

I'm richer than my billionaire ex-husband novel

chapter 16

Caleb stayed at Mulherd Manor.

He could also see that Alina didn't want to go back to Werland Villa, the place she had nightmares about two years ago..

Of course, Alina also definitely does not want this man to live in Mulherd Manor, but he is strong and domineering.

He simply ignored her refusal, and with the promise of her grandfather's request, Alina didn't bother with him, and treated him as air in an estate.

The next morning at the table, Mulherd Manor's servants were all happy to see Caleb. These people had no idea what had happened two years ago and were happy to see Caleb leave his fiancée behind to follow Alina.

"Is there anything scheduled during the day?" The man asked her.

Alina replied carelessly, "What does it matter to you?"

Caleb's face darkened and he put down the glass of milk with a particularly heavy force.

Alina eyed him sharply, "Since you're so unhappy eating, then don't eat, don't waste my food." No one begged him to come here.

The man looked at her with a sharp twinkle in his eye.

Alina didn't bother to talk to him and ate her own food.

She was now so good at pissing off Caleb, and in the end, he left.

"Lady Alina, I see Master Caleb cares about you, why are you having a tantrum with Master Caleb?" said Lucy who used to take care of her mother and grandmother .

After this return, Alina got her back.

At this moment, hearing Lucy say this, Alina's face froze for a moment.

Two years ago, she was forced to get married by Grandpa Max, and only at the end did she realize that the respectful relationship was actually his intention.

So, what about this time? But no matter this time, what his intention was, she would first check out that grandmother's thing and leave.

On the way out the door, a Bugatti parked in the yard, dominating and eye-catching.

Tomas, beside Caleb, got out of the car with a respectful tone, "Lady Alina."

At this name, Alina once again darkened her face.

But he didn't correct it, he just said, "Is there something wrong? If not, I have to leave first."

After that, she walked towards the car Andre left for her. She still likes this kind of majestic car than that kind of small one.

Tomas stepped forward and handed her the car keys.

He said, "Mr. Collins said, girls are still suitable for small cars, that let me help you drive that to scrap."

"What the hell does he think he is?" Alina dropped her words coldly, turned around and went straight to her car.

He is the one who should be scrapped.

Tomas was a bit taken aback by Alina's words. After all, Alina and Caleb were always noble, gentle and generous during their years together.

In addition, she was born as a noble lady, since childhood to receive a good education.

Such words with personal attacks would never come out of her mouth.

What exactly did she go through all these years abroad?

Without waiting for Tomas to react, Alina got right into the car.

Caleb's face darkened when he received the call from Tomas.

This damn woman.
