

I'm Richer Than My Billionaire Ex-husband Chapter 179

Emma was completely ignored. She was so fuming.

She just hoped that Caleb would be back in the evening.

In Collins Castle.

At lunch, Julia went somewhere. Now there were only Vanessa and Chester left.

"He didn't go back over there today?" Vanessa asked Chester.

Chester shook his head, "He has no time."

"Is it reliable to let Alina stay with that woman together?" Vanessa said in a somewhat worried tone.

She knew how much Alina hated Emma.

After all, three years ago, what happened between Alina and Caleb, they also knew very well.

"Last night in Werland Villa, Alina beat up Dr. Nova." Chester thought for a moment and said to Vanessa.

Vanessa was instantly shocked.

"What?"

"Alina beat Dr. Nova up?"

"Yes."

Hearing this, Vanessa instantly stiffened and froze.

She knew that Alina had done something to Emma these days. Indeed, Emma deserved to be beaten.

But Nova was a doctor.

Vanessa remembered.

Three years ago, Nova was on Caleb's side. Besides, she was a doctor and used a lot of methods to treat Emma.

So what the hell was this now?

Alina wouldn't let go of those who were related to the events of that year?

“How did she beat up Nova?”

“It is said that...” Chester looked at Vanessa and paused. There was hesitation in his eyes.

Apparently, he was also shocked when he got the news.

According to what his men reported to him, Alina was obviously out of control at that time.

Dr. Nova listened to Caleb’s orders back then, though it wasn’t what a doctor should do. It was completely unethically.

Alina took revenge on her, which was understandable.

But Chester had to say that it was really ruthless.

Chester told Vanessa about what happened in Werland Villa last night.

After hearing it, Vanessa stiffened.

“Alina...” She didn’t know how to describe Alina.

But from her tone, she didn’t mean to blame Alina at all, but felt a little happier.

Alina did a good job.

After all, these people were involved back then. It was also gratifying that Alina could fight back in this way.

Back then, they didn’t know anything. They didn’t notice anything about it when something so big happened.

After they knew it, they just felt guilty.

But at that time, everything was irretrievable.

Now seeing Alina be able to fight back in this way, Vanessa felt a little more comfortable.

“So, it must be hard time for Emma to stay in Werland Villa.”

Chester nodded, “Hmm.”

Caleb had no choice now. Yesterday Emma was almost taken away by Chester.

He had no other way than to let Emma stay in Werland Villa.

However, he was also reluctant to see Alina leave.

“This bastard.” Thinking of this scene, Vanessa felt so mad.

Chester and Caleb were all born of her. How could they be so different?

Caleb spent much time settling Emma over the years.

But for so many years, Caleb never thought of getting Emma out of Ingford, which was the most angry point.

Now he even let Emma and Alina directly live together.

Caleb really had gone too far.

“I hope that Alina won’t let us down this time.” Vanessa thought about getting Alina out of the Werland Villa.

Now, she didn’t think so.

Caleb had been protecting Emma all these years.

Since he wanted to protect her in this way, it also depended on whether Alina agreed or not.

He actually wanted to keep Emma staying here and Alina by his side. How would there be such good things?

This time, just teach him a good lesson.

“No. Since Alina did that kind of things to Nova last night, I believe she can’t stand Emma soon.”

“Well, you have to take care of the follow-up.” Vanessa thought for a moment and said to Chester.

No matter what Alina did to Emma in Werland Villa, Vanessa just wanted to make Emma put up with it.

Caleb had been protecting Emma all these years, but this time, he had to know that he couldn’t protect her all the time.

If he couldn’t make a choice, just let him know that he must pay the price for some things.

Three years ago, he treated Alina in such a cruel way, so there must be an end in this matter.

Finally, it still came to this point.

Since Alina came back, she didn't take any actions. Vanessa thought that this matter was going to be over like this. But now it seemed that she was wrong.

Some things didn't happen at the time, but it didn't mean that they would never happen. Since it happened, it was impossible to avoid.

"Don't worry." Chester nodded. He had already had some arrangements.

This time it really gave Caleb a difficult problem.

Emma angered Chester this time, so she was going to be sent to a wilderness like Costley...

Caleb wouldn't let Emma go here. But even if he wanted to protect her, he had to care about other things.

Now the situation in Werland Villa, not to mention that Alina and others didn't expect, probably Caleb didn't expect it, either.

In the afternoon.

Emma was moved to the couch again. These people were just like robots, only listening to orders.

They didn't listen to what she said at all. Whatever she said, it was completely ignored.

"I want to go to the bathroom." Emma said quickly as a maid passed by her.

She had never felt so embarrassed.

However, the passing maid didn't dare to answer her.

Alina was sitting where she sat in the morning. She had been peeling apples all the morning. Now, she was pruning flowers.

The sound of scissors was like cutting a person's fingerbones, making people dare not stay around her for half a second.

So the maid didn't dare to talk with Emma at all. She just hurried past her.

Emma really wanted to pee.

She hadn't been to the bathroom once since the morning. Now she was thirsty, but she didn't dare to drink water...

She looked at Alina, “You have to torture me like this, don’t you?”
