

I'm Richer Than My Billionaire Ex-husband Chapter 116

In the back garden of the Lawson Residence.

Megan looked at Andre with a stony expression, "You really can't remember half of it?"

To this day, both Andre and Megan are still a bit confused that Penny has done such a big job all by herself.

How can they be calm?

"Grandma, believe me, I'm really unaware of it!" Andre was innocent, up until now he had no idea how the child had done it.

He wished he could have been there sober to see it, but after what happened, he did not think so.

He wanted to keep his mobile phone under martial law from now on.

No matter what happens, the child must not be allowed to play with the phone again.

"I believe in you, but Zane..." When it comes to Zane, Megan is apprehensive.

And then she said in a serious tone, "You know that my relationship with him is different from the ordinary, although it has been calm and quiet over the years."

"....."

"But Erica has been a scar in his heart, and with Alina and Penny, you have to be more careful."

Megan said.

Andre's eyes darkened at her words.

Megan and Zane are a combined family, each with their own children and grandchildren.

The combination of the two families is a result of their acceptance and commitment to each other.

"Grandma, are you happy?" Suddenly, Andre asked this question.

The question, too, left Megan stunned.

"Yes!"

"I've been around him for a long time, it's become a habit, you don't understand"

Being around Zane has been a habit for a long time and it is not a question of being happy or unhappy.

A lot of couples, no matter how exciting they are at the beginning, don't make it to the end because they don't know what habit is.

After the glamour of the relationship, it becomes an irreplaceable bond, and it's probably for these reasons that Zane and Erica don't get to that point in the end.

"Actually, the two of us are still a good combination family, after all, there are usually very few issues involving each other's children."

"....."

"If it wasn't for what happened in Ingford, Alina would probably never have come to Zane, do you understand?"

So, she was kind of having a happy life.

When Alina first arrived, Megan was worried that this peace would be shattered, but it turned out that she had been wrong.

Alina is not as hysterical as expected, she is very well brought up by Erica and her mum and dad.

"Okay."

"And, I can see your heart for Alina, but Andre, don't start if you can't promise to go all the way."

Megan, in a gruff tone, said.

Not an objection, but a reminder.

After all, Alina has a special status, which is different from those girls, plus she has Penny and a relationship.

Megan doesn't want her to get hurt again.

To put it plainly, she has little faith in her grandson.

Alina opened her eyes in a daze and woke up thirsty! She had never known what it was like to be hungover.

All she felt now was a burning stomach and a very dry mouth.

She moved her body and felt the pain, she winced, moved again and instantly realized that something was wrong.

The original confusion in this moment disappeared!

She lifted the covers and looked at herself, and at that moment, her face turned pale.

Suddenly, a man put his arm on her waist!

Alina, “.....”

She sat there for a long time, not daring to come back to her senses, nor did she have the courage to look at the man around her.

She just froze, her mind was like a storm was shoved into it, and instantly the wind was raging through her mind.

She then looked to the side.

The man was sleeping very deeply, and his side face was perfect.

The fear that had been there was now changing into rage in the heart.

“Caleb!” The hysterical cry brought the sleeping man to his senses.

He looked confusedly at Alina, who was looking at her with angry eyes, it was as if she wanted to eat him up!

“You.”

The sound of a crisp slapped hard on his face.

The air was instantly silent.

Without waiting for Caleb to react, another slap to his face!

Alina was as mad as hell. He winced in pain as her fingernails scratched his cheek.

“Caleb, you bastard, how could you do this to me? I’ll kill you!” Alina hit him frantically.

She exploded with emotion at this moment.

And Caleb now finally came to his senses for good, “Damn it, stop!”

“You bastard, you son of a bitch, how could you do this to me, how could you!” Alina, her wrists shackled by Caleb, struggled like mad.

Caleb felt like the world had been turned upside down by her early in the morning.

He let go of her in the midst of the confusion.

Alina jumped out of bed, haphazardly put on her clothes, searched the room and finally found her bag.

He didn't know what she found in there, but she was writing in the paper and then tore it off.

And then a million cheque fell on Caleb.

"Last night I was going to pay for Waiting for Someone, but you came, I can't let you work hard for nothing!"

The door slammed shut, and Alina left.

Caleb, "....."

Air was solidified.

She sat on the bed for a long, long time without looking back, and on the quilt was the million cheque that had slipped from his body.

This damn woman even humiliated him with money.

Alina came out of the hotel and walked down the street in a daze!

She had fought with Caleb with all her force, and now she seemed to have lost all her strength.

She didn't really know what happened last night, but the pain all over her body reminded her clearly of that night almost killed her!
