

I'm Richer Than My Billionaire Ex-husband Chapter 103

Andre was in trouble.

And everything was clear about Emma, and Caleb finally called in Ayden , the publicist.

Everything was hushed up, no explanations, but no more reports.

When Stella came to see Alina.

All the time she was complaining that Caleb was a scum! "Hope he can protect her for the rest of life!"

She was pissed off that thought Caleb knew Emma's true face, he still protected her.

"All right." Stella looked furious.

Alina didn't feel like it now.

Alina had seen how Stella could swear, and when she arrived, she had insulted Caleb and Emma for half an hour.

In the past, she would have been relieved by this.

But today, having just found out about her grandmother, she couldn't tell you how she felt.

"But it's good that you have divorced him!" Stella said.

It's just that it's such a good story that it would be worth a fortune to write and report it.

But Caleb did not allow to report any of it!

Everything was being kept under wraps, and Stella was affected.

Alina nodded.

In any case, it was good that it was now legally clear.

Stella, "Did you get Mr. Francis to check the recording out?"

It's the recording of the phone call to her.

Stella didn't know who it was, but she thought Alina would be able to do it, and if Stella hadn't mentioned it, she would have forgotten.

The recording, which had been going around, was about Emma, and no one knew what it was about.

Alina looked at Stella and said, "I'll have someone look into it, but you should leave it alone for now."

Although the Oklens affair was now behind.

But it had to come out anyway.

Joslan Hughes was not to be slandered! You need to get enough of this behind the scenes.

Those who want to blacken you will know what you are doing to those who blacken you.

Once you do, you have to make everyone afraid, so that everyone understands that there are things that could not be done.

"Yeah." Stella nodded.

It had to be investigated!

It had to be about Emma, but Stella had the same idea as Alina.

Emma had wanted to destroy Alina completely last time.

So how can we not find out who's behind it!

Andre came to Ingford.

He spent an hour in the AIG Building and then turned up at Mulherd Manor with a bruised face.

Alina looked at Andre's face and she was angry, "What's wrong?"

"How on earth did you fall for that mad dog? And you married him!" Andre was really pissed off.

Alina, "....."

It was better not to talk about Caleb, but talking about Caleb was making her head hurt.

Andre, "He's been tampering with the projects going on in Ingford too!"

"What's he doing?"

"Trying to kill me."

Alina, "....." and her eyelids twitched.

Alina took several deep breaths, but could not suppress the unease in her heart.

Then she looked at Andre apologetically, and before she could say anything, she heard Andre say, "But he didn't get it right either."

"So now, you're really in fight?" Alina looked at Andre with puzzle.

Wasn't that what they were acting like now?

Andre, "He's the one who's lost his mind!"

But Alina felt Andre lost his mind too.

Looking at Andre's face, she had a feeling that Caleb was hurt too.

Suddenly, she approached Andre.

Andre was smoking a cigarette and was startled by her sudden movement, "What are you doing?"

Despite all the buzz about them, the two of them are still very much at arm's length.

Alina froze at the way Andre bounced away instantly.

Alina rubbed her nose, "Is it going to hurt your work now that you're making so much noise?"

It's fine to fight.

But if it affects the company, it's not good.

But based on the current situation, there must be affect, but Andre arrogantly said, "He hit only the surface."

When Alina heard this, she was relieved.

Knowing that there was much underneath VIG that the world didn't know about was a big part of what protected the business in times of turmoil.

Even Caleb didn't know much about VIG.

So what is being fought is superficial.

After all, no one has dared to challenge VIG like this in years, and now Caleb is jumping on it like crazy.

It's crazy and irritating.

AIG and VIG are fighting! Caleb doesn't care, but Andre does.

He really cares about his reputation.

A lot of people have been asking about him and Alina now, and they're all close friends!

So, there are things that are not so much about it, but when it's passed around for a long time, people think it's so much about it.

And why did Andre care so much?

Alina wasn't sure, but there was something wrong with him for the last year.

"Wait, that's not right!"

"What?" Alina's sudden shock stunned Andre.

Alina looked at Andre, "I'm the chairman of AIG now!"

Andre, "....."

When the document was handed to her, the old Collins seemed to be worried about Caleb in some way!

She could not love Caleb, but she was going to keep what the old Collins had given her.

And now this damned man used her assets to fight her people?

When she thought that, Alina was pissed off.

"You!" Andre didn't know what to say to Alina now.

And Alina's mood was also hit hard.
