

I'm Richer Than My Billionaire Ex-husband Chapter 180

"Click." The rose in Alina's hand was cut off the flower. The sound was so crisp and sharp that Emma couldn't help but felt creepy.

The resentment that she had built up from the morning to now was fiercely suppressed by Alina's sharp scissors.

Alina looked at Emma, "What did you just say?"

It seemed that she was unhappy by being disturbed.

The scissors were even more terrifying than the fruit knife in the morning. Emma just swallowed what she wanted to say.

She was wrong, really wrong.

Before, she underestimated Alina's position in the Collins family.

Therefore, she naively believed that Alina must be a shame for the Collins family as long as others knew that she entangled with Chester and Caleb.

Emma believed that as long as she told Vanessa what she saw in AIG, then Alina would lose her status in the Collins family.

After losing the status in the Collins family, Alina would completely lose her backers.

So, she couldn't still stay in Ingford any longer.

But now, not only did Alina not leave, but also she, Emma, was almost sent by Chester to a place like Costley. Yesterday in Collins Castle, when she heard that he was going to send her there, she was so scared.

Staying in the same room with a madman like Alina, she preferred to be sent to Costley.

In that place, she might have a slightly better life, right? But what the hell was this?

"Alina, I lost. I throw in the towel." Finally, Emma couldn't help but looked at Alina.

Even if Emma was so proud, when she thought that she was about to pee on her pants, she still admitted defeat.

"How could you lose?" Alina smiled.

That smile was as gentle as last night.

She didn't buy it.

"Why are you torturing me like this?" Emma looked at Alina sadly.

She probably never thought about that with Caleb by her side, she was still humiliated like this.

This was something she would never have thought of before, but now...

Alina looked at her and said with a smile, "I'm torturing you? I didn't do anything to you."

"He asked me to understand him. I understand you guys very well."

Emma's face turned even paler.

Alina didn't do anything, but just because she didn't do anything, it made her even more flustered.

Emma looked at Alina who was almost crazy.

"With so many people watching here, what have I done to you?" Alina was still doing her own things.

She pruned the flowers so carelessly. But in Emma's ears, the clicking sounds almost drove her crazy.

In the end, Emma couldn't help it.

At that moment, she felt embarrassed like never before.

At this time, Alina frowned and shouted to Lois, "Lois, what smell?"

The fear on Emma's already pale face was also replaced by anger. She would rather die than feel such embarrassment.

All the fear now turned into anger. She glared at Alina, "Alina, go to hell."

Alina was humiliating her.

She did it on purpose.

Lois came over with a group of servants. Immediately she said in disgust and annoyance, "Oh, what does this smell like? Hurry up and find it out. Clean it up quickly."

Hearing Lois' words, Emma was constantly trembling.

She was furious.

She glared at Alina viciously, "Alina, just go to hell."

Alina, "Even so many roses can't cover up this smell."

Go to hell?

Alina sneered.

Three years ago, with this woman's tricks, she almost died in Hasnan's cold water.

"Will you not go to hell?"

Alina looked at Emma, a gloomy light flashing in her eyes.

At this moment, Alina was like a queen standing on the top. Emma still couldn't reach her place even if she had worked hard for so many years.

No matter how hard Emma tried and no matter how much Alina lost, Alina's status was still unshakable. She still stood at heights that Emma couldn't reach.

It made Emma jealous and also made her hate.

"Oh, Miss Bell, what are you doing?" Lois exclaimed.

It completely pulled Emma back, who was lost in hatred. She just wanted to hide into the cracks in the ground...

She wanted to leave.

She really wanted to leave.

Before, she wanted to be by Caleb's side and wanted to live in this house which was a symbol of being his wife.

But now she just wanted to leave. Here, every minute was torture for her now.

"Hurry up and clean it up. Master Caleb will be unhappy when he comes back."

Lois asked some servants to clean it up.

All the servants were looking at Emma with great contempt.

Emma had always appeared by Caleb's side with the most perfect side, but what about now?

What was this?

Such an unbearable side was shown in this way, which made her feel embarrassed and angry.

After cleaning up, Emma was moved to a small couch, right next to Alina.

Alina almost sat in place without moving during the whole process.

Emma asked, "Are you satisfied?"

Thinking of the way those people looked at her just now, Emma just wanted to kill herself. Since she was by Caleb's side, no one had ever looked at her with such disdain, but now, these people had given her enough contempt just because of Alina.

Alina looked at Emma with a smile. This smile was so dazzling, which made Emma feel embarrassed.

At this moment, she just felt so ashamed.

Undoubtedly, she was unwilling to let Alina see her most embarrassing side.

"You could walk, eat and draw before." "Click." "You could also take the scissors."

Yes.

Alina was right. She could have been fine. If she didn't play those tricks in Oklens, her hands would have been fine.

If she didn't force Caleb, her legs would have been fine.

But what about now?

She lost her right hand and right leg. What did it end up with? She got nothing she should get from Caleb.
