

I'm Richer Than My Billionaire Ex-husband Chapter 156

Kara's face was full of shock and horror when she heard it.

Even if it's just Emma's version of Hector's story, it's like seeing Chester's eagle eyes.

It was the first time Emma had said something like she wanted to spare Alina, something she would never have said before.

This time, she was really shocked.

"In that case, I'll have to let it go now." Kara said with a sigh, although somewhat reluctantly.

But when you think of all the true statements Chester has made before, there are even rumours that women have ended up crippled because they coveted him and got close to him.

He will not kill, but he will make life worse than death.

It's not a rumour, it's real. Who would dare to mess with such a man?

"But I'm not happy about it, it's such a good thing to have." Emma's eyes rolled with more than hatred, and she spoke of it with gritted teeth.

She can see the extent of the hatred now.

Kara sighed, "But what can be done?"

Now it's come to this.

No one could have imagined that the relationship between Chester and Alina would be something no one could have expected before.

"There's a way, there has to be a way." Emma was almost driven to breaking point, her mind reeling from the search.

How could she just let Alina off the hook so easily?

She won't.

"Let me think." Kara, too, was reluctant, but because Chester was involved, they had to be more careful.

But Chester also said that if word got out about this.

Then none of them could get away with it, and Hector was even sent to warn Emma.

Emma was very angry, so was Kara.

In contrast to Emma's sinister warning, Alina saw the humble Hector.

Chester is a cold man, but he is very demanding of those around him.

Even a special assistant has an aura.

The man respectfully handed the invitation to Alina, his tone gentle, "This is an invitation from North Srey."

Alina looked at the invitation in big gold letters.

She didn't expect Chester to deliver it to her. And this involves the North Srey Fashion Show.

Eventually, Alina took the invitation and opened it.

It was the first time she had seen an invitation to North Srey. Such a successful Fashion Show was very well prepared beforehand.

For example, when the invitation was sent out, the models she would be using for the Fashion Show were already marked.

Even the model's body features and figures are clearly marked, which makes the preparation process less of a hassle for those who prepare them.

"Okay." Seeing such an invitation, Alina knew that she had to go.

"I'll go back then." Hector said to Alina as he respectfully got up.

Alina nodded, however, in her head, she was now so dazed.

She can't believe that this is what she was experiencing now.

Finally.

Hector is gone.

And Alina is almost limp on the sofa.

"Chester." What the hell is he up to?

For several years, she had the rare opportunity to share with Caleb the knowledge that Chester was a madman.

When she thought this, she was dumbfounded.

It's a mess, a complete mess.

Even if Grandma's business with her wasn't over now, and she had a feeling that she wanted to run away, the reaction of these people was really horrible.

It was the first time she had seen such a thing, and she didn't know what to do.

Hector came out of Mulherd Manor to see Stella coming to see Alina and the moment they met, their breath caught.

Stella's face turned white as she looked at the man with a cold, frosty face.

The coldness that almost froze Stella's eyes.

For a long time, neither of them broke the silence.

"You...", said Stella, just as she was about to speak, but the man passed her by indifferently.

At that moment, she clearly felt the bitterness of the man's body.

Such a biting coldness choked Stella's heart.

Behind her, the sound of the engine was heard, and then he was gone. Even so, she was still enveloped by the coldness that reflected from him.

Ten minutes later.

Jocelyn saw Alice come in with Stella, who looked pale and preoccupied.

Alice, "I have received news that terrifies me."

"What?" Alina looked back at Alice.

Alice, however, looked at her sternly.

The look in her eyes was as penetrating as if they were trying to see right through her soul.

Alina was uncomfortable with this look.

“Why are you looking at me like that?” Alina was uncomfortable with such a look.

Alice, “I just saw the list over at the North Srey Fashion Show, and you know whose name I saw?”

At this point, without further ado, she knew exactly what the shock in Alice’s tone was about.

She, on the other hand, was already in a mess, and now when Alice said this, she was even more confused.

“How did you get it?” Alice approached her.

Joslan Hughes, is a name that has become very famous over the years, but it is only a newcomer.

An opportunity like the North Srey Fashion Show couldn’t have come her way so easily.

Don’t say anything about new elements.

North Srey Fashion Show never accepted this.

And now, Alina was dizzy, looking at Alice.

Alice, “Tell me the truth.”

Alina, “It’s Chester .”

Alice had just taken a sip of her water when she heard Alina’s name and spat in her face.

The atmosphere was tense, but now, thanks to Alice’s water, it’s all mess.

Alina, “You’re filthy.”

Alice was totally confused, even though she had analyzed that Chester might have a thing for Alina.

But this man was so spoiled to Alina.
