

I'm Richer Than My Billionaire Ex-husband Chapter 139

With Pola's ability, Alina thought she could be Andre's special assistant.

However, after Pola went to VIG, she just wanted to be a little assistant.

She never wanted to get a promotion.

Andre also wanted to give her a promotion. But after mentioning it twice and being refused, he could only forget it.

"What the hell is she thinking about?" Alina also couldn't understand. But she knew that Pola knew her own mind.

No matter what she did, she had her own ideas and ways.

Such a person was definitely so promising. How could she just ...?

Seeing Pola's eyes, Alina knew that she had experienced a lot. If it was because of this, it could be understood.

"Mommy."

Penny came downstairs.

Alina asked, "What's wrong?"

"I lost two pieces. Will you go buy them with me?"

"Puzzle pieces?"

"Yeah."

Although Alina was so busy, she definitely couldn't refuse her daughter's request, so she nodded.

Alina was impatient for puzzles. She didn't know what her daughter lost.

Since Penny needed them, she just went with her to buy them.

When they were ready to the car, the little guy wanted to sit in the passenger seat. Alina felt so headache.

"If the traffic cop sees it, I will be fined." Alina carefully fastened the seat belt for Penny.

Penny begged, "I just want to be closer to you."

These words made Alina instantly sad again.

Well, hearing the little guy's reason, Alina would do anything the little girl wanted. She had to satisfy her little daughter for everything.

The toys in the mall were dazzling.

Alina used to buy Penny girls dolls and the like at most, but today what the little guy took her to visit was all boys' toys.

"Baby, isn't it the doll parts or clothes or something else?" Alina crouched down to the little girl's ear and asked.

"No."

"But these are for boys."

Penny just ignored her.

Alina followed her little daughter, looking at her serious baby face.

From her point of view, Alina thought that her daughter's face was exactly the same as Caleb's...

After a long time, Penny finally found what she wanted. When Alina paid the bill, she was shocked.

Just two small parts cost a few hundred?

"Baby, what are these?" After coming out of the toy store, Alina looked at her little girl and the small parts in her hand

They were so small that they didn't look like they were worth hundreds of dollars.

If here wasn't the high-end mall in Ingford, Alina would have thought she was ripped off.

The little girl said, "You don't understand."

Yes, she didn't understand. Such small things cost hundreds of dollars. What else could she understand?

"Alina?"

Just as Alina was grumbling, Julia's voice suddenly came from behind her. Alina held the child and turned back.

After Alina saw them, she was stunned.

It was Julia and Vanessa.

Alina pressed the child's little face into her arms, but it was too late. They two had already seen the child's face.

.....

Ten minutes later.

In a coffee shop, Julia and Vanessa looked at Penny who was struggling to study the puzzle. Then Julia said, "She doesn't look like the rumored person."

In front of the child, Julia said very subtly. But those who could understand already understood it.

According to rumors, Alina and Andre had a daughter.

Although the matter was not spread in Ingford, Vanessa and Julia still knew about it.

Now when Alina heard them say it, she frowned and looked at noble and elegant Vanessa. The complicated emotions flashed in Alina's eyes.

She didn't expect that there were still such rumors. Would Vanessa agree to let her go back to join the Collins family's family dinner?

Alina took a deep breath.

She said, "No."

"Is it his?" Vanessa looked at Alina sharply. The gaze made Alina tremble.

Caleb?

Alina of course knew who Vanessa was talking about.

"Alina." Seeing that Alina did not speak, Vanessa looked at her. There were more complicated emotions in her eyes.

Besides, there was also the sadness.

Especially when she looked at that child, there was more love in her eyes.

Alina finally said, "Yes."

She finally admitted it.

There were so many similarities between this girl and Caleb. She couldn't hide it at all.

She wanted to take Penny back after her birthday.

So before this little guy's birthday, Alina didn't even go out with her. They even didn't go to the playground together.

However... she didn't expect that they still ran into Julia and Vanessa when they went out today.

Julia and Vanessa looked at each other. There was shock and pain flashing in their eyes.

The river in Hasnan was so cold. Caleb wanted to use her to save Emma, but she wouldn't obey.

Just like that, she grabbed over the steering wheel and rushed to Hasnan Bridge. No one knew whether she could survive. Besides, she was pregnant at that time.

Caleb looked for her like crazy.

Everyone said that Alina couldn't be alive after falling into such a rushing river. She was still pregnant.

But who would have thought that she would not only be alive, but even gave birth the child...

"Alina." After a long time, Vanessa looked at Alina, and then at the child. She had always been calm and elegant, but she couldn't help but shed tears at this moment.

The moment she heard Alina saying yes, no one knew what she really felt like.

Everyone said that she didn't like this daughter-in-law, but was it really like that? Those people simply didn't understand anything.

However, no matter what the reason for Vanessa to put on such an attitude towards Alina those years, at this moment, when she saw this child, she could imagine how Alina had experienced a lot of hardships and dangers to give birth to this child.

Those so-called subtle estrangements between them had gone in an instant.

Whoosh. Alina got up, picked up the child, turned around and left. From her escaping back, it could see that she still couldn't bear it at all.

Even if she admitted it, so what?

She hadn't prepared herself for that yet.

“Alina...” Seeing Alina leaving with the child, Vanessa wanted to chase, but she was pulled by Julia,
“Mom.”

Julia shook her head silently. Vanessa felt so heartbroken.
