

I'm Richer Than My Billionaire Ex-husband Chapter 106

Werland Villa.

Tears welled up in Lois' eyes when she saw Caleb return with Alina in tow, "Lady Alina!"

Alina didn't have much affection for the people here, but for Lois, she had a good impression!

Lois took care of her all the time.

Alina, "Lois."

"It's good that you are back. The kitchen knew you would be back and was preparing your favourite food in the morning."

Lois said excitedly.

And Alina looked subconsciously at the back of Caleb in front of her.

In the morning? Did he call?

Her heart was stifled!

At the dinner table.

Looking at the food from three years ago, Alina's heart was choked.

The last time she had been brought here, she wouldn't have wanted to come in.

And now!

She didn't expect that she'd be forced to come back here even though she'd gotten away from Caleb.

The habitual act of putting something she didn't like into Caleb's bowl made both Alina and Caleb freeze.

Because it was a habit she had done when she was around Caleb three years ago! Whenever she didn't eat something, she would give it to Caleb.

And it's a habit Alina has had since she was girl, when her parents were around, she would give her dad anything she didn't eat.

When she came to the Collins family, she would give it to Caleb.

"If you don't eat it...!"

Before she could finish her sentence, Caleb ate the broccoli.

Alina's heart was already heavy, and when she saw Caleb's actions, she felt even worse.

Lois laughed at Alina's gesture.

So when the two of them get angry, they are really angry, but they would be fine!

It's been so many years.

She hoped that this time the two would have good terms..

The fact that the young master was able to bring Alina back at this time, when there was so much trouble outside, means that the outside years are not credible.

The meal was a bit tedious.

After it was over, Alina looked at Caleb, who was smoking, and she sat across from him, uneasy.

Caleb obviously felt the same way.

"Do you want to go back to him that badly?" His tone was cold.

Alina looked at him. There was something in her eyes.

It was hard enough to be in the same room with him now.

Caleb took a deep breath with a dangerous twinkle in his eye, "Go back if you want to, no one is forcing you."

Alina, "....."

His words were easy to say, but once he made a request, if he didn't get what he wanted, the consequences would be too much for everyone to bear.

Although Andre has enough power to stand up to him, if she did leave now, what awaited Andre would be Caleb's wildest revenge.

"A game of chess? Or tea?" Alina said, holding back her resistance.

It was boring to sit with him all night.

She longed to go back to Mulherd Manor.

The child was there.

The child loved Andre too, but at night, Alina was worried that Andre wouldn't be able to coax the child.

Caleb's mouth lifted in a light smile and he looked at Alina sarcastically, "In your mind, am I such a nice guy?"

The tone of his voice was more than seductive.

Alina's heart sank.

She looked at Caleb with a stoic look!

"You know, I'd give up everything to fight with you!" Alina couldn't resist.

The next moment, however, her threat was nullified by the tone of Caleb's voice.

Caleb said, "You won't."

Alina, "....."

"You're not afraid of anything! But you can't let go of Andre!" and Caleb had Alina's finger on the pulse.

No matter what happens these days, whenever she hadn't defended Andre first?

Under the circumstances, Caleb didn't believe that she would really dare to fight him.

Alina, "....." If this had happened before, she would've cursed him badly.

But now, she was still scared by this man! No matter what he does now, it's always her he's messing with.

Yes, she was the biggest shareholder in AIG now, and she was the one who lost out when he made such a fuss.

"I'll fire you if you don't believe me!" Alina finally said to Caleb in a fierce voice.

She was now the chairman of the board, and although she was the one who didn't care about anything, it wasn't difficult to fire someone.

Caleb was smiling at her threat.

Caleb said, "Want to try it?"

"You!"

“Alina, you’ve got a lot of nerve, how dare you threaten me now?”

Just now, Alina was threatening Caleb.

But Caleb had no weaknesses nowadays, and her threat ended up like a punch on cotton.

She was the one who ended up being upset.

“Good, I want to take a break during this time, starting tomorrow, I will not go to the company, how about it?”

Alina, “.....”

The best way to get mad at this man was to get Andre to go to the office and take care of him if he didn’t go tomorrow.

But then she dismissed the idea.

One child had already caused such a bloodbath, if she dared to take Andre to the company tomorrow, not to mention VIG would be finished, AIG would be finished as well!

Then she would really be in debt to the tune of hundreds of millions of dollars and would never be able to pay it back in her lifetime!

Don’t question Caleb’s ability to make 20 million on his own at the age of 12.

This kind of brains would have no problem bringing her and Andre down.

Alina’s mind was racing, “No, you’d better go!”

She was no fool, and after a thousand thoughts, she knew what was at stake for Caleb now.

When this is over, she will definitely give back all the shares!

It’s horrible.

No matter who she asks to split it, she can’t split Caleb’s stuff, or she would go bankrupt.

“Heh.” Caleb sneered.

Alina, “So, tea?”

The next moment, Caleb got up and walked upstairs, without saying a word, but with a clear meaning.

Alina's heart was in her throat.

She took several deep breaths, but couldn't push down the unease in her heart.
