

I'm Richer Than My Billionaire Ex-husband Chapter 184

That is where she suffers.

Butler, "Yes, but Lady Alina, now, is also completely different from three years ago."

"I like it different." Although, she wasn't too fond of girls with a heart of gold.

But to be bullied and not to be bullied back, that kind of nature is not really pleasing.

"Emma can't say what she's going through now."

"Yeah, she wanted to live at Werland Villa by all means, but now that she's living there, she's not going to be able to stand it."

"Yeah."

Vanessa nodded her head in satisfaction.

She said, "Tell Chester not to let Werland Villa end so easily."

"Yes."

The butler understood what Vanessa was saying.

If Chester had to get Emma to Costsley at this point in time, Caleb would not dare let Emma out of Werland Villa.

And Emma, over the years, got much benefit from Caleb, it goes without saying, this is also a lot of trouble.

That's what Vanessa hates most about her.

Plus Alina because of the incident three years ago, there is already resentment in the heart, and now the two together, Alina's anger will be taken out on Emma.

All these years, how much did Emma get out of Caleb?

It's only right that she should suffer now.

The Collins would have loved it if the three of them had really ended things between Caleb and Alina.

It's a scenario Emma would never have thought of. If she'd known Alina was such a big deal at Collins Castle, she would never have dared to take the risk of getting involved with Chester.

Now she's in a difficult position with no way in or out.

.....

Emma probably had no idea that Collins Castle had a hand in making her look like this.

It's been a night.

Caleb hadn't come back, and last night, the maids had taken her upstairs and left her alone.

There was that scene during the day.

Emma hadn't slept well, she was afraid that Alina would break in in the middle of the night.

Alina was so crazy that she could do something crazy.

She was scared.

Alina was a madwoman and would do anything.

It was a long way to dawn.

When she thought that Caleb hadn't come home last night, Emma didn't know what the day had in store for her.

Although Alina hadn't done anything to her yesterday, it looked like she was going to do something to her at any moment.

Emma felt suffocated just thinking about it.

At the breakfast table, Caleb was away, and the food were Alina's favourites.

"Lois."

"Yes, Lady Alina."

"Let's have eels for lunch."

At those words, Emma, sitting opposite, turned white on her face. At that moment, she thought about what Alina was going to do.

She was trembling with fear.

Alina, "Get the live ones, fresh."

What was that thing it like? The mere thought of that body made one shudder.

“Alina, you can’t do this to me, I...” Emma looked at Alina like she was crazy.

The scene, even now, was terrifying just thinking about it, she thought Alina was crazy, and if she continued like this, she was about to be driven mad by it.

In fact, now that she was on the road to madness, Alina was really a madman, it was horrible.

Alina, “What’s the problem?”

She looked at Emma with those big innocent eyes.

Emma thought she’s really crazy. Alina was acting.

“You’re going to get back at me, what are you going to do, do it quick.” What was the point of taking the most horrific of these?

She was really going crazy.

Alina looked sarcastically at Emma.

She thought that Emma never knew about this.

Lois could see what the reaction was, and knew exactly what Alina was up to.

“Don’t worry, Lady Alina, I’ll go and buy it myself. I’ll get the biggest one.”

The biggest? Wouldn’t that be exactly the same as the snake? Emma’s face was already pale when she thought about it.

Shivering, she looked at Alina and tried to say something, but nothing came out at the moment.

Begging her?

Emma knew that Alina was doing this on purpose, and if she begged her. She would only make it worse.

.....

Lois was really good at her job and actually bought the biggest eel she could find.

It was like a snake.

“Let’s see.” Alina grabbed one without any fear at all.

Alina looked as if she was going to throw it at her the next moment.

While Lois had been out, she had called Caleb over and over again, but Caleb had no intention of answering her calls.

Since when does Caleb never answer her calls when he's out?

It was because of Alina.

"Alina." Emma shivered terribly the moment Alina looked at her carelessly.

She was trembling all over.

She was really scared.

Ever since she was girl, she had been terrified of that thing.

Alina, "There's nothing to be afraid of."

"Don't come over here." Emma was incoherent with fear the moment Alina stood up.

"I beg you."

Finally, she said it to Alina.

No matter how ambitious she had been before, no matter how dignified she had been before. Again and again, she told herself not to beg her.

But when she saw the thing rolled up in a ball, Emma felt that her world had been eclipsed.

Just as Alina was about to drop it right on top of her, Alina's phone vibrated.

"Hello."

"Miss Hughes, we're..." Alina's face changed.

"I'll be right over."
