

I'm Richer Than My Billionaire Ex-husband Chapter 188

Many possibilities had come to his mind.

When he had asked Tomas to look into it, he had even thought that wherever she was, she must not be with Chester.

And now, what did he see?

And now the unexplainable image of it had been completely confirmed.

Caleb didn't even know how to get Alina away from Chester.

In the car.

The car was on the road to Werland Villa.

The sound of his lighter was so sharp that one could hear the anger he was holding back.

He took a sharp puff from his lighted cigarette and tried to hold back his anger, "Don't you have anything to say to me?"

"What do you want to hear?" Alina's tone, at the moment, was also excruciatingly cold.

Caleb looked at her with stern eyes.

The next moment, there was a force on her neck, the man squeezing her neck so hard that he almost wanted to crush her in this moment.

So, up until now, Alina didn't want to say anything to him.

"Alina, do you know that..."

"Do you know what you are?"

Looking at the man with such cold anger, Alina said sarcastically, "Do you know what you're doing?"

It was Caleb who was doing the worst job of all, wasn't it?

"She's only in Werland Villa for a while, I'll deal with that soon."

"Mistress and wife under one roof, that's what you're dealing with?"

"You..."

“Who are you to ask me?”

Alina asked with a cold voice.

Never before had Alina questioned him, not even when she had come back to Ingford from Shirling.

And now she was so out of control, why?

Because, Chester?

In Caleb’s mind, it was probably because he had just interrupted their conversation? And that’s why Alina is like this?

That must be the reason.

“Heh.” With a cold laugh, he shook Alina off.

Alina was free.

She said, “Get a divorce.”

There was no need to say anything between her and Caleb now.

If Caleb was wise enough, he would have known that they were in such a state that there was no way out.

So why torture each other like this?

Caleb, “Don’t even think about it.”

“I’m informing you.” Alina’s tone was cold.

She was so cold that it was impossible to associate her with the person she was three years ago.

“Is it because of Chester?” The trips to North and South Srey and Alina were linked.

The thought of them hugging each other at the Royal Landscape Restaurant just now made it even more obvious that they had been together for a long time.

Alina was silent.

For such a madman, she doesn’t have to deny or explain anything, because even if she does, he won’t believe her.

And her silence undoubtedly reinforced Caleb’s inner conviction.

“Alina, do you know what kind of man he is? How dare you be with him?” Caleb looked at Alina intensely.

Caleb really wanted to break Alina’s neck at this moment.

But then Alina said, “He’s better than you, no matter what kind of person he is.”

In fact, what she wanted to say was that every man in the world was better than him, but in the end she said that, which made Caleb even more convinced.

Caleb felt like a fool at the moment.

For three years, he had thought that he had wronged Alina, and he had felt guilty.

And now, what was that guilt?

She and her brother had been together for a long time, and now, judging by the Collins family’s attitude, the Collins family knew about it.

And they supported them.

He, on the other hand, had been the only one in the dark about them all along.

“You want me to make it work, dream on.” After a lot of thought, Caleb was angry.

Was he that easy to be bullied?

In his world, there was never any fulfillment.

Alina looked at him indifferently.

Such emotions, unprecedented and dangerous, had never appeared in Alina’s world before, no matter what happened.

And today, now she’s completely turned on him for Chester?

“Don’t worry, if I want to divorce you, I’ll find a way to do it.” Alina said coldly, word for word.

If Caleb can use the means to get her back, then she can also use the means to get a divorce.

The Fashion Show was too busy.

So she didn’t have time to do it, but now it’s different. Whatever it is in her world, it doesn’t matter anymore.

Her attitude is hard.

Caleb looked at Alina and felt so strange.

“You are tough.”

Caleb said after a long time.

Alina, “You too.”

.....

Caleb wasn't going to let it go.

Especially when he found out that the relationship was even acknowledged by the Collins, his inner circle went wild.

Caleb now feels as if the whole world has betrayed him.

How could he allow that?

Finally.

Alina was brought back to Werland Villa, and Emma was now terrified at the sight of Alina.

“Caleb.” she said, looking at Caleb pitifully, hoping that Caleb would listen to her more.

It was clear that Emma was now panicking to the max. Especially as she had no chance of finding Caleb if he went outside.

Even here she had to endure Alina's torture again and again.

Emma wanted to talk to Caleb as soon as she saw him.

It was a rare opportunity.

However, when she saw the danger in Alina's eyes beside Caleb, her heart was tense.
