

I'm Richer Than My Billionaire Ex-husband Chapter 150

Inside, the atmosphere was frozen.

Chester, "And you know that she was your wife?"

The word 'was' is very strong on Chester's lips.

The already cold air was instantly hardened by Chester's words.

Now not only Alina, but also Tomas was on the door. When they heard that Chester had beaten their boss, they were already in shock.

After all, Chester may be cold, but he's not a man who will just beat someone up.

Now it is clear why he did that.

With a complicated look in his eyes, he looked at the woman beside him, and instantly drew a breath of cold air.

"I'm remarried to her, we're in a marriage now." Caleb's stoic voice continued to come from inside as Tomas' inner turmoil continued.

It is clear that this patience has reached its limit.

"Then get rid of it."

Even through the door panel. Both of them could now feel the eerie coldness inside.

On hearing Chester's almost commanding voice telling Caleb to get rid of their marriage, she was completely stunned.

"Have you lost your mind?" Caleb's angry roar came from inside.

Now Tomas and Alina also feel that Chester has really gone mad.

How else could he say such things.

"In addition to the North Srey project, you can have the South Srey too."

"Chester!"

"Caleb, don't be greedy. You have to be responsible for what you do, and since it's lost, don't regret it."

"....."

“No, you didn’t lose her. You abandoned her. Did she, indeed, willingly remarry you?”

Chester was right.

Alina wasn’t voluntary for remarriage.

After what Caleb had done to her three years ago, she would have killed that man if she could.

How could she willingly remarry him?

This is simply not possible.

“Don’t you go too far.” Caleb uttered.

However, Chester’s words continued, “Remember how Nova had her bone marrow and blood drawn before your eyes?”

At this moment, Alina’s face instantly turned white and her hands unconsciously clenched into fists. There was a strong flash of hatred in her eyes.

To this day, the conversation in the study would still be fresh in her ears. If she hadn’t overheard what he and Nova had said to each other, she had no idea what was going on. She always felt so tired and exhausted during that time.

The backbone always felt painful and she found out about the needle holes. She was going to ask Caleb about it.

No one knew how Alina came to be with the conversation he had with Nova in the study doorway.

“Remember who it was to be used to save?” The conversation inside was still sharply going on.

Caleb, “Shut up.”

“Emma is still in Ingford. How do you explain this?”

Emma was still in Ingford, so what the hell was Caleb doing? What did he mean by forcing a remarriage?

Caleb was stunned at this.

“There’s nothing between me and her.” Caleb replied confidently.

But the next moment, Chester sneered, “Nothing? You’d use your wife to save Emma’s life, and there is nothing? Who’d believe it?”

The air, once again, froze.

It leaves Caleb speechless.

Caleb has always said that he and Emma don't have that kind of relationship and that there is nothing between them.

But was it worth using his wife and child for a woman who had no ties?

Alina remembered that Nova had said that she and the baby could be in danger if the operation did take place at that moment.

Yet in that situation, he could simply say 'get rid of the baby'.

Alina didn't know when and how the conversation in there ended.

The moment the office door was pulled open, her white face was showed to Caleb and Chester.

Both were stunned.

Caleb was consciously about to step forward.

Chester, however, took Alina's hand first, "Come with me."

"Chester, get your hands off her." Caleb watched as Alina obediently followed Chester away.

Caleb stomped in anger.

Tomas came forward in shock, "Sir."

"When did she get here?" There was anger in his voice.

Tomas, "Been here a while."

The office was already cold, and when Tomas said that, it was even colder.

Especially the way Caleb looked at him was like a knife in his eye, wanting to kill him by a thousand cuts.

What he just learned was too shocking.

So at this moment, he is speechless in the face of Caleb's sharpness and coldness.

Caleb's eyes darkened as Alina's number flashed on his phone.

In the end he grabbed the car keys and chase them out.

Alina and Chester left together, which was a shock to everyone, because Chester had been dragging Alina away.

“Caleb.” Emma called out to Caleb at the entrance to the lift.

Joy in her eyes, she had just seen the scene of them leaving too.

Apart from the joy, there was jealousy.

What on earth Caleb, Andre, and now Chester were around Alina?
