

chapter 7

On the way to meet yelena the car ride was quiet wanda didn't say a word to me and she faced the window. Damn she really hates me huh.

"Look I'm so.."

"Don't. Don't you fucking dare. You don't mean it"

"I do if you just let me apolo....."

"You don't mean it you have no humanity. Your a ruthless monster and you make me sick"

"Yeh well you weren't saying that when you were screaming my name the night we met"

"Fuck you. Fuck you. You meant nothing to me. I hate you"

"Fine I hate you too"

"Real mature" she states sco ing at me.

"Wanda leave me alone stop pushing me I'm gonna lose it soon"

"What you gonna do kill me?"

"That's it I'm pulling over"

"Oo scary"

"Not yet but I will be" I say pressing diwn on the breaks hard. I jump out of the car and quickly run into the forest. I ran as fast as I coukd away from wanda so I wouldn't hurt her. I don't know why I cares the little bitch did this. Anyway I wolf out and continue to run for miles until I calm down. A er about half hour I was making my way back to the car where wanda was pacing back and forth on the phone. She was waving her hands about probably taking about me. I continue to walk and when she sees me her eyes turn red. I put my hands up to signal surrender and her eyes turn back emerald green. I go to talk but she stops me.

"Don't. Save it. Get in the car and drive"

I nod and get back in the car and begin driving. I drive as fast as I could to meet yelena. It was so awkward and you could cut the tension with a knife.

"Were almost there" I state trying to break the tension.

"Ok"

"I'm sorry for running of. I had to. Sometimes it's hard to control the wolf side of me"

"I get it. I struggle to control my emotions to" she admits.

I don't say anything but nod and continue to drive. Eventually we pull up and see yelena waiting for us.

"Your late"

I chuckle at her and pull her into a hug "I missed you too"

I hear wanda sco slightly. Was she jealous? Anyway yelena gave us passports and new ids to be able to get accross the country. She gave us new bank cards and details and Tony would transfer us money as and when we needed.

"How about we all go and get a drink I know I quiet place and you two look like you could use a drink"

"Sure" I agree.

Wanda says quiet and yelana walks up to her and nudges her shoulder gently.

"I know she can be a pain but I promise you I'm more fun"

"She's not a pain she's a murderer"

I finally lose it with her and I instantly regret the words that come out of my mouth "And your a weak bitch who couldn't save her parents or her brother"

"I...I...can't believe you said that."

"Yeh well you kept pushing me. You wanted an argument. You wanted to see my true colours well there they are. Your welcome little witch"

"ENOUGH" yelena screams. "Jesus you two are idiots. Get over it both of you. Y/n I know you like to make people belive your a dick but this has to stop"

I sco and begin to walk in the direction of the quiet bar yelena was talking about. And I hear both of them walk behind.

A few hours later we had all forgotten about thw arguments we were all singing and dancing forgetting all our problems. I instinctively pull wanda closer and she begins to grind her hips deeper into my crotch. Wrapping her hand around my neck getting lost in the moment. She's so free and happy looking I wish she would act like this all the time. But our moment doesn't last long when she throws up on the dance floor. I quickly pick her up and take her to the bathroom.

"Leave me alone y/n" she slurs.

"Jesus how much have you drunk?"

"Too much" she says before puking I'm the toilet. I put her hair behind her and tie it up into a pony tail. Once she done I find yelena dancing with some dude and told her I was gonna find a hotel because it was too late and we were far to drunk to drive home. She insisted we stated with her but me and wanda would have to stay in the living room on the sofa. Great.

We wall home and I had to carry wanda because she could bearly walk so I carried her bridal style. We got to yelenas she went straight to bed and I placed wanda on the sofa and changed her out of her clothes and pit her in my t shirt to sleep in. Then I sat on the balcony for most of the night. Every now and then my eyes would wander of to look at wanda. She looked so peaceful. She looked content. I wish she would look at me the way she did when we met. Now she looks at me as a villan even though I guess I am. I need to get out of my head.

I must have fallen asleep because a few hours later I felt a tap to my shoulder I look up to find wanda wrapped in the blanket I placed around her and she was full of tears.

"Hey what's wrong?"

"I don't feel so good"

"I know how about we get you back on the sofa so you can sleep it o?"

"I can't theres something wrong"

"What is it?"

I go to touch her but she flinches.

I instantly pull away "Are you scared of me?"

"No I just. Its nothing"

"Hey come on let me help you"

"Will you just rub my back? Peitro would do that whenever I felt anxious. I just I just need that right now."

"Of course come on let's get you on the couch"

She sits on the couch with her legs crossed and I places my hand on her back and rub it in circles.

"How am I in your clothes? We um did we?"

I chuckle at her comment "No I'm not into sleeping with unconscious people. I know you think bad of me but I know what it feels like to be forced to do things you don't want to. I wouldn't do that to anybody. I changed your clothes because they were full of sick"

"I know you wouldn't have done that. Thank you. You must be cold without your shirt."

"I'm fine. Just lie down and try to get back to sleep. We have a long drive in the morning"

"Okay"

She lies down and I kneel down on the floor next to her and place a blanket on her and continue to rub her back until she falls asleep. Once she's sleeping I pack our things and take them back to the car ready to go back to the cabin.
