

I'm Richer Than My Billionaire Ex-husband Chapter 104

Alina finally showed up in AIG, and Caleb's mouth lifted in a sarcastic smile at her appearance, "Slow to react!"

Alina was already unstable in her mood, now she was in a frenzy.

"Caleb, what is wrong with you? It's left behind by Grandpa MAX, and you started it!"

And that's how he is fighting with Andre?

This was revenge on her! She had just got this international business, yet he was making a fuss.

With the way things are going between him and Andre, it won't be long before the huge international conglomerate goes bankrupt.

Crazy!

Alina had now seen what madness really was.

"And now you want to have it all to yourself?" Caleb looked at her and laughed sarcastically.

It was a dangerous smile, with a coldness that would destroy everything.

Alina drew a cold breath.

Looking at Caleb in front of her, "What do you mean?"

"I said, I can give it to you and I can destroy it!" Caleb's tone grew deeper and deeper.

So, he was getting back at her.

Without waiting for Alina to say anything, she heard Caleb continue, "What do you think happens when you go from being a high-flying Joslan Hughes to a down-and-out family with hundreds of millions in debt?"

When she heard that, Alina let out a cold breath.

Now she finally understood what Caleb's madness was all this time.

He was crazy and he was going to bite her in the ass?

"Do you hate me that much?" Alina said, her whole mind reeling.

Caleb, "Of course I do!"

"I hate you more, don't I?" Alina said, looking at Caleb with hatred.

"There was bit of bit of guilt for you."

But that guilt was finally shattered when he found out she had a daughter with Andre.

No one knew what Caleb was going through in those days, three years and two months between her disappearance and her appearance, and every night of Caleb's life during that long period of time.

It was a torment!

How many nights he smoked alone in the dark until dawn, but for three years and two months, Alina had a child with another man.

No matter how much guilt he felt, the moment he found out about the child, Caleb collapsed in mind.

"You married me, and you had the child with someone else!

Alina's brain was so dizzy!

"No, I..!"

"Now that you've done it, you have to have the courage to bear the price." Caleb said, viciously.

Now Alina's mind was buzzing.

She felt that her world had been turned upside down.

What the hell was this!

She was now completely confused and disoriented by Caleb.

As she said, she was the one who hated Caleb the most! And now all of a sudden, he hated her with a passion.

What was this all about?

"State your terms!" Alina had come in a frenzy, and after hearing Caleb's words, she was pissed off

She just wanted it to be over.

With Caleb's current madness, at this rate, Alina was likely to end up with hundreds of millions of dollars in debt.

She was not so rich, but she had a good life.

The only thing that matters is her grandmother!

After finding out about her grandmother, she went back to Shirling.

It was going to be smooth lifetime of living like this. But she never thought that Caleb would have gotten into all this trouble.

And that was how Alina's world was split up.

"What? Scared?" Caleb suddenly came close to her, his warm breath on her neck, making Alina shiver.

She was tempted to duck.

But the brute force of Caleb's hand on her slender waist gave her nowhere to go.

The kisses were overwhelming!

Alina, "....."

Her brain exploded with a buzz.

She reached out to push Caleb away, but her cold hands were instantly shackled by Caleb, and the sky was spinning as he embraced her and buried her in the sofa.

Alina, "....."

Her heart was already beating wildly, and when she felt Caleb's warmth, her mind went blank at that moment.

"Caleb, get off me!" Alina was completely furious.

Anger that added more heat to the ambiguity.

What did this man take her for? With such conditions?

There was a pain on her lips.

It hurt so much that tears were coming out of her eyes.

She looked at Caleb with anger. And Caleb looked at her with a colder look in his eyes, his cold fingers rubbing her chin.

The corners of his mouth lifted in a mocking smile, “What? Think I’m going to let Andre off the hook by doing this to you?”

Alina, “.....”

“You’re not worth that much with that body!”

Alina raised her hand to slap him across the face, but the force of her wrist shackled her.

“Let go.”

“But do you think if you and I had a child too, Andre would leave you with hundreds of millions of dollars in debt too?”

Alina, “.....”.

Caleb was taking revenge, that was the biggest realization in her mind right now.

Yes, this man was definitely getting back at her.

Caleb laughed sarcastically at her reaction, “I checked, you’re a big shareholder in VIG, Alina, you’re really something.”

Only a few years with Andre, and she got so much security from him? Or was it simply that they had been together before the divorce?

The danger in Caleb radiated even more when she thought this.

Alina, “.....”

Before Alina could say anything, Andre’s phone call came in and when Caleb saw the number, his was pissed off.

They were so reckless now! In their minds, he and Alina were no longer related.

But it was his decision if they were related or not..

Alina felt Caleb’s change.

“Let go of me.”

Caleb’s grip on her tightened as she struggled and seeing the worry in her eyes, Caleb picked up the phone.

Pressing the answer button, Alina’s breath stopped!

Before she could say anything, there was a force on her waist that made her grunt.

And then, meeting Caleb's evil smile in his eyes, she saw that he picked up the phone and said to Andre on the other end of the receiver, "Tonight, she's not coming back."

Alina, "....."
