

I'm Richer Than My Billionaire Ex-husband Chapter 177

The next morning, it was so weird when they had breakfast.

Emma didn't look very good. She didn't sleep well last night. However, Alina slept very well after the phone call with Andre, so she looked good now.

Caleb got the black eye. He didn't get a good sleep all night.

Lois asked someone to make the breakfast. The dishes were almost what Alina liked. Seeing it, Emma glanced at Caleb.

Caleb didn't seem to mind it.

"Lois, it tastes good." Alina really loved the dishes.

Lois smiled and said, "As long as you like it."

All she wanted now were to let Alina live well here. As for Emma and the others, she didn't care.

Emma didn't like the breakfast. Alina liked to drink soy milk in the morning, but she was allergic to soy milk.

"Can you give me a glass of juice?" There was no porridge. It only had pancakes and some small snacks. Emma couldn't eat them at all.

Lois, "Only milk."

Undoubtedly, Emma was also allergic to milk.

"Please give me a glass of water." Emma knew that she had to live here. Although there were some things that she was not happy with, she could only stand it.

Lois poured her a glass of water.

But it was so hot.

Emma couldn't drink it at all.

"Lady Alina, try this." Lois was attentive to Alina, as if to remind Emma in this way how tiresome she was here.

Emma felt suffocated and a dull pain.

Alina, "Thank you."

"I let them go to Hasnan specifically to buy fish. The fish there is so fresh."

Hearing it, the three of them all paused.

Before last night, Emma felt so proud when she heard the word, Hasnan. But now, she definitely didn't dare to show off.

She was scared.

"Well, I love the fish in Hasnan." Alina emphasized the word, Hasnan.

Emma's face turned pale because of this.

Caleb woke up early in the morning. His face was gloomy. Now with the bandage on his head, he looked even gloomier.

Over the years, Hasnan had been a taboo for him. No one dared to mention it in front of him.

However, Lois...

Did she really not know it, or just remind them what happened in Hasnan Bridge three years ago?

"I remember there are crabs in Hasnan. Lois, ask them to buy some. I didn't know before. After I took a bath there, I just knew that there were crabs in it."

"Okay."

Lois nodded.

Emma's and Caleb's faces sank in unison. Alina did it on purpose. She must say it on purpose.

Emma trembled all over when she thought about it.

She didn't expect that she would be so scared when she heard Hasnan.

Before, as long as she thought that Alina died under Hasnan Bridge, she was so happy. Because it showed that Caleb loved her so much.

In the end, she still used such an extreme way to prove that she was more important than Alina in Caleb's heart.

But now, she was just afraid.

Alina said it so carelessly, but it also made them tense.

She was still...

After breakfast, Caleb called Alina to the study.

The atmosphere of the study was in horrible taste. It was just because of Emma.

Caleb, "What the hell do you want to do?"

Finally, he still asked.

The smell of smoke was very strong.

Unlike before, Alina didn't frown at all, but just smiled.

Such a smile made Caleb frown.

Looking at Caleb, she scoffed, "It's me who should ask you the question, right? This is not what you want to see?"

He wanted to see this?

Since she came back for her grandmother's business, Caleb had entangled her all the time.

After waking up this morning, Alina hadn't said a word about leaving. Wasn't that what he wanted?

Let her stay at Werland Villa obediently...

Yes, she was in Werland Villa now.

As for whether she was obedient or not, he couldn't control.

Alina looked at Caleb. There were endless chills and mockery in her eyes. She asked back, "What do you want to do?"

Caleb took a sharp puff of the cigarette in his hand. Such a handsome man was a bit embarrassed overnight...

"While Chester is at home, she's temporarily in Werland Villa."

Chester?

Alina immediately understood Caleb's meaning. It turned out that Chester was going to do something to Emma.

"Huh." Alina laughed.

Hearing it, Caleb felt so uncomfortable.

"I hope you can understand." He said with guilty.

Alina looked at Caleb.

She was smiling. That smile looked so dazzling.

When she faced Nova last night, she also smiled like this. But just with such a smile, she actually stuck such a big syringe in Nova.

Just thinking about like that, Caleb also felt creepy.

When he thought that Alina wouldn't answer, he heard her say, "Well, I can understand."

It was so ironic.

Hearing it, Caleb was tense.

Her look was so fierce.

"He'll leave soon." Caleb was a little unsure when he said this.

Alina raised her eyebrows.

Leave?

Probably not, right?

Chester was focused on the problem right in front of him. Once he made a decision, he wouldn't change his mind so easily.

Although Caleb said that Chester would leave soon, in Alina's opinion, it wouldn't be that simple.

Caleb still took things too simply. Who did he think he was?

"Don't worry. I will understand you well." Alina gritted her teeth.

It made Caleb have a bad feeling.

But Caleb thought Alina didn't dare to do anything too excessive, so he didn't think so much for the time being...

After all, Alina was the granddaughter of the old Lawson. There were some things she still needed to worry about.

Caleb thought of everything.

Alina indeed had to worry about it.

But it was Alina's business.
