

I'm Richer Than My Billionaire Ex-husband Chapter 144

The birthday party lasted until the evening. The little princess received many gifts. Alby, Vanessa and Julia were very happy.

Chester and Romeo completely didn't know what was going on, especially when they saw Andre.

In the back garden, Chester looked at Alina with a deep look in his eyes. He asked, "Is she really the daughter of you and Andre?"

Alina was worried that others would find something. After arriving at Collins Castle, she told her daughter not to call Andre Uncle Andre.

Now hearing Chester ask like this, Alina knew only men would be so stupid.

Caleb didn't recognize the child. Chester could still ask such a stupid question after seeing Penny for most of the day.

Alina nodded, "Yes."

Hearing it, Chester seemed to be colder. When he looked at Alina, the look in his eyes was sharper.

The air was almost still at this moment. It could only be heard their breath. After a while, Alina just wanted to escape.

Chester looked really scary.

"Chester, I..."

"Alina, how can you have a child with him? You and Caleb..." When he said this, he paused.

However, there was a strong forbearance in his tone.

Alina heard it clearly, so she didn't understand it even more.

Without waiting for her to answer, a voice came from not far away, "Why can't she have a child with me?"

It was Andre.

The talk between Alina and Chester was completely interrupted at this moment.

Without waiting for Alina to turn around, she felt there was a force on her slender waist. In an instant, it was more tense now.

A powerful aura enveloped Alina.

The two men confronted each other.

Alina asked, "Why are you here?"

Andre said, "We should go back."

Saying that, he put his arm around Alina and turned around directly. At the moment of turning around, he saw Chester's sharp eyes.

Alina didn't understand what it meant.

Chester's gaze fell on the hand on Alina's waist, with a penetrating sharp coldness.

.....

In the car.

Penny was holding a very delicate doll. Alina forgot who bought it. Vanessa prepared a lot of gifts for Penny, just like the last time. They got a car of gifts back.

Andre, who was driving in front, said, "So Chester has feelings for you?"

"Huh?" Alina was directly awakened by these words. What did he say? Have feelings for her?

Did he know what he was talking about?

Andre glanced at her in the rearview mirror and said, "You don't know?"

It seemed that Andre was still angry.

Alina, "I don't know."

Andre didn't what to say when he found how insensitive Alina was to the relationship.

Alina, "Impossible, right?"

She didn't agree with Andre's words. She and Chester had known each other for so many years.

Chester was just so indifferent.

How could a man who was colder than Caleb like women?

In Alina's opinion, Chester couldn't like women.

Andre, "When you married Caleb, he didn't object?"

Speaking of this, Alina remembered something, "At the time, he was the only one who objected it."

At the time, Chester was really the only one who objected. Alina didn't know the reason. After all, she and Chester weren't familiar.

During her two years at the Collins family, Chester stayed abroad with Alby and Tristan.

But at that time, his opposition seemed to be forcibly suppressed by the old Collins.

"You really don't care about that." Andre was helpless when he said this.

Alina was baffled by his helpless tone

"No, it's impossible."

She thought it was impossible. How could Chester like her?

The two of them hadn't even seen each other very often.

Andre, "Then tell me, why was he against it?"

Why?

She didn't know it at the time.

Besides, she didn't care about it.

Of course, Alina didn't dare to tell Andre this. After all, it was her business, but she actually didn't pay attention to it at all.

When she thought about it now, she also felt that she was so careless.

"I don't know. Maybe he also knows that his brother is a scumbag?"

Andre totally didn't know what to say.

If he could, he really wanted to open Alina's head directly to see what was inside.

What else in the world could make her more confused?

Back to Mulherd Manor.

Alina personally bathed her daughter. The little girl was soft, and Alina liked it very much.

“Baby, go back with Uncle, okay? Mommy will be back soon.”

“Okay.”

Penny nodded.

Seeing her honest look, Alina couldn't help but said, “But you can't run off like that. You're going to scare us to death, you know?”

Now Alina didn't think that her little daughter couldn't understand this. She understood it very well.

Hearing it, Penny looked at Alina and asked, “So what if I miss Mommy?”

What to do?

The implication was that as long as she missed her, she might still come here by herself?

When Alina thought so, she was so flustered.

“Baby.”

“Okay then, I'll listen to Mommy.”

Penny showed an aggrieved look.

Although Penny agreed, Alina didn't believe it.

She totally couldn't believe her little daughter.

She made up her mind that she would take care of those things quickly, and then go back to Shirling. After that, she would never come back to this damn place.

At night.

Alina slept holding Penny's soft body.

“Baby.”

“Huh?”

“Do you like Grandma Vanessa?”

“Yeah.”

As her mother, Alina knew that this was just polite words. She couldn't take it too seriously.

Alina took a deep breath, "You..."

She didn't know what to say.

So parents still had to raise their children by themselves. If they didn't live together, even if they were linked by blood, they wouldn't be close to each other.

But Penny had her own opinion. She asked, "Why is Grandma Vanessa so nice to me?"

Could a child under the age of three ask such a question?
