

I'm Richer Than My Billionaire Ex-husband Chapter 154

She was already angry.

Now, hearing such a strong question from him, the emotion in her heart was instantly overwhelmed, and she raised her hand and slapped on his face.

She did not know how many times this had happened.

Anyway, she could not help but beat him since she came back, and at this moment, Caleb's face darkened.

Alina's tone was even heavier, "Now, will you let go of me?"

His eyes fixed on her face.

"Alina, you haven't sorted things out with Andre, and now there's Chester, so tell me what you want?"

"What do I want?"

When she heard this, Alina was in exasperation.

After the anger, there was peace in her eyes.

She stepped forward, "I did not call shot at anything since I was with you, but you..."

At this point, Alina paused.

Her eyes were sharper.

Caleb, who had been angry, could not help but feel shaken deep inside by her deep calm.

Then Alina looked at him and said, "I'd like to know what do you want when you remarry me."

"Alina." he understood, and his tone couldn't help but be heavier because of it.

Without waiting for him to say anything, Alina uttered again, "You married me to save Emma. Who is it to save?"

Alina would not believe that there was nothing fishy in his rush to remarry her.

Three years ago, he did that for Emma, he even wanted to get rid of his child.

If so, there was nothing that he could not do.

“Is that who I am in your mind?” Caleb looked at Alina in disbelief.

He had no idea that she was so resistant because of the thoughts in her head.

When he thought of it, there was mockery in his eyes.

Since when did Alina’s heart become like this?

Alina looked at him, just like that, “Three years ago, everything you explained by your actions, does anyone need to think anything else?”

He looked at her with a deeper look in his eyes. For a long, long time, his thin lips were pursed, and at this moment, he couldn’t say a word.

Looking at the man without speaking, Alina met the sharpness in his eyes without fear.

“What? Have you forgotten? How determined you were to get rid of that baby to save Emma?”

This man’s memory is really not good.

Or is it that it doesn’t matter to him?

“Alina.” After a long moment, Caleb moved his lips to say something.

However, Alina interrupted with a soft smile, “Or are you simply denying it now? Do you want Nova to come over?”

Alina has never been confronted with this issue so positively before.

And now she’s being assertive, which certainly gives Caleb a sense of aggression.

However, can Alina be blamed for this?

He made that happen.

Finally, Caleb was gone.

All the questions were swallowed because of Alina’s reaction. A lot of things between them had been problematic.

In Alina’s world, Caleb was in no position to question her.

When Emma returned to Green Lake Apartments, she was still shivering.

Tomas sent her back and left, and Kara was called by her.

After all that had happened, she obviously won't be acting alone again.

So even if Alina was to be brought down, there had to be a surefire way to absolutely remove her.

Kara, "Are you sure?"

Yes.

They had all decided that Chester had beaten Caleb because of Alina.

But until this is confirmed, no one dares to say anything.

Emma's eyes glittered as if, after all this time, she had finally found the weapon that would take Alina down.

She said, "I watched Chester pull Alina away."

So, who would believe that these two are not related in any way?

Kara, "So what are you going to do now?"

"I'm going to expose her. Let everyone know her true face."

She seems to have no other means than this.

"I think, it's better not to expose it."

"Why not? If everyone knows that she's pestering Caleb while she's still tangled up with Chester, it'll be the end of her."

It's the last thing the world allows, and it's even more repulsive than a mistress.

Kara frowned, "Are you so sure that she can't be cleared?"

Kara had this in mind, after from all the previous revelations, they got nothing.

One after another, they have started a war of words, but in the end Alina has always been able to turn it around.

And what they are now is the result of the backlash.

Emma, "This time it's not like the others."

“Who knows she’ll come up with some bigger twist?” Kara hit the nail on the head.

Every time before, they were sure they could handle Alina, but in the end, it was opposite.

Kara’s words really reminded her that she should be more cautious about using public opinion to attack Alina.

It’s obvious after any of the previous lesson, Emma could see that Alina was really something.
