

chapter 15

After a seriously eventful night I woke up feeling super refreshed. Wanda laying fast asleep in my arms. I've never felt better.

"You know its rude to stare." She murmur. Her voice croaky from just waking up. "Oh shut it"

"Hmm last night was amazing" she says sitting up on my lap straddling me. "Hmm hard already?" She asks teasing me while she rocks up and down my dick.

"I thought I satisfied your needs enough last night" I say before she slaps her lips against mine. "I can't never get enough of this" she mutters in-between kisses. Before reaching over to the cabinet and getting a condom out and looks at me for consent. "May I?" She asks while she begins stroking my hard dick. "How could I say no. That feels so good wanda"

"I'm about to make you feel so much better" She states putting the condom on the tip before rolling it down my shaft sending shivers down my back.

"Tell me you want me"

"I don't want you I need you wanda"

"Such a good girl" she teases before sliding herself down on my dick.

"What the fuck?" Wanda whispers. I shrug at her indicating I have no idea who it is. "Who is it?" I ask while wanda slaps me "it could be a murder" she whispers shouts.

"It's your dad"

I jump out of bed "nope a lot worse than that" I state looking around for something to wear.

"Fuck fuck." I quickly hide wanda's body with the duvet and slip my pants on and a shirt before opening the door.

"Dad. What the hell are you doing here. We are meant to be in hiding"

"About that. Um there's an alien guy who wants to kill half of the world. So um we kinda need you guys out of hiding so we can kill the bad guys."

"Dad I'm not..." i think about it before answering. I want to be a better person so here goes nothing in me. "Fine I'll help. I'll let wanda know she's still sleeping. Just go and make yourself some coffee I'll be back in a minute"

I slip into our room and see wanda is now dressed with a worried look on her face.

"I don't think it's a good idea to go back. What if people get hurt. I don't want you to get hurt"

"Come on wanda. We have to. This is bigger than us."

"I know your right. And I hate that your right"

"Well be okay. Now lets go see what Tony has to say"
