

I'm Richer Than My Billionaire Ex-husband Chapter 128

In Tomas's mind, Billy and Brooklyn were actually the same difficult characters!

It was no coincidence that these two have become such good friends!

And Caleb has now given an order for him to take care of Billy, so was he in a hurry to solve the problem of Emma?

"Yes, I'm all for it!" Tomas said after a pause in his voice.

Caleb lit up a cigarette!

"Also, find her an authoritative gynaecologist!" Caleb thought for a moment and added.

These years, Caleb can rarely face Emma, what does he want to do now! To deal with all the relationship with Emma?

His approach is good.

In this case.

If at this point, he still couldn't see the problem with Caleb's attitude towards Emma, then this would be a real thing!

Tomas, apparently, saw the point.

"Yes."

Tomas went away.

When Caleb was left alone in the office, there was an endless chill on his face.

The name "Alina ....." was murmured in a soft voice, with an endless complexity that no one could understand.

But in the blink of an eye, it was as if Alina was in his world, with a different root of existence!

No one knew what that it was like, and no one knew what it meant to Alina.

Emma saw the gynecologist that Tomas had found for her, Caleb was still there! Alina was late in leaving Ingford.

And now when she found out that someone was checking up on her behind her, she was worried! She had come to see Emma to discuss her response.

What caught her eye now was the madness of Emma!

“Get out, get out.” she shouted in a hysterical rage, throwing the pipe out of her hand.

The pillow hit Tomas and the expert hard.

“Get the hell out of here, I don’t want any body checks, I don’t want any body checks ever again.” Especially not that part of the body.

What exactly does Caleb mean?

Emma just felt her heart choking.

She was so smart! Naturally, she knew that Caleb, who had been silent all these years and had never mentioned this matter, had been making a lot of noise about this matter during this period of time.

In fact, there was no doubt that he wanted to break off the relationship with her completely, he was really playing a good game.

Emma’s heart was choking hard.

“Miss Bell, calm down, he is also doing you a favour.”

All these years, apart from the debt to her, what has been for her benefit, even she had to ask for those resources.

When she thought about it, Emma was even more heartbroken.

She must get Caleb.

She must let Caleb love her and then take the initiative to care for her.

But right now, she knew that Caleb’s move was definitely not for her benefit.

“Get out of here, I don’t want to see you!” Emma roared like a madman, her body trembling uncontrollably.

Tomas thought it was her anger that she trembled.

But she didn’t know it, but it was out of fear! Emma would never dare to let anyone inspect her body.

They say that when you tell a lie, it takes a lot of lies to make it right.

She didn't really believe it, but now, she was convinced of it.

When you lie, no matter what you say, you're always in a panic, and that's what she's doing now.

In the office, Caleb received a call from Emma, and the woman's tone was full of sadness.

"You have to humiliate me in this way, don't you?" The words were full of Emma's pain.

It is clear what she is going through inside.

Caleb's breath caught in his throat.

At this moment, even through the airwaves, Emma could feel this clearly.

"Caleb, you may not want me, but you can't humiliate me like this! What have I done wrong? I just ....."

Just what?

At this moment, Emma paused, as if even her breath was hoarse.

After taking several deep breaths, she continued, "I know I'm from the mountains, and I have no power here in Ingford!"

"....."

"My mother is the nanny at Alina's house, do you know how many of Alina's old clothes my mother made me wear?"

"....."

"Before, they didn't treat me like a human being, and you do the same not." Emma's tone was full of painful anger.

The past is too much for her to look back on.

How pretty those princess dresses are! There are aqua blue, peachy pink.

Alina has an endless supply of princess dresses and will give her anything she doesn't like.

Their figures are similar and her clothes fit her, but because her skin was somewhat darker at that time, Alina still gave her the darkest aqua colour.

And she, against her will, could only say that she liked it and that it looked good!

“No one isn’t treating you like a human being! And you’re the one who’s humiliating yourself!” With that, Caleb hung up.

Listening to the ‘beep’ of the disconnected phone, Emma’s world went pale.

Did no one humiliate her?

So how much further do they have to go!

Emma’s heart was choked with anger.

Tomas saw the situation and had to take the doctor back, but Kara was still there! The two of them had a working relationship.

But no one had thought that they would now get together because of Alina and even talk about personal matters.

“Is that funny?” Emma felt ashamed.

Kara, “It seems that you are not as good as an ex-wife in his heart!”

When Emma heard Kara’s words, her eyes were burning with anger.

Ever since she was a child, what she hated most was when someone said she was inferior to Alina!
