

I'm Richer Than My Billionaire Ex-husband Chapter 143

Emma really used all the means just to be with Caleb, but in the end she was still disappointed, right?

Even if she did such things, in the end...

At the birthday party.

Although the Collins family didn't invite others, the decoration of the party was so good.

"Come baby, give me a hug." Vanessa held the child in her arms dotingly, looking so loving.

Andre and Alina stand together.

Then Andre asked, "Are you sure they won't take Penny away?"

"They won't." Having said that, Alina was a bit worried.

She was afraid that they would take Penny away.

Although she could definitely get the custody of the child now, there would still be many problems in the follow-up.

At that time, Penny would know that her father was Caleb, that jerk.

Then...

In fact, what she was most worried about was the child's feelings.

"They won't? Go back to Shirling when this is over." Andre glared at her fiercely and said.

Alina only felt headache.

"I know. Just stop talking this."

She also couldn't wait for the matter to end soon. Then she could immediately go back to Shirling and never come back

The Collins were all here.

Only Caleb didn't come.

He was sure about that Andre and Alina had already been together. Besides, today Andre was also here.

Without thinking, Alina knew how angry Caleb would be.

.....

Sure enough, it was just like what Alina thought.

Everyone in Collins Castle was working hard for the child's birthday party, so that the child had an unforgettable birthday...

But at the office, the atmosphere was tense.

Especially when Caleb heard that Andre had also gone to Collins Castle, his eyes dimmed, "Huh."

They were really nice to Alina.

They didn't accept Emma no matter what. But now not only did they accept Alina's child, but also...

Now, Tomas doubted that Caleb might not be the Collins' biological child.

Alina was more like their kid.

Otherwise, as the ex-husband's parents, how could they do such a thing?

No matter how much they owed Alina, what they did had gone too far, right?

This was totally weird.

Yes, so weird. But even if they thought it was so weird, the two of them never doubted that...

.....

Emma also knew that Alina took the child back to Collins Castle.

Kara looked at Emma, whose face was pale.

"It seems that you have no chance at all."

"Shut up." Emma roared.

She didn't know how to face Caleb.

Caleb knew everything. He hadn't seen her since that day. She didn't dare...

Even when he knew that she had been beaten by Alina's man in Mulherd Manor, he didn't show up.

How cruel he was to her this time.

How could it be? How could he become like that?

“Otherwise, how do you explain it?”

“Caleb went back too?”

“No.”

“Isn’t that enough? He doesn’t accept that kid at all.” Yes, Caleb didn’t like that kid at all.

So, he didn’t come to see her these days, just because he was angry with her, right? When he was over it, he would come to see her.

Yes, it must be like this. Emma kept comforting herself and telling herself that Caleb would definitely come.

He would definitely come.

“Huh, really?” Kara also thought it might be so.

After all, if Caleb really liked the child, he wouldn’t have used pregnant Alina to save Emma.

In this matter alone, it could be seen that Caleb had feelings for Emma.

So...

In this case...

“You’d better behave well during this time. For your hand and legs’ sake, he won’t dump you.”

Yes, her hand and legs.

Even if the person that night was not her, Caleb couldn’t really ignore her completely.

Thinking about like that, Emma felt a little better.

Just wait.

Now, just wait.

“You just know how to make a fuss.” Kara said in an unhappy tone.

This was the truth.

Emma always liked to make some big fuss especially during the trip to Oklens. That trip made Caleb know many things.

Since she didn't know how to play tricks, just don't do it. Now, Caleb knew a lot and was also so annoyed.

Hearing it, Emma felt even more painful.

"Do you think I really wanted to do that?" She didn't want to do that at all, but... when she saw Alina's arrogant look at the time, no one knew how angry she really was at the time.

No matter what occasion they were on, Alina always stole her thunder.

Especially as soon as Alina came back, she directly stole her thunder and did it on purpose.

Emma felt she was bullied. She couldn't stand it.

Therefore, she couldn't just wait and did nothing.

"Everything I did was just to fight back." But in Caleb's eyes, it was not like that.

Kara, "Anyway, now let's think about how to start with Mr. Collins."

"Everyone in the Collins family have accept that kid. Don't do anything to her."

From the fact that Emma was beaten in Mulherd Manor and Caleb never showed up, Kara knew that the more Emma targeted Alina, the more Caleb disliked her.

Emma was aware of this too.

So even if others let her go to provoke Alina, she didn't dare to.

"What reason do I have to provoke her now?" It was clear that Alina was provoking her, but those people couldn't see it, especially Caleb.

"Don't be in hurry to ask him to marry you right now. Get your hand and legs better first."

Kara looked at Emma and said.

She also knew that it was just about women stuff. If she forced too much, it would only make things worse.

Emma thought the same way.

She couldn't stand up, and she couldn't use her right hand. It was very hard for her to do something now. She hated the feeling.

"I see."

"Look before you leap." Seeing Emma's nonchalant look, Kara was also impatient.
