

SEQUEL IS OUT!

---

Hey guys!

If you've finished "I'm not yours" and liked it then I'm happy to tell you that I've started writing the sequel and the first chapters are up! The story is told from Dimitri's point of view.

You are Mine

Is out now, so if you are craving more then check it out ;)

Also, I want to thank you all for the positive and negative reaction to this story, I know it got a little dark there at the end. For you vampire lovers out there, I suggest my other story Dark Possession. It's about a human that gets kidnapped by a vampire, she thinks she's just a slave to him but has no idea how he really feels.

I hope you all are safe and well, please don't hesitate to comment if you have anything to say or just want to recommend stories :)
