

I'm Richer Than My Billionaire Ex-husband Chapter 142

Caleb suddenly came.

Vanessa was also here.

Caleb was going to warn Alina not to play these tricks. How could Andre's daughter have the birthday party in Collins Castle?

But he didn't expect that Vanessa turned out to be here.

"I won't agree." Caleb said in a gloomy tone.

Vanessa refuted, "Does it have anything to do with you?"

Her tone was sharp and cold.

Her attitude to Caleb now was completely different from it when she was talking to Alina.

Alina and Caleb both looked at Vanessa. Seeing the tension got super-high between the two of them, Alina was so anxious.

Vanessa asked, "Do you still have anything to do with the Collins family?"

She was looking at Caleb and questioning him word by word.

Who knew that Caleb, who was a big shot in the business world, would be like this in front of the Collins?

So he was completely kicked out of the Collins family?

Now Alina felt exactly like that Caleb had no place in the Collins family at all.

What was Vanessa doing now? She was completely disappointed in her son. She preferred her granddaughter.

"So, you will definitely have the birthday party here tomorrow?"

"Yes."

Alina still kept silent.

Caleb looked into her eyes. At that moment, the look in his eyes was like a knife to kill her.

Vanessa, "You don't have to look at her. This birthday party is what your father and I insist on giving to the child. It can be regarded as a compensation for Alina."

"Compensation?" Caleb sneered and looked at his mother. What a good compensation.

Vanessa said, "I think it's time for you to go to find her."

Hearing it, everyone couldn't help but gasp. Caleb looked so terrible now.

It was just like...

Emma undoubtedly was the problem, not only between him and Alina but also between him and the Collins.

Eventually, Caleb was gone.

Vanessa seemed to protect Alina all the time. Since Alina's return, she had been protecting her, and even more now.

Who dared to say something?

Andre came over.

When the little girl saw Andre, she ran directly to him like the wind, "Uncle, are you here to accompany me for my birthday?"

"Yes."

Uncle?

When Vanessa heard it, she was even more sad.

Don't judge a book its cover. It had been like this since ancient times. Why didn't they understand it?

Now, it caused a lot of unnecessary trouble and so many jokes.

"You're so beautiful today."

"Grandma Vanessa bought it for me."

Grandma Vanessa?

Andre glanced at Alina. Apparently, Alina didn't tell her family what happened here.

She was also worried they would be worried.

Every time the old Lawson heard something going on Alina, he was the one who couldn't calm down.

Over time, Alina gradually didn't tell them so much.

After Vanessa left, Andre finally couldn't hold back and pulled Alina into the studio, "What the hell is going on?"

He was talking about that they would go to Collins Castle to have the birthday party.

When he knew about it, he was so shocked and nervous.

"Do you think we can still hide it from them after they see Penny?" Caleb was stupid, but not everyone in the Collins family was stupid.

Andre, "So...?"

"Don't worry. He doesn't know." Alina knew that he was talking about Caleb.

"After the birthday, just take Penny back with you."

Alina couldn't stand keeping Penny staying in Ingford. She absolutely couldn't.

"What about you?" Andre frowned.

He wanted Alina to go back with him. Not only couldn't Penny stay Ingford anymore, but also Alina couldn't stay here anymore.

Alina answered, "I got some clues about the matters of Grandma and me. I want to wait until it's completely figured out."

"Then you have to be careful." Andre said to Alina.

Have a birthday party in Collins Castle?

Now the Collins knew the child, so Alina shouldn't be too tough.

If Alina didn't agree, what if Vanessa told Caleb directly that he had a child?

At that time, things would get out of hand. Alina didn't want things to come to that point, so she compromised.

"Why did you go out with the child?" Andre was about to get out of control.

He panicked.

Alina looked at Andre aggrievedly, "She wanted to go out. I can't forcibly lock her up, right?"

As a mother, she couldn't do such a thing.

She just took her out for a walk. She also didn't expect that they would run into the Collins so coincidentally.

Andre wanted to pinch her face.

Alina quickly shrunk her neck. It worked for Andre. Sure enough, he stopped.

"You..." Andre was so angry, but he didn't know what to blame Alina.

Alina looked at Andre, "Okay, after tomorrow, quickly bring her back and don't let her run off like that."

"Hmph."

Andre snorted coldly. He was still angry.

Alina also knew that Andre wouldn't let it go so easily when it came to Caleb.

When did it become like this? No matter where Caleb went, there were always some problems.

Alina thought that this topic would stop here, but Andre asked again.

"Did you stay with Caleb the other day?"

Hearing this, Alina froze.

When she looked at Andre, there was embarrassment in her eyes.

What a shrewd man Andre was. As long as he looked into her eyes, he basically knew that what happened a few days ago was true.

"Alina." Andre gritted his teeth.

Alina, "It was just an accident."

"Accident?"

"It was really an accident." Seeing Andre like this, Alina didn't dare to tell Andre that Caleb forcibly remarried her.

She was afraid that they would have a fight directly.

Andre, "Did you actually allow such an accident to happen? Can't you just take care of yourself?"

What Andre said was right. But she couldn't beat Caleb.

Alina asked back, "How did you know it?"

"The other day at the party, he was framed up. All the people involved are in the prison now."

Hearing this, Alina was stunned. Who dared to frame up Caleb?

The matter must have something to do with her.
