

I'm Richer Than My Billionaire Ex-husband Chapter 147

Alina is already inside.

And Emma was sitting in front of the hospital like a monkey, being watched, with her heart in her hands!

The sunlight made her dizzy, and her hatred for Alina became even more intense!

"Alina ....." she said, almost through clenched teeth, no one knew how much Emma was thinking at the moment.

Trying to tear Alina to pieces and chew her up!

She .....

The dizzying sun, the pointing eyes, all these things made Emma feel as if she had been stripped naked by Alina and left in front of everyone's eyes.

The feeling of humiliation is unprecedented.

Inside the hospital.

Alina was sitting in a chair, Caleb was sitting on the bed, and just now Tomas had whispered in his ear what had happened.

Apparently, at this point, Caleb didn't expect Alina to be this tough either.

"So, does that make your heart feel better?" The man looked at her, and his tone was sharp.

Alina finally looks at Caleb.

Under the eyes, there is a deep light!

"Do you know when it started?" Instead of answering the man's question directly, he turned and said.

Caleb: "....."

At the sound of his voice, his body stiffened!

Apparently, he didn't understand what Alina was talking about, and he was not always able to grasp such a broad issue.

Especially for women

.....!

Now Caleb feels more and more that women are the most difficult creatures to control.

You can tell from Emma's body that she will often make things happen, catching you off guard, and you simply can't avoid it!

Alina saw that the man did not speak, sneered, continued: "It started three years ago!"

Three years ago?

What?

When the man didn't understand, Alina sneered: "Maybe my fate was too good in the first half of my life, so after I married you, I had to protect myself so much."

"....."

"No matter what, I can't trust anyone absolutely except myself!"

Caleb: "....."

At the sound of his voice, his body stiffened as a result!

She?

I have to say, some of what she said is true, the first half of her life is a good fate, her parents were born that way.

And in those days, her parents were both high achievers and her grandmother was a noble lady.

As for her grandfather, in the first half of her life, her grandfather was basically negligible.

With such a grandmother and parents to protect her, the first half of her life can be said to be smooth, but at the age of 18, God took everything away from her.

She was originally a lucky girl, in that moment became an orphan, an orphan with nothing.

"Alina."

"You think I shouldn't be? I was, and am, really incapable of doing that!" In the first half of her life. Her parents placed the greatest importance on her education. In such an influential family, her tutor was always very strict with her, but what was it?

Forced her to the point where she can now argue with the person in the wheelchair even at the hospital entrance?

Caleb looked at Alina, his deep eyes, so penetrating, trying to see through Alina.

However, he failed in the end.

I heard Alina say, "You think I shouldn't because you don't know how my parents really support them."

People say that they don't remember the kindness, they don't forget the return!

However, the external goodwill is definitely not with the purpose of inviting hatred.

"A nanny's daughter, a child in the mountains, that tuition is absolutely not expensive." Alina said calmly.

Although the money is nothing to her and Caleb, it's not much at all.

But for people like Emma, it's definitely a chance to change their destiny.

The family that changed Emma's life! She has a bright future ahead of her, but ..... is on the way to it.

Even Alina is completely on the opposite side of the fence.

"Our family never asks for anything in return, but my parents definitely didn't spend that money to have her hurt me either!"

"Between her and me ....."

"You, the cause! Caleb, do you really think I'm a fool?" The look in Alina's eyes was suddenly sharp.

And Caleb to the mouth of the words, but also because of the sharpness of her eyes instantly all swallowed, for a long time, but also can not come back to mind.

People, fate may be sad, but it is definitely not a reason to go astray.

Alina gets up.

Looking at Caleb's bandaged head, she said, "I wish Chester would just kill you!" Then she'd be free.

With these words, he turned around.

However, in the mention of the fight last night, the man had softened her look, instantly sharp and cold.

At the moment Alina turned around to leave, she heard a question from behind her: "What's going on with you and him?"

Alina stopped in her tracks and didn't look back!

"Who?"

This sudden question, she did not understand.

"Chester !" Caleb spat out three words icily.

Last night, Chester had a lot to drink.

When he hit him, he clearly heard him say, "How could you do this to Alina?"

Alina?

He didn't know when Alina became so close to his big brother.

In his heart, there was no encounter between them, and the number of times they met was only a handful.

But Caleb is no fool, Chester was clearly beating him up for Alina last night! What do they know? They don't know anything.

All these years have been on the side of Alina,

However, nothing is known about what happened to him .....

Alina: "What do you mean?"

Turned around and looked at Caleb with some uncertainty, obviously not understanding what the hell this man was talking about.

The man's eyes were dull, the dark light, sharp and cold.

"No, I'm talking about you, you're trying to throw dirt on me after your scandalous affair with Emma became public knowledge, aren't you?"

Now, Alina is really disgusted, this man what the hell? You want to blame her for your own screwing?

I feel that this rush to remarry her is to give her a scoop of dirty water?

This man has a deep heart!

“Alina!”, the man gritted his teeth.

At this moment, Caleb was completely enraged by the words ‘scandal with Emma’ from Alina’s mouth, what scandal did he have with Emma?

Alina: “I’m telling you, your Chester and I are very white, you want to be with Emma no one to stop you, but you dare to do something on me, I let you eat!”

Alina said fiercely.

And Caleb knows that she definitely has the power to do so! This woman is very smart, as you can see from Emma’s body.

Time and time again, and the hardships and dangers of passing, and finally all the return to the heart of the people.

I have to say, to calculate her, really careful a few points.

I am not a person, in this area of calculation, simply can not do her!
