

I'm Richer Than My Billionaire Ex-husband Chapter 149

Caleb's eyes kept on her. The look in his eyes was so deep and cold...

Alina swallowed her saliva and took a deep breath, "Don't look at me like that. I won't go back to Werland Villa with you."

Werland Villa?

What kind of place was that?

Once... she really thought of that place as her home, but she was disappointed. It was just her nightmare.

A nightmare that she didn't want to face in her life.

"Then you tell me, what do you want to do? Want to be with Chester?" Caleb's tone was heavier.

It was as if every word had popped out of between his teeth.

Alina only felt headache.

She took a deep breath, looked at Caleb and said, "My brain is fried now. Can you just leave me alone?"

It was in a mess now. In Alina's world, it was completely in a mess now.

She had no idea what was going on.

Before, for Andre, Caleb entangled her. And now there was an extra Chester...

She really had no idea what was going on.

She just wanted to be quiet and think about what was going on.

In the end, Alina didn't go back to Werland Villa with Caleb. After Caleb left for a long time, Alina hadn't yet eased up.

Joanna was coming.

She had short hair, looking so sassy and like a man.

"What the hell are you thinking about?" Joanna looked at Alina. After she arrived here, Alina didn't say a word.

It was weird.

Because Alina was talkative.

Seeing the look in Alina's eyes, Joanna thought that someone had provoked her.

Alina came back to her senses and looked at Joanna, "Are you done?"

"Yeah."

Joanna nodded.

Then she asked, "Are you all right?"

It seemed that something happened to Alina.

Indeed. Alina's world turned upside down and instantly left her at a loss.

"I'm in trouble."

Next, Alina told Joanna all the things that had happened in the past few days. The more Joanna heard it, the more shocked she was.

Even if she had seen all kinds of complicated feelings and people in the world, she couldn't help but looked at Alina in shock.

After Alina finished speaking, she let out a long sigh of relief, "Do you know what they want to do now?"

Alina was talking about Caleb and Chester.

Not only could she not react now, but also Joanna, who had seen all kinds of loves, was also a bit stunned.

She said, "I also want to know what they want to do now."

"Chester beat up Caleb last night?"

"Yep."

Joanna gasped.

Now what the hell was this?

“Caleb hasn’t figured out anything about you and Andre yet, has he?” Joanna didn’t know what to say now.

She was telling the truth.

Caleb still didn’t know the relationship between Alina and Andre. But Chester appeared.

What the hell was this...

“What I’m frightened now isn’t what Caleb did to Andre.” Before, Alina was scared that Caleb would do something to hurt Andre.

But now seeing the fight between Chester and Caleb, it was scarier.

If something happened to these two, how could she still stay in Ingford?

“Do you think Chester has feelings for you?”

“No.” Hearing it, Alina immediately said no.

If Chester really had some feelings for her...

Thinking of those deep eyes, Alina felt that she couldn’t handle it at all. If it was really like what Joanna said, in Ingford, she would be...

In the public opinion war some time ago, she had seen the power of the public opinions. Fortunately she got out smoothly...

But if something happened between Caleb and Chester because of her, she... knew what would happen without thinking about it.

She didn’t want to get attack by the public opinion again.

“But there’s nothing else to explain it. Why did Chester ask you to stay away from Caleb?”

Joanna analyzed it.

Now, Alina completely didn’t want to face this. What the hell was this? She was going to be confused.

Alina wasn’t in a good mood. Hearing Joanna’s analysis, she simply just wanted to kill herself.

She felt that she was completely in a big trouble.

.....

Although Alina didn't return to Werland Villa, Caleb insisted that she had to go to the company to work.

Before, because Penny was there, things were delayed, but now... She had to make a choice between going back to Werland Villa and the company.

"Fuck him off." "Boom." The pen in Alina's hand was smashed on the drawing board. She was in a rage.

Lucy came in with tea. Seeing Alina smashing her phone on the floor, she asked, "Lady Alina, what's going on again?"

Again?

How anxious was she. Lucy even said she lost her temper again. Alina was going to be mad.

She called Andre. It was Andy who answered the phone.

He said Andre was on a business trip.

It seemed to be some business in Yexnard. Alina remembered that Caleb seemed to have threatened her with VIG's project in Yexnard.

Could it be that he...

Thinking of this possibility, Alina was anxious.

She rushed to AIG in a hurry. She even didn't change the clothes. Her off-white long dress was stained with a lot of paint.

Her appearance shocked the entire company.

When the front desk saw her, she quickly notified Tomas, but Alina walked so fast.

By the time Tomas tried to block her at the elevator door, she had already walked out the elevator and headed straight for Caleb's office.

She was in such a hurry.

"Lady Alina, wait..."

"What do you want?" Without waiting for Tomas finishing his words, Chester's voice came from the office.

Alina and Tomas held their breath in unison.

They two looked at each other. Tomas wanted to say something to Alina, but she was already carefully leaning on the door.

Just now, she was still full of anger, but now she was... eavesdropping?

Tomas was helpless.

He had guessed what he would face after this was over.

The conversation inside continued. Caleb said, "Do you know what you're talking about?"

Chester, "I can give you the project in North Srey, which is worth a billion."

"You want me to sell my wife?"

Alina kept silent.

Tomas gasped.

What the hell was going on?
