

I'm Richer Than My Billionaire Ex-husband Chapter 127

Alina has reconciled with her daughter in a short period of time, but Shirling is in chaos.

Zane and Megan hadn't eaten anything and were obviously frightened by Penny.

Especially Megan! When she found out that the child was missing, she was the one who was the most shocked, after all, the child was not her own.

The reason for her shock is that she cares about her relationship with Zane.

"Wasn't I good to that child? How could she bear to leave me behind?" Megan was most distraught at the mention of this.

The whole family knew how she treated that child.

Although Penny is not her own great-granddaughter, she took good care of Penny.

She has been a hands-on caregiver since Penny was girl, and her hair has gone grey in the process of caring for that crying child.

"Zane!"

"Well, no more talking." Zane was lying on the recliner, not in good spirit.

Megan, "I cook for her every day, as long as I am in good health, I do everything for her myself."

"I know, I know it all!"

There is no way to blame anyone for this, after all, Penny was lost in the early childhood centre.

Magen was sad.

How could a child do this? It's like killing them.

Megan was really sad, she didn't expect the child to do such a thing.

Andre's mother, Luna, has returned.

"Mom, Alina has already received the child, so you shouldn't worry too much." Luna's heart ached for her mother.

Obviously, she didn't think a child could do such a big thing.

Last time, it was shocking enough!

Lucy said, "When the child comes back, I suggest you take the child to have an IQ test."

"....."

"She has to be guided!" Give her something to do according to her intelligence, aiming to bring out her strengths.

After all, it was the first time they had seen such a highly intelligent child on their side.

Alina took the child to Mulherd Manor and looked at the doll the child had brought her, and she must say that the child was quite attractive.

"You brought me a gift." Her intelligence and emotional intelligence was good to Alina.

It was not that she had to praise her child, but it was true.

"Did Mummy like it?"

"Yeah."

"Shall we brush the doll's hair and change her clothes together then?"

"Okay."

He was a child, no matter how high her IQ was, she was still childish in all the right ways.

Looking at the doll's neatly combed hair, Alina asked, "Penny, did you comb this for the doll?"

"Yeah."

Looking at her with the brush in her hand, she felt that a lot of what they say in parenting books is not true.

For example, the child could not hold a pencil until she was a few years old because her fingers were not strong enough.

But Penny was very skilled at mastering her strength.

She felt that she had to do something for her daughter!

Penny might be a genius when it came to learning!

Alina was originally angry, but now looking at the child so skillful and nimble, her eyes were starry.

“Penny.”

“Yes, Mummy?”

“What do you want for your birthday?”

“Can I choose what I want?” The child looked at Alina with great curiosity and expectation.

It was clear from the look of it that what she wanted was not simple.

“What do you want?”

At this moment, she would like to see what this child wants.

“How about a balance bike?”

Well, it was a very normal request, and Alina was therefore slightly relieved.

“Okay, mummy will give it to you.”

“Great Grandma doesn’t allow me to play it, she said it is dangerous.” The child was still aggrieved by this.

Alina knew what a balance bike really was, and therefore knew that it was indeed a bit dangerous for a child of her age.

But since she asked for it, and since the child was growing up, there were going to be some ups and downs.

Since she had asked for it, Alina naturally could not stop her.

So it was a pleasure to say yes to the child.

In just a few hours, Alina and the child had a good time, but naturally there were someone unpleasant.

For example, Caleb and Emma!

To outside world, Caleb would marry Emma since he had divorced Alina.

The Collins family did not agree, not to mention that Caleb and Emma themselves also have a lot of problems, especially after Alina’s return, a lot of things happened between the two of them.

Caleb had just arrived at the office and he received a call from the hospital, “Mr. Collins, Miss Bell has been suffering from a recurring high fever.”

“Then give her infusion!”

It was spoken with indifference.

It seems that this is all he can do for Emma now.

The doctor on the other side of the phone was thus frozen, for he had learned what happened Caleb and Emma in the news, so it surprised him that Caleb’s attitude towards Emma was cold.

When Tomas came in with the documents, he heard Caleb’s cold voice.

The phone smashed into the corner.

Tomas couldn’t help but tremble as he stepped forward and placed the document in front of Caleb, speaking apprehensively, “What’s happening?”

“Get in touch with Billy!”

Caleb pinched his brow and gave his order.

Obviously, Caleb knew that Brooklyn would not operate on Emma.

So the only hope pinched on Billy

“But last time, he refused!”

If Billy hadn’t been so determined, he wouldn’t have returned so soon with Emma.

So in this case, it seemed pointless for Tomas to make further contact!

“That depends on your ability!” Caleb looked at Tomas with stern eyes.

Cold sweat broke out on Tomas’ spine!
