

I'm Richer Than My Billionaire Ex-husband Chapter 160

Alina has no idea how she got back to Mulherd Manor. Alice has returned.

When she saw Alina coming back from outside, she frowned, "You haven't been back all night."

"You're the one who didn't come back all night."

Alina rushed to sit beside her.

Alice, "What's wrong with you?"

Obviously, it was clear that Alina didn't look too good.

Alina, "I need to go back to Shirling right away."

That was the conclusion she had come to in her mind on the way back.

She has to go back to Shirling now.

Alice, "What's going on?"

Now Alina could not explain.

She then told Alice the whole story.

The more Alice listened, the more her heart rose to her throat, could not help but feel tense now.

"So, now Master Chester is going to fight Master Caleb because you went to AIG?"

What kind of a mess is this?

It's hard to think about it, or to believe it.

When she heard about the fight, Alina was going crazy.

"It seems that this Master Chester is serious about you, which would explain why he was the only one who objected back then."

"But I..."

"Don't say that in front of him, or you'll be in trouble." Alice knew what Alina meant.

What she meant was that she didn't know Master Chester well at all.

Alina's mind is in a muddle.

And she doesn't know what to say.

"But I really haven't seen much of him before." There was something helpless and devastating about that statement.

She was telling the truth.

She hadn't really met Chester before, so how did it come to this?

Alice, "You haven't seen much of him, but he's got his heart set on you, what can you do?"

"Besides, are you in control of this scene now?"

"....."

"Caleb's clearly pushing you, and when he pushes you, Chester's going to fix him." That's a pretty serious thing for Alice to say.

Alina, who was already trying to escape, felt helpless.

"What should I do?"

"Go back to Shirling." whoever it was that saw Alina in this state now had only one thing in mind, to get her back.

Ingford is no place for her now.

Alina, "But Caleb..."

"Don't worry, the best he can do right now is threaten you with the VIG, don't you trust Andre?"

What Andre has achieved at VIG over the years, Alina knows.

And all this time, apart from causing Andre some problems, there seems to be no greater loss.

"So I go back now?"

"Go back." Alice nodded.

Chester's performance was so sudden for her that she didn't know what was happening.

So now, it seemed to Alice, she had to go back.

Alina nodded, "Okay then, I'll go back."

No matter how obsessed she had been with the results, Alina now had only one thing on her mind, and that was to get back to Shirling and seek refuge.

Ingford is really horrible.

Just as I was about to say something else, the phone vibrated and rang.

Alina looked at the number and it was Julia's call.

"Alina, Mum said she wants you back for lunch."

Alina was going crazy when she heard this.

At this point, how could she dare to go to Collins Castle for dinner?

Naturally she knows better than anyone else what these last few days have meant for her and for Collins Castle.

Vanessa was always on her side, but if she knew that Chester and Caleb were in this situation because of her.

No matter how big-hearted a mother is, she can't possibly like her.

Although it's not so important, Alina had a headache.

"Mum doesn't look well, you'd better come back or she'll be looking for you at Mulherd Manor." Julia heard Alina's hesitation.

Alina was having a nervous breakdown.

She hadn't forgotten that Vanessa knew about the child now.

"Okay."

Although she was reluctant and knew that the lunch would not be very good, she did not dare to refuse too much now.

"Okay then, I'll have the kitchen prepare what you like."

"Okay."

In fact, it's the same taste whether she likes it or not.

It depends on who she eats with.

Alina, "Dinner at Collins Castle for lunch."

"You can eat?"

"I have to."

One of her biggest feelings now is that she doesn't want to be around anyone from the Collins family, not even when she sees them.

Caleb, in particular. She feels like the man has never given her a good time and is a real pain in the ass.

Alice looked at her as if she were a pathetic little girl, and felt that it was all too much for her now.

"Then be careful."

"Okay."

Alina nodded, having taken out her phone, not to ask what she was up to.

She was planning to go back to Shirling as soon as she had lunch.

She booked herself a flight first.

Then she said to Lucy, "Lucy, help me get the luggage ready."

"Okay, Lady Alina."

Lucy, of course, is a great disappointment.

But this Collins family is now making things too complicated for anyone to afford it.

So Alina is right to go back to Shirling now, away from the Collins, which is good for her in any case.

In AIG.

The atmosphere, at one point, was about to explode.

Chester eyed Caleb darkly, "What work do you want her to do? I'll do it for her."

Chester broke the silence by speaking first.

However, these words made the atmosphere more tense.

Caleb looked at him with an unpleasant look in his eyes.

“Chester, I’ve always respected you.” With each word, Caleb almost gritted his teeth.

In the Collins family, his father and Chester have always been revered, but what the hell is this about now?

“It’s not necessary.” Chester replied calmly to him.

Not necessary?

But that’s no reason for him to get involved with Alina.

Looking into Chester’s already dark eyes, Caleb continued, “Alina is my wife.”

Even though he was respectful to Chester, at the moment, Caleb’s tone was more cautionary and more warning.
