

I'm Richer Than My Billionaire Ex-husband Chapter 165

Anyone who is a human being absolutely hates people who cheat on them, especially when Vanessa is so protective of Alina.

She couldn't believe that Vanessa really didn't care at all when it came to this.

It's been too long.

Alina has been too good for too long on this part and too many people protecting her. How can she be happy with that?

How could she pass up such a great opportunity?

Alina, if you have the skills to remarry Caleb this time, then she must have the skills to break her up again.

After all these years.

She had been waiting, in this case of Caleb, she had been waiting, how could she just give up so easily?

Naturally, she would not give up so easily, so no matter what she said, she would marry Caleb.

No one knows Emma was in hysterics when she found out that Alina and Caleb had remarried within a short period of time.

Now, she couldn't care less.

The Chester's warnings were simply ignored.

She thought about it a lot.

As long as she is with Caleb, no one can do anything about it, not even Chester.

So, even with all the pros and cons Kara had analyzed, she thought she should do what she started with and come to Collins Castle and tear Alina's ugliest face off and show it to these people.

Let all these people who are defending her take a good look at Alina and has she failed them from the beginning to the end?

"Is that what you want?" After a long time, Vanessa finally spoke.

At this moment, her eyes were incomparably sharp and cold.

Emma's heart felt even better when she saw how sharp and cold it was.

She thought it was because Vanessa had seen Alina's ugly face and was furious, right?

And yes.

How could she not be angry about such a big deal?

A gentle smile lifted the corners of her mouth, "I thought I should let you know that."

After all, it was her two sons who were involved, and it would be impossible to say that Vanessa didn't care about the matter.

And it is this care that Emma takes advantage of.

What mother can bear such a thing?

Vanessa now looks at Emma with a storm in her eyes.

Julia felt this danger very clearly.

"Mother." Julia reminding her.

Vanessa came back to her senses instantly.

When she looked at Emma, the sharpness in her eyes intensified and could not be concealed.

Emma, "Ma'am, Alina has been lying to you, she's been hooking up with Master Chester for a long time."

"....."

"Master Chester is wrong, you can't be wrong."

"Boom." Vanessa slapped her palm on the floor, stopping Emma's words.

The aura of the body is radiating outwards .

The heart, moreover, is constantly rising and falling.

She really doesn't know how Caleb could have been blinded by such a woman.

Looking to Julia, she said, "Call Caleb."

Wasn't this the right time to call Chester? Emma's face changed.

Vanessa's heart was now heaving and choking with pain.

"Okay."

Emma picked up the phone and was about to call Caleb.

However, the next moment Emma said, "I think it's time for Master Chester to come back, there are things we should talk about in person."

Vanessa looked sternly at Emma.

And Emma, not even aware that such coldness was due to her, went on and on.

Check it all out.

Let them see once and for all what kind of face Alina has, isn't she the goddess of their hearts?

It's good for them to see for themselves what it's like to be a protected goddess.

At this moment, Emma felt better than ever.

She knew she should have come here, she should have said everything, let it all be over.

It's time for Alina to finish what she started in Ingford.

"Call Chester too."

"Okay."

Emma couldn't have been happier to hear that the two of them were coming back together to confront each other, she had finally waited for this moment.

And this is what she wants.

Looks like she's come to the right moment.

.....

Caleb and Chester received a call from Julia, who hadn't planned to return, when they heard that Emma was at Collins Castle, in an instant, they all dropped their important work.

Alina is already at the airport.

Andre's call was received, and the man on the phone, who was always calm, was completely stirred up by Ingford.

"What's happening is that Caleb is going to go crazy at any moment and Chester is going to step in and block it."

On hearing that Caleb had taken another shot at his side, and before he could do so, Chester took care of everything.

Alina feels hopeless.

She has just had a fight with Caleb and is very upset.

Now when she hears Andre's side, she doesn't know what to say.

"Whatever, I'll go back to Shirling now." Alina was speechless, thinking of the nonsensical catchphrase at Werland Villa Caleb.

It was a scene that had a definite impact not only on her side but also on Caleb and Andre's side.

Andre, "Have you figured out what's going on with him?"

It's about remarrying Caleb.

Although Alina didn't volunteer to resume the marriage, it's important to get to the bottom of it.

Alina was at a loss for words when it came to this.

"I just want to go back to Shirling now, I don't want anything else." Even if it's such a big deal, she doesn't want to care.

She just wants to go back to Shirling.

It's really messy, it's crazy.

She wanted to go home for a few days to get some peace and quiet.

It was clear to Andre on the other end of the line that Alina was in a state of complete madness and wanted to go back to Shirling.

Before, it didn't matter how important it was to come back, but now for Alina, she really didn't want to care about anything else.

"Good, then go back first." Andre said on the other side of the phone.

“Okay.”

Alina nodded her head.

She really can't stand it now.

With a bunch of lunatics, she would sooner or later become a lunatic herself, she could see that now that Ingford was definitely not a place for her to stay.

“Do you want a special plane to pick you up?”

“No, I've bought a ticket.” Alina thought now that's the fastest way out of this hellhole.

Hanging up Andre's phone, Alina was on her way to change her ticket, go through security and board the plane as quickly as possible.

After hanging up Andre's phone, Alina's phone kept ringing, Caleb was calling.
