

I'm Richer Than My Billionaire Ex-husband Chapter 171

Emma was trembling. She probably never thought that she would face such a scene...

Big families valued the reputation.

If it were known that Alina was entangled with Master Chester and Master Caleb, how could the Collins family face others?

However, she never expected that it would be contrary to what she expected. It seemed that they didn't care about it at all.

"Well, I'll let Hector arrange it." Chester pulled a long face, pressed the cigarette butt into the ashtray. Listening to the sound, Emma felt that as if the cigarette butt was pressed on her, which scared her.

Vanessa elegantly picked up the tea cup in front of her. The tea lid and tea cup collided softly, highlighting her elegance.

After taking a sip, she looked at Emma, who had a pale face, and said in a calm and deep tone, "Do it now. I'm afraid that there will be more trouble."

"No." Without thinking too much, Emma just wanted to get up from the wheelchair.

However, at this moment, she seemed to forget that her right leg was already weak. At the moment when she got up, she lost her balance and fell to the floor in embarrassment.

However, none present stepped forward to help her. They looked like at her as if they were looking at something disgusting.

"Why are you doing this to me? I want..."

"Call the police?" Before Emma finished speaking, she was interrupted by Vanessa's cold voice.

Call the police? Emma never thought about it after being with Caleb. She had always thought about how to marry into the Collins family.

No matter what happened to her, all she wanted was to marry into the Collins family, a wealthy and power family.

Now, however, Vanessa was...

What Vanessa said was Emma's true thoughts.

Just now, at that moment, she really had that thought.

“The money I gave you, and the recordings of those things you said to me, are enough for you to stay in the prison for more than ten years, right?”

Emma, “You guys...”

“I didn’t want to take it at all.”

“But in the end, you still took it.”

Yes, she took it.

When Vanessa found her, she didn’t think about asking for the money.

Vanessa asked her to leave Caleb. Emma had no choice. So Vanessa framed up her?

It was always Emma who framed up others.

How about now?

Vanessa let her experience the feeling of being framed up.

“Anyway, I won’t go to Costley. Even if you want me in, you guys have to ask Caleb first.”

At this moment, Emma completely collapsed.

It seemed that she really had no other way than to be tough. She was really scared...

This time, it was obviously Alina’s faults. Emma couldn’t figure out why the Collins were still on Alina’s side.

Why were these people still protecting Alina even if something so big happened? Why? Why exactly?

“It’s rare that you are so tough.” Vanessa looked at Emma coldly.

Emma, “Over the years, I have tried to do everything I could do, but you still don’t accept me.”

She felt so helpless.

“Try to frame up others?”

Others? Alina?

Since Alina’s return, Emma had always targeted her.

She did a lot of things to hurt Alina.

Because of this, the original peace between her and the Collins family was ruined.

During these years when Alina had been away, although the Collins family had never accepted Emma, they didn't make things difficult to her.

Now, it was different.

Alina was back. No matter what happened and no matter what Alina did, the Collins family seemed to be blindly defending Alina.

Why this happened? Emma still didn't understand.

Hearing Vanessa say this, Emma felt depressed. Her already bad face turned paler.

She was also more embarrassed on the floor.

She wanted to try to stand up, but now even something as simple as standing up, she couldn't do it.

Vanessa got up and looked at her condescendingly.

Emma's lips trembled. She wanted to say something, but she still couldn't say anything...

This was Vanessa. No matter when Emma was in front of her, she was always on top of the world, and Emma was like a shit.

Vanessa looked at her with disdain. It was the first time that Vanessa showed such a look...

Before, probably Vanessa was unwilling to give such a look to her, right?

Vanessa said, "Make it quick and clean."

After speaking, she turned around and left.

Quick and clean?

So what exactly did this mean?

Was Vanessa still trying to kick her out of Ingford?

Yes, Emma just felt that the Collins family would definitely kick her out of Ingford.

As Vanessa walked to Crescent Villa, Emma couldn't help but said, "Can I know the reason?"

Vanessa paused.

Emma struggled to look back at Vanessa's back and took a deep breath, "Can I know why you are so protective of her?"

She really envied Alina.

Alina's parents were top students and completely inherited the excellent lineage of a literary family.

Alina's family was her first contact with the upper class.

At that time, she really envied Alina. But she just envied. Because she knew that she couldn't get those things no matter what.

Now she really wanted to know the reason.

Why did so many people protect Alina?

She thought that there was nothing left in Alina's world after her parents and Erica died.

But why was there the Collins family again?

Why did the Collins family always blindly defend Alina, no matter what she did?

"Emma, do you know what different classes are?"

"Even if you forcibly fit in it, you still can't change everything in you. Something can't be obtained by your efforts." Vanessa said this and left directly.

Emma's already pale face was even paler when she heard Vanessa's words. She was shivering.
