Chapter 11 Frankenstein the Immortal

It dawned on me, and I was like, this is where I'm going to finally obtained it. I'm not going to take the chances of letting a single pin slip off my fingers.

I'd place my head up high, fantasizing on those Books and documentaries.

I Frankenstein creature, didn't have anything reprogramming in my memory at this point. All I could focused on, is the answers, yes! the answers, that's the solution.
I started searching and reading on everything that I could lay my hands on.

  The Books, yes, the books, there were so many of them, where deep secret, mystery and knowledge were stored.

They were written in different languages, logic and symbols that are mostly beyond Interpretations and recognition.

I also found a magic box, that I believe it's content will be very crucial, But I was unable to open the magic box, so I kept it separately and continue on my search and reading on those Books.

The more I read on those books, the more enlightened I became.

the Books were that powerful, some were magical and many reveal how some extraterrestrial beings evolve around the universe and planetary systems.

There were also Powerful Books of dark shadows that can only be read, with the help of the, the reader's blood.

With such a book, if you do not have Blood enough within you to read all through its pages, you're definitely going to die, before completely reading through it.

To succeed in reading, you'll have to cross-examine blood level, Before reading and using a time strategy that will work.

Some Books were highly mysterious, when they are opened, their letters and symbols vanishes, it disappears into the thin air.

There was also a Book that was changing in its size, shape and letters.
When time gets to the 6 th hour, one changes will definitely occur.

When it stays and get to another six hours, another change will take place, either in shape, size or on its very letters.

I kept on searching and reading until I had my hands on one special Book, on it was written, ''Frankenstein the Immortal.'' This particular Book was considered so special because it seem related to me, but how is that possible, I really don't have the answers..

I took the Book with the tittle, ''Frankenstein the Immortal.'' and I opened it, as soon as It was opened, I became separated from my Terrestrial and my diaphragm fall unconscious to the ground.

The Book struck through my membranes and bringing life into my entire organ sensors, as I read on its pages.

It was written in a mystery language and only one with some special abilities could read through its paragraph...

On the first page, was a Decree, pronounce, to the chosen ones, sons of creations and children of the eternal one..

To only those who can read and interpret the orders and verdict of this letters..

''That which was, will always be''

''If you believe, you will receive the precious gifts''

''the path of immortality, the curse and the great reward''

The More I read through its pages, the more enlightened I became, the more answers I get on every question I'd asked in existence.

The book reveals secret knowledge in creations, the life, history of Frankenstein and speaks of future prophecy...

''Dead will one day, Knock at the door of the living''
''To be save, is first finding a way''

The book tell how creations were let down from the upper atmosphere to the lower atmosphere from an UFO.

Some memory kept on reprogramming and flashing within me, which seems I was let down here from an UFO in a fall but doesn't appear true.

The book has account of battles in the upper atmosphere, and it stated a prophecy of an incoming war in the lower atmosphere.

It account on records, which Frankenstein the immortal confronted.

Frankenstein creature was a Star warrior, who fought against the devils clan in the higher atmosphere and lower atmosphere.
Nothing could destroy him, since he was made immortal.
