

I'm Richer Than My Billionaire Ex-husband Chapter 148

Undoubtedly, now Emma was just like an idiot in Kara's eyes.

Hearing Kara said not to do anything, Emma just pulled a long face. Her face was even more gloomy.

"What can I do? No matter what I do, it is wrong." No matter what she did or not, it was wrong.

No matter what state and attitude she had, Caleb had always had a cold attitude towards her.

She was upset and even collapsed. She had never been so helpless.

How did things get to where they were today?

She never thought about it. She didn't want things to get to the point where they were today.

"Yes, no matter what you do now is wrong, so don't do anything at this time." Kara said word by word.

Hearing it, Emma felt extremely bad. She never thought that things would really be like this.

She didn't expect that Alina would come back alive after falling into such a rushing river.

She hated everyone. She clenched her hands into fists. Her nails scratched her palms, but it seemed that she didn't feel it at all.

Chester drove Alina directly to Mulherd Manor. When she got out of the car, she only listened to him say, "Don't see him again."

"Who?"

"Caleb."

Alina looked at the deep Chester in confusion. The words of Andre and Caleb came into her mind. She still didn't understand.

"Chester, you..." Was it really like what Andre and Caleb said that Chester had feelings for her?

But how could it be?

Alina was really going to be confused.

"At least before the matter between him and Emma is over. But it can't be over." Chester said deeply.

What?

No, wait. She didn't mean to wait for Caleb at all.

Hearing what Chester said, Alina felt so weird.

She really didn't think that Chester had slightest feelings for her, but she couldn't just ask him so directly.

What the hell was that?

She felt that now she not only had to keep distance herself from Caleb, but also from Chester.

"Alina, all the Collins are protecting you, so... we didn't tell him about the child. Do you understand?"

With a buzz sound, Alina felt her brain was fried.

Chester investigated her again.

It was the only idea coming into Alina's mind now.

Therefore, he had now not only found out that the child was Caleb's, but he even knew the relationship between her and Andre?

So, what exactly did he mean now?

Alina was completely confused by this man.

Chester, "I'll pick you up tomorrow morning."

"I..." Before Alina finished her words, he had already got in the car and left.

Alina froze in place and didn't come to her sense.

Andre told her not to get too close to Caleb and Chester. Now Chester told her not to get too close to Caleb.

Apparently, in Chester's mind, Andre had been ruled out.

Chester was a lot more cautious than Caleb in this regard. Alina didn't know why Caleb didn't investigate her.

But at least she was lucky in this regard.

"Buzz." The phone vibrated. Alina took out her phone to see that it was Andre's call.

She answered the phone, "Have you two arrived?"

"I just got off the plane and got the news that Chester investigated us."

Alina, "I already know."

That was why she thought that the man was really terrible. He didn't understand what the respect between people was and didn't leave anyone any privacy space.

It was just too much.

"Watch out for him. Come back as soon as it's over." Andre increasingly felt that it was dangerous for Alina to stay in Ingford.

Even the Collins family was in a mess. What the hell did Chester want to do now?

"I see."

Alina was flustered. She thought that she should avoid Chester when she saw him in the future. What the hell was this? It just made her headache...

Alina didn't know what to say.

As soon as she hung up the phone, Caleb came. His head was still wrapped in a bandage. From the thickness of the bandage, it could be seen that he was beaten up heavily last night.

"You just wish that he should beat me to death so that you can be his wife, right?"

"If you have problems with your head, just stay in the hospital. Why do you come to me?" Alina was really going to be pissed off to death by this guy.

This jerk was really infuriating.

Now she didn't want to argue with this asshole at all.

She turned around and was about to walk inside, but there was a force on her wrist. Caleb grabbed her hand fiercely.

"What the hell is going on between you and him?"

"I don't know." Alina threw his hand away violently, feeling very angry.

What the hell was this situation now? It was really going to drive her crazy.

Undoubtedly, Alina was fuming.

She hadn't figured out the stuff between her and Caleb yet. But now Chester made things more complicated.

She also wanted to know what was going on.

"Alina." Caleb grabbed her hand more heavily.

Alina, "I really don't know."

"Stay away from him."

The two brothers were really interesting. Chester told her to stay away from Caleb, and Caleb told her to stay away from Chester.

"Have you forgotten that we already remarried." Caleb gritted his teeth and asked.

If he didn't mention it, she would forget about it.

Since when, only Caleb cared about the marriage?

But Alina just cared nothing for it?

Their roles were completely reversed.

"Did I promise to remarry you?" Alina glared at Caleb fiercely.

Caleb, "No matter you promised or not, we are already remarried. Now immediately pack up."

"What?"

"Back to Werland Villa."

Caleb didn't want to be too anxious about this matter. But from what happened now, he couldn't just wait.

Things had come to such a point. He couldn't just sit idly.

Alina was speechless.

At this moment, Caleb couldn't wait to label him on her, so that those who had feelings for her could give up those ideas.

Alina asked, "You were beaten stupid, weren't you?"

Back at Werland Villa? Who did he think he was?
