

I'm Richer Than My Billionaire Ex-husband Chapter 132

Alina reluctantly went to his car, Tomas respectfully opened the door for her, but Alina had no intention to get into the car.

"Say it here!" Clearly, there was no intention of going out.

She knew what she was taken to one she got into the car.

What's more, now the child is still with her.

The atmosphere in the car was heavier.

She clearly felt the oppressive aura coming from the man's body. Without waiting for her reaction, Caleb pulled Alina to the car.

"Boom!" The car door slammed shut.

And then, with a swift start, it was off at the speed of an arrow.

Alina's mind went blank!

Caleb kissed her brutally, with a hint of punishment.

Alina's slap hit the man's face, yet he didn't stop in the slightest.

The moment her hands were shackled, the skin on her wrists clearly felt the unnatural warmth of the man's palms.

The moment she opened her eyes, when she met the scarlet starburst in the man's eyes, Alina instantly sensed that something was wrong!

"Tomas!" She shouted, struggling even harder.

Tomas, "Just now Mr. Collins to a drinking party."

Tomas at the front said, considered to give Alina a reasonable explanation.

However, when she heard these words, Alina only felt her consciousness plunged into the abyss.

The darkness kept coming back to her.

Her breathing became difficult.

The man's muffled grunt came out, and Tomas, who was driving in front of him, was startled, and by this time, he had already reached Werland Villa.

The moment the car stopped, Alina subconsciously wanted to escape from the car, but the next moment was pulled back by the man fiercely.

Tomas had abandoned the car and fled.

Alina only felt that his whole world was darkened by this.

When Tomas entered, when he saw Emma in the wheelchair, he stiffened!

Emma had come here to wait for Caleb, and the whole of Werland Villa didn't dare to breathe when they saw Emma coming.

Over the years, Emma has come over here so often that she has almost lived here.

However, Caleb has never actually progressed in their relationship, no matter how hot the news about them has been.

When Emma saw Tomas

She subconsciously glanced behind Tomas, "Where's Caleb?"

At the moment, there was an imperceptible excitement under her eyes, which she was clearly trying to suppress.

Instead of answering Emma's question directly, Tomas asked, "When did you come?"

"Half an hour ago!"

She had arrived here half an hour ago, and an hour before that she had received a call from Kara.

And she, too, went to the Werland Villa side and waited!

"Where is he?" Emma asked when she saw that Caleb had not come in.

When he thought of the possible scene outside the car, his face did not look good, obviously did not know how to explain! But if Emma went out at this time.

And Tomas's different look at the moment was caught by Emma.

When she received Kara's call, she rushed over immediately. However, Caleb was a full half hour late to arrive?

Why?

"Tomas!" Emma's tone heaved.

Tomas heard the discontent in her tone and felt pity for her, but she deserved it.

What Caleb had in mind for her all these years was clear to everyone, yet she never understood it.

If she didn't see it clearly, it was her own fault! If she didn't want to see clearly, then she deserves what she is suffering now.

Tomas's tone was respectful, but also cold and hard, "I'll take you back!"

Her original stoic face went sullen at this moment when she heard Tomas' words.

Looking at Tomas, there was a bit more dissatisfaction in Emma's eyes, "Where is he?"

Tomas, "That's not for you to ask!"

"....." So she did not even deserve an explanation?

All these years at Caleb's side, those people around him have to be respectful to her.

However now, Tomas was rude to her.

Emma took a deep breath! She said, "Where is he?"

When she thought that Caleb might have gone to Mulherd Manor, her heart choked even more, and her hatred for Alina in her heart was even more overwhelming.

She wanted to tear Alina apart with her own hands.

They're both divorced!

The hatred was like a fierce beast, and it was tumbling in Emma's heart at the moment, constantly pounding.

"I'll take you back!" Tomas said to Emma.

Emma, "I'm not leaving, tell him I'm here for him!"

At this moment, her attitude was as firm as ever.

Tomas frowned, "This means nothing to you!"

"Who are you to say such things to me?" When Caleb's assistant said such a thing, Emma's emotions were overwhelmed and she shouted hysterically.

Emma was not sober!

The people around Caleb could see that Caleb had never given her any hope or illusion.

Even the so-called engagement had been made clear to her, she would accept anything without Alina.

But at that time, Emma probably thought that Alina would never come back.

So when there was such a determination, as long as she can get involved with Caleb, she is willing to do anything.

Time has changed! What she thought she believed was wrong.

"Tell him that I'm waiting for him!" Emma spoke with determination, and also looked angrily at Tomas.

This firm attitude shows that if Caleb does not return, she will not leave!
