kill him on the spot...

“I can’t do it –”

“Sob, sob, sob, Boss, save me...”

“Come back quickly!”

...

Elder Sang calmly withdrew his gaze from the black shadow behind the curtain that was reflected by the sunlight and glanced at the scruffy-looking man.

“You’re humorous.”

“Oh?” The man raised an eyebrow and nodded. “Thank you.”

“What sort of person is Moonless Sword Deity? What right do I have to assassinate him?” Elder Sang raised his wine cup.

“Yes, you don’t have the qualifications.”

The scruffy-looking man agreed, “That’s why I think you’re drunk.”

Elder Sang’s wine cup was already at his lips, but when he heard this, his entire face sank.

“You look very much like a friend of mine.”

He gently put down his wine cup.

With a “dong”, the dust on the table and floor of the wine shop shook.

It floated in the air.

It landed on the ground.

“Hu!”

An unknown wind blew and rolled open the door curtain, revealing the waiter’s feet that were tiptoeing.

Then, the two saw the waiter raise his feet in a panic and desperately push against the hem of the door curtain like he was stepping on a cockroach.

The air seemed to be warming up.

The waiter felt hot sweat and cold sweat on his forehead.

Suddenly, he heard a burbling sound.

It was the sound of the “Azure Dragon Drink” boiling.

“That’s not right!”

The waiter panicked. "I clearly put out the fire just now. Could it be that I remembered wrongly?"

Wiping away his sweat, tears, and snot, the waiter wanted to cover his ears, but he realized that his hands were not enough.

"Mother, why did you give me two hands and then left..."

"It's not enough at all!"

He cried.

He really cried.

He sobbed silently behind the curtain.

...

"Friend?"

The scruffy-looking man glanced at the wine pot that had suddenly boiled.

His eyes sank, and the boiling water instantly quieted down.

"Maybe you're mistaken. I'm not like anyone. In this world, I am who I am."

He waved his hand and curled his palm.

The wine cup on Elder Sang's table was in his hand.

After doing all this, the scruffy-looking man raised his eyes and looked at the old man opposite him.

The light in his turbid eyes was overbearing.

"You are not old, but you have a big mouth."

Elder Sang sneered and also looked up. After sizing up the man, his gaze was fixed on the sack beside his feet.

He couldn't even see what was inside!

"I suggest that you go for a face-lift and amputate your leg, or else..."

Calmly withdrawing his gaze, Elder Sang cast his gaze on the man's face and teased, "Otherwise, with your appearance, you'll be easily hacked to death on the road."

"Thank you for your concern, Senior."

The scruffy-looking man nodded in gratitude. He held the wine glass and carefully studied it. "There's something I don't understand very well. Could you please give me some advice?"

He knew that the other party was not a kind person and would not respond to him at all.

Therefore, before he could reply, he continued to ask,

"Sometimes, why do people choose to get drunk?"

“It’s clearly a way to numb themselves. It burns the throat and hurts the body. It’s easy to dream after drinking it, and you can’t even hold the sword properly after swallowing it...”

“Wine, should such a thing exist in this world?”

“Return it to me if you are not drinking it.” Elder Sang knocked on the table.

“Oh, that’s right...”

The scruffy-looking man seemed to have remembered something and said in realization, “There’s another saying, wine strengthens the courage of the people!”

“Is it because of this reason that all the powerful people in this world need to drink a cup before they hesitate about whether they can kill someone?”

He raised his head with a smile.

Elder Sang’s finger was fixed on the table.

He suddenly slapped it.

With a bang, the chopsticks holder on the table flew up.

“Chi.”

There was no other movement, only a disdainful snort. Suddenly, a chopstick flew out from the chopstick holder and shot toward the scruffy-looking man.

“Impressive.”

The scruffy-looking man praised and raised his eyebrows in response.

Suddenly, the chopstick exploded with endless sword energy and turned in the air, reflecting at Elder Sang.

“Trash sword intent.”

Elder Sang pressed down on his straw hat, and the temperature of the air suddenly rose.

In the next second, the chopstick holder that had just landed on the table exploded, and the all chopsticks inside flew up.

More than ten phantoms instantly ignited white flames and shot out.

“Bang!”

The chopsticks that had flown over by themselves could not withstand such an attack at all. When they met in the void, they were directly cut open from the center. Not even ashes were left behind, and they were burned in the void on the spot.

“Chi Chi Chi...”

Blood splattered.

The scruffy-looking man put down the wine cup in his hand in pain.

He lowered his head and looked at the more than ten wooden chopsticks in front of his chest that were burning with white flames and had already sunk in half.

He rolled up his hand and wrapped the white flames around them.

With a slash of his sword finger, he sent the scorching energy into the void fragment river.

Then, he gritted his teeth and pulled out the chopsticks one by one. He said weakly, "Senior is amazing. You've taught me the principle of being outnumbered in an instant."

Elder Sang looked at him and fell silent.

Outnumbered...

What was this guy doing here?

"What's your name?"

He asked again.

"I told you, my name isn't important. What's important is that you're drunk."

The scruffy-looking man carefully put the bloody wooden chopsticks back into the chopsticks holder. He stood up and thought for a while, then put down another spirit coin and said sincerely, "I've settled the bill for you. Leave. There's no need to give up your life."

"Interesting. You're very interesting."

Elder Sang smiled. "You know the principle of being outnumbered. You still have tools under your feet. Why don't you use them?"

As he spoke, he looked down and gestured to the sack beside him.

"It's not that I don't want to use them. There's no need to."

The scruffy-looking man pulled up the sack. Immediately, the sound of metal clanging could be heard from inside.

He stopped in front of Elder Sang's table and sighed, "I can't beat him. I know what I'm capable of, so there's no need for me to fight."

"If you don't try, how do you know you can't beat him?"

Elder Sang sneered, "Where's the hot blood of a young man? Where did it go? In this regard, you're not even as good as my disciple."

"Young..."

The scruffy-looking man let out a low groan, then raised his four fingers and said, "Some people look young, but their bodies are already crippled."

"Similarly..."

He paused for a moment, then stared deeply at the old man in front of him and said, "Some people look healthy, but I'm not sure if they are strong on the outside but weak on the inside."

"Hahaha!"

Elder Sang laughed loudly. "Only weak birds would hesitate and cower before their prey; a true beast would only choose to press forward!"

"Are you determined to die?"

The scruffy-looking man asked in confusion, "Isn't that the act of a stupid beast?"

"You're thinking too much."

Elder Sang also slammed the table and got up. He was about to say something when he suddenly stopped. He turned his head to look at the sky outside the window.

In the sky, a spiritual array light beam shot up into the sky.

In the blink of an eye, the airflow spread through the clouds, as if a God had descended.

"Hum –"

On the ten-mile long street, the sword cries in unison.

The curtain of the wine shop suddenly shook.

Even the waiter knew at this moment.

According to the legend, Gou Wuyue, one of the Seven Sword Deities who could only obtain the title, had already arrived at Azure Dragon City.

"It's time for me to leave."

Elder Sang patted the scruffy-looking man's shoulder. "You're young and promising, so do more meaningful things. So..."

He sized up the person in front of him, shook his head, and said with a smile, "No matter how much you look like in this attire, it won't be a 'Yes'!"

"I told you, I've never been 'alike'. I am 'Yes'!"

The scruffy-looking man glared at him coldly, as if he was angry.

"Okay."

"You are 'Yes'. Continue to be 'yes'. I won't argue with you anymore. See you in the future."

Elder Sang walked past him and walked out of the door.

The scruffy-looking man clenched his fists. "You can't go out!"

"The world is big. It's just a wine shop, and it's not a prison. Why can't I go out?"

Elder Sang laughed loudly.

With every step he took, his aura rose sharply.

By the time he reached the door, the shabby wine shop was already swaying, as if it was about to collapse completely.

The waiter, who was hiding behind the curtain, had already stiffened.

He had listened to the entire conversation.

Even if he did not understand it sometimes, it did not affect the words of the scruffy-looking man in front of him.

At this moment.

The Seven Sword Deity Gou Wuyue had arrived.

This old man chooses to leave.

What did he want?

The answer was self-evident!

“Oh my God, Boss, do you know who came to your run-down wine shop?”

“They... no, he, he actually wanted to kill Moonless Sword Deity?”

“This, this, this, this fellow, I just want a job to make a living. Do I have to go so far? They won’t silence me, right?”

“Chi!”

While his thoughts were running wild, the door curtain was suddenly cut off with a “chi” sound.

The waiter was completely stunned.

He looked at the door curtain that was completely hanging on the ground and should have been able to cover his lower body.

After realizing that a stream of sword energy had passed, his act of covering his ears and stealing the bell was already useless.

The waiter hesitantly lowered the door curtain and saw a scene that he would never forget for the rest of his life.

In the dilapidated wine shop, tables and chairs were floating in the air. bowls and chopsticks were scattered in all directions. All of them were floating in the air, bursting with endless white sword energy.

The target of these objects was the old man wearing the straw hat, who had already arrived at the door.

“Chi!”

The scruffy-looking man chopped down with his fingers. The pots and pans floating in the air suddenly chopped towards the back of the straw hat old man.

“Be careful!”

The waiter screamed in his heart.

If someone died in the wine shop, not to mention himself, even the boss might not be able to escape the law enforcement of the Azure Dragon City's City Guards.

He wanted to save him.

But he was powerless.

The waiter fell to the ground.

...

"Your so-called outnumbered enemy is ultimately too late..."

Elder Sang turned around silently and slowly lifted the straw hat in the dark environment of the wine shop.

A cold light bloomed in his deep eye sockets, followed by a white flame burning.

"Pfft."

A soft sound was heard as the sword intent whistled.

When this sound appeared, everything that was lifted by the sword intent crashed to the ground with a loud bang.

In front of the blood-colored clothes on the scruffy-looking man's chest, the white flame suddenly flared up and covered his entire body in an instant.

"This is..."

The man was shocked.

He had clearly swept away all the white flame just now.

How could this thing be reignited?

He had not used even half of his spiritual source!

"Sword intent?"

Soon, his pupils constricted as he completely understood something.

What the white flame was burning was not his spiritual source or his physical body... It was sword intent!

"Don't you understand?"

Elder Sang laughed and shook his head. "Since you came to stop me, why didn't you find out about my ability?"

"The Infernal Heavenly Flames burns everything!"

As he spoke, he pressed the straw hat down and covered more than half of his face.

The white flame that was burning all over the scruffy-looking man's body also surged into his body and completely seeped into his internal organs.

"Wu!"

The man grunted, and blood flowed out of his seven orifices.

He was already aware of the damage caused by the white flames and was on guard against it.

However, he still fell for it.

Not only that, the white flame that could burn everything into ashes had actually entered his body. It only blocked his spiritual sources, Way of the Heavens, and even his control of the sword intent.

The rest did not harm his body at all!

"This fellow's control over the flame has actually reached such an exquisite level..."

The scruffy-looking man resisted desperately.

He wanted to move.

But with a move of his hand, his tendons, bones, and meridians were burned off and then reconnected.

When the sword intent wanted to move, the white flame latched onto the sword intent and burned it into nothingness.

The Way of the Heavens' energy movement wanted to move...

But the energy movement could not get any closer to the white flame!

He knew that the white flame had already entered his body, but the scruffy-looking man realized that he couldn't sense the Way of the Heavens' energy movement within a radius of several dozen feet.

"Just by the temperature alone, it evaporated everything?"

"Darn it..."

Ta.

Elder Sang retracted his gaze and stepped out of the door.

The warm afternoon sun shone down, leaving a long silhouette on the broken wall of the tavern.

"Burp!"

After burping, Elder Sang seemed to remember something.

He turned around and looked at the man who was curled up on the ground, twitching non-stop. He said, "By the way, I don't seem to have answered your question about 'wine'..."

After a pause, Elder Sang sighed softly.

"Wine is not used to boost one's courage. It's actually a killing sword."

“In this regard, you can’t even imitate half of his essence.”

“After all, he’s already started drinking.”

Chapter 496: Song of Ice and Fire

White Cave.

Spirit Fusion Swamp.

Outside the frozen realm.

The Storyteller clenched his fists and hammered the sealed bounded domain, but he was completely stunned.

“The bounded domain... cracked?”

He couldn’t believe it.

The Sealing Power was extraordinary.

Even though he could see that the ghost beast’s strength hadn’t been fully developed yet.

However, just the Sealing Power of an ordinary Cutting Path was enough to completely restrain him, a spiritual cultivator who had yet to master the Power of the Higher Void!

Therefore.

No matter how much stronger the attack was.

The only thing he could bring to this bounded domain was an even greater shake.

But now...

He had yet to send out the ultimate move of the Yin Yang Life and Death Trap.

How did this thing split apart on its own?

“That’s not right!”

Sensing that his surroundings seemed to have returned to normal temperature, the Storyteller keenly sensed that something was amiss.

Logically speaking, even if this icy realm was isolated by the Heaven and Earth Great Array.

He was standing so close to it from the outside.

He could also feel the cold air seeping out from within.

However, under the impact of this punch...

The cold temperature inside had unknowingly retracted back?

“Perhaps, it’s not receding...”

The Storyteller's mind wandered and he immediately turned around.

He turned his head in shock and extended his spiritual senses to the back.

As expected.

The further away he was from the icy realm, the higher the temperature.

This meant that the low temperature had not receded, but had been neutralized by the high temperature to normal temperature!

"This is..."

"The white lava over there is about to explode again?"

"That's not right!"

The Storyteller looked back, not daring to believe it.

However, looking at the cracks on the sealed bounded domain that were expanding, his mind buzzed, and he understood everything.

"Could it be..."

"The Heaven and Earth Great Array in this icy realm and also in that hot area has been broken?"

"So, under the collision of the two forces, it caused an intermittent calm?"

"But, if this is the case..."

"Then, how can this little incarnation of mine be able to resist the undulations that are about to explode?"

Having understood this point, the Storyteller could no longer care about the small matter in front of him.

With a snort, he tore open a spatial crack.

But on second thought.

If these two powers exploded, the space would definitely be unstable!

Earlier, white lava had blasted out that black hole.

Now that the two powers had appeared together if he still hid in the spatial fragment, wouldn't he be waiting for death?

But staying here...

"This avatar isn't able to withstand it at all!"

Pinching the orchid finger, the Storyteller panicked and shot upwards.

If two waves of such extreme energy were to explode, it would be enough to fight against a Cutting Path.

The grey mist figure had already hidden in the icy realm. Perhaps he could borrow the ice energy inside to fight against it.

He had to stay in the center of this storm.

If he did not escape.

Wouldn't that be waiting for death?

"Brother, save me –"

...

"Condensing method of infernal heavens!"

Outside the underground cave, Xu Xiaoshou felt the white lava had completely retracted back into the milky white fire seed. His entire face was filled with excitement.

Following a loud shout, he used the ultimate move that he had cultivated for more than a month.

The condensing method of infernal heavens!

"Come out!"

Both of his hands pressed against the void. Xu Xiaoshou was in a state of madness.

He used all the energy in his body to mobilize the Heaven and Earth Oven, gathering all of his energy into the fire seed in the deepest part of the underground.

"Buzz –"

The earth was shaking.

Waves of grayish-black gas formed on the fire seed.

Xu Xiaoshou was stunned by the burnt smell.

"Why is there a smell of destruction?"

"Another accident?"

"It can't be..."

In the entire conducting alchemy process, he only had thirty-two accidents.

However, this fire seed was very tenacious and there was basically no risk of the pill exploding.

Therefore, Xu Xiaoshou had also let go of his hands and feet and was completely fighting with all his might.

Right now, the presence of the grayish-black aura that did not belong to the milky-white flame seed...

How did it appear was his 33rd question?

"Who cares, I'll try to bounce it!"

Xu Xiaoshou clasped his hands together as if he was holding a pan that could carry mountains and rivers. He gritted his teeth and exerted all his strength, wanting to bounce the fire seed out like a pill.

But...

Until his muscles were about to burst.

Blood vessels were bursting out from his eyes.

In this space, other than the even denser grayish-black aura, there was no other movement.

“My cultivation level isn’t enough?”

Xu Xiaoshou knew that this was probably the reason.

If he had stepped into the Master Stage and had a stronger understanding of the Way of the Heavens, he would be able to move this space.

Since his cultivation level was unable to do it...

Then he would use his reckless strength to do so!

“Rise —”

A voice squeezed out from between his teeth. Xu Xiaoshou, whose entire body was covered in blood, suddenly emitted a golden light.

“Exploding Posture!”

That golden light bloomed and his will manifested physically. It actually condensed into a huge pan in the air.

Xu Xiaoshou went crazy.

He felt that his bones were about to crack, but he was still unable to lift the ladle.

But if he didn’t lift the ladle, how could this thing fly out?

One had to know that a cave that had been refined by the Heaven and Earth Oven for such a long time was equivalent to the inside of an infinitely magnified version of the alchemy cauldron.

The temperature was so high that even Xu Xiaoshou felt as if he would melt if he were to even come close.

He wasn’t allowed to enter at all!

Moreover.

As a ninth-grade Elixir Master, Xu Xiaoshou had his own dignity.

He could only have succeeded in blowing the pill out of the furnace.

He did not say that the pill had been successfully made and that he had entered the cauldron alone, using his life to obtain the pill.

“Give it to me, come out!”

The bones cracked, but the void remained unmoved.

Xu Xiaoshou could not hold it in any longer.

However, he could not use the “Berserk Giant”. After all, he was still in the state of conducting alchemy.

If he lost consciousness for a moment, even if it was only for an instant, there was a high chance that all his previous efforts would be in vain.

The fire seed was too strong.

Even if there were many accidents in the process of conducting alchemy, the Heaven and Earth Oven would not be able to explode with the aid of the flow of its own energy.

But at the moment, there was no other way.

The level of the condensing method of infernal heavens technique was too low. It only condensed a few unknown grayish-black aura, and the pill could not bounce out at all.

And if an Elixir Master were to encounter such an extreme situation...

Xu Xiaoshou did not know what other people did.

However, if his pill was to be stuck in the alchemy cauldron...

The only way to save it was to break the cauldron!

“You’re not coming out, right?”

Xu Xiaoshou muttered and suddenly roared.

“I’ll blow you up!”

With that said.

He separated his hands and raised them horizontally into the air.

In the next second, the “Exploding Posture” that had never released all its energy was activated at full force for the first time.

The golden light pan dissipated.

It turned into energy beads.

But this was not enough.

Xu Xiaoshou felt that it was not enough.

This fire seed was so strong, how could these dozens of energy beads be enough?

He swallowed a handful of pills and crazily activated his spiritual source.

The number of golden energy beads increased, and one by one, they condensed in the air.

The space began to distort.

The underground shook even more.

The grayish-black aura with scorch marks and the golden energy beads interweaved in the air and began to merge into one.

“What the hell...”

Xu Xiaoshou realized that something was wrong.

He felt the power in the energy bead being magnified by more than ten times in an instant and realized that the mist condensed from the milky white fire seed was perhaps not ordinary at all.

But so what?

If the furnace exploded, then it would be completely blown up. It would be solved once and for all, leaving no future trouble behind.

“Condense!”

The energy bead multiplied in the air.

The speed was extremely fast.

One hundred...

Three hundred...

Five hundred...

It was only when the fire seed began to become unstable as if there was going to be another white flame flowing out of it.

Only then did Xu Xiaoshou realize that there was not enough time.

If this white flame flowed out...

Then wouldn't the time spent on reclaiming the juice be wasted?

Although it had not reached the goal of over a thousand in his heart yet...

But looking at the strength of about 600 to 700 energy beads, Xu Xiaoshou felt that it should be enough.

“Very good...”

“Explode!”

He pressed his hands together.

In an instant, the energy beads were pressed into the underground cave, which was also the Heaven and Earth Oven.

“Chi Chi!”

The terrifying high temperature instantly vaporized a large number of energy beads and twisted them.

Xu Xiaoshou's expression changed.

He realized that he couldn't control this thing at all!

"I can't suppress it?"

He watched as the hundreds of energy beads that had completely lost contact melted under the high temperature.

Golden and grayish-black energy mixed together.

In the oven, less than half of the energy beads sank, and a terrifying tremor reverberated from underground.

"Rumble..."

Xu Xiaoshou's legs went soft.

In his "Perception", this thing had not exploded yet, but the ground within a radius of several thousand feet had instantly turned into dust?

That rumble was the result of the Earth's collapse!

"Holy crap..."

"This, this, this!"

Xu Xiaoshou knew that his energy bead would not have such a terrifying effect.

Then...

"That grayish-black aura, what is it?"

He did not dare to think about it anymore.

The underground cave began to shake.

It was extremely similar to the stubborn resistance of the small bathtub under the condensing method of infernal heavens when he was conducting alchemy.

This was the prelude to the explosion of the furnace!

"Run!"

Xu Xiaoshou did not say anything and ran up familiarly.

The path he came from was completely blocked. He pulled out the Flame Python and used the sword energy to open a path.

"Rumble..."

The underground tremors became even more frenzied.

It was as if a sleeping giant had suddenly been struck by lightning from the Nine Heavens Thunder Calamity. It was in a manner that was close to convulsing!

Hearing that this was just the prelude to the explosion and the sound that was close to breaking his eardrums, Xu Xiaoshou was even more flustered.

He knew that he might have crossed the line a little.

But at this moment, other than fleeing for his life in advance, there was no other way!

“Whoosh!”

The speed of light shot up.

But even with the famed sword, the underground conditions still restricted his movements.

“No, I can’t run away...”

“Aje!”

Xu Xiaoshou called out, but he couldn’t sense Aje’s aura at all.

That fellow couldn’t possibly run away.

But at this moment, he reckoned that it would be difficult to find him even if he relied on luck.

It was completely equivalent to losing contact!

Xu Xiaoshou turned around to take a look.

At this moment.

The cave was completely enveloped by a grayish-black aura.

The destructive and majestic energy within was extremely terrifying.

With just a glance, Xu Xiaoshou felt his scalp go numb.

“Darn it, why is it so exaggerated? It’s just a small fire seed...”

Xu Xiaoshou took out his Yuan Mansion.

He wanted to hide inside.

But could his Yuan Mansion withstand it?

Yes, it could!

But space might not be able to withstand it...

“Once it explodes, and I enter my Yuan Mansion and come out, what I’ll face will definitely not be the underground, but spatial fragments...”

Xu Xiaoshou’s body trembled.

“Don’t panic, it hasn’t exploded yet...”

He held his Yuan Mansion and flew upwards.

“Aje –”

“Aje, save me –”

He needed Aje.

He needed the protection of this person with a powerful physical body.

He needed it to use its warm palm to hold onto the life-saving stone of his Yuan Mansion, preventing it from falling into the spatial fragments stream when space was about to shatter.

“Whoosh!”

While he was frantically fleeing for his life, a ray of golden light actually flew over from his “Perception”.

Xu Xiaoshou was stunned.

This little monk who was running in the opposite direction from him was here to give his life?

“Amitabha.”

Bu Le rushed in front of Xu Xiaoshou. It was his first time seeing someone, and he was so excited that the corners of his mouth were wide open.

He had entered the Spirit Fusion Swamp and followed the current to explore the icy realm.

But there was no aura of the person he was looking for in that place.

Faintly, the scent of the “Empty Hell Magic Staff” was in another direction.

Following his intuition, he sneaked into the underground.

He did not expect that there was someone underground!

“Amitabha.”

He immediately pressed his palms together and asked excitedly, “Benefactor, have you ever seen such a female benefactor of this height...”

“Ah, my foot!”

Xu Xiaoshou was so angry that he was amused.

“Look at the situation. Why are you here to throw your life away?”

“Who are you?!”

Xu Xiaoshou grabbed the slippery head of this fellow and lifted him, pulling him toward the ground.

“Darn!”

With his head grabbed, the Monk Bu Le felt that his skull was about to explode.

He immediately used his spiritual source to protect his body. Only then did he realize that he had misspoken.

“No, no, benefactor, you grabbed my head... uh, my head... oh, let go!”

“How could I let go of your head!”

Xu Xiaoshou did not even turn his head. “Take a look at the situation down there yourself.”

Bu Le was stunned.

He used his spiritual sense to look down.

Even though the ground blocked his Perception.

But that dangerous aura that he had been worried about seemed to be coming from the same direction as the “Empty Hell Magic Staff.” Was it really coming from here?

“The person I’m looking for is here. Let go... hmm?”

Monk Bu Le struggled and realized that he was unable to resist this person’s grasp that wasn’t using any strength.

He was shocked.

A Master Physique!

This was actually a rare Master Physique that even he had not cultivated?

If he wanted to use the “Power of Will” to bounce off, it would be an easy matter.

However, Monk Bu Le could tell that this young man did not have any malicious intent.

Therefore, he could not choose to harm others.

“The person you’re looking for!”

Xu Xiaoshou asked, “Along the way, did you see a big fellow and a little fellow?”

“Yes.”

“If you didn’t, then shut...”

“Yes?”

Xu Xiaoshou asked casually. He did not expect the little monk to see them before?

“Where are they?”

Holding his head, Xu Xiaoshou pulled him up and asked.

“They are, in that direction...”

Monk Bu Le pursed his lips and pointed to the upper side. He said hesitantly, “Can you let go of my head first? You can hold my... hand and fly.”

Xu Xiaoshou didn't say anything and directly rushed over.

"Buddha is merciful."

"Cursed, Passive Points, +1."

...

"Dong."

It was like the sound of a heartbeat.

After the underground fire seed had absorbed enough grayish-black energy, it finally completed a tremor that Xu Xiaoshou had never seen before throughout the entire conducting alchemy process.

Following this tremor, the ground became even more violent.

"Rumble –"

Suddenly, the fire seed jumped again.

Following that, it seemed to have awakened its spiritual quality.

All the grayish-black aura in the Heaven and Earth Oven was directly swallowed into the fire seed's stomach.

At the same time, a loud boom sounded from the nine heavens.

Following closely behind, a beam of light shot down from the sky and directly suppressed the fire seed, as if it wanted to suppress it.

"Bang!"

The moment it came into contact with the beam of light, the fire seed finally could not hold it in anymore.

Having completely absorbed enough energy, it seemed to have ignited its power flame.

Following a soft sound, it directly broke through the layer's seal and shot straight up.

The moment the fire seed moved, the ground along the way could not withstand it anymore.

The "Rumble" sound disappeared, followed by the sound of space shattering.

"Boom Boom Boom –"

Xu Xiaoshou was flying.

He saw a huge black hole being pulled out of the ground just like that.

He was completely dumbfounded.

However, when he saw that the fire seed was also being pulled out by the light beam.

He couldn't help it anymore.

“It didn’t explode?”

The underground didn’t explode and only created a black hole. It was an outcome that he had never expected.

In that case...

“I’ll follow it!”

He grabbed the little monk’s head and immediately hung him from a distance. While recovering his spiritual source, he leaped forward.

...

“Roar —”

When he passed through the middle layer of the underground, Xu Xiaoshou was completely unable to keep up with the speed of the fire seed.

At this moment, he heard an angry roar by his ear, causing him to look sideways.

“White Skeleton?”

That big guy was pressed down by the ground with Aje on top of his body.

If it wasn’t the White Skeleton, who else could it be?

“Roar Roar Roar!”

The White Skeleton went berserk.

The moment it saw Xu Xiaoshou, its aggro value was already full.

When it saw that this guy actually came out with the supreme treasure that it had been dreaming of, it completely understood.

That treasure that it couldn’t even get its hand on...

Was dug out by this ant?

“Ma Ma...”

Aje muttered softly.

Xu Xiaoshou waved his hand. “Quick, follow me. Take me to fly. Don’t let it run away.”

With a swoosh.

Aje appeared beside him in a flash. When he saw Xu Xiaoshou grab the little monk’s head and fly away, a look of contemplation appeared in his eyes.

Xu Xiaoshou panicked.

“Darn, I’m not talking about this flying...”

Bang!

His head hurt.

Xu Xiaoshou instantly felt the sound of sand and wind rushing into his face.

“Pfft”

“Wu Wu Wu!”

“Aje... Wu!”

The little monk looked up silently from below. When he saw that the guy who grabbed him had suffered the same fate, he finally closed his eyes with a smile.

At the same time.

The White Skeleton, which had lost its suppression, exploded with white flames.

With a furious roar, it stomped on the ground and shot upward.

“Roar, Roar, Roar...”

...

“Heaven and Earth phenomenon?”

The Storyteller flew higher and higher.

The higher he flew, the more he felt that something was wrong.

Suddenly, the high temperature that was about to explode disappeared.

In the next second, this punishment beam shot out from the sky.

If he hadn't dodged it quickly.

This beam of light might have directly covered his body.

“If it's a Heaven and Earth phenomenon, what's going to come out from underground?”

“Look at this movement...”

The Storyteller glanced in another direction.

Once the sealed bounded domain cracked, it seemed to be unable to hold on.

Even if there was a moment for the temperature to recover.

But once that fire-type supreme treasure appeared, another eruption of energy would occur.

What bounded domain!

Wouldn't it be destroyed in an instant?

“But what if this thing retracts the energy and doesn't erupt?”

The Storyteller hesitated.

If his guess wasn't wrong, the treasure that existed in the icy realm was the Three Days Frozen Calamity.

Then the one with such a high temperature must be the fire-type supreme treasure that was helpful to the Second Brother's injuries.

"If I can withstand this wave of energy attacks that might not even exist, I can take this thing and deal with the sealed ghost beast..."

The Storyteller's raised foot paused.

In the end, he chose to stand by the side of the light beam and observe the changes.

...

"Bang Bang Bang!"

On the peak of the Snowy Mountain, the grey mist figure covered his head and scurried away under the endless attacks of the sky frost ice blades.

He was going crazy.

This ice-blue White Skeleton that could borrow some of the power of the Three Days Frozen Calamity was simply a forbidden spell-level ice-type spiritual cultivator.

The endless cold terrain created by the Snow Mountain gave it an inexhaustible source of energy.

Under the flying ice blades that cut down the snow mountain by one layer, the grey mist figure was completely stunned.

Even his sealing aura couldn't keep up with this rhythm.

"This thing must be crazy!"

He originally wanted to create some distance between them to stabilize the seal before the bounded domain cracked open so that the perverted man in the red dress wouldn't break-in.

But the moment he created some distance between them, the grey mist figure realized that he was wrong.

And he was extremely wrong!

This Ice Blue White Skeleton didn't give him any room to breathe.

Forget about resisting.

He could not even repair the crack in his bounded domain now.

If he did not use all his strength to resist.

With the power of the "Three Days Frozen Calamity" in the ice blade, the grey mist figure indicated that he might not even be able to use his spiritual source.

"I miscalculated..."

The seal could indeed break the frost.

But on the other hand, if the quality and quantity of the frost energy were top-notch, it could completely freeze this seal attribute that had not yet recovered to its peak!

“Don’t force me!”

The grey mist figure had nowhere to retreat. He dodged and roared furiously.

He could feel that the spiritual intelligence of this Ice Blue White Skeleton was not high at all.

This was because the “Black Death Mark” had already carved many patterns on its body, and it had yet to discover it.

Once it detonated, this fellow would die without a doubt.

But!

This was a backup plan left behind by that perverted man in the red dress.

He only had one chance to make a move.

If he gave it to this big guy now, the bounded domain would crack and that guy would enter.

Then he would not be able to escape!

“Run!”

Glancing longingly at the ice-blue flower-shaped cold flame of the “Three Days Frozen Calamity”, the grey mist figure chose to temporarily retreat.

However, he had yet to escape from the Ice Mountain.

Between Heaven and earth, there was suddenly a disturbance.

This disturbance did not have anything to do with the icy realm and it seemed to be transmitted from outside?

“What’s going on...”

This time, it was not only the grey mist figure who was stunned.

Even the Ice Blue White Skeleton that was continuously casting seemed to have been interrupted.

It turned its head to look.

However, it saw that in the void, the sealed bounded domain that covered the sky shattered after a “crack” sound.

The grey mist figure’s pupils contracted.

The bounded domain cracked and he saw the outside world!

“This is...”

...

“Whoosh!”

The milky white fire seed broke through the surface of the ground and pulled out a black hole in the void, shooting toward the sky.

“Sizzle sizzle sizzle...”

Under the crimson light, when the fire seed appeared, the ground instantly dried up and cracked.

Everything was dead silent.

There was no sign of life.

The air bloomed with high temperatures.

Even the Storyteller above the nine heavens felt as if his entire body was about to melt.

But seeing this thing shooting at his face, he was stunned and did not dare to use even half of his spiritual source.

The Storyteller turned his head in panic.

The mentality of being lucky was indeed not desirable!

On the other side, it was exactly the same as what he had imagined. It was also an extreme opposite situation.

When the sealed bounded domain cracked open.

When the high temperature destroyed the Heaven and Earth Great Array of the icy realm.

Snowflakes flew everywhere.

The earth froze.

Frost rose everywhere.

The ice-blue crystal was like ink, spreading out along the Spirit Fusion Swamp.

On the other side...

“Run!”

The Storyteller and the grey mist figure turned around and ran at the same time.

They saw that at the moment when the ice crystals met the dry ground, a wall of mist instantly appeared.

The wall was so thin that it was only a finger wide.

But its height and length...

If one looked at the Spirit Fusion Swamp from a bird's eye view, one would be able to notice it.

At the moment when the extreme ice and fire clashed, the world changed.

Blue and red mist energy instantly filled the entire Spirit Fusion Swamp.

The wall of mist energy was expanding...

Expanding again!

Suddenly expanding!

...

"Whoosh!"

Xu Xiaoshou could clearly hear the sound of him breaking out of the ground.

But halfway through the sound, he felt as if he had lost his hearing intermittently, and the world became incomparably quiet.

Time seemed to have slowed down.

He wiped away the soil.

He saw Yu Zhiwen coming out from the Sky Screen.

Yu Zhiwen's red lips opened and closed, and her expression was very anxious. She kept crossing and separating her arms...

She seemed to be saying something.

But he couldn't hear it at all...

He focused his gaze back.

A woman in a red dress? A man?

He was in the sky, clutching the hem of his dress as he ran for his life...

"Who is this?"

"Perception" turned cold, and Xu Xiaoshou turned his head.

He saw an Ice Blue White Skeleton on an iceberg in the distance, staring in his direction in a daze.

And behind him, vaguely...

"The grey mist figure?"

Xu Xiaoshou's pupils constricted.

He suddenly realized something.

"Mo Mo is here?"

“Also, the grey mist figure has come out. What level of battle is happening on the ground?”

“What’s the situation now?”

Xu Xiaoshou was panicking. He looked at this world that was completely different from before.

“Even the grey mist figure wants to escape in a panic...”

“Song of Ice and fire...”

“Vacuum...”

This...

Xu Xiaoshou’s pupils suddenly constricted. He thought of something and shouted in a panic,

“Get down!”

But he knew that Yu Zhiwen couldn’t hear him at all, so he could only throw away the head that was in his hand.

With a pounce, he pounced on the girl who was still waiting here foolishly.

His vision suddenly turned black.

He couldn’t see anything at such a short distance.

In his sight, only the cluster blades in the spatial fragments remained!

This meant that the entire Spirit Fusion Swamp...

Was gone!

As expected.

In the next breath, half a second of the hearing was restored.

“Rumble!”

Chapter 497: The Kind Benefactor Xu Xiaoshou

“Boom!”

An intense rumbling sound came from afar, causing the entire White Cave small world to shake slightly.

“What happened?”

The group of Red Coats led by Lan Ling and the group of Spirit Array Casters behind her couldn’t help but stop in their tracks and look in the direction of the explosion.

“Oh my God, is... is the sky collapsing?”

Everyone in the group was instantly shocked.

Even though they were very far away, they could still see the huge black hole hanging in the sky.

“The White Cave Small World should be very stable. How can something like the ‘Sky Trap’ happen for no reason?”

“It’s over, it’s over. If it truly is a ‘Sky Trap’, isn’t this the prelude to the collapse of the extradimensional small world?”

“How long have we been here? How could something like this happen?”

“I want to go out...”

“...”

All the Spirit Array Casters were scared out of their wits.

A Sky Trap was not a small matter.

Perhaps not only the Spirit Array Casters in this small world would be trapped.

Even the Red Coat cultivators above the Sovereign Stage might not be able to escape safely.

“Quiet!”

The bald Xin rubbed his head and shouted behind him. He immediately turned around.

“Sister Lan Ling, this matter...”

Everyone turned around in unison and looked at the woman leading the group.

This matter had come out of nowhere.

Even the Red Coat cultivators were stunned by the explosion from far away.

Sky Trap?

That might be possible.

However, the Red Coats had investigated before. White Cave was one of the extradimensional spaces with a mid-grade rating and above. As long as the “Fourth Sword” did not appear, there was basically no risk of it collapsing.

But now...

“It might not be a Sky Trap.”

Lan Ling stroked the black hair on her forehead and said with a frown, “Fourth Sword is in the direction we are heading. The Thirty-Six Heavens Sealed Array has not been activated yet. The White Cave can’t collapse at this point.”

“Then...” Xin hesitated. “What’s with this explosion?”

“What do you think?”

Lan Ling looked over and Xin suddenly understood.

“You mean that someone is fighting?”

“But the power of this explosion...”

Xin was a little skeptical. “It’s impossible for the self-detonation of a Sovereign to have such power. Could it be that a Cutting Path level stowaway has entered?”

Cutting Path!

What kind of level was that!

If that level of existence had entered, what was the point of destroying somewhere so far away if it wasn’t even near the Fourth Sword?

“We can’t rule out Cutting Path...”

Lan Ling let out a low groan, looked up, and calmly gave an order:

“Immediately inform the Night Guardian who hasn’t returned to the team to go over and take a look. If it’s a Cutting Path, there can’t be only one. It should be a fight between the two sides that caused the explosion.”

“Such an existence should know the rules and wouldn’t make a big fuss in the Small World.”

“Otherwise, even if the Thirty-Six Heavens Sealed Array hasn’t been unsealed, White Cave might be destroyed by the power of the Cutting Path in advance.”

“The greater possibility is that something unexpected happened.”

“But we can’t rule out the possibility that the situation will often develop in the most severe direction.”

“So...”

“So?” Xin continued, “So if it’s two people, the Night Guardian won’t be able to handle it, right? Do you want me to go over and help?”

Looking at his bald head, and a slight desire appeared in his eyes.

“You?”

Lan Ling sneered.

How could she not know that this guy was already a little tired of rushing around with his hands and feet tied? He wanted to stretch his limbs.

“Don’t even think about leaving my side!”

Xin’s face instantly drooped.

Lan Ling paused for a moment before continuing, “How about this, let the Night Guardian go first and we will wait for an opportunity.”

“If it’s one person, expel him on the spot. If there are more than two Cutting Paths...”

“Contact us first, then we’ll decide based on the situation.”

“Also...”

Lan Ling turned her head and looked into the distance.

She vaguely sensed that something was wrong.

If it was a battle between Cutting Paths, they would have to sneak in first.

Then, what were those people outside doing?

“Where’s Heiming?”

She looked at Xin and asked firmly, “Are the people outside keeping in contact at all times?”

Xin was stunned.

“I’m not responsible for the communication. I’ll go and ask...”

“No need to ask,” Lan Ling interrupted, “Inform outside immediately. If they don’t respond in time, it means that something has happened outside.”

“In that case...”

Her eyes darkened as she realized that the situation might have become very bad.

“Push forward at full speed immediately!”

Looking back at the front, Lan Ling clenched her fists. “As long as we are near the ‘Thirty-Six Heavens Sealed Array’, let alone one Cutting Path, even if ten of us come, we won’t be afraid!”

“Don’t leave.”

Lan Ling looked back and stared straight at the bald man in front of her. “Protect me until we reach the great array.”

Xin was stunned.

He immediately realized that the situation was very serious.

“Okay.”

He braced himself and did not dare to hesitate. “Communicator, who is in charge? Quickly send a message to the outside.”

“Yes.”

A Red Coat person behind him immediately spoke and began to connect with the other members of the communication team to open the special communication spiritual array.

“One more thing.”

Xin turned his head and hesitated for a moment before saying, “Lu Ke is not back yet...”

Lan Ling glanced at the team behind her and nodded.

“We can’t take care of him. We can’t wait any longer.”

She shouted, “Push forward at full speed!”

...

“Buzz, Buzz, Buzz –”

The earth was shaking, and the void was shaking.

The power of the explosion of the Spirit Fusion Swamp was too strong.

The White Cave Small World had originally prohibited the war above the Sovereign Stage.

The reason was that they were afraid that the war that touched the Way of the Heavens would accelerate the process of the Small World’s collapse.

Because everyone knew that.

The White Cave’s “Source of the World” had already been lost during the last opening.

As long as this thing didn’t return.

The collapse of the Small World was only a matter of time.

“Chief, that aura...”

From an unknown place, two figures stepped forward.

Cen Qiaofu, who was walking at the back, retracted his gaze. His eyes were filled with bewilderment.

He could actually smell a very familiar power from the center of the explosion.

However, when he turned to look at the Masked Man, there were no ripples in his turbid gaze. There were no fluctuations at all.

“It’s not him.”

The Masked Man shook his head slightly and could not help but laugh. “That fellow’s path is different from mine... I reckon that if he hasn’t thought things through, he won’t come back.”

“Naturally, he won’t come to the White Cave.”

“Sigh.”

Cen Qiaofu sighed, and suddenly he had a reminiscing expression.

Among the “Saint Servants,” there weren’t many people who dared to live with him as a peer.

Even the Storyteller was too young.

He only dared to say a few words to disgust him.

Therefore, once that guy left, no one could sit down and play chess with him in peace.

And...

Looking at the Chief, Cen Qiaofu felt even more helpless.

If he kept playing chess with that fellow, he wouldn't be able to find the joy of playing chess at all!

It's getting more and more boring these days...

"What a pity."

Cen Qiaofu shook his head. "If that fellow could come back, he wouldn't have been so passive last time..."

He seemed to have thought of something, and his tone suddenly became a little angry.

"Also, it's fine if he left, but he still made a move to stop him..."

"Sigh."

The Masked Man stretched out his hand and stopped Cen Qiaofu from continuing.

"There's no need to say such words."

He turned around and said with a smile, "After all, didn't that fellow send those two little things back in the end?"

"He can't leave the Saint Servants."

The Masked Man said with certainty.

His gaze focused and became extremely profound.

"They have different beliefs, but they have the same direction. It's only a matter of time before they come back."

Charge, charge, charge!

While they were talking, several strange lights suddenly shot up into the sky from all over White Cave. Both of them turned around.

"Heaven and Earth phenomenon."

Cen Qiaofu was slightly absent-minded.

"It seems that this explosion has caused some of the treasures that were nurtured underground in the White Cave to explode."

"This time, I'm afraid that these people will become even more chaotic."

A smile appeared on Cen Qiaofu's face.

"It's better to be chaotic."

The Masked Man nodded. "The more chaotic it is, the busier the Red Coats will be and this will increase our chances."

"Yes, then we..."

“Continue.”

The Masked Man reached out his hand hidden in the black glove and pointed at the distant void. “I can only sense that direction from afar. If it’s a crack, I’ll have to rely on your spiritual senses to find it.”

He paused for a moment, spread out his hand, and smiled.

“I’m crippled. Now, I don’t even have any spiritual senses.”

Cen Qiaofu couldn’t help but laugh and shake his head.

Acquired cultivation level.

If even his Yuan Mansion was closed, then his spiritual senses would surely be sealed again.

“Don’t worry, I can see it.”

After saying this, Cen Qiaofu’s gaze withdrew from the void rift in the extreme distance that faintly contained a calling fluctuation.

He turned his head and looked to the other side.

That was the direction of the Red Coat team.

“So, what about ‘Fourth Sword’?”

A trace of ridicule appeared in his eyes. “You really don’t want them?”

The Masked Man was stunned.

“The Fourth Sword...”

He fell silent.

After a long while, he slowly raised his eyes.

“We’ll see how it goes. Let’s go to the crack on Abyss Island first. As for the Fourth Sword...”

“Fate.”

He paused for a moment.

“It’s also possible that fate doesn’t exist.”

...

Yuan Mansion.

“Pu!”

Xu Xiaoshou spat out a mouthful of blood.

He raised his head.

Above him were the spiritual herbs and supreme treasures that were dug out from the third layer of Spirit Fusion Swamp.

Because there were no land resources, he could only temporarily let these treasures and soil float in midair.

The pink spiritual herbs fragrance had already spread throughout the entire Yuan Mansion space at this moment.

Xu Xiaoshou frowned and looked at the unconscious Yu Zhiwen in his arms.

With a wave of his hand, he isolated the spiritual herbs above him from the space below.

This Yuan Mansion Small World was his.

To isolate the space, it was just a thought.

“Take good care of her.”

“I might need to go out for a while.”

He placed Yu Zhiwen in front of Mu Zixi. Xu Xiaoshou reminded, but there was no response.

“What are you daydreaming about?”

He patted the little girl’s head but found that she was still staring straight behind him.

“What’s wrong?”

When he turned around, the little monk with nine ring scars on his head was also staring at Mu Zixi in the same manner.

“You two know each other?”

Xu Xiaoshou was puzzled.

These two guys actually knew each other?

Was it because of their height?

He still remembered the moment when the explosion occurred. Not only did he pull Yu Zhiwen into his Yuan Mansion, but he also dragged the little monk behind him, whom he had met once, into it as well.

Xu Xiaoshou also did not want to expose his Yuan Mansion.

However, if he were to face this little life that was not even an adult directly and die under his Pill Condensation Art, he would still mind.

But at this moment...

“Demoness, so this is where you are hiding!”

Monk Bu Le stood up angrily.

Yu Zhiwen could not withstand the explosion and fainted on the spot, but it did not mean that her “Power of Will” could not withstand it.

It was the same as Xu Xiaoshou’s.

Even Monk Bu Le was only injured by the heat energy at the initial stage of the explosion.

But after entering the Yuan Mansion, it wasn't just his "Power of Will" that recovered.

The surging vitality breath in this place allowed him to recover his fighting strength almost instantly.

"Xu Xiaoshou, why did you bring this guy in?"

Mu Zixi snapped back to her senses and pouted. "He wants to kill me!"

"Oh?"

Xu Xiaoshou raised his eyebrows and turned his head. "Why is that?"

"Benefactor, this has nothing to do with you."

He could clearly distinguish right from wrong.

Under the explosion that he might not be able to withstand, Xu Xiaoshou had pulled him into this life-saving space.

The moment he entered, he could sense the magical power of this space.

To be able to expose this space to outsiders, he wasn't afraid that he would have the evil thought of snatching the treasure.

Monk Bu Le naturally had a sense of admiration for the person in front of him.

But things were different.

This girl stole his "Empty Hell Magic Staff" and the devilish energy on her body. She was an anomaly that Monk Bu Le had to eliminate.

"This female benefactor has interacted with me before. She's sick and stole from me. I have to purify her." Monk Bu Le put his palms together.

"You are the one who is sick!"

Mu Zixi was furious. "You can't beat me. The staff is your defeated item. I just got the reward that the winner should get. What's wrong with that?"

Bu Le was stunned and suddenly came back to his senses.

"It's not like that, witch. You're wrong."

"I didn't lose to you. I lost to the devilish energy of the 'Empty Hell Magic Staff'. This has nothing to do with your eyes."

"Also."

He paused for a moment and said, "You can't beat me. The person who can fight me is another person!"

Monk Bu Le turned his head.

He glanced a few times and realized that Aje wasn't there.

“He didn’t come in. Is he dead?”

Monk Bu Le’s eyes instantly dimmed a little.

It wasn’t easy for him to meet someone of the same height as him who could compete with him.

He was as happy as if he had met a bosom friend.

However, Xu Xiaoshou had saved him, but he did not save that person?

“Benefactor...”

Monk Bu Le turned his head and did not believe it.

That fellow, he could tell that he should be someone who was on Xu Xiaoshou’s side. Why didn’t he take him in as well?

“Who are you calling a benefactor...”

Xu Xiaoshou frowned.

When he heard that this fellow wanted Mu Zixi’s life, he didn’t have a good impression of him.

“What’s your name and background? Why did you want to take my Junior Sister’s life?”

“Also, why did you run down at that time?”

“Tell me the truth.”

“Otherwise, I’ll kick you out of the Yuan Mansion!”

Monk Bu Le was stunned.

Junior Sister?

This...

For a moment, he didn’t know what to say.

The person he wanted to purify was actually his benefactor’s Junior Sister?

“You’re not going to say it, right?”

Xu Xiaoshou sneered and pulled out a whip.

This was the “Dark Jade Whip” that he had snatched from the place where Zhang Zhongmou died.

Although he didn’t recognize it, Yu Zhiwen had already explained the effects of this thing.

“I’ll say it, I’ll say it...”

Monk Bu Le wasn’t anxious anymore. He opened his mouth.

However, Xu Xiaoshou suddenly stopped.

That’s right!

This was his Yuan Mansion.

This fellow didn't have the strength of a Sovereign, so he didn't need to be expelled. It would be fine as long as he was trapped.

"There's no need to say it."

He covered the little monk's mouth and directly tied him up with the Dark Jade Whip.

With a thought, this fellow was hung in the air and directly imprisoned by space.

Monk Bu Le was dumbfounded.

What was this?

He had a bunch of questions just now, and he sincerely wanted to express his gratitude. If it was his benefactor's Junior Sister, he could choose not to pursue the matter...

But what was the meaning of being bound?

"Benefactor, I..."

"Shut up!"

Xu Xiaoshou immediately silenced him.

He didn't have that much time to listen to this fellow quibbling here.

The fire seed that had exploded outside was still waiting for him!

Monk Bu Le struggled for a moment and discovered that the Way of the Heavens' power in this place was extremely terrifying.

Although it was not perfect.

But with the master's control, it was nothing more than a small-scale bounded domain.

If he did not reach the Sovereign Stage and his cultivation was restricted, even if he had the "Power of Will", he would not be able to use it!

He could only open his mouth and look down with hidden bitterness.

"Cursed, Passive Points, +1."

"Watched, Passive Points, +1."

"Received Plea, Passive Points, +1."

...

"Listen, don't bother about this guy for now. Wait for me to come back."

Xu Xiaoshou pointed at the little monk above and said, "I'm going out now. It's not safe outside. You stay inside for now and wait for Yu Zhiwen to wake up. I'll come over to see you guys."

“I want to go out.”

Mu Zixi was anxious.

She didn't know what was going on outside.

But since Xu Xiaoshou said so, going out alone would definitely be risky.

Also...

“Has it already exploded?” she asked with concern.

“Uh... yes.”

Xu Xiaoshou nodded awkwardly.

“Wouldn't it be over if it exploded? What's the danger?”

Mu Zixi got up.

She glanced at Yu Zhiwen, who was lying unconscious on the ground, and thought to herself that she was lucky.

Fortunately, she had the foresight and knew to hide in the Yuan Mansion first.

This lady should have returned to the ground ahead of time!

She was so far away, yet she had fainted...

“Sigh, you don't know anything. How did you dare to take a liking to Xu Xiaoshou?”

“Someone will die.”

Mu Zixi sighed in her heart.

Xu Xiaoshou was not someone that any ordinary lady could control!

“The explosion is over, but there are still two terrifying fellows outside...”

Xu Xiaoshou hesitated for a moment. Looking at the young lady's unbelieving gaze, he explained, “That ghost beast from the Tianxuan Gate will seal people.”

“There's another pervert. I don't know what level he is, but he looks even more dangerous...”

“Senior Sister Mo?” Mu Zixi was stunned.

“Yes, it's her.”

“Then you still dare to go out?”

Mu Zixi was anxious. “Last time, there was the suppression of the Small World of the Tianxuan Gate. This time...”

“I know.”

Xu Xiaoshou interrupted her. “With Aje around, I should be fine.”

“Oh.”

The little girl suddenly felt sad.

As expected, Aje was the true love!

“Then...”

She thought for a while and suddenly took out a staff filled with devilish energy from her ring and handed it to Xu Xiaoshou.

“Take this thing first. It seems quite powerful. I took it for you.”

Xu Xiaoshou was stunned.

“A staff?”

There was a Buddhist staff filled with devilish energy?

What the hell was this thing!

With just a sweep of his “Perception”, he felt that the violent aura in his body was about to surge out again.

He hurriedly stopped it.

Xu Xiaoshou still had lingering fear in his heart.

It was very strong!

This Buddhist staff was extremely strong!

It actually had the strength comparable to the bronze carving piece!

One had to know that according to Xu Xiaoshou’s conjecture.

The bronze carving piece was very likely to have fallen from the “Fourth Sword”.

If this Buddhist staff could reach this level just by relying on devilish energy...

Could it be that it was also a treasure comparable to the “Fourth Sword”?

“Where did you get it from...”

Xu Xiaoshou was halfway through his question when he recalled the conversation between the little monk and Mu Zixi. He suddenly understood.

He raised his head.

As expected, Monk Bu Le was looking at the siblings below with an incredulous expression as they divided up the stolen goods.

He glanced at the information pane again.

“Cursed, Passive Points, +1.”

“Missed, Passive Points, +1.”

“Pfft!”

Xu Xiaoshou was delighted.

“Okay, I’ll take it first.”

He used his spiritual source to cover his palm, took the staff, and was about to jump out of his Yuan Mansion.

Suddenly, he caught a glimpse of Xu Xiaoji, who was curled up in the corner.

“You...”

“What?” Xu Xiaoji curled up.

He had tried his best to make himself invisible, but unexpectedly, Xu Xiaoshou still noticed him.

Looking at the little monk hanging in the sky, he felt a sense of sadness. “We are all people who have fallen to the ends of the Earth.”

I knew it!

I knew that this prison would definitely become more and more lively as time passed.

Oh my God, when will I be able to escape...

“Nothing.”

Xu Xiaoshou retracted his gaze.

For the time being, he didn’t need Xu Xiaoji.

Wait until “Fourth Sword” was born.

Perhaps...

This fellow would come in handy.

He wanted to jump out of Yuan Mansion again, but Xu Xiaoshou suddenly paused.

“Behave yourself!”

He pointed at the little monk above and said.

For this fellow to possess such a staff, he must have an extraordinary background.

Once he obtained the fire seed, he didn’t want to offend anyone and would definitely release it.

But what if he wasn’t around and this fellow managed to break free from the seal?

“That shouldn’t be possible...”

“I control the Small World, so it’s equivalent to a bounded domain. He’s just a brat...”

Xu Xiaoshou pondered for a moment before his gaze suddenly stopped and fell on the monk's knife on this fellow's back.

Monk Bu Le was stunned.

What's with that greedy gaze of yours?

"You snatched my staff, and you are still after my 'Buddha Slaying Blade'?"

"Darn it, how hateful!"

"Let me say something, Ahhhh —"

He roared crazily in his heart.

Bu Le had no way of resisting at all.

He could only watch helplessly as Xu Xiaoshou flew over. Then, he stretched out his hand and pulled out the "Buddha Slaying Blade" on his back.

"I'm borrowing it from you. I'll return it to you later!"

Xu Xiaoshou's eyes lit up. He rubbed the Buddha Slaying Blade lovingly.

It was too beautiful!

All of a sudden, he had the idea of giving it to Zhou Tianshen.

"Resisted, Passive Points, +1."

"Cursed, Passive Points, +1."

"Missed, Passive Points, +1."

Bu Le was desperate.

He opened his mouth and listened to this guy's insincere words. He knew that he had fallen into a wolf's den.

How was this a benefactor!

This was a devil dressed in the cloak of kindness!

Sigh, I misspoke...

Buddha is merciful.

I will not break the precepts.

"All of you be good, wait for me to return and feed you."

Xu Xiaoshou gave a final reminder. With one hand on the monk's knife and the other on the staff, he disappeared from the Yuan Mansion.

...

Spirit Fusion Swamp.

An unprecedented black abyss replaced this area.

The Void was in chaos. The space was broken and repaired, and it was cracked.

Endless grayish-black destructive aura was enshrouded in it.

Obviously, the music played by ice and fire had caused this space to fall into an apocalyptic scene.

Aje curled up.

All his clothes were blown away.

There were traces of blood on his body, but his injuries had already recovered.

And looking at his chest...

This was probably the only space that was still intact in the Earth realm dozens of miles away from the Spirit Fusion Swamp.

It was because of Xu Xiaoshou's protection order.

"Whoosh!"

A light sound appeared.

The next second, a figure appeared.

Aje trembled, his body straightening up.

He happily turned his head and looked at the familiar figure that had disappeared for a long time and finally returned to his side.

"Ma Ma..."

Chapter 498: Long Time No See, Kid

The world was desolate.

The sky was filled with a grayish-black destructive aura.

The crimson sky couldn't even shine on the space near the Spirit Fusion Swamp at this moment.

However, the first thing Xu Xiaoshou did was look at Aje's shoulder.

"Blood... ?"

Even if he didn't walk over, he could still see the scene from his "Perception".

Although Aje's back had already healed, the large patch of blood was still shocking.

Xu Xiaoshou's gaze narrowed.

“Aje, he’s bleeding...”

This seemed to be the first time he had seen Aje bleed?

In the past, no matter how powerful the enemy he encountered was, he always had the appearance of an undefeatable war god.

He pretended to be weak when he met the weak and became stronger when he met the strong.

When he was really stubborn and attacked crazily, he would kill anyone who stood in his way!

But today.

This explosion allowed Xu Xiaoshou to see another side of Aje.

It was not omnipotent.

It was not much different from his own guess.

If he did not use the Power of the Higher Void, Aje’s highest combat strength might be about the same as a Cutting Path.

And under the combination of the two extremes, he could destroy an ordinary Cutting Path under the explosion attack.

Even someone as strong as Aje had to pay a price to protect the small space where his Yuan Mansion was hidden.

“Ma Ma?”

There was a hint of doubt in Aje’s voice.

He seemed to be puzzled as to why his “Ma Ma” did not show the same joy as he did when they reunited after such a long time.

Xu Xiaoshou was silent.

He brought Aje out from Tianxuan Gate and watched him grow step by step.

He could clearly sense that Aje’s spiritual intelligence was growing rapidly.

Apart from his usual emotionless calling, the current joy and confusion in its voice sounded so clear to him at this moment!

“You’ve worked hard.”

Xu Xiaoshou patted Aje’s head lightly. He did not say anything and looked into the distance.

It was completely different from the scenery before he entered the underground world.

This time, it was as if the world had been completely overturned.

Other than the black sky and some spaces that had already repaired themselves, there was nothing else.

“Where’s the fire seed?”

Standing in a space that could barely be considered safe, Xu Xiaoshou's "Perception" was activated as he searched for his target.

Very soon, he saw it.

The milky white fire seed that had absorbed enough energy from the underground and broke out of the ground did not escape like most spiritual creatures.

On the contrary, it stayed in the sky and quietly released its power.

"It didn't run?"

Xu Xiaoshou was a bit surprised.

This fire seed seemed to be obedient.

However, if one combined it with the scene of the Apocalypse from before, one would know.

Since this thing appeared in such a high-profile way, the word "obedient" couldn't be related to it.

After all, the condensing method of infernal heavens couldn't blow up the entire White Cave.

This move was merely a fuse.

What truly caused the world to turn upside down was the terrifying power of the fire seed itself, as well as...

The ice power!

"Right, what about over there?"

Xu Xiaoshou suddenly looked to the other side.

He remembered the instant when he had followed the fire seed out of the ground.

There was an icy aura in the world that could rival the infernal power.

As expected.

With this look, he saw an ice-blue flame under the shadow of an ancient tree that was upside down in the sky above the shattered void.

"Three Days Frozen Calamity?"

Xu Xiaoshou's pupils constricted, and he immediately understood.

This thing must be a precious treasure that even Yu Zhiwen admired.

If he didn't insist on going underground, perhaps, Yu Zhiwen's target was also this cold flame!

The Three Days Frozen Calamity was also silent in the void.

It seemed to be facing the milky white fire seed, releasing its own power.

However, surprisingly, neither side made a move.

“Are they fighting?”

Xu Xiaoshou’s expression was strange.

This kind of emotion that only exists in the human world, he could feel it clearly from these two treasures?

This was simply absurd!

“That’s not right.”

“Although these two things have no humanity, their power is so terrifying. They each may have a little bit of spiritual intelligence.”

“Therefore, under the mutual checks and balances between the ice and fire treasures, none of them are willing to retreat or give in. This is the so-called leaving...”

“On the contrary, they’re both staying here?”

Xu Xiaoshou was overjoyed.

What was he most afraid of?

It was nothing more than the moment the fire seed was unearthed, it was like a famed sword Flame Python without any restraints, constantly yearning to fly freely.

And once the situation was like that...

He had delayed because of the explosion. When he came out of Yuan Mansion again, it was very likely that he would not even be able to touch the shadow of the fire seed.

But now...

“Hehe.”

“Hoho!”

“Startled, Passive Points, +1.”

There was a sudden movement under his feet.

Xu Xiaoshou was shocked.

Then, he heard a few painful growls.

Even though they were growls, Xu Xiaoshou was still shocked until his scalp went numb.

When he lowered his head, he saw the White Skeleton trying its best to turn its head upwards.

“Resisted, Passive Points, +1.”

With a sweep of his Perception, he could see that the White Skeleton, whose body was mostly buried in the spatial fragments, was now in a completely disintegrated state.

The explosion had caused its Sovereign Physique to rot.

However, this did not seem to be the fundamental reason for ending its combat strength.

In essence, because its body was too large, it had lost the cover of the safe space. It lay in the spatial fragments and was constantly being cut by the squirming space.

Every move was equivalent to the terrifying output of the space blade.

The damage caused by the dislocation of space basically ignored physical defense.

Therefore, no matter how strong the White Skeleton's body was.

When the space cracked, its body would also be cut apart.

And with such a large body...

Aje could choose a place to hide in the explosion.

The White Skeleton was obviously powerless!

"Roar –"

A weak and angry roar resounded.

Xu Xiaoshou hurriedly covered his ears.

He laughed.

Even if the White Skeleton had a complete head, it would be difficult for it to display any combat strength at this moment.

The white flame had a sufficiently powerful recovery speed.

But the White Skeleton was too big.

The recovery speed of the injuries on its physical body could not even compare to the speed at which the cracks on its body increased with time.

"Little fellow, you dare chase after me? This is what you get!"

Xu Xiaoshou was immediately overjoyed and laughed wildly. "My 'condensing method of infernal heavens' blew you up so badly that your parents couldn't even recognize you."

He vaguely remembered that back then, he had taken a glance inside the Heaven and Earth Great Array.

In the end, this big fellow was like a widow being spied on while taking a bath. It directly rushed out of the Heaven and Earth Great Array from the white bone door and circled around half of the Spirit Fusion Swamp. It chased after him for several hours.

Several hours!

God knows how he, Xu Xiaoshou, had managed to survive these past few hours!

Carrying Yu Zhiwen and fleeing in such a dangerous place like the White Cave, how thrilling was that.

If it wasn't for the White Cave map instructions in his mind...

If it wasn't for Yu Zhiwen waking up at the last moment...

If it wasn't for the two elders of the Zhang Mansion coming over...

Perhaps some special circumstances would really happen. Xu Xiaoshou was very likely to be captured by this big fellow!

"What are you shouting for? Quiet down!"

Xu Xiaoshou immediately kicked down.

With a bang, the broken bones on the White Skeleton's body were directly smashed into bone fragments.

However, these bone fragments were simply a drop in the ocean for their strong body. They weren't worth mentioning.

"What a good fellow."

Xu Xiaoshou exclaimed in surprise.

As expected, a Master Physique was able to deal with a Sovereign Physique. Even though this fellow became so weak, it was still unable to deal any substantial damage.

"Aje, follow me!"

Xu Xiaoshou flew to the front of the White Skeleton's skull with a swoosh.

He was not afraid of the burning "Perception". As his mind was in great pain, he saw a spherical fire seed that was as tall as a person from within the skull.

"Advanced Infernal Fire Seed..."

Xu Xiaoshou held his head, and his eyes immediately widened.

It was so big!

Only a fire seed that he could not hold with his arms was worthy of being called the "Advanced Infernal Fire Seed"!

In just an instant, he was certain.

What was inside the White Skeleton's skull was the prerequisite for him to cultivate the "white flame" and the "Dragon Melting Realm".

Then, there was a problem.

"If what's inside the skull of the White Skeleton is the Advanced Infernal Fire Seed, then what is this?"

Xu Xiaoshou raised his eyes again and looked at the milky white fire seed in the sky.

This milky white fire seed was about the same size as the Infernal Fire Seed, but its power and temperature had completely surpassed the Advanced Infernal Fire Seed by several levels.

Moreover, the power came from the same source!

With such an existence, even if Elder Sang came and saw it.

He would definitely be tempted!

“This is a treasure...”

“Ma M...”

Aje silently appeared behind Xu Xiaoshou.

Xu Xiaoshou waved his hand, and his emotionless voice fell.

“Knock its skull and help me to dig out the fire seed.”

He did not have a good impression of this big guy who only knew how to hammer people.

“Roar...”

Facing Aje’s fist that was coming, the White Skeleton actually cried out in fear.

It shook its head, trying to move its body away from the shattered space.

But it was impossible.

It was too big.

Its injuries were too severe.

Whatever it thought, its body could not react at all.

The only thing it could do was to tilt its head back as much as possible before Aje’s fist landed.

“Roar Roar Roar!”

“Received Plea, Passive Points, +1.”

The information bar jumped.

Xu Xiaoshou was slightly stunned.

The next second, his expression returned to indifference.

He knew that this guy in front of him had spiritual intelligence.

But so what?

The world was vast, and there were many things with spiritual intelligence.

But this guy only knew how to wreak havoc with its own strength and vent its emotions...

His life was as insignificant as grass!

If he had not turned back, Qu Qing-er and the others would have died long ago.

If he had not been there, Yu Zhiwen would have definitely died under that roar!

Taking a step back.

It was true that they had recklessly set foot into the Spirit Fusion Swamp, disturbing the White Skeleton first.

Therefore, Xu Xiaoshou was also at fault.

But so what?

The strong preyed on the weak, and the fittest survived!

In this cruel environment, with Elder Sang's constant edification, Xu Xiaoshou was no longer the indecisive person he used to be.

He should be decisive, and he should die if he deserved it!

If he dared to chase after me, Xu Xiaoshou, he would have to pay a painful price!

"Bang!"

Aje's fist landed on the White Skeleton's skull.

The air currents in the air exploded.

A large number of bone fragments flew out.

What also flew out from the skull was actually a liquid-like infernal white flame.

"Be careful!"

Xu Xiaoshou immediately pounced over and was about to suck away the white flame on Aje's hand.

Who knew that Aje's palm curled up.

The white flame instantly turned into light spots of energy and was directly absorbed into his body.

"Ma Ma?"

"Uh..."

Xu Xiaoshou stopped in his tracks.

"That's right. This kid fought with the White Skeleton for so long up there. How could he not have a way to fight against the white flame?"

"But..."

Xu Xiaoshou sized up Aje's slightly swollen hand after he absorbed the energy. He was a little surprised.

What kind of ability was this?

The Infernal Heavenly Flames could burn anything.

This was the first time he had seen someone not use the Way of the Heavens to wrap the white flame and throw it away, but directly swallow it!

"Suction..."

Xu Xiaoshou knew that Aje could absorb the monstrous power from the bronze carving piece.

But after seeing it today, he was completely sure.

It wasn't just the monstrous power.

He reckoned that as long as it was something in the form of energy, Aje might be able to absorb it!

Even the Power of the Higher Void...

"Hiss!"

Xu Xiaoshou did not dare to think about it anymore.

If he could also absorb the Power of the Higher Void...

Then how strong would Aje be?

"The Holy Divine Palace..."

"Hallmaster Dao..."

Xu Xiaoshou pondered.

Even an existence like Aje could be developed. Other than the first generation, the others could also be mass-produced...

Just how terrifying was the power of the Holy Divine Palace?

"Roar Roar Roar!"

Cries of pain sounded once again.

"Received Plea, Passive Points, +1."

Xu Xiaoshou turned his head to look.

The White Skeleton was not dead yet.

There was a large hole in its skull.

However, the hole was adjacent to the white flame and was quickly recovering.

"Good fellow, you must be a cockroach. With Aje's punch in his attack form, you are still not dead?"

"Go!"

Xu Xiaoshou did not show any mercy at all.

Aje disappeared without a trace. When he reappeared, he had already raised his more powerful fist and smashed it down on the wound.

"Hu..."

At this moment, a bright light suddenly appeared in the distant sky.

The patterns of the spiritual array appeared from the direction of the Three Days Frozen Calamity.

Following that, an extremely low-temperature breeze blew past.

“I’ll throw it!”

Xu Xiaoshou stood on the spot with goosebumps all over his body.

Being in a hot place and being swept by such a low temperature out of nowhere, he felt that the spiritual sources in his body were about to go into chaos.

However, in the next second, the light of the spiritual array in the distant sky dissipated.

Wherever the cold wind passed, half of the Spirit Fusion Swamp, including the shattered void, condensed into a thick layer of frost.

“Crack crack crack –”

It was like an ice age.

The previously dark image of the shattered space was suddenly covered in ice blue.

Aje’s fist fell halfway, and even the White Skeleton underneath instantly turned into an ice sculpture.

Xu Xiaoshou was no exception.

When a bone-piercing chill seeped through his skin, he realized that he had already been frozen!

“Spiritual array!”

“There’s someone over there?”

Xu Xiaoshou immediately thought of the grey mist figure he had seen in that direction.

But in the next second, he denied it.

The grey mist figure couldn’t use a spiritual array, let alone an ice-type power.

Moreover, with the explosion earlier, it was too late for it to escape and save its own life. How could it stay here?

Then...

Who could it be?

“Perception” probed.

Under the “Three Days Frozen Calamity”, in a frozen space, there was a sudden cracking sound. Another White Skeleton that was 100 meters tall stood up!

“An Ice Blue White Skeleton?”

Xu Xiaoshou was shocked.

He placed his “Perception” on the body of the Infernal White Skeleton in disbelief.

“So, it’s not alone?”

His heart seemed to have suffered a critical hit.

Xu Xiaoshou had never expected that such a pair of behemoths would exist in such a small Spirit Fusion Swamp.

And the powers they possessed were completely opposite.

“Judging from this attack range, this Ice Blue White Skeleton is a real mage?”

“Oh my God...”

Xu Xiaoshou was shocked.

“Uh Uh Uh Uh Uh...”

The next second, the coldness broke through his defense and his muscles began to tremble.

It was too cold.

After being sealed for just a moment, Xu Xiaoshou felt that his muscles were beginning to die.

There was an unspeakable ice-type calamity power, and he was not afraid of his infernal aura at all.

He even carried the power of freezing his energy reserve and started to seal his meridians all the way to his energy center.

“Darn it!”

“Don’t tell me I’m going to die under this unknown little move?”

His body couldn’t move at all.

He couldn’t use his finger swords.

He couldn’t take out the bronze carving piece, and he couldn’t transform into the Berserk Giant either.

As such, Xu Xiaoshou started to talk about changing his form to break through this terrifying layer of ice.

“Something is wrong with this ice-type power!”

Xu Xiaoshou felt a little drowsy.

He felt cold!

This sudden attack seemed casual, but the power it contained was too terrifying. It was completely out of his range.

After being hit, Xu Xiaoshou realized that his passive skill, which was normally like a fish in water, seemed to have completely lost its effect...

It was completely useless!

“No!”

“It can be saved!”

Xu Xiaoshou struggled to clear his spiritual altar. Suddenly, an idea flashed through his mind, and golden spots of light appeared around him.

He wanted to use the “Exploding Posture” to directly explode this layer of ice.

Crack! Crack!

However, the golden light dots appeared less than an instant later.

No spiritual veins were appearing in the distance. Just by relying on the remaining low temperature, Xu Xiaoshou’s exploding golden light was also frozen.

His face was as pale as death!

Despair appeared in Xu Xiaoshou’s eyes.

He completely didn’t believe that he would be pushed into a desperate situation just like that...

But at this moment, there seemed to be no other way?

“Something’s wrong.”

“Even that Ice Blue White Skeleton is at most at the peak of a Sovereign Stage. It can’t possibly possess such a power that can completely suppress my passive skill...”

Xu Xiaoshou felt that his brain was about to slow down, and his mind was about to collapse.

Suddenly, his gaze fixed on the ice-blue flower that had been quietly hanging in the air.

“Three Days Frozen Calamity!”

That’s right!

The ice calamity power in his body that completely suppressed his infernal aura was definitely the power of the “Three Days Frozen Calamity”.

With its support, the Ice Blue White Skeleton’s spiritual array could completely freeze him and...

Aje!

Crack crack...

Aje’s ice layer was loosening.

Obviously, it was also struggling inside.

But once the ice crack cracked, it was immediately sealed again.

Xu Xiaoshou felt that his eyelids became very heavy, but even his eyelids were frozen to the point that he couldn’t close them.

He even realized that they were about to stiffen.

Aje... Aje couldn't break free?

This...

Forcing himself to focus on the "Three Days Frozen Calamity" again, Xu Xiaoshou became serious for the first time.

"Three Days Frozen Calamity!"

This thing was definitely not as simple as what Yu Zhiwen had described!

It could be seen from the fact that the Ice Blue White Skeleton could completely seal Aje with just a trace of its power...

At the very least, it had completely surpassed the "Advanced Infernal Fire Seed" and was on the same level as the milky white fire seed in the sky!

"There are others who can fight against a power that I can't!"

Almost at the instant, he thought of the milky white fire seed, Xu Xiaoshou forcefully raised his eyelids and placed his gaze on the fire seed in the air, which remained unmoved and silent.

"They have already used their power to provoke us, yet you're still standing there like a fool. Go and fight them!"

He roared in his heart.

Xu Xiaoshou's pupils dilated.

This entire world suddenly became an invisible oven to him.

This included the snow-capped mountains that had been blasted into pieces by the explosion, as well as the originally uneven terrain of the Spirit Fusion Swamp...

At this moment, the rivers, lakes, seas, ice, fire, wind, and thunder no longer had any substance.

In Xu Xiaoshou's eyes, there was nothing else.

There was only the alchemy cauldron!

"Heaven and earth are furnaces, and nature is work..."

Chants sounded in his ears.

Xu Xiaoshou directly skipped the steps of refining the elixir and screamed in his heart.

"Condensing method of infernal heavens, condense it for me!"

"Bang!"

An explosion sounded.

The milky white fire seed in the air could no longer remain calm.

It felt a majestic and thick Way of the Heavens' energy directly gushing into its body. After a huge tremor, it scattered in all directions and spurted out white lava.

A grayish-black destructive aura spread out from the lava.

When it flowed down from above, without even waiting for it to get close, Aje's ice layer exploded with a loud bang.

Following that, Xu Xiaoshou could feel the high temperature outside, as well as the icy force that trapped his body was gradually melting.

He struggled, and it was earth-shattering.

“Boom!”

The magic staff in his hand directly shattered the ice layer under his feet. Xu Xiaoshou flew out with lingering fear.

“Keke...”

“Keke...”

His teeth were chattering, and his face was pale.

After being sealed for just a moment, his entire body felt weak as if it had been hollowed out.

If he did not forcefully raise his strength, he even felt that his physical body was no longer his.

He crashed onto the ground with a loud bang.

Only then did Xu Xiaoshou realize that the nerves in his feet had already been frozen to death in this short time.

Even though he had the power of “Eternal Vitality” recovering, he was still unable to recover.

That wisp of ice-type calamity power that could not be removed from the mouth of his energy reserve was like the five decays of heaven and man forcefully hanging on his body, completely blocking off all the self-healing process of his body.

“What a guy...”

Xu Xiaoshou was truly shocked by the power of the “Three Days Frozen Calamity”.

He was already so strong.

That Ice Blue White Skeleton could restrain him to such an extent just by using a trace of frozen power?

Xu Xiaoshou had seen the grey mist figure before.

Therefore, he already knew that the power that could restrain passive skills in the world did indeed exist.

However, throughout the entire journey, there was only one type of seal attribute.

Now, with the addition of the Three Days Frozen Calamity...

This thing could even restrain him to such an extent. If he could take it down as well...

Then in the future, if he met someone that the infernal power failed to deal with, he would release this ice flame to burn them...

“Darn it, how dare you use the ice flame to deal with me? You are mine now!”

Xu Xiaoshou did not even turn his head. He did not even take the “Advanced Infernal Fire Seed”.

Under the coverage of his spiritual senses, he directly stored the powerless Infernal White Skeleton, along with its head and body, into his Yuan Mansion.

In the next moment, he charged in the direction of the Three Days Frozen Calamity.

“If I want to get the treasure, I have to get rid of this Ice Blue White Skeleton that is attacking from an extremely long distance first.”

“Otherwise, regardless of whether it’s the Three Days Frozen Calamity or the fire seed if this fellow uses an ice seal, I, Xu Xiaoshou, will die on the spot...”

Xu Xiaoshou pondered in his heart, and he directly locked onto his target without even turning his head back.

“Aje, follow me!”

“Ma Ma...”

Aje muttered in a low voice, indicating that he would never leave his side.

“Huo Huo!”

The Ice Blue White Skeleton looked at the two figures charging toward it, and after calling out two times without the slightest fluctuation of emotion, his hand speed directly increased to the maximum, instantly transforming into an endless afterimage in front of him.

Xu Xiaoshou’s eyeballs immediately popped out.

This hand that was the size of a small hill could still have such hand speed...

“Oh my God, so the two of you are not a couple?”

“How many years have you been staying single!”

1

He did not dare to be careless.

As Xu Xiaoshou flew, he used all his strength to ignite his infernal power.

In the past, he was afraid that if he used all his strength, his Infernal Heavenly Flames would burn his enemies to ashes.

Now, he was afraid that if he moved too slowly, he would turn into an ice sculpture before his body started to heat up.

Buzz, Buzz, Buzz...

When they were still some distance away, Xu Xiaoshou found out in despair that the patterns of ten spiritual arrays had completely appeared in front of the Ice Blue White Skeleton.

Yes.

It wasn't a half-finished product.

It was complete!

This guy's hand seals were too fast.

The two barely set off, and this fellow combined ten formations into one.

In the next second, the "Three Days Frozen Calamity" hanging in the void hummed and trembled slightly, as if it was about to release its terrifying ice power that could wreak havoc in the entire Spirit Fusion Swamp.

"Shua!"

Right at this moment.

Dense gray mist surged out from the void, instantly enveloping the Ice Blue White Skeleton's massive body as well as the "Three Days Frozen Calamity" that was about to release its power.

The world suddenly fell silent.

Once the power of the seal was released, even if it was a dragon or a tiger, it had to lie down!

Even though he knew that the attack in front of him had stopped and that it was the best time to retrieve the treasure, Xu Xiaoshou still acted as if he was facing a great enemy.

"Stop!"

His pupils constricted and his footsteps paused. Then, he pulled on Aje with all his might.

As expected.

The next second.

"Tch tch..."

The grey mist figure staggered out from the void.

It seemed to be a little weak, but the effect was not great.

Stepping directly on the head of the Ice Blue White Skeleton, the grey mist figure looked down at the familiar figure below.

"Kid, long time no see?"

Chapter 499: The Eyes Behind the Sky

“The grey mist figure...”

Xu Xiaoshou’s eyes immediately darkened.

From the Tianxuan Gate until now, he had experienced the power of many ghost beasts.

But the one that left a deep impression on him was the one in front of him.

The sealed ghost beast that came from Mo Mo’s body.

The grey mist figure!

“So, it didn’t die from the explosion and had never left...”

Xu Xiaoshou murmured as he glanced at the “Three Days Frozen Calamity” behind the grey mist figure.

Even though this fellow looked like it had been weakened by the explosion.

However, the way it stepped on the Ice Blue White Skeleton made Xu Xiaoshou hesitate.

“I can’t get it!”

Xu Xiaoshou was instantly certain.

The Three Days Frozen Calamity was blocked by this fellow, so he definitely couldn’t get it!

Even the Ice Blue White Skeleton couldn’t react to the grey mist figure’s attack.

And if one of them was sealed, it wouldn’t be able to break free at all.

This meant that the grey mist figure’s strength was definitely a qualitative leap compared to that time in the Small World of the Tianxuan Gate.

“Aje, let’s go!”

Xu Xiaoshou didn’t think anymore and retreated explosively.

Even though he had Aje, he didn’t dare to gamble recklessly.

Because this gamble might even cost him his life.

“You’re leaving just like that?”

The grey mist figure leaped down from the Ice Blue White Skeleton and stopped in midair. The sealing aura around his body was still rising, making it impossible to see his face clearly.

It smiled at the two people who were retreating in the distance. “Isn’t that your goal? What, you don’t want it anymore?”

The grey mist figure pointed at the “Three Days Frozen Calamity”.

Xu Xiaoshou didn’t even care about it.

In his intuition, this fellow was already an existence with abnormal strength.

And according to the information he received, the last time in the White Cave Small World, this was the same figure that had attacked from the encirclement of a group of Red Coats.

This meant that it wasn't just intuition.

It was also because of Mo Mo's existence that it was restricted.

Otherwise, if this fellow were to use it, there would probably be no one in the entire White Cave who could contend against him with a single palm!

So, what qualifications did he have to fight against this grey mist figure that didn't have any restrictions?

"Whoosh!"

A gust of wind suddenly brushed past his ear.

Xu Xiaoshou felt a chill on his back and immediately stopped in his tracks.

The next second, he saw the grey mist figure disappear into the distance.

When he reappeared, he had already relied on the grey mist to materialize in front of him.

"Run?"

"We haven't settled the score from last time. How could you leave?"

The grey mist figure's tone was cold as he said with a sinister smile, "Are you able to run away!"

Bang.

Xu Xiaoshou didn't say anything. He stepped in the air and directly pulled out the Buddha Slaying Blade and slashed at the grey mist figure in front of him.

"Aje, beat him up!"

As expected, he could not escape!

Since that was the case, there was no need to hold back.

Last time, it was because he was alone that was why the battle had been so difficult.

This time, with Aje, it would not be so easy for the grey mist figure to catch him!

"Chi!"

The blade slashed down.

However, before the blade could touch the body of the grey mist figure, it had already turned into mist and split apart.

Xu Xiaoshou flipped over and did not dare to stay where he was. Instead, he shot up into the sky.

Following closely behind him was a phantom that suddenly flashed out from Aje.

Facing the grey mist figure that had once again merged into one, Aje raised his fist and came forward. He spat out a mouthful of air.

“Hu...”

There was a whistling sound.

Aje, who had received the order to attack, was not holding back.

Even though the grey mist figure wanted to split apart again, Aje’s punch could not even withstand space and exploded on the spot.

“Bang!”

A majestic force pushed the grey mist that filled the sky and directly swept forward.

Xu Xiaoshou raised his brows and saw that the grey mist figure suddenly solidified several hundred feet away. It heavily smashed onto the ground and subsequently dragged a long gully behind it.

Only after that did it obtain control of its body. It exploded into gray mist and condensed into a human figure.

“Who are you?”

The grey mist figure’s eyes that had returned to reality were filled with shock.

He had always been wary of Xu Xiaoshou’s Golden Giant’s power.

He had never thought that his opponent this time was not Xu Xiaoshou, but this unknown little boy beside him?

“Ma Ma...”

Aje tilted its head and suddenly disappeared without a sound.

As long as it was a battle, why would it say nonsense?

“Sovereign Physique!”

The grey mist figure’s pupils immediately constricted, and he was startled.

This speed, coupled with the strength of the attack that could blow apart space with an ordinary punch, was definitely a Sovereign Physique.

“This...”

“When did a Sovereign Physique appear? Why is there no sound at all?”

The grey mist figure did not dare to be arrogant. In the blink of an eye, his two fingers interlocked.

“Six Paths, Dusty Gate!”

With a call, six huge grey mist light gates closed steadily from all six sides.

Xu Xiaoshou was shocked.

He knew this spiritual technique.

Back then in Tianxuan Gate, he had experienced this move.

According to experience, once Aje passed through the gate formed by the rich sealing power, he would definitely be sealed.

Perhaps, even his body and movements would be completely restricted, turning into a human-shaped sealing stone.

“Careful...”

However, before he could even call out.

Xu Xiaoshou saw that one of the six grey mist light doors suddenly burst with thick mist.

In the next second, the grey mist figure was directly blasted out from within.

“Pu... Cough Cough!”

It covered its chest in the air and coughed dryly a few times, almost spitting out blood.

“That’s it?”

Xu Xiaoshou was overjoyed.

Clearly, the grey mist figure who had completed the seal in there had taken another palm strike from Aje!

But he quickly realized that the grey mist figure could pass through the light door and come out unscathed.

But now that the light door was closed, if Aje wanted to chase after him, he had to break through the sealing mist!

Once he broke through, wouldn’t he be sealed?

“Aje, Freeze! Don’t move!”

Xu Xiaoshou suddenly shouted.

At this time, if Aje was sealed, then he wouldn’t be able to do anything to the grey mist figure.

Even if it was the “Berserk Giant”, there was a high probability that he wouldn’t be able to defeat it.

“Haha, so what if you blasted me out? You dare to chase after me?”

The grey mist figure stopped and laughed loudly in mid-air.

It was very obvious that he had made up his mind just as Xu Xiaoshou had thought.

Who would have thought that halfway through his laughter, a crack would suddenly appear behind him?

Following that, Aje stepped out from the void rift.

This time, not only was Xu Xiaoshou dumbfounded, even the grey mist figure stopped laughing.

“Spatial crack?”

Aje’s battle awareness was actually able to support it to use the spatial crack to dodge the attack of the sealed light door that had no blind spots?

Wasn’t this a different kind of teleportation?

Xu Xiaoshou was shocked.

“Ma Ma?”

Aje tilted his head as if he did not understand why “Ma Ma” had told it to freeze.

But it was very obedient.

After coming out of the void rift, he stuck to the grey mist figure’s back and did not make a move.

The grey mist figure’s scalp immediately went numb.

He had never thought that this little boy would use such a method to break it.

However, in the “Six Paths, Dusty Gate” even the spiritual source of heaven and earth and the Great Path were sealed. No one could use them anymore!

How did this fellow break the void?

Oh, that’s right!

The grey mist figure’s brain turned and he immediately came to a realization.

Aje had the Sovereign Physique!

“Beat him up!”

Xu Xiaoshou shouted. He knew that his order just now had delayed the timing.

Indeed, in a battle at this level, if he wanted to have his limited battle experience, he would have to command Aje, a Divine Puppet that was born for battle.

Then he might as well not command!

Xu Xiaoshou chose to strategically shut up.

He couldn’t even defeat Aje, yet he still had to command the other party. Wasn’t that just adding to the chaos?

“Bang!”

Sure enough, after he kept quiet.

Aje slapped down, and the grey mist figure’s head directly exploded.

The mist flew in another direction along with the airflow.

Very soon, the grey mist figure once again condensed.

Xu Xiaoshou's brows instantly furrowed.

This move was too disgusting.

"This fellow is practically immortal."

"Any physical attack, as long as it can transform into the gray mist state in advance, basically the power that can land on its body isn't worth mentioning."

"If this goes on, there won't be an end to it..."

As he calculated in his heart, Xu Xiaoshou turned his head to look at the "Three Days Frozen Calamity" on the horizon.

Staying here was completely useless.

If that was the case, why not take advantage of Aje's efforts to stall the grey mist figure and keep the treasure?

"What are you thinking about?"

In his "Perception", the grey mist figure suddenly disappeared again.

However, he heard this fellow's sinister voice beside his ear.

"Darn!"

"Startled, Passive Points, +1."

Xu Xiaoshou backhanded and struck out with his staff.

However, the grey mist figure completely ignored the attack. After its body was cut in half, it regrouped.

"Good reaction."

After praising it in a low voice, it watched Aje's figure disappear. Clearly, he was going to come over and help.

Suddenly, the grey mist figure exploded. It no longer transformed into an entity. Instead, it became a dense mist that filled the sky.

"Ma Ma?"

This time, Aje was also stunned.

This was the first time it had seen such an enemy.

Even if his physical body was very strong, he would not be able to hit such an existence at all!

"Kid, not bad. You even brought helpers this time?"

The grey mist figure's voice came from above.

“But so what if you have helpers? No matter how strong that physical body is, it won’t be able to affect my body. On the other hand, the spiritual source is completely ineffective against the sealing power.”

“So, I’m invincible. No one can beat me.”

It paused for a moment and said, “But I’m not interested in the Sovereign Physique. On the contrary, I’m very interested in you!”

“Watched, Passive Points, +1.”

Xu Xiaoshou immediately felt the chills.

Without a doubt, the grey mist figure did not care about Aje at all.

This guy’s target was the weak Xu Xiaoshou.

“What is so interesting about me?”

Xu Xiaoshou sneered and said, “Aje may not be able to hit you, but with him around, you can’t hurt me.”

“So, if we drag this on, there will be no end. It will only be a stalemate. There is no meaning at all.”

“But! I am different from you...”

Xu Xiaoshou suddenly curled the corner of his lips and laughed to himself, “I am not a ghost beast. As long as we keep dragging on and when the Red Coat arrives, you will definitely die!”

He took out the exquisite stone and made a gesture to crush it.

“Red Coat?”

The grey mist figure’s laughed and said, “Do you really think that a Red Coat will be able to sense your presence when you crush this broken stone in this space?”

“This space?”

Xu Xiaoshou raised his eyebrows. How could a Red Coat not be able to sense him when he crushed the exquisite stone in the White Cave?

“What do you mean?” He asked with his eyebrows lowered.

“Kid, you’re still too young. You don’t even know what’s going on when you’re about to die!”

The grey mist figure laughed mockingly.

After a long time, the laughter stopped.

It seemed to be thinking.

After a long time, this fellow spoke again.

“I originally thought that you were still at the same level as last time. Even if you had grown, you wouldn’t be that strong.”

“But you actually brought this fellow...”

“It... isn’t a human, right?”

Xu Xiaoshou’s pupils constricted when he heard this.

Aje’s vital signs were no different from a human’s. It couldn’t say anything else other than “Ma Ma” and it was difficult to spot any abnormalities.

1

The grey mist figure had only exchanged a few blows, and it already knew Aje’s secret?

Xu Xiaoshou did not reply. He took a step forward and said loudly, “Cut the crap. Others are afraid of you, but I’m not afraid.”

“If you want to risk your life, I don’t feel that I’m at a disadvantage if we fight to the death.”

“On the contrary, you escaped from the White Cave with great difficulty, but you re-entered. All your plans can only be in vain.”

“How are you going to live with that?”

Xu Xiaoshou paused for a moment and glanced at the information bar.

There was no reaction?

He immediately said, “To be honest, there is no deep hatred between us. The last time we fought... it was only because both of us needed something.”

“So, why are you targeting me like this?”

He raised his head.

Looking at the gray mist floating in the air, he was a little confused.

“For revenge?”

He thought to himself, but Xu Xiaoshou did not think that the grey mist figure would be such a shallow ghost beast.

It was not to the extent of it!

Combined with the strange words that this guy had said earlier.

“This space...”

“Still not aware of his impending death...”

Xu Xiaoshou felt as though he had missed something.

“Watched, Passive Points, +1.”

“Suspected, Passive Points, +1.”

The information window suddenly started to move. Xu Xiaoshou used his “Perception” to scan the surrounding space. He felt as though something was amiss.

This world...

Seemed to have changed?

Rules, aura, environment...

Was it because of the explosion earlier?

“Something’s not right!”

Xu Xiaoshou suddenly realized something.

The grey mist figure was still there.

But when he had broken out of the ground earlier, he had seen two people.

Where did that man in the red dress go?

“Watched, Passive Points, +1.”

“...”

The information bar started to jump again.

Xu Xiaoshou suddenly realized something.

It was impossible to have constant attention!

So...

There were actually two people watching him?

His mind was in a mess. Was he feeling a little scared? He immediately pulled up the information bar!

In his daily life, Xu Xiaoshou had been paying attention to this information bar.

However, at the moment of the explosion, to save people, he might have overlooked some important information.

Very soon.

Before he could even flip through half of it, Xu Xiaoshou discovered a message that sent chills down his spine.

“Imprisoned, Passive Points, +1.”

Imprisoned?

The first time he saw this term was when he discovered it on a piece of information that he had overlooked.

Xu Xiaoshou was panicking.

He looked at the grey mist in the sky.

So, he had unknowingly entered the grey mist figure’s bounded domain?

“That’s not right!”

“A bounded domain doesn’t feel like this!”

“And if it’s a bounded domain, where did the other ‘Watched’ come from?”

“But, if it’s not a bounded domain, then what is it?”

...

“What do I want...”

There seemed to be a hint of bitterness in the grey mist figure’s mumbling. It suddenly raised its head and shouted angrily, “I want to take the ‘Three Days Frozen Calamity’, I want to take the ‘Infernal Original Seed’, I want to go out!”

“Infernal Original Seed?”

Xu Xiaoshou’s attention was immediately drawn over.

He glanced at the milky white fire seed in the sky without leaving a trace.

Infernal Original Seed...

So that was the name?

“Looks like you are also after these two treasures, that’s why you wanted to kill me!”

“Now that you’ve discovered that with Aje around, you can’t kill me, so you can only choose to share the treasures with me. Are you unwilling to accept this?”

“Also, to get out...”

Xu Xiaoshou felt that he had realized something. He forced himself to calm down. With a calm expression, he sighed and said, “You’re not bad. Looks like you’ve also discovered that you’ve been imprisoned.”

“Oh?”

The word “Imprisoned” came out.

As expected, the grey mist figure immediately jolted.

He was a little surprised. “So you knew that you were locked up?”

“Pfft, of course.”

Xu Xiaoshou shook his head indifferently and walked over with his hands behind his back, pacing back and forth.

He glanced around and said casually, “It’s him, right?”

The grey mist in the sky surged a few times before condensing into a solid form.

The grey mist figure appeared above.

It seemed to be a little agitated. There was no movement from its body, but the grey mist around its body was twitching. It was clearly enraged.

“Darned pervert, you should only hope that I won’t be able to get out. Otherwise, I’ll make sure you know what true pain is!”

“I’ll let you chase after me...”

The grey mist figure raised his head and glared furiously at the sky.

Xu Xiaoshou followed his gaze, but he couldn’t detect any movement at all.

What was he looking at...

Why was this fellow also speaking in riddles?

However, if he was a pervert, it was indeed the red-dressed man whom he had seen earlier!

“Imprisoned...”

“So, that fellow’s strength is so strong that he could even imprison the grey mist figure?”

“Then, could the method he used to imprison the grey mist figure be this space?”

While Xu Xiaoshou was analyzing, he felt a little incredulous.

The environment around them was completely real.

How could it become a tool for others to imprison him and the grey mist figure?

But if it wasn’t “Imprisoned”...

The notification on the information window couldn’t be wrong!

“Ma Ma...”

When Aje saw the grey mist figure appear, a red light flashed in its eyes and it was about to pounce on it.

“Hey, hey, hey.”

Xu Xiaoshou immediately snapped back to his senses and pressed it down.

Why was it moving!

The situation was still unclear.

I haven’t gotten the words out of that grey mist figure yet, so why are you rushing!

“Don’t rush, don’t rush.”

After comforting Aje, Xu Xiaoshou looked at the grey mist figure and said, “Now that we’re in the same boat, you can’t kill me for the time being, so there’s no need to do any more useless work.”

“I only want to ask you one thing...”

Xu Xiaoshou paused for a moment, his gaze turned solemn and he asked, "What is his cultivation level?"

"Peak of the Cutting Path."

The grey mist figure glanced at Aje, who was about to make a move, and said unhappily.

It did not want to fight anymore.

Admittedly, Xu Xiaoshou was right.

The last time everyone attacked, they only wanted a Spirit Mark of Life, and since the grey mist figure saw Xu Xiaoshou's existence, it might affect Mo Mo.

Hence, they wanted to kill him.

However, since they couldn't get the treasure last time, they couldn't kill him either.

Until now, the hatred wasn't that deep anymore.

As for being beaten until he fainted...

That was indeed a humiliation.

But now, this humiliation was not as disturbing as being trapped by a Cutting Path.

"Peak of the Cutting Path, Nine Death Thunder Calamity?"

Xu Xiaoshou's heart skipped a beat.

He had heard of the Nine Death Thunder Calamity.

It was said that this was a heavenly chasm that one had to cross to reach the higher void realm.

After nine heaven-defying tribulations, one would have a chance to break through the higher void realm and master the Power of the Higher Void.

Then, from a physical body to an incarnation, one would have the qualifications to come into contact with the Holy Path and try to break through to the sacred physique.

But if it was a failure...

Even if it was just one time, it could result in serious injuries, a total loss of one's cultivation, or even death!

Therefore, even if he was a Cutting Path expert, there were very few people who would have the courage to choose to transcend the Nine Death Thunder Calamity.

However, the one who imprisoned the two of them...

"He managed to transcend all of the Nine Death Thunder Calamity?"

Xu Xiaoshou was slightly in disbelief.

The grey mist figure nodded.

“Even if he didn’t transcend all of them, at least he reached the last three tribulations. With his strength, it wouldn’t be difficult for him to succeed.”

“If it was in the past, this fellow would only rely on himself to transcend the Nine Death Thunder Calamity and grasp some Way of Space to seal this space within a spiritual weapon.”

“But now, if I want to get out, with my current condition...”

The grey mist figure lowered his head to scan himself and sighed speechlessly, “It’s a little difficult.”

“Seal the space within a spiritual weapon?”

Xu Xiaoshou had never heard of such a thing.

Such a method was something that a half-baked spiritual cultivator like him could not imagine.

But, from the grey mist figure’s tone.

If he was at his peak, wouldn’t this guy not be afraid of the man in the red dress?

“What a guy...”

“I don’t know if he’s bragging or telling the truth...”

Xu Xiaoshou thought to himself.

Glancing at the grey mist figure, he stuck his head out and said, “Although I noticed that the Heavens and Earth Order are incorrect and the imprisonment...”

Unable to hold back his doubts, he asked, “How?”

The grey mist figure glanced at the young man beneath him.

The order?

Theoretically speaking, he should be able to see through this fellow’s cultivation level with just a glance.

But when he looked over, there was actually no answer.

Indistinctly, he could only use the Way of the Heaven’s aura around him to obtain this young man’s judgment that he wasn’t even a Master.

But an Innate...

He could sense that the Heavens and Earth Order had changed and knew that he was “Imprisoned”?

Although he had been beaten up by Xu Xiaoshou in the past, it did not change the fact that the grey mist figure admired the attitude of this young man.

At least, among the young men that Mo Mo had come into contact with.

This fellow in front of him was definitely ranked in the top.

“Perhaps...”

The grey mist figure lowered his eyes and pondered as if he had made a decision.

“Kid, it’s pretty good you can sense that the order has changed.”

“But seeing it?”

“You won’t be able to see it!”

“This world is actually a page in his ancient book spiritual weapon.”

The grey mist figure sighed, “As for you and me, we are all chess pieces trapped inside...”

“Oh?” Xu Xiaoshou listened and suddenly interrupted, “If I can’t see it, could it be that you can see?”

“Are you kidding me?”

The grey mist figure laughed loudly. With a sweep of his hands, a sealing mist directly sealed the rules of the horizon.

The crimson was no longer there.

The divine secrets seemed to have completely disappeared.

A huge hole appeared in the void.

Xu Xiaoshou raised his eyes and looked over. He saw a celestial body rolling left and right above the sky?

“No, it’s not a celestial body!”

“Then it’s...”

“An eyeball?”

Xu Xiaoshou was shocked.

This...

The man in the red dress was outside, watching every movement inside with his eyes?

It had to be said that this scene was truly shocking.

In an instant, Xu Xiaoshou was brought to the end of the illusion of “Weaving Expertise”.

At that time.

When the world collapsed.

There was also an enormous hand behind the scenes controlling everything.

“Therefore, the moment the explosion started, this red-dressed man had already sealed this space, including the large explosion, into this place... in other words, his ancient book?”

Xu Xiaoshou was filled with shock.

“That’s right.”

The grey mist figure nodded and continued, "However, with his strength, the explosion seal will not be able to seal it. At most, he will only be able to transfer a large portion of his strength in to protect his own safety outside."

"This method might have shifted the damage, but the problem is that with the space's Way of the Heavens in chaos, he wouldn't dare to interfere easily. Otherwise, he might injure himself."

"Therefore, if he wants to take the treasure and send us away, he would have to at least wait until the space here recovers as much as possible."

"At this moment, he wouldn't dare to take the treasure. He could only stare at it."

Xu Xiaoshou completely understood.

Didn't this mean that even though the man in the red dress outside had trapped him...

The time to collect the treasure was also left behind?

"Then, isn't it very easy to get out?" Xu Xiaoshou's eyes lit up.

"Easy?"

The grey mist figure was amused.

At this moment, it didn't even have any way to get out. How could it be easy?

"Are you joking?"

"Doubted, Passive Points, +1."

Chapter 500: Devouring the Infernal Original Seed

"What kind of joke can I crack?"

"At this juncture, do you think I'm joking with you?"

Xu Xiaoshou rolled his eyes and said, "You already said that the man in the red dress outside can't enter now, nor can he disturb us. There's enough time given to you, but you can't break through the space?"

He pointed at the two great treasures in the air and continued, "Don't you want these things? If you don't have enough power, then swallow them. After swallowing them, won't it just explode?"

"Explode..."

The grey mist figure couldn't help but laugh. "That's easy for you to say. I'm not of the ice attribute, nor fire attribute. Even if I can use the sealing power to temporarily take these two great treasures if I want to unleash their power..."

"Difficult!"

"It will be difficult."

Xu Xiaoshou slapped his thigh. "You're not of the fire attribute, but I am!"

Realizing that he was too excited, he paused for a moment and calmed down. He continued to confirm, "So, you won't be able to collect these treasures in a short time, right... are you sure?"

"Yes."

"Yes?"

The grey mist figure was stunned. "Kid, what do you mean?"

"I can!"

Xu Xiaoshou chuckled. "You won't be able to collect them. It's fine. Wait for me. I might not need that long to collect these two treasures. When the time comes, I'll blow up this space for you and save you."

When the grey mist figure heard this, his expression instantly darkened.

What the heck!

I was discussing the situation with you, but you had set your eyes on the treasures?

You're already trapped in this space, yet you're still competing with me over these two treasures?

With Aje's existence, the grey mist figure already knew that with today's situation, perhaps with his speed, he wouldn't be able to take down the two treasures.

But Xu Xiaoshou actually told the grey mist figure...

That he wants it all?

"Criticized, Passive Points, +1."

"Suspected, Passive Points, +1."

"You'd better think about how you're going to get out!" The grey mist figure sneered. Knowing that the conversation couldn't go on, he didn't even turn his head and flew towards the direction of the "Three Days Frozen Calamity".

"You don't believe me!"

Xu Xiaoshou looked at the information bar that kept jumping, and immediately understood the grey mist figure's thoughts.

"How can I believe you?"

The grey mist figure turned his head and said sarcastically, "Even if I don't have enough time, I can still take away the Three Days Frozen Calamity. When that guy interferes with this space, I can take the opportunity to find a spatial crack and escape."

"What about you?"

It paused as it spoke, and the corner of his mouth pointed in the direction of the Infernal Original Seed. He said, "I can give that thing to you. You can take it. Take it as you like."

"But once you take it, do you have the life to take it away?"

“Doubted, Passive Points, +1.”

The traces of the sealing aura that had been wiped away in the void gradually disappeared. Xu Xiaoshou glanced at the sky above.

As the Way of the Heavens’ energy movement was restored, the huge eyeball behind the vault of heaven also gradually disappeared. Finally, it returned to its invisible state.

Xu Xiaoshou did not say much. Lowering its head, it said solemnly, “Let me ask you, is there any way to block that fellow’s spying from above?”

The grey mist figure’s eyes narrowed.

It was a little taken aback and uncertain.

Xu Xiaoshou’s solemn appearance didn’t seem to be fake.

However, if it believed that this guy, who wasn’t even at the Master Stage, could break through the confinement of this space...

Nonsense!

With a “Shua” sound, the thick grey mist turned into a bounded domain and directly enveloped the place where the two of them were.

“Under the sealed bounded domain, even in that perverted man’s space, he can’t see anything.”

“So, tell me, what do you want to talk about?”

The grey mist figure decided to give himself another hope.

With its current strength, it was very risky to wander through the spatial fragments.

Otherwise, it wouldn’t have given up such a good opportunity to sneak into the White Cave. It had to expose Mo Mo, the ghost beast host body, in the Eight Palace in advance and enter the White Cave under the supervision of the Red Coat.

“If the explosion is similar to the one just now, can it blow up this space?” Xu Xiaoshou went straight to the point.

“Suspected, Passive Points, +1.”

The grey mist figure’s pupils constricted. “From what you said... you were the one who caused the explosion just now?”

“Not exactly.”

Xu Xiaoshou did not dare to take the blame. “Do you know the fuse? The main cause of the explosion is the extreme power of ice and fire. My role is only to induce the combination of their powers.”

The grey mist figure was stunned.

Could this fellow really do it?

“Suspected. Passive Points, +1.”

“There’s no need to doubt it. I don’t have that much time to explain.”

Xu Xiaoshou waved his hand to stop this fellow from speaking and said, “Now, go and get the Three Days Frozen Calamity. At the very least, do your best to use the ice power.”

“I’ll go and get the Infernal Original Seed. As long as you’re fast enough, the plan will succeed.”

The grey mist figure’s face was filled with disbelief.

“You...”

“Listen to my command!”

Xu Xiaoshou flung his sleeves and interrupted the other party’s words. His expression was extremely confident.

“Cursed, Passive Points, +1.”

Listen to your command?

You’re just a freaking brat. How dare you say such words to an emperor like me?

“I...”

“I’m a fire-type!”

Xu Xiaoshou was resolute, and his words were unquestionable. “You just need to take care of yourself and don’t drop the ball.”

“...”

The grey mist figure was momentarily at a loss for words.

This fellow...

How dare you?!

This time, it even had the intention of killing this brat with a single slap.

“Also, don’t cause trouble.”

Xu Xiaoshou added, “I can help you to get out, but you have to agree to one condition.”

“What condition?” The grey mist figure’s face began to twitch.

“I can blow up the space, but I’ll need your Sealing Power for the spatial fragments that follow,” Xu Xiaoshou said.

The grey mist figure immediately understood.

This fellow’s strength was fundamentally insufficient.

He was also afraid of the spatial fragment. Although he could break through space, he was worried that he would lose his way in the spatial fragments and would not be able to come out at all.

Therefore, in the end...

The power of control was still in its hands!

“Tsk, I can go out by myself. There’s no need to listen to your nonsense.”

The grey mist figure sneered.

“If you don’t have to pay a price for leaving this place, why are you here listening to my opinion?” Xu Xiaoshou was amused.

“Moreover, since you have the leisure to listen to my command here, it means that the plan that you came up with by yourself can only be considered a worst-case scenario.”

“Not to mention that your vitality has been greatly damaged...”

“If you rely on your method to get out, do you have the energy left to defeat that fellow outside?”

The grey mist figure was silent for a moment.

It was somewhat impressed by Xu Xiaoshou’s brain.

If it was someone else who encountered a ghost beast, they might have already been scared shitless.

This fellow was not afraid of anything at all.

Instead, it was as if it was used to it. It even had the guts to directly bargain like buying vegetables at a market.

Just based on this courage...

“Alright, I promise you.”

The grey mist figure lifted his chin. “As long as you can break through this space, I’ll bring you out.”

“Let’s have a happy cooperation.”

Xu Xiaoshou extended his hand with a smile.

The grey mist in the air let out a sizzling sound and spread out in a large area, eventually enveloping the two supreme treasures on the horizon.

The grey mist figure’s body exploded and disappeared.

When it reappeared, it had already arrived at the side of the “Three Days Frozen Calamity”.

“Little fellow! You’re quite arrogant?”

Xu Xiaoshou took a deep look at the distant sky and withdrew his hand without any embarrassment, taking the opportunity to pat Aje’s shoulder.

“Go!”

...

“Pfft.”

A faint sound was burning in the sky.

The air was distorted.

Even the space seemed to be on the verge of being burned by the high temperature.

Xu Xiaoshou stared at the milky white fire seed in front of him.

To be honest, he didn't have much confidence in collecting this treasure.

But with the “condensing method of infernal heavens”, even if he couldn't collect it, he could still choose to detonate the power within at the last moment.

What he said just now wasn't false.

As long as the grey mist figure didn't drop the ball and could use a little bit of the power of the “Three Days Frozen Calamity”, Xu Xiaoshou would have some confidence in exploding this world again!

“It's just a pity that the Three Days Frozen Calamity...”

With a soft murmur, Xu Xiaoshou also knew that with outsiders around, he would not be able to obtain the two supreme treasures alone.

He turned his head to look at the other side.

The grey mist figure had already begun to move on the other side.

The dense sealing mist had already completely enveloped its body and the Three Days Frozen Calamity. Outsiders could not see what was going on inside at all.

“Has it started?”

Xu Xiaoshou retracted his gaze.

Although they had just talked about cooperation, Xu Xiaoshou only held less than one in ten thousand hope that this fellow would fulfill his promise in the end.

Only the heavens knew.

If Aje did not exist, this fellow would definitely take all the treasures.

And since this was his mentality, the final control of the space after the explosion was completely in his hands.

With the grey mist figure's crafty character...

If he could bring him out, Xu Xiaoshou felt that he would have to burn incense and pray to Buddha.

Not every ghost beast was as loyal as Xin Gugu.

This fellow probably decided to set him up in the end...

The fatal temptation of the “Infernal Original Seed” was right in front of him. Would the grey mist figure give up on it and put down their previous hatred and choose to save him, a mere Xu Xiaoshou?

“Unless their brains are fried!”

He shook his head and did not think about it anymore.

It was useless to think too much about the grey mist figure’s thoughts. He could only keep an eye out.

This was because even if it did not use its power to open up a path to the White Cave, Xu Xiaoshou could only use the method of blasting.

What he said just now was just to lower that guy’s guard.

If the grey mist figure did not cause trouble and launch any secret attacks on him when he was collecting the fire seed.

Xu Xiaoshou would be relieved.

“Then, how do I collect it?”

Xu Xiaoshou’s gaze returned to the “Infernal Original Seed” and he began to ponder.

Without a doubt, the words “Infernal Original Seed” that he got from the grey mist figure were definitely true.

In addition to the fact that this thing was emitting energy that came from the same source as his, Xu Xiaoshou felt that this should be the highest grade treasure of the Infernal lineage.

Perhaps, the Advanced Infernal Fire Seed could forge into a Sovereign Physique.

This Infernal Original Seed could forge into a sacred physique!

“Sacred physique...”

The unexpected gain was truly delightful.

However, the timing of its appearance wasn’t ideal.

Too early!

Xu Xiaoshou was distressed.

He had only eaten the Infernal Fire Seed before, and his physical body was only at the Master Physique.

Not only had he not eaten the Advanced Infernal Fire Seed, he hadn’t even dug it out yet. He had locked the White Skeleton in his Yuan Mansion for the time being.

If he were to cross such a huge level to collect the Infernal Original Seed...

Would he die?!

“Eat it?”

Xu Xiaoshou reached out his hand to check the temperature around the milky white fire seed, and the information bar immediately jumped up.

“Attacked, Passive Points, +1.”

“Attacked, Passive Points, +1.”

“...”

“Hiss.” Xu Xiaoshou felt a chill.

The damage was not great.

It was just a case of his fingers getting slightly burned.

With the operation of Eternal Vitality, he could recover completely.

However, the current situation was that he had not even touched the physical object, and this was the result.

If he swallowed it, it might look like a deep underground pit. From his head to toe, this fire seed would melt a passage.

Perhaps, the level of this thing could only be used by an existence like Elder Sang?

“Let’s try it with spiritual senses?”

Xu Xiaoshou refused to give up.

This thought made him release his spiritual senses.

However, there was an expected “Chi” sound, and the spiritual senses that were attached to it were burned directly.

Xu Xiaoshou’s brain twitched, and his entire body trembled from the pain.

“Darn it, this is too painful...”

He clutched his forehead and frowned.

Just as Xu Xiaoshou was about to use brute force to move it directly to his Yuan Mansion...

Suddenly, at the Purple Mansion Origin Court, the white bead, which was supposed to only release a call every ten minutes, began to tremble slightly.

“Om...”

As soon as the call was heard, Xu Xiaoshou saw the map of the White Cave again.

“This?”

He was shocked.

Xu Xiaoshou knew that he remembered the timing correctly.

The call just now was definitely not the one that would happen in ten-minute intervals, but the additional reaction triggered by his spiritual senses when it came into contact with the “Infernal Original Seed” in front of him!

“There’s a reaction?”

“There seems to be a connection between the two?”

Xu Xiaoshou was delighted.

His thoughts were instantly brought to the wretched saint’s fantasy realm.

At that time, the fantasy realm was scorching and the temperature was unimaginably high.

And that power, now that he thought about it, wasn’t it also the advanced version of white flame’s power?

“Could it be that the wretched saint is also from the Infernal lineage?”

Xu Xiaoshou was shocked by his own thoughts.

To be honest, he had thought of this possibility before.

But it didn’t make sense!

There was no reason for him to enter the White Cave. He had always been so lucky, always encountering treasures from the same lineage and even seniors.

Therefore, he immediately dismissed this thought.

But now he saw that the white bead had a connection with the Infernal Original Seed, Xu Xiaoshou couldn’t help but ponder.

“This white bead was the guidance given by that wretched saint when he was fleeing.”

“His target is without a doubt that large-scale void rift.”

“If I’m not wrong, he wants me to go to the location of that rift to find him...”

“But!”

Xu Xiaoshou was trying to reason with his thoughts when cold sweat suddenly broke out on his back.

“How can this guidance interact with the Infernal Original Seed?”

He was a little dumbfounded.

Could it be that he had been following the path that others had set for him all this while, and was progressing in a certain direction step by step?

“But how is this possible?”

Xu Xiaoshou felt that even Elder Sang might not know what he was doing after entering the White Cave this time.

With that old man’s strength, he couldn’t interfere in the operation of the other small world.

But now, looking back on his journey...

“Fire-type famed sword, Flame Python!”

“White Skeleton, Advanced Infernal Fire Seed!”

“Underground lava, Infernal Original Seed!”

Of the three, all of them were fire-type. All of them were treasures that could rapidly improve oneself, and they were suitable for him.

“How could it be such a coincidence?”

Xu Xiaoshou panicked.

One time could be a coincidence.

But two times, three times...

It was absolutely impossible!

Most of the so-called coincidences in the world were just wishful thinking.

Xu Xiaoshou didn't think that he would be the chosen one. How could he be so lucky?

Mu Zixi who swallowed the “Source of the World” wasn't as lucky as him, right?

“What the hell is this...”

Xu Xiaoshou felt like this was a setup again.

But what could he do?

There was no solution!

Looking back at the Infernal Original Seed lying quietly in front of him, Xu Xiaoshou finally understood what fate was.

If he wanted to get out, he would need to use the power of the fire seed in front of him.

And once he used this fire seed, he would definitely fall deeply into that saint's trap.

“This...”

“This isn't logical, right?”

“Could it be that I'm overthinking things?”

“It's not to the extent that the wretched saint could even predict that I would be trapped in the space of the man in the red dress or even the relationship between the grey mist figure and me?”

Xu Xiaoshou racked his brains, but he was at a loss.

He suddenly had the thought of completely giving up on this precious treasure in front of him.

But...

It was impossible!

If he gave up, forget about the saint's trap.

Just the grey mist figure who was trapped in the same world, Xu Xiaoshou might not be able to withstand it. If that guy could master the Three Days Frozen Calamity...

"If he dies, he dies!"

"Darn it, I don't believe that all of you can think so far ahead."

Xu Xiaoshou refused to believe it and used his spiritual senses to attach to the Infernal Original Seed again.

"Chi!"

A sharp pain came.

"Om..."

As expected, the call that sounded like the chanting of the Great Path appeared again.

Xu Xiaoshou's head was throbbing from the pain.

He stopped again and looked at the map. He felt that he had understood something.

"It can't be?"

"It's the map again..."

"The last time Elder Sang told me to enter the Tianxuan Gate, it was also a map. But at least he gave clear guidance."

"This time, he let me into the White Cave. It was just a sentence to let go and be bold..."

"Could it be that this saint is actually his guidance?"

Xu Xiaoshou's pupils constricted. He felt that this idea was absurd.

What was Elder Sang's cultivation level?

How could he predict the saint?

But if it wasn't and there was no connection between the two, Xu Xiaoshou finds it unbelievable.

The conclusion was ridiculous.

But the result was very likely to be completely correct!

Morse had said it before.

When all the impossible conditions were eliminated, the rest, no matter how hard it was to believe, was the truth.

"So, this is the truth?"

Xu Xiaoshou felt that he had jumped out of Elder Sang's chess game. Not long after, he fell into another bigger game of chess.

At this moment, he suddenly had a deeper understanding of the "Cage theory" of the night of apprenticeship.

His body suddenly twitched.

"Startled, Passive Points, +1."

Xu Xiaoshou looked at the information column and suddenly cursed.

"Shut up!"

He gritted his teeth, and a difficult look of determination appeared on his face.

"Darn it, I don't care anymore!"

"If I die, I die!"

A part of his spiritual senses entered the white bead, but there was no response.

Xu Xiaoshou used another part of his spiritual sense and attached it to the "Infernal Original Seed"!

"Chi Chi..."

This time, no matter how painful his brain was, he did not let it go.

He continued to send out his spiritual senses.

The spiritual sense desperately attached itself to the fire seed.

A burning aura spread out.

The high temperature seemed to follow the spiritual sense and burn the entire Purple Mansion Origin Court.

"Wu!"

Xu Xiaoshou was bleeding from all seven orifices, and the pain was unbearable.

He clenched his fists, and his fingernails were deeply embedded in his flesh, but he refused to give up.

"Om..."

"Om..."

"Om..."

It was as if an old bell in an ancient temple had been rung.

Whenever his consciousness was about to fall into a daze, the sound of the Great Path Sanskrit would always appear at the first moment, shaking the spiritual altar awake and cleansing his mind.

Xu Xiaoshou saw a map of the White Cave that continued to appear.

Every single dot of light was so clear.

The void rift at the end of the map looked like it was about to jump out of a piece of paper. The thick attractive force seemed like it wanted to swallow his soul.

“Move!”

“Didn’t you react?”

“Collect the fire seed for me!”

Xu Xiaoshou grimaced and roared in his heart.

The instructions seemed to have worked.

After the call continued for a while, a surge of scorching energy suddenly surged out from the depths of the crack in the map. It directly pierced through the Purple Mansion Origin Court and wrapped around the “Infernal Original Seed” in the void along with the spiritual senses.

“Xiu!”

A white light flashed.

Xu Xiaoshou felt the Origin Court tremble as if it was a bolt from the blue. It was so loud that his skull was going to crack.

“What the heck...”

“Pu!”

He spat out a mouthful of blood.

His vision was completely obscured by the color of blood, and Xu Xiaoshou fell out of the void while holding his head.

“Ma Ma...”

Aje’s eyes and hands were quick. He stretched out his hand and held his “Ma Ma” in a princess carry pose.

“Ma Ma?”

It called out once again and looked at Xu Xiaoshou, whose head was covered in blood, and was a little surprised.

What happened?

Was there a sneak attack?

Looking around, Aje did not find any suspicious characters.

He suddenly turned his head and glared at the dense sealing mist on the other side.

“Ma Ma!”

His body moved while he was carrying Xu Xiaoshou. Aje was planning to take revenge.

“Wait, wait!”

Xu Xiaoshou’s weak voice was heard.

Aje immediately stopped in its tracks.

“Ma Ma?”

“Received Concern, Passive Points, +1.”

Seeing the message pop up in the information bar, Xu Xiaoshou felt a warmth in his heart. He felt as if his brain had been pacified.

“Calm down. That guy didn’t do it. It’s not that fast...”

Struggling to get up, Xu Xiaoshou quickly looked up.

“It’s gone?”

The Infernal Original Seed was gone?

He immediately used his spiritual senses to look inside the Purple Mansion Origin Court.

As expected.

In the Origin Court, besides the white bead of light left by the wretched saint, there was another milky white fire seed.

The unceasing pain was caused by the high temperature of the Origin Court.

Xu Xiaoshou was on the verge of breaking down.

“Are you crazy?!”

“You dragged this thing in just like that?”

“How could I withstand this thing? When the time comes, I’ll be burned into a cripple. What else do you want to do?”

“You want me to help you accomplish great things? Dream on... ahh!”

“Darn it...”

His head shook violently, and his temples twitched.

Xu Xiaoshou felt that his hair will be burned off after he was lashing out.

He was really panicking.

He thought the white bead would help with digestion.

But if it was pulled in like that, who could stand it?

He forced his spiritual senses so hard that he was at risk of turning into an idiot, and he managed to pull it in.

It was even connected to the energy reserve above, and there was a second left for training.

You didn't use any restrictions to draw in...

Mutual destruction?

"Om..."

The white bead seemed to have been woken up by the scolding.

In the depths of the crack on the map, a majestic force surged out again, directly enveloping the Infernal Original Seed.

In the blink of an eye, the high temperature emitted by the fire seed disappeared.

As if it was completely sealed, the heat was even lesser than the Infernal Fire Seed.

Xu Xiaoshou thought that he had become numb from the heat.

However, when he glanced at the message pane, the "Attacked" status had also stopped firing.

This meant that the Infernal Original Seed had been suppressed!

"Good Heavens..."

Xu Xiaoshou was shocked.

He wasn't surprised that a treasure like the Infernal Original Seed could be sealed so easily. Instead, he looked at the light bead in disbelief.

"So, you can actually communicate?"

He was a little frightened.

He had originally thought that this bead was just a gift from the wretched saint before he left.

At most, it was just a treasure map that couldn't be unsealed.

But now, these scoldings had surprisingly made Xu Xiaoshou discover a fact that couldn't be twisted.

"This light bead is definitely the saint's trump card!"

"It's used to communicate at critical moments!"

"It could even communicate and guide power through the crack. Doesn't that mean that as long as there's a need..."

"He can come over at any time?"

Xu Xiaoshou's pupils constricted and a chill ran down his spine.

"Startled, Passive Points, +1."
