

I'm Richer Than My Billionaire Ex-husband Chapter 100

Alina had changed the children's clothes, but they were thin.

The weather here in Ingford was still good, but it was still a bit cold in the morning and evening.

She had someone send the clothes over immediately.

"Lady Alina, don't worry, the child is in good spirits, it's not too serious."

Lucy looked at Alina's nervous face and reassured her.

Alina nodded her head.

Megan called.

On the phone, Megan kept apologizing to Alina, "Alina, I'm sorry, I'm really sorry!"

"It's okay, Grandma Megan."

"Penny is so young, how on earth did she..." Apparently the whole family were now wondering how on earth Penny got from Shirling to Ingford, how on earth did Penny get on the plane.

After all, a child of less than three years old is the most innocent of ages to an adult and could not have done anything, but how did this child do it?

Alina took a deep breath and said, "Well, Grandma Megan, take care of yourself and don't worry too much."

"Good that she went to see you, Alina, I was really scared to death!" At the sound of Alina's concern for her health, Megan on the other side of the phone burst into tears.

It was a relief to hear that the child had reached Alina's side.

After all, she was only two years old, what would have happened if something had happened?

"Come on, Grandma Megan, don't be upset."

"Alina, I'm sorry, I really didn't know she was going to leave the house, I really didn't know!"

Andre said, after checking the CCTV, that the child had left the house alone.

She got into a taxi at the door.

Then the airport surveillance was checked and she went through security by herself and handed something to the security officer.

Then the security officer took her to the plane and handed her to the flight attendant.

The whole process went very smoothly.

After reassuring Megan for a while, Alina hung up the phone. This morning, her phone had kept ringing..

Even Luna, Andre's mother, called, which shows how powerful this girl is, and the whole family was affected by her.

The child was clutching a mug, her mouth smashing against the straw, looking at Alina with a serious look, her eyes were innocent.

"Penny." Alina held her forehead and came to the child's side, taking Penny's soft hands.

On her wrists were two little silver bracelets with bells on them that Megan had bought for her, and they looked great with her dress.

Alina took the cup off her mouth.

"Okay, now can you tell mummy how you did it?" In a slightly serious tone, she asked

The child looked at her innocently, "I miss you, mummy."

These three words were said with bit of aggression.

Alina's heart felt like it had been stabbed by a needle.

"I know you miss mummy, but mummy wants to know how you came here?"

"Uncle."

"Uncle?"

"Yes."

"Did uncle book your ticket?"

"Yeah."

"....." Alina winced! If it was Andre, he wouldn't have done that.

It couldn't be Brooklyn, that was even more unlikely, Brooklyn was in the lab all the time and rarely went back to Collins Castle.

"Uncle Andre?"

"Uh-huh."

"How about the car for the airport?"

"Uncle." The child's words were not very clear, so she was very brief in what she said.

Alina's brain was in buzz.

She didn't know how to hold back her anger.

Then she went to the other side and called Andre, who heard this, his brain went blank!

"Wait a minute."

Without waiting for Alina to say anything else, he hung up the phone.

Alina's mind was splitting, and she didn't wait for Andre's call to come back.

Lucy rushed over with the child in her arms.

"Lady Alina, Mr. Collins is here!"

Alina, "....."

At that moment, she felt like fainting.

When she was in Shirling, she thought Caleb was going to be there, even in the same city, and she didn't feel safe.

And now she was in a place that Caleb would shamelessly go in and out of at any time.

She really wanted to bury herself.

"Get the kid upstairs."

"Yes!"

Lucy rushed upstairs with the child in her arms.

When Alina arrived in the lobby, she saw Caleb's chilly eyes, and the flicker in his eyes was all about danger.

Alina, "You..."

She moved her lips to say something, but at that moment, nothing came out.

Caleb looked at her, his eyes darkening!

"Why are you in such a hurry this early in the morning?" At this point, Caleb paused.

The look in Alina's eyes also became more dangerous.

Alina looked at Caleb's eyes, and drew a breath of cold air.

She took a breath, but could not relieve herself. Caleb looked at the clothes Alina hadn't changed out of until now.

There was a cold glint in his eyes.

"Alina, I said, once we got divorce, you stop everything!" Caleb said in a stern voice.

Alina froze for a moment.

So he wasn't talking about the child! She felt relieved instantly.

It was obvious that she had come here so early in the morning, just because of the reports today.

"I told you yesterday that no one has the right to hurt my reputation!" The Oklens trip did hurt her reputation.

It was her character that's being destroyed, too.

Although she may not have been as righteous as she could have been! But to protect herself, she was absolutely obliged to!

The two's eyes met in the air, and their breath flowed.

Alina, "You don't have to look at me like that, I don't think I've done anything wrong."

"....."

"On the contrary, you need to take care of your lover."

Alina looked at Caleb with determination.

Caleb's brain was buzzing! Without waiting for him to say anything, Alina said with increasing sharpness, "With a beautiful woman in his arms, can't you tell the difference between right and wrong? No wonder Mrs. Collins doesn't want you anymore."

Caleb, "....."

It had to be said that his relationship with the family had been a taboo in Caleb's mind for years.

The two of them were tough as nails, suddenly, Penny's bawling came from upstairs.

Alina's motivation to fight against Caleb was swept away in a moment of shock!
